CHRISTIAN LIFELINES

In a world of great mechanical and scientific advances we are now concerned with reaching into space improving our standard of living, and living the full life. Yet, in our world we find bitterness, hate, and misunderstandings threatening to tear the world asunder.

Even now, in the heart of the "free Christian nation" we find hatred and fear at work. James (4:12) raises the question, "Who are you that you judge your neighbor?" We all know that we are to "love one another with brotherly affection." Romans (12:10)
But we need to pause to reconsider who this refers to.

As Jesus taught us in the parable of the Good Samaritan, the one who is our neighbor and our brother includes those of other races and social registers.
Paul said "for now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face." We find that there are many things that cloud the issues of life. We are not able to see the right and wrong of a situation clearly. We may feel that we are certainly right, and we may be all wrong.
Let us live at peace with one another judging no one.
In the racial violence of our day let us pray for the individuals involved on both sides, and in our daily living let us meet and receive all people in love as God's children.
