

Latest News of the Most Important Events in Indiana from the Journal's Correspondents

YOUNG WOMAN TRIES TO BECOME A BANK FORGER

She Buys $2 Draft at Washington Which Swells to $1,200 at Vincennes.

NO ARREST IS MADE

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Ind., April 6.—A young woman attempted to swindle the People's National Bank of this city by forgery today. She purchased a draft for $2, payable to Laura McKay. A few hours afterward the draft was presented by a woman at a bank in Vincennes, twenty miles west, but it had been raised to $1,200. The forgery was detected and the bank here was notified. A woman named Laura McKay, formerly with the Laura McKay Burlesque company, was here to-day searching for a missing trunk. She displayed considerable money and is alleged to have remarked that she had a $1,200 draft. This woman left on an afternoon train.

FORMER SALOON MAN ON TICKET FOR MAYOR

Prohibitionists Nominate Strother Pierson in Meeting at Terre Haute.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 6.—The Prohibitionists met last night in a private residence and put a ticket in the field for the city election. Strother Pierson, a contractor, was nominated for mayor. A few years ago he was a saloon keeper, whose place gave the police much trouble. His career as a saloon keeper culminated in his killing a man named Joyce, who was drunk in his saloon one Sunday. Pierson was acquitted by a jury on the ground of self-defense, but it was a narrow escape.

PROF. EMMERICH IS A GUEST AT PURDUE

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 6.—Professor Charles E. Emmerich, of Indianapolis Manual Training High School, and a party from Indianapolis, visited Purdue University today at the invitation of President Winthrop E. Stone and were cordially received upon their arrival. The morning session of the faculty at Purdue this morning was devoted to the presentation of Professor Emmerich. He was escorted through the various buildings and the workshops and laboratories and later dined with President Stone and other members of the faculty at the Hotel Lehr. At the evening session at Purdue this morning Professor Emmerich spoke in favor of the plan and his talk did much to instill interest into the student body. President Stone urged all students to give the project cordial support and said that the exercises would be the most elaborate ever held at Purdue.

CLERK RESIGNS AND ENDS OFFICE DISPUTE

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RENNELAER, Ind., April 6.—John F. Major, clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court, to-day forwarded his resignation to the secretary of state to take effect Saturday, April 30, which is four days before his original term of four years would expire. Mr. Major is a Democrat and was elected in 1898 by a majority of six votes. Mr. Major has resigned in time to cause a vacancy and the commissioners will meet the same day and appoint Mr. Warner, the clerk-elect, who will thus be in possession of the office whichever way the Supreme Court decides. Mr. Major, the retiring clerk, does not wish to retain the office any longer, as he has large landed interests in Virginia, which require his attention.

YOUNG MAN'S BODY FOUND IN A DITCH

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 6.—The body of David Fritz, Jr., aged twenty years, was found in a ditch filled with water on the Valentine farm, in Lake township, at noon today. The young man, who was subject to epileptic fits, had been missing since Monday. It is supposed that he was seized with a convulsion when unobserved, he fell into the water. The discovery of the body was made by his father, who was passing along the road searching for the young man.

FARMER DROWNS IN THE FLOOD NEAR VINCENNES

Henry Sieverts Falls from a Wagon Into Water and Loses His Life.

AGED MAN FOUND DYING

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. VINCENNES, Ind., April 6.—Henry Sieverts was drowned this evening in lower Vincennes township by falling from a wagon into backwater. The wheels of the wagon pinned him down until he was drowned. Ben Blankenship, sixty years old, living alone in a hut in Harrison township, was found in a dying condition this evening and he cannot recover. He was taken from his water-bound home. The County Commissioners have appropriated $2,000 for the repair of bridges destroyed by the flood.

YOUNG MAN IS KILLED WHILE HUNTING DUCKS

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RENNELAER, Ind., April 6.—Everett B. Crane, nineteen years old, son of a wealthy farmer and stock dealer of near Wingate, this State, was instantly killed Tuesday morning while in the Kanawha marshes hunting ducks. He was shooting from a boat and in the same boat with him was another young man from Thayer, Newton county, named Harvey Downey. It is believed Crane was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of Downey, but Downey declares it was Crane's own gun that was discharged. The coroner is investigating.

SALE OF TELEPHONE PLANT IS REPORTED

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 6.—It is announced on the streets today that the Bloomington Telephone Company has been bought by the same independent system operating at Bedford, Seymour and Louisville. The price to be paid is $20,000 and the transfer to take place May 1. The present company officers are: President, J. D. Shaw; treasurer, W. W. Wicks; secretary, Walter Bradford; and superintendent, Fred Shoemaker. The plant was built and owned by the twenty-year franchise has been secured.

