down. The women also will round up a list of menus in which substitutes for potatoes are used.

WILL NOT PERMIT PARALYSIS

MAY BE TEST OF STRENGTH

WASHINGTON, April 10 (by the Associated Press).—Should the strike of railroad employees threaten a paralysis of transportation the federal government would have to intervene, it was made plain today by administration officials. The strike is not regarded as having reached that stage, however, and government officers who are not helping in close touch with the situation are of the opinion that the authorized leaders of the railroad union have not asked for whatever they want done.

Old Crowd Plan Challenge.

That was "the good old way." The program of the old crowd, the elder

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, who has been in New York, left there last night for Cleveland, headquarters of the brotherhood of trainmen. TEACHERS MEET TO TALK
OVER INCREASES IN PAYNEW PENSION LAW PLAN TO GO TO ASSEMBLY.

CIVIC PRIDE MANIFESTED

Proposed increases in salaries were considered at the semi-annual representatives' meeting of the Indianapolis Teachers Federation of Public School Teachers Friday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. The teachers decided that the next move to obtain the desired increase in salaries would be to present a resolution at a meeting of the school board, the state board of tax commissioners and committees representing the teachers and the citizens of Indianapolis.

The representatives of the federation voted to support efforts being made to obtain suitable teachers' pension law from the next legislature. Opposition to the erection of commercial buildings in the residence part of the city or on boulevard was expressed in a resolution adopted at the suggestion of James H. Lowry, superintendent of the city park department. The resolution was also adopted at the suggestion of billboard with certain objectionable advertising within two blocks of any school.

INTERVIEWING CARPENTIER WITH AND WITHOUT FRENCH

To the Editor:

A great many of our readers have probably heard of Geos. Carpentier that hustled a bird name Beckett in London, Eng., last fall and won the world's championship of Europe and now he is over here on U. S. soils to spend his honeymoon and maybe combine a little business with it on the side and I kind of figured that on acct. of him being in the public eyes some of our readers might like to know what he is like personally and who could tell them better than myself on acct. of my command of French and what our reporter was that could talk to him in his native tongue sandwich?

So the other day I was down in N. Y. city and dropped into the Blitmore hotel and seen G. L. Rickard who I immediately nicknamed Tex, and Tex took me up to Geos. suite and the valet opened up a door and began leading us through different rooms till finally we got to one where he told us to set down and believe me I was ready. If they have any trouble finding a hall to hold the so called fight between Geos. and Dempsey in it, why all as they will half to do is to hold it in Geos. suite and if they 1/2 fill it, why Geos. will have enough to keep him in ease and luxuries the rest of his life.

Well I and Tex set down in a few minutes a door opened a mile away and we could see Geos. coming along in the distance in toe of the valet and I at Tex if we shouldn't ought to arise and sing the Marseillaise, but he told me to shut up and after a while Geos. finally got to where we was at and we was both introduced to each other and now I guess I better exclaim what he looks like.

Well he has got a lot of hair combed college style and it is about the color of a gin fizz as I recall them. His face is one that I would just as soon trade him mine for it only for the nose which looks like he might maybe of done some blocking with it. He had on a shirt the color of sponge cake with collar to match and a suit made of gray squirrel skin with you couldn't match on U. S. soils and even

"WAIT TLL YOU SEE CHICAGO," I SAID.

If you could you wouldn't. He wore a couple (2) bedroom slippers, which I suppose is on acct. of wanting to keep his feet in shape for the big fight though pretty near any one of Dempsey's opps. could tell him that the condition of the feet don't make much difference vs. that bird as you only use them a minute.

Well the valet also came along and I whispered to Tex why do we half to have the valet as I just got my suit pressed, but Tex said the valet was also the interpreter and then the valet says does Monsieur speeken francais and I said, "Ah, oui; vingt mots. (Oh, yes; twenty words)." I said, "Avez vous jamais been in France (Have you ever been in France)?" at Geos.

"Ah, oui, he was there in 1917. (Oh, yes, I was there in 1917)?" was my reply. (I didn't tell him that I didn't take uniform along). The valet said, "Comment did you like Paris (How did you like Paris)?" at Geos.

"No thank you (No thank you). I said, "Comment did you like New York (How did you like New York)?"

"Très bien," says Geos. Chi (Wait till you see Chicago), I said, "And are you going to La Toledo?"

"Not as far as I am concerned," interrupted Tex.

PARTY VOTE DECIDES ON BROADER NAVY INQUIRY

SENATE COMMITTEE TO RECEIVE IMPROVEMENT IDEAS.

