WOOD SAYS STRIKE IS NATIONAL CRISIS

Declares in Boston That Issue Is One for Test of Real Americanism.

ASSAILS ONE-UNION PLAN

General Asserts Radical Element Must Go and Country Be Run Under Constitution.

DUTY FIRST.

"That coincides with every act of his career," said Harry G. Hogan, Indiana manager of the Wood candidacy for the nomination for President, when he heard that General Wood had canceled all his speaking engagements on account of the strike situation.

"With him it has always been duty first. I am reminded of what he said to his officers, after he had learned that he would not be allowed to go with his division to France. His officers had protested, but General Wood said to them:

"'Do not concern yourself about my case, but get your mind on the war. If you would please me play your part cheerfully and well. That means when in action never fail to take your objective and never be late on your objective.'

"I am sure he would now say to us and all his friends: 'My campaign is in your hands and I want you to go ahead.'

"It will require more active work from the volunteers in Indiana, for they and all his admirers will miss the inspiration of a speaking campaign, but surely after all, nothing is more inspiring than his high conception of duty."

BOSTON, April 13.—The railroad men's strike was discussed by Leonard Wood in an address at the City Club today in connection with his announcemeent of his return to Chicago, "where," he said, "I feel that I should be in the possible crisis that is coming."

"You are confronted now by an open and shut proposition; you can not pussy-foot it or sidestep it much longer," he continued. "You find that organized labor has been stable, conservative, but is now being attacked from within by what is described as the 'boring from within process.' So far as we can see organized labor is now undergoing attack from the radical element within itself, and it is a pretty well organized attack.

Opposes One Big Union.

"It looks like the one big union idea. There is no one big union going to go over in this country. This country is going to be run by Americans, cost what it may. It does not make any difference what the cost is. It is going to be run on a basis of government under the Constitution, with due respect for law and order, with a recognition of the supremacy of the law, the rights of property, the rights of the individual, the rights of mankind. No class legislation, no autocracy, either of wealth, labor or power, but a real democracy and a spirit of co-operation and helpfulness.

Says Red Must Go.

"I have had to bump into some other ugly strike situations in the middle west and wherever there has been radicalism and trouble, in the dangerous situation I have always found the alien Red in control; very seldom an American leader. We want to get rid of the alien leader, the professional agitator. I have found American workmen at least 95 per cent. square, square as a die and wanting to run straight, but we have got to interest ourselves a little more in these problems.

Danger in Indifference.

"The danger in America is not so much from the Red element as it is from our indifference. We discuss these things academically, but we do not get out, take our coats off and get to work on the problems."

General Wood spoke for an "absolutely square deal" for labor and capital, urging co-operation rather than legislation as a solution of the problem.

"You can not put the thing over with a club," he said. "We have got to approach the issue on the basis of absolute fairness."

Referring to the Canadian plan of having an investigation before a strike is permitted, General Wood said:

"In this way Canada has built up a sound public opinion. We have not built up any public opinion here. We do not get the facts concerning strikes.

Coal Strike Conditions.

"The coal strike in Kansas, for instance, was a strike for longer working hours. The men were only allowed to work eighteen hours a week because there were no cars to move the coal and no place to store the coal, and they could not live on eighteen hours work a week. That happens to have been the inside fact in that strike, yet nobody knew anything about it. The steel strike was something quite different and so with the coal strike in West Virginia. We want to build up a sound public opinion here. Public opinion rules in this country."

ACTS ON HIS OWN INITIATIVE.

Wood, War Department Says, Explains Return to Chicago.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Major-General Leonard Wood's decision to cancel his leave of absence and return to the command of the central department because of the conditions growing out of the railroad strike was made on his own initiative, it was said today at the war department. His leave began about a month ago and was to have continued for two months. Major-General Bell is now acting commander of the central department.

Women to Act in Strike

(Special to The Indianapolis News)

HAMMOND, Ind., April 13.—Women's auxiliary bodies of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen here have decided to send a missionary delegation to enlist the wives of strikers here and at Gary in an effort to get striking trainmen back to work. A public meeting is planned.

Wives of strikers, to offset the proposed crusade, have announced that they will hold a rebel dance and testimonial meeting. There is said to be much feeling among the women in the Calumet region over the strike situation, and it has been intimated that there may be clashes between the two factions.

THOUSANDS MADE IDLE IN MICHIGAN FACTORIES

RAIL STRIKE FORCES CURTAILMENT OF POWER PLANTS.

INDUSTRIAL CENTERS HIT

DETROIT, April 13.—The predicted effect on Michigan industry of the unauthorized strike of railroad switchmen became a reality today when power and fuel curtailment forced into idleness about 100,000 workers in various industrial centers. Detroit was lightless last night as a result of the strike.

In Detroit alone it was estimated the closing of factories had thrown out between 60,000 and 75,000 workers. Other cities where industry felt the effects of the strike included Pontiac, Battle Creek, Ann Arbor, Saginaw, Mt. Clemens, Bay City, Jackson, Niles and Flint. Decision to close all factories in Flint tomorrow, throwing 35,000 men out, was announced today.

The 150 switchmen who struck at Bay City yesterday have agreed to return to work if assured that the railroad labor board would be organized promptly.

Curtailment of street railway service became effective in Detroit today, 15 per cent. of the cars being kept in the barns.

Although the strikers in Detroit asserted they expected an early settlement of the strike, the source of their optimism could not be traced.

RAILWAY STRIKE SHUTS DOWN OHIO COAL MINES

INABILITY TO GET CARS FORCES WORK SUSPENSION.

THOUSANDS OF MEN IDLE

COLUMBUS, O., April 13.—Soft coal mines in Ohio were nearly all closed today, because of the railroad strike, and thousands of coal miners were thrown out of work. A few mines in scattered districts were reported still working, but all of the big mines were closed because of the inability of operators to get cars.

Steel Plants Are Closed.

The big steel plants in the Youngstown district were reported closed down with approximately 30,000 men thrown out of work.

The Overland Automobile Company at Toledo reported that it would be forced to close, thereby throwing 14,000 people out of work.

Public utilities all over the state were appealing for coal, and most of them declared that unless an immediate supply of coal was forthcoming they would be forced to suspend operations.

Food supplies, especially staples, were becoming scarce in some parts of the state. Toledo reported no sugar on hand, and Columbus groceries were giving only a limited amount of sugar to each customer.

Food dealers predicted a big rise in the cost of food supplies unless the strike was broken soon and the embargoes on freight lifted.

MORE MINERS FACING JAIL.

Only Two Appear To Answer Kansas Court Call.

PITTSBURG, Kas., April 13.—Almost complete paralysis of the Kansas coal industry was reported today. The announcement at the headquarters of the coal operators as to operations said that only four steam shovels were working. No deep mines were working.

The report showed that not more than 200 miners out of more than 12,000 were at work.

Coal operators said the suspension of operations was in protest against the sentencing to jail of Alexander M. Howat, president of the Kansas mine workers, and his colleagues. Union officials neither confirmed nor denied the statement.

Papers in an ouster suit against G. Clint Webb, sheriff of Crawford county, are being prepared by attorneys for the court of industrial relations for filing in the Kansas supreme court.

The sheriff was accused of misconduct in office by permitting Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas miners and a prisoner in the county jail, to deliver a speech to a crowd of miners at Girard yesterday.

When the names of twenty-five miners' union officials and miners, ordered by Judge Andrew J. Curran yesterday to appear before the industrial court to testify concerning conditions in the mining field, were called in court today, only two miners responded.

Judge Curran is in close touch with the proceedings, and instructed W. E. Payton, marshal of the industrial court, to call the roll from the steps of the courthouse. There was no response. Steps were immediately taken for contempt proceedings, and the arrest of the men who refused to obey the order to appear were to begin this afternoon.

BIG MOTOR PLANT CUTS WORKING DAY IN HALF

STRIKE EFFECT IS REFLECTED AT NEWCASTLE.

3,500 EMPLOYES AFFECTED

(Special to The Indianapolis News)

NEWCASTLE, Ind., April 13.—Strikes of railway yardmen in other cities and express embargoes caused the Maxwell Motor Company here to go on a half-time schedule today. The employes at the plant, about 3,500, will work only five hours a day until conditions become normal, it was announced.

This is the first local industry to be directly affected by the walkouts, although meat dealers, depending on Chicago packing houses, have been short of meat for three days. Other

TIEUP SITUATION IMPROVED

Some Embargoes Are Lifted and Western Lines Move Increasing Amount of Freight.

BOSTON, April 13.—Leonard Wood today canceled the leave of absence which he obtained to make a campaign for the Republican nomination for President, and said he would leave for Chicago tonight to resume his duties as commanding general of the central department of the army. He said his action was due to railroad strike conditions. He said he would keep an engagement to speak before the Chamber of Commerce at Salem at 6 p. m.

General Wood made this announcement at a breakfast tendered him at the Boston City Club. He said:

"The situation of growing seriousness in the country is such that I feel it my duty to give up my leave and to return to my post of command in Chicago. The situation is not one which allows personal considerations to enter into the matter in the least."

It was the intention of General Wood to speak in several places in Massachusetts, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Delaware and Pennsylvania within the next week. He canceled all of these engagements. The general now is on a two months' leave which was granted him by the war department, March 20.

CHICAGO, April 13.—Appointment by President Wilson of the railroad labor board was viewed by both railroad and brotherhood officials today as being a long step toward settlement of the rail strike. Officials of both sides pointed out that the roads were powerless to raise wages or consider other demands until the board has reviewed requests now pending.

Officials were awaiting announcement by Attorney-General Palmer of the government's attitude toward the "illegal" strike, and of any action which might be taken to bring the strikers back to work. It is believed that when this announcement is made and with prompt action by the newly-appointed board an early settlement ca nbe hoped for.

This, the thirteenth day of the unauthorized walkout, showed the deadlock continuing throughout all the district west of Ohio, with the exception of the far northwest, where, in the region of Everett and Spokane, Wash., the strikers have made some fresh gains.

Traffic Shows Increase.

In the Chicago district the strikers have made no gains for four days, and, while they deny any desertions from their ranks, the railroads have each day increased the amount of traffic handled. The railroad managers announced today that the office workers and union strike breakers imported by the brotherhood are able to handle all traffic offered. Business is much below normal because of the strikes in other cities.

Great Northern and Northern Pacific switchmen at Everett, Wash., walked out at midnight last night and Northern Pacific yardmen at Spokane arranged a meeting today to decide on future action. Yard employes of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul in that district were awaiting action by the Northern Pacific men.

Embargoes Lifted.

In Chicago conditions were sufficiently improved today to permit lifting by several railroads of embargoes placed a week ago. Railroad officials estimated that 25 per cent. more freight was moved at Chicago yesterday than on any other day since the strike started.

The Illinois Central railroad reported freight traffic at Chicago was moving 80 per cent. of normal. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul had 114 switching crews and reported nearly normal traffic.

At the Chicago stockyards 246 cars of live stock were received yesterday, the largest volume in more than a week, and 10,000 employes returned to work. Approximately 35,000 workers still were idle, however.

Only about 25 per cent. of Chicago's normal coal supply is being received, but railroads announced that if the situation became serious, coal shipments would receive preference. At Gary, Ind., thousands of steel workers

Capital Freight Embargo

WASHINGTON, April 13.—An embargo against all incoming and outgoing freight was placed today by the railroads entering Washington. The only freight received during the last twenty-four hours was two carloads of fresh meat.

The city's supply of perishable foodstuffs was estimated as sufficient to last for from seven to ten days, with the supply of staple goods sufficient for six months. Coal in storage here was reckoned by dealers at a ten-day supply.

LIBERTY BOND QUOTATIONS

Decrease in Market Value Represents $2,000,000,000 Loss.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Liberty bonds at noon were quoted as follows: 3½s, 95.90; first 4s, 90.70; second 4s, 87.34; first 4¼s, 90.60; second 4¼s, 87.28; third 4¼s, 91.42; fourth 4¼s, 87.60; Victory 3¾s, 97.10; Victory 4¾s, 97.14.

Final prices today were: 3½s, 95.50; first 4s, 90.50; second 4s, 87.70; first 4¼s, 90.30; second 4¼s, 91.70; fourth 4¼s, 87.82; Victory 3¾s, 97.10; Victory 4¾s, 97.00.

At these figures the current market value for the Liberty bonds as a whole represents a loss of nearly $2,000,000,000 to investors who bought these securities of the government at face value. With the flotation of the last Liberty issue the government announced that there were about 20,000,000 individaul subscribers to all series. Therefore the average loss would figure $1,000 for each individual.

OH, HE CAN'T, CAN'T HE?

FREIGHT MOVEMENT SHOWS AN INCREASE

Motor Trucks Aid in Getting Shipments In and Out of Indianapolis.

SOME CREWS BACK AT WORK

Big Break Soon in Ranks of Striking Switchmen Predicted—Claims Made by "Outlaws."

Considerable freight was moved over the lines of railroads serving Indianapolis today and Monday, and on most of the roads officials said the movement of freight, which on Saturday was brought to a standstill by the insurgent strike of yard switchmen, is showing a steady improvement. Motor trucks took several long hauls of freight, and some freight was brought to Indianapolis. Motor truck operators expect to have an organization for handling freight in operation by the end of the week.

Officials of the Big Four said that on Monday thirty-six freight trains were handled in and out of Indianapolis and that twenty-four engines were operated in the yards. A train load of meat from Kingan & Co. was taken out for eastern points and Kingan & Co. notified that other shipments will be accepted. Seven thousand freight cars, it was said, were operated over the Big Four system Monday, which is about 60 per cent. of a normal business.

Some Crews Return.

At Terre Haute, where the men voted Monday night to quit, three engines were at work today manned by the regular crews. Several of the Indianapolis switchmen who had quit were reported to be back at work today and many more have notified the offices they will return Wednesday.

The Indianapolis Union Railway Company, operating the Belt line, reported that several employes who quit have returned to work. The Belt Monday delivered twenty-two carloads of coal to the Citizens Gas Company and twenty-five carloads of live stock were delivered to local packing plants.

Freight Being Accepted.

The Lake Erie & Western is accepting dead freight but not perishables for local stations between Indianapolis and Michigan City, except to Tipton, where there is labor trouble. The Monon is accepting carload and less than carload shipments for all local stations and carload shipments for connecting lines not under embargo. The Illinois Central has opened a gateway to the southeast through Cairo, Ill., for all shipments and is accepting both carload and less than carload shipments for all points between Indianapolis and Effingham, Ill.; Mattoon, Ill., and Evansville. The Pennsylvania and the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western are not accepting freight.

Twenty motor trucks from Detroit have returned with shipments of castings and shipments from the Oakes Manufacturing Company and the Van Briggle Motor Device Company. Four trucks went to Cincinnati with freight, one to Kokomo, two to Richmond, two to Chicago and several left for other points.

Motor Truck Plans.

The out-of-town motor truck men have appointed a committee including W. A. Clark, Anderson; Jap Jones, Waverly; H. H. Chambers, Shelbyville; D. D. Carpenter, Mooresville, and H. S. Downes, Hagerstown, to prepare a schedule of rates for motor hauls of freight. The committee will meet with the wholesale representatives Thursday noon to complete the organization for distributing freight to and from Indianapolis in the state by motor truck. The truck operators are arranging with distributors in their respective towns to handle freight delivered by trucks from Indianapolis and to collect local shipments for Indianapolis.

Crisis Seems Near.

With officers of the official union and leaders in the insurgent group both claiming gains in the last few hours, the day appeared to have reached a crisis in so far as the mo-

PRESSURE REDUCED BY THE GAS COMPANY

MEASURE ADOPTED TO CONSERVE THE SUPPLY.

APPEAL NOT OBSERVED

With gas being consumed at the rate of 15,000,000 cubic feet a day, up to 10 a. m., and the prospect of a shutdown of the local plants with exhaustion of the local supply by night, the Citizens Gas Company today reduced the pressure in its mains as a means to compel conservation. The pressure was so low at noon that in many homes there was not enough gas for cooking, and cold food was eaten.

Consumption was 50 per cent. more than normal until 10 a. m., in spite of an appeal issued by the company, the public service commission and city officials Monday to reduce the consumption 50 per cent. The ordinary daily consumption in Indianapolis is 10,000,000 cubic feet.

Situation Worse.

"The situation is much worse than it was yesterday," said J. Dorsey Forrest, general manager of the company. "More gas has been going out in the mains this morning than ever before until we reduced the pressure. It is obvious that many local persons were using gas for heating today.

"We hoped yesterday that our appeal would enable us to maintain the pressure at a high level, but until consumers stop using gas for heating, the pressure must remain down, or the city will be without gas in a few hours. We believe that gas must be provided for cooking first, and it is to this end that the pressure was ordered reduced."

100 Ovens Down.

No gas was being supplied the city from the Prospect street plant today, and 100 of the ovens there were down.

By reducing the pressure, Mr. Forrest said, the company could stretch the prospective supply of gas over a greater number of days than if it were used even in normal quantities. If manufacturers cease using gas, he said, it would result in a saving of approximately 10 per cent.

ASKS ROADS FOR NAMES OF STRIKING EMPLOYES

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ADDRESSES TWO BIG SYSTEMS.

WISHES LEADERS SET OUT

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads were asked today by the department of justice to send the names of all their striking employes and to indicate which of them were leaders in the walkout.

The department officials flatly refused to discuss the meaning of the messages or to indicate whether similar requests would go forward to the executives of other railroad corporations.

The text of the telegram follows:

"Please send us at once the names of all of your emoloyes who are on strike, indicating the names of any of them who appear to be directing the movement in whole or in part."

Grunau Ousted.

Reports from field agents of the department today said a new union was being formed among the strikers in Pittsburg and Chicago. The organization was identified as the "Railroad Workers' Union," with temporary headquarters in Chicago.

Department agents at Chicago advised that John Grunau had been deposed as head of the Chicago Yardmen's Association. Efforts were made to learn the identity of the new officers who, the reports said, were affiliated with the Industrial Workers of the World.

Further complications in the situation were apparent from investigations of federal agents, which Assistant Attorney-General Garvan said, indicated that the strike leaders were attempting to obtain the co-operation of railroad shop workers in the walkout. Propaganda urging the shopmen to quit their jobs has been circulated in at least five great railroad centers, the telegrams from agents said.

STRIKERS' GAINS OFFSET

New York Central Handles Considerable Freight and Maintains Passenger Service.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Unless the situation in the New York district, caused by the unauthorized railroad strike, is materially improved within forty-eight hours, trains may be manned with experienced volunteers, J. J. Mantell, spokesman for the General Managers' Association, announced late today after a meeting of the organizations.

A few trains in New Jersey were operated today by public officials, bankers, brokers and others who volunteered their services.

"It is obvious now," said Mr. Mantell, "that there is a thorough understanding on the part of the public that this is an assault on law and order and not an ordinary railroad strike." He added that offers of assistance were flowing in from colleges, American Legion Posts and from military engineers who saw service abroad.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Railroads and strikers went into a clinch today for control of the traffic arteries leading into New York.

While the strikers, who yesterday crippled suburban traffic in New Jersey, succeeded in inconveniencing 10,000 more commuters by shutting down the three divisions of the Staten Island Rapid Transit Company and drawing out more firemen on the Long Island railroad, the other roads reported greater success in operating freight and passenger service.

Accepting the aid of citizens and working hand in hand with representatives of the four brotherhoods, the roads were able to move an increasing amount of food into the city, while specials operated by volunteer crews began arriving from suburban points in New Jersey.

Ticket Sales Stopped.

The Long Island railroad announced that 500 firemen had quit. Sale of tickets for all steam trains was ordered discontinued. Electric service was reported about 90 per cent. efficient.

Timothy Shea, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, conferred again today with strikers and later addressed a meeting of the executive committee and delegates of the brotherhood in Hoboken, announcing that the meeting would continue "until some solution" of the strike was reached.

Mayor in Engine Cab.

"This is distinctly a citizens' movement," declared Mayor McKenna, of Englewood, who occupied the cab of one "citizen' special." "We are showing favoritism to neither side. We will keep the trains running until the strike is over."

In Mayor McKenna's train crew were Roger Clark, state commissioner of highways in New Jersey; a Columbia law school professor, an exporter and a bank officer. Several such specials were operated on the Erie & Lackawanna and some engines were fired by American Legion members.

One hundred students of Johns Hopkins University, with the approval of the faculty, have volunteered their services to the railroads at Baltimore, and have been accepted. They will go to work as switchmen and firemen in the yards.

Department of justice agents investigating the strike in New Jersey terminals have been able to discover no I. W. W. influence behind the walkout, according to Alfred Franck.

RAILROAD LABOR BOARD APPOINTED

Nine Members of New Organization Nominated by President Wilson.

CABINET MEETING CALLED

Railway Strike Situation to Be the Principal Subject for Discussion Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The railroad labor board was appointed today by President Wilson.

The President today also called a meeting of the cabinet for tomorrow to discuss "the general situation." It was understood that the strike would be the principal subject discussed.

This is the first cabinet meeting called by the President since he returned from his western trip last September "a very sick man." Since his illness he has seen only a few members of his official family.

Members of Rail Board.

The members of the labor board are:

Representing the Public—George W. Hanger, Washington, D. C., Henry Hunt, Cincinnati; R. M. Barton, Tennessee.

Representing the Railroads—Horace Baker, J. H. Elliot and William L. Park.

Representing the Employes—Albert Phillips, A. O. Wharton and James J. Forrester.

The railroad labor board is created by the Esch-Cummins bill as final authority in railway wage disputes.

Nominations Go to Senate.

The board will be authorized to meet in Washington at once to take up the grievances of the railroad employes now on strike. The nominations went to the senate at noon today and prompt action by that body was expected.

The board's first work after considering the present strike will be to take up the whole railroad wage question which has been pending for nearly a year.

The board is to establish permanent headquarters at Chicago, and its members will devote all of their time to the work. They will receive salaries of $10,000 a year each.

Former Cincinnati Mayor.

Mr. Hunt, one of the public representatives, is appointed for one year. He is a former mayor of Cincinnati, and a former member of the Ohio house of representatives. During the war he was a captain in the national army. Since 1915 he has been a member of the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Southern railway, a city-owned utility.

Mr. Hanger, another representative of the public, as a member of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, has had considerable experience in handling labor disputes. He is named for two years.

Mr. Barton, the third member, is a former judge of the Tennessee court of appeals, and is appointed for three years.

Railroads' Representatives.

Horace Baker, who is appointed to represent the railroad executives for a three-year term, is a former general manager of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific railroad.

J. H. Elliot, of Texas, is appointed for two years. He formerly was general manager of the Texas & Pacific railroad, and subsequently was a colonel in the transportation corps of the American expeditionary forces.

Mr. Park is vice-president of the Chicago Great Western railroad, and is appointed for one year.

Mr. Phillips is vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. He is appointed for three years.

Mr. Wharton, whose home is in Missouri, is an official of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor, and a member of the board of railway wages and working conditions of the United States railroad administration. His term is for two years.

