Did any of you readers ever keep a diary? Well I did from 1966 to 1989 and then I decided who's ever going to look at these diaries anyhow, so I quit keeping one. Would you believe Mary Johnson of the Pine Creek Church area kept one for years. She wrote 100 years ago that on Saturday, 1892 it started snowing and blowing on January 2 and that her uncle took Lizzie to LaPaz and he bought Doc Hamilton's house and lot in LaPaz for $750.00. Wasn't that something? And then she said church meeting at Blissville, roads had drifted too much. She said on Sunday the 17th of January they went to the meeting house in the bobsled. Good sledding and good preaching by Dr. J. Hildebrand and J. Knisley. Now wasn't that rather interesting out of her diary 100 years ago?

Have you ever read the history of Marshall County, Indiana edition from 1836-1986. It was a dreary Sunday afternoon and so I really enjoyed reading about so many families I knew and their history. The one that really brought memories was that of John Haag (a neighbor when I was growing up). From 1908 till 1916 he was a local photographer doing his own developing and picture making for families, reunions, church groups and weddings. He also worked at Carter's Drug Store in Walkerton for several years. In 1935 he decided to go in the orchard business and he planted 28 acres of peaches, plums, apples and pears. And would you believe his son Verl and his wife are still serving the community today with fruits and vegetables from Haag's Orchard as it is well known from near and far. It is located between Tyner and Walkerton.

Entertaining Ideas

Banana Gingersnap Pudding

Try this up-to-date version of an old favorite and give your family a unique nostalgic treat.

1/3 cup sugar
2 1/2 tablespoons
cornstarch
2 cups low-fat milk
1 large egg, beaten
3 tablespoons dark
rum
4 medium bananas,
sliced
12 gingersnaps or
ginger crisps

Mix sugar and cornstarch together. Pour milk into medium-size microwaveproof bowl. Whisk in sugar mixture until cornstarch dissolves. Microwave on high 4 minutes, stirring once. Whisk a little of the hot milk mixture into beaten egg; return to bowl. Stir in rum. Microwave on high 1 to 2 minutes longer until custard thickens. Remove from heat; cool slightly. Slice a layer of 4 individual dessert dishes. Pour custard over top bananas. Serve warm or chilled. Makes 4 servings.

Conventional Method:
Mix sugar and cornstarch in medium saucepan; stir in milk. Cook, over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture begins to boil. Whisk some of hot milk mixture into beaten egg; return to saucepan. Bring to boiling, cook 1 minute. Follow procedure above.

America's Best Pies

Cinnamon and orange flavorings complement the blueberry filling of this pie from Sally Sibthorpe, of Troy, Mich. Her recipe earned her a trip to New Orleans, where she competed for prizes including a full kitchen of premium KitchenAid appliances—all part of the Crisco American Pie Celebration. For Sibthorpe, pies are a family tradition: "We were a pie family when I was growing up," she says. "When I got married, I couldn't cook very well, but I could bake pies."

Blueberry Pie

2 c. all-purpose flour
1 c. Butter Flavor
Crisco
1/4 c. sugar
1 tsp. salt
About 1/4 c. cold
water

Filling

3 pkgs. (12 oz. each)
frozen blueberries,
thawed
Liquid drained
from berries
1/4 c. quick-cooking
tapioca
1 1/2 c. sugar
1/4 c. cornstarch
2 tbsp. grated orange
peel 1 tbsp. butter or margarine
1 tbsp. cinnamon

Glaze

Milk
Sugar (optional)

1. For crust, place flour in medium bowl. Cut in Crisco using pastry blender (or 2 knives) until all flour is just blended in to form pea-size chunks. Stir in sugar and salt. Refrigerate for 10 min.

2. Sprinkle with half the water. Toss lightly with fork. Add enough additional water so that dough will form a ball. Divide dough in half. Press between hands to form two 5-6-in. "pancakes."

3. Flour rolling surface and rolling pin lightly. Roll dough for bottom crust into circle. Trim one inch larger than upside-down 9-in. pie plate. Loosen dough carefully. Fold into quarters. Unfold and press into pie plate. Trim edge even with pie plate.

4. Heat oven to 425°F.

5. For filling, drain blueberries, reserving liquid. Pour liquid into medium saucepan. Stir in tapioca. Let stand 5 min. Stir in sugar and cornstarch. Cook and stir on medium heat until mixture comes to a boil and is thickened. Stir in orange peel, butter and cinnamon. Fold in blueberries. Heat until bubbly. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Moisten pastry edge with water.

6. Roll top crust same as bottom. Lift onto filled pie. Trim 1/2 in. beyond edge of pie plate. Fold top edge under bottom crust. Flute.

7. For glaze, brush with milk. Sprinkle with sugar, if desired, avoiding fluted edge. Cut slits in top crust for escape of steam.

8. Bake at 425°F. for 45 min., covering with foil, if necessary, to prevent overbrowning. Cool until barely warm or to room temp. before serving.