PITTMAN OBJECTS TO PLAN

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Over the protest of the Democratic members the senate committee investigating the Sims-Daniels row decided today to broaden the scope of its work to include suggestions for the reorganization of the navy department.

Senator Pittman (Dem., Nev.) strenuously objected to the examination of Rear-Admiral F. F. Fletcher by Chairman Hale to develop reorganization suggestions, declaring that the committee had no authority to go into that matter.

Hale Decides Question.
Chairman Hale declared the committee was authorized to investigate anything connected with the navy department and when Senator Pittman protested, a vote was taken. The two Democrats present voted against extending the inquiry and the two Republicans voted in favor of doing so. Chairman Hale then cast the deciding vote.

Senator Pittman announced he would carry his protest to the full senate committee immediately. If the inquiry were extended as proposed, he said, the committee would be in session "the rest of the year."

SAYS PENDING PRIZED WORK.
General Harris Defends Paris Military Police Regime.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Continuing the defense of his administration of the Paris military district during the war, Brigadier-General William W. Harris told a house investigating committee today that his work had been praised by General Pershing, once in France and recently when he returned from Coblenz to testify in the inquiry.

General Pershing told him, he said, that he had nothing but praise for his work.

The witness and Representative Bland (Dem., Ind.) had several heated passages. The general said Mr. Bland was "making leading questions" and would not let him give full information to the committee.

Major-General Harbord, in command of the services of supply in France, also testified to the administration in Paris. General Harris testified.

"He granted your administration to you, perhaps, but he told a different story to this committee," Mr. Bland said.

The number of brutalities in Paris were "extraordinarily small," General Harris said. "American soldiers were not allowed to go into the streets of Paris. When you consider that thousands of criminals and thugs gathered in the city, the administration is to be considered a very successful one."

Charles Krauss, a widely known business man in Indianapolis, age sixty-eight, 733 North Pennsylvania street, died at his home last night, following an illness of about four years.

Mr. Krauss had lived at the Pennsylvania street address for forty years.

He was born in Stuttgart, Germany, in 1852, coming to America when he was eleven years old, accompanied by his mother and two brothers. The family lived in Somerville, O., for a short time, and came to Indianapolis in July, 1864.

At the age of twelve years he took a position as messenger in the Citizens National Bank, later becoming a teller, which position he held until the institution's charter expired twenty years later. He was president of the Charles Krauss & Sons Company, of Indianapolis, dealers in pumps and pumping machinery. Mr. Krauss was counselman-at-large under the administration of Mayor Denny.

He was a member of the Scottish Rite, Mystic Shrine and Ancient Landmarks Lodge, F. and A. M. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Earl W. Krauss, Albert F. Krauss, a daughter, Mrs. William S. Allen, and a sister, Mrs. Fred M. Loomis, all of Indianapolis. Funeral services will be held at the home Monday at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

ATTITUDE OF BRITAIN.
Times Says Note Points Out Opposition to French Move.

LONDON, April 10.—Declaration that the allies repeatedly declined to approve the advance of French troops east of the Rhine, and that statements by Premier Millerand and other French ministers had given the impression that country would abstain from single-handed action against Germany, are contained in the note outlining the British attitude sent to Paris, says the London Times.

Emphasis is laid on the fact that grave problems in connection with the execution of the Versailles treaty may arise in the future. It is said, and it is assumed, "France will not act upon her own initiative, otherwise the work of the police conference may become futile."

Reports from Paris that France was not to be the last of Germany would be instructed not to participate in the conference of ambassadors in Paris until France had given assurance that she would in the future act in concert with the allies, are confirmed by the Times.

The newspaper says it has learned that French African troops, which originally occupied Frankfurt, have been replaced by European forces. It concluded that Africans were used only because they were nearest Frankfurt.

The text of the British note has not been made public.

THE BUTTER-BREAD BANDIT

By WILLIAM HERSCHELL

LIKE some bold bandit prince he came,
His eyes aflash, his soul aflame;
His raiment was of bandit style,
He wore a bandit's careless smile.

HIS SWAGGER stride, 'twas plain to see,
Was born of practiced tyranny;
His armament was crude enough,
And yet it bore a mighty bluff.

WE HARKENED for his cold commands
To each of us to raise our hands;
Instead he passed—as grim as gore—
Then vanished through the kitchen door.

WE LISTENED—listened till we heard
His mother get the fatal word:
"You'd better git some butter-bread
Or peril lies upon your head!"

HIS MOTHER called for help—but, no!
Not one of us would dare to go!
"You'd better feed the knave," we said,
"That bandit wants some butter-bread!"

