

Purchases Two Buses For St. Patrick School

Mrs. John Garab Jr., was elected president of the St. Patrick's Women's Club last Wednesday at their annual picnic dinner meeting. The affair was held at the Koontz Lake home of Mrs. Del Blocher.

Others elected were Mrs. Jerry Raines, vice president; Mrs. Charles Neary, secretary, and Mrs. Clyde Gaw, treasurer. Mrs. Eerville Kaercher presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Ora Harder.

Highlight of the meeting was the purchase of two new 60 passenger 1962 model school buses for St. Patrick School at a cost of $12,000. The club set $4,000 towards their cost.

Other business was the announcement of the annual fall fashion show which will be staged in October by Wyman's Department Store, with Mrs. Howard Knowlton making the arrangements.

A bake sale was set following each of the masses this Sunday and another bake sale the last Sunday in August. It was agreed to dispense with the regular August 1 meeting and instead go in a body to the Lady of Fatima Retreat, Notre Dame, August 8, with the DCCW. The local group here will gather on the grounds at the conclusion for a brief meeting about 3 p.m. Reservations for the dinner and transportation must be called to Mrs. Frank Kramer, Parish chairman, by August 1. The retreat begins at 8 a.m.

Hostesses served a cooperative luncheon preceding the meeting. Mrs. Russell Knowlton was in charge with Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mrs. Bert Albaugh, Mrs. Henry Hertzfeld, and Mrs. Joe Kotal as hostesses.

Aliyoshi Aoki Speaks To 4-H Clubs

Akiyoshi Aoki, a representative of IFYE visiting the Howard Clingenpeel family a few weeks this summer, was guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Walkerton-Lincoln Township 4-H clubs Friday night at the High School Building. He showed slides of his native land in Apucarana, Parana Brazil, and told of 4-H activities in his country as well as farming conditions there. He leaves early Friday morning for his next stop in America, which is South Dakota.

Both 4-H Clubs also met individually and checked in record books. They planned their float which will be in the opening ceremonies of the parade at the St. Joseph County Fair Tuesday evening, July 31. The local 4-H queen and king will ride on the float prior to the announcement of the County winners.

The annual 4-H tour will be held July 24, meeting at the High School. After demonstrations are completed, they will go to the home of Mike Ross to see his beekeeping and garden. Then the scene will shift to Swanson's Sale Barn for exhibits of swine, horses and ponies. A sack lunch will be enjoyed at the Howard Clingenpeel farm, drinks furnished. Tom Clingenpeel will give a beef demonstration followed by baseball, swimming, and ending the tour at 4 p.m.

BEACH PARTY FOR YOUTH
The youth of the Methodist Church enjoyed a beach party at Culver last Thursday, which included swimming and refreshments. There were around 28 in attendance. They were accompanied by Mrs. Robert Awald, Mrs. Stanley Tuttle, Mrs. Clyde Stickley, Mrs. H. E. Williams and Mrs. Leigh Roy Hahn. Mrs. Hahn was in charge of the party.

Money may talk—but so do many people who don't have it.