Mr. Forrester is president of the Brotherwood of Railway Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express

WOULD STABILIZE CITY CAR SERVICE

City Takes Steps to Establish a Cost-of-Service System.

PLEA BEFORE COMMISSION

Modification of the Emergency Order Is Asked—Details of the Petition.

In order that the Indianapolis Street Railway Company may be enabled to obtain sufficient money properly to operate, maintain and extend the street car system, the city of Indianapolis today filed with the public service commission suggestions for a modification of the emergency order of the commission under which the street car company has been operating, to provide for a service-at-cost plan of operation.

The city points out that the operation of the company under the existing order of the commission has not been at a loss and it recommends that the present fare be continued.

The city further sets out that in event the present fare does not prove sufficient to maintain the cost of service as defined in the plan, the city will not consent to an advance in city fare until the commission has passed on the contention repeatedly made by the city that the street car company is entitled to higher compensation for services rendered to the interurban companies using the city lines.

Different Fares.

Ten different fares which may be permitted under the service-at-cost plan are set out, ranging upward from the present fare to the highest fare of 6 cents with 1 cent for transfer, and downward to the lowest fare of six tickets for a quarter and twenty-five tickets for $1 as existed before the emergency order of the public service commission.

Under the service-at-cost plan, the company is to be permitted to have a fixed rate of interest that it may earn. The city, for the purpose of the operation of the plan, agrees to a valuation of $15,000,000 of the company's property.

The city, under this plan, would be represented in the office of the company by a city street railway commissioner who would be appointed by the mayor at a salary of $500 a month. The salary and the necessary expenses of this commissioner, whose duty it will be to see that the company is providing the proper service in the most economical way, will come out of the operating expenses of the company.

Interest rates on the $15,000,000 valuation, the percentage allowance for depreciation and some other figures are left blank in the city's suggestions. These blanks are to be filled in by the commission after a hearing, which was set for April 22, at 9:30 a. m.

City Officials Appear.

Mayor Charles W. Jewett, Samuel Ashby, corporation counsel, and Thomas D. Stevenson, city attorney, appeared before the commission to file the suggestions for the service-at-cost plan. They held a brief conference with the commission.

The city officials for several months have been working on the plan which they believe will prove the solution to the street car service problem. Several informal conferences were held by the city officials, officials of the street car company and the public service commission before the city completed its suggestions for the service-at-cost order.

Text of Suggestions.

The suggestions of the city in full are as follows:

In re petition of Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company, now Indianapolis Street Railway Company, for authority to make change in fares to be charged on the street railways in the city of Indianapolis: Plan of operation on basis of service-at-cost under order of commission suggested by city, and motion to modify order.

When the original petition in this matter was filed by the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company the city of Indianapolis contended both by printed brief and in oral argument that it had a franchise contract with the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company, and also with the Indianapolis Street Railway Company, which did not expire until 1934, that said contracts were each binding and in full force, and that the public service commission had no power or jurisdiction to modify or change any of the terms or conditions thereof, or to order or authorize the petitioner to charge and collect a higher fare than authorized in said franchise contracts.

Supreme Court's Decision.

This question was presented to the supreme court of Indiana in the case of State ex rel. Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company vs. Public Service Commission of Indiana, in which case the court held that under the public utility law of 1913 the public service commission did have jurisdiction to grant emergency relief to the petitioner and increase the rate of fare provided for in said franchises if the commission found that an emergency did exist.

Order of Public Service Commission.

After a very extended hearing, the public service commission found that on account of increased cost of operation an emergency did exist and on the 12th day of October, 1918, issued its temporary order, increasing the fare to 5 cents to cover a sixty-day period of operation. At the end of which period another hearing was had, and on January 6, 1919, the public service commission made a further order modifying the order of October 12, 1918, and providing that the order as modified should continue "over a period covering the signing of the treaty ending the world war, and of its ratification by this country, and 100 days thereafter, unless said order is theretofore annulled or changed by order of the commission."

Emergency Continues.

The city, by the suggestions herein made, does not waive or intend to waive any of its rights under either of said franchise contracts. The conditions which caused the public service commission to hold on the 12th day of October, 1918, and again on the 6th day of January, 1919, that an emergency existed on account of the increase in the cost of labor and materials, which required it, under the law, to grant relief to the petitioner, and authorized it to charge higher fares than provided for in said franchises, have not changed, i. e., the price of labor and materials, and the cost of operation have not been reduced, while on the other hand there has been an actual increase in the cost of both labor and material since the commission made its orders; so that if the commission was warranted in holding that an emergency existed which justified the relief when granted, it is beyond dispute that the same emergency has continued and now exists.

The City's Position.

The proper operation of the street car system is vital to the public welfare of the city. We appreciate that a public utility can not long render service for less than cost, and that the public has no moral right to receive street car service if it has to be rendered at a loss. The city de-

MILK RULES OPPOSED BY INDIANA DAIRYMEN

CONFERENCE HELD WITH THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Rules formulated by the Indiana State Board of Health to govern the production and distribution of milk, effective immediately on promulgation, were opposed Monday by the Indiana State Dairymen's Association in a resolution passed at a meeting at the Claypool hotel. A conference between the board and a committee of the association was requested in order to adjust differences.

The proposed rules, it was said by dairymen, would work hardship on milk consumers, particularly in smaller communities, because it would be necessary for all milk sold for retail trade to be pasteurized or to be produced from tuberculin-tested cows. This would mean that small producers in communities where there are no pasteurization facilities would probably withdraw from the business.

B. H. Scranton, of Rising Sun, president of the association, presided at the meeting. C. R. George, of Lafayette, is secretary, and the following organizations in the state were represented: Indiana Jersey Cattle Club, Indiana Holstein-Friesian Association, Indiana Guernsey Breeders' Association, Indiana Ayrshire Beeders' Association, Chicago Milk Producers' Association, Central Indiana Milk Producers' Association, Evansville Dairymen's Association, Monroe County and Franklin Dairymen's Associations, Monroe County and Clay County Holstein-Friesian Associations and the executive committee of the Indiana State Dairymen's Association.

NEW ELECTRIC RATE ASKED

Merchants Company Wishes Surchage Pending Readjustment.

New rates for electric service are requested in petitions filed with the public service commission Monday afternoon by the Merchants heat and Light Company and the Indianapolis Light and Heat Company.

The petitions ask a complete readjustment of the present basic rates and until such new rates are established a surcharge, in addition to that now added to the patrons' bills, sufficient to "cover the added cost of coal, supplies, materials, labor, taxes, etc."

The basic rates now in effect were established by the commission before the war on the basis of pre-war costs. During the first year when this country was in the war and costs began to soar, the companies petitioned for a temporary surcharge, and this was granted in September, 1917. The surcharge at that time amounted to 5 mills a kilowatt hour. As costs continued to mount, the companies again petitioned and an additional surcharge of 2 mills was granted. No surcharge was added to ordinary domestic consumers' bills, the increases applying only to larger domestic and to all power consumers.

HOWAT DENOUNCES ALLEN

Terms Him "Skunk of Governor," Speaking From Jail.

GIRARD, Kas., April 13.—Alexander Howat, head of the Kansas coal miners' union, speaking by permission of the sheriff of Crawford county, denounced Governor Allen, of Kansas, as a "skunk of a Governor" before a crowd of several thousand persons, mostly miners and their wives, gathered in front of the jail here yesterday. Howat is in jail in contempt of court for refusing to testify before the state industrial court.

Ninety per cent. of the coal mines in Kansas were idle today as a protest against the imprisonment of Howat and three other district union officials.

"We won't recognize this court" Howat said, referring to the court of industrial relations before which he refused to appear as witness. "It is composed of three corporation lawyers appointed by that skunk of a Governor, Allen."

Howat denounced over and over in the most bitter terms the Governor and the legislature which enacted the law.

Howat also paid his respects to Judge Andrew J. Curran, of the Crawford county district court, who sentenced him to jail for contempt. Judge Curran had been referred to in a newspaper story as a sturdy American. "They talk about sturdy Americans," Howat said; "sturdy Americans who send men to jail who have committed no crime. The men and the women are going to attend to these sturdy Americans when they get the opportunity."

When Howat concluded his sneech, the crowd voted thanks to Sheriff Webb for the courtesy shown in permitting Howat to deliver his address.

Following the breaking up of the gathering in front of the jail, miners marched around the square, and in the corner of the square another meeting was held addressed by a Socialist orator.

A banner carried by the miners said: "We are for the U. S. A."

Received Stolen Goods Charge.

Albon Skubich, age twenty-seven, 988 West Pearl street, was arrested Monday afternoon by Frank S. Ream, United States deputy marshal, on the charge of receiving stolen property belonging to the United States. He was bound over to the grand jury by Charles W. Moores, United States commissioner, and gave bond in the sum of $500. Skubich is charged with having received twelve regulation United States army revolvers from three soldiers, who are charged with having stolen them at Ft. Benjamin Harrison. The three soldiers are under arrest awaiting court-martial.

PLEA MADE FOR COLLEGE.

Irvington Post Urges Butler to Remain in That Suburb.

Irvington Post No. 38 of the American Legion has passed resolutions urging that in the choosing of a new site for Butler College the board of directors retain the college in Irvington. The board has for some months been considering sites on which to rebuild, the plan being to occupy the new site by September, 1923. The present college buildings can not accommodate more than 600 students, and the enrollment is now 588.

The post, in its resolutions, asserts that Irvington has a type of citizens in sympathy with college life; that these citizens have in many instances invested in property because of the presence of the college, and that removal of the college would prove to be a great hardship. The resolutions have been handed to Dr. Thomas Carr Howe, president of the college.

John Burroughs' Nature Notes

Can You Answer These Questions?

1. Why are the migratory birds seen first in the morning on their return to the north?

2. How does a spider kill a bee?

3. What is the color of the best maple syrup?

Answers to Previous Questions.

1. Can cows eat poison ivy without ill effect?

The cows will eat the leaves of the burdock and the stinging nettles of the woods. But what can not a cow's tongue stand? She will crop the poison ivy with impunity, and I think would eat thistles if she found them growing in the garden. Leeks and garlics are readily eaten by cattle in the spring, and are said to be medicinal to them.

2. In what peculiar way do pigeons feed their young?

When the mother pigeon feeds her young she brings the food, not in her beak like other birds, but in her crop; she places her beak between the open mandibles of her young, and fairly crams the food, which is delivered by a peculiar pumping movement, down its throat. She provides a capital illustration of the eager, persistent newsmonger.

3. Are weeds easily discouraged?

Weeds have this virtue, they are not easily discouraged; they never lose heart entirely; they die game. If they can not have the best, they will take up with the poorest; if fortune is unkind to them today, they hope for better luck tomorrow; if they can not lord it over a corn-hill, they will sit humbly at its foot and accept what comes; in all cases they make the most of their opportunities.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS

The city's gas supply is in great danger of exhaustion.

If gas gives out entirely, the city will be reduced to starvation.

An appeal has been made to the people by the mayor, the chairman of the Public Service Commission, the president of the Chamber of Commerce and ourselves, to conserve gas.

We Must Have Gas for Cooking

Gas is not absolutely necessary for any other purpose. All factories should discontinue the use of gas immediately. Nobody should use gas for heating purposes. In the use of gas for cooking the greatest economy should be practiced. To run a factory or a gas grate a few hours longer at the cost of cutting off the city's only means of preparing food will not be attempted by anybody who has a sense of humanity or of patriotism.

We appeal to the public to reduce its gas consumption from ten million cubic feet per day to five million. If this is done, we believe we can keep up the supply for two or three weeks. Without such co-operation there will be a disaster.

Watch the papers for announcements which will be made until the emergency is past.

REVEALS LITTLE ABOUT PENNSYLVANIA POLITICS

PENROSE BACK FROM FLORIDA UNDECIDED AS TO FUTURE.

POLITICAL VIEWS SOUGHT

The Indianapolis News Bureau,
33 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Boies Penrose, Republican senator from Pennsylvania and the man who expects to say how that state's seventy-six delegates to the Republican national convention will vote, returned last night from Florida, where he had been in retirement for several months. Naturally his views with respect to the Republican pre-convention contest and particularly with respect to the Pennsylvania situation were sought by his followers.

The inquirers did not get much satisfaction, however. The senator confided to his close political friends that he had not yet made up his mind as to what Pennsylvania should do in the convention. He said to them that he hoped Pennsylvania's seventy-six votes would be a real factor in the naming of the party's candidate.

State Candidates Unopposed.

He said that he understood that most of the candidates for delegates-at-large and for district delegates from the state were unopposed, which means that the Republicans of the state are permitting the machine to choose the delegates.

"In no case have I heard of an effort to inquire as to the political leanings or sentiment of any of the delegates," said the senator. "Personally I am as anxious as any one to have the advantage of their sagacious advice and information. With a delegation of high character no one need fear any apprehension of the bugaboo occasionally raised that some kind of backstair influence or offensive bossism may subvert the desire of the people for personal or sordid interests; and at the same time those persons who are making a great clamor on candidates or issues without any real foundation or tangible common-sense arguments will discover that the Pennsylvania delegates are not going to be carried off their feet by mere noise."

Must Redeem the Country.

The Pennsylvania senator further said: "I would say that no paramount dominating candidacy has developed. Many good men have been suggested. Our own state has a candidate in Governor Sproul, who is very generally and widely spoken of throughout the country. But the first consideration of all is the redemption of the country from its deplorable governmental inefficiency. We will unite in that one patriotic effort and at every personal sacrifice. It may be said that the issues have hardly begun to be explained to the people.

OFFER OF TRUCKS DELAYED

Secretary Baker Waits Opinion of Judge-Advocate of Army.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Secretary of War Baker is hesitating to authorize the use of army motor trucks stored at various places over the country, including Ft. Benjamin Harrison, for use in bringing relief to cities affected seriously by the railroad strike, until he receives an opinion from the judge advocate-general as to whether the lending of the trucks to civilians would be legal or not.

In the meantime, the council of national defense has worked out a plan for use of motor trucks, and will be ready with the motor transport corps of the army to act the minute orders are given by Secretary Baker. The plan that has been evolved calls for the pooling of motor truck facilities in all cities, under local committees, with a motor transport officer in charges of priorities, having full authority to establish priorities and enforce them. The plan also calls for the use of thousands of government trucks.

There are approximately 3,000 government trucks in storage at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, which could be made ready for service on fairly short notice, according to Captain Winfield S. King, post quartermaster. There are, however, only eighteen men in the motor transport corps at the fort, and some of these are mechanics. Other soldiers at the fort could be pressed into service as drivers, if necessary, Captain King said.

CABRERA SPRINGS A TRAP.

Uses Stratagem to Gain Upper Hand of Guatemala Revolution.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Private advices received here picture the situation in Guatemala City as a trap that had been sprung by President Estra Cabrera on his enemies rather than a rebel victory. It was explained that the failure of the president to use the army to prevent the entry of the rebels into the capital was a stratagem employed to give him the upper hand with a minimum of bloodshed.

Strong government forces were stationed at La Palma, a suburb, where President Cabrera is staying, and at other points from where operations can be directed that will effectually close all the exits from the city, these reports said. After the rebels had flocked into the city, Cabrera was said to have announced to them the capital would remain under siege until the insurgents sued for terms. The water supply would be cut off, food shipments stopped and only women, children and other noncombatants permitted to pass the line of siege, the message added, in order to hasten a comparatively bloodless victory.

FAVORS RECOVERY PLANS.

House, 297 to 4, Calls on Attorney-General to Act on Camp Report.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—By a vote of 297 to 4, the house today passed a resolution calling on Attorney-General Palmer to start grand jury investigations and civil suits to recover losses alleged to have been caused by the cost-plus system of building army camps.

The resolution also referred to the attorney-general all evidence collected by the house subcommittee on camps and cantonments which declares that the losses amount to more than 30 per cent. of the total cost of the camps.

Let All Save.

To the Editor of The News:

Sir—If the gas supply in the city is at such low ebb, as indicated in statements by gas company officials last night, why are gas street lights in Eastern avenue lighted as early as 4:30 o'clock in the evening. Last night, two hours before dusk, they were burning brightly. There would seem to be more ways than one of restricting the use of gas.

MUSIC IN DEATH HOUSE.

Jess E. Walker, Convicted of Murder, Describes Electric Chair.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 13.—Jess Edward Walker, age nineteen, of Evansville, who is awaiting electrocution for first degree murder, tells of the deathhouse at Sing Sing prison, New York, in a letter written to a young woman here. He says:

"The deathhouse is a little one-story, red brick building. All the doors are green on the outside and brown on the inside. There is room for thirty men in the deathhouse, and there are now twenty-nine of us here. But instead of it being like an undertaker's shop, every one tries to be as happy as a spring bird. So you see we try to drive all the sorrow out of the place. We have here with us a Victrola and also a piano player, so we join in with the music and sing. You ought to hear us."

Walker referred to the electric chair in the following words:

"We have a big chair up here, and it is always polished up bright and ready for us. One poor fellow is supposed to die tomorrow night. Thursday nights are known as death nights, for that is the only night when the men in the deathhouse are sent to their doom."

Walker in his letter, says he is innocent of the crime for which he was convicted, expresses hope that he will get out and tells of his faith in God.

Hupmobile

LET US see what grounds we have for believing the Hupmobile to be the best car of its class in the world. Well, take the matter of long life alone: Isn't it a conspicuous fact that it is almost impossible to "kill" a Hupmobile? And, when you stop to think of it, isn't long life—which means, of course, long-continued, satisfactory service—a matter of prime importance? Here, undoubtedly, you have one very good reason why our belief has now become practically a public conviction.

ATTORNEY IS ACCUSED OF FALSE PRETENSES

GARAGE OWNER COMPLAINS ABOUT $800 FEE.

HIS CASE NOT DISMISSED

Charles W. Rollinson, an attorney, 905 Odd Fellow building, was arrested Monday night on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses as a result of an affidavit filed in city court by Harry Parsons, 759 Fletcher avenue, a garage owner, who was indicted recently by the Marion county grand jury on a charge of receiving stolen goods.

Parsons, who is alleged to have received some cars stolen by a gang of automobile thieves who also were indicted by the grand jury, charges that Rollinson after receiving $200 as an attorney fee, represented to him that for $800 more he would see to it that the case would be finally disposed of in city court.

City Court Action.

Parsons paid the $800, and when the preliminary examination in city court was held, Judge Pritchard held Parsons to the grand jury.

On Parsons' statement that this action would force him to hire another bondsman, Judge Pritchard changed the judgment and took the case under advisement, but instructed the police and detectives to take their evidence to the grand jury immediately.

Case Not Dismissed.

This was done, Judge Pritchard said, as a favor to Parsons because it saved him the expense of hiring another bondsman. The grand jury later indicted Parsons and then he learned that the case had not been dismissed in city court, contrary, he said, to the assurances of his attorney.

Parsons then began to wonder about his $800, which, he says, was to be used by Rollinson to get the case discharged in city court. The circumstances were explained to another attorney and then to Judge Pritchard. The filing of the affidavit against Rollinson resulted.

Statement of Rollinson.

Mr. Rollinson said today that he charged Parsons and his brother, Benton Parsons, who was arrested on a similar charge, $500 each to represent them in the case. He said he then appeared for the brothers in city court and also represented them in preparing for the presentation of their case to the grand jury, where Benton was discharged and Harry indicted, and then appeared twice for the latter in the criminal court.

Rollinson characterized as "absolutely false" the statement by Parsons to the effect that he had been assured by Rollinson that for $800 his case would be dismissed in city court. He said he explained to Parsons that if the case was dismissed in city court the action would not prevent the grand jury from taking up the case.

LIVELY AROUND MOUNTJOY

Protest Strike Called in Ireland Goes Into Effect.

DUBLIN, April 13.—The general strike declared in Ireland in protest over the treatment of the political prisoners who are on a hunger strike in Mountjoy prison here went into effect today amid tumultuous scenes in the vicinity of the prison.

The crowd which had assembled outside the prison grew as the day wore on until it comprised twenty thousand persons, among whom threatening demonstrations occurred. The authorities thought it necessary to augment the defenses, and three tanks and several armored cars, with a large force of police and military, were stationed about the structure.

It was announced that the strike, which originally was intended as a one-day celebration, would continue until the prisoners were released.

All the shops, public houses and restaurants of Dublin are closed and the hotel staffs quit. No tramcars or trains are running, except a few on the Great Northern Ireland railway. The Punchestown races have been postponed. The strike is not in effect in Belfast and the north of Ireland.

In Dublin and throughout the west and south of Ireland, however, business is at a standstill.

The lord mayor and the high sheriff thereupon telegraphed the chief secretary for Ireland, in London, that "we fear that a dreadful tragedy is impending."

CHANGE IN ORDER DESIRED

Hearing on Petition Involving Custody of Haugh Children.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

RUSHVILLE, Ind., April 13.—Judge Will M. Sparks today heard in the Rush circuit court, evidence on the petition of Dr. Amelia R. Keller and Otto Keller, of Indianapolis, to modify a court order of May 14, 1919, under which they received the care and custody of the two children of Mrs. Marguerite Haugh and J. Guy Haugh, of Indianapolis, who were divorced here last May. Ruling on the petition was withheld until Judge Sparks can hear Mrs. Haugh, who was to arrive in Indianapolis today from New York.

Judge Sparks received the petition by mail, and set a hearing for today, not knowing that Mrs. Haugh was not in Indianapolis. When Mr. Haugh obtained a divorce on his cross-complaint, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Keller received the custody of one boy, and that of the other was given to Dr. Amelia Keller.

Dr. Keller and Mr. Keller told the court they were willing to continue to care for the children, if they were assured that they would not be troubled by Mrs. Haugh. They asserted that Mrs. Haugh annoyed them by interfering with the children. Mr. Haugh informed Judge Sparks that he was satisfied with the treatment which the children had received.

CALLED BY GRAND JURY.

J. A. Brown Requested Permission to Testify in Jail Investigation.

J. A. Brown, supervisor of field service of the state board of charities, was a witness before the Marion county grand jury today in the jury's investigation of conditions at the Marion county jail. Mr. Brown had asked Claris Adams, prosecuting attorney, to permit him to testify. It is understood Mr. Brown's testimony dealt with conditions at the jail as found by him when he inspected the jail and it was believed he wished to give an explanation of the fact that disclosures of alleged improper conditions at the jail, made in the federal court, had not been discovered by the board of state charities.

John Y. Blackwell, a prisoner at the Indiana Reformatory, was another witness today. He was expected to tell of conditions at the jail while he was held there. Other jail prisoners testified.

REPUBLICANS ALONE IN ILLINOIS VOTE CONTEST

WOOD AND LOWDEN ARE ONLY CANDIDATES ENTERED.

WOMEN GO TO THE POLLS

CHICAGO, April 13.—Illinois voters cast their ballots today in the first state presidential preference primary with Governor Frank O. Lowden and Leonard Wood as the only candidates entered for the Republican indorsement, and the Democratic field uncontested. The Illinois Democratic delegation will go to the San Francisco convention uninstructed.