THE BANDIT laughed in fiendish glee,
He'd won his battle bloodlessly!
Then soon we saw him marching by,
A look of triumph in his eye.

FAST in his clutches he displayed
The profits of his daring raid.
Down on the steps he boldly sat,
A soul content and waxing fat.

HOW EAGERLY he downed each crumb;
He smacked his lips, he licked his thumb.
Then came a yawn—long, sweet and deep—
Our bold, bad bandit was asleep!

WAS COUNCILMAN DURING DENNY ADMINISTRATION.

PROMINENT IN BUSINESS

Charles Krauss, a widely known business man in Indianapolis, age sixty-eight, 733 North Pennsylvania street, died at his home last night, following an illness of about four years.

Mr. Krauss had lived at the Pennsylvania street address for forty years.

He was born in Stuttgart, Germany, in 1852, coming to America when he was eleven years old, accompanied by his mother and two brothers. The family lived in Somerville, O., for a short time, and came to Indianapolis in July, 1864.

At the age of twelve years he took a position as messenger in the Citizens National Bank, later becoming a teller, which position he held until the institution's charter expired twenty years later. He was president of the Charles Krauss & Sons Company, of Indianapolis, dealers in pumps and pumping machinery. Mr. Krauss was counselman-at-large under the administration of Mayor Denny.

LONDON, April 10.—Declaration that the allies repeatedly declined to approve the advance of French troops east of the Rhine, and that statements by Premier Millerand and other French ministers had given the impression that country would abstain from single-handed action against Germany, are contained in the note outlining the British attitude sent to Paris, says the London Times.

Emphasis is laid on the fact that grave problems in connection with the execution of the Versailles treaty may arise in the future. It is said, and it is assumed, "France will not act upon her own initiative, otherwise the work of the police conference may become futile."

Reports from Paris that France was not to be the last of Germany would be instructed not to participate in the conference of ambassadors in Paris until France had given assurance that she would in the future act in concert with the allies, are confirmed by the Times.

The newspaper says it has learned that French African troops, which originally occupied Frankfurt, have been replaced by European forces. It concluded that Africans were used only because they were nearest Frankfurt.

PART RESPONSIBILITY ASSUMED BY BROWN

TELLS OF FATAL ACCIDENT TO SISTER MARY BLANCHE.

TAXI DRIVERS QUESTIONED

Ollie Brown, one of two taxicab drivers arrested Friday afternoon on charges of manslaughter and speeding after the accident in Monument Circle in which Sister Mary Blanche, Sister of Providence, was fatally injured, today made a statement to Detectives Stone and Barnaby in which he assumed part responsibility for the accident.

He intimated in the statement that the sister was struck by the machine driven by his companion, Clifton Coomer, who was arrested with him, but admitted that the car he was driving was the one that ran over the sister. He would not say positively that Coomer's car struck her but he gave that intimation.

Following Coomer Statement.
Brown's statement was made after he had been confronted with a statement from Coomer to the effect that it was the car driven by Brown that knocked down and ran over the sister. Coomer denied that his car struck her.

Coomer and Brown are chauffeurs for the Yellow Cab Company, and, according to the detectives, are on parole from the State Reformatory at Jeffersonville.

Tried to Pass.
Coomer, the detectives said, told them that Brown, in trying to pass his machine as the two were driving around Monument Circle, crowded him (Coomer) to the curb and struck the sister as he forged ahead. Sister Mary Blanche was crossing the street west side of the street, detectives said, and it would have been almost impossible for Coomer's car to have hit her.

