New Adult Books (Fiction)
Case For Three Detectives — Leo Bruce. This is possibly the most unusual mystery ever written. A murder is committed, behind closed doors, in bizarre circumstances. Three amateur detectives take the case. Each arrives at his own brilliant solution.
The Fifth Horseman — Larry Collins and Dominique LaPierre. The threat of Liby's Colonil Quad-daf to explode a three-megaton nuclear bomb hidden in New York, unless and autonomous Palestinian state is immediately established, affects the lives of ordinary citizens, politicians, secret agents and terrorists from Washington to Jerusalem.
Loon Lake — E. L. Doctorow. In the Great Depression of the 1930's, a tempestuous young man from Paterson, New Jersey, who has been both a hobo and carnival roustabout, finds himself lost one night beside a single-track railroad in the Adirondack Mountains.
The Florentine Table — Paul Durst. Liz Armacost receives a table for her birthday and her husband Ray notices that the face on the table seems to change — angelic faces becoming ghastly, leering visages — as a series of peculiar deaths occur.

The Blue Guitar — Nicholas Hassel. Charming, adventurous and ambitious, Dyson Garrick suffers from one fatal flaw — his reluctance to harm anyone — a flaw which causes him, unwittingly, to betray his wife, his mistress, his manager and himself.
Firestarter — Stephen King. Participation in an experiment by a covert government agency left Andy McGee with a psychic power and produced even stronger, more menacing abilities in his daughter — and now the agency will stop at nothing to get control of the young girl.
Consequence Of Crime — Elizabeth Linington. In this briskly paced, meticulously detailed police story, the famous LAPD's team of Ivor and Sue Maddox cope with a knifing, a series of women assaulted and raped in a laundromat, murder of a bit-time TV star, a knife-wielding wedding party, a flasher, two kidnapped girls and an "ape man" killer.
A Wayside Tavern — Norah Lofts. The history of England from the time the Romans were driven out to the present is told through the stormy history of a wayside inn and a chapel built near it.

Athabasca — Alistair MacLean. An ex-wildcat oil firefighter is called in to stop the blackmail, murder and terrorisms that are being used to gain control of the oil fields along the Arctic shores of Alaska.
No Love Lost — Helen Van Slyke. A richly plotted romantic novel whose memorable characters capture the conflicts of the modern woman and the courage it takes to be true to one's self.
Poinciana — Phyllis Whitney. After the sudden death of her parents, a 25-year old Sharon Hollis accepts the protection of an old family friend in the form of marriage to 60-year-old Ross Logan, one of America's wealthiest oil men — a marriage which offers as much danger as security.
New Non-Fiction
The Book Of Lists #2 — Irving Wallace. Packed between these covers are fresh lists (and the inside stories behind).
The Third Wave — Alvin Toffler. More than an illumination of tomorrow, it provides a brilliant analysis of the forces that are creating our new civilization.
New Lives For Former Wives — Nancy Baker. Discusses the problems of women who have centered their lives around their homes and then find themselves forces into the job market by divorce, separation, or death of a spouse and offers advice on how to handle these problems.
Dancing Without Music — Beryl L. Benderly. Discusses various aspects of deafness — what it is and its varying degrees, the impact of deafness on an individual and those around him, the different causes of deafness and its psychological and social implications.
Encyclopedia Of Wood — Forests Product Laboratory. You'll find everything you need to know and more, from chapters on structure, physical and mechanical properties, lumber stress grades, gluing, and plywood — to moisture control, fire resistance, painting, finishing and preservation.

Soon To Be A Major Motion Picture — Abbie Hoffman. The famous American fugitive and Yippie founder tells of his beginnings in Worcester, Mass., his school years and involvement in the civil-rights movement and other events and crusades that have changed American culture.
Cashing In At The Checkout — Susan Samtur. The new and incredibly easy system for using discounts, coupons, refunds and labels to cut your supermarket bill by as much as 80 percent.

Making Your Own Motor Fuel — Fred Stetson. Instructions on how to make and produce your own motor fuel with home and farm alcohol stills.

REP. RICHARD W. MANGUS
OPINION POLL FOR 1981

Now that State Representative Richard W. Mangus (R-Lakeville) is back in Indianapolis for the 1981 session of the Indiana General Assembly, he wants to take with him the results of a local opinion poll as a guide to his decision-making.
Mangus is asking District 10 citizens to take a moment to complete the short questionnaire on proposals expected to come before the House for a vote.
The completed poll should be returned to him at the House of Representatives, Room 401-5, State House, Indianapolis, Indiana 46219.
Mangus urged participants to include any additional comments about the issues raised in the poll with their response.
"I am looking forward to a productive and interesting session," Mangus said.
The Legislative Services Agency which drafts bills for legislators, is projecting that about 2,240 bills will be introduced during the 61 day session, and they will touch on such issues as reduced revenues, jobs, hazardous waste disposal, reapportionment and lobby reform, to name a few.
"I value the views of my constituents on these matters, and am hopeful the poll response will be heavy," Mangus concluded.

WHAT'S YOUR OPINION?

1. Do you favor legislation which would update, and tighten loop-holes, in Indiana's 1915 Lobbyist Registration Act? ☐ Yes ☐ No
2. Do you favor legislation which would enact a mandatory motor vehicle inspection program in Indiana to replace the one that was repealed last year? ☐ Yes ☐ No
3. Do you favor legislation which would increase cigarette taxes? ☐ Yes ☐ No
4. Do you favor legislation which would increase alcoholic beverage taxes? ☐ Yes ☐ No
5. Do you favor multi-bank holding companies? ☐ Yes ☐ No
6. Do you favor the construction of additional penal facilities? ☐ Yes ☐ No
7. Do you favor a repeal of the new pre-marital blood tests for rubella and Rh factor information at an average cost of $80 per couple? Proponents say the tests reduce the chance of birth defects. Opponents say it is an unnecessary expense because the tests must be performed again at the time of pregnancy to be effective. ☐ Repeal ☐ Keep the test
8. Local government is currently caught between frozen property taxes and high inflation. Do you favor legislation which would permit local government to raise additional revenue for budget purposes at the local level? ☐ Yes ☐ No
If your answer is "Yes", which method would you prefer? (Please rank your choices from 1 to 5 in order of preference)
☐ Allow counties to impose a 1% local option income tax.
☐ Thaw out the property tax freeze so more money can be raised from local property taxes.
☐ Allow counties to impose a 1% local option sales tax.
☐ Increase cigarette and alcohol taxes with the revenue going to local government.
☐ Increase the state sales tax from 4% to 5% with the new sales tax money going to local government.
9. Do you think you should have to publicly declare your party preference in the primary? ☐ Yes ☐ No
10. How would you feel about the political parties holding a convention before the primary to determine which candidates for state office would appear on the primary ballot? Would you... ☐ Strongly Agree ☐ Agree ☐ No Opinion ☐ Disagree ☐ Strongly Disagree
11. Should the authority for determining the location of landfills rest with (choose one of the following):
☐ The Area Board of Zoning Appeals
☐ The County Council
☐ The County Commissioners
☐ The State Government
Do you want to be added to my mailing list? ☐ Yes
Other suggestions may be written on separate paper and attached to this questionnaire.