Voters were privileged to write on ballots names of other presidential candidates and supporters of Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, waged campaigns in some districts.

Women voted in all but half a dozen counties with the provision that their ballots might be thrown out later if their participation was found illegal. Women's ballots will be counted separately.

Look to Chicago Vote.

Wood supporters looked to Chicago for their main strength with predictions of an even break on the downstate vote, while Lowden's campaign managers declared the Illinois Governor would carry Chicago and Cook county and pile up a substantial majority in the 101 counties outside Cook.

Polls opened at 6 a. m. and were to close at 6 p. m. Fair and cold weather was forecast for the state.

In Chicago bond issues totaling $34,000,000, of which $5,000,000 would be used for a proposed municipal convention hall, also were being voted on.

The Republican leader in Chicago is Mayor William Hale Thompson. Both Johnson and Lowden organizations have counted on his support. The only definite line on his personal inclination is that he is said to be for any candidate who is opposed to compulsory military training.

GETS SUSPENDED SENTENCE

George Dennison Must Make Restitution—Criminal Court Cases.

George Dennison, charged with appropriating more than $700 and an automobile belonging to Morris Cramer, former employer of Dennison, received a suspended sentence of one to eight years at the State Reformatory when he pleaded guilty in criminal court today. Judge James A. Collins ordered him to make full restitution to Cramer.

Suspended sentences of one to fourteen years each were given in the cases of Raymond Carpenter, June Thomas and Roy Dolan, who pleaded guilty to charges of larceny. Rupert Sandjeum, charged with larceny, was sentenced to the reformatory for from one to eight years, and James Wilson, charged with larceny, was sentenced to the State Farm for nine months.

RUSH TO FILE EXPECTED.

Wednesday Is Last Date for Candidates to Conventions to Appear.

Attaches of the county clerk's office are expecting a rushing business business Wednesday, the last day for candidates for delegates to the state conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties to file notices of their candidacy. The county will send 149 delegates to each convention and it is expected twice this number will appear as candidates for the places. About 100 candidates for the two delegations have filed notices.

Frederick C. Schortemeier, secretary of the Republican state committee, has issued instructions to all district and county chairmen to urge the filing today of the candidacy of delegates to the state convention. However, Mr. Schortemeier says that according to election board rulings in former years, the twentieth day before the primary election is a proper time for filing such petitions.

The certification of names of candidates to county clerks to be placed on ballots for the primary was completed in the office of Ed Jackson, secretary of state, Monday night. Official copies of the names were put in the mails and the secretary of state records closed as far as that work is concerned.

FINANCE PLAN SOUGHT TO PAY TEACHER BONUS

BOARD IN CONFERENCE WITH THREE OTHER BODIES.

LEGALITY OF BORROWING

Ways and means by which money might be obtained by the board of school commissioners to pay salary increases asked by the public school teachers were considered at a conference this afternoon between the school board, the state board of tax commissioners and committees representing the teachers and the citizens of Indianapolis. The teachers ask increases which would add approximately $800,000 to the school budget. The amount paid for salaries for the current year was approximately $1,750,000. The salaries paid during the school year of 1919-20 aggregated approximately $1,300,000.

The conference was attended by all members of the school board and the superintendent of schools. The teachers were represented by the executive board of the Indianapolis Federation of Public School Teachers, and the citizens were represented by a committee headed by Fredrick Matson, president of the Rotary Club.

The teachers attended the conference with information prepared to show the state board that money could be borrowed legally by the school board to pay bonuses to the teachers. It also was proposed to bring up the question of whether interest on school building bonds could be paid from money obtained by the sale of the bonds. This was done with a view to presenting a way to use such part of the general fund for salaries as might otherwise be used to pay the interest on bonds.

PASTORS ARE ASSIGNED.

North Indiana Methodist Conference Ends at Richmond.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

RICHMOND, Ind., April 13.—Assignment of pastors was the principal business before the north Indiana Methodist conference, at the closing session of the annual meeting here last night. The bishop's cabinet spent most of yesterday arranging the list for the various districts, and many changes were included in the report as read. The conference unanimously approved the plan for the unification of the Methodist Episcopal and the Methodist Episcopal church South.

The conference collected $194,556 during the last year for foreign missions, according to the report of David W. Jones, treasurer. Contributions for home missions, public education and Sunday schools amounted to $333,051. The increase in the membership for the year was 9,118, and 1,156 deaths were reported.

ELECTION ACT ARGUMENTS

Niblack Case Before Judge Ewbank in Circuit Court.

A hearing of arguments on law questions involved in the suit of Mason J. Niblack, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, against the state election board, state officials and other candidates for the Governor nomination, was to be heard by Judge Louis B. Ewbank in circuit court this afternoon.

Niblack is contesting the validity of the 1917 primary law which amended the 1915 law to do away with the casting of votes for first and second choice candidates. He filed an amended complaint in the case today.

False Pretense Charge.

L. E. Sink, a painter, 1709 Ruckle street, is under arrest on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses as a result of an affidavit filed by Jacob Rush, Jr. Rush alleges that Sink had three rooms for rent at the Ruckle street address and, on payment of $25, was to give possession to him on April 1, but failed to do so.

GOTHAM AT GRIPS WITH SWITCHMEN

special agent conducting the investigation.

"We find no evidence of 'I. W. W.ism' in the strike," he said. "Of course, there are a few radicals in it, as you would expect in any strike, but so far we have found nothing to show there was concerted action in calling the strike."

Officials Redouble Efforts.

Officials of the various roads involved redoubled their efforts to maintain service and they were cheered by announcements that military engineers, college students and citizens in several communities had volunteered to fill the strikers' places. The offers were accepted in some cases, especially where the volunteers had previous railroad experience, the officials said.

While gains were made by the strikers yesterday, notably in stopping the suburban serivce of the Central railroad of New Jersey, which had been unaffected previously, food trains reached the city in such number as to relieve the anxieties of health officials.

Milk Trains Running.

The milk trains were not interfered with to any marked extent and it was said that the city has a supply on hand for forty-eight hours, not taking into consideration today's expected shipments.

Officials of the "big four" brotherhoods, who professed to see their organizations in danger as the result of the unauthorized strike, continued their efforts to induce "outlaws" to return to work.

Among the officials in this city were Mr. Shea, [illegible] G. Griffing, representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and S. C. Cowan, representing the Order of Railway Conductors. Plans for their campaign were outlined at a conference last night called by John G. Walber, secretary of the bureau of information for the eastern railroads, who came here from Washington for that purpose.

In several instances efforts of the brotherhood leaders to address bodies of the strikers were repulsed with hoots and jeers.

Shortage in the supply in newsprint paper due to the strike has caused all papers greatly to decrease the size of their editions and notices were carried announcing that many columns of advertising had been omitted.

MORE OUT AT PHILADELPHIA.

Rail Strike Spreading, 3,750 Men Being Idle in Region.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—The railroad strike situation in the Philadelphia district appeared more serious today than at any time since the men began leaving their work last Saturday. Officials of the Pennsylvania railroad admitted the walkout was spreading and estimated that 1,500 men, many of them shopmen, joined the ranks of the strikers late yesterday and last night. This increased the number of Pennsylvania employes out in the district to 2,500. In the eastern region approximately 3,750 were idle. Officials of the company said they did not look for any noticeable change for three or four days.

Freight and express traffic on all railroads entering the city virtually is at a standstill, while the curtailment of passenger service is increasing. Of the 700 passenger trains originating, passing through or terminating in Philadelphia 105 were annulled yesterday, and it was announced that unless the situation improved, more would be canceled today. Many of the trains dropped were those running between this city and New York.

Railroad clerks who have been working as trainmen on some of the suburban lines were ordered by their union chiefs last night to cease work and it was feared this service would be seriously crippled. Up to this time it has been practically normal.

The strike has seriously interfered with the movement of coal, and in some cases has caused the closing down of anthracite mines. Shortage of cars due to the walkout caused all the mines of the Lackawanna Coal Company in the Wilkes-Barre district to suspend operations yesterday. About 20,000 employes were thrown out of work. Unless empty cars are returned promptly from the lake and tidewater terminals, a shutdown of all the Wyoming valley collieries was looked for within twenty-four hours.

The important Port Richmond coal and freight yards of the Reading railway are tied up. Strikers say only two locomotives are being operated for fire protection purposes. Fifty per cent. of the export trade from the Reading anthracite field is handled at Port Richmond.

The big Greenwich piers of the Pennsylvania railroad, where all the coal coming to this port over that line is handled, were also shut down today.

FEW NEW STRIKERS REPORTED.

Traffic Reductions and Consolidations in New England.

BOSTON, April 13.—Effects of the unauthorized strike of railroad employes were felt in all parts of New England today through further reductions and consolidations in all classes of traffic. The ranks of loyal workers remained unbroken on lines running through this district.

The second defection of New England switchmen to the cause of the strikers occurred today at Providence, but was as brief as the walkout at Worcester Sunday. A few employes of the New York, New Haven & Hartford quit work, but returned after a brotherhood official addressed them. At meetings in other cities the men voted to remain at work.

Freight traffic suffered most severely as a result of the general embargo in effect at all New England gateways.

Railroad officials declared the situation was becoming serious through inability to bring in food, coal or raw materials. Freight services on the New Haven road has been virtually suspended. The Boston & Albany railroad has canceled thirty extra freights, and the Boston & Maine has been unable to accept many cars from its connections. Many local passenger trains have been canceled on all roads.

Dealers in perishable foodstuffs have begun shipment to New York and other points by motor truck. Several truckloads of fish were sent from here today in this manner. Boats also are being utilized to capacity for passenger and freight service.

CAR REPAIRERS GO OUT.

Strike Situation at Cleveland Is Reported More Serious.

CLEVELAND, April 13.—The railroad strike situation in Cleveland took on a more serious aspect today when 200 car repairers and nearly fifty car inspectors employed in the Collingwood shops of the New York Central lines failed to report for work following their walkout last night.

It was reported that 300 more shopmen at the New York Central shops and 1,500 in shops of other roads plan to go out Thursday as a result of a vote Monday night.

Company officials said thirty-six New York Central switchmen returned to work in Collinwood and Big Four officials said fifty returned to work at the Linndale yards.

T. A. Cashin, international executive committeeman of the Switchmen's Union of North America, addressed a meeting of Collinwood switchmen last night and asked the strikers to return to work.

With the exception of the New York Central and Nickel Plate yards, where a few trains of freight were moved last night and early today, no freight was handled in Cleveland terminals. Passenger, mail and milk trains were operated about normal.

STRIKE HITS CAPITAL.

Gateway to the South Practically Closed to Traffic.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—"The gateway to the south" through this city was closed to freight traffic today as a result of the spread of the "unauthorized" switchmen's strike to the Potomac yards across the Potomac river.

Superintendent Colver said all of the men, including conductors and brakemen, as well as switchmen, were out and that the yards were paralyzed. The total number of strikers was placed by him at 220.

Railroad officials could give no estimate as to the number of cars tied up, but normally 3,000 carloads a day are handled through the yards, including all produce shipments from the south to the east.

Passenger traffic was curtailed, but not suspended. The Southern railway reported that its fast mail and passenger trains were moving subject to some delay. The passenger line tracks do not go through the Potomac yards.

The single track bridge across the Potomac from this city into Alexandria, where the Potomac yards are situated, is the only railroad inlet into the southeast of Cincinnati.

BALTIMORE FREIGHT EMBARGO.

1,500 Railmen's Places Taken by Officials and Students.

BALTIMORE, April 13.—Fifteen hundred or more railway workers were reported out in the Baltimore district of the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroads today in the "outlaw" strike which began here last evening. In Baltimore the Pennsylvania railroad declared an embargo on all freight outgoing and incoming. The Pennsylvania yards at Canton, Highland town, Bayview and Mt. Vernon, all lying within the city limits, were reported closed down.

"White collar men," including officials of the road were running trains. About 100 Johns Hopkins University students volunteered for service and were accepted by railroad officials. Their action was approved by the university faculty, which took the attitude that it was an outlawed strike and against the general interest of the public.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad today placed an embargo on the acceptance of any freight on its lines east of the Ohio river except "essential food necessities for human consumption, which can only be handled after special advance arrangements have been made." The action was taken "because of labor troubles," the announcement said.

TO KEEP OUT ALL AGITATORS.

Cleveland Mayor Issues Special Orders to Police.

CLEVELAND, April 13.—Mayor Harry L. Davis has issued a proclamation calling attention to the gravity of the situation facing the city and placing an embargo against I. W. W. Bolshevik or anarchist agitators coming here in connection with the strike of railroad switchmen and yardmen.

Informed that representatives of these elements were on their way to this city to "advocate mob force" in "a concerted effort to create industrial and social unrest," the mayor instructed Frank W. Smith, chief of police, to prevent such agitators from entering the city. Chief Smith sent the order to all precincts and assigned a special detail to execute it.

SCRANTON YARDMEN GO OUT.

Refuse to Handle Any Except Mail and Milk Trains.

SCRANTON, April 13.—Trainmen, firemen and switchmen of the Lackawanna railroad left their places at midnight last night and refuse to operate any but milk and mail trains until their demands for increased wages are met by the company.

They say their action is not a strike and that if the company is able to obtain men to take their places there will be no interference. Besides an increase in wages the men wish shorter hours and annual passes.

As a result of the tieup of the Lackawanna, Scranton is facing a grave shortage in foodstuffs.

Falls 35 Feet Into Creek.

Herman Wilson, age seventeen, 817 Drexel avenue, fell off the Thirtieth street bridge over Fall creek, about thirty-five feet. Wilson alighted on a sandbar at the edge of the stream, and apparently was little the worse for his experience. Sergeant Sandmann and the emergency squad investigated.

Favors Planting Trees When a Child Is Born

A revival of the old custom of planting a tree when a child is born is urged by Richard Lieber, director of the state conservation department. Arbor day is Friday and it would be appropriate to plant the tree on this date, he says. C. C. Deam, forester for the department, advises the planting of Norway or sugar maples, pin oaks and the like and advises against the planting of soft maple, box elder or catalpa as frequently is done. Schools are urged to plant shrubbery such as lilac, snowball, etc.

Baby Room a Feature

The baby room is one of the especially attractive features of the health exhibit at the Red Cross teaching center all this week. The dietetics departments has prepared menus for the one, two and three-year-old child, and on a daintily set table is set out the food that should be given to the baby at prescribed hours each day. Displays of balanced meals for adults are a part of the exhibit also.

The walls are lined with posters setting forth an array of health facts which should be sufficient to guide aright any one who studies the display. In the drugs and cosmetics department, are samples of patent medicines labeled with some facts about their monetary value and their effects on the human system.

F. W. Tucker, chief state inspector of weights and measures, assisted by John Stokes, will lecture and give demonstrations each evening during the week. The teaching center is on the fourth floor of the Chamber of Commerce.

JAMES H. LOWES, AGE 75, MAY HAVE FRACTURED SKULL.

WAS ALONE IN HIS OFFICE

James H. Lowes, local real estate dealer, was seriously injured this afternoon when he fell backward off the top of a desk in his office at 62 When building. He suffered severe bruises on the back of his head, and is believed to have received a fracture of the skull.

Mr. Lowes is seventy-five years old, and intended to celebrate his fiftieth wedding anniversary Wednesday.

Persons who heard him fall said he apparently had climbed on the top of the desk to drape an American flag around a picture of General Wood, which was hanging on the wall, and became overbalanced. He was attended by physicians and removed to his home at 2521 Park avenue.

industries, it is said, can continue operations for at least ten days.

MAY LIMIT SALE OF GASOLINE.

Dealers at Muncie Fear Supply Will Be Exhausted.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

MUNCIE, Ind., April 13.—Because of uncertainty as to when they will receive additional shipments owing to the rail strike, local dealers in gasoline are contemplating placing a restriction on sales. If this is done gasoline may be bought only by physicians, undertakers, ambulance owners, fire and police departments and persons engaged in transporting food and fuel and other essentials.

Although no local switchmen or yardmen have joined the strikers, the switching crews in the railroad yards have been greatly reduced because of light business. Many men have been transferred to other points where help is needed.

Freight and express agents will not receive freight consigned to points affected by the strike. Muncie business men are preparing to make a survey of local motor trucks with a view of using trucks to transport food and fuel if the strike continues indefinitely.

200 QUIT AT TERRE HAUTE.

Chicago, Terre Haute & Southeastern Only Road Not Affected.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 13.—About 200 yard employes of all the railroads here, excepting the Chicago, Terre Haute & Southeastern, quit today. Work in the yards is practically at a standstill, although several switching crews, composed of men who remained at work and yard masters and their assistants were at work. The roads whose employes quit work are the Vandalia, the Big Four, the Chicago & Eastern Illinois and the Evansville & Indianapolis.

Employes of the Southeastern held a meeting this morning and voted not to quit work. About 125 switchmen are employed in the Vandalia yards, fifty-five in the Big Four yards and the Evansville & Indianapolis yards, operated by the Big Four; fifty-five in the Chicago & Eastern Illinois yards and thirty in the Southeastern yards. A new scale of wages was presented to the railroads today. It calls for $1 an hour for yard foremen, 95 cents an hour for helpers, $5 a day for switch tenders for not more than three switches, helper's pay for more than three switches, with an eight-hour day for all employes. At the meeting held this morning it was reported that the Southeastern men probably would quit during the day.

Local public utilities report that they are not likely to be affected for some time by the walkout so far as the supply of fuel is concerned. A number of manufacturing plants will be compelled to shut down soon because none have reserve supplies of coal.

WORKING HOURS REDUCED.

Remy Plant, at Anderson, Affected by Strikes.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ANDERSON, Ind., April 13.—Because of the strikes of railroad yardmen, the Remy electric plant here, employing more than 4,000 persons, today began to reduce working hours. All employes will work until further notice during the morning. In the afternoon employes will work from one to three hours, according to the importance of various departments. Nine and a half hours is the normal working day.

At the mills of the American Steel and Wire Company, employing more than 600 men, it was said the mills will not be able to operate longer than Wednesday, unless more raw material is received. The Sefton Manufacturing Company has more than ten cars of products ready for shipment, and the freight must be moved in a few days to keep the factory in operation.

SLEEPING CAR TAKEN OFF.

South Open to Evansville Shippers Despite Switchmen's Strike.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 13.—Because of the strike of switchmen and yardmen at Terre Haute, it was announced today that the Evansville & Indianapolis sleeping car on train No. 10, which leaves here at 10 o'clock p. m. over the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, will be taken off.

Samuel D. McLeish, general agent for the Big Four railroad, has announced that the company will accept "dead freight" in carload lots, but will not handle live stock. The south is open to Evansville shippers by the Louisville & Nashville and the Illinois Central. An embargo was announced on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railroad today.

Evansville still has a route to Indianapolis by way of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois to Hillsdale, Ind., and thence to Indianapolis over the Chicago, Indianapolis & Western railroad. The Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad is accepting merchandise for Chicago. There were no indications today that local switchmen will vote to go on strike.

MANY EMPLOYES LAID OFF.

East Chicago and Indiana Harbor Plants Short of Coal.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EAST CHICAGO, Ind., April 13.—Many industries of East Chicago and Indiana Harbor, hard hit by a scarcity of coal and the impossibility of moving finished products as a result of switchmen's strikes, reduced their working forces yesterday an average of 50 per cent.

The Interstate Iron and Steel Company closed its plant because of coal shortage. As a result of reductions in working forces at various plants, between 5,000 and 6,000 men are idle.

The water company, which supplies both East Chicago and Indiana Harbor, has only seven or eight days' supply of coal.

ORGANIZERS AT RICHMOND.

Pennsylvania Employes Discuss Affiliating With Association.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

RICHMOND, Ind., April 13.—Four representatives of the Yardmen's Association at Indianapolis were in Richmond Monday in the interest of the new organization of railroad employes. A meeting was held in Vaughan's hall, which was attended by eighty yard employes of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The plans of the new organization were presented by the Indianapolis men. The question of affiliating with the association was discussed by the local men.

Thirty Quit at Huntington.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

HUNTINGTON, Ind., April 13.—About two-thirds of the yardmen and switchmen in the Erie railroad yards here have quit work in sympathy with yardmen who are on strike in many cities. Leaders of the strikers say there are thirty men who are not working.

At a meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Order of Railway Conductors Monday evenng members signed an agreement declining to perform any duties ordinarily performed by switchmen and yardmen. Brotherhood officials say that their joint contract with the Erie Railroad Company states that road and yard work are distinct, and the road men feel they would be violating the contract if they did yard work.

Sugar Shortage at Wabash.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WABASH, Ind., April 13.—With five cars of sugar being held up some place between eastern refineries and this city, on account of the railroad yardmen's strike, Wabash dealers prepared today to limit sugar sales to one pound to each customer, in order that every one may have a little sugar each week.

Since last Thursday potatoes have advanced from $3 to $6.25 a bushel here, and dealers say that they will go still higher if the strike continues. Wholesalers are paying more than $5 a bushel for Michigan potatoes.

Interurbans entering the city are daily bringing in large shipments of food products from Ft. Wayne and Indianapolis, and the local postoffice is swamped with parcel post packages.

Factories May Have to Close.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 13.—Continuation of the railway switchmen's strike beyond the present week will probably result in the closing of the big industrial concerns of South Bend. Practically every factory in the city is feeling the effects of the strike in that they are unable to receive shipments of raw materials. Few of the concerns for the same reason are unable to ship their products out of the city.

Local railroad officials say that the situation probably will improve within a few days as they are making considerable headway in getting the accumulated freight and express out of the local yards.

Tipton Switchmen Quit.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TIPTON, Ind., April 13.—Twenty switchmen resigned their positions in the local yards of the Lake Erie & Western railroad, at midnight, last night. No freight trains are being run out of here, either on the main line or the Indiana & Michigan division. Thirteen train crews, with sixty-five men, are affected on account of the action of the switchmen.

Organization Is Formed.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 13.—Switchmen of this city have perfected an organization with eighteen charter members, it is said. The organization was formed by Philip Mann, of Chicago, and E. E. Kelly, of Gary, both former local men. All members are still working. A train of forty freight cars loaded with fresh meat, consigned to an eastern firm, has been held in the local yards since Friday.

Gary Yards Still Tied Up.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

GARY, Ind., April 13.—Local freight yards still are tied up as tight as they were on the first day of the strike of railroad switchmen. Only about a dozen yard engines are being operated by yard officials. More than sixty were operated before the trouble. About 10,000 men are idle as a result of the walkout. Gary has not received a carload of coal in eight days.

Ft. Wayne Men Vote to Return.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

FT. WAYNE, Ind., April 13.—Switchmen in the employ of the Pennsylvania, Wabash, Nickle Plate and Lake Erie & Western railroads here, who have been on strike since Friday and Saturday, voted Monday afternoon to return to work.

were idle and last night street lighting was cut off.

