NINE MILLIONAIRES ON JOHNSON SLATE

Senator Who Won in Michigan on Appeal Against Money Well Backed in Far West.

RECEIVES HEARST SUPPORT

Candidate Now Aided by the Men He Said Were Representatives of the "Interests" of the State.

The Indianapolis News Bureau, 33 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Senator Hiram Johnson, who won his campaign in Michigan on the strength of his appeal against the use of money in elections, has nine millionaires with a combined wealth of more than $150,000,000 on his delegate slate in California, has sumptuous quarters in an extravagant hotel in San Francisco, and his managers are spending money like water, it is declared, to have the state go for him and against Herbert Hoover in the primaries of May 4.

The same Senator Johnson, who makes vigorous attacks on newspapers and has vigorous things to say about newspaper backing, is the Hearst publication candidate for President. He has been supported, aided and abetted for years by Hearst; appeared as Hearst's counsel in the famous case in which Hearst papers were enjoined from pirating news dispatches of the Associated Press and is an intimate friend and companion of Hearst himself.

Support in California.

The same Senator Johnson, who is against the politicians and is speaking for the people is now supported in California by the very men whom he declared not long ago were representatives of the railroads and the interests of the state.

The same Senator Johnson who has suddenly turned conservative, is known throughout the land for his radical views and as a friend of Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and Senator Borah of Idaho; as the friend of the various radical movements of Hearst and the Hearst influences, and was known, up to the time he became a candidate for President as an ardent advocate of government ownership of railroads.

These rather interesting facts in regard to Senator Johnson are well known in Washington and California and, in fact, are well known wherever Senator Johnson is well known, but among the people of Indiana, where Johnson has lately been appearing as the virgin of politics and as the spokesman of the masses of the people, they may not be so well known and in the interest of fairness to the Johnson campaign in the state it might be well to set them out.

Reviews California Fight.

Willis J. Abbott, a well known magazine writer, in a dispatch from California in regard to the fight raging there between the Hoover and Johnson forces for control of the state delegation to the Republican national convention, tells of the kind of men that are back of Johnson in California and of the wealth that is represented on the Johnson slate of delegates.

Quoting Ralph Merritt, a former executive of the University of California, Mr. Abbott says in his dispatch:

"His line of argument against the Johnson candidacy is largely that it no longer represents either the issues or the classes in society which put the senator in his present public position. He points out that, while preaching loudly against the power of money in politics, Johnson's delegate tickets bear the names of nine millionaires whose aggregate wealth, as estimated by Bradstreet's, exceeds $150,000,000.

"Hitherto he has had to make his fights largely against a hostile press. This time he assures press support by putting four editors on his ticket.

Hearst-Johnson Friendship.

"William Randolph Hearst has been Johnson's friend and Johnson has been Hearst's friend for years, their friendship dating back to the time that Johnson needed the Hearst papers in his fight for control of the state of California. Johnson has been a liberal exponent of the Hearst views ever since, and it is a matter of common knowledge that whenever Hearst wanted anything done in Washington, after Johnson got here, he always sent Robert Watkins and James J. Montague to see Johnson and tell him what was to be done."

Thus, when the espionage bills were up in the senate and attempts were being made to make it possible to squelch during the war unpatriotic and seditious newspapers, Hearst sent Watkins and Montague here. They saw Johnson. Johnson opposed the censorship sections of the espionage bill and made several speeches in which he dilated, in characteristic fashion, on the "freedom of the press," a freedom which was very dear to the Hearst influences.

Before America Entered War.

Before the United States got into the war, the Hearst newspapers were barred from Great Britain and France because of some highly improbable dispatches which were printed in some of the Hearst papers, and which purported to come from Great Britain and France. After this, it was shown by court records, the Hearst service began a systematic campaign of pirating dispatches from abroad that were sent by the Associated Press. To the Hearst clients, these dispatches were sent as coming from London and Paris, when, as a matter of fact, Hearst was not permitted to send a line from either place.

The Associated Press sued the Hearst service for pirating its dispatches, and eventually the case reached the supreme court of the United States, where Senator Johnson, even then a member of the senate, responded to the call of Hearst and went into court to make an eloquent plea for the right of Hearst to take whatever dispatches he wanted to take.

Support in Michigan.

The Hearst record is well known, and it need not be repeated here. It is sufficient to say that Johnson is now and has been the friend of Hearst. Hearst is now and has been the friend of Johnson. In regard to the men supporting Johnson, these facts stand out:

In Michigan it was the Detroit News, known for its pacifist tendencies, that supported Johnson. It was Representative Crampton, of that state, a pacifist in his time, who led Johnson's campaign. It was the radical element of the state that voted for Johnson. The conservatives did not support him.

In Wisconsin, the delegation has been pledged to Senator La Follette, arch opponent of the war with Germany and whose record is also well known. The Johnson supporters here are claiming that La Follette only made his fight to get the state delegation so that he could turn it over to Johnson.

In Nebraska, Johnson was supported by Senator Norris, along with La

PASSES DAYLIGHT REPEAL

New York Assembly Sends Measure to the Governor.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 23.—The assembly today adopted the Fowler bill designed to repeal the daylight saving law. The vote was 78 to 58. The bill, which has already passed the senate, now goes to the Governor.

PACKERS' AGENTS INDICTED

Accused of Meat Profiteering By Brooklyn Grand Jury.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Indictments charging profiteering in meats were returned today by a federal grand jury in Brooklyn against the Chicago packing houses of Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Wilson & Co., and their representatives here.

The packers' Brooklyn representatives indicted were Harry G. Mills, assistant superintendent of Armour & Co.; William Cleary, superintendent of Swift & Co., and Louis Joseph, manager for Wilson & Co. Swift & Co. were indicted on four counts, Armour & Co., on three, and Wilson & Co., on one. The men were arraigned and the $2,500 bonds which they and their firms are now under were continued. The indictments were found on complaints by agents of the department of justice, who have been investigating alleged profiteering for several weeks.

INDIANAPOLIS MAN HURT.

F. E. Walker Injured in Big Four Wreck at Benton Harbor.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., April 23.—Two coaches of Big Four train No. 39 bound for Indianapolis rolled over into a ditch south of here this morning when a defective switch derailed the train. Five persons, including F. E. Walker, of Indianapolis, were injured.

Members of the train crew said the accident was caused by a "tampered switch," it being found that a switch near the scene of the accident had been partly thrown open.

Frank E. Walker, 914 Congress avenue, the man named in this dispatch, is manager of the G. R. Kinney & Co. shoe store, Indianapolis. He was on his way back to Indianapolis from a trip in Michigan when the accident occurred. Mrs. Walker had not received information this afternon as to the nature of Mr. Walker's injuries.

NAVY OFFICER ENDS LIFE.

Rear-Admiral Brittain, Fleet Chief of Staff, Shoots Himself.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Rear-Admiral C. B. Brittain, chief of staff to the commander of the Atlantic fleet, shot and killed himself the afternoon of April 22, Secretary Daniels was advised today by Admiral Wilson, commander-in-chief of the fleet at Guantanamo bay.

Admiral Wilson, in advising the navy department of Admiral Brittain's death, gave no reason for the admiral's act.

The body will be brought to the United States on the Hospital Ship Solace. Admiral Brittain's home was at Richmond, Ky.

Admiral Brittain was born at Pineville, Ky., fifty-three years ago, and was graduated from the naval academy in 1888. During the Spanish-American war he served on the cruisers Newark and Brooklyn and the auxiliary Badger, with the rank of lieutenant. For his services aboard the Newark in the battle of Santiago he received the Sampson medal.

From 1900 to 1903 he was stationed in the Philippines and from 1905 to 1907 he was on the staff of the commander of the North Atlantic fleet. Other sea service included commander of the battleships Massachusetts and Michigan. He was made a rear-admiral in 1914 and assigned to the staff of Admiral Wilson when the latter was placed in command of the Atlantic fleet.

REED'S NAME REJECTED BY PARTY AS DELEGATE

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS RETURN CAUCUS NOMINATION.

LEAGUE CREATES DIVISION

JOPLIN, Mo., April 23.—The Democratic state convention in session here voted today to reject the selection of United States Senator James A. Reed as district delegate to the national convention and to return his name to the Fifth district caucus which nominated him. The vote was 1,070 to 490, four not voting.

It came as the climax to an all-night session of the convention in which wrangling and filibustering played a prominent part. Lines were drawn sharply in the fight between adherents of Reed and the anti-Reed faction which disapproved Reed's opposition to the league of nations covenant.

Vote Against Measure.

The Fifth district delegation (Kansas City and Jackson county) and the St. Louis delegation, with the exception of two wards, cast their ballots against the measure.

In the debate which preceded the vote, Senator Reed was denounced and praised by a number of speakers.

"Missouri has suffered long and has been patient, but her hour of vindication has struck," Frank Curlee, of St. Louis, said in opening the debate for the opposition.

He declared that "Senator Reed's political offenses antedated his opposition to the league of nations covenant," and asserted that by his course in the senate during the war the senator "equivocated and condoned until he led the country to wonder whether Missouri was not more pro-German than pro-American."

Plead for Party Harmony.

Floyd Jacobs and E. M. Harber, both of Kansas City, made pleas that Reed be sent to the convention for the sake of party harmony.

The senator, Mr. Curlee said, condoned the sinking of the Lusitania by a German submarine, and after the war broke out opposed measures designed to win the war.

"While I was in the United States army," he said, "Senator Reed was in Washington opposing the food control act upon which I depended for food."

Discussing Senator Reed's opposition to the league covenant, he declared that "he had only hate for the President, hate for England, hate for humanity, hate for every one but the followers of his august personage."

"Today," he said in conclusion, "the dispatches will carry to the far corners of the world the fact that Missouri is pure and patriotic and that her Pharisaical traducer has been dethroned."

Women's Difficult Problem.

"The most difficult problem the newly enfranchised Democratic women voters have is explaining Senator Reed," declared Mrs. W. W. Martin, of Cape Girardeau.

"We can't explain how we can indorse the league and then send to the national convention a man who is opposed to it. The women do not think it logical. You ask us to help you keep Missouri in the Democratic ranks this year. W can do it if you

PLURALITY VIEW OLD CROWD PUZZLE

Strong Sentiment That Highest Vote Should Guide Convention Delegates.

PLAN AGAINST MAJORITY

Hogan Comments on Digest Poll Showing Wood 32,351, Johnson 22,609.

Those Republicans, mostly of the old organization, who have been maneuvering in the Indiana presidential preference primary campaign to split the vote among the four candidates in such a way as to prevent any one from receiving a majority, and to prevent instructions that go with a majority under the Indiana law, have become puzzled over the insistent and widespread sentiment that whoever receives a plurality shall have the support of the Indiana delegates to the Republican national convention.

The policy of "mixing things up" in such a way as to make a majority for any candidate improbable and to leave the delegates free to dicker at the convention in the old style, has run up against the conviction of the rank and file, and many of the party workers themselves, that the delegates will be under moral obligations to support the candidate who receives a plurality, even if none receives a majority.

Dangerous to Harmony.

Not a few of the party workers are saying that it would be dangerous to party harmony if the delegates ignored a plurality vote when they go to the national convention.

The old organization crowd did not count on the development of a demand that the Indiana delegates support in the national convention the candidate that receives the highest vote in the Indiana primary.

It figured that if a majority for any candidate could be prevented, then there would be no obligation on the part of the Indiana delegates. Legally speaking, that would be true. The law says if any candidate receives a majority of the presidential preference votes, that is, more than all other candidates combined, then the state convention shall instruct the delegates to the national convention to support the majority candidate as long as his name is before the convention.

Insisted By Many.

The law does not say anything about instructions or no instructions if no candidate receives a majority. While under the law there would be no obligation to support a candidate that received a plurality, it is insisted by many Republicans that there would be a moral obligation, which the party could not afford to ignore, if it desires a united party in the campaign leading to the November election.

So it appears that the scheme of the old organization workers is proving vain, and there are signs in some quarters that support which has been given to some of the candidates for the purpose of splitting up the vote to defeat instructions under the law rather than because of any special enthusiasm for those candidates, may turn to a candidate likely to receive either a majority or a plurality.

Other States' Influence.

It is believed that the vote in Indiana will be influenced by the outcome of the Ohio and New Jersey primary elections, which will be held next Tuesday. In Ohio, Leonard Wood is competing with Warren G. Harding, and in New Jersey, Wood and Hiram Johnson are competing. It has become evident that the leading contenders in the primary states are Wood and Johnson.

Lowden, of Illinois, has not carried any primary state except Illinois, of which he is Governor, and there he got only 52 per cent. of the votes, Wood receiving heavy support. Harding has not yet had a primary test of strength. The first will

PLEADS OTHER CAUSES THAN COSTS OF LIVING

WARREN S. STONE ASKS PAY INCREASE FOR ENGINEERS.

LABOR BOARD IN SESSION

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The high cost of living should not form the only basis for increasing the wages of railroad workers, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers told the railroad labor board today in presenting the wage demands of the engineers. A living wage, he said, should be measured by the American standard of living.

Declaring that it was generally known "what a muddle" the government had made in trying to reduce living costs, Mr. Stone said that had President Wilson's health continued good living conditions would be different.

Lien on Road's Earnings.

The board was told that the wages of railroad employes constituted a lien on the earnings of the roads and that the workers were entitled to sufficient pay to enable them to live decently and to save enough for their old age. Mr. Stone asked that the engineers receive relief corresponding to the general increases demanded by the other crafts.

Citing the prices of overalls as one of an engineers' increased expenses, Mr. Stone said that a suit which formerly cost from $1.50 to $2.00 now sold for from $7 to $9.

Final Setback Received.

Final setback to the efforts of the unauthorized strikers to get their cases before the board was received at the White House when Secretary Tumulty told representatives of the Yardmen's Association that President Wilson would not intercede in their behalf as long as they remained away from work.

MOTHER AND BABY BURN TO DEATH AT FRANKFORT

THREE-YEAR-OLD SON ALSO IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

EXPLOSION STARTS FIRE

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

FRANKFORT, Ind., April 23.—Mrs. Melvin Rupe and Mary Rupe, her three-months-old baby, were burned to death, and Everett Rupe, age three, her son, is perhaps fatally injured as a result of an explosion of gasoline, which set fire to their home here at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Neighbors heard an explosion and called the fire department. After the fire had been extinguished, firemen put on gas masks, entered the house and found Mrs. Rupe's body and the two babies critically burned. The children were rushed to the hospital, where the baby girl died within a few minutes.

Melvin Rupe, the husband and father, is employed at the Clover Leaf railroad shops here. He has another daughter, Goldie, age eleven, who arrived home from school a short time after the fire.

A kerosene can partly filled with gasoline was found in the house, Mr. Rupe said. The house was badly damaged, but a roll of bills, which Mrs. Rupe had in her clothes, was not destroyed.

Bed Clothing in Cab Catches Fire During Absence of Mother.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

RICHMOND, Ind., April 23.—Josephine Simons, age eight months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simons, died last night of burns received earlier in the day when the cab in which she was sleeping caught fire. The mother had gone to a grocery nearby and left her son William, age four, with the sleeping infant. It is thought that the older child, while playing with matches accidentally set fire to the bed clothing in the cab.

SAYS TURKISH ISSUES NEED AMERICAN ADVICE

LLOYD GEORGE TALKS TO SAN REMO CORRESPONDENTS.

HOPES U. S. WILL COME IN

SAN REMO, April 23 (by the Associated Press).—Premier Lloyd George, of Great Britain, in an informal talk today with the American newspaper correspondents, said there was a real need of the participation of the United States in the discussions of the Turkish problems. If the United States did participate her views would be likely to prevail, he declared. During the course of the conversation which lasted an hour, Mr. Lloyd George replied freely to numerous questions put to him by the correspondents.

Impotence of Government.

"The impression I formed from the reports of British officials within Germany," the premier said, "substantially is the impotence of the government. The limbs do not obey the central authority. The situation in Germany, as seen from within, resembles that of a paralytic recovering from a stroke.

"The brain gives an order and there is either no response, or only a partial one, by the extremities. Commands are given in Berlin that are often not executed."