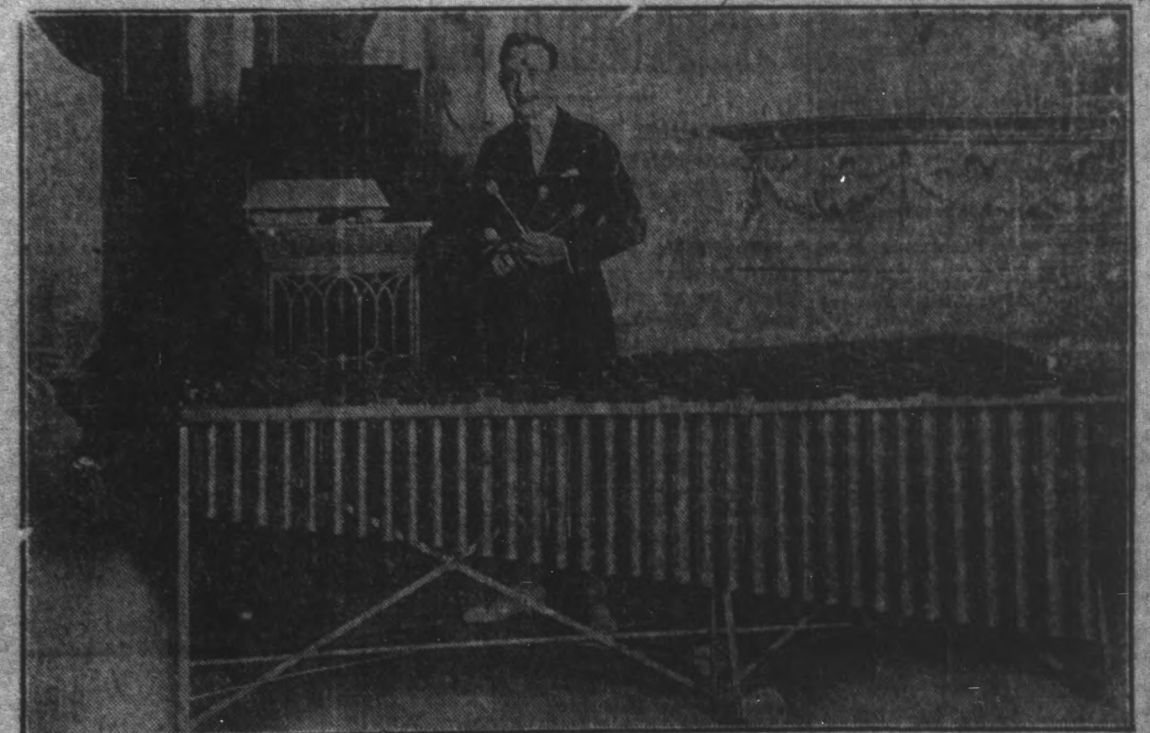

Witnesses told Detectives Stone and Barnaby and Dr. Paul F. Robinson, coroner, that the two men apparently were racing and that the machines were being driven at a rate of twenty or twenty-five miles an hour. Detectives say Brown was sent to the reformatory for stealing an automobile, and Coomer for passing fraudulent checks. They became acquainted there, and after being paroled arranged to get employment together. Brown, the detectives said, had been working under the name of Richard McCarthy.

Hear Senor "Friscoe" at Keith's Next Week

Senor "Friscoe," the wizard of the xylophone, includes in his act at Keith's theater next week the most extraordinary feature of the whole program. Friscoe accomplishes the unusual feat of playing a duet with himself. You hear the living Friscoe, and at the same time you hear Thomas A. Edison's Re-Creation of his playing.

The new marvel of music is made possible through that wonderful instrument—

Go to Keith's and hear this most unusual act—let your own ears prove to you that there is not the slightest difference between the playing of the artist and the Re-Creation of it by the New Edison. NEW YORK, April 16.—Added importance was given the Davis cup in-

This information was received by the United States Lawn Tennis Association in a cable from the secretary of the French organization, requesting support of the American body in application for reopening of the entries.

It is considered probable here that the British and the American Association will take the same attitude. This would necessitate a redraw for preliminary rounds, the majority of which would be played in England. RICHMOND TAKES COAL APPEAL TO WASHINGTON

BUSINESS MEN SEND LETTER DIRECT TO PALMER.

MAY GO TO THE CONGRESS

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

RICHMOND, Ind., April 10.—Business men in Richmond carried their protest against alleged coal profiteering to Washington yesterday, when they sent a direct appeal to A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney-general. Howard A. Dill, of the Richmond water works, had previously sent a complaint against the alleged profiteering to Evans Woolen, of Indianapolis, formerly state fuel administrator. It is hoped to have an expression from Mr. Palmer or the White House early next week. The appeal points out that the offers are regarded by some as evidence of a conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce, since all the offers were from companies outside of Indiana. The movement was started when Mr. Dill and B. B. Johnston, both of whom are large users of steam coal, made public offers sent to them of large quantities of steam coal at increases of $1.40 to $1.55 a ton over the figures quoted before President Wilson's coal commission granted the miners an increase of 27 per cent in wages.

PLANS RAIL IMPROVEMENT

Big Four Asks Warrick to Stand Part of Expense in City.

