JAMES CURREY, S. C.

Charlestown, November 6th, 1821.

AN ESTRAY.

Taken up by Aaron O. Belding, living in Jackson county on Muskakawick river, Grassy-fork Township one Black Horse, supposed to be 18 years old—a bald face, a great many saddle marks on both sides of his back, some marks with the collar, both hind feet white to the pastern joint, supposed to be about 14 hands high, the left eye out about 1/2 put on with a leather collar, and buckle, thought to be worth about 75 cents, docked long—appraised to 10 dollars and 75 cents by John Fiskar and Jeremiah Rogers, before me, WILLIAM RUSSELL, J. p.
Sept. 16th, 1821.

NOTICE.

The Agent to pay the United States invalid and Revolutionary Pension in the state of Indiana, informs those who are entitled to receive Pension that he is now in possession of the money to pay them; those who wish their business done by an attorney, will be particular to pursue strictly the law as furnished by the government; otherwise they will be run to unnecessary expense.