At another moment, responding to a question, Mr. Lloyd George said: "The British government has never proposed as a means of compelling Germany to fulfill the terms of the treaty that she should starve. Her food situation now is deplorable. Reports from our officers in the occupied area indicate that although 3,200 food calories are necessary to maintain a person in health and strength, the population there receives only about 1,300 calories in the official rations.

Sorry for American Absence.

The conversation then turned from Germany to Turkey and the United States. Mr. Lloyd George said:

"We are very sorry—sincerely sorry—that the United States gov-

Oh, Gosch!!

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

COLUMBUS, Ind., April 23.—At the closing exercises of the Gosch school, in Nineveh township, yesterday, a dinner was served which included the following:

Potatoes, mashed, fried and in salads; half a dozen kinds of pie; angel food cake, devil food cake, burned sugar cake, black, brown, pink and yellow cakes, chicken with dumplings, fruits and salad.

In addition, there was an enormous white angel food cake, with the name of the teacher, Ralph R. Roth, in pink icing, a gift from the patrons. More than 200 were present at the dinner.

U. S. AGENTS IN MEXICO APPEAL FOR WARSHIPS

URGE PROTECTION OF AMERICANS AND PROPERTY.

INVESTIGATION UNDER WAY

WASHINGTON, April 23.—American government representatives in Mexico have asked for the dispatch of warships to that country to protect American citizens and their property.

The requests came from Mazatlan and Topolobampo on the Pacific coast and Frontera on the gulf coast. Officials of the state, war and navy departments are investigating the request, explaining that in times of disturbances in the southern republic it is not unusual to receive requests for warships when there is no need for them.

Details Not Given Out.

Details as to the requests of the American agents were not made public. Advices today said that 350 Mexican federal troops with two cannon had arrived at Mazatlan, but there have been no reports of disturbances there or at the other two ports.

Other reports received today, however, indicated a growing ferment which was described as rapidly approaching an acute stage and it was said that it was clear that communication with various points in Mexico was being interfered with.

The censorship on newspapers in Mexico City is becoming more apparent and it was said that the papers yesterday contained no mention of any development in the situation.

SENIORITY QUESTION OVERSHADOWS WAGES

SWITCHMEN DISCUSS PLAN TO RETURN TO WORK.

AWAIT WORD FROM GRUNAU

Wage demands of the Indianapolis Yardmen's Association, the organization which has been conducting an outlaw strike of railroad switchmen in this city since April 9, were of secondary importance with the rank and file of the membership today. Discussion in the Labor Temple, where the association meetings were held, dealt almost wholly with whether seniority rights of the employes could be restored in case the men returned to their work.

Frank J. Peters, president, said the action of the Indianapolis men would depend almost entirely on the result of meetings in Chicago of the association with John Grunau, who is at the head of the unauthorized strike movement. In case he advised a return to work, a vote would be taken here, it was said. Peters had arranged to get word from the Chicago meeting and the local association members awaited information from there.

The wage demands of $1 an hour for engine foremen and 95 cents an hour for helpers would be abandoned in case the men were ordered to return, it was said by many members. However, the men apparently were decisive in their determination to maintain their association and eager

BRYAN'S VICTORY TAKEN AS 'WET' PLANK DEFEAT

REGARDED AS CERTAIN TO END DEMOCRATIC ISSUE.

LEADERS AGREE ON RESULT

The Indianapolis News Bureau, 33 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Defeat of all efforts to inject a "wet" plant into the Democratic platform at San Francisco this year is believed here to be strongly forecast by the result of the Nebraska Democratic primaries in which William Jennings Bryan, was successful in his fight for a place as delegate to the national convention on a "dry" platform.

The Nebraska primary had been taken by the Democratic leaders as a test of the continued popularity of prohibition. The leaders had agreed that there was a strong demand for a "wet" platform in some of the states of the east, notably New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, but they were doubtful as to whether there had been any marked shift of opinion on prohibition in the west and middle west. The states composing what is expected to prove the battle ground in this year's national campaign.

Only State With "Wet" Issue.

Since Nebraska was the only state in which the prohibition issue had been a definite factor, the Democratic leaders now concede that the result is such as to convince them that prohibition is as strong as ever in the states which brought about national prohibition.

It is admitted that the candidacy of Hiram Johnson in Nebraska for the Republican presidential nomination was a fortunate thing, for Bryan probably it was responsible for Bryan's success in his effort to be chosen as a delegate to the national convention. But, regardless of how Bryan's victory was brought about, its psychological effect on the "wet" and "dry" situation can not be overlooked, and besides all this, Bryan as a delegate to the national convention will wield great power.

Campaign Aided Bryan.

The campaign made by Hiram Johnson in Nebraska was the best thing that happened to Bryan in his contest. Under ordinary circumstances the Geraman vote because of its attitude on the liquor question could have been counted on to support the Hitchock forces in the fight on Bryan. But the desire of the German element to bring about a plurality vote for ohnson caused the German vote to go to the Republican party in order to aid Johnson. Thus the Hitchcock forces lost a great power in the primary. The German element evidently had a greater desire to swat the league of nations by voting for Johnson than it did to cast its influence on the "wet" side by voting against Bryan in the Democratic primaries. Many German precincts were carried unanimously by Johnson.

So although the forces led by Senator Hitchcock and by Arthur Mullen, national committeeman, have had Nebraska "sewed" up for several years and have had the Democratic organization under their control, Bryan will go to the Democratic conventon, where he will have a chance to exercise his power for the "drys."

Asks Vacationists to Put in Time Aiding Farm Work

WASHINGTON, April 23.—A shortage of farm labor which will be as acute as that of 1918 threatens to curtail food production on American farms, Secretary of Agriculture Meredith said today in an appeal to business men and college students to spend their vacations working on farms, particularly as helpers in harvest fields.

The supply of farm labor is only 72 per cent. normal, carefully compiled reports to the department indicate, compared with 84 per cent. last year. The fact that the present situation exists despite an increase of 15 to 25 per cent. in wages paid farm hands is regarded as highly important by Secretary Meredith. As a result more acreage will be put into grasses and other crops requiring a minimum of labor.

DIRECTORY ESTIMATE FOR CITY IS 315,680

INCREASE GIVEN AT 67,035

The population of Indianapolis on January 1, 1920, was 315,680, according to an estimate made by R. L. Polk & Co., publishers of city directories, announced today by Charles S. Murphy, Indianapolis manager for the company. The government census figure on Indianapolis population for 1920 will be announced at Washington tonight, and Mr. Murphy and other local persons who have watched closely the city's growth in the last few years, believe the government figures will be from 5,000 and 10,000 short of the Polk estimate.

The Polk estimate indicates an increase in the population in the last ten years of 67,035 persons. The estimated growth for the last year is 7,125 persons, or a comparatively normal yearly increase for the ten-year period. The Polk estimate is based on a total of 126,272 names which will be included in the 1920 directory.

System Nearly Accurate.

The name of every person twenty years old or older is taken for the Polk directory, and the number of names obtained is multiplied by two and one-half.

This is the method followed by the company. It is pointed out that it is impossible to obtain all names of those over twenty years, and the using of 2½ as a multiple has been shown by years of experience to be nearly accurate.

The 1920 Polk directory is about three-fourths run off the press. It will be ready for distribution about May 1, Mr. Murphy announced. He pointed out that announcement of the population estimate does not mean that local patrons may obtain copies of the book.

Polk Figures in 1910.

In 1910 the Polk Company estimated the city's population at 248,645, when 99,458 names were included in the directory. In the same year the official government figure was 233,650. The difference between the government and Polk figures in 1910 was considerably less. The city's growth in the decade has been at the rate of about 7,800 a year, according to the Polk figures. The population by years since 1910 was estimated by the Polk Company as follows: 1911, 255,430; 1912, 260,715; 1913, 266,935; 1914, 275,255; 1915, 282,877; 1916, 291,940; 1917, 300,317; 1918, 30,980; 1919, 308,555.

More Night Calls Necessary.

The Polk solicitors in Indianapolis, Mr. Murphy said, have never found as much difficulty in finding persons at home as in the last canvass. Since in many instances entire families work in factories or offices, many more night calls have been necessary than formerly. More women are working now than before, Mr. Murphy said.

One cause for the difference between government and directory figures, Mr. Murphy pointed out, is that government census takers never work beyond the city limits, while the solicitors take in such adjacent territories as Broad Ripple and vicinities just beyond the city line where there are a number of homes.

The city's estimated growth has been fast, Mr. Murphy said, but should be faster in the next decade. He predicted that by 1930 the population would exceed 400,000.

Directory Features.

The 1920 directory will contain all the features in the directory of last year. The company is able in the local directory to give a separate list of houses by street numbers with the names of tenants. With this feature, one may find names in three ways—either through the alphabetical column of names, the business directory, or the classification of houses by street numbers.

A copy of this direcfory will be sent to all directory libraries in the country. Mr. Murphy has had some delay in issuing the 1920 book because of the shortage of print paper. Thursday, he was assured of a sufficient supply to complete publication.

Many local persons have made guesses in the last few days on the official government figure. John E. Spiegel, census director for Indianapolis, said that a guess of 310,000 is the nearest yet made.

WOULD INCREASE PENSIONS

House Bill Passed by Senate and Goes to Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The house bill increasing pensions of civil war veterans to $50 monthly and those of the widows of veterans to $30 monthly was passed today by the senate and now goes to conference. The increases were provided to meet the rising costs of living.

Senate amendments make the increases applicable to veterans of the Mexican war, who number 215, and widows of veterans, who number 1,576, and also to the widows of veterans of the war of 1812, of whom seventy-three are living. The present average pension of veterans is $37.50.

The measure will add about $65,250,000 to the present pension roll of $214,000,000. Congressional leaders said this was the last general legislation planned in behalf of the veterans of the civil and Mexican wars. Last June there are 271,520 civil war veterans and 336,375 widows and dependents on the pension rolls.

Besides the general pension of $50 monthly the bill provides pensions up to $90 monthly for disabled veterans.

FIVE-YEAR BANISHMENT IS GIVEN CAILLAUX

FRENCH SENATE DECREES THREE YEARS IN PRISON.

ONLY ONE MONTH TO SERVE

PARIS, April 23.—The sentence decided on by the high court for former Premier Caillaux, it was learned this afternoon, besides three years' imprisonment and payment of the costs of the trial includes banishment for five years and loss of civic rights for ten years. The former premier was convicted by the senate yesterday of commerce and correspondence with the enemy.

Sentence of three years' imprisonment also was imposed today on the former premier by the high court. The time during which he was under arrest will be deducted, however, leaving him only one month to serve.

The sentence also included payment of the cost of the trial.

Hears Verdict in Prison.

When the high court convened, the verdict was read to M. Caillaux, informing him that he was guilty of violating Article 78 of the military code. He was asked whether he had anything to say. Caillaux replied: "No. I have nothing to say."

Maitre Demange then said for the defense:

"Caillaux has been found guilty of the crime with which he was not accused and against which he was not defended. I let you take the re-

ROADS TURN DOWN STRIKERS' APPEAL

"PUBLIC INTEREST," PLEA

Men Ask Old Places Without Discrimination and With Seniority Rights Included.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Railroad managers today flatly rejected a direct appeal of strikers in the New York district that they be restored to duty with full seniority rights and the strike be settled "in the public interest."

J. J. Mantell, spokesman for the General Managers' Association, said no reply would be made to McHugh's communication and that the men by this time should know the attitude of the railroads.

"We have made it clear to them there is only one course the strikers can pursue and that is register as new men," he said.

Mr. Mantell let it be known in regard to committees appointed by the strikers to appeal to mayors of cities to intercede in their behalf that "intercession by all the mayors of cities in the east could not alter the railroads' position."

He declared that the railroads intend to end forever outlaw strikes.

Position of Railroads.

The announcement that the railroads had taken the position that the strikers had forfeited seniority rights by failure to return to work before expiration of the roads' ultimatum was made after a meeting of the General Managers Association, which was attended by the presidents of a number of the railroads.

Edward McHugh, chairman of the executive committee of the strikers, sent a letter to J. J. Mantell, chairman of the General Managers' Association, declaring the "public demands the immediate resumption of railway traffic and we submit for your approval the following:

"Our immediate restoration of duty without discrimination and with full seniority rights, in order to relieve the wheels of industry."

Reply to Ultimatum.

The letter recalled the strikers' request for extension of the managers' ultimatum, which reserved the right to reject applicants for re-employment who had proved "unfitness for service," and added:

"We made this request with the fact in view that the public which has been innocently dragged into this controversy, should have due consideration.

"Now this body feels that it has tried to do its part toward bringing this controversy to an early settlement and feels it is the duty of the general managers of the various properties or the managers' association to recede in their attitude and take into consideration the inconveniences of the public and the probability of a food shortage."

"Outlaws'" Places Filled.

While 1,000 strikers were meeting in Jersey City, railroad officials announced that places of the "outlaws" were being filled by return of old employes and by employment of new men.

CHICAGO STRIKERS MEET.

Leader Admits Failure in Calling for Mass Meeting of Men.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Striking railroad workers of the Chicago district met today at the call of insurgent switchmen's and enginemen's union officials in an attempt to settle the unauthorized walkout, an admitted failure. John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, the first organization to go on strike in what later became a nation-wide movement, said he would advise the men to return to work.

"We could fight the railroad brotherhoods and the railroad officials," Grunau said, "but we can not fight the government.

"So far as our immediate demands for wage increases are concerned, the strike has been a failure."

He said, however, that the fight for permanent maintenance of the insurgent unions would be carried on.

Meanwhile in the Chicago district,

SUPREME COURT

Abstracts of Opinions Announced April 22, 1920.

CRIMINAL LAW—INSTRUCTION.

23861. George Kocher vs. State of Indiana. Grant C. C. Affirmed. Myers, J. (1) Appellant was convicted under the 1917 prohibition law. It was not error for the court to make a written modification of appellant's requested instruction, not stating the law erroneously as modified, as there is no prohibition against written modifications of requested instructions in criminal cases. It was not error to change the requested instruction "it is not unlawful for a person to have in his possession intoxicating liquors" etc., by the insertion of the word "necessarily" making it read "it is not necessarily unlawful" etc. (2) Where appellant contended that the court in reading his requested instruction orally inserted a word not contained in the written instruction, but such matter was only presented by affidavits made in support of his motion for a new trial, there was no such showing as required this court to review the question. (3) a showing by bill of exceptions that the appellant asked a juror a question on the voir dire, which was objected to by the state and objection sustained, without showing that the appellant exhausted his peremptory challenges nor showing what if any other questions were asked and answered, does not show prejudicial error. (4) The objected testimony about Love, though not to be commended, does not show prejudical error.

SURETIES ON NOTES—RELEASE OF PART.

23603. First National Bank vs. Frank Mayr, Jr., et al. St. Joseph C. C. Reversed. Myers, J.

The appellee and ten others signed an agreement that they would stand as surety to a named company with the appellant bank to the amount of $15,000. Pursuant to such agreement the appellant loaned the company $12,460 and the company became insolvent. Afterward one of the signers paid the appellant $10,000 and the appellant executed an agreement to hold him and two of the other signers freed from further obligation. Afterward the appellant sued appellee for the remaining debt. A demurrer was sustained to the complaint. The court holds that the obligation by its terms made the signers severally liable for the debt of the company, and that the agreement executed by appellant to the one paying the $10,000 would only operate to prevent a recovery of any contribution which another signer sued might have a right to enforce, and as the $10,000 paid was far more than the proportionate share of the three released from obligation, that it could not harm the appellee. The question is discussed at length.

Appellate Court.

JUSTICES OF PEACE—INSANITY INQUEST FEES.

10316. Charles H. Mueller vs. Board of Commissioners. Marion S. C. Reversed. Nichols, C. J.

(1) The appellant is a justice of the peace in Center township, which is the center of the city of Indianapolis. The statute provides that justices in that township shall receive $2,000 a year and shall not receive the fees prescribed in that statute. The appellant brought this action to recover insanity inquest fees as prescribed. The statute regulating most of the fees and prescribing that the justices of Center township shall be paid $2,000 a year was amended to its present form in 1913, and has no reference to insanity inquests or fees therefor. The act of 1853 as amended in 1901 provides for the fees in insanity inquests and gives $1 for the filing of the papers with the clerk. The court holds that unless this act is held to be still in force as against the provisions of the amended act of 1913, it would cut all of the justices of other townships of the state out of any pay for doing a laborous act, and for that reason will be held to be in addition to the provisions of the amended 1913 act. (2) The fact that the complaint did not allege that the appellant had presented his claim to the board and it had been disallowed did not make complaint insufficient.