[Special to The Indianapolis News] MUNCIE, Ind., April 10.—Improvements to cost between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 will be made here by the Big Four Railway Company, if the city will contribute a reasonable part of the expense. The proposed improvements include viaducts, city crossings, a new railroad yard and a belt line south of the city. Work will begin at once if the city approves the plan. The company proposes to detour freight and only passenger trains will enter the main part of town over tracks elevated above the crossing, or on viaducts above crossings. The city is asked to stand part of the expense of building the viaducts. Other railway companies will be asked to aid in relieving traffic congestion here by making similar improvements.

SONORA SEIZES RAILROAD.

Mexican State Complicates Strike on American-Owned Line.

NOGALES, Ariz., April 10.—Seizure and operation of the Southern Pacific de Mexico, an American-owned railroad, by Sonora state authorities, has developed complications of importance and the Mexican federal government at Mexico City has been appealed to by officials of the railroad company. Employees of the road struck several days ago for increased wages and shorter hours. A Nogales (Sonora) federal judge issued an ultimatum that if the men did not return to work within seventy-two hours the federal government would seize and operate the road. The state government forestalled this action yesterday by taking over the road and operating it with former employees, granting them all their demands. the part of political managers that federal troops would take control of the state, supplanting Governor De la Huerta. Though this was denied by Carranza, fear that trouble might result from operation of the road by federal troops is believed to have been responsible for the action of the state government in assuming jurisdiction.

American ownership of the railroad brings the situation into the realm of international relationship.

What gives the Aero-EIGHT its 15,000 miles on tires and causes its 80-horsepower engine to require so little fuel?

The achievement of Cole engineers in coupling such high tire mileage and striking economy of operation with such a wealth of power and performance ability is due, primarily, to the fact that the Aero-EIGHT is balanced to zero.

COLORED PEOPLE LOOK FORWARD TO EXHIBIT

ART AND INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS TO BE SHOWN.

ENTERTAINMENT FEATURES

The art and industrial exhibit, to be held at the colored men's branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, next week, from Monday till Friday, is attracting city-wide attention among the colored people. All the booths have been taken, and an attractive program has been arranged. Each booth will advertise some useful art or industry owned or operated by negroes, most of them presenting exhibits of Indianapolis industry. The decorations are the work of the colored people and will be a part of the exhibit.

The evening's entertainment will consist of musical numbers, minstrel, comic stunts and songs. Boxing, wrestling, tug-of-war contests, guessing, obstacle events and other attractions, including moving pictures, also will form a part of each evening's entertainment.

The distinctive feature of the exhibit will be the presidential preference contest, which will be open to all the colored people of the city. The number of votes will be proclaimed, and will receive $150 with which to make a tour of eastern cities. The winner of second place will receive a Victrola. Those desiring to enter the contest are asked to call at the building at once.

The object of the industrial exhibit is to give the public a correct idea of the business enterprises in which the colored people of the city are interested, and to encourage industry and art. Indianapolis business organizations are actively interested in the success of the affair, which is expected to attract a large number of visitors.

CONFERENCE IN FAVOR OF KEEPING DANCE BAN

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT METHODIST MEETING.

1921 MEETING AT ELWOOD

[Special to The Indianapolis News]
RICHMOND, Ind., April 10.—Work of women in connection with the home and foreign missionary societies was reviewed at today's session of the annual North Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church here. Carrie Barge discussed home missionary work and Dr. Ida Kahn told of work in the foreign field. The joint anniversaries of the home and foreign missionary societies will be observed tonight. Dr. Fred B. Fisher of New York will preside and Dr. W. B. Hollingshead of New York; Frank Mason North, corresponding secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist church, and Dr. Melville P. Burns, of the board of home missions, will speak.

Elwood Invitation Accepted.
Next year's sessions of the conference will be held at Elwood, the conference voting to accept the invitation tendered by the Methodists of that city.

Visiting Methodist ministers will fill the pulpits at local Protestant churches of the city tomorrow. Bishop Nicholson will preach at Grace church in the morning and the Rev. J. W. Potter in the afternoon. The ordination of deacons, elders and deaconesses will take place on Saturday night. Sherwood Eddy, foreign work secretary of the international Y. M. C. A., will address the conference on "The Present World Situation." A challenge to the conference will be made Monday with the reading of the ministerial assignments.

Laymen Elect Delegates.
At yesterday's session the following delegates to the general convention were elected by the laymen's association of the conference:

O. F. Ward and Mrs. W. H. Chandler, of Richmond; C. L. Walter and Elwood Starbuck, of Wayne; Frank Greene, of Gosport; Charles W. Rescher, of Logansport; and Charles H. Neff, of Muncie.