Railroads Stand Firm.

Railroad managers reiterated today their determination not to treat with the strikers who planned yesterday to present demands to the company representatives. Another order was issued by officers of the Switchmen's Union of North America, commanding striking members to return to work immediately.

John Grunau, head of the strikers' new union, maintained his claims that the "insurgent" forces remained intact and would not yield.

A break came in the strike at St. Louis when 324 Missouri Pacific switchmen voted to return to work today. Strikers at Pueblo Colo. Muskogee, Okla., Saginaw, Mich., Battle Creek, Mich., Dayton, O., and several other points also decided to end the walkout.

Freight traffic continued badly impaired at Kansas City and railroad officals reported little improvement.

Spread in Cleveland.

At Cleveland the strike spread to Collinwood shops of the New York Central, where 200 shopmen walked out, and a further menace was presented in reports that shopmen were planning a city-wide walkout on Thursday.

The Columbus Yardmen's Union voted to call out all switching crews handling passenger traffic.

At Toledo a number of factories were expected to close. Baltimore & Ohio switchmen walked out at Cincinnati last night.

FULL CREWS AT WORK.

Cincinnati Officials Report Improvement in Conditions.

CINCINNATI, April 13.—Cincinnati railroad executives reported that all yards had full crews at work this morning, with the exception of the Baltimore & Ohio. The Indiana freight division yards of the Baltimore & Ohio were minus one crew, while none of the crews in the Ivorydale yards of the road reported for work. Three Big Four crews quit last midnight and later reported they had misunderstood and would be on duty tonight.

COACH CREWS QUIT.

Train and Yard Masters Keep Lines Open at Columbus, O.

COLUMBUS, O., April 13.—Passenger train service through Columbus experienced only slight delay today as a result of a coach crew's leaving their work, assistant trainmasters and yardmasters working overtime to keep the trains running, but railroad officials predicted a breakdown of passenger service at any moment.

Railroad yardmasters and assistant trainmasters of the various railroads reported practically no improvement in the strike situation, with none of the strikers returning to work. Movement of freight and express is practically at a standstill.

Machinists of the Pennsylvania shops have voted not to go out on strike in sympathy with the trainmen, it was said today.

Company officials said they were still waiting for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to get the strikers back to work, but that if the strikers did not return soon they would hire other men.

An embargo on express shipments, including foodstuffs and other perishables, was put into effect here today because of the inability to get cars.

The Columbus, Delaware and Marion Traction Company, operating traction cars between Columbus and Marion, announced today that it had taken off all of its limited cars and reduced its service one-half because of the coal shortage caused by the strike.

PENNSY TRAINMEN LOYAL.

Vote Was Nearly Unanimous Against Joining Yardmen's Strike.

PITTSBURG, April 13.—Members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on the Pennsylvania railroad east and west of Pittsburg, voted today against joining the strike of yardmen. An official announcement said the vote was "practically unanimous."

and Station Employes. His term is for one year.

Think Situation Serious.

With freight traffic in the east seriously crippled, administration officials regard the strike situation as serious. The President has been kept advised as to general conditions.

Attorney-General Palmer was studying additional reports today from department of justice field agents and was expected to make a complete report with recommendations to the President.

It was announced at the White House that the cabinet officers would assemble in the President's study instead of meeting in the executive offices.

This will be the first gathering of the cabinet since the resignation of former Secretary of State Lansing February 13, after the President had rebuked him for calling unofficial meetings of the cabinet during Mr. Wilson's illness.

rale of the switchmen was concerned. Loyal union men gathered in headquarters in the Saks building of Locals Nos. 261 and 374, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and expressed their willingness to work. Some said they were afraid of physical violence if they followed their own wishes in working. A big break in the ranks of the strikers was expected before many hours.

Members of the Indianapolis Yardmen's Association, the "rump" union, however, said they were gaining support from other workers on the railroads. Organizers for the United Enginemen's Association, an organization of engineers, firemen and hostlers similar in nature to the Yardmen's Association, were active in this city. C. R. Lackey and A. A. Creighton, sent here as organizers, were taking initiation fees and one month's dues, amounting to $2.50, from several workers. Carmen, shopmen, engineers and others were said by the strikers to be ready to quit, should the occasion demand. Creighton refused to discuss this possibility.

A free entertainment, designed apparently to boost the morale of the idle men, was planned for the evening at Tomlinson hall. The women's auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was invited and the men were told to bring their wives and friends.

More Attend Meetings.

It was notceable that attendance at meetings of loyal workers in the brotherhood's headquarters was improved and particularly the older men were giving more thought to the prospects of losing their seniority rights by remaining with the striking forces. More of the workers were beginning to understand the view of the brotherhood officials, who are heartily in favor of increased wages, but who believed the method adopted to win this point is certain to fail.

Resolutions, recommending patience on the part of shippers during the strike of switchmen and pledging co-operation with railroad managers, were adopted at a meeting of shippers and business men in the Riley room of the Claypool hotel Monday night.

The meeting was attended by about 300 persons. Charles Martindale presided. Representatives of railroads said the strike situation is gradually improving.

Movement to Obtain Men.

J. W. Coneys, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad, said that if the brotherhoods can not induce the switchmen to return to work men must be obtained from other industries to take their places. He suggested that a survey of the industries be made to find out how many men are available. M. V. Hynes, superintendent of the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western; D. F. Schaff, superintendent of the Big Four; William Ward, agent of the Illinois Central and P. J. Landers, superintendent of the Indiana Union Railroad Company, also spoke.

Charles F. Coffin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said that as the time came to show a nation that it is unsafe and unwise to regard a contract as a scrap of paper so the time has come to teach a group of individuals the same lesson. He said that it is the duty of all men who believe in law and order to help relieve the situation.

The Resolutions.

The resolutions presented by O. B. Iles and adopted unanimously were as follows:

Whereas, The four train service organizations, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Order of Railway Conductors, have entered into contracts with the railways of the United States in relation to wages, hours and working conditions, and in the present transition stage of the railroad systems from government control to private ownership the heads of these railway organizations up to the present time have been co-operating to maintain the present status and the effective operation of the railroads until the machinery provided by the recent act of congress (the transportation act of 1920) can be put into effective operation to consider wage questions; and

Whereas, Certain members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, in opposition to the advice and authority of their officers and board, have quit their employment and set up a new and independent organization having no contract relations with the railway systems of the United States and have violated their contracts now in existence with the railway managements and by this action they have interrupted the commerce of the country, bringing hardship to the people and threatening interference with the right of workers in all industry to continue in their employment, and

Whereas, we recognize as worthy the efforts being put forth by the railway managers of the United States to preserve traffic conditions and to afford normal facilities to commerce, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By this meeting of Indianapolis shippers and business men, on Monday evening, April 12, 1920, that we co-operate with and uphold the management of the railway systems in their attempts to assist the officers and boards of the four brotherhoods to assert their authority over their respective memberships, to the end that their contracts may be kept inviolable and that the business of the country may go on until the machinery for readjustment has been organized; and

That we recommend to shippers patience and co-operation with the railway managers in order that the least possible confusion may result from the present situation; and

That we condemn efforts of radicals both inside and outside of the existing organizations to disturb the business of the country and by force to compel a compliance with their demands; and

That we affirm our insistence upon law and order and the observance of contracts between employer and employe; and

That we pledge to the railway managements our co-operation and assistance in all ways to bring order out of the present disorderly conditions.

It was decided to send copies of the resolutions to A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney-general, and the officers of the four brotherhoods.

ONE CENT LEFT IN PURSE

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., April 13.—The pocketbook of Mrs. Julia Rush, containing $1,175, which she lost Saturday while coming to Noblesville from Indianapolis, was found in the south part of the city Monday evening. It contained only 1 cent, and policemen who have been investigating the matter, say they have no clew as to where the money went.

Indications are that the pocketbook was thrown from the traction car on which Mrs. Rush was riding and not lost after she alighted from the car, as was first supposed, the police say.

The purse was found hanging on a picket of a fence by George Kinnaman. Mrs. Rush was bringing the money here from Indianapolis to deposit in a local bank.

THE STRIKE ISSUE

It ought to be clear both to the railroad men and the public that the real issue in the switchmen's strike is whether or not trade unionism is to survive. If the rebel strikers win an incomplete victory they may not only disrupt the old railroad organizations, but they may deal what may prove a fatal blow to the whole trades union movement. That, of course, is the desire and intent of the outlaw leaders, though certainly not of the large group of men, all beneficiaries of the trade union system who have been fooled or forced into joining the strike.

Every switchman now on strike is violating his contract with the railroads. He is repudiating his obligations to his employers, to the public, to his own leaders and his own organizations. No nation can maintain an orderly industrial life where such a spirit prevails. A contract binds both parties. Trade unionism is based on the assumption that the employer and the employed, acting collectively, can reach an agreement as to hours, conditions and wages that will be faithfully and honestly carried out by both parties. Whenever it becomes apparent that a compact entered into in good faith can be and may be nullified at will by one of the contracting parties, either directly or through subterfuge, as in calling a strike a general cessation of work by individuals, the whole basis of trade unionism is destroyed. Employers can not be expected to enter into agreements which bind them, but which can be ignored by the other participants whenever it is to their advantage to ignore them. Nor can the public, the third party to such contracts, afford to tolerate a system where its interests are unprotected and liable to sudden and grave betrayal.

Great numbers of railroad workers now striking undoubtedly wish to preserve the system under which they have long worked. It has served them well, made their trade one of the best paid, shortened their working hours, given them independence and power. Under their old leaders and trade organizations the railroad workers have come into a position of advantage as regards both wages and working conditions that is unexampled in any other of the world's countries and not paralleled in this. Are they to sacrifice the gains made by years of steady and orderly progress for the sake of the selfish and sinister ambitions of professional troublemakers? Men not moved by the prospect of starving a nation may be influenced by considerations of direct and pressing importance to themselves.

ANOTHER JAIL REPORT

Another report concerning the jail has been submitted by the Marion county board of charities. No member of this board receives pay. In commenting on the county board's report one of the members says:

> Much of the misconduct charged might have been true, and the members of our board be absolutely unable to discover it. When you take into consideration the fact that we are at all times accompanied by a jail official in making our rounds, and can only go from one part of the institution to the other as he leads the way, and unlocks the doors for us, it can be readily understood that the prisoners with whom we talk, might be reticent about telling us any more than they felt they dared.

The jail was visited by the county board, March 4. The report says that the members arrived unannounced and stated their mission, after which "we were kept waiting in the office for half an hour until the cell boss, Mr. Whitesell, could show us through. We felt special preparations were being made for us before we were allowed to make an inspection." Whitesell told what food was served, but he did not say that some of it was unfit to eat. Prisoners who talked in the presence of a jail official said that the food was fair, but lacked variety. The kitchen, so the report says, was not so clean as it should be. One insane man was found, entirely nude because, it was said, he tore his clothes off. "The board recommended changes at the jail, including a suitable place for insane prisoners and the separation of boys from older prisoners. Another recommendation was that the prisoners should have something to do. The board had no way of knowing that idle time was largely spent in playing poker, from which some officials received a rake off.

Members of the board were present when the evening meal was served. It consisted of soup, bread and water. There seems to have been material in the county report on which to base further investigation and the state board maintains that its investigation was not completed when the jail scandal became public. In the nature of things the truth can not be learned by county or state board members as long as a cell boss is within hearing and while prisoners fear punishment if they complain. Such fault as may be found is with the system of inspection that permits a bar between the prisoners and the investigators. But the investigators can at least endeavor to change the system and can protest, and this we hope the county board, now fully organized, will continue to do as occasion warrants.

MORE STOCK DIVIDENDS

With the Wall street fight between the Stutz directors and the shorts who have contracted to sell Stutz stock for the purpose of depressing the market, the people are not greatly concerned. But in one feature of the struggle they have an interest that is somewhat direct. Last week the board of directors of the company declared a stock dividend of 80,000 shares, thereby increasing the capitalization from 120,000 to 200,000 shares. The brokers who are caught would have been forced to deliver one share of the new stock, payable April 15, for every five shares of the old stock on which they were short, or else pay the equivalent in cash. As far as those immediately interested are involved, there are many who will sympathize with those who hold that the speculators had no more right to sell the stock short for the purpose of depressing its value than Ryan, former head of the company, had to squeeze them. These doubt the wisdom of the action of the governors of the stock exchange in suspending dealings in the stock, and hold that the two groups of speculators should have been left to fight it out, as the public, represented by the margin speculators, had been driven out of the market.

But as a matter of fact the actual investment value of the shares was not affected by this frenzied trading. No matter how low they had gone as a result of speculation they would have continued to pay dividends. The company, as every one knows, is sound, and its business highly prosperous. Whether it is advisable to issue new stock in the form of dividends as a weapon to be used in a Wall street campaign is a matter of grave doubt. Industrial concerns are expected to make money out of their business, rather than out of stock transactions. The supreme court recently decided, by a divided bench, that stock dividends were not income, and so could not be taxed as such. Perhaps it would have been better if the case had been decided the other way.

The efforts of the stock exchange to prevent or limit merely speculative trading, and to make it a market in which real values shall be determined by fair exchange of such values never seem quite to succeed. There is always a great outcry when some men get "skinned," and things go on very well till the next raid or corner develops. Doubtless there has been some improvement, and there may be more. But under the present all but universal reign of greed, brokers will take long chances, as will investors. And, of course, they will sometimes lose. It is not, we believe, charged that any rule of exchange, or any law was violated. Nor is there anything illegal or immoral in stock dividends; on the contrary, they often serve a useful purpose. But also, it is believed, it is sometimes not easy to distinguish them from cash dividends, which are admittedly income.

WHAT TRUCKS CAN DO

Indianapolis is not so hard hit by railroad freight and express embargoes as some other cities, and this is largely true because the motor truck business has been growing in Indiana. If the city had to depend wholly upon the steam roads for its food supplies there would be a serious shortage now. Experience has shown that a sufficient number of hogs can be brought by truck to the stockyards to furnish meat. Much of the supply is collected in the territory not far from the point of distribution. Eggs are coming in from the farms. So, even if the strikes should continue to spread the food situation here will be fairly satisfactory.

The motor truck transport business depends largely on the highway system. Trucks can reach places situated on passable highways. Trucks can take one kind of load and bring back another. They can not carry relief or collect supplies from such places as have impassable roads.

Through the foresight of men who have seen not only the present possibilities for motor trucking, but those of the future, Indianapolis is in better position than many other cities. Steps to use trucks in every way possible were taken as soon as embargoes were announced and assurance is given that routes are shortly to be maintained in every direction. The value of this method of transportation is not appreciated during normal times.

LABOR'S POLITICAL PROGRAM

What the American Federation of Labor, representing organized wage earners, would like to see included in the program of the Republican national committee, is briefly set forth in the official statement given out by the Federation in reply to a request from the Republican platform committee for an official statement of organized labor's expectations. Some of the items in the extensive list may be accepted by all Americans as necessary to the best interests of American life. The eight-hour day, for instance, is approved by almost all Americans except those who feel that in order to get out of the wage-earning class they can afford to work more than eight hours a day. The Saturday half-holiday is likewise a good institution for those who can afford it. Take, however, the following five items:

> Continued exemption of labor organizations from anti-trust laws.
> Acceptance of the right of employes to choose their own representatives from within or without the plant.
> Recognition of the right of employes to strike.
> Abandonment of the use of the injunction in labor disputes.
> Elimination of company welfare and uplift organizations and substitution of welfare work as conducted by the labor organizations.

These are objectives sought by labor leadership as at present voiced. Some of them can not be reached. But the party asked for an expression and got it. There is a law which in effect says that steel mill owners shall not get together and fix a price for their product. Organized labor seeks recognition of a right to fix the price of the labor which goes into the making of steel, or to create a monopoly of the skill necessary to make steel. There is no difference in principle. To continue the case, the unions insist upon the the right of their national officers, for instance, to negotiate with the owner of any steel plant as to his relations with his particular part of the monopoly. The first point provides for the monopoly, the second for its control by a group.

The strike is similar to the corner in its final stages. Skill withheld from the market in order to create a demand and stimulate prices is nothing but the old trust bludgeon in new hands. Abandonment of the use of the injunction in labor disputes is a plea for special legislation. The request for labor control of welfare work is part of the campaign to extend the sphere of influence of the labor organization to the homes and recreation of the members. This it would appear is in the nature of a blanket refusal of co-operative effort, and it is to be hoped that it will not become a fixed policy. There are friendly points of contact between employer and employes and these points should be strengthened. The labor organizations have developed able leaders, among them many men who must see that no such monopoly as contemplated in this program can permanently survive. They have asked for a great deal in the hope that they will get much. This program, seen as an aspiration, comes naturally, perhaps, from ambitious leadership, but as a fact, it would be monopolistic.

JAIL SPORTS

It seems to be the fashion these days for sheriffs and jailers to provide amusement for prisoners. In the Marion County Jail gambling has been the favorite sport. Out in Kansas speechmaking is the popular pastime. Alexander Howat, head of the Kansas Coal Miners' Union, sent to jail for centempt of court, was permitted by the sheriff to harangue a crowd of several thousand persons, denouncing the Governor, the judge who committed him, and the law which he had flouted. The man spoke from the balcony of the jail, on which the sheriff stood during the ceremonies. At the conclusion of the speech the crowd passed a vote of thanks to the sheriff for permitting Howat to speak. The best of feeling seems to have prevailed. The man was sent to jail for refusing to testify before the state industrial court. He said:

> We won't recognize this court. It is composed of three corporation lawyers appointed by that skunk of a Governor, Allen.

The judge, under whose order he was properly held, was also bitterly denounced. A newspaper had spoken of him as "a sturdy American." Speaking on this text, Howat said:

> They talk about sturdy Americans. Sturdy Americans who send men to jail who have committed no crime. The men and the women are going to attend to these sturdy Americans when they get the opportunity.

Thus Howat assailed the Governor, the legislature, the judiciary — every department of the state government — and the law itself, and did it with the permision of the sheriff, who is himself an officer of the law. We should think that the Governor and the judge would have something to say about this performance, which is distinctly novel. The old question, long ago asked by William Allen White, "What's the matter with Kansas?" again presents itself. Yet, thinking of permitted — and it is said compelled — gambling in our own jail we should not be censorious. But we have not yet converted the balcony of our jail into a soap box, and our prisoners are not permitted to make speeches denouncing the state government and the state law.

SUGAR

Last week the price of raw sugar reached 17¾ cents, and the rise was spoken of as "sensational." On Saturday last New York speculators were asking and receiving 21 and 22 cents a pound for refined sugar in quantities of one ton or more. This certainly means 25 cents to the consumer within a very short time. Of course, the railroad strikes, and the strike of the New York harbor workers will not help matters. The heavy advance in the price of raw is attributed in large part to manipulation by speculators, though the increased demand and a smaller Cuban crop than was predicted, of course, play their part. The supply held by the refineries is said to be far short of the demands made on them, and they are selling only to regular customers, and then only in small lots. It was reported that they were selling refined at somewhat below the present price of raw sugar.

It is said that the Cuban crop is 550,000 tons below what was predicted. But there is no shortage in the imports from Cuba into this country. On the contrary, our imports since January 1 amounted to 1,001,049 tons, as against 873,000 tons for the same period last year, and 685,000 for 1918. Yet it is estimated, in the face of these rising exports, that there will be in this country during the present year, counting in domestic beet sugar, and Philippine and Porto Rican sugar, a shortage of 403,000 tons. This is taken by some as proof that speculators are holding for a rise — and are not being disappointed. The shares of sugar companies are soaring. The situation is precisely such a one as speculators would be quick to take advantage of. As these men have never been counted among the altruists, it does not seem unreasonable to suspect, at least, that they have not allowed the present opportunity to go by unimproved.

Certain traders say that the refiners have been postponing their purchases in the hope that Cuban planters would later find it necessary to reduce their prices. How this can come about we are not told, with greatly increased buying by European countries. There are, of course, legitimate causes for some increase in the price of sugar. But we find it very difficult to believe that the speculators have kept their finger altogether out of the pie. Perhaps, like Clive they stand "amazed at their own moderation." Certain it is that the sugar situation is serious, and becoming more serious every day. The government has wholly relaxed its hold. But the people would be glad to know to just what extent their plight is due to natural causes, or to gamblers in this necessity. If incidentally some relief should come from the inquiry, they would be humbly grateful.

OUR DEFENSES

Only a few months ago our political leaders were talking bravely about universal military training as an essential part of our system of defense. It was, we were assured, thoroughly democratic utterly untainted with militarism, and altogether fair and just. It was, so it was argued, as much the duty of the citizen to fit himself to defend his country as it was for him to pay taxes. Some even went so far as to say such training would be a good thing, even if it were certain that the country never would be attacked. Great stress was placed on its educational value.

But there has been a great change. Last week the senate committee decided that the training should be voluntary, that the government should merely offer the opportunity, an opportunity that would be open to all citizens between the ages of eighteen and twenty-eight Yesterday the senate refused, by a vote of 37 to 8, to strike out the voluntary provision, and in addition it limited the application of the plan to youths between the ages of eighteen and tyenty-one, thus still further crippling the program. No one over twenty-one will be allowed to enlist for training.

The plan as agreed on is quite "harmless," and practically useless. Taken in connection with the refusal—so far—of congress to deal with the question of pay in the army and navy, the proposed action seems to show that considerations of public interest were not controlling. The navy, as has been often pointed out, is in serious danger from the resignations of officers and the desertions of men who can not live on their pay, which is what it was before the war. There is no trouble in getting an investigation of the navy, but it is a very difficult matter to persuade congress to act for the purpose of checking the present alarming disintegration. The peace treaty, under which we could have cut down military expenditures, and reduced armaments, is still unratified.

Nothing unreasonable is asked by Chief of Police Kinney, who seeks the co-operation of Indianapolis citizens in stamping out the habit of driving motor cars past street cars that have been stopped to take on or let off passengers. It is not possible to have a policeman on each street car and although the car crews have been aiding in the work of reporting violators they can not always see the license numbers. If citizens generally will report license numbers to the police, the department will do the rest. If a reckless motorist knows that there is strong likelihood that he will be arrested he will not be so likely to make pedestrians flee for their lives.

Conviction of six Indianapolis men on charges of violating the cigarette law as it relates to minors, serves to recall that there is such a statute in Indiana. Little attention has been paid to such regulations. Perhaps the general acceptance of the cigarette by men — and by many women — has tended to weaken the opposition to it by children but the law should be enforced.

The bad weather maker never strikes.

It's a pity that the gas company can not use some of the gas the candidates are wasting.

The Irish revolutionists jailed in Dublin are on hunger strike which, considering the "wetness" of the country, may not be as bad as it seems.

There was no panic on the two New York elevated trains which jumped off into the street. The passengers evidently thought the employes were merely giving a little less than the usual strike notice.

The way things now look no political platform will be complete without some reference to the full potato bin.