PLEADING—COMMON COUNTS—EVIDENCE.

10345. James S. Randolph vs. Bernard King et al. Clinton C. C. Affirmed. Nichols, J.

This is an action by appellees for goods sold and delivered. The appellant answered and set up a counter-claim for damages for failure to fulfill contract. Finding for appellees and against appellant's cross-complaint. The fact that the goods sold by appellees were upon written orders did not prevent the appellees from bringing action on a common count, while if there should be held to be a variance, under the statute there could be no reversal, as the appellant could not have been misled thereby.

MORTGAGES—ASSIGNMENT AND RECORD.

10309. Abner Goldenson vs. Emma Leiberman. Starke C. C. Affirmed. Nichols, C. J.

The owner of lands mortgaged them to N., who thereafter assigned the notes and mortgages to B., who afterward assigned them to appellant, but the assignments were not recorded until March 29, 1916. The owner of the lands then conveyed them to G., who afterward, without notice or knowledge, executed new notes and mortgages to A. and to N., and N. at that time, July 21, 1915, released of record the mortgage. The appellant brought this suit to foreclose the mortgage. The court holds that the assignments, not having been recorded, the release by N. operated to release the mortgage. The trial court found for appellant only against a guarantor of the notes and mortgage at the time N. assigned them, and holds that the evidence, not being in the record, there is no showing that the court erred in failing to give judgment for attorney fees against him.

PLEADING AND PROOF—VARIANCE.

10341. Moses Sapirie vs. Henry Wells. Marion S. C. Affirmed. Nichols, C. J.

Suit on a promissory note; the exhibit to the complaint showed it as signed by "Henry Wells." The evidence tends to show that the note was signed on the top line by "N. Wells" and on the second line by "Henry Wells," and the appellee says that the trial court informed the appellant that he did not consider the note followed the complaint. The appellate court holds that there is such variance that it will not reverse the trial court, at least not upon the showing made.

WATERS AND WATERCOURSES—BURDEN OF PROOF.

10353. John Ransey et al. vs. Walter Ketcham. Monroe C. C. Affirmed. McMahan, J. Batman, J., not participating.

This is an action by appellant for damages and to enjoin the appellee from maintaining a dam across an alleged watercourse. The findings of facts do not show the existence of any watercourse, but show the construction of a culvert by the railroad to let water flow through where there had never been a defined watercourse. The matter of what constitutes a watercourse is discussed, and it is held that the trial court's findings, in which waters are referred to as "surface waters," may be considered as findings of facts, but if they are conclusions of law it does not help appellant as the burden was on him to prove a watercourse, and eliminating the alleged conclusions in the findings of facts, the conclusions of the court against him would be correct.

PLANS NATIONAL WAR ON CLOTHING PRICES

NEW YORK CLUB TO START WITH OVERALL PARADE.

DEALERS ANNOUNCE CUTS

NEW YORK, April 23.—A nation-wide, continuous drive against profiteering in wearing apparel will be started by the Cheese Club at the conclusion of Saturday's overall parade in Broadway, it was announced today. The marchers will hold a mass meeting, probably in Central park, and form a permanent organization with which overall clubs throughout the country will be invited to affiliate.

"We are not going to let this thing die with the parade," said Walter J. Kingsley, chairman of the parade committee. "We are going to show those who snear at us that the demonstration is neither a fad nor a joke."

"Applications for places in the line of march are pouring in from so many organizations that it is probable the number of marchers will reach 20,000, officials of the club said.

Patches Also Welcomed.

Nearly one-fourth of the applications have come from women. Persons who wear old clothes with patches will be welcomed, as well as overalled marchers. Nationally famous actors and actresses will be among those in the procession. Al Jolson and Ed Wynn will act as drum majors for two of the overall bands.

Coincident with the spread of the overall movement, retail merchants throughout the city have begun to display cheaper grades of suits in their show windows. Some firms have advertised sharp, price reductions in the newspapers, under the caption "Why Wear Overalls?"

The Waldorf Astoria hotel announced that an overall wedding would be solemnized there Saturday.

Store Cuts Prices.

One of New York's large ready-to-wear clothing houses, in advertising reductions to $37.50 in the prices of suits and overcoats ranging as high as $55 and reductions to $57.50 on those priced as high as $75, announced the drop as "a deliberate cutting of our own profit for the purpose of helping the movement to force down the high cost of clothing."

1920 Population Figures

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Population figures announced today by the census bureau included:

Springfield, O., 60,840; increase, 13,919, or 29.7 per cent.

Webster City, Ia., 5,657; increase, 449, or 8.6 per cent.

Clinton, Mass., 12,964; decrease 111, or 0.8 per cent.

Westfield, Mass., 18,603; increase 2,559, or 15.9 per cent.

Homestead, Pa., 20,452; increase 1,739, or 9.3 per cent.

LEGION PREPARES TO FIGHT FOR ITS DEMANDS

OPPOSES ELIMINATION OF LAND GRANTS, HOME AID, ETC.

STATEMENT BY D'OLIER

The American Legion will present "the strongest possible opposition" to any plan by the Congress to eliminate the land settlement, home aid and vocational training options from the Legion's compensation plan, says a statement by Franklin D'Olier, national commander.

Mr. D'Olier's statement follows:

"It has been reported that congress might possibly disregard the recommendation of the Legion covering land settlement, home aid and vocational training and confine itself exclusively to the adjustment of compensation based on length of service, or the so-called cash bonus.

"Such a suggestion without question would meet with the strongest possible opposition from the American Legion. The American Legion has given the subject its most careful consideration and advanced the four-fold plan only when it was apparent that plan best meets the desires and requirements of ex-service men and women throughout the country.

"Consider what it means to the country to have from a quarter to a half a million ex-service men going to the farms, not as hired hands, but as owners of farms, increasing the output of farm products in these times when there is such a cry for augmented production of food.

"Consider from 500,000 to 1,000,000 ex-service men assisted in purchasing homes in these times of home shortage and rent profiteers.

"Think of 500,000 to a full 1,000,000 young men, by vocational education, increasing their skill and powers of production when such production is necessary to bring down the cost of living.

"The economic value of these three propositions means so much to the future of the country that in urging them from congress the ex-service man is showing exactly the same concern for his country's future as when he offered his life in the army or navy, and again, as a civilian, took his unhesitant stand against the seditious elements who would overturn our government by force."

FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS.

National Association, Meeting at St. Louis, Discusses Efforts.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Plenty of fresh air, wholesome food and outdoor exercise were prescribed as the best preventive of tuberculosis by speakers at the convention of the National Tuberculosis Association, in session here yesterday. Speakers suggested that the medical profession direct its efforts to detection of incipient cases of the disease as a means of checking its spread.

Dr. Donald B. Armstrong, of Framingham, Mass., estimated that there were more than 1,000,000 cases of the disease in the United States.

The year 1919 was a record in point of health in the United States, Mrs. Jessamine Whitney, of New York, research secretary of the association, reported. The death rate from tuberculosis last year was less than fourteen out of every 1,000 persons, she said.

At a sectional meeting, Dr. Lawrason Brown, of Saranac Lake, N. Y., was re-elected president of the American Sanitarium Association, and Dr. E. S. McSweeney, of New York, secretary and treasurer.

MERGER EXPECTED SOON.

Believe To Be Cause of Maxwell Plant Shutdown at Newcastle.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

NEWCASTLE, Ind., April 23.—Despite a notice posted at the Maxwell Automobile Company factory here to the effect that the shutdown of the factory which employes 3,000 persons, is due entirely to the railroad strike, which disarranged transportation and material supplies, some local observers believe that a final consolidation of the Maxwell and Chalmers motor interests scheduled for May 1, may be the real cause of the closing.

The Automotive Industries, a trade paper, last week published an article from New York, in which it was declared the final merger is to be expected by May 1 and that W. Ledyard Mitchell, president of the Maxwell company, had issued an optimistic financial statement. It is known here that the high officers of the corporation have recently been in conference in Detroit.

Newcastle citizens believe that the slowing up of operations was brought about so the business could be adjusted for the final merger of the two interests. The Maxwell interests have been operating the Chalmers plant under a lease and last October committees were appointed from both concerns to work out details of a merger.

Men's Spring and Summer
SUITS $35 All-Wool Materials High-Grade Tailoring

Is my price for a made-to-measure Suit that is equal in material, fit and tailoring to suits selling generally at $50.00.

On Suits ranging from $40 to $70 your savings will range from $20 to $25.

NO MIDDLEMEN

That is the real reason why I can sell you a better suit for less money.

The majority of so-called "tailors" are merely order takers. They take your order and have a big tailor shop like mine to make your suit. You pay the order taker's rent, his bad debts, his clerk hire, his profit and the profit of the shop that fills his order. Is it any wonder clothes prices are high? If you don't favor the overall idea simply apply a little logic to the problem and do your part toward cutting out frills, false motions and extravagance. By doing so you can save from 15 to 40 per cent. on every suit you buy. I make nothing but all-wool suits. I use pure Belgian linen to build up the coat fronts; the buttonholes (with exception of trousers) are hand-made with pure silk thread.

HERE'S MY PLAN

I have no salesmen—you wait on yourself. The materials are on racks with plain figure price tickets attached. One of the fitters will take your measure and book your order.

No Rent to Pay—My display room is at one end of my shop. The rent of this portion is so trivial that I do not charge it on my books.

I Have No Bad Debts—I do business on a cash basis. A deposit with every order, the balance when the suit is to your satisfaction. Your deposit returned if suit is not to your satisfaction.

No Fancy Fixtures—I couldn't get more than $100 for all the fixtures I have in my display room. If I had several thousand dollars so invested I would have to charge more for clothes.

Small Profit—My net profit on a suit of clothes will not average more than $2.85. Surely that puts me out of the profiteering class.

Result—I can and will save you from $15 to $25 on a suit of clothes.

Notice to Gas Consumers
MINIMUM CHARGES

Inasmuch as public interest requires the conservation of gas, and the regulation of the delivery may make it impossible for some small consumers to use their usual quantity during the present emergency, no minimum charge will be applied on meters read after April 13th and until normal service can be restored.

While making this announcement, we desire to inform our consumers that the cost of maintaining meters and equipment for service exceeds 60 cents per meter per month, even without any supply of gas whatever and that the production of gas under present conditions causes an expense greater than the charge which we make for the gas.

ONE of the season's most interesting novelties. Its name, the "Savoy Gore," is derived from that heavy elastic inset at the side. Besides being extremely smart and new, the top hugs the foot closely and gives a trim, well-groomed appearance.

We have them in two styles—one plain of dull mat kid, and the other of fine patent colt with pearl buttons as ornaments.

Come in and be convinced that they are as comfortable as they are stylish.

John Burroughs' Nature Notes

Can You Answer These Questions?

1. Is the cuckoo a night bird?
2. Is stormy weather necessarily forecast by clouds?
3. Are wasps hatched from spiders?

Answers to Previous Questions.

1. What insect might be confused with the humming bird?

It is easy to confound the humming bird with that curious parody on it, the hawk or sphinx moth. The humming bird is eminently a creature of the sun and of the broad open day, and I have never seen it after sundown, while the moth is rarely seen except at twilight. It is much smaller and less brilliant than the humming bird, but its flight and motions are so nearly the same that one might easily mistake one for the other.

2. What are the attractions of a spring?

Indeed, a spring is always an oasis in the desert of the fields. It is a creative and generative center. It attracts all things to itself—the grasses, the mosses, the flowers, the wild plants, the great trees. The walker finds it out, the camping party seeks it, the pioneer builds his hut or his house near it.

3. How early in the morning do birds begin to sing?

The birds begin to sing with the day. The farmer who is in the field at work while he can yet see stars catches their first mating hymns. In the longest June days the robin strikes up about 2:30 o'clock, and is quickly followed by the song sparrow, the oriole, the catbird, the wren, the wood thrush, and all the rest of the tuneful choir.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS WILL ATTEND TRAINING CAMP

210 PUPILS SIGN FOR COURSE AT CAMP CUSTER.

SEVENTY-FOUR LAST YEAR

Two hundred and ten cadets from the three Indianapolis high schools will attend the reserve officers' training camp at Camp Custer, Mich., June 17 to July 28, according to an announcement by Captain Ernest L. McLendon, commanding officer of the Indianapolis training corps. The number at the camp last year was seventy-four.

The war department will have all necessary equipment on hand when the cadets arrive at the camp. None of the cadets will be permitted to take equipment from here but will be supplied at the camp with two pairs of O. D. cotton breeches, two O. D. shirts, one pair of russet marching shoes, one hat, one hat cord, one belt and leggins. All expense of transportation, quarters and rations will be borne by the government. The ration allowance will be the same as for the West Point cadets.

The cadets who have agreed to attend the training camp from each of the high schools are:

Ellis U. Graff, superintendent of schools, and Clarence E. Crippin, president of the board of school commissioners, visited the camp last year and pronounced it satisfactory. The war department is said to have carried out plans during the last year that will provide a complete program of military and athletic training. A regular army band will be stationed at the camp during the training period.

CIRCUS IN TOWN SATURDAY

Trained Pumas, Boxing Kangaroos, Elephants and Big Parade.

The only trained pumas in the world, boxing kangaroos, lions, a whole herd of elephants, tigers and horses are promised to perform for the spectators at the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, which will show in Indianapolis twice Saturday.

The usual street parade is on the program. Starting about 10 a. m., the parade will move from the West Washington street grounds east in Washington street to Senate avenue; north to New York street; east to New Jersey street; south to Washington street, and west to the showgrounds. The afternoon performance will begin at 2 o'clock and the night performance at 8. Tickets may be bought at the Clark & Cade drug store, Illinois and Washington streets, or at the showgrounds. Three hundred performers and 200 acts are on the bill, according to announcement.

CHALLENGES CHAMBERS.

Philip Zoercher Would Debate Tax Law With Newcastle Editor.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

NEWCASTLE, Ind., April 23.—Walter S. Chambers, editor of the Newcastle Times and Democratic chairman of the Sixth Indiana district, has been challenged to a public debate on the merits of the state tax law by Philip Zoercher, member of the state board of tax commissioners. Mr. Chambers has led a fight here against the tax law and was recently taken to task by Mr. Zoercher.

The two men have exchanged several letters on the tax question, and in a final letter Mr. Zoercher says he realizes it is useless for him to enter into a newspaper discussion with Mr. Chambers and asks him to arrange a meeting here, invite the public, and the two divide time in a discussion of the merits of the law.

Thanks for the Compliment

Long ago some wise man said, "Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery." Therefore, we thank the few firms who followed our lead in paying parcel post on tires and accessories. We believe we were the first mail order tire house in the country to make free deliveries. We pay parcel post on tires and all accessories, except liquids, dry cells and exceedingly heavy merchandise, to points within 300 miles of Indianapolis. Send for our catalogue—the largest we have ever issued. It is free for the asking.

N. F. C. Standard Brand Tires Cost Less Here

"N. F. C." is an abbreviated term used by manufacturers, meaning "No further consideration." It is usually used on slightly blemished tires. Tires that are not strictly perfect, yet good enough to retain the maker's name and good enough for a mileage guarantee. Here, for example, we have a lot of tires of one of the most noted brands—identically the same brand and grade that others have advertised at prices averaging 20% higher prices than ours. To justify the increase a "joker" was used by tacking on their own guarantee of an extra one thousand miles to that of the maker's five thousand mile guarantee. For this extra one thousand mile home-made guarantee you are asked to pay on a 32x3½ tire exactly $7.00 more than our regular price. Here then are our prices on—

VICE-PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

Vice-President Marshall may not be a candidate for the presidency — and those who know him will accept without question or reservation what he says on the subject — but a few more such statements as that given out yesterday may make him a candidate in spite of himself. It was the outgiving of a man with a national, as distinguished from the class view. He is, of course, right when he says that, so far from having been freed by the war from "hyphenated Americans," we have today more of them than "ever before in the history of the country," and "they are making their influence felt more and more and the thought and influence of real Americans are being apparently submerged." It is true, too, that class interests and feelings are now dominant. There can be no doubt about that. Men are every day appealing for this or that class vote, and congress apparently can not legislate, or even try to, without considering what will be the effect of its action on this or that class. It is this feeling that is at the bottom of all the trouble about the proposed bonus to soldiers. The question is very largely as to whom it will be least dangerous to offend. "Watching congress at work," says Mr. Marshall, "I sometimes get the notion that we only legislate for the very rich man, or for the comparatively small group of organized workingmen." "The real public," he finds, "the great majority of the people, seemingly have no voice in our legislation."