Dr. Raymond J. Wade, superintendent of the Gosport district, addressed the conference yesterday afternoon on the plans for the state educational campaign. The conference authorized a special committee for the work, composed of Bishop Nicholson, all district superintendents and George H. Grose, M. S. Marble, W. T. Arnold, C. H. Smith, B. E. Parker, J. O. Powell, M. O. Lester, C. U. Wade, Justin A. Morrison, J. C. White, F. E. Pribble, U. S. Bridge, J. H. Runkle and R. L. Semans.

Not to Lift Dancing Ban.
Both the ministers and the laity, at their respective sessions yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions against the proposed lifting of the ban on dancing and some other forms of amusements by the Methodist general conference, which are prohibited in the book of the Methodist discipline.

The members of the laymen's association, which received the ministerial resolution against the plan to lift the ban, also adopted the resolution by a viva voce vote, with no discussion.

By a vote of 28 to 4, the laymen voted down the proposed plan for equal representation between the laity and the ministers in the annual conference.

Says Idealism Is Being Obscured.
Dr. George R. Grose, president of DePauw University, chairman of the committee on the state and country, said in his report yesterday afternoon that the "splendid idealism" which sent the youth of the nation into the world war is being obscured, if not lost, in the tragic failure of a peaceful government to realize the worthy aims of the war.

He said that commercial greed, partisan interests, the selfish struggle of class against class, the competition of the unscrupulous profiteering in trade, senseless extravagance and the mad rush for exciting pleasures call for unsparring denunciation.

"We deplore the failure of the national government to meet our responsibilities as a nation in completing a just and honorable peace pact which would at the same time safeguard every national right and interest and help to restore order and rebuild the wasted nations of Europe," Dr. Grose added.

Edgar L. Williams referred to the growing interest in motion pictures in a talk yesterday afternoon and said that many pictures never should be shown.

"The abuse of what otherwise is a blessing should be corrected through the influence of the churches," he said.

Now a Business Proposition.

"Are you going to garden this summer?" queried a doubtful Mr. Croswell. "I made such a heavy outlay for implements and fertilizer that I've got to protect my investment."

FRENCH SHOWN TO BE ACTING TO UPHOLD VERSAILLES PACT

[By Frank H. Simonds]

French policy, as represented in the decision to occupy Frankfurt, must be interpreted in the light of the actual facts and not of the imaginary conditions created by propaganda to deceive the western nations.

By the treaty of Versailles the French were assured three things: The prompt reduction of the German army, the creation of a neutralized zone between the Rhine and France and for a fixed distance east of the river, the payment to France of a preliminary indemnity in the shape of a monthly coal contribution, intended to replace the coal yield of the Lens district which had been abolished by German depredations.

Fail in Three Provisions.
Now the Germans have failed to live up to any one of these three provisions. They have increased, not reduced their army; the coal payments have sunk to nothing; and, finally, they have now, without allied permission, invaded the neutralized area east of the Rhine. Thus the French see the treaty of Versailles transformed into a useless thing less than a year after it was signed.

If the German continues to increase his army, if he obtains the right to violate the neutralized area, if he is able to evade the coal payment, France has lost all that the war could have brought to her, her territorial sacrifices have been in vain and she must face the possibility, the modifiability of the treaty of Versailles. There is not the smallest division among Frenchmen as to the course that the French government must pursue.

France's Disillusionment.
For the French, there is a profound disillusionment in American and British policy at the present hour.

Neither of the nations was achieving real security when the no-man's-land was eliminated, but, despite the fact that France has been left in a difficult situation, without any sure protection against German attack, both the United States and Great Britain, their eagerness to get back to business relations with Germany, profitable for them, have shown a complete willingness to close their eyes to the needs and perils of France.

All the discussion in Britain, which has been going on since the signing of the treaty of peace, and all the modifications of the treaty, were the expense of France and have had their effect in Germany. The present danger of the German invasion of the neutralized area is only a logical consequence of the German interpretation of Anglo-American sympathy with the Germans and support of the suggestions of a modified peace settlement.

In Control of Old Gang.
German military forces remain in the control of the old military gang. The most vital concern for the Prussian group is to preserve the army intact, following the precedent of Prussia after Jena. But under the provisions of the treaty of Versailles a reduction of the army should take place in the current week. Therefore so far from being unwelcome the Ruhr disarmament is a blessing for the Prussian party. This leads naturally to the suspicion that the military party had two strings to its bow in its recent counter-revolution.

Indeed, it may appear later that the object of the Kapp stroke was not to seize control of the government but to supply an argument, the old argument of Bolshevism, to defend at its present enormous strength. For the militarists there is just one issue now, to save the army. Unless there were some new justification all the allied nations would combine to force the reduction of the army, but the British and American fear of Bolshevism is still so acute that the Germans have calculated that it can be turned to their advantage and the reduction of the army is a semblance of Bolshevism in Germany.