FATALLY BURNED BY FLAMING GASOLINE

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELKHART, Ind., April 6.—While Mrs. Fred Killins, aged twenty-eight years, was lighting a gasoline stove in the basement of her home on the corner of Third and Main streets, she was fatally burned before she could reach the second floor, where other tenants were. She died five hours later. Her husband and seven brothers and sisters survive.

MURRAY CONVICTED AT TERRE HAUTE

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 6.—Robert Murray, of Indianapolis, was to-day found guilty of swindling, and sentence will be pronounced to-morrow. He is the man who, under the name of Cunningham, engaged rooms at a hotel for capitalists whom he, as a broker from New York, was to meet here, and paid for the rooms. Then he became a high roller and cashed several bad checks. No capitalists appeared.

Will of Mrs. Ridgway.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., April 6.—By the terms of the will of Mrs. Malinda Hunt Ridgway, probated to-day, the sum of $100 is bequeathed to the state headquarters of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Indianapolis, $100 to the Hadley Industrial Institute at Hadley, $100 to the Francis Willard Hospital at Chicago and the balance of the estate is divided among relatives. Mrs. Ridgway gave away more than $10,000 for charitable, temperance and church work during the last few years of her life.

Drops Dead on the Street.
Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WARSAW, Ind., April 6.—David Felter, a well-known citizen of this place, dropped dead on the sidewalk while returning home from work. Apoplexy is assigned as the cause of his death. He was fifty-seven years of age and leaves a widow and three children.

MINERS MUST WORK OR SCALE WILL NOT BE SIGNED

Operators Refuse to Carry on Negotiations Unless Mines Are Manned.

DELEGATES TO GO HOME

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 6.—Just when it was expected by both operators and miners that the joint scale committee would be ready to report an agreement to-day the operators on the committee notified the miners' representatives that they would not proceed further until the miners who are refusing to work pending a settlement return to the mines. It is reported that one-third of the miners in the State are refusing to work. The operators hold that under the arrangement at Indianapolis the men should continue to work pending settlement. The miners' officials say there is nothing obligatory in the agreement itself, but that the miners' officials in good faith advised the men to continue at work and that the men themselves are the losers by remaining out of the mines. This afternoon the miners' delegates to the number of 100 were called together and told that they could go home. If final action here was impossible until the miners returned to work.

To End Strike in Iowa.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., April 6.—An official call was issued for miners' headquarters here for a joint meeting of operators and miners on April 11, at which it is certain some agreement will be reached and the differences between the miners and operators satisfactorily adjusted. It is predicted that the 13,000 striking miners in Iowa will be at work within a week.

MOTHER RISKS LIFE TO SAVE HER CHILD

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., April 6.—While Mrs. Andrew Mobley, of near Hartsville, was walking on the brink of a stone quarry she slipped and fell to the bed of the rocky, eight feet below. She was carrying her infant child in her arms, and threw herself sideways to save the child's life. Mrs. Mobley's left arm was broken in two places and the elbow thrown out of joint. She was bruised and injured internally. The child was not hurt in the least.

STRIKE IS FEARED IN THE KENTUCKY FIELD

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 6.—The conference between the delegates representing the Kentucky coal miners and operators, to which President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers was a party, ended to-day in a disagreement and a strike seems inevitable. The union officers claim there are 6,000 union miners in Kentucky and of these nearly 5,000 are at work at the present time. It is expected the men will quit work to-morrow night or Friday.