No one could have read without a great sense of relief and refreshment the following:

> But this condition will not continue. The public will stand just so much and then it will assert itself. There are more than 60,000,000 of us plain, every-day Americans. We are more than all the hypenates and all the profiteers and the union labor men combined. We are the majority, and as the majority the day will come when we will assert ourselves. In 1916 I apologized for having appealed for votes from German-Americans and Irish-Americans and Scandinavian-Americans and promised never to do it again. I am willing to extend that promise. I will never appeal for votes for my party from the New England manufacturer or from the organized labor or from any other class or creed. The only appeal that I will ever make on behalf of my party in the future will be an appeal to voters who are Americans before they are anything else.

That is the truth, very clearly stated, but unlike some truth, it is also popular. For the 60,000,000 "plain, every-day Americans" share fully the feelings of the Vice-President. They have seen with something like alarm the growth of the class spirit, and the development of class government in this supposedly democratic country. Hyphenism is as hateful to them as it was during the war. And they will agree with the Vice-President in thinking that this country must be ruled, not by "German-Americans and Irish-Americans and Scandinavian-Americans," or by New England manufacturers or organized labor, but by those "who are Americans before they are anything else." Mr. Marshall speaks as a true American, and as one who knows what Americanism and democracy mean.

THE JUNKET TO THE ORIENT

With the country demanding the greatest economy in the conduct of governmental affairs, the news that a junket of representatives and senators is being organized for a sixty-day cruise of the orient comes with something of a shock. One hundred and fifty members of the house and twelve senators have signed for the trip and each is expected to take his family. The plan is to go on a government transport, stop at points of interest and return early in the fall. The expense is to be borne by the government. A few southern Democrats, according to a Washington dispatch, are at work on a scheme to attend the Democratic national convention at federal expense, and later join the junketing party.

Advantage is to be taken of war-time legislation permitting members of congress to travel on government transports if they are on official business. Secretary of War Baker appears willing to rule that the congressional party will be on official business because stops will be made to inspect United States possessions. How this law can be stretched to include the families of the congressmen is not clear.

So far there has been no demand for congressional investigation of this country's far eastern possessions. Diplomatic and consular representatives keep their chiefs informed as to what is going on. If there were need for an inspection party it might not be unwise for three or four to make the trip and report their findings; but there is no demand for even a small party. The whole plan seems to have been born of a desire to spend two months cruising about the Pacific, with Uncle Sam paying the bill, and Uncle Sam does not pay any bills unless the people back home furnish the money. The only thing that will stop this treasury raid will be outspoken public opinion that it is ill-timed, ill-advised and little short of criminal when the treasury is so badly in need of funds. Happily for Indiana's reputation, none of the Hoosier delegation in congress has signified any intention of making the trip.

WOOD ON ECONOMISTS

In a recent interview printed in the Yale News, General Wood spoke of "the active interest which Yale men are taking in political affairs as a decided step in the eradication of one of the greatest faults that the country has today * * * the indifference of so many educated men of the right sort as to national affairs." There are these days a good many educated men who are not of "the right sort," and it was of these that Wood must have been thinking when he said:

> While in college a man should lay stress on the study of political science, civics and sociology. The universities should take great care in selecting the men who teach these subjects. Broad-minded and fair men, not quibblers, should be employed. A good man in the chair of political science can do great good, and a quibbler, with his narrow-minded, destructive criticism can do a corresponding amount of harm.

Such men have already done a great deal of harm. There are people who think that there can be no academic freedom unless such men as Nearing are allowed to teach as truth in economics any fallacy which they may hold. "Freedom there must be, of course, but it must never be forgotten that the university owes a duty to its students and to the community. Society does not suffer from any wrong views a man may have in connection with Greek, Latin or mathematics. But if he comes out of college with false and dangerous ideas about society he may do great harm. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance that "the right sort" of men be chosen as instructors in economics. We have found that socialism was strongly rooted in some of our colleges. Not a few of our parlor Socialists and fashionable Bolsheviks got their inspiration either in college or from some college teacher.

General Wood's advice is, therefore, most timely. He struck at what has been, still is perhaps, one of the great weaknesses in our national life. "If," the question was long ago asked, "the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?" There can be no freedom to teach young men and women what is false. General Wood is right when he says that "the universities should take great care in selecting the men who teach these subjects."

THE LEAGUE AND WAR

It may help some people to think of the league of nations apart from the problems growing directly out of the war, which are temporary in character, and belong under the jurisdiction of the supreme council, or what is left of it, rather than under that of the league. Suppose these were all adjusted — would the league then be a good thing? Suppose the league had been launched before the war broke out, would it have been helpful? Its main purpose is very obviously, to prevent war, or to make it difficult, in a world that is at peace. Arthur Sweetzer, writing in the New York Evening Post, reminds us of Lord Grey's declaration that if the league of nations had been in existence in 1914 there would have been no war, and if any man is entitled to speak on the subject it is the man who so ably filled the office of secretary for foreign affairs in Great Britain in the fateful days just before the storm broke. Only the other day a Frenchman said that there would have been no war if Great Britain had at once announced her intention to support France — which was hardly possible, as her government was parliamentary. But it is altogether likely that such an announcement would have given Germany a serious check.

We have, it is feared, forgotten many things, but hardly the terrible shock experienced by Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg when the British ambassador, Sir Edward Goschen, told him that his government would go to war to uphold the treaty guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium, and asked for his passports. The chancellor was "very agitated," and said that "the step taken by his majesty's government was terrible to a degree." He was, reported Sir Edward, "so excited, so evidently overcome by the news of our action, and so little disposed to hear reason that I refrained from adding fuel to the flame by further argument." This was due to the fact that the German government had confidently counted on British neutrality. We may be reasonably sure that a blow that was recognized as so terrible would never have been invited had Germany believed, till too late to change her policy, that it would be struck.

If all this is true, the veto of the United States, Italy, Japan and forty other nations would have been absolutely conclusive against the war. In other words, what was needed in those awful days, for the lack of which the world tragedy could not be prevented, was something very like the league of nations to which this government has so far refused to commit itself. There was no adequate machinery at hand to deal with the emergency and prevent the catastrophe. Mr. Sweetzer quotes from a speech of President Wilson, who then, whatever may be true now, undoubtedly spoke for the American people, in which he said:

> I pray God that if this contest have no other result, it will at least have the result of creating an international tribunal and producing some sort of joint guaranty of peace on the part of the nations of the world.

Those words were spoken fourteen months before we got into the war. In his instructions to the American delegates to the first Hague conference, in 1900, John Hay, American secretary of state, said:

> The duty of sovereign states to promote international justice by all wise and effective means is second only to the fundamental necessity of protecting their own existence. Next in importance to their independence is the great fact of their interdependence. Nothing can secure for human government and for the authority of law which it represents so deep a respect and so firm a loyalty as the spectacle of sovereign and independent states, whose duty it is to prescribe the rules of justice and impose penalties on the lawless, bowing with reverence before the august supremacy of those principles of right which give to the law its eternal foundation.

The American people should try to think themselves back into the days before the war, into the days of the war itself, and try to recover something of the splendid — yet most practical — idealism that then flamed in their breasts.

MICHIGAN AND NEBRASKA

The returns from the Michigan and Nebraska primaries show that Senator Johnson was not the choice of the majority of the people of those two states. In Michigan he fell far short. The Wood, Lowden, Hoover, Pershing, Simpson and Poindexter vote aggregated 251,967, as against 156,939 for Johnson, who was thus in a minority of 95,082. Wood carried fifty-three counties, while Johnson carried twenty-seven, three counties going to Lowden. The supposedly great victory for Johnson has shrunk considerably. Fairness to the people of Michigan demands that this be made clear.

In Nebraska, one-third of the precincts are yet to report, but their vote is not likely to change the result materially. Here, again, though Johnson has a plurality of 14,000 over Wood, he is 7,350 votes short of a majority, the combined Wood and Pershing vote exceeding by that margin the vote for the senator. This is rather remarkable in view of the nature of the campaign, under the inspiration and leadership of Senator Norris, that was made for him. It is known, too, that the Nonpartisan League is strong in Nebraska, and it backed Johnson. Yet it is demonstrated that there is a very robust conservatism in the state — else the senator would have had a heavy majority. Perhaps the fact that Bryan, though elected a delegate to the Democratic national convention, was the lowest man on the ticket, points the same moral.

It is more than likely that the American people generally have come to the conclusion that they have had enough trouble, uncertainty and confusion, and decided that what they need is peace with some measure of stability. They can get such reforms as are needed, and put through the work of reconstruction without in any way unsettling conditions. Indeed, reconstruction must be largely the work of the people themselves, effected through economy, hard work and greatly increased production. It is well therefore that the people should look to themselves rather than to the government.

HIGH COST CAMPAIGN TO END

The department of justice is reported to be preparing to abandon its campaign against the high cost of living, because it has been unable to accomplish much. The newspaper files show that the department of justice made many brave assertions of what it intended to do. Last August Attorney-General Palmer promised vigorous action against profiteers, large and small. In the same month he said that definite progress was being made against the high cost of living. In September he sent word to Indiana that profiteering should be made unpopular, and in October he was warning beet sugar wholesalers that 10 cents a pound was enough to charge. In December, he asserted that food prices might be expected to decline with the advent of the new year. He issued a statement when the five big packing houses were "dissolved" assuring the country that much more had been accomplished for the American people through this compromise than would have been possible in a long-drawn out legal battle. The promises made were full of encouragement but they were not fulfilled. The attorney-general would have made a great record had the handlers of necessaries taken him at his word and reduced their prices. Instead of that many prices were increased. So the time has come, it seems, when promises will be reduced to a minimum. The attorney-general is engaged in seeking the Democratic nomination for President. Meanwhile, it must not be expected that he can give too much attention to cutting the living costs. The whole campaign of the department to reduce food prices is somewhat reminiscent of the king of France who marched up the hill — and then marched down again.

CONTRACTS WITH UNIONS

One of the difficult phases of the union labor movement is the opposition of union leaders to laws specifically requiring voluntary associations to establish legal responsibility and the right to sue and be sued. Four states now have such laws, but in all four they were opposed as working a hardship on the unions. Other states are being urged by the National Association of Manufacturers to enact similar laws, and the union leaders are still active in their opposition. The experience of the Danbury hatters is doubtless bitterly remembered, and there is probably a fear of legal complications in the union opposition.

If a group of men organized into a union of workers desires to negotiate a wage and work schedule to cover a certain period, it finds, as a rule, little opposition. The principle of collective bargaining is recognized and followed quite extensively, not without advantage to both employers and employes. All labor union leaders insist that it is a fundamental right, and vigorously defend it against all comers. These leaders, as the spokesmen for organized unions, make and sign agreements which, if collective bargaining is worth anything at all, should be just as binding as any other contract; yet experience in some cases shows that the contract binds the workers only until it hurts.

A manufacturer who accepts orders and agrees to deliver his product at a stipulated price is obliged to live up to his contract or make good, yet if his wage scale, a governing element in the price of his product, is suddenly increased because his union workers demand more money in defiance of the terms of their wage agreement, he is helpless. Many unions, of course, live up to their contracts, but others do not. It is noteworthy that a few farsighted union leaders believe in binding contracts as a means of strengthening trade unionism, and significant that many states are considering new laws to recognize such contracts.

THE IOWA PRIMARY

The Lowden victory in Iowa is a tribute to the efficiency of the combination that has expressed its determination to "mix things up" to the end that Leonard Wood may be defeated for the presidential nomination. What has happened in Iowa is what those familiar with the maneuvering of the group opposed to Wood had predicted would happen. Lowden was the candidate whose success in Iowa would best serve the ends of the anti-Wood cabal. There is no direct primary in the state and manipulation by the organization was easy.

When the presidential campaign was yet young, the word came from the inspired senatorial sources at Washington that Iowa would be safe for Lowden. That Iowa is now instructed for Lowden shows that the senatorial group that is opposing Wood knew what it was talking about. Sometimes public sentiment interferes with such predictions, but public sentiment is a thing for which the political machinists have little regard. The prophecy was made in the east several weeks ago that at the proper time Pershing would be brought into the campaign in order to prevent Wood getting a plurality in Nebraska. This was another prophecy that came true in detail and the delegates from Nebraska are expected to follow the preference plurality and support Johnson as long as he is a possibility.

Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, one of the senatorial crowd, may be assumed to have considerable political influence in his own state. He is touring the country in the interest of Johnson. He has been speaking in New Jersey for the California senator and is scheduled to speak for him in Indiana. As far as known, Senator Kenyon made no effort to campaign for Johnson in Iowa. If his services as a Johnson speaker are deemed valuable in New Jersey and Indiana, they should be much more so in Iowa. The rather obvious inference is that if Kenyon did not appear actively as a Johnson campaigner in Iowa there was a good political reason therefor.

The plan of the senatorial group from the start—and Senator Kenyon is certainly in a position to know its desires — was to stow Iowa safely away for Lowden. In other states where the sentiment for Leonard Wood is strong, the group resorted to various means to hold down the vote of Wood and one of these methods was to promote the candidacy of Johnson. So Senator Kenyon spoke for Johnson in "certain places," but not in Iowa.

The voter who has watched the game may understand that Kenyon by his course is contributing his share to the ingenious methods that have been devised in the fight of the "allies" against Wood. Any candidate will do if he serves the purpose. In New Jersey and Indiana it may be Johnson who aids most in the fight against Wood; in Iowa, Lowden. The idea is to "mix things up." That may cause some apparent inconsistencies, but what is inconsistency when politicians are scheming to perpetuate their power?

The negro who confessed the murder of Martha Huff was arrested by three colored members of the police department. Thus the colored people, through their representatives, apprehended and turned over to the proper authority, the man who was guilty of a horrible crime. This fact should be remembered in any discussion of the tragedy. The colored people of Indianapolis are peaceable and law abiding. Occasionally one of their race does something that shocks the community. Occasionally a white man does something equally shocking. The thing to bear in mind, however, is that whenever a colored person is guilty of wrong-doing the colored people themselves are as anxious to see the guilty one brought to justice as are the whites. The colored people deplore the death of Martha Huff and they are working in harmony with the municipal officials to rid the city of such characters as tend to bring their race into disrepute. The police department deserves great credit for the prompt manner in which is broke up a crowd that congregated at the jail last night. It might have caused trouble if it had had a leader or less effective action had been taken by the authorities.

Nor does it seem to be possible for an occupant of the bleachers to yell "Atta boy!" with the same enthusiasm when he is wearing a heavy overcoat as when he is in his shirt sleeves.

In March, according to the state industrial board, the average weekly wage for all classes of employes in all industries was the highest ever paid in the country; but, as usual, the cost of living was still easily leading in the race and going strong.

It's not only the quality of the weather that frazzles nerves at this season; it's the quantity of it.

As to that Mexican disturbance — may the best man (if any) win!

Maybe there would not be such a rush for presidential nominations if more of the ambitious saw as clearly as Mr. Marshall does what sort of job the presidency is.

Another case where the ultimate consumer pays the tax is that of those wild fluctuations of prices on the Chicago Board of Trade.

And furthermore if they reduce the number of heat units in the gas enough there will be less danger of the cook burning her fingers. All these things have to be taken into consideration, you know.

A Texan has come out for President with the backing of a Democratic offshoot called the American party. Maybe that's a hint to Vic Berger to start a German party.

So that's the way it's done!