It evidently has not occurred to the gasoline and oil people that the Monument is occupying a very profitable filling-station site.

Samuel Gompers says that the strike is a mistake and that the strikers are angry, and there's a bare chance that Sam himself is none too happy over the situation.

Hi Johnson and his cohorts are going to make a whirlwind campaign in Indiana, but judging by the start, Detroit got the whirl and Indiana is getting the wind.

When Mr. Howat gets out of jail no doubt he will be able to use the sheriff of Crawford county, Kansas, to advantage as his campaign manager.

It's hard to figure out whether the legislature didn't know or didn't care whether Mr. Niblack was going to be a candidate for Governor when it passed the primary law.

It is still well known, however, that as Illinois goes so does not always go the nation.

See that about big crop reductions in Indiana? That means that you'd better make your garden deliver the goods.

How Will Illinois Decide?

[Cincinnati Enquirer]

Great consequences wait upon the primary contest in Illinois today. The home of a member of that class of candidates known as favorite sons, Governor Frank O. Lowden, it is the theater of an invasion from without and a rebellion within. Major-General Leonard Wood, pursuing his policy of disregard of doubtful political ethics, is seeking to wrest the delegation from the chief executive, and has strong support, among his aids being a sister of Theodore Roosevelt, who made a speaking campaign for him.

But the real interest centers upon the result in Chicago, where William Hale Thompson, mayor and undoubted leader of the Republican party, is seeking to rivet a stronger control and to dominate the state delegation in the national convention. His success will be a distinct gain for United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, with whom he stands in opposition to the negotiation of peace treaties. During the war Mayor Thompson was distinctly against our participation in it, and even refused to welcome the visit of Marshal Joffre.

Yet there is more than party control and presidential preference bound up in the outcome of the contest. There is the contingency of the resurgence of former United States Senator William Lorimer, voted out of public life for practices both unethical and unlawful in securing his election to congress. This reentrance, predicated as it is upon the success of the Thompson machine, will mean that Lorimer will stand as a candidate for the seat of Lawrence Y. Sherman, whose term is about to expire. With the machine functioning as in the past, it is expected that the great city and its environs will give the political phoenix such a vast majority that the anticipated adverse vote throughout the state will be easily overcome.

These things are fully understood in Illinois, and the decision is in the hands of the voters themselves. If the described extremes come to pass the rest of the country is bound to accept the result with outward equanimity, at least, because every state is the judge of its own actions in politics. If Illinois desires Johnson, Lorimer and Thompson hers is the choice and hers the consequences thereof.

The Vote of Illinois on Presidential Candidates

[Chicago Tribune]

Republicans today will vote for Governor Lowden or General Wood. Other names, Johnson, Hoover, etc., may be written on the ballots, but the only campaign which has been made against the Governor in his own state was that in behalf of General Wood.

Lowden probably will carry the state without much difficulty, and we think he should. If the Republican convention is to be a deliberative body it ought to have a list of candidates, and if Governor Lowden lost his own state he would be virtually eliminated from the field. If a man can not have the support of his own community he hardly can ask for the support of others.

Governor Lowden is too good a candidate to be eliminated, even by so good a candidate as General Wood. If he were an undesirable this would not hold good. If the Illinois elections were deciding the nomination the voters of the state would not be justified in ignoring national considerations, but the Illinois vote can not eliminate Wood, and it might eliminate Lowden, which would be bad for the general political problem.

Governor Lowden has revealed abilities in state administration which make him a desirable candidate to be considered by the national convention, and it will be the best policy for Illinois to make it possible. The delegates to be elected are for the most part pledged to Lowden, but to be a candidate in full strength he should have the indorsement of the state.

General Wood's purpose in his Illinois campaign was more to create a favorable impression and to be in line later for the Illinois vote in the convention. If Lowden carries Illinois it is not a Wood failure which essentially weakens the Wood campaign.

Wood the Campaigner

[Minneapolis Journal]

General Wood is a plain, blunt soldier who talks in short, jolty sentences. Every sentence packs an idea. He holds his audiences without any of the usual arts of the platform orator. He stands up and in a clear, carrying voice clips out his remarks without a gesture, his hands generally behind his back, occasionally his right punching an idea home. Men who have been with him throughout his trips say never in an audience is there coughing or scuffling of feet, nothing but keen-edged attention to a speaker who seems to be in deadly earnest.

In conversation his utterance is the same—short, crisp, pithy, no excess baggage on any of his sentences. He has a chest like a barrel, a massive face, and a steel blue eye. His endurance is remarkable. On one of his Dakota trips he went seventy-two hours with only nine hours sleep, and at the end made an appointment by driving through a blizzard on a handcar. On his trips he exercises sitting down.

On the train he goes through muscles flexing exercises without moving in his seat. And he is "mentally ambidextrous," to use the phrase of a newspaper correspondent who traveled with him for six weeks—he can dictate to a stenographer and talk to a visitor at the same time without getting his correspondence and his conversation mixed up. Eighteen hours a day at his desk is a usual thing with him.

NEWS OF THE COLLEGES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 13.—Dr. W. N. Logan and Professor C. A. Malott, of the department of geology of Indiana University, have completed plans for the work to be carried on during the summer on the Indiana geological survey. The field corps will consist of professors and advanced students of the university department and the work will be done from June 7 to July 30, the dates of the regular summer session. The survey will be a continuation of the work carried on last summer, when a topographic map of an area thirty-six miles square in Lawrence county was made, the drainage mapped and the stratigraphy studied in Martin, Lawrence and Orange counties, structural maps of parts of Jackson, Jennings, Martin, Orange, Pike and Scott counties prepared, a report on the kaolin of Indiana completed, the Sullivan oil field studied and the amount of minable coal under the Wabash river in Vigo county determined.

Miss Anna R. Clark, of Waveland, a graduate of Indiana in 1915, and for two years secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the university, has been appointed by the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society to do special missionary work in China. The assignment is for a six-year period.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 13.—The part-time industrial course proposed by Dr. Alfred F. Hughes, president of Evansville College, and J. H. Berryhille, a member of the industrial committee of the local Chamber of Commerce, will be added to the local college course next fall. The students will attend college half the time and work in an industrial plant.

FRANKLIN, Ind., April 13.—When the Indiana Intercollegiate Press Association meets in convention, April 23 and 24, representatives from the various colleges in the state will be informed of a new method devised by William Bridges, Jr., managing editor of the Franklin, the student publication of Franklin College. Mr. Bridges holds sessions previously to the time at which the college paper is published and all the reporters write their copy under supervision. This system has eliminated considerable copy editing and rewriting.

INDUSTRIAL AND FINANCIAL

BRAZIL—Thomas Jones and W. H. Grass, meat dealers and packers, of Brazil, will let a contract soon for the construction of a modern business room and refrigerating plant here.

LAWRENCEBURG — The Lawrenceburg Roller Mills and Grain Elevator Company is placing a large pump with a capacity of 1,000 gallons of water a minute at 150 pounds pressure and a complete fire fighting outfit at its plant here. A water cistern with a capacity of 25,000 gallons to care for immediate needs also is being built. The total cost of the new fire equipment is estimated at $25,000.

A strong man armed, we walk alone, aloof.
The blinded stumble, whom we will not lead.
The hungry perish, whom we will not feed.
The lawless work their will without reproof.
Secure (the road to Jericho is wide!)
We pass unheeding on the other side.

Our work is over, though the earth resound
With growing evil that our band might stay.
Exempt, exalted, move we on our way
As though God made the ocean for a bound
To duty's field? Our answer to her call:
"Let Europe stand alone, though freedom fall!"

Cold are we to the weariness, the wrack,
Of wasted nations—now that conquered seas
Invite our commerce—though we owe to these Long shielded years of profit? Looking back
We know who barred the peril from our shore—
With broken bodies—who our charges bore!

Late, late to kindle, yet we took the fire!
When noble passion, like a prairie flame,
Swept through the nation, did it leave the same
Swift-fading embers? Had it, mounting higher,
Consumed the narrow spite, the selfish creed
That curse our councils, it were well indeed!

Still hesitant, we stand to count the cost,
To glean advantages, or to view with dread
Some far, contingent peril seen ahead,
Till valor sickens, and the cause is lost.
O God! Those voices from the fields of sleep!
"We died to seal the faith they will not keep!"

—Grace Agnes Timmerman, in the New York Times.

Up to 1785 handkerchiefs were of every conceivable size and shape. Then one evening Queen Marie Antoinette, in a fit of passion or indignation at Versailles, said that all kerchiefs should be uniform if they were to indicate good taste. The result was that Louis XVI issued a decree early in 1785 that all pocket handkerchiefs should have right angle edges. So right angle they are and have been ever since.—The American Embroiderer.

A new calculation of the age of the sun was made recently by M. Peronnet, who read a paper on the subject before the French Academy of Science. Here is his version in a nutshell: On the principle that the mean temperature of a star remains approximately equal to the surface temperature it had when first formed, and giving the sun an internal temperature of 12,000 degrees Centigrade, or double that of its surface, and calculating its mass to be 2x10.30 kilograms, the sun can not have been formed more than between two and six millions of years ago. A star with a surface temperature of 600,000 degrees Centigrade would have been formed from a nebula in 300 days and one with 6,000,000,000 degrees in seven hours.

Foreign-born children of ambassadors and consuls are in theory born within the allegiance of the power which their father represents, and hence take the nationality of the father. If the father was a citizen of any other country, but employed in the embassy as a servant or in other capacity, the laws of the father's country would fix his status as a citizen.

SERIOUSLY BURNED; IS UNABLE TO GIVE CAUSE

JOHN ADAIR GIVES WRONG ADDRESS IN CALLING HELP.

IS FOUND BY POLICEMEN

John Adair, age seventy-three, night watchman at the Wiley Automobile and Machine Company's plant, 324 South Pennsylvania street, was badly burned about the body early today when his clothing caught fire as he lay on a couch in a small room at the plant.

Adair made a frantic effort to call help by telephoning to the fire department four times, but each time he gave the wrong address. He finally was found by Motor Policemen Finney and Lansing after Simeon C. Floyd, first assistant fire chief, and Captain Ray had learned through a telephone operator that the calls had been sent from the South Pennsylvania street address.

Adair was unable to explain how his clothing caught fire, but the police were of the opinion that he either was too close to a small stove or that matches in his pockets had become ignited. Physicians at the City Hospital, where the police took him, said his condition is serious.

TO CONSIDER OCCUPATION

San Remo Conference Certain to Discuss Frankfort Incident.

PARIS, April 13.—Although the diplomatic incident regarding the occupation of Frankfort by French forces is believed to have been closed, it is pointed out that the main question under which the dispute arose, the carrying out of the treaty of Versailles, remains open in its entirety.

Forecasts are that it will come up at the San Remo conference of the allies. The probable occasion will be in connection with the consideration of Germany's request for further time to disarm and demobilize, it is understood in official circles.

The execution of the reparations clauses of the treaty, as well as of the military clauses, will be discussed by the conferees, and they will be asked by France, it was indicated today, to make a definite declaration of the policy of the allies on these points. In line with Premier Millerand's declarations, France will show a willingness to facilitate Germany's economic revival by commercial agreements between the two countries, it is said, but will resist any tendency to revise the treaty for Germany's benefit at the expense of the reparations clauses alone.

Whether St. Louis or Boston will rank as the fourth city as a result of the 1920 census added interest to the announcement of St. Louis's population. Boston's population has not been made public.

DENOUNCES THE SOLDIERY

Berlin Newspaper Comments on Shooting of American.

BERLIN, April 13.—The killing of Paul DeMott, of Paterson, N. J., shot recently at Wesel, is caustically commented on today by the Independent Socialist newspaper Die Freiheit. It describes the incident as a case of "murder by the soldiery, who obviously were afraid the higher court would annul the death sentence."

The sentence had not been brought to the notice of President Ebert, the newspaper says, but it remarks that "the soldiery do not need the president's confirmation; they judge and act for themselves."

The reports of the occurrence received here said that DeMott had been shot dead by a sentry while trying to escape from the prison at Wesel, where he was being held under death sentence, the cause for which was not announced. An investigation was ordered by the foreign office immediately on receipt of the report.

An official announcement made last night in the case of DeMott, who was killed at Wesel, near the Ruhr region, says that he was shot dead when he attempted to escape from military arrest.

DeMott, who was twenty-two years old, was taken prisoner by government troops near Dinslaken, southeast of Wesel, early last week charged with being in possession of arms and aiding in the rebellion. He was caught in company with members of the Red army, according to the government statement.

A Show Out of the West.

The Pacific slope idea of how Florenz Ziegfeld ought to do it was revealed at English's Monday night by what has been known, or unknown, as the Fanchon and Marco Revue, lately from San Francisco and now aiming eastward even to Broadway. Nothing quite like it has ever kicked the dust from the stage of an Indianapolis theater. It is a unique and indescribable combination of cabaret, burlesque, vaudeville, knees and nerve, a lesser "Follies" or "Scandals" without the scenic wealth or talent, but with the same unblushing plotless nonsensicality—Broadway as seen through the haze of Market street, its San Franciscan equivalent. From the opening curtain, when the loose-haired orchestra leader breaks forth from the pit, to the blare of the finale it is a triumph in jazz. It is determined to be lively, it will be lively, even if necessary to kill a musician and split a few ears. Our old friends, "pep," it has at any cost.

A pair of vaudevillians, Nelson and Chain, full of verve and nerve, are the most of the comedy. They get away with some stuff of the sort English's has not sheltered in any man's memory, but they are always amusing for one reason or another. Arthur West, a blackface comedian, smooth, quiet and funny, is the rest of the comedy. Bill Dooley, to borrow the intimacy of the program, does some interesting dance steps and an imitation of Will Rogers that proves the latter a great artist. Marco and Fanchon, self-made stars, are a pair of pretty fair dancers, especially the latter. The chorus is like the California climate from which it hails—satisfactory enough, but not quite up to billing. Marco, in response to the plaudits of the multitude, said that the show was setting a "new precedent" by traveling from the west to the east, and that it was his ambition to make the production a success on Broadway. The worst that can be said about the piece is that it is likely to. The drama comes to you by way of an illuminated runway built into the audience, and it comes pretty bare.

A Bully Bill at B. F.'s.

[By the Paper Shortage Editor]

There's a bully bill at B. F. Keith's It runs like this:

Act No. 1—Wheeler Trio. Acrobats who can acrobat.

Act No. 2—Burns and Foran. Dancers who can dance.

Act No. 3—William Gibson and Regina Connelli in a domestic comedy, "The Honeymoon." Husband gets "bluff in" on wife on wedding day. Tip to husbands—take your wives.

Act No. 4—Patricola, a good looker who shimmies, fiddles and sings. Oh, boy!

Act No. 5—Jay Dillon and Betty Parker in a Jack Norworth song-and-smile turn. Big joy. Nice Betty.

Act No. 6—Rose Coghlan, for fifty years a stage star, now in vaudeville in "Forget-me-not," a capsule version of a play in which she appeared at Wallack's——years ago. Daughter Rosalind's in the cast. Good company. Tense action. Star makes a happy curtain speech.

Act No. 7—Senor Friscoe, xylophonist. He surely can tickle that thing.

Act No. 8—The Randalls, sharpshooters.

Also pictures and paragraphs.

Lyric—Vaudeville.

Music and dancing, with just enough dramatic and acrobatic business to change bill from musical comedy to variety, make up the program at the Lyric this week. The Revue Comique, a musical act with five girls ad two comedians, uses a long list of familiar songs, and an equally long list of familiar jokes. Vernon and Rogers have a song and dance act of some merit. Rogers, an Indianapolis man, is clever at pantomime, and his imitation of Bert William's song, "You Can Not Make Your Shimmie Shake on Tea," is well done. The Orpheus Comedy Four, old favorite at the Lyric, sing one or two new songs with their old repertory. The Summers Duo opens the bill with a novelty aerial act on bars. Belle Meyers sings popular melodies. Mabel Whitman and four men sing and dance to such good effect that applause continues long after they have disappeared. Maurice Downey and company present a sketch. The bill is closed by the four Leons, tight wire performers.

Socialists Call it Off.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The "spectacular and dignified" demonstration which the Socialist party had planned for today in Washington, D. C., to obtain the release of Eugene V. Debs from imprisonment has been called off. Socialist headquarters here announced today. Lack of time to prepare for the event was given as the reason.

Athenæum Concert

The second concert of the season was given last night at the Athenæum, formerly the German House, by the Athenæum Male Chorus, assisted by Mrs. Sophie Illing Schmidt, soprano, who was accompanied by her husband, Ernst Schmidt, conductor of the Circle theater orchestra. Mrs. Schmidt's share of the program included many beautiful songs. However the difficulty which she found in singing the English words was apparent. One of the numbers receiving the most enthusiastic applause of the evening was an encore sung in the German. This was Schumann's "O Sunny Ray," which was sung first in English and repeated in German. The singing in the German language seemed to meet with the hearty approval of the audience. The singer disclosed a pleasing quality of tone in the higher register and an ability to take a high tone of sustained sweetness. Mr. Schmidt's artistic accompaniments added greatly to the musical value of the soloist's songs.

Mrs. Frank T. Edenharter played lovely accompaniments for the songs of the chorus which were "Egyptian Desert March" (Hegar), which was sung by request; "Shena Van" (Beach), "Her Rose" (Whitney-Coombs), "Roses of Picardy" (Wood) and "Tarantella" (Dubois), the last song receiving an encore for which "Mother O' Mine" was given. The chorus was directed by Alexander Ernestinoff.

LEE SAYS HE WILL NOT GIVE WAY TO CLAMOR

COMMENTS ON REPORTED MEMBERSHIP DISSATISFACTION.

SCORNS MINORITY VOICES

CLEVELAND, April 12.—Regarding reports that some Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen members were dissatisfied with the present Grand Lodge officers, and that several resolutions had been adopted by different locals, asking for the resignation of President W. G. Lee and other grand officers, Mr. Lee today made this statement:

"Some dissatisfaction with grand officers has developed, and some locals have adopted resolutions requesting the calling of a special convention to remove grand officers. This is absurd. No Grand Lodge officer can be removed from office except for cause, and after charges have been preferred against him and he has been given a fair trial by the executive board.

"Grand Lodge officers were elected at the last triennial convention for a term of three years, ending August 1, 1922.

50,000 Members Switchmen.

"Of the approximately 200,000 members of our organization less than 50,000 are switchmen.

"No leader can quit under fire. I nor any other Grand Lodge officer intends to resign and we will not be forced out of office by any small minority who may be dissatisfied because of the slowness in receiving their increased wage demands.

"The present Grand Loige officers will remain, will continue to carry on the work of the brotherhood in a businesslike manner, administer the more than $5,500,000 in our insurance and benefit funds and will not be stampeded by the 'insurgents.'"

sires to call attention to the fact that the operation of the street car company under the order of the commission, has not been at a loss, as the revenues of the company have exceeded its total operating expenses, including an amount sufficient to pay a reasonable return on the value of the property. This is shown by the fact that in 1919 over $300,000 of net income was used for construction work or additions and betterments.

Present General Condition.

The company, under the order of the commission, has been able to operate for more than a year without loss. At the same time, it has made large increases in the wages of its employes, the increase payment to employes in the year 1919 being over $400,000 more than in the year 1918. While the present service is not all that could be desired—there is a great need for more cars—the service has been greatly improved. The adoption of the "pay as you enter" cars, required by order of the commission, has been altogether satisfactory, and large revenues have been collected that were heretofore lost. The constildation of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company and the Indianapolis Street Railway Company, has resulted in a unification of the service. The common stock of the two companies has been reduced $4,000,000. The company has been relieved permanently from the payment of interest on over $2,000,000 in the sinking fund, and we feel that conditions generally have been improved. Indeed, it is not too much to say that the present condition of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company is as good, if not better, than any street car company in the whole country, many of which are operating at higher fares.

Company's Contention.

The contention has been made by the Indianapolis Street Railway Company that the uncertainty as to when its operation under said emergency order of the commission will cease materially affects its financial credit and its inability to sell its bonds or negotiate temporary loans to obtain the money necessary to make the needed extensions and betterments, purchase new cars and other equipment absolutely needed for the proper operation of the street car system in Indianapolis.

Plan of Operation on Basis of Service at Cost.

In view of these facts, and this situation, the city desires to suggest to the public service commission a plan of operation on a basis of service at cost to be provided for in its order under which the Indianapolis Street Railway Company shall operate during the remainder of the emergency period in which the public service commission has jurisdiction; and that the public service commission should change and modify its order so as to cover and include said plan.

The city therefore submits for the consideration of the commission the following suggestions, to wit:

FIRST.

Valuation of Property.

The petitioner filed an inventory and appraisement of its property and claimed a total valuation of $28,834,210.83. The commission in its order of October 12, 1918, for the purpose of granting emergency relief, found a "valuation ranging from $14,000,000 to $16,000,000, for the property that is in use and useful for meeting not only the requirements of the city street car service, but also meeting the demand of interurban railways for entrance into the city and terminal facilities," which valuation found by the commission the city contended was too high. However, as the decision of the supreme court that the public service commission had jurisdiction to grant emergency relief in this matter was final, so also the decision of the commission as to valuation is accepted by the city, for the purposes of the emergency period, as final, but this shall not be construed as an admission by the city of such valuation in any other proceeding. Since the date of original order the College avenue line from Fairfield to Forest-dale street has been purchased, and other betterments and additions have been made, so that, for the purposes of the commission's emergency jurisdiction over the Street Railway Company, the city is willing that $15,000,000 shall be considered as the total valuation of all the property of the company at this time, including that also used for interurban purposes, as well as the real estate not actually used by the company in serving the public, and including also the present working capital of the company, amounting to $————; the commission to determine what part of the $15,000,000 is for going value, what part for the value of the real estate and buildings, what part for material and supplies and what part for power plant, general equipment, transmission and distribution, paving, roadway, and also determine what part of said amount shall be considered the depreciable property and what the nondepreciable property. To this $15,000,000 should be added the amounts of the par value of all bonds and stocks that may be hereafter issued for betterments and additions. Such bonds and stocks to be issued only with the approval of the public service commission as provided by law. The amount of any discount on the sale of securities or the amount of any excess cost of betterments and additions should be amortized and paid out of gross revenues as the commission may order, so that the par value of the bonds and stocks so issued will represent the fair and reasonable value of the betterments and additions upon which returns shall be made.

SECOND.

Rate of Return.

