

Three Coaches Hired For New School Year

A football coach at Walkerton and a new coach and promotion at Tyner have completed the coaching ranks for the Polk-Lincoln United School Corp. for the coming school year. Jim Ridgour, in his first year at Walkerton, is coming back next year and will be assisted by John Bingamon at Walkerton.

Harold Muncie, coach for the past nine years at Tyner, will move up to the principal's position and James Drews, the present assistant coach, will move to the head coaching job. John Hans, who graduates this year from Manchester College, will assist Drews at Tyner.

John W. Bingamon, coach and teacher at Warren high school during the past year, has been named head football coach at Walkerton. It was announced. Bingamon is a graduate of New Carlisle high school in 1957 and Ball State Teachers College in 1961. He will teach industrial arts.

James Drews, assistant basketball coach at Tyner during the past campaign, will move up to the head coaching job, succeeding Hal Muncie, who has been elevated to school principal. Drews graduated from Knox high school where he participated in three varsity sports, and he received a bachelor of science degree from Indiana Central College in 1962.

N. L. 1st Graders Visit Greenhouse

On May 8th, the North Liberty School first grade children and their teachers, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Mobley, traveled to the Whitmer Greenhouse in North Liberty to learn about the spring flowers. The children saw many kinds of flowers, and also the tables and room where the various types of baskets and corsages are made up. Each pupil was given a small flower by the Whitmers.

The class picnic will be held Wednesday, noon, May 22. The first grade boys and girls will go to the North Liberty Park for a picnic lunch and games.