Bryan's Victory

[Chicago Tribune]

Reports from Nebraska say that Mr. Bryan, elected against great opposition to the Democratic national convention as delegate-at-large, owes his success to the decision of the German-American voters. They are "wet," but they are anti-treaty.

They wanted to vote against Bryan because he does not like beer, but they had to vote for Johnson because he does not like the treaty. They let the "dry" into the convention by turning from the Democratic contest to vote for Johnson in the Republican.

HIGH WATER RECEDING; RAIL SERVICE RESUMED

DAMAGE NEAR CONNERSVILLE LESS THAN FEARED.

LESSON LEARNED BY CITY

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

CONNERSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Service on the Big Four railroad between this city and Cincinnati, and over the Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction line, between here and Indianapolis, was restored to a normal condition yesterday, after interruption by flood conditions since Tuesday, the result of recent heavy rains. Hundreds of acres of low land near this city were submerged, but the water has subsided with far less loss than was feared.

In the city such damage as resulted from the flooding of basements has been fairly overcome. Some observers say that this city has drawn a useful lesson from the flood; that it must, without loss of time, enlarge the sewers of the rapidly growing north side to prevent a repetition of damage in the city. For miles above the city the valley slopes gently toward it, and continued rains cause a volume of water which the small drains in the north side are not capable of carrying off.

CREST AT TERRE HAUTE.

Wabash River Comes to a Stand at a Stage of 21.4 Feet.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—The Wabash river came to a stand here today at a stage of 21.4 feet. No further rains were reported in the upper part of the Wabash valley.

Both the south and west parts of Taylorville, as a suburb of Terre Haute is known, are under water and half the residents were compelled to abandon their homes. Approximately forty houses in the northwest part of the city, where a levee broke, also have been vacated, but, due to the warnings of the weather bureau, the owners were unable to remove their household effects without loss.

The high water has done much damage to wheat and oats and plowing for corn will be greatly retarded.

INTERURBAN RUNNING.

Traffic Between Wabash and Ft. Wayne Resumed—Following Flood.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WABASH, Ind., April 23.—Service on the Ft. Wayne & Northern Indiana traction line through here was resumed today on regular schedule after all cars had been off for three days because of high waters flooding the tracks. The first car ran from here to Ft. Wayne last night.

While back water from the Wabash is still flooding the lowlands east and west of the city, there is no longer any serious danger, and all families who were forced to leave their homes have returned.

Pike County Lowlands Flooded.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

PETERSBURG, Ind., April 23.—Pike county, which escaped damage during recent rains general throughout the state, is beginning to feel the effects of the rainfall north of Petersburg. White river began rising rapidly yesterday and continues rising one inch an hour. It is flooding bottomlands and all ferries between Pike and Knox counties have suspended operation.

Rivermen predict two feet more rise, which will put the river over hundreds of acres of planted oats and wheat. All plowing in the lower bottoms has stopped. An overflow will delay corn planting in the White river bottomlands for three weeks. The crest of the rise will not pass here until Sunday or Monday, it is believed.

Families Return to Homes.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 23.—Waters in both the Wabash and Eel rivers are rapidly receding, following recent heavy rains, and families who had left their homes as a result of the flood have returned. The first interurban to pass over the entire length of the lines of the Indiana Service Company between here and Ft. Wayne arrived here at 5:45 last night.

DENOUNCES PEACE PACT.

P. H. O'Donnell Speaks for Johnson at Terre Haute Meeting.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Patrick H. O'Donnell, of Chicago, spoke at Knights of Columbus hall last night in the interests of Hiram W. Johnson's candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination. His address was devoted to a discussion of the league of nations, which he denounced in the same manner as Raymond Robins, who spoke here recently in Johnson's interest.

He spoke kindly of the other candidates for the Republican nomination with the exception of Herbert Hoover, whom he derided, saying that he had fifty-eight varieties of politics. The audience applauded the speaker's denunciation of England.

CARRIED WEAPON TO COURT

Terre Haute Man Searched When Called for Trial.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—When Robert (Tuffy) Butler, Timothy (Bull) Conway, Frank Hess and William Payne appeared in the superior court yesterday to answer in contempt proceedings in a civil case, Judge Cox instructed the court bailiff to search them all for concealed weapons. When the bailiff searched Butler he found a revolver in his pocket. Judge Cox sent for Perry Douglass, prosecuting attorney, who prepared an affidavit charging Butler with carrying concealed weapons. Butler was taken to jail.

Sentenced on Bigamy Charge.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Fred Badgett was found guilty in circuit court here late yesterday afternoon on a charge of bigamy and the jury fixed the penalty at six months in jail and fine of $200. Badgett is twenty-seven years old and was married at fifteen to Susie Murphy, who died in May, 1918, and on July 2, 1918, to Jessie Felker Stephens, who had been married before. Meantime, it is charged, during September, 1917, before the first wife died, he married Maggie Estes Gay, but he declared he had no knowledge of the marriage, which must have occurred while he was intoxicated, he said. All the marriages took place in this city. The latest wife has been visiting him daily and attended court but could not raise money for his release or for his defense.

TEN WEEKS STOCKS

[National Garden Bureau]

For a fragrant and showy bed with a variety of color and furnishing fine material for bouquets, there isn't any finer garden annual than the Ten Weeks tock. It has almost every desirable quality that could be mentioned, attractive foliage, freedom of bloom, harmony of color, and it is free from insect pests.

The stock is an old fashioned flower, being known as the gilly-flower. It runs through shades of pink, red, crimson, blue, lavender and yellow as well, with a rosette of foliage above which spike after spike of double spicy odored flowers appear from the time blooming starts until killing frosts. The ten-week name indicates the time it takes the plant to reach blooming size.

It is as easily grown from seed as a radish, belonging to the same family, and there are various types. For general use, the cut-and-come-again class is most satisfactory. The dwarf stocks are valuable for bedding. A more robust type with larger flower spikes, much used for winter forcing and coming into bloom later than the others out of doors, is the Beauty of Nice type.

A bed of ten weeks stocks edged with Little Gem alyssum will be a delight all summer. Now is a good time to start a box of stock seed to have them ready to transplant, or they may be sown in the open.

Cabbage plants should be set out as soon as the ground can be worked. A few frosts won't hurt them.

Said She Was Ready to Die After Air Flight; Is Dead

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LAPORTE, Ind., April 23.—Mrs. Alvira B. Towner, age eighty-eight, of Rolling Prairie, is dead. Only a short time ago Mrs. Towner took a trip in an airplane, and, after she had landed, she laughingly said: "Well, now I'm ready to die."

INDUSTRIAL AND FINANCIAL

GREENSBURG—Harry L. Gaines, of Auburn, N. Y., has bought the interest of Linton W. Sands in the Corbet-Rohe Hardware Company.

LAPORTE—Paul B. Eckhart and William Sandel, of Chicago, have bought the Standard Milling Company, of this city. The price was $80,000.

HUNTINGTON—The building permit was issued Thursday for the erection of the Hotel Lafontaine by J. F. Bippus, owner of the Huntington Light & Fuel Company. Excavation will be started in a short time.

COLUMBIA CITY—The Oriental Show-You Company, of this city, has filed articles of incorporation in Illinois, with a capital stock of $75,000. The business of the company will be transacted in Chicago, but its product will be manufactured in this city.

MUNCIE—W. R. Holden, of Ft. Wayne, head of a company which owns a chain of six stores, has bought at bankruptcy sale the stock of Samuel I. Nichols. The Nichols store, which handled women's ready-to-wear garments and furs, closed its doors recently.

ALEXANDRIA—At the annual election of officers for the Peoples Trust Company, John M. Hughes was elected president; John Heritage, secretary, and Edward Heritage, treasurer. The bank was founded four years ago by Perry Heritage, who died a few months ago.

TERRE HAUTE—The board of directors of the Terre Haute Grocers and Butchers' Association, acting as a committee on arrangements, met at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night to further plans for the convention of the Indiana Retail Grocers' Association, to be held here May 24 to 26. More than 200 delegates will attend the convention.

NOBLESVILLE—The Central Indiana Telephone Association held its annual meeting in the high school building at Arcadia Wednesday afternoon. Most of the companies in the association were represented. The following officers were elected: President, C. M. Martz, of Arcadia; vice-president, L. L. Monticue, of Newcastle; secretary-treasurer, W. M. Dailey, of Richmond.

NEW ALBANY—The New Albany Chamber of Commerce and Young Business Men's Club held a joint banquet at the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium Thursday, with an attendance of more than 250. The speakers were H. R. Kurrie, president of the Monon railroad; C. C. Hiatt and Professor H. L. Richmond, of Louisville, and G. A. Weinmann, secretary of the New Albany Chamber of Commerce. Dr. A. P. Hauss was toastmaster.

WARSAW—The Warsaw Housing Corporation has been organized and will be incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000. Officers were elected Wednesday evening as follows: President, E. A. Gast; vice-president, Dr. A. C. McDonald; secretary, C. O. Dickey, and treasurer, F. E. Bowser. The stock will be divided in shares of $100 each and will be payable at the rate of 1 per cent. a month. The executive committee consists of W. H. Cook, E. W. Conrad and W. S. Rogers, chairman of the building, real estate sales committee. Work on several houses will be started immediately.

EAST CHICAGO—Grading has been started for the first 200 houses to be erected by the Inland Steel Company for its employes, and the tract is expected to be piped and drained by the end of May. The company proposes to rent the first 200 houses, which will all be built on the same plan, but will furnish money to employes so that they may let contracts for houses on plans of their own choice. . . . A large amount of the $50,000,000 to be expended by the Sinclair Oil Company in extensions and development of the company's interests will be spent on the refinery in East Chicago, according to an announcement by Harry F. Sinclair. The money will be raised by an issue of five-year notes bearing 7½ per cent. interest.

JEFFERSONVILLE—A number of foremen, long employed at the local plant of the American Car and Foundry Company, will be placed on a temporary pension list at half pay, it has been announced. The purpose of the company is to retain the right to their services, which will not be required until car building is resumed. At present the plant is making phonograph cases and other articles of wood and the foremen in many shops are not needed. The men may take other employment if they wish, but the pension will be in the nature of a retainer fee to give the right of call on their services so that the organization will not be scattered during the period of temporary slackness in the car building industry.

COLUMBUS—The Hope Feed and Seed Company has received three carloads of army hardtack from the government, to be ground into hog feed. Hog raisers have pronounced the feed excellent. . . . Carlos Folger, teller at the First National Bank here, has resigned, the resignation to become effective May 15, and will operate a bottling works in partnership with Charles J. Kimsey. Frank Metzler will succeed Mr. Folger as teller. . . . The Columbus Hardware and Furniture Company, which a few weeks ago bought the hardware store of J. G. Schwartzkopf & Sons, bought the hardware business of Fred Volland here Thursday. Mr. Volland had had the business fifty-one years, and in point of continuous years was the oldest business man in the city. He will retire from active business.

ANDERSON—The Madison County Bankers' Association was organized by the eighteen banks and trust companies in Madison county for the purpose of obtaining a closer relationship and for co-operation with the Indiana Bankers' Association at a dinner here Thursday. Andrew Smith, of Indianapolis, secretary of the Indiana Bankers' Association, and John A. Rheu, of Marion, vice-president of the association, were guests, and assisted in the county organization. The following officers were elected: George S. Parker, Anderson, president; William F. Morris, Pendleton, first vice-president; D. E. Conrad, Lapel, second vice-president; Edward C. Dehority, Elwood, secretary-treasurer. Harry Adams, Alexandria, and Ward Biddle, Anderson, with the officers, are members of the executive committee. . . . The Madison Trust Realty Company has employed an engineering firm of Dayton, O., to plat a tract of sixty-six acres for new homes in Columbus avenue, south of Twenty-seventh street, here. . . . G. W. Gates has been elected a director and C. T. Sansberry general counsel for the Indiana Silo and Tractor Company, of Anderson. Gates succeeds Austin Retherford, who died recently.

NEWS OF THE COLLEGES

NOTRE DAME, Ind., April 23.—The Rt. Rev. J. LeGrand and the Rev. Father P. Crowley, of the Holy Cross mission in Bengal, India, will arrive in the United States about May 1, and will come to Notre Dame University to attend the general chapter of the congregation of the Holy Cross next summer. The general chapter is held every ten years and is attended by priests and brothers from all parts of the world.

Britigan, of Chicago.

More Garages Than Homes

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Building permits for more garages than homes were issued in Terre Haute in March, twenty-seven being for garages and nineteen for homes.

U. S. Forester Warns Nation Against Timber Depletion

WASHINGTON, April 23.—William B. Greeley, recently appointed chief forester of the United States, in a statement made public today warns the country of the seriousness of its timber situation. He called attention to the heavy increase in pulp wood imported from Canada last year over 1918 and recommended that the system of conservation used in France be adopted in America. Under the French system only small cuttings are permitted in each timber area during any one year, or in a series of years.

"Our national policy," Mr. Greeley said, "should aim definitely and unequivocally at the practice of forestry by private owners as rapidly as that can be brought about."

INDIANA NEWS IN BRIEF

HARTFORD CITY—Practically all local school teachers have signed contracts for next year, following the action of the city school board which increased salaries approximately 50 per cent.

SHELBYVILLE—Residents of Hendricks township, Shelby county, are circulating a petition asking that a high school building be constructed in the center of the township. The cost is estimated at $100,000.

CULVER—Twenty graduates of the Culver High School will receive diplomas at the commencement exercises Saturday evening. Dr. George H. Tapy, professor of education at Wabash College, will make the address.

WABASH—A petition bearing 100 signatures was presented to the county commissioners Friday, requesting the commissioners to ask for a $500,000 appropriation for a community house here as a memorial to soldiers and sailors.

GREENSBURG—Professor Z. M. Smith, of Purdue University, is here to co-operate with J. C. Ireland, county agricultural agent, and County Superintendent of Schools Crawley in starting club work among the boys and girls of the county. Every township has been visited and keen interest has been shown.

NEW ALBANY—James L. Bir, whose automobile struck and fatally injured Mrs. Katherine Sigmon, a business college instructor, was arraigned in the city court Thursday on a charge of involuntary manslaughter, preferred by Wesley McCulloch, chief of police. He entered a plea of not guilty and was released on $1,000 bond.

COLUMBUS — The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Bartholomew county will hold an institute in East Columbus April 26 and 27. Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley, state vice-president of the organization, will preside. . . . Thirty women relatives of members of the Columbus Post, No. 24, American Legion, have signed an application for a charter as an auxiliary organization.

LAPORTE—Work on the new North Side school building, which is to be built at a cost of $78,085, will be started Monday. . . . The missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city has decided to boycott potatoes until the price comes down and quality improves. . . . Diplomas were presented to fourteen students of the New Carlisle High School Thursday night.

TERRE HAUTE—Amos W. Butler, secretary of the board of state charities, attended a conference here Thursday night of county and municipal officials and representatives of charities and welfare associations, at which committees were appointed to arrange for the state convention to be held here in October. Mrs. Albion Fellows Bacon, of Evansville, spoke at the gathering.

ROCHESTER—More than 100 women attended the annual convention of the Women's Federation of Clubs of Fulton county, held here at the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday. Mrs. Winn, of Laporte, chairman of the Thirteenth District Federation of Women's Clubs, made the principal address. Her topic was "Americanization, or What Women Can Do With Organization." Eight clubs are in the Fulton county federation and all were represented at the meeting.

HUNTINGTON—Litigation which has been in the courts more than ten years has been ended by the sale of the 530-acre estate of George W. Brookover to L. D. Adams and Robert Adams, owners of a hoop, stave and heading factory here. The price was $90,000. The tract includes eighty-five acres of large timber. Suits over the Brookover estate have been tried in the Huntington, Adams, Allen, Wabash and Wabash circuit court. The sale was made by H. D. Spencer and Burry Kelly, who were appointed commissioners.

JEFFERSONVILLE—A move to build a new high school and grade school in Lexington township, Scott county, has led to charges being filed against two members of the advisory board, Perry F. Smith, a banker, and John A. Smith, a farmer. The board met April 10 and adopted resolutions showing the necessity of building a school, but favoring delay because of depleted resources of the township and asking the state board of health for permission to wait until 1921. The two members are charged with malfeasance in office by Charles A. Toombs, a taxpayer, on the ground they refused to make up the minutes of the meeting and removed the advisory board record. There is said to have been friction between Storen and the board.

