Events For Sr. Citizens At State Fair

Once again a full array of fun and interesting events are scheduled for the Senior Citizens Building at the Indiana State Fair, August 15-26, according to State Fair Director James Buchanan.

Hoosier fairgoers of all ages will enjoy entertainment and activities provided by senior citizen "fun groups" from 16 State of Indiana Department on Aging and Community Service areas statewide.

Highlighting the 12-day program is the crowning of the Indiana Senior Queen by Gov. Robert D. Orr August 17 at 2:30 p.m. The tenth annual contest recognizes the individual chosen for lifetime personal, community and civic achievement. The winner serves as the official hostess of the Senior Citizens Building and is the ambassador/advocate for the 800,000 plus older Hoosiers.

An art contest and exhibition will be offered for senior citizens to display and sell handmade paintings, sculpture and photography. Informational booths are set up by diverse organizations to acquaint visitors to their services for people over 60.

Popular attractions among fellow senior citizens are the kitchen bands that perform daily at the Fair. Seniors expose unlimited creativity and talent through the design and musical use of sundry kitchen instruments. Typically, these run the gamut from washboards and kazoos to funnel trumpets and coffee can drums.

According to Bob Maze, Administrative Assistant to the Deputy Director of the Indiana Department on Aging, Fair days enable seniors to "focus on various skills, talents and fun". The free events in the air-conditioned facility keep senior citizens participating in this successful occasion year after year.

IN LOVING MEMORY

In loving memory of James C. Carey, who left us suddenly August 1, 1971.

Death tries to break but all in vain, to have, to love, and then to part.

In the greatest sorrow of one's heart the years may wipe out many things but this they wipe out never, the memory of those happy days when we were all together.

IN LOVING MEMORY

In loving memory of Raymond A. Clemons, who would have turned three years old August 5, 1984.

God took him from us December 18, 1981.

We know he has a beautiful home with God.

But it's hard to accept why God took our little Ray from us.

He gave those who were so near to him so much joy and happiness.

He's gone from us now but he is not forgotten, he's in our hearts.

There's not a day that goes by that we don't think about him.

He's so missed by everyone who loves him so much.