The matter of the valuation of the property and the question of the rate of return thereon are, of course, the most important matters pertaining to a public utility rate case. We believe that the rate of return in an ordinary rate case is altogether a different question from the rate of return in an emergency rate case. A utility should not be entitled to receive the same rate of return during the period it receives emergency relief as it would ordinarily be entitled to receive if it could be avoided, and the utility perform its functions of serving the public. This is especially true where the emergency relief is granted from the rates provided in its franchise contract. However, if the commission finds that it is necessary to grant the same rate of return that it would grant if it had complete control over the fixing of rates, in order to give the company the financial credit to enable it to secure the new capital needed for betterments and additions, then we submit that the order of the commission should provide that no part of such return should ever be used to pay dividends on common stock. The interest on the various bond issues and dividends on the preferred stock could be paid with a return less than the current rates of return on utilities. We, therefore, suggest that any excess of returns over bond interest and dividends on preferred stock, if the dividends on preferred stock are authorized to be paid by the commission, should be added to and become a part of the surplus fund, and be used only as therein provided. Therefore, in this matter we leave the commission to determine the rate of return during the emergency period on the value of the property without the city suggesting any specific rate.

We submit, however, that better results could be obtained in the operation of any public utility either a service-at-cost plan or otherwise, by having a minimum and maximum rate of return on the value of the investment in which there would be a substantial difference, of course, the maximum rate of return could not be higher than a reasonable rate. In other words, we believe that the same utility operating under the same conditions by an efficient management might produce a good result and earn the maximum return, while the operatatility under an inefficient management might not even earn the minimum return. There should be a difference in the return which the public is required to make to the efficient and inefficient management. The efficient management should be rewarded by the maximum return, while the inefficient management should not have the right to have the utility rates increased and the public thus penalized in order to enable it to earn the maximum return, which by efficiency it could otherwise earn. This principle, if applied, would still furnish the incentive and initiative of private ownership where the operation of the utility was on a service-at-cost plan, and in a way subject to municipal control. To apply the plan of the minimum and maximum rate of return, let us assume 6 per cent. as the minimum and 7 per cent. as the maximum return, without suggesting that either is the proper rate. The company should have the right to earn the 7 per cent., or maximum return, before there would be any reduction in the utility rates, while, on the other hand, the company should not have the right to have the utility rates increased if it earned 6 per cent., or the minimum rate. The higher the utility rate, the lower the minimum and maximum rate of return should be, and the lower the utility rates, the higher the minimum and maximum rate of return should be. For the purpose of illustration, let us assume 4.25 cents as the normal street car fare, this being about the average fare of the street car company under the last year of its operation under the franchise, for which the company should have the right to earn a minimum of 6 per cent. return and a maximum of 7 per cent. return. Any increase in the rate of fare should automatically reduce both the minimum and maximum rate of return substantially as follows:

Rates of Fare.	Min. Rate of Return	Max. Rate of Return
4.25 cents	5 per cent.	7 per cent.
4.50 cents	4½ per cent.	6¾ per cent.
4.75 cents	4¼ per cent.	6¼ per cent.
5.00 cents	4 per cent.	6 per cent.
5.25 cents	3¾ per cent.	5¾ per cent.
5.50 cents	3½ per cent.	5½ per cent.
5.75 cents	3¼ per cent.	5¼ per cent.
6.00 cents	3 per cent.	5 per cent.

THIRD.

Maintenance Fund.

There should be a maintenance fund established by the company setting aside each month 20 per cent. of the gross receipts, which fund should be used for maintenance, repairs and renewals of ways, structures and equipment, and all expenses of maintenance and repairs should be paid out of and charged to said maintenance fund, and in no event should any value added to the property by repairs and maintenance be considered a part of the investment or taken into consideration in any valuation of the property that may be made for rate making purposes. There should be the closest scrutiny of this fund at all times to see that betterments and additions are not made under the guise of maintenance. Any deficit occurring at any time in the maintenance fund shall be paid out of the surplus fund. Any balance remaining in the maintenance fund at the end of the year shall be added to and become a part of the surplus fund.

FOURTH.

Taxes.

There shall be maintained and established a tax reserve fund by adding to such fund each month one-twelfth of the total amount of all taxes of every kind to be paid during the year, from which fund all taxes of every kind except income or excess profit taxes shall be paid. Any deficit occurring at any time in the tax fund shall be paid out of the surplus fund, and any balance remaining in the tax fund at the end of the year shall be added to and become a part of the surplus fund.

FIFTH.

Depreciation Fund.

There shall be established and maintained a depreciation fund by setting aside each month out of the earnings of the company one-twelfth of ——— per cent. of $———, the value found for the purpose of this order of the depreciable property of the company, as found by the commission, which fund and the proceeds thereof shall be maintained and invested and used only as provided by law, and the rules of the public service commission. No depreciation should be allowed on the ground value of real estate, nor on the value of buildings and structures, for the reason that we believe that the appreciation in ground value will more than offset the depreciation in buildings and structures.

SIXTH.

Standard of Service.

The standard of service to be required of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company shall be the same as required by franchise contract of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company and Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company, and the city of Indianapolis, by and through its board of public works, shall have and exercise the same supervision and control of the service of the street car company and the operation, maintenance and construction of its lines, as provided in said franchises, except only as modified by this order, provided that in the event the street car company deems any order of the board of public works unreasonable, it shall have a right to appeal therefrom to the public service commission as provided by law.

SEVENTH.

Service at Cost.

That during the remainder of the emergency period, the Indianapolis Street Railway Company shall operate on the basis of service at cost, as defined herein. That the cost of service shall include:

1. All operating expenses including maintenance of ways and structures, maintenance of equipment, conducting transportation, operation of cars and all other general or necessary expense.

2. All taxes including franchise tax and capital stock tax, but not including income or excess profit tax paid to the United States.

3. Interest at the rate of ——— per cent. per annum on $16,000,000 total valuation of the property as found by the commission, plus interest at ——— per cent. per annum on such amounts as may be added for betterments or additions less any amounts that may be deducted on account of sale, loss or destruction of property.

4. An allowance of ——— per cent. for depreciation, or obsolence, and for losses in respect to the property sold or abandoned upon $———, the value found for the purpose of this order of the depreciable property of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company.

5. The salary of $500 a month to be paid to a representative of the city of Indianapolis, to be appointed by the mayor and designated as street railway commissioner, and the necessary expenses incurred by him, including the necessary office help.

6. All other expenditures and charges recognized by law as proper charges against income.

EIGTH.

Application of Net Income.

The net income or return on the valuation of $15,000,000 found by the commission for the purposes of this order shall be used as follows:

1. To pay interest on bonds of the Citizens Street Railway Company, Indianapolis Street Railway Company, Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company, Broad Ripple Traction Company, interest on trust equipment notes.

2. Balance remaining shall be applied to the payment of dividends on preferred stock, in no event to exceed 6 per cent. per annum, if allowed by the commission.

3. Any balance then remaining shall be used to pay the amounts due or that may become due in 1923, and thereafter on the sinking funds under the mortgages executed by the Indianapolis Street Railway Company and the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company.

4. Any balance then remaining shall be added to and become a part of the surplus fund, and no part thereof shall ever be used to pay dividends on the common stock.

NINTH.

City Street Railway Commissioner.

The city contends that during the time the company is receiving emergency relief from its franchise rates the public, through the city, is entitled to the fullest information as to the revenues and operating expenses of the company for the purpose of seeing that the emergency relief granted by the commission is not converted into a means of profit, as by making additions and betterments, and charging the same to maintenance. We do not say or even intimate that this has been done, but do say it is a matter in which the public has a vital interest, and should be constantly represented by some one appointed to represent the city. We, therefore, suggest that the mayor of the city shall have the right to appoint some suitable person to represent the city, who shall be designated as "city street railway commissioner." The mayor to have the right at any time and from time to time to remove the person so designated as "city street railway commissioner," and fill the vacancy. The said city street railway commissioner shall act as adviser of the city and the board of works of said city in all matters affecting the operation of said street car system in the city of Indianapolis affecting the quality and quantity of service. He shall keep always informed as to all matters affecting the cost or quality or quantity of service furnished, the receipts and disbursements of the property of the company, the rate of fare, vouchering of expenses, and if he disproves the vouchering of expenditures, or the manner of keeping accounts, or any other matter affecting the bookkeeping of the company, or the operation thereof, he shall at once take the matter up with the company, and in case of disagreement, the matter shall at once be submitted to the board of public works, if within its jurisdiction, otherwise to the public service commission, and the decision of the board of public works, unless appeal is taken to the public service commission, as provided by law, shall be final.

In the case of any temporary absence or disability of the city street railway commissioner, the mayor may designate some one to act in his stead, notice being given to the company of such action. The company shall furnish to said city street railway commissioner a suitable room in connection with the general office of the company, office furniture, stationery and supplies. The city street railway commissioner shall receive a salary at a rate of $500 a month, payable by the company and charged to "operating expenses," and shall have the right to employ such assistants, accountants, engineers, clerks and other employes as may be deemed necessary to enable him at all times to inspect and audit all receipts, disbursements, vouchers, prices, pay rolls, time cards, papers, books, documents and property of the company, and the cost and expenses of all such persons so employed by the city street railway commissioner, at salaries fixed by him, shall be paid by the company monthly upon the approval of the city street railway commissioner, provided that the aggregate amount of any one month's expenses shall not exceed $———.

TENTH.

Rates of Fare.

The rates of fare which the Indianapolis Street Railway Company shall have a right to charge under this order shall be as follows:

Fare No. 1—Five-cent cash fare, six tickets for 25 cents, twenty-five tickets for $1, with transfers.

Fare No. 2—Five cent cash fare, six tickets for 25 cents, with transfers.

Fare No. 3—Five-cent cash fare, ten tickets for 45 cents, with transfers.

Fare No. 4—Five-cent cash fare, twenty tickets for 95 cents, with transfers.

Fare No. 5—Five-cent cash fare with transfers.

Fare No. 6—Five-cent cash fare, 1 cent transfer.

Fare No. 7—Six-cent cash fare, ten tickets for 55 cents, with transfers.

Fare No. 8—Six-cent cash fare, twenty tickets for $1.15 with transfers.

Fare No. 9—Six-cent cash fare, with transfers.

Fare No. 10—Six-cent cash fare, 1 cent transfer.

Each of said rates of fare shall apply to each passenger over the age of five years, but no charge shall be made for any passenger under the age of five years, under the charge of parent, guardian or adult passenger.

Fare No. 5 shall be first effective and in force under this order, and in the event said fare shall prove insufficient, to maintain the cost of the service as defined in this order, the city does not consent that the next higher rate of fare shall become effective until the merits of the contention which the city has repeatedly made that the Indianapolis Street Railway Company is entitled to higher compensation for services rendered to the interurban companies has been considered and decided by the commission. Each of the interurban companies coming into the city of Indianapolis has had their mileage rates practically doubled, largely because of the increase in the cost of coal, material and maintenance, all of which service is rendered to the interurban companies within the city of Indianapolis by the Indianapolis Street Railway Company for the same price that it received before the war. The city does not desire to be unfair to the interurban companies, but contends as a matter of simple justice to the public and to the Indianapolis Street Railway Company that before any additional fare is authorized, the claims that the Indianapolis Street Railway Company is entitled to higher compensation for the services rendered to the interurban companies should be considered and decided by the commission. If the commission finds that the street car company is entitled to more pay for such service to the interurban companies, the revenues thus received should be applied before any increase of fare is authorized. If such additional revenues when applied, are found insufficient, or if the commission should find against the contention of the city, and refuse to grant any higher compensation to the city company for services rendered the interurban companies, and rate No. 5, which is the present 5-cent cash fare with transfers, proves insufficient to maintain the cost of service as defined in this order, then the next higher fare should automatically apply. In other words, the city is opposed to any increase that is not absolutely necessary for the good of the service.

ELEVENTH.

Surplus Fund.

There is some question as to the proper designation of the fund which we have called "surplus fund." Perhaps it might better be called "stability fund" to avoid the conflict in the use of terms, as "surplus" has a fixed and definite meaning. Just as satisfactory a result could be obtained, and probably with less bookkeeping, if this fund was styled "general fund balance." Of course, it is immaterial what the fund is called, if the company has the fund. In this order we have referred to it as the "surplus fund," but the same can be given any other suitable designation.

The company shall establish and maintain a surplus fund by setting aside and crediting to such fund each month all revenues remaining after the cost of service, as defined in this order, has been paid or provided for, by setting aside the requirements of each of the funds established in this order. Such surplus fund shall be used only to pay deficits that may occur if the cost of service shall at any time exceed the total revenues of the company. The company shall be required to make monthly reports to the commission and to the city of Indianapolis on forms satisfactory to the commission, showing the total earnings, total operating expenses with proper classifications, net income, any deficit or surplus as the case may be, and such other information as the commission may require. The first report shall be for the month of ——, 1920, and monthly thereafter. If at any time it appears from said reports that the company has accumulated and maintained in said surplus fund at least $150,000 for a period of three months, then the next lower rate of fare as provided in this order shall automatically become effective and be the rate of fare the company shall charge and collect under this order. This rule shall apply to each lower rate of fare provided for in this order, i. e., if said surplus fund is maintained at at least $150,000 for three months under the second highest fare when effective, then the next lower fare shall automatically apply, and so on until the lowest fare provided for herein is effective. If at any time under the operation of any fare lower than the highest fare provided for herein, said surplus fund shall fall below $150,000, and so continues for a period of three months, then the next higher fare shall automatically apply. Whenever fare No. 1, which is the lowest fare provided in this order, and is also the fare provided for in said franchise contracts, is thus automatically reached, and said surplus fund maintained over a period of three months, then the operation of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company under this order shall cease, and the emergency jurisdiction of the commission shall thereupon terminate, and the rights of said company and said city shall be governed by said franchise contracts. If, at any time under the operation of any fare provided for in this order, it shall be clearly apparent that it is producing more revenues than are necessary to comply with this order, or if it is clearly apparent that the revenues being produced are insufficient to comply with the terms of the order, the commission, on application, will authorize the skipping of a rate of fare either lower or higher, as the case may be.

TWELFTH.

Final Disposition of Surplus.

Any amount remaining in the surplus fund when the jurisdiction of the public service commission is terminated, shall be used only to pay for betterments and additions, and shall not be added to capital account, and no bonds or stock shall be issued therefor, and the same shall not be taken into consideration in any valuation of the property that may be made.

CARMEN GET INCREASE.

New Scale Ranges From 40c to 45c An Hour, According to Service.

An increase of 3 cents on the hour has been granted to the motormen and conductors of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company, making the wage schedule range from 40 to 45 cents an hour, the maximum being paid to employes in the service five years or longer. The increase is to be effective from April 1. It is estimated by officials of the company that the increase will add about $150,000 to the pay roll annually.

MONEY BONUS FAVORED.

House Subcommittee for $1 for Each Day in the Service.

[By the United Press]

WASHINGTON, April 13.—A money bonus of $1 for each day's service would be given to approximately 3,000,000 of the 4,800,000 men in the army, navy and marine corps during the war, under a plan that has been approved by the bonus subcommittee of the ways and means committee, it was learned today. The program, which will be submitted to the full committee for approval this week, calls for an expenditure of slightly less than $1,000,000,000, which is to be raised by a tax of one-half of 1 per cent. on all sales. It is thought very likely that this plan will be the one which will be submitted to the house.

With the purpose of limiting the bonus to those who endured heavy financial sacrifices during the war, the subcommittee has eliminated several classes of service men from the groups entitled to the benefits, the total number eliminated being estimated at 1,800,000. Among these classes are:

Those who served less than sixty days, because these men already have received the original $60 bonus; men who were assigned to industrial plants, and received extra compensation; all officers; men in the regular army before the war; men who received compensation from their employers or business interests.

The plan calls for payment of the bonus in four equal installments.

INDIANS' BEST LINEUP WILL APPEAR AT THE OPENER

U. P. DOPESTER PICKS CLEVELAND AND REDS TO WIN

MISCELLANEOUS SPORTING GOSSIP—BIG LEAGUE GOSSIP, ETC.

FANDOM AWAITS UMPS' YELP TO PLAY BALL

BIG PARADE TO BE FEATURE OF OPENING DAY CEREMONIES —TEAM GOSSIP.

CRUM STARTS FOR INDIANS

All fandom knows the weather man is a fickle bird, and for that reason they are pulling for him to behave Wednesday, the opening day of all the larger leagues. The Indianapolis club will go to the mat with Roger Bresnahan's Toledo team and the big opener should be a battle royal. In former years it was "poor old Hens," in speaking of the Toledo club, but it's different now. Toledo has a crackerjack club with perhaps the best outfield in the association, and the Indians, provided they hook another flinger or two, stack up like a Derby winner.

There is to be a big parade, a turnout that is befitting the club. All fandom is behind it and if the weather man behaves Indianapolis will set a merry pace in the contests for the American Association trophy to be awarded for the largest opening day attendance. Nearly all the civic, commercial, fraternal and religious bodies in the city are boosting the project. The Governor and mayor are to participate in the ceremonies and the girls are to be there, too. Oh, boy, it's going to be some opening if the weather man forgets what day it is.

Line of March.

The parade will form in Michigan street both east and west of Meridian. A troop of mounted police will head the procession, and a band on a truck and the players, club officials and state and city officials and fans will follow in automobiles. The line of march under the direction of Roltare Eggleston, chairman of the Rotary club committee in charge of the parade, will be south in Meridian to Ohio, east to Pennsylvania, south to Washington and west to the ball park. A bevy of young women, including Miss Ruth Perry, Mrs. C. Ruth Strickland, Miss Mabel Casaway, Mrs. N. A. Perry, Miss Gertrude Shideler, Miss Mary Elizabeth Gardner, Miss Elizabeth Nicholson, Miss Katherine Tanner, Miss Florence Beckett, Miss Anna Marie Gall, Miss Amelia Henderson, Miss Clara Wells, Miss Carolyn Coffin, Mrs. John Gould, Miss Wallace Lee and Miss Elizabeth Feauvre will participate in the ceremonies. There's no need of tipping one's mit. The fans should be there and see for themselves and boost the effort to win the Association trophy.

Smith in Lineup.

The Indians will present their strongest lineup in the game. Reig and Covington, who have been out of practice because of injuries, will be in the game. Jimmy Smith, former Giant, will play either at second base or in the outfield. Manager Hendricks has a splendid infield in O'Mara, Schreiber, Wolf and Covington, and he is undecided whether to break it. If he decides to play Smith in the infield, it will be at second base. If the outfield Smith will play in Emerich's place in right. Cal Crum is booked for the mound. Crum has been showing extraordinary form in the practice games and Hendricks decided to start him even before the club returned from the training trip to Florida. Middleton or Nelson will be on the mound for the Hens. Play ball!

SCRAP NEWS and GOSSIP

Champion Wins Bout.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 13.—Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight champion, outfought and outpointed young Zulu Kid, Brooklyn, in a ten round bout here last night. In the second round Wilde floored the Brooklyn Italian for the count of eight, but Zulu came back and stayed to the finish.

Joey Schwartz, Minneapolis, subbing for Bad News Eber, Canadian bantam champion, who broke a rib in his bout with Frankie Mason last week, beat Yankee Delaney, Newark, in the ten-round semi-final.

Chaney Scores Kayo.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 13.—Young Chaney, of Baltimore, knocked out Joey Fox, featherweight champion of England in the fifth round of a scheduled ten-round bout here last night. Chaney was the aggressor from the start and sent repeated blows to Fox's head in the first three rounds. In the fourth Chaney shifted his attack to the body. A right and a left to the jaw brought the Englishman down in the fifth round.

Fall Bouts at Muncie.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 13.—Joe Lohman, of Toledo, and Johnny Newton, of Mansfield, O., fought a fast ten-round draw here last night. Newton finished the fight with a badly lacerated eye, but he fought hard enough to win himself an even decision. Young Teague, local lightweight, had a shade over Happy McHenry, of Montpelier, in ten rounds. Eddie Mullen, brother of Hope Mullen, knocked out Young Edwards, of Lafayette, in the third round. Billy Voss, of Cincinnati, and Clyde McHenry, of Montpelier, fought eight rounds to a draw.

PITTSBURG, April 13.—Johnny Tillman, Minneapolis welterweight, gave Jack Farry, Pittsburg, a lacing in every round of their ten-round bout here last night.

CANTON, O., April 13.—Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York, easily outpointed Cal Delaney, Cleveland, in twelve rounds last night. Fitzsimmons knocked Delaney down once in the second round and again in the eighth. Delaney came back each time and carried the fighting to Fitzsimmons.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., April 13.—Ted Jamieson, Milwaukee, and Jack Clifford, St. Paul, battled ten listless rounds to a draw here last night. Both men resorted to clinching tactics, Clifford suffered a badly injured eye.

This Mayor Says It's Mystery Why Indians Win Games

Mayor Charles W. Jewett has announced that Mayor Cornell Schreiber, of Toledo, will be unable to attend the festivities in connection with the opening-day baseball game here. In a letter received by Mayor Jewett, he said:

"Your kind invitation to be with you on next Wednesday, April 14, is just at hand. I should be most happy not only to see the ball teams of our two cities in contest, but also to meet you and be with you. I regret that these pleasures are denied me. I find myself just now in one of those periods of public stress when attention of a personal nature seems vital. I know that you will appreciate the situation.

"I have seen your Indianapolis team in many games. Your team manages to win, but how it does it is always a mystery. That's what every city thinks of every other city, isn't it? Probably though it must be team work. And that is what is needed most everywhere and in every thing just now.

"With kindest personal regards, and in the hope that my enforced inability to accept your invitation may be but a short postponement of the opportunity, I am most sincerely, CORNELL SCHREIBER."

MOTORCYCLE RECORD.

DAYTONA, Fla., April 12.—Gene Walker, of Birmingham, broke the world's record for motorcycles on the beach here today, covering one mile in 31.72 seconds. Efforts to break the automobile speed records of Ralph DePalma and Barney Oldfield will be made here Thursday by Tommy Milton.

BRESNAHENS WORK OUT DESPITE CHILL WINDS

ROGER GIVES TOLEDO PLAYERS FINAL ONCEOVER BEFORE BIG A. A. GETAWAY.

Despite chill winds that rode in the wake of Monday's combination rain and snow shower Roger Bresnahan and his Toledo Mud Hens, fresh from their training camp at Paducah, Ky., gamboled on the greensward at Washington park today inan effort to work the kinks out of their respective arms and legs preparatory to the big American Association getaway Wednesday. Because of recent poor weather at the Kentucky camp the players were in dire need of a workout, Roger said.

Several old and several new faces appear in the Hen party. In addition to Joe Kelly, former Indian who joined the team last year, Bresnahan has Al Wickland, another former Indian and Joe Wilhoit, recently of the National League in his outfield. Roger points with pride to his garden trio, but because of disappointments in the way of holdouts is not so sure of his infield.

Infield Lineup.

George Beall at first base was with the Hens for a time in 1917, later playing at Memphis and St. Joe. Fox and Thompson, either of whom may appear on the keystone sack, were recruited from the semi-pro ranks. Johnny Jones at short, who finished with the team last year, is expected to have a big year and the same may be said of Art Kores hitter extraordinary last year with Louisville, who will play third base.

As catchers Bresnahan has Mike Kelly, Indianapolis boy; McNeill and himself.