EAST CHICAGO—The Rev. Francis A. Kelly, national chaplain of the American Legion, has been engaged to speak here Sunday evening. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Boy Scouts, Knights of Columbus, American Legion, Daughters of the American Revolution, Chamber of Commerce and the Catholic churches. . . . Motormen and conductors of the East Chicago street car line have voted to demand increases in pay of 35 and 37 cents an hour. The scale now is 65 and 67 cents and the proposed increases would make the scale $1 and $104 an hour. The East Chicago council has refused to raise the fare higher than 5 cents and the company asserts that an increase in wages without an increase in fare is impossible. The present wage agreement ends June 1.

ALLEGED GANG ARRESTED.

Conducted Campaign of Wholesale Robbery, Police Say.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—In the arrest yesterday of four men the South Bend authorities say they have run to earth one of the most daring gangs of automobile accessory thieves operating in the central west. Following the arrest the police recovered $1,500 worth of supplies. The men held are Ignatius W. Weyoglod, of Bertrand, Mich., and Stanislaus Manuczak, Carl Bokao and William Lukaszewicz, all of South Bend.

The gang, the authorities say, has been conducting a systematized campaign of wholesale robbery of freight cars, garages and machines on the streets. More than a dozen automobile wheels with new tires were found at the shop of Henry Page, 123 West Colfax avenue. Page said the tires had been sold to him by the gang. Other supplies had been sold to Fabrio Carlos, of Mishawaka, it is said, and stolen property was recovered at Bertrand.

Four Hurt in Motor Wreck.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

GOSHEN, Ind., April 23.—Mrs. Grace Blodgett, her daughter, Grace Gardner, age sixteen; Allen Davis, age fifteen, and Fred Etline, age sixteen, residents of South Bend, were brought to a Goshen hospital when pulled from under the wreckage of a motor car, in which they were riding, today, from Lake Wawasee to South Bend, when it skidded on the slippery brick pavement of the Hoosier Dixie highway, one mile north of New Paris, upset and turned over. Their injuries are not serious. The automobile, valued at $2,000, is badly damaged.

The Heavens Are Our Riddle

The heavens are our riddle, and the sea.
Forested earth, the grassy, rustling plain.
Snows, rains and thunders. Yea, and even we
Before ourselves stand ominous. In vain!
The stars still march their way, the sea still rolls,
The forests wave, the plain drinks in the sun,
And we stand silent, naked—with tremulous souls—
Before our unsolved selves. We pray to one
Whose hand should help us. But we hear no voice;
Skies clear and darken; the days pale and pass,
Nor any bids us weep or bids rejoice.
Only the wind sobs in the shriveling grass—
Only the wind—and we with upward eyes
Expectant of the silence of the skies.
—Herbert Bates.

In these they sleep, also carrying to them the pine cones. In the hardwood forests of the north, dry leaves take the place of the Spanish moss, and a conspicuous nest is built with an entrance hole at the side.

When a sheep is dressed parts of the intestines are sent to the sausage casing department to be made into casings for different kinds of sausage, but the small intestine, which is about the size of a lead pencil and eight yards long, is sent to the string factory to be manufactured into such products as musical strings, surgical ligatures, tennis racket strings, clock cords, loom gut, belt lacings, belting and the like. The popular conception is that these articles are made from catgut; but let us exonerate our friend with the midnight voice, for no cat, or any part of one, has ever been used in the manufacture of catgut. Once a violin was called a kit, and as the strings were sometimes made from intestines it is likely they were called kitgut, from which we have derived the present name of catgut.—Saturday Evening Post.

O. A. H.—Is there a school in the city where one may learn drafting?—Yes, the public high schools, or you can get in touch with night classes through the Y. M. C. A. or Knights of Columbus.

H. B.—Is a person required to pay taxes on money deposited in the bank or only on the interest derived therefrom?—He is required to pay taxes on all money deposited in a bank, whether it is an original deposit or accumulated interest.

Ira B.—Is it against the law for an attorney for a corporation to own stock in the corporation?—No. (2) Who are the members of the Indiana state board?—There are thirty-two state boards. See the Indiana Yearbook for their composition.

W. G. S.—Does a man who was discharged from the navy on account of a physical disability and is claiming a pension have to pay poll tax?—Yes, the 1919 law reads: "A poll tax shall be assessed upon every male inhabitant of this state between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, and every person shall be listed for his poll tax in the township, town or city of his residence."

T. H. S.—What do the initials "I. H. S." seen on churches and other religious edifices, stand for?—This was originally an abbreviation or symbol representing the name of Jesus in Greek, but is now commonly regarded as standing for the Latin "Iesus, Hominum Salvator," which means "Jesus, Saviour of men." (2) What was the pre-war value of the German mark in United States money?—23.8 cents.

E. I. W.—Which is preferable: "He receives $1 for every day he works" or "he receives $1 for each and every day he works"?—The first, is between the two, but the meaning seems to be "He receives $1 for each day he works and nothing for every other day." (2) Is sausage made of pork only?—Generally, but not always; other kinds of meat and sometimes cereals will be found in what is called sausage.

ALONZO M. RAGSDALE, UNDERTAKER, IS DEAD

ILL SEVERAL MONTHS WITH HEART TROUBLE.

MEMBER OF STATE BOARD

Alonzo M. Ragsdale, sixty-five years old, died at his home, 323 North Delaware street, last night following an illness of several months with heart trouble. He had been in the undertaking business in Indianapolis for nearly twenty-five years. Funeral services probably will be held Monday.

Mr. Ragsdale was born at Trafalgar, Ind., November 26, 1855, and he was in the retail drug business there for many years. Thirty years ago he moved to Franklin, and six years later came to Indianapolis, establishing an undertaking and embalming business. He was a member of the state embalming board, and had served as secretary and treasurer of the North American embalming examination board. Mr. Ragsdale was a member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias lodges and the Central Christian church.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Paul Ragsdale, and four daughters, Mrs. Edna Price, Mrs. Mabel Kaylor and Mrs. Margaret Eggleston, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Jessie Foley, of Alpena, Mich.

MONEY MAY BE DESIGNATED FOR METHODIST HOSPITALS

Superintendent Issues Statement in Connection With Financial Campaign April 25-May 2.

Subscriptions made by members of the Methodist Episcopal church during the financial campaign to be conducted by the interchurch world movement April 25 to May 2, may be designated for use for Methodist hospitals, it was announced today by Dr. C. S. Woods, superintendent of the three Methodist hospitals in Indiana, at Indianapolis, Ft. Wayne and Princeton.

"The hospital board of trustees, after considering the equipment and future needs of the hospitals, has decided to ask all Methodist persons to indicate their contributions if it is their desire to assist these institutions," said Dr. Woods.

"We are engaged in an effort to obtain money for the nurses' home and an additional hospital building in Indianapolis; a new hospital at Gary; to pay indebtedness on the Ft. Wayne and Indianapolis hospitals, and to make improvements at Ft. Wayne and Princeton.

"The new home for nurses will be a five-story fireproof building which will accommodate more than 200 students. It will contain parlors, reception rooms, a library, gymnasium and a dining room.

"The present hospital can not accommodate persons who require hospital care. It must be large enough to care for general, medical, surgical, maternity and contagious disease cases. The new building will give an additional capacity of seventy-five beds."

HEADS WOMEN VOTERS.

Miss Mary Winter President of Indianapolis League.

Miss Mary Winter was elected president of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters Thursday afternoon at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce, and other officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Wilmer Christian and Miss M. E. Hoagland, vice-presidents; Miss Mary Elizabeth Gardner, secretary; Miss Natalie Smith, treasurer, and Mrs. Ira Holmes, assistant treasurer.

Directors-at-large were elected as follows: Miss May Shipp, Mrs. Jacob P. Dunn, Mrs. Olive Beldon Lewis, Mrs. Isaac Born, Miss Eldena Lauter, Miss Julia Landers, Mrs. John Downing Johnson, Mrs. E. J. Hecker, Mrs. Grace Julian Clarke, and Mrs. M. E. Foley.

A director will be elected in each ward. The board will then be composed of twenty-five members. The constitution provides that the board shall hold a monthly meeting, and shall act on the question of regular meetings for the general league.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY FIRST

17.6 Per Cent. of Total Enrollment in the High Schools.

"A standard high school within easy reach of every boy and girl in Indiana ought to be a state-wide slogan," said B. J. Burris, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, today as he reviewed statistics which show that less than 9.5 per cent. of the total number enumerated in the 1919 school census were in high schools.

Montgomery county led the state in this respect, with 17.6 per cent. of the enrollment in high schools. Union, Hendricks, Carroll and Steuben came next. Brown county showed the lowest percentage, 4.2, and is only a little lower than Franklin, Dubois, Allen and Crawford counties. Marion county ranks sixtieth in the state in this respect.

The statistics show that in the industrial centers there are fewer boys and girls in high school in proportion to the number enumerated. This is explained by the fact that they leave schools early to earn money.

The state office has compiled a list showing the standing of each county.

Elsa Hobensack Gets $2,500 From the Big Four Railroad.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LEBANON, Ind., April 23.—Compromise caused the dismissal of the $25,000 damage suit of Elsa Hobensack, of Indianapolis, against the Big Four railroad after the case had been on trial here two days. Under the terms of the agreement Hobensack receives $2,500. The case was brought here from Marion county on a change of venue and was on trial before Judge Parr and a jury in the Boone circuit court.

Hobensack alleged in his complaint that he was struck in the chest by a shaker bar while working as a fireman for the defendant railroad and that he suffered injuries which later resulted in tuberculosis.

Musical Comedy on Shipboard at English's.

A yacht peopled by the ill-assorted members of a wedding party is the decorative setting for "See-Saw," the new Henry W. Savage musical comedy at English's. Through the tidy main cabin wander a pretty girl, uncertain whether she wishes to marry the titled Englishman who toddles after her, and the host of guests, blue-uniformed sailors, and grouchy relatives who make up wedding parties in musical comedy. Papa's grouch is really comprehensible, for he pictures himself showing the boys at the club his new son-in-law, a poor value for half a million. The dukeling has just sense enough to realize that temperamental Cynthia may throw ihm over at the last minute, and he insures his marriage with those sporting insurance men, Lloyds. The bill collectors make off with the policy, and the personable young man sent by Lloyds to see that the wedding bells chime at the proper moment settles himself to a pleasant week of business combined with pleasure. Then he finds that Cynthia, the girl of his dreams, is to be the bride, and he is in the not unheard of dilemma of a suitor who must for reasons of honor, expediency or finance advance the marriage of the girl he loves to another. When his situation becomes involved beyond hope of solution, the author solves it by marrying him to the girl despite all prophecies to the contrary.

Louis A. Hirsch took a vacation from labor in producing the score for "See-Saw." It is all rhythmic, swinging overly emphatic Hirsch music, with little new melody in it. The story is credited to Earl Derr Biggers. Of the players, Dorothea Mackaye and Frank Carter are the straining lovers, Charlie Brown is the exaggerated Britisher, and the remainder of a large cast and chorus play about happily. Performances tonight and Saturday night and a matinee Saturday conclude the engagement.

Peanuts for Elephant.

Two ambitions close to the heart of normal youngsters may be gratified at Keith's Saturday afternoon, when all children in the audience will be invited to step up on the stage and meet the animals in Captain Gruber's miniature circus. Not only that but Roltare Eggleston, manager of the theater, will provide the peanuts, in ample quantity and free of charge, to feed to the elephant. A pony, a horse, a dog and an elephant are in the act and will be available for close inspection by the children, but Manager Eggleston says nothing about uneat for the dog or sugar for the horse and pony. However, there will be plenty of peanuts for the elephant.

It's a Wise Man Who Knows His Own Teeth

This is a conclusion we have reached after years in dentistry. Frequently pus, or "matter," as it is popularly called, is present in the center of a tooth, or at the root itself, causing disease distant from the tooth itself. Such conditions may exist for years unsuspected. This is a condition revealed almost daily by the X-ray examinations conducted in this office. The prices for dental service here are low and the equipment up to date.

PARK SHELTER HOUSE BIDS ARE REJECTED

BOARD RESCINDS ACTION ON GARFIELD PROJECT.

CUSTODIANS ARE APPOINTED

Bids for the erection of a shelter house at Garfield park were rejected, and custodians for city parks for the 1920 season were appointed at a meeting of the board of park commissioners Thursday afternoon. The board rescinded all previous action on the shelter house, and did not make any provision for reopening the project.

Park custodians were appointed as follows: Spades park, Thomas Bray; Camp Sullivan, Thomas Brewer; St. Clair park, William Harding; Highland park, Martin Sharkey; Fall Creek park, Jasper Tingle; Willard park, James McGinness; Rhodius park, Thomas Hannon; McCarty park, William Newkirk; University park, Albert Buis; Ellenberger park, Edward Holt; Morris Square park, Gilbert Thompson; North Side street center, M. S. Randolph; South Side street center, Michael Shaughnessy; Burdsal parkway, James Gibson.

J. Clyde Hoffman, attorney for the board, and Frank C. Lingenfelter, city engineer, who attended the national conference on city planning at Portsmouth this week, reported on the conference. Mr. Hoffman said it will require a year or two years to work out a city planning scheme such as Indianapolis needs. He said he did not believe it would be advisable to take this project before the proposed special session of the legislature.

The board approved the following salary increases: J. Edward Perry, assistant engineer, $2,000 to $2,200; Paul R. Brown, chief draftsman, $1,800 to $2,000; Roy Comstock, rodman, $1,200 to $1,320.

TRIBUTE TO BARNES.

Wheat Director, Guest at Dinner, Praised by Hoover.

NEW YORK, April 23.—More than 2,100 business men from all parts of the country and representatives of foreign governments attended a testimonial dinner here last night in honor of Julius H. Barnes, United States wheat director, and president of the United States grain corporation, who soon will retire from public service.

Herbert Hoover paid a high tribute to Mr. Barnes, saying that the sacrifice of his business to serve his country is one "of the brightest spots in the history of American patriotism." Among the guests were Baron Camillo Romano Avezzana, ambassador from Italy; Prince Casimir Lubomirski, minister from Poland, and Armas Herman Saastamoinen, minister from Finland.

A leather bound memorial praising Mr. Barnes for his services to America and her allies during the war was presented to him as a gift from the business men of America and his associates in the grain corporation.

"The fixing of $2.26 as the price for wheat by the government has been criticised," said Mr. Hoover, "but the farmer could have gotten $3 a bushel if the open market had continued. Had the farmer accepted any such price he would have seen the streets of our industrial centers run with blood. It would have meant the loss of the war."

Mr. Hoover declared no man can charge that there has been "an atom of speculation or profiteering" in breadstuffs due to the grain corporation's control of wheat.

BISHOPS IN CONFERENCE.

M. E. Leaders in United States and Foreign Countries at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, April 23.—Thirty-one bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, six representing foreign countries, were here today for their semi-annual conference. Bishop William A. Quayle, St. Louis, resident bishop, presided over the sessions, which were closed. Memorial services will be held Friday night for Bishop Matt S. Hughes.

Bishops from foreign countries were are John L. Nuelsen, Zurich, Switzerland; Herbert Welch, Seoul, Korea; Frank W. Warne, Lucknow, India; Merriam C. Harris, Tokio, Japan; John W. Robinson, Bombay, India, and Eden S. Johnson, Umtali, South Africa.

$149 FOR MRS. STRINGER.

L. E. & W. Yard Office Employes Make Third Contribution.

Contributions totaling $149.75, to be added to the benefit fund for Mrs. Lee Stringer and children have been received by The News and by George Winkler, treasurer of the fund at police headquarters. With these contributions was a third one from the Lake Erie & Western yard office employes, which brings their total gifts up to nearly $100. The money received was from the commercial credit, audit and correct weights bureau, $100; Lake Erie & Western yard office employes, $17; Frank H. Weidman, 614 Buchanan street, $5, cash; $3, cash; $5; Machine Tool Company, $6.75; C. L. Kirk, 1242 North Pennsylvania, $5; Mrs. L. H., $2, cash; $2; Oliver P. Wooley, 2352 Central avenue, $1; William Brady, 2416 Bellefontaine street, $1. The fund now totals nearly $400.

