

SENIOR CITIZEN BOWLING NEWS

It was another fine fall day for the Senior Bowlers, both outside and in the bowling alley. With 24 bowlers competing, evenly divided between ladies and gents, all enjoyed a good day and some fine exercise.

The charge down the alleys was led by Norma Long for the ladies. She captured all honors with a fine high game of 159, high handicap game of 226 and high series of 420! Betty Schrader gave Norma a close race with a 153 high game and 417 series. Nice bowling, ladies!

For the gents, Mel Devine outscored all the rest with a nice 201 high game, 242 high handicap game and a 552 series. Mel had a very good day. "Way to go, Mel!"