Jimmy Middleton, who registers from Argos, Ind., and who tossed many a thorn into the sides of the Indians, while posing as a Louisville Colonel a few years back, may pitch the opener, with Roger himself on the receiving end. Since leaving the Colonels Middleton did a turn with the Giants. He played semi-professional ball last year at Joliet, Ill. Nelson, McColl, Brady, Sterling, Stryker, Ross and Gene Dubuc, one-time Tiger Star, complete the hurling corps.

Several Holdouts.

Cliff Markle, obtained from the Yankees, and Dumont, from Boston, both pitchers, have refused to report, but Bresnahan thinks they may come to terms later. Malone, whom the Hen boss got from Brooklyn, expecting him to play second base, also is a holdout. Ham Hyatt, veteran of many an A. A. scrap, is still another Hen holdout. Ham wishes to play on the coast.

Bresnahan, who in civilian life is the Duke of Toledo, and Jack Hendricks, always a Chesterfield, parted with some real inside information during a noon feed spread by members of the Rotary club.

PLAY BALL, LEGION.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 13.—The first game to be played by the baseball team of Funkhouser Post, American Legion, of this city, will be with the Vincennes Post, American Legion team at Bosse field here April 24.

Amateur BASEBALL

The Spades A. C.'s defeated the Rector A. C.'s Sunday in ten innings. The Spades have entered the Municipal League and desire to play a few fast local clubs before the opening of the league games. Call Woodruff 7378 and ask for Glen. A game is desired for Sunday.

The Rector A. C.'s will hold a meeting Wednesday night. All players are urged to be present, as the lineup for the team will be decided. The opening game will be played May 2.

The Rector Juniors desire a game for Sunday. Call Man 9493 and ask for Sam.

The Bingo A. C.'s got away with a flying start Sunday, when they trimmed the Tarters, 11 to 6. The pitching of Bowman and the fast playing of Saffell and Grisel, featured the game. For games call Harrison 122.

The Highland A. C.'s claim a forfeit game from the Colorado Juniors, who they say failed to appear for a game scheduled to be played on the Highland field. The Highlands defeated the Eastern Cubs, 15 to 7. A game is desired for Sunday. Call Woodruff 5396 and ask for Bill. The Highland team is in the seventeen-year-old class.

The Indianapolis Merits are ready to open the season and are now scheduling games with state clubs. Address William Bell, 2117 South New Jersey street.

The St. Paul baseball club is out again this year with a much stronger team than the club has supported in previous years. They will meet Friday night in the church at 8 o'clock. G. Webb take notice.

CARPENTIER MAY COME

Georges Carpentier (Car-pen-tee-ay, if you please), French war hero and heavyweight boxing champion of Europe, who came to the United States ostensibly to meet Jack Dempsey and incidentally to revamp a fortune worn thin by the conflict with Germany, together with his French bride, may appear shortly in Indianapolis. A movement is under way whereby Carpentier may be the headliner of an athletic carnival to be held on Saturday, May 29, preceding the annual 500-mile classic at the Indianapolis motor speedway. Official announcement will be made shortly in the event tentative plans materialize.

GOOD PAIR TO DRAW TO

JACK HENDRICKS. W. C. SMITH.

The Indians enter the first lap of the American Association race Wednesday with fairly good prospects of winning the pennant. The club is a good one with an acknewledged weakness in the pitching department. This weakness will be remedied without a doubt. Two genuine sportsmen are in charge of the club, William C. Smith, owner, and Jack Hendricks, manager. Both are popular in baseball and both are natural winners. Smith has a unique position in baseball in that he is popular with his players. His popularity fosters a winning spirit and the players would rather win for Bill than eat. All fandom knows of the eagerness of Hendricks to win. It's a splendid pair to draw to.

UMPIRES ASSIGNED FOR BIG LEAGUE OPENERS

ONLY TEN "SPITTERS" ELIGIBLE FOR PLAY IN AMERICAN, SAYS JOHNSON.

CLEVELAND, April 13.—Only ten American League pitchers are eligible to use the "spit ball" during the 1920 season, President B. B. Johnson announced here last night previous to departure for New York.

Cleveland has nominated Coveleskie and Caldwell; Chicago, Cicotte and Faber; Detroit, Leonard and Ayres; St. Louis, Shocker and Gallia; New York, Quinn, and Boston, Russell. Neither Philadelphia nor Washington made any nomination, which means that neither of these clubs has a pitcher eligible under the new rules adopted at the February meeting in Chicago. The following assignments of umpires for the opening games Wednesday were announced:

Evans and Hildebrand at Cleveland.
Owens and Chill, Chicago.
Connell and Moriarty at Boston.
Dineen and Nallin, at Philadelphia.

At the close of the session President Heydler announced the following assignment of umpires for the opening games: At New York, O'Day and Harrison; at Brooklyn, McCormick and Hart; at Cincinnati, Rigler and Moran and at St. Louis, Klem and Emslie.

DOPESTER PICKS REDS AND CLEVELAND TO WIN

SAYS INDICATIONS POINT TO ALL-OHIO AFFAIR FOR NEXT WORLD'S SERIES.

[By the United Press]

NEW YORK, April 13.—Ohio will be the baseball capital next fall, the oracles of the diamond say.

Having satisfied a desire of fifty years last year when the Reds won the National League pennant, the Buckeye fans are to see another dream come to pass by having the world's series an all-Ohio affair, the dope seems to point.

To those who come at him with mitt outstretched and nice words of congratulations, Tris Speaker, who starts his second season as a big league manager, says:

"Not so loud. Maybe you're right, but I don't want the boys to get full of that cinched-pennant stuff."

Speaker is right. The Cleveland Indians haven't cinched the American League pennant. But if they don't land first on the heap, the young leader of the Dunn tribe is going to have some tall explaining to do.

The dope seems plain as a nose on the face. The White Sox won the pennant last year and the White Sox are broke this year. The Indians ran them such a close race last year, it is doubtful if they would have been able to hold the lead over the regulation 154-game schedule. The Indians are just as strong if not stronger than they were last season. Nothing to date seems strong enough on paper to keep them out of the first hold.

Tigers and Yanks.

Detroit and the New York Yankees will fight it out for second place. Hugh Jennings and Miller Huggins say so. Q. E. D. However, it looks to be right. If the Tigers had a dependable pitching staff, something they have lacked for years, they would be right on the Indians' heels. The Yankees are strengthened on the offense by the acquisition of Babe Ruth but they are just as slow afoot as they were last season. They have a good pitching staff.

Jimmy Burke and his Browns may land in the first division in the place of the dilapidated White Sox. With Buck Weaver, Chick Gandil and Swede Risberg gone the plight of the Sox is a sorry one. The Boston Red Sox didn't profit much by their two big deals and Clarke Griffith didn't have time enough under his new regime as president of the Washington club to get some players he was after. Connie Mack has a team of extremely young players that may be a surprise and pull the Mackmen out of the cellar this season.

Long Signs Contract.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 13.—Pitcher Tommy Long, who returned his contract unsigned and demanded an increase in salary, has signed a new contract with the Louisville club and will report immediately it was announced today.

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR FOR OLD NATIONAL LEAGUE

AMERICAN STARTS TWENTY-FIRST SEASON—SCHEDULE OF OPENING GAMES.

Major league baseball teams swing into pennant action tomorrow with the formal opening of the 1920 season. Based upon the form exhibited in the spring training on southern diamonds the sixteen clubs of the National and American Leagues appear to be in excellent physical condition and baseball prophets forcast close races for the respective league flags as well as exceptional attendance and financial receipts due to the unusual interest in the game this year.

Eastern and western city clubs share equally in the allotment of opening dates. In the National League Boston plays at New York, while Philadelphia will make its initial appearance at Brooklyn. The western division teams of the senior organization clash with Chicago at Cincinnati and Pittsburg at St. Louis. The American League schedule calls for New York to open at Philadelphia, Washington at Boston, Detroit at Chicago and St. Louis at Cleveland. The initial return contests are set for April 22, when the order of the schedule will be reversed.

Major League History.

The games to be played in the National League tomorrow will inaugurate the forty-fifth consecutive season for the senior major league, for the organization dates back to 1876, when the Chicago club won the first pennant. The teams of that city still hold the lead for, since 1876, Chicago clubs have captured eleven championships. Boston comes second, with nine, and New York third, with eight. The American League will celebrate its twenty-first annual opening, having started its major league career in the spring of 1900. Since that date the pennants have been distributed among four clubs, Philadelphia and Boston each having won six; Chicago, five, and Detroit, three.

NIX ON CUSSIN', SAYS HICKEY

CHICAGO, April 13.—Profanity on the baseball fields will not be tolerated in the American Association this year, President Hickey told his staff of umpires at a conference here today. Preliminary to the opening of the season, the umpires were instructed to order any player or manager off the field at the first offense and to report subsequent violations to President Hickey who said he intended to fine and perhaps suspend the offending player.

"We have determined to give the game a thorough cleaning," President Hickey said, "so that the sport will be made safe for women and children. Swearing will not be tolerated. I have instructed the umpires to enforce the rule to the letter and players violating it will feel the force of it."

AFTER BRITISH TITLE.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Walter Hagen, American open golf champion, is to leave May 15 for England to compete in the British open championship. Jim Barnes, St. Louis professional champion, will not leave until later, and Jock Hutchinson has not decided to make the trip.

REDS SHOW POORLY IN INTERLEAGUE SERIES

NATIONAL GAINS EDGE IN EXHIBITION GAMES, WINNING 42 TO 40.

NEW YORK, April 13.—National League clubs took the honors in the several series of inter-league pre-season games. The total score in games for the series which ended yesterday is 42 to 40, with three tied games, the American League trailing.

The world's champion Reds made the poorest showing of the National League. Pat Moran's men won only five out of thirteen games with the Washington Senators and got only one decision out of four with the Yankees.

This rather poor showing somewhat confirms the report that the Reds derived very little benefit from an undisciplined stay at Miami and are in poor condition to start the race.

The St. Louis Cardinals, by losing the city series to the Browns by four games to two, cut down the lead piled up by the Giants and Brooklyn Robins. Brooklyn's feat in winning ten out of sixteen from the Yankees can be classed as a real surprise, and the Braves' victory over the Tigers comes a close second. The Giants ran true to form in taking ten out of fifteen with the Red Sox, as did the Cardinals also in taking eight out of fifteen from the Athletics.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Jay Gould retained his title as world's court tennis champion yesterday when he defeated C. Suydam Cutting in straight sets at 6—3, 6—0, 6—1. BIG TEN COACHES ARE WRATHY AT DECISIONS

FEEL THAT NEBRASKA AND WISCONSIN WRESTLERS WERE DISCRIMINATED AGAINST.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 13.—Discrimination in decisions and generally unsatisfactory conditions attended the western intercollegiate wrestling and fencing meet at the University of Illinois last week, according to Indiana fans who accompanied the Crimson wrestling team to the tournament.

Unfairness in the rulings in the wrestling matches Friday, the opening day, brought down the wrath of every coach in the western conference, including Director Scheuttner of Illinois, who agreed with the protests of the other directors and coaches. Assistant Wrestling Coach Roth, of Illinois, is said to have been dismissed as a result of the unfairness of his selections of officials.

Smart, who wrestled for Illinois against Indiana matmen in 1917, was one of the officials whose work on last Friday precipitated the actions of the coaches. His decisions are said to have plainly discriminated in favor of Illinois. Even the Illinois director roundly criticised his work, it is said.

The officials were dismissed at a meeting of the coaches last Saturday and the coaches themselves, aided by an Indianapolis wrestler who competed in the gymnastic events, completed the meet. The discrimination is said to have been chiefly against Nebraska and Wisconsin.

Indiana University was unanimously awarded the 1920 meet and the tournament will go to Wisconsin in 1921.

In Loving Remembrance

of Frederick W. Fuehring:
Two years away, and memory fondly weeps
Over the absence of these two sad years.
Beloved one, since thou didst fall asleep,
How much of care, how much for many tears
Have passed us by; whilst thou with brow serene,
And eyes unclouded full of joyful light,
Mid fairest flowers, through vales with verdure green,
Hast wandered, happy with the angels bright.
We think of thee when summer ardent glows,
Through all her smiling flowers thy face appears,
We think of thee when winter's falling snows
Speak in their sadness of the passing years.
In storm or sunshine, day or lonely night,
Thy life seems present, not as past and gone;
Not lost, but sent before, and shining bright:
A beacon to lead our spirits on
Into the haven of all perfect rest.
Where thou hast dwelt two years among the blest.
His loving WIFE AND CHILDREN.

In Loving Remembrance

REBENNACK—In loving memory of our darling daughter and sister, Sybilla Rebennack. Passed into eternal sleep April 9, 1919.
A loving daughter, so true and so kind,
No other girl like her on earth I'll find;
I miss her hurrying footsteps,
I miss her loving ways,
And the kind, good words to mother she always used to say.
My heart cries each day for Sybilla,
She was my pride and joy.
Roses may wither, hearts may die,
If others forget you, never shall I.
MOTHER, KATHERINE REBENNACK; BROTHERS AND SISTERS.

In Loving Remembrance

of our dear mother, Mrs. August Werner, who passed away three years ago, April 12.
Like the petals of a rose that drop off and pass away,
So was our dear mother's life just fading day by day.
When at last her end came while we stood in tears,
To think of all the lonesomeness through all the coming years.
But some day we hope to meet her when our day is o'er
On that beautiful isle of somewhere, where sorrows we know no more.
HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

In Loving Remembrance

of George L. Todd, who departed this life seven years ago today, April 13, 1913. Another year has vanished down life's tempestuous way, another lapse of time has fled since brother went away. We miss his loving presence, his memory lingers still, a place amid us is vacant which never can be filled. He is gone but not forgotten from earth's cares, toils and strife. His soul rests now forever on through eternal life. HIS LOVING PARENTS AND SISTERS.

In Loving Remembrance

of Harry Grigsby, Jr., who departed this life one year ago today, April 13, 1919. One year ago, dear son, you left us all in sorrow; God took him away from our home, but never from our hearts. When the April winds are blowing and we are sitting all alone there comes a silent longing if our dear son could come home. There's no one on earth can fill his place. Sadly missed by his MOTHER AND FATHER.

In Loving Remembrance

of our dear baby Margaret Louise, who died one year ago. Oh, we miss our little darling, but our Father called her home. Her sweet infant spirit hastened in response to His word come. She's only gone to make our pathway that we too may follow on and go home at last to meet her, where we'll gather around His throne. Sadly missed by those who loved her. W. G. STODTHMAN AND FAMILY.

In Loving Remembrance

of Christena Seitz, our dear wife and mother, who passed away seven years ago today. Gone, but not forgotten. HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

In Loving Remembrance

of our loving daughter and sister, Cora Palmer Schacklers, who died one year ago today, April 13, 1919; Gone but not forgotten. MOTHER AND SISTER.

In Loving Remembrance

of Tony F. Miller, who died 1 year ago today. May his soul rest in peace. MR. AND MRS. JOHN KLEIN AND SISTERS.

Glove Making

because it is one that is solely for women, is the lightest of the needle trades, has no dull season, is neither noisy nor greasy, has no disagreeable odors, pays high rates and is located out of the factory district in plenty of sunshine and fresh air.

NOW WE HAVE IT
57 acres within 5 miles of the city, 10-room, strictly modern, country home, hardwood floors and own light plant, with full basement, sleeping porch clear along east side of building, screened-in dining room full length of building for summer. The entire house is well screened, including front porch; well and cistern; double garage. Fine fish pond on this place, 500 bass put in this pond 2 years ago and several other game fish. Concrete road runs in front of the home all the way into the city, 3 blocks from interurban stop. Several thousand dollars' worth of shrubbery has been set, extra fine bearing orchard. Tenant house with 6 rooms and big porch; fine barn and hog houses, with cement feeding floor; chicken house, 20x80, another 10x14, chicken parks all fenced in nicely. The tenant on this farm is cultivating the farm this year. The modern house is vacant and can give immediate possession. This can be bought at a bargain as the owner has big interests out of the state. Half cash, balance terms; will have to see this to know how beautiful it is. This would make an ideal place to serve chicken dinners as there are about 3 acres in large forest trees and well set in blue grass, with a nice brook of everlasting water running through it. Buy this for a home and also for an investment.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE
84 acres in Marion county, right in sight of the new Lafayette Motor Car Company at Maywood, Ind. Can be bought at a farming price. Would make a fine dairy and grain farm as has running water and good wells. 8-room brick house, fairly good barn and good fertile soil; ½-mile from concrete road. This could be sold off into acre lots as it faces on 2 good gravel roads; $250 per acre if sold at once. Would consider a 5 or 6-room house not to exceed $3,500.

Here is your chance to buy a real bargain as the owner is a manufacturer and hasn't time to give this farm the proper attention. Price $235 per acre; immediate possession.

DOWN ON THE FARM

EVANSVILLE—The heavy rains of Sunday and Monday in the pocket counties will seriously hamper farm work for the next few days, J. A. McCarthy, agricultural agent of Vanderburg county, says that planting has been delayed all the spring.

GREENSBURG—W. S. Robbins and son, of Horace, well known Shorthorn cattle men, have just returned from London and Toronto, Canada, where they bought two cars of cattle to be added to their herd. The purchases include three bulls, twenty-four heifers and young cows.

ALEXANDRIA—A meeting of the Monroe Township Farmers' Federation has been called for next Friday night at the city building for the purpose of arranging to buy several thousand pounds of binder twine for distribution among farmers in this community. The membership drive of the federation has resulted in 141 farmers joining the organization.

NEWCASTLE—A movement was started among the farmers of Henry county to form a wool pool, the year's clip to be sold to one firm or person. It is estimated the clip will be 36,000 pounds. Farmers say that they have not received a fair price in former years. The plan is to hold it until a satisfactory price is obtained. The committee in charge of the pool is composed of Ralph Test, county agricultural agent, James B. Shively and John H. Myers. Negotiations will be opened with wool buyers and offers will be received on the total clip here.

SUGAR SHARES SCORE SUBSTANTIAL ADVANCES

POOLS PUSH OTHERS ON EXPECTED STOCK DIVIDENDS.

MONEY AT TEN PER CENT.

Average Stock Prices

The average price of twenty industrial stocks Monday was 103.94, off 1.29 per cent. The average price of twenty active rails was 74.76, off .88 per cent.

Belief in an early settlement of the railroad strike encouraged pools and other professional interests to extend their bullish commitments in the stock market Tuesday. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares.

NEW YORK, April 13.—A gain of 1 point for Royal Dutch and a reaction of 2 points for Texas Company reflected the uneven course of prices at the dull opening of today's stock market. Trading continued to be influenced by the growth of the railroad strike and yesterday's higher rate for call money. Sugars and affiliated specialties were again firm to strong, but the general list, notably steels, motors and shippings, indicated renewed selling pressure.

Moderate improvement was shown before the end of the first half hour, equipments' strengthening, with further advances among sugar issues.

In addition to sugars, which soon scored overnight gains of 2 to 20 points, various issues, which rumor associates with impending stock dividends, were taken up by pools. High grade oils rose 2 to 3 points, shippings 2 to 7 and minor or independent steels and equipments 2 to 6. Motors and their subsidiaries were inclined to advance, but dealings in that group were relatively light, and rails were altogether neglected. Foreign exchange was steadier and call money opened at 7 per cent., but Liberty bonds and Victory notes established new low records.

The market derived much of its further improvement at midday from encouraging reports regarding the railroad strike. Many specialties embracing steels, equipments, tobacco, textile and chemical groups showed gains of 2 to 4 points and sugars continued to rise.

A break of 16 points in General Motors and a 10 per cent. money rate gave the market a moderate setback later, but this was largely overcome in the final dealings. The closing was firm.

COTTON PRICES RALLY.

Bullish Crop Advices Stop Selling and Market Steadies.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Continued nervousness over the railroad strike showed itself in the irregular opening of the cotton market today. First prices were steady at a decline of 20 to 50 points on the old crop positions, while the new crop was 10 points lower to 3 points higher with January showing the advance owing to unfavorable weather news. There was local selling on the labor troubles and the easier tone of foreign exchange, but the bullish crop advices held sellers in check and the market steadied up shortly after the call. May rallied from 41.15c to 41.35c, while October sold up from 34.68c to 34.92c or about unchanged to 15 points net higher on the general list.

Prices weakened during the middle of the morning under Liverpool selling, liquidation and local pressure with old crop months selling 35 points and the new crop about 12 to 26 points net lower. This carried May off to 41.00c and October to 34.59, but as soon as the volume of liquidation subsided prices steadied up again on the unfavorable weather and crop news with October advancing to 34.95 or 10 points net higher around midday. Old crop positions recovered all but 3 or 4 points of the early losses.

Old crop positions sold 4 to 5 points and the new crop 33 to 36 points net higher in the early afternoon on bullish crop advices and the detailed weather reports, which were regarded as foreshadowing a bullish weekly weather report tomorrow. After selling at 41.39c for May and 35.21c for October, however, there were reactions of a few points under realizing.

Futures closed steady; May, 41.55c; July, 39.25c; October, 35.28c; December, 34.22c; January, 33.20c. Cotton steady; middling, 43c.

New Low Wholesale Egg Price.

The wholesale buying price for eggs at local houses dropped today to the lowest point since last July, as a result of the embargo on freight. Dealers were paying 35 to 36 cents a dozen for strictly fresh eggs delivered at Indianapolis. Retail prices are 43 to 45 cents a dozen. The embargo has caused eggs to accumulate on the local market.

UNSETTLED CLOSE FOR CHICAGO CORN PRICES

BETTER STRIKE NEWS VERSUS TALK OF EXPORT DEMAND.

PACKERS SELL PROVISIONS

CHICAGO, April 13.—Corn underwent a material setback in price today. The weakness was due more to lack of support than to any great selling pressure. Uncertainties of the railway traffic outlook tended to make traders go slow for the time being. First quotations which ranged from ¼ to 1⅛c lower with May, $1.66 to $1.66¼, and July, $1.59¼ to $1.59½, were followed by transient rallies, but then by declines further than before.

Bears put considerable stress on gossip that the west gave promise of recovering from the railway strike earlier than the east, but the talk of a good export demand for wheat, rye and corn goods led to late rallies in the corn market. Prices closed unsettled, ½c net lower to ⅜c advance, with May $1.66⅝@1.66⅞, and July $1.60@1.60⅛.

Oats sagged with corn. After opening unchanged to ½c lower, including July at 85⅜c to 85½c, the market suffered a moderate general fall.

Selling that was ascribed to packers had depressing effect on provisions. Upturns in the value of hogs were almost ignored.

—April 13—

In addition to 3,500 hogs held over from Monday there were 400 fresh arrivals and when the trading ended practically all the supply was sold. Railroads are not receiving stock for Indianapolis delivery, but an embargo placed on the truck business late on Monday was canceled at noon Tuesday and enough stock should arrive in trucks and other vehicles to accommodate the requirements of local killers until such time as there is a freer movement from the refrigerators of the different kinds of dressed meat. Buyers indicated they would absorb all the stock that may arrive in the truck division.