Mrs. Stringer is the widow of Lee R. Stringer, a railroad detective, who was shot to death by one of a gang of colored coal thieves in the Lake Erie & Western railroad yards.

Taylors LAST DAY

10% Discount on Oriental Rugs

Withdrawn Saturday, April 24, at 6 p. m.

You can not afford to let this opportunity pass. You will probably have to wait a long time for another chance to buy genuine oriental rugs at a real reduction, and with the increasing scarcity of orientals and their continuous advance in price, they will cost you much more later.

This stock comprises beautiful Chinese rugs in two shades of blue, rose, taupe and yellow, all sizes mats, door rugs and carpet sizes up to 10½x14 feet. Also Persian and Turkish rugs, such as Kirmans, Mosoul, Melez, Serabend, Mahal, Sivas, Belouchistan, Shirvan and Ispana in all sizes.

We can not attempt to give sizes or prices in this ad, because the stock is moving so fast that the pieces we describe might be sold before this ad appears.

If not ready now, pay part and we will hold your purchase for later delivery.

Cork Linoleum, $1.19 a square yard

A final clean up of room size remnants worth up to $1.75 a yard

For Saturday only we offer the unsold portion of the many short rolls that we had left after our recent tremendous linoleum sale. Each roll has enough goods to cover an ordinary room. All are new, desirable patterns. Our experience Friday shows us that these won't last long.

Be Here Early Saturday if You Wish to Avoid Being Disappointed.

INDIANA WILL OBSERVE MAY 1 AS AMERICAN DAY

SPECIAL PATRIOTIC PROGRAMS SUGGESTED FOR SCHOOLS.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

Citizens of Indiana are called on to observe May 1, American day, by encouraging Americanism and discouraging radicalism, in a proclamation Governor Goodrich has issued in line with a movement fostered by the National Security League. The Governor suggests special programs in schools for April 30, as May 1 falls on Sunday. In his proclamation he says:

"In order to combat the radical and un-American propaganda which has been cunningly spread in the United States by agitators who receive their inspiration from eastern Europe, the states of the Union are preparing to observe Saturday, May 1, this year, as American day. By this celebration it is hoped to call the attention of the American people to the vital necessity of preserving the Constitution of the United States and the institutions under which we live in order that America may fulfill her high destiny.

"To the end, therefore, that the people may have the opportunity to demonstrate their loyalty to our government, their faith in our free institutions and their unequivocal disapproval of the radical socialism and internationalism which would substitute the soviet for the Constitution—in short, that we may again demonstrate to the world that we are real Americans—I, James P. Goodrich, Governor of Indiana, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 1, to be American day, and do recommend that the day be observed by appropriate exercises by our municipalities, our patriotic organizations, by the children in our public schools and by our citizens in general. As May 1 falls on Saturday, I suggest that the superintendents, teachers and those having charge of our schools prepare appropriate programs to be given on the afternoon of April 30, and I further suggest that these officers co-operate with other citizens in making Saturday, May 1, a day of patriotism."

The Printzess Suits and Coats

Judging from the number of our patrons who we know are waiting for Printzess garments we are pretty nearly sure of achieving the goal—nearly a hundred Printzess garments alone. And, of course, there's the excellent reason for women delaying their spring purchases until they could get a Printzess model. Printzess suits and coats are superbly tailored, always; they are always of a standard fine quality of material; they are as ever in utterly smart tailored modes. Those women who are considering the purchase of a suit, but who have not considered particularly a Printzess, would do well to see this handsome assortment Saturday.

Two Suit Groups—$49.50 and $32.50

are finely tailored models of the best quality of tricotine and Poiret twill in navy blue and check velours, with hand-done buttonholes and lined throughout with silk. Plain and in herringbone stripes. Sizes 15 to 44.

$32.50 Suits

At this price are a few attractive suits of tricotine in Copenhagen blue and rookie. Of the same high-class of tailoring and finishing. Sizes 16 to 38 only. At this price they are not rivaled for value.

Suits at $22.50, $25.00 and $49.50

At $22.50 are topcoats of tweed with a swagger swing.

At $25.00 are 34-inch coats of navy blue tricotine, with an inverted back plait, and a lining of quality silk.

At $49.50 are unusually good-looking coats of covert cloth in the covert shade. Every coat is a work of tailoring art.

Another Big Millinery Special

Banded Sailors and Sport Hats

$5.00

Just as they were last week, we will display them on a street floor booth, where you can easily find them and make your choice quickly.

The sailors, as usual, are in brown, sand, blue and black, in plain and fancy straws, with different color facings, many faced in white hemp.

The sports hats are in black and white combinations, blue and white, pink and white, yellow and blue, orange and blue. There are hemp straws trimmed in yarn and others trimmed with different colored ribbon bands.

You can not question the values they represent—it is not often such may be had for such a low price. —Ayres—

A Sale of Silk Dresses

Divided Into Three Price Groups

$25.00, $29.50 and $35.00

A special purchase was made, consisting of one hundred and fifty frocks. We knew it was a good "buy," but were not struck with its extraordinary importance until we went to make a second purchase to sell at the same prices and at the same time, as the original one. We could find none at the first prices that would compare in quality with the first.

The Materials are What You Want

Taffeta, tricolette, mignonette, plain and printed Georgette crepes—hand embroidered, fancy stitched in attractive designs and a range of styling that includes such smart effects as the long waist, the accordion plaited skirt, clever sleeves and neck arrangements.

Navy blue is plentiful as well as browns and a number of delicate shades, sports stripes and combination of colorings. Sizes 16 to 44. —Ayres—Basement.

OFFICERS COMMENDED FOR EFFECTIVE ACTION

RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED TO NEGRO CONFERENCE.

GIRL'S SLAYER DENOUNCED

Resolutions commending the action and methods of the police department and city and county authorities in handling the large crowds which gathered Thursday evening about the Marion county jail, where William Ray, colored, murderer of Martha Huff, was confined, were presented this afternoon at the race convention of Indiana colored people, which opened Thursday morning at the Bethel A. M. E. church. The preparation of these resolutions followed the presentation Thursday afternoon of other resolutions condemning crimes against children and women by men. A committee composed of F. B. Ransom, Indianapolis, chairman; Dr. D. E. Bethea, Terre Haute; A. H. Haloway, Evansville; Dr. F. L. Douglas and Dr. A. H. Wilson, of Indianapolis, was appointed to draw up the resolutions. The naming of the committee followed a talk by Mr. Ransom in which he spoke of the efficiency of the police department in dispersing the crowds Thursday night.

Gary Woman to Speak.

The chief topic at the session this afternoon was on "Equal Suffrage," by Mrs. Lena Harris, of Gary. The convention will close with the session tonight, at which the Rev. Sumner Williams will talk on "The Evils of Disfranchisement Laws."

The resolutions presented Thursday afternoon urge "special legal conviction and punishment" of Ray, and commended the courage and ability of Detective Sergeants Sneed, Trabue and Patrolman Carter, all colored, who captured the murderer.

The Resolution.

The resolutions follow:

Whereas, The negro leaders of the state of Indiana, in convention assembled to consider questions vital to the country and race, have noted with inexpressible pain the brutal assault and murder of Martha Huff, in this city a few days ago, and

Whereas, The man accused has been apprehended, be it

Resolved, First, that we condemn with all power we have the crimes of men against childhood and womanhood and seek by every reasonable method to establish and maintain the sanctity of the home; second, that we urge the speedy legal conviction and punishment of the moral pervert who has so grievously outraged society, disgraced his country and race, prostituted virtue and shed innocent blood; third, that we commend the courage and ability of Officers Sneed, Trabue and Carter in bringing to justice criminals, and pledge the entire agency of the law our heartiest support.

Subjects Discussed.

Disfranchisements, anti-lynch laws and equal suffrage were discussed by the Rev. Charles Sumner Williams and W. E. Henderson, and W. A. Gaines, of Evansville.

come in his own state of Ohio next Tuesday, and the next will be in Indiana, May 4. Reports from Ohio indicate that the delegation is likely to be partly for Wood and that Harding will make no better showing in Ohio than Lowden did in Illinois.

"It looks now as though the contest in Indiana will be between Wood and Johnson," said a Republican usually wel informed of political situations. "It has been so in other primary states."

Literary Digest Poll.

Harry G. Hogan, Indiana manager for Leonard Wood, said today:

"The comprehensive Literary Digest poll indicates, in the words of a metropolitan daily, 'that this year more than ever before, the composite choice of the people as a whole is going to control in the national conventions.' The result of this poll for the country as a whole on the four candidates entered in the Indiana primary is: Wood, 32,351; Johnson, 22,609; Harding, 10,432; Lowden, 6,449, Wood having 5 to 1 over Lowden, 3 to 1 over Harding. So the contest in that poll as well as in the primary states, is between Wood and Johnson. Wood has carried many primary states and has never finished lower than second. In the Digest poll 9 per cent. of Wood's votes comes from Democrats and 24 per cent. of Johnson's comes from Democrats.

"The Digest poll shows that in Johnson's total there are 5,584 Democratic votes and in Wood's total 2,993. With the Democratic votes subtracted in each case, the vote for Wood is 29,358 and for Johnson, 17,025, a majority for Wood of 12,328. The total of first and second choice for Wood is 51,804 and for Johnson, 38,989, the majority for Wood of first and second choice combined being 12,813.

Democratic Vote Significant.

"The Democratic vote is signficant, verifying the report that word has been sent to industrial centers to bore from within by voting for Johnson in the Republican primary and for McAdoo in the Democratic primary. It may be assumed that many of these Democrats will in the election, vote their own ticket, not the Republican.

"Indiana is the battle ground and the candidate who receives the plurality in this state will, as in Nebraska and Illinois, receive the delegates to the national convention. Indiana Republicans have been in some way deluded with the myth of an uninstructed delegation. No such animal exists in a primary.

"Results from a poll taken over the entire state indicate an overwhelming majority of the rank and file as being in favor of the plurality instructing the delegates. Republican leaders always have and will continue to reflect the sentiment of the people. Realizing this, many who unthinkingly cast their lot with certain delegates merely on the basis of obtaining an uninstructed delegation, but without expressing a real choice, are coming to the conclusion that they must decide in this state between Wood and Johnson.

"The break is commencing, and many are now turning to Wood. Senator Harding, who invited Johnson to take second place on the ballot in Ohio, the other night in the Calumet region, said that Johnson was as music to blame for the defeat of the league of nations as Wilson. Johnson refused to speak on the same platform with Harding at Richmond last week. Republicans of Indiana will indicate their genuine choice on Tuesday, May 4, and the result will be in the nature of a clincher."

Tomlinson Hall Reserved.

Tomlinson Hall, Indianapolis, has been reserved for noon of May 3 when Leonard Wood is expected to deliver an address.

John Harrison, of Danville, Ill., will make a speech in behalf of Governor Lowden at Crawfordsville tonight. He will speak in Indiana for Lowden next week. He was Indiana manager for Lowden until his leg was broken in a fall, when he slipped on an icy sidewalk.

Patrick O'Donnell, of Chicago, and Louis C. Crampton, of Michigan, will speak in Tomlinson hall tonight for Hiram Johnson.

Crampton's Statement.

Mr. Crampton, who is a representative in the congress from Michigan, says "a definite agreement was made some time before the Michigan primary by the representatives of the candidates in Michigan that the state convention which is held in early May, should instruct the full Michigan delegation to stand by the winner of the preferential vote as long as his name should remain before the national convention. That agreement was very well stated in a splendid letter from Colonel Alger, head of the Leonard Wood League of Michigan and was assented to by L. L. Emerson on behalf of Governor Lowden, and I have such confidence in their good faith that I am sure the Wood and Lowden forces in Michigan will co-operate with us in securing such instructions."

"James H. Waters, of Boston, organizer for the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, has come to Johnson Indiana headquarters to remain in this state for the rest of the primary campaign. He says he organized the first union of civil service postoffice clerks in Boston, and while in Indiana will work under Congressman John I. Nolan, of California, formerly a leader in the Molder's Union, who will campaign for Johnson in Indiana.

James H. Waters, of Boston, organizer for the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, has come to Johnson Indiana headquarters to remain in this state for the rest of the primary campaign. He says he organized the first union of civil service postoffice clerks in Bostotn, and while in Indiana will work under Congressman John I. Nolan, of California, formerly a leader in the Molders' Union, who will campaign for Johnson in Indiana.

A Johnson-for-President Club was formed at the Claypool hotel Thursday night with Clyde Miller as president, C. P. Wolfe as secretary and Hugh Davey, treasurer. A finance committee consisting of D. J. Sullivan, H. M. Wing, Thomas C. Kelly, A. W. Fenstermacher, Lee Williams, Dr. Sollis Runnells, J. J. Liddy and Richard F. Brown was appointed.

freight traffic rose to 80 per cent. of normal, railroad managers asserted, and elsewhere throughout the west to the Pacific coast freight movement was reported returning to normal.

Federal officials and railroad representatives did not accept invitations to attend the mass meeting of strikers today.

The meeting of strikers adjourned without taking action towards calling off the strike.

A warrant was issued today for the arrest of Michael Cahill, who is said to have broken up a similar meeting Wednesday by shouting "We want what we wanted when we went out and we won't go back until we get it." The warrant charges Cahill with conspiracy to violate the Lever act.

LEADERS FACE ARREST.

Warned at Cleveland That Strikers Must Be Ordered Back.

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Immediate arrest of railroad strike leaders in Cleveland unless they ordered switchmen to return to work by tomorrow morning was threatened by federal agents today.

The warning was given to F. J. O'Rourke, president of the Cleveland Yardmen's Association, by John Sawken, of the department of justice, just before the executive committee of the association met at noon.

O'Rourke said he would call a mass meeting of the strikers and repeat to them what Sawken had said.

The warning was authorized by District Attorney Wertz, following orders from Attorney-General Palmer, at Washington.

"The warrants already have been prepared and will be served unless the strike is ended Saturday morning," said Sawken. "They charge violation of the Lever act and would be served on O'Rourke and other officers and also on the executive committee members."

Officers in addition to O'Rourke are J. P. Foley, secretary; J. E. Durkin, recording secretary, and W. C. Dailey, treasurer. The executive committee is made up of fourteen members in addition to Dailey and Foley. The latter is in Washington.

PLAN NEW ORGANIZATION.

Representatives at Washington of Strikers to Undertake Movement.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Formation of a new national organization of railroad men has been undertaken by representatives here of the striking switchmen in Chicago, New York, Cleveland, St. Louis and other cities. R. J. Mitchell, of Chicago, in announcing the inception of the movement today said efforts would be made to enroll workers in all railroad crafts both in the United States and Canada.

Final organization can not be effected, Mr. Mitchell said, until the plan has been referred to the local organizations which the men now in Washington represented. He estimated that the membership would be 75,000 at the start and said contracts with the railroads would be sought.

J. P. Foley, of the Cleveland Yardmen's Association, said the committees now in Washington represented 41,000 men in the nonrecognized associations and that elections for a grand lodge would be held in November. Spokesmen for the New York and New Jersey strikers said they would affiliate with the new organization.

Meantime the representatives of the strikers have perfected a working agreement under which they will unite in an effort to get their case before the railroad labor board.

Saying that it represented 50,000 workers of all crafts, a delegation from Pittsburg, headed by George Howe, arrived here today. Howe said his delegation would join forces with the other nonrecognized delegations here, but that it had not decided whether to make application to the railroad labor board for a hearing.

Reverse Vote to Return.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Striking yardmen in the St. Louis district today revoked their action of yesterday in voting to return to work, and voted to remain on strike and press their demands for increased wages. Switchmen, who are demanding an increase from $4.72 to $7.60 a day, voted to raise the demand to $9 if it was not met by Monday, and an additional $1 for each succeeding week the demand is ignored.

ONLY TWO BANKS CLOSED.

Japan's Silk and Weaving Industries Feel Financial Pinch.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Only two banks in Japan have suspended payment as the result of financial troubles in that country, the department of commerce was advised today by its representative in Tokio. The Bank of Japan, the advices added, had promised aid to Musada Bill Brokers Bank of Osaka, one of the two.