Afraid of Hun Militarism.
The fact is that France is afraid of German militarism, and Britain and in a measure the United States are still shaken with apprehension over the peril of Bolshevism. Thus, while the French are insisting that the German army be reduced, the British are quite willing to see the German army maintained at least until there is no more danger of German anarchy. But the French see quite clearly that the Germans can use this British apprehension to postpone demobilization indefinitely, until the time when they can resist it openly. Thus allied policy comes to chaos.

It is of course, proper to charge the French with militarism at this moment. What has actually happened is that American and British policy has, for reasons of obvious self-interest, decided that the real danger in Germany is Bolshevism, not Prussianism, while the French policy has concluded that the real danger comes from the militaristic direction. Thus Parallel Case of Ireland.

To take an obvious parallel, the British at the present time have concentrated very great forces in Ireland, because they feel the security of their empire is menaced in that quarter. If France should urge the British to permit the Sinn Fein to occupy Dublin and, in fact, to control Ireland, alleging that the real danger to Britain came from the Sinn Fein and not the Sinn Fein, the situation would be about what exists in Germany, with America and Britain urging the French to permit the Junker elements to keep control of a great army and to invade the prohibited areas.

CONVENTION ISSUE IS ONE OF CONTROL

The bosses will be prevented from obtaining the 493 votes necessary to nominate. Public sentiment will likely determine the outcome. If the masses of the party within the next few days fail to remain silent and permit the organization workers, the elder statesmen, "fix things." Wood will never be nominated. On the other hand, if the sentiment throughout the country is running strong in the other way, the forward looking forces will win.

Fight for Control of Congress.
Preparations are under way for an aggressive fight for the control of the next congress. Both congressional committees were in session here this week, one-third of the senate, thirty-two senators, are to be elected, and an entirely new house of representatives.

The senate is now so evenly divided politically that the politicians on each side see splendid possibilities for what they call a finished fight for possession of that body. At present there are forty-eight Republican members of the body, forty-seven Democratic members, and one senator who is classified as "Republican and Progressive." On all parties the body has stood forty-nine Republicans and forty-seven Democrats.

The terms of the following Republican senators expire the 4th of next March, and this means that their successors must be elected next November: Frank G. Brandegee, Connecticut; Albert B. Cummins, Iowa; Charles Curtis, Kansas; William Dillingham, Vermont; Asie J. Gronna, North Dakota; Warren Harding, Ohio; Wesley L. Jones, Washington; Irving L. Lenroot, Wisconsin; George P. Moses, New Hampshire; Boies Penrose, Pennsylvania; Lawrence C. Sherman, Illinois; Reed Smoot, Utah; Selden P. Spencer, Missouri; James W. Wadsworth, Jr., New York; and James E. Watson, Indiana.

Democratic Re-election Lineup.
The following are the Democrats whose terms will expire March 4:

J. C. W. Beckham, Kentucky; George E. Chamberlain, Oregon; Duncan U. Fletcher, Florida; Edward J. Gay,

It will thus be seen that there will be senatorial elections in fifteen states that are now represented by Republicans and in seventeen states that are now represented by Democrats.

The senatorial fighting ground is admittedly narrow. It is the politicians in the two parties figure it, there are not to exceed four states now represented by Democrats in which there is a chance for the opposition to win and not more than three states now represented by Democrats in which there will be sharp fighting, according to the politicians, are Maryland, Colorado and Kentucky.

Practically all of the thirty-three senators whose terms will expire next March desire to be re-elected. Indeed the only one of thirty-three who has said he would not be a candidate for re-election is Senator Sherman of Illinois.

The congressional campaign committee of each of the old political parties is already organized for control of the next house of representatives. At present the Republicans have an overwhelming majority in the house. The 435 house members are classified as follows: Republican, 236; Democrat, 199; Independent, 1; Independent Republican, 1; Prohibitionist, 1; vacancies, 5. To a considerable extent the party for the house of representatives is obliged to make his own campaign issues. The political parties have never found it expedient to try to make nation-wide issues applicable to all the congressional districts.

Congressional Campaign Plan.
Just how the congressional campaign will shape up is not yet clear to the politicians. In a general way the Republicans will, of course, "point with pride" to what the present house has accomplished. On the other hand the Democratic representatives will take the position that the legislative record of the majority is not what it should be.

