SCHELLHASE Purdue
LEE Vanderbilt
WALKER Providence

Michigan's Cazzie Russell heads the 1966 All-America basketball team selected by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. Russell, the only repeater from last year's squad, compiled 2,132 points in the balloting, conducted annually for the Wheaties Sports Federation. Joining the 6-6 Wolverine guard on the first team are Vanderbilt's Clyde Lee, James Walker of Providence, Dave Schellhase of Purdue and Dave Bing of Syracuse.