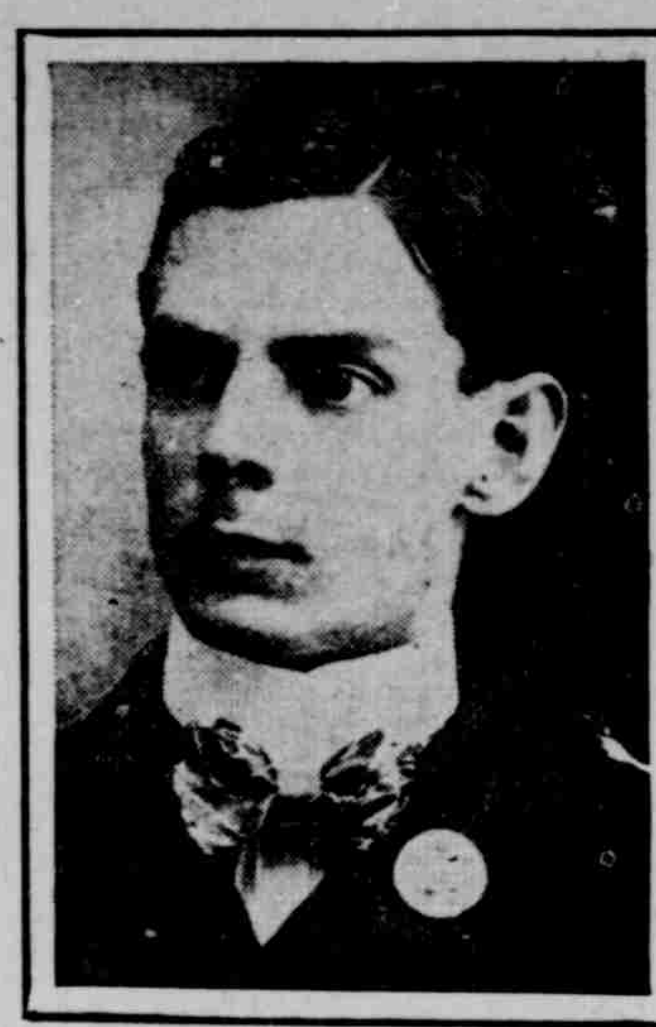

BLOOMINGTON TRIES TO WIPE OUT THE SALOONS

Effort Being Made to Prevent Granting of a Single License.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 6.—The hearing of the liquor remonstrance cases before the County Commissioners has created intense interest for the last two days. Because of the large crowds the courtroom has been used. All the saloons of Bloomington are in the first ward, and applications for license are now being made. The remonstrances show a majority of over thirty against granting license, and the efforts of the saloons have been directed toward having some of the signatures declared illegal. Many women are attending the trial. Colonel Ritter is here assisting the temperance people, and another day will be required.

River Rising at Petersburg.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PETERSBURG, Ind., April 6.—White river has risen over six inches since yesterday and is still rising. Unless heavy rains begin to fall no damage is anticipated.

ARTHUR JACKSON.
Kokomo Youth, Whose Body Was Found in Wild Cat Creek.

THEORY OF MURDER NOT SUPPORTED BY AUTOPSY

Physicians Say Arthur Jackson Met Death by Drowning at Kokomo.

NO MONEY IN POCKETS

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., April 6.—The dead body of Arthur Jackson was found in Wildcat creek this afternoon. Jackson disappeared three weeks ago. On the night of the tragedy people living near the place where the body was found heard loud and angry cries made by at least two voices, one of the hearers claimed, and foul play was suspected.

At 10 o'clock to-night an autopsy was held in the Keller morgue, at which Coroner Harrison and Doctors R. D. Barner and J. L. Ross were present. A careful examination failed to show any mark whatever on the body of the dead boy, and it was clear to those conducting the examination that Jackson died from drowning. On the night of Jackson's disappearance from the South Side saloon he was accompanied by John and Fred Siler, all being badly intoxicated. The Siler brothers were arrested and fined for intoxication. They were thoroughly searched, but told a plausible story and were not held for Jackson's disappearance. The body was identified by Jackson's brother-in-law, I. N. Gipe. It was found under a log by David Bernier, who was catching driftwood. The body had fallen or was thrown from the levee near where it was found, being nearly a mile out of Jackson's way home from the saloon. He had about $12 in money in his possession that night, but no money was found on the body.

MURDERER IS MOCKED BY MUSIC IN HIS PLAYHOUSE

John Terrell, Who Owns Newly Opened Theater, Lies in Jail Across Street.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLUFFTON, Ind., April 6.—The new Terrell Grand Theater, built at a cost of $50,000, was opened to-night with the play, "Our New Minister." This is the theater which was built almost entirely from money furnished by John W. Terrell, who is in jail in a cell directly opposite the opera house under sentence to life imprisonment for the shooting and killing of his son-in-law, Melvin Wolfe. Although he furnished the money for the building, Terrell cannot attend the opening, and as he lies in his cell across the street he hears the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery—that is, if he is able to comprehend what is transpiring. He has been denied insane by physicians and by a jury of twelve men and has been lying in the jail several weeks awaiting the pleasure of the courts as to his disposition. As he became insane after the jury's verdict was given the music of the orchestra as if in mockery