It seems inevitable that the question of whether federal legislation for the enforcement of nation-wide prohibition shall be modified will be one of the issues of the congressional districts. The "wets" have finally determined to try to elect as many representatives as possible who will favor federal legislation that will authorize the manufacture of beer and light wines of small alcoholic content. It seems to be settled that neither of the old parties will, in its national convention platform, lend any encouragement to the forces that would break down national prohibition.

Hoover Says It Again.
NEW YORK, April 10.—Herbert Hoover again has answered no to an inquiry as to whether he would accept the Democratic nomination for President if it were offered to him.

In a telegram sent yesterday to Chandler M. Wood, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic state committee of Massachusetts, Mr. Hoover said: "Your published letter asking if I would accept the Democratic nomination has been received by me and I appreciate the implied compliment. I rather regret it was written prior to a statement of mine last Saturday, which appeared in Boston and other papers. You will no doubt therefore now appreciate that the answer to your inquiry is 'no'."

Was for Many Years in Mail Service—Veteran of Civil War.

Fred W. Dickhut, age seventy-eight, died at his home, 1594 Fletcher avenue, Friday after a short illness. Mr. Dickhut was born in Quincy, Ill., in 1842. He was appointed assistant assessor of internal revenue in 1868, and later was appointed clerk in the railway mail service. He had served continually in the railway mail service and the Indianapolis postoffice since his appointment in 1869. He served in the civil war from April 16, 1861, to October 20, 1865.

Mr. Dickhut was a member of Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 51, Lafayette, and also of the George H. Thomas Post of the G. A. R. He is survived by a widow, a son, Harry J. Dickhut, of Richmond, and two daughters, Miss Maude M. Dickhut and Miss Ada B. Dickhut, both of Indianapolis. Funeral services will be held Monday at 2:30 o'clock at the residence.

LAW cannot prevent larceny of your tire service from rim rub and wear.

But Federal Double-Cable-Base construction makes your rims serve as they should, and stops the combat between tire and rim.

DORT Quality Goes Clear Through

In the minds of men who measure motor car merit closely there is unquestionably a preference in favor of the Dort.

It is a preference that is based upon very definite facts.

The Dort has demonstrated in the daily use of thousands of owners that it does perform unusually long and faithfully with but rare need of attention.

It has established itself as a car that operates at a very low cost.

These are the results of rigid adherence to proved engineering practice and of sound and skilled construction.

New Prices For WEED AND RID-O-SKID TIRE CHAINS

MR. MOTORIST, we are pleased to give you the benefit of the decreased cost of producing our Tire Chains in the enormous and ever increasing quantities necessary to take care of their universal use.

The ever increasing and enormous demand for our Tire Chains naturally means decreased cost of manufacture, and it will always be our policy to pass the saving on to you, Mr. Motorist, to our mutual benefit —the lower the price, the greater the market.

WEED TIRE CHAINS are made of super-quality material, giving greatest possible mileage. Every Cross Chain specially processed to diamond hardness, yet are not brittle, and the side chains of high tensile strength are heavily galvanized against rust.

RID-O-SKID TIRE CHAINS—we first offered these chains to the Trade on May 1, 1911. They appeal to those whose chief consideration is the least initial outlay. They are not made of super-quality long wearing material as Weed Tire Chains; their cross chains are not specially processed for extreme hardness nor are they plated and galvanized against rust.

Below are listed a few sizes in general use with their new prices.

BOY MAY NOT RECOVER.

The boys were playing in the kitchen at the West home when the accident occurred. Not knowing that the rifle was loaded, the West boy pointed it at his chum and pulled the trigger. When his playmate extruded from the floor, the West boy ran screaming to his mother, the West boy ran to the home of Mrs. Loper nearby and told her of the accident. By the way, the home turned to the yard of the West home, the wounded boy had regained his consciousness and was able to get on his feet and fell into his mother's arms.

SUGAR SHARES EXCEPTION

Average Stock Prices

The average price of twenty industrial stocks Friday was 105.35, off .27 per cent. The average price of twenty active rails was 15.05, off .04 per cent.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The railroad strike and yesterday's unexpected advance of call loans to 10 per cent, causing misgivings respecting the money market, were primary factors in today's brief and reactionary session of the Stock Exchange. Exceptions to the general decline included shipbuilding and sugar, which responded to favorable trade conditions at gains of 2 to 6 points. Metals and several of the equipments were firm to strong, but representatives of live steels, motors and oils were under pressure with numerous specialties and rails were dull and slightly lower. Moderate rallies, due to short covering, occurred in the final dealings. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 450,000 shares.