After standing "pat" for several days with a bid of $15.50 for the light hogs, Kingan & Co. followed the smaller buyers and paid $16.00 for the kind that they could have bought at that price on Monday

Armour & Co., Hilgemeir Bros. and a few others opened the market by taking approximately 900 hogs averaging less than 225 pounds at $16.00 and Kingan & Co. then cleared the supply on that basis. Slightly heavier hogs sold at $15.75 to $15.90. On the order of owners a few loads of hogs were priced at $16.50 to $17.00 and these together with some heavy stock for which buyers bid $15.00 were left unsold.

The receipts of hogs at the principal distributing centers for two days were 55,000 against 173,000 the same time last week, 248,000 a year ago and 263,000 two years ago.

In addition to several cattle carried forward from the last two or three days there were 100 fresh receipts, and at the close of trade, the pens were practically empty. At the start the demand was again confined to the female butcher stock and the low priced light steers at steady to higher prices than on Monday, and practically steady with final sales last week. Later in the day a local packer flirted with holders of several loads of steers and there was an agreement that moved most of the supply. There was considerable difference in the quality and finish of the offerings becauses steers averaging a fraction less than 1,100 pounds, sold from $11.25 to $12.50, nearly steady with the closing sales last week and probably 50c to 75c lower than the best time the early part of last week.

About 100 calves were offered and sold from $15.00 down. Buyers required truck drivers to deliver the calves to the slaughtering place. There was no trading in feeding cattle. No sheep arrived.

DRY GOODS PRICES HIGHER

Brown and bleached muslins, bleached cambric, hospital gauze, ticking and brown bunting have been advanced in price at local wholesale dry goods houses. Dealers say that the advance was necessary because of higher prices at the mills. They see no relief from present high quotations, but predict even higher prices in the next few weeks.

The increases in brown muslins run from 1 to 2½ cents a yard; in bleached muslins, ½ to 1 cent; bleached cambrics, 1 to 2 cents; hospital gauze, ½ to 1 cent; ticking, 1 to 5 cents, and brown bunting, ½ to 1 cent.

Oil Runs and Shipments.

OIL CITY, Pa., April 13.—Credit balance, $6.10; runs Monday, 111,059; average, 47,810. Shipments, 71,884; average, 33,336.

Potato Prices Steady

It was estimated in Commission Row that twelve cars of potatoes were received Monday. Tuesday none of the larger houses had received any shipments. Prices remain at unchanged level, most dealers charging $11.50 a bag of 150 pounds, although one merchant sells at $12.00. The railroad companies are moving a few cars of perishable articles from the yards to city tracks, but receipts are low. The Texas potato crop, which will come on the market about the middle of May, is not counted on by local dealers to ease the situation. They say that all of the leading buyers in the country will compete for the crop because reports are coming in from all points that the general crop is exhausted. A wholesaler said that he expects to see $12.00 potatoes until July, when the new crop arrives.

The season for Florida oranges is over. The demand is strong for California navels.

A shipment of Georgia asparagus sells at $4.00 a crate.

Shallots from Louisiana are priced at $15.00 to $18.00 a barrel.

CANDIDACY NOT TO SUFFER IS BELIEF

Wood's Cancellation of Speaking Dates Chief Topic at Headquarters.

HOGAN EXPRESSES REGRET

Says Indiana Will Miss Inspiration of Speeches, but Volunteers Will Be Active.

General Leonard Wood's announcement in Boston that he has canceled all his speaking engagements and will return to his post of command in the army because of railroad strike conditions, led all other topics of discussion at the Indiana headquarters of presidential candidates today.

In the speculation on the effect his course may have on his candidacy and on the reasons for the course he has taken, the idea was dominant that law and order and the protection of life and property are of the highest moment and that return to active military duty under the circumstances, will not unfavorably affect his candidacy.

Work by Volunteers.

A supporter of Hiram Johnson expressed the opinion that General Wood's service in the steel strike situation at Gary had hurt him politically and that military service in a railroad strike situation would further injure his candidacy.

This view was not expressed by supporters of Senator Harding or Governor Lowden, though some of them wondered what the result would be.

Harry G. Hogan, Wood's Indiana manager, expressed regret in Indianapolis would miss the inspiration of speeches by General Wood, but thought greater work by volunteers would be inspired by Wood's high conception of duty. When news of Wood's decision was received, Mr. Hogan was working on an itinerary for him in Indiana from April 26 to May 1.

Entire Minnesota Delegation.

Gustaf Lindquist, chairman of the Minnesota Republican state committee, in a letter to Mr. Hogan, asserts that Wood has the entire Minnesota delegation of twenty-four to the national convention.

The letter came in answer to an inquiry by Mr. Hogan as to the truth of claims made by Senator Johnson and others. Mr. Lindquist says:

"General Wood has twenty-four delegates from the state of Minnesota, and will get them, notwithstanding the fact that some trickery will undoubtedly be attempted by the opposition. I know personally there never went to the national convention a finer set of delegates who were more firmly bound morally and otherwise."

Discusses Results.

Mr. Lindquist discusses the results of the Minnesota primary and the district conventions and the state convention, giving the details of the action taken and commenting on the preference of the persons chosen as delegates. While the four delegates-at-large were not instructed, Mr. Lindquist says they are all for Wood and have been known for weeks in the state as Wood supporters.

A straw vote at Butler College recently showed Wood far in the lead. Frank O. Lowden and Herbert Hoover stood next in order.

President Howe's Statement.

Thomas Howe, president of Butler, and most of the members of the faculty are for Wood. President Howe has expressed himself as follows:

"I am first for Wood, second for Wood, and third for Wood. Wood stands for his ideals. He is not a politician and if elected I believe that he would make the right kind of a President. I think that he is a most desirable candidate, a level-headed patriot, and would make a sane administrator. We need a man to clear up our present labor questions and I am strongly in favor of him."

A letter to Mr. Hogan from Mayor U. C. Brouse, of Kendallville, says "everything here is going along fine for Wood," whose admirers are hopeful of recording a majority over all other candidates.

Name of Coolidge.

The name of Governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, "will undoubtedly be presented" to the Republican national convention, says a letter received by several Indiana men from the Coolidge committee of Amherst alumni, of which Grosvenor M. Backus is chairman and Everett M. Delabarre secretary.

A book of Coolidge's public addresses is being distributed to acquaint the public with his views. The Coolidge literature speaks of him as "a man with a vision but not visionary."

Governor Coolidge's candidacy has the backing of former Senator Murray Crane.

VOTERS WAKING UP IN GOVERNORSHIP RACE

INCREASED INTEREST NOTICED BY CANDIDATES.

FESLER GAINING STRENGTH

Reports to the headquarters of candidates for nomination for Governor indicate that the lethargy that has seemed to be prevalent concerning state politics is being rapidly dissipated, and that the voters everywhere are beginning to wake up to the fact that it is of vital import to them who the next Governor of Indana shall be.

In the last few weeks the three candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor have done much traveling over the state, and all have received friendly and seemingly encouraging receptions almost every place, giving each candidate a real hope that he has a chance. But until within the last few days the people in general did not seem to be much agitated about the governorship situation, devoting more attention to the presidential possibilities. Now there are plenty of manifestations that a greater interest will be shown regarding state issues.

McCray's Early Start.

Of the three candidates, Warren T. McCray, of Kentland, got much the best start. He was known to many voters on account of his previous candidacy, and his workers became active early.

J. W. Fesler, of Indianapolih, who is regarded by many leading Republicans as the only man in the contest who is well fitted by training and personal qualities for the governorship, was late in making his announcement. He had the handicap of having to gather about him an organization of workers long after Mr. McCray and Edward C. Toner had perfected their organizations, and having to compete with men who appeared to be supported by liberal expense funds.

Mr. Toner started out under the management of Carl Mote, confidential man for Governor James P. Goodrich, and had from the start some of the support that official alliances were able to muster. Mr. Toner has been able to gather some strength, but it is generally conceded that his chances are rather slender.

McCulloch at Marion.

Dr. Carleton B. McCulloch, of Indianapolis, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, has gone to Marion to speak at a Democratic "love feast."

The Democratic state headquarters which for several years have been at the Denison hotel, probably will be removed within a few days to the Claypool hotel. Only two rooms are available at the Claypool hotel, and the state committee will have to work in cramped quarters.

Duffey to Begin Speaking.

Luke W. Duffey, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman from the Seventh district, will open his speaking campaign in the county at a noon meeting at the Nordyke & Marmon plant Wednesday. Mr. Duffey is lining up many influential elements in his support. Word has not been received whether Merrill Moores, present congressman, will take an active part in the campaign for renomination. Charles A. Bookwalter, formerly mayor of Indianapolis, spoke Monday at noon at the plant on behalf of Mr. Fesler. In Mr. Bookwalter's opinion, the nomination of Mr. Fesler for Governor will mean an addition to the Republican strength of 3,500 votes in Marion county alone.

Work of Lincoln eLague.

The Lincoln League of Indiana, which is conducting active work from its headquarters at the Hotel Severin, is directing the organization of many branches in the state. The Republican students of Wabash College have established a strong Lincoln League organization there with the following officers: J. F. McConnell, of Attica, president; F. E. Cash, of Kimmell, vice-president; C. M. LaFollette, of Evansville, secretary-treasurer; Holtz Nyce, of Peru, chairman of the finance committee; J. K. Ruckelshaus, of Indianapolis, chairman of the speakers' committee; J. B. Collins, of Crawfordsville, chairman of the membership committee; R. I. Daugherty, of Princeton, chairman of the publications committee, and Fred C. Gordon, of Macomb, chairman of the organization committee. Mr. Ruckelshaus is a son of John C. Ruckelshaus, president of the Columbia Club.

TWICE IN SAME PLACE.

When W. H. Trimble, sales manager of the Western Oil Refining Company, came downtown Monday he found that yeggmen had blown open a safe at the company's filling station at Twenty-fifth and Meridian streets, Sunday night, and had obtained more than $2,000.

Monday night thieves stole Mr. Trimble's new automobile from in front of his home, 534 East Twenty-ninth street.

SPAAN RAPS CONGRESS.

Candidate Denounces Republicans in Democratic Club Speech.

The Republican majority of the United States congress was denounced in an address by Henry N. Spaan, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the congress from the Seventh district, at the formal opening of the Democratic campaign in Marion county at the Indiana Democratic Club Monday night. Dr. Carleton B. McCulloch, of Indianapolis, candidate for the nomination for Governor, and other candidates spoke. Frank Wolling, president of the club, is a candidate for the nomination for county treasurer.

Mr. Spaan said the Republican congress has done nothing toward refunding and extending our great national debt so as to equalize and make lighter our present burden of taxation, nothing toward cutting down the war taxes; toward getting rid of the numerous offices and commissions made necessary by the war; toward encouraging and putting on a sure and lasting foundation our merchant marine; toward devising a permanent means by which labor disputes may be settled according to law; toward shaping a just law of taxation; toward making proper provision for those who participated in the war; toward allaying unrest in the country and making business more secure, nor toward stopping profiteering and cutting down the cost of living. He said the Republican congress had made no progress in these respects, and had neglected the solution of the great problems confronting civilization.

WOULD SEND TO PENAL FARM

Representative Sanders Introduces Bill for Federal Prisoners.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Acting on suggestion of Governor Goodrich of Indiana, Representative Sanders, of the Fifth Indiana district, has introduced a bill in the house that would make it possible for prisoners sentenced from the federal court for the district of Indiana to be sent to the Indiana State Penal Farm instead of the Marion County Jail where sentences of less than one year are now served by federal prisoners.

In a letter to all of the Indiana members in regard to the Penal Farm, Governor Goodrich said: "In the first place, it is almost inhuman to confine prisoners in the Marion County Jail, or any other jail for the length of time they are confined there. If they can be committed to the State Farm they will be useful. Not only will the state be paid for the keeping but the prisoners can be out in the open and at work and earning enough money to support themselves. Since prohibition passed our population has gone down at the Penal Farm until we have hardly enough men there to operate it."

Little if any damage was done to crops and fruit by the cold Monday night, according to J. H. Armington, meteorologist at the United States weather bureau. The temperature dropped to 24 degrees above zero. The prediction for Wednesday is for slowly rising temperature, with a heavy frost tonight.

HOLD CLOSED SESSION TO DISCUSS NEW SCALE

MINERS SUSPEND REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS.

PREPARE FOR CONFERENCE

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 13.—Delegates of district No. 11, United Mine Workers of America, meeting in special convention here to consider a new wage scale today, suspended the regular order of business and went into closed session to discuss the report of the scale committee. This was done in preparation for the conference tomorrow between the scale committees of the operators and miners to arrange the new scale in this district in conformity with the wage agreement reached at the New York meeting recently.

The delegates yesterday voted against the recommendation of the district officers that a new board member be appointed to help adjust difficulties in the district. Later the proposal was referred to the committee on constitution which will report later on the matter.

Marion Head, of Bicknell, a member of the board, told the miners that they were responsible for the amount of extra work on their officers. "If you men would stick to your contracts and not indulge in stampede strikes you would relieve your officers of much additional work," he said.

The scale committee's report of the negotiations that ended in the wage agreement made in New York, closed with this statement:

"We feel very keenly the past events, and while we have procured a reasonable advance for the men working on the coal, the award has not met our expectations, and as past events are now a matter of history we feel that the future will fully vindicate our every claim and that our organization will continue on and eventually will assist in producing for the worker his full reward."

INSTRUCTOR IS ATTACKED.

Boys Pour Shellac on Face and Hair—S. P. Hall Was Unpopular.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 13.—Schuler P. Hall, a chemistry instructor at the Jefferson High School here, was attacked last night by a group of boys, said to be high school pupils, as he was leaving the Young Men's Christian Association building, and was roughly handled. Today he was under a physician's care, and the matter was being investigated by the school authorities.

Hall has been unpopular with high school pipils for some time. The boys chose an opportune time for their attack. He was marched up an alley, thrown to the ground and his face and hands smeared with shellac. Shellac was also poured on his hair, some of it getting into his eyes.

The instructor fought his assailants and was badly bruised before he was overcome. Besides his eyes being injured, he is suffering from bruises about his face and arms. No specific charge was made by his assailants when they attacked him.

NO TRACE OF ROBBERS.

Five Men, Who Robbed South Bend Bank, Use Three Automobiles.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 13.—Five men, who robbed the South Bend State Bank of more than $10,000 in a daylight raid Monday, are still at liberty. The robbers were traced as far as Westville, Ind., where four of the party transferred from a stolen Studebaker automobile to an Elcar, and later to a Packard machine. The police, however, have been unable to trace further any of the three cars.

The bandits, it has been learned, arrived in South Bend Sunday morning, attracting considerable attention by driving about the streets of the city in the red automobile. Some time Sunday afternoon or night they went to the garage of Stanley Drougowski, 327½ South William street, and stole the license plate from his car. Drougowski did not miss the license plate until the police called on him Monday afternoon.

The bandits carried the proceeds of the robbery in a sack.

What adds more to the beauty of the tea hour than an exquisite tea set. We know of nothing unless it be the tea itself, and even that is enhanced by charming service.

There is a plain colored set of Japanese china, in rose, dark blue and yellow, complete with sugar, cream, teapot, six cups and six saucers. This is priced at $12.50 the set.

Initialed Linen Handkerchiefs for Men, 65c

To get pure linen, initialed handkerchiefs in regulation size, for men, has been an impossibility, the last few months.

But we had on hand several hundred of all white, very fine, linen handkerchiefs, full size, so we had white initials embroidered on them—embroidered by hand.

That is somewhat of an achievement, but what is more remarkable is the price we have placed on them.

Jazzing-up the Minuet

When Mistress Dolly Madison danced the slow and graceful minuet at her first White House ball, it was, no doubt, a wonderful occasion.

All the flurry that preceded it! All the scurrying about for musicians and what not!

Dancing in those days was rare compared to these dizzy, jazzy days of 1920. Our young folk no longer dance the minuet, but dance they will and do—any time, any place, without need of musicians, provided—there's the point—provided they've a phonograph at hand.

They're critical, too. They demand not just any phonograph, but a phonograph that will play all makes of disc records. A phonograph without motor noise; that doesn't require frequent rewinding; whose tone is clear and true, unmarred by needle scratching.

Such a phonograph is the SONORA, proclaimed by expert judges, "the highest class talking machine in the world."

Ask to hear the Minuet model. Price $300. Convenient terms.

"MESSAGE OF LOVE" SENT TO DEBS BY SOCIALISTS

National Executive Committee Terms Leader in Prison "Beacon Light to Masses."

CHICAGO, April 13.—The national executive committee of the Socialist party has made public the text of a message sent yesterday to Eugene V. Debs, now in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga. It is described in the text as "fraternal greetings" and a "message of love on the anniversary of your incarceration."

The message is highly commendatory of Debs, and declares that he is a "beacon light to the suffering masses."

The message reads:

"Dear Gene—In the name of the millions whom you have touched with your love and inspired by your courage, the Socialist party sends you fraternal greetings and this message of love on the anniversary of your incarceration.

"Though in a cell you are too great a man, too magnificent a character to receive our pity. You have, instead, our admiration, loyalty and love. By your courage and example you have heartened the disheartened, and encouraged the discouraged, and given new enthusiasm to those who have never wavered.

"In your prison cell you are a beacon light to the suffering masses, and your words are winged messengers that are arousing the people from their slumbers.

"The spirit of our movement is abroad in the land; the day of our victory approaches. We greet you; we clasp your hand, resolved that we, your comrades, shall strive to live as you have lived, single-mindedly, devoted to the workers' cause, to the end that the world may at last be free."

Little Stories of Daily Life

Appetite Finder.

Two-year-old Albert was ill, and his grandmother at English was explaining to a caller that he had lost his appetite. Shortly afterward his mother on going to his bedside in answer to his call, asked him what he wished. He replied:

"Appetite lost, mother. Find appetite."

Of Course Not.

NATIONAL ECONOMY IS PLEA OF WOOD IN EAST

ADDRESSES HEARD IN FOUR MASSACHUSETTS CITIES.

BUSINESS AID IS FAVORED

WORCESTER, Mass., April 13.—Leonard Wood started his New England tour for the Republican presidential nomination with addresses in Pittsfield, Holyoke and Springfield yesterday, and in this city last night. He later canceled the tour to return to Chicago because of the railway strike situation.

Speaking in Worcester, he called attention to governmental expenditures and asked that the nation get back to a prewar basis of economy and thrift.

"We have been spending money during the war with both hands, like drunken sailors," General Wood said. "The time has come to cut off all unnecessary expenditures and get down to prewar conditions. We want to speak of our congress again as a million-dollar congress and not as a billion-dollar congress.

"The burden of taxation is weighing heavily on us. We must spread the war burden over a longer period of years. We must take the strangle hold of the excess profits and other war taxes off the throat of American business and initiative.

"Now is the time to push forward American business. We have never had such an opportunity since we were a nation. The great producing nations of middle Europe are at a standstill; production has stopped. The great trade areas lie open to us. The German commercial interests and the German banking system are out of Central and South America, and other European trade agencies are largely quiescent. Now is our opportunity to build up our own new trade areas, extend them and establish new trade routes."

Taft Asks Name Kept Off Ballot.

SALEM, Ore., April 13.—William Howard Taft, in a telegram received by the secretary of state of Oregon, requested that his name be not permitted to go on the Republican primary ballot in Oregon as a candidate for President. It was said at the Statehouse that if petitions were filed for Mr. Taft they could not be withdrawn under a supreme court ruling.

BEVERIDGE GUEST OF HONOR

Addresses Wabash College Men and Lawyers at Crawfordsville.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., April 13.—Albert J. Beveridge, formerly United States senator from Indiana, was the guest of honor at a banquet last night given at the Masonic Temple under the auspices of the Hegira Club of Wabash College and the Montgomery County Bar Association. About eighty guests were in attendance at the banquet.

Mr. Beveridge responded informally to the toast "America and Her Future." Mr. Beveridge's principal address of the evening was on the subject of John Marshall and the Constitution of the United States. Dr. George L. Mackintosh, president of Wabash College, presided at the banquet. Dumont Kennedy, major of Crawfordsville, spoke briefly, welcoming Mr. Beveridge on behalf of the bar association. Norman Littell, president of the Hegira Club, spoke for his organization.

Professor L. H. Gipson, head of the department of history at Wabash, presided during a part of the meeting.

ASKS INTERVENING RIGHT.

Massachusetts Attorney-General Files Christian Science Plea.

BOSTON, April 13.—A petition for leave to intervene in the Christian Science church litigation has been filed in the supreme court by J. Weston Allen, attorney-general of Massachusetts. In his petition he says that the First Church of Christ, Scientist, "is a public charitable trust devoted to the advancement of the religion of Christian Science for the benefit of its present and future members and of the public generally," and is an unincorporated association.

He points out that the powers of the directors of the church have been limited by the report of the master in the litigation between the directors and trustees of the Christian Science Publishing Society and that the binding force and effect of the directors' acts have been questioned, if not denied by that report.

WOODS HOLE ABANDONED.

President Not to Use It For Summer White House.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—White House officials today were considering possible sites for summer headquarters, principal requirements being that they must afford opportunities for complete rest for President Wilson and adequate accommodation for the large staff which must accompany him.

Elimination yesterday of the estate of Charles R. Crane, minister to China, at Woods Hole, Mass., as the summer White House, followed reports of investigators that it lacked these features and also that it would not assure complete privacy for the President owing to the proximity of the streets of the village.

SURVEY BEING MADE.

Councilmen Visit North Side Fire Stations on Inspection Trip.

Fire stations on the north side were inspected Monday afternoon by Councilmen Russell Willson, Jacob P. Brown, Louis W. Carnefix and Jesse E. Miller, who were accompanied by Chief John C. Loucks and William Curran, superintendent of the salvage corps.

The council has under consideration plans of the board of public safety for motorizing the department, and a survey is being made by the councilmen to decide what expenditure it will approve. Two new fire stations and a repair station are also in the safety board's program for the department.

Church Protest Against Filling Station to Be Presented.

PLANS FOR NURSES' HOME

City Board of Health Decides on Bond Issue.

The city board of health decided to start action to provide a bond issue for the construction of a nurses' home at the City Hospital, at a meeting Monday night. The question of providing suitable quarters for the nurses in training at the hospital has been a serious one and the undesirability of the living quarters has made it difficult for the hospital to keep up its required staff of nurses, according to Dr. Herman G. Morgan, secretary of the board.

Wednesday Biggest Fire Day

What day of the week has the most fires?

Most persons think Sunday.

"I suppose that the reason for this belief is because they are at home Sundays, and they notice the passing of fire wagons more than when they are at work," said Assistant Chief [illegible]. "But our records for 1919 show that Wednesday had the greatest number of fires for the year. The number was 518. The figures for the other days are: Sunday, 396; Monday, 384; Tuesday, 430; Thursday, 469; Friday, 436, and Saturday, 499."