The raw silk and weaving industries have been affected more than other industries by the financial troubles, the department's representative said, adding that some weaving guilds had decided to close their factories for an indefinite period to maintain prices.

Fall in the prices of domestic products, the advices said, might bring cancellations in the near future of a large number of foreign orders, especially wheat flour. Suspension of trading on the Tokio Stock Exchange, it was said, might be continued another week.

CITATIONS FOR CONTEMPT

Two Informations Filed as Result of Newspaper Articles.

Two informations for the citation of James L. Kilgallen, managing editor of the Indiana Daily Times, on charges of contempt of court were filed in criminal court today by Claris Adams, prosecuting attorney. Judge James A. Collins ruled the defendant to answer to the charges next Thursday.

One of the citations is based on an article published in the Indiana Times concerning the inquiry by the county grand jury of conditions at the jail. The second citation is based on an article in the newspaper referring to the grand jury's investigation of charges against Harry and Ben Parsons.

Follette one of the chief opponents of the war with Germany.

In California, Mr. Abbott has this to say about the men who are supporting Johncon:

"To the superficial observer this has created a state of affairs that gives him the idea that California is all for Johnson. If his first point of observation be San Francisco, this impression is enhanced by the fact that the two morning dailies are for Johnson, and for him with a vigor and a degree of savagery toward his adversary that is reminiscent of an earlier and less polite type of journalism.

Hearst, DeYoung, Johnson.

"The spectacle, most singular to those who have any recollection of political history, is thus presented by Mr. Hearst, of the Examiner, and DeYoung, of the Chronicle, amiably co-operating in support of a candidate for the presidency to whom in the past they have been only a little less hostile than they have been to each other. Indeed, the fact that the twain thus co-operate is less remarkable than that Senator Johnson should be allied with either. Four years ago he said of DeYoung: 'When there is a city to be pillaged, when there is a man to be stabbed in the back, always lurking in the background can be found Michael Henri DeYoung.' It was at the same time that Johnson said of William S. Crocker, the present Republican national committeeman for California: 'William Crocker, with his inherited Southern Pacific millions. There is no room for W. H. Crocker, M. H. DeYoung and myself in the same political house.'"

Today the names of both Crocler and De Young appear in the list of Johnson delegates; it is this marked shifting of past alliances that makes it difficult to determine the probabilities as to the outcome of the primaries.

Flip-Flop on Railroads.

The flip-flop that Johnson has turned on the railroad question since he became a candidate for President is well-known here. In Indianapolis, Johnson said that he was called a radical because he caused enactment of a workmen's compensation law, but in Washington Johnson is called a radical because he is a radical; the friend and ally of radicals, and the sponsor for radical movements.

Up until a little more than a year ago, Johnson was heart and soul for government ownership of railroads. William J. Bryan or Glenn E. Plumb never excelled Johnson in the eloquence of speeches for government or community ownership, but suddenly and without warning Johnson has now turned against government ownership.

don't embarrass us with a handicap like Senator Reed."

Making the principal address in defense of the senator, Lee Meriwether, of St. Louis, said:

"We ought to thank God we have a man in Washington who can think for himself and not go to the White House every day to find out how he should stand. There was no Reed in the Roman senate to urge senators to think and so Rome lost its liberties."

Praises Senator Reed.

He declared Senator Reed to be "the greater senator from Missouri" and denied that he had condoned the sinking of the Lusitania or that his course during the war had been actuated by anything but the highest motives of patriotism.

Defending Senator Reed's opposition to the league covenant, he said that "when the American people know what the league really was" they would thank him for his opposition. He pointed to Senator Reed's part in creating the federal reserve bank system as evidence of his constructive ability.

The convention then confirmed the other district delegates and re-elected by acclamation Edward F. Goltra, of St. Louis, as national committeeman.

The following women delegates-at-large to the national convention were elected: Mrs. Kate S. Morrow, Warrensburg; Mrs. W. B. McKnight, King City; Mrs. Martha Taafe, Carthage, and Mrs. J. J. Shephard, Kansas City.

The convention broke from precedent when the senior United States senator was not selected as a delegate-at-large to the national convention. Senator Reed had announced that if chosen as a delegate-at-large he would not be bound by instructions to vote for a plank indorsing the league.

Governor Frederick D. Gardner, Judge W. W. Graves, of Jefferson City; Dr. Burris A. Jenkins, pastor and newspaper man, of Kansas City, and Judge John S. Farrington, Springfield, were named delegates-at-large with a half vote each, four women to be named later.

Stormiest State Session.

The election of delegates came at the close of what party leaders said was one of the stormiest sessions in Missouri Democratic politics.

Pandemonium greeted the simultaneous reports of majority and minority members of the resolutions committee touching on the league of nations covenant, the former, which was adopted, being an indorsement without reservations which "tend to weaken or nullify" the pact, while the latter opposed the league and objected to instructing the Missouri delegation to the national convention to vote for a plank in the national platform indorsing the league as recommended by the majority report.

Other Resolutions Adopted.

Other resolutions adopted were: Indorsement of the Democratic administration's conduct of the war; denunciation of the Republican postwar activities; indorsing "adequate beneficial legislation" for former service men "as outlined by the American Legion"; indorsement of "a living wage and more" for labor and praising the farmers of the country for their efforts to maintain maximum food production; extension of a welcome to the women of the nation into the Democratic party and an invitation to them to compare the reception accorded them by the two parties, and instructing the Missouri delegation to vote and work for the nomination of David R. Francis for Vice-President.

WOMEN PROMINENT IN KANSAS.

Four Get Places on Democratic Delegation—Wilson Writes Letter.

WICHITA, Kas., April 23.—A woman delegate and a woman alternate were elected by the Democratic state convention here yesterday and two women were among the sixteen delegates elected by the districts and confirmed by the convention and three were among the alternates. The resolutions adopted also made mention of the woman suffrage amendment, and prediction was made on the floor that national suffrage would be a reality shortly.

In addition to commendation of the record of the Democratic party in constructive legislation, and indorsement of the league of nations, the resolutions made special reference to the Democratic policy of a bonus for service men; commended the amendment of the Constitution to prohibit liquors; condemned compulsory military training; condemned legislation abrogating the right of labor to bargain collectively; condemned the administration of Governor Henry M. Allen as being "self-advertising" and instructed the delegates to the national convention to vote as a unit on all material questions.

Delegates are Uninstructed.

Delegates to the national convention go uninstructed as to presidential candidates, it was decided. The name of William G. McAdoo was several times cheered, and that of Bryan once.

A letter from President Wilson to Jouett Shouse, elected as delegate-at-large, setting forth the league of nations as a campaign issue, was read to the convention. The President wrote:

"I can not help thinking that the party is to be congratulated on the fact that it has come to a year of exceptional opportunity and duty. The issue which it is our duty to raise with the voters of the country involves nothing less than the honor of the United States and the redemption of its most solemn obligations; its obligations to its associates in the great war and to mankind to whom it gave the most explicit pledge that it went to war not merely to win a victory in arms, but also to follow up that victory with the establishment of such a concert of nations as would guarantee the permanence of a peace based on justice."

Amidon Chosen Committeeman.

Sam Amidon, of Wichita, was elected national committeeman by acclamation.

The delegates-at-large are: Mrs. Caroline Drennan, Arkansas City; Jouett Shouse, Kinsley; former Governor George H. Hodges, Olathe, and Robert W. Blair, Topeka.

A proposed resolution condemning the Kansas industrial court was tabled.

The country must be prepared to see the Democratic convention at San Francisco nominate President Wilson for a third term, J. Hamilton Lewis, former senator from Illinois, told the convention in an address last night.

JOHNSON LEAD INCREASES.

Two-thirds of Nebraska Precincts Give Him 14,241 Plurality.

OMAHA, Neb., April 23.—With little more than two-thirds of the precincts of Nebraska heard from and tallied by the newspaper bureaus, Senator Hiram Johnson is leading Leonard Wood in the Republican preference primary by 14,241 votes. The result of the tabulation of 1,265 precincts out of 1,849 in the state, including Douglas county (Omaha), shows the following vote:

Johnson, 47,888; Wood, 33,647; Pershing, 21,591.

The delegates elected are Wood delegates but it is the understanding they will observe the state plurality and will support Johnson at the national convention as long as he is a possibility in the race.

William Jennings Bryan, who is running in fourth place for delegate-at-large for the San Francisco convention, continued to show slight gains over Berge, a Bryan candidate, who is in fifth place. On the face of returns thus far received Neville and Shallenberger, Hitchcock delegates, lead the field of eight candidates, with Stephens, the high man of the Bryan candidates, in third place.

ernment is not taking part in the settlement of the Turkish question. We need the advice of the United States. It would be impertinent for me to say a word of criticism concerning the American detachment. I will not do so, but I will only say that we have real need of America. The Americans would come to consideration of the Turkish problems without the entanglements and commitments of the European governments and you could give us views from a fresh angle. If you were to say 'this is what we ought to do,' we should be likely to do it.

"Europe has need of the United States and we should have liked you ta take the mandate of Constantinople. Your people have always had a great interest in the subject of the races of Turkey. Your faith comes from Palestine as does our."

Concerning German Request.

Mr. Lloyd George was asked his judgment on the last German note asking permission to increase the German army from 100,000 to 200,000 men.

"That is a question I can not answer until I have the opinion of military advisers," Mr. Lloyd George declared. "If the military advisers say that 100,000 men are sufficient to keep internal order in Germany, then let the army remain at 100,000. We shall have to consider the question very seriously."

The coming to San Remo of Robert Underwood Johnson, American ambassador to Italy, as observer for the government at Washington, was mentioned. The premier said he had had no official notification of it. "But a taker of notes can not help us," he declared. "What we want is an American plenipotentiary who can tell us what the Americna government thinks ought to be done and who can answer questions and make proposals."

To Meet Until Monday.

Alluding to the probable length of the council, Premier Lloyd George said he did not think the work could be finished before Monday. It would take most of today to complete the Turkish treaty and the German situation would be discussed Saturday and Sunday. Bolshevism would come in for some consideration, he added and that would include Russia.

IMPERIAL RUSSIANS BURIED

Secrecy Surrounds Proceedings Outside of Peking.

PEKING, April 17 (by the Associated Press).—Seven bodies, four of them said to be those of members of the Russian imperial family, arrived in Peking from Harbin yesterday, and were buried in the Russian cemetery outside the city wall. The proceeding was surrounded with the greatest secrecy.

The bodies were declared to be those of Grand Duke Serge Michaelovitch, Prince Ivan, husband of Princess Helene, daughter of King Peter, of Serbia; Price Igor, brother of Prince Ivan; Grand Duchess Elizabeth, a sister of the empress, and three servants who shared the fate of three members of the royal family when, it is said, they were killed and their bodies thrown in a coal mine near Perm. The discovery of their whereabouts was said to have been made by a commission appointed by Admiral Kolchak last summer.

It is believed the transfer was brought about by General Dietrichs, the Kolchak commander, it being hinted that King Peter co-operated in the arrangements.

MILLER SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

Officers Announced for Republican State Convention.

Announcement has been made by the Republican state committee that Sidney R. Miller, of Indianapolis, has been chosen as sergeant-at-arms for the Republican state convention in Tomlinson hall, May 12 and 13. Mr. Miller is an attorney, and is a grandson of W. H. H. Miller, who was attorney-general in President Harrison's cabinet. Mr. Miller served in France as a major in the 150th field artillery. Clem R. Richards, of Terre Haute, will be secretary of the convention, and Harry R. Styner, of Montmorenci, will be chief usher.

TIME LIMIT IS EXTENDED.

Child Labor Tax Board Will Receive Age Certificates Until June 1.

The federal child labor tax board has extended from April 1 to June 1 the period within which it recognizes Indiana "as a state in which the employer's certificate and minor's certificate of age shall be accepted as evidence of age," it has notified L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction.

Employers of children are subjected to federal tax penalties if they employ children contrary to certain rules as to school attendance and age.

PUPILS AND TEACHERS IN DENIM AND GINGHAM

1,500 BOYS AND GIRLS SIGN PLEDGE AT MUNCIE.

MOVEMENT OPPOSED BY FEW

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

MUNCIE, Ind., April 23.—Most of the 1,500 pupils of the Muncie High School, their teachers and officers, including Jesse L. Ward, the principal, appeared in the classrooms today clad in denim, khaki and gingham as a protest against the high cost of clothing. The boys and men were attired in blue overalls or khaki trousers and 75 cent shirts. The girls and the women teachers wore blue gingham bungalow aprons over their oldest dresses. The few who did not adopt this attire wore their oldest clothes, many of the garments proudly revealing patches.

"Dressed Up" Pupils Hissed.

The few pupils who were "dressed up" were hissed and were taken to one side and asked to explain their failure to live up to the pledges signed yesterday afternoon at a mass meeting of the pupils and teachers. The meeting was held under the auspices of Mr. Ward, the faculty and the High School Old Clothes Club, the president of which organization, William Quick, a senior, read the resolutions and asked the pupils to take the pledge. Although it was said that a few of the older pupils were opposed to the movement, all voted in favor of the plan and signed the pledge.

As soon as the mass meeting dispersed, the boys and girls visited clothing and dry goods stores and fairly cleaned out stocks of gingham aprons, blue overalls and khaki garments. In some stores the rush was so great that clerks had difficulty in waiting on the trade. The merchants entered into the spirit of the plan and sold good overalls and khaki trousers at $2.25 to $3, and gingham aprons at $1.50 to $2.

Movement Is Spreading.

The movement also spread among the lower grades today and it was said by members of the Old Clothes Club that by next week the boy or girl who attends school in new garments will feel as much out of place as those who formerly went to school in ragged or patched clothes. The older the clothes worn the better so long as they are not dirty.

The resolutions read that the pupils and teachers agree to wear this kind of attire until school is dismissed for the summer or until the prices of clothing show an appreciable drop. A local tailoring establishment announced in its display windows that it is now ready to make overalls to measure for $49.50. An overall-and-apron dance probably will be given by the high school pupils within a few days.

Pupils Wear Overalls or Aprons.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

CONNERSVILE, Ind., April 23.—About 100 boys and girls of the local high school are wearing overalls or gingham aprons. The movement was started by one of the school societies. Teachers are smiling on the innovation, but none thus far has followed the example of the pupils.

The McFarlan Motor Company has announced that officers and men employes will wear khaki trousers during the summer. All barbers in three shops here are wearing overalls.

Logansport Lodge Joins Movement.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LOGANSPORT, Ind, April 23.—Cass County Encampment, No. 119, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is the first local organization to announce that its members have joined the overall movement. The members of the lodge will appear in the streets of this city in denim Saturday evening, it is said.

To Wear Overalls at Reception.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., April 23.—Boys of the junior and senior classes of the local high school have decided to wear overalls at the junior-senior reception and other events marking the closing of the school year. The action is taken to save the expense of buying spring suits.

Overall Pioneers at Hope.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

COLUMBUS, Ind., April 23.—The overall movement has hit the town of Hope, and a club will be organized. Three prominent citizens, Dr. C. V. Kent, Simeon W. Norton and Robert Gilliland, became the pioneers in the movement at Hope when they appeared in denim.

Pupils at Alexandria Act.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ALEXANDRIA, Ind., April 23.—Local high school pupils attended school today, wearing overalls and gingham dresses. The pupils assert they will wear denim and gingham until the present price of clothing comes down.

Toledo Police in Overalls.

TOLEDO, April 23.—The overall offensive against the high cost of living today spread to the police department when detectives appeared clad in denims. They day shift of detectives put on their new garments and went out to continue the search for the lone bandit who yesterday held up the Ohio Savings Bank and Trust Company branch and escaped with $4,000.

FIVE-YEAR BANISHMENT IS GIVEN CAILLAUX

sponsibility. I appeal to justice. I appeal to France!"

After the reading of the verdict to M. Caillaux the high court convened in secret session to deliberate on the sentence.

Discussion of the text of the verdict was resumed behind closed doors by the high court of the senate at 10:30 a. m. today.

Attempts were made by the minority to insert a paragraph limiting its scope and softening the severity of the sentence to be imposed. M. Caillaux's warmest partisans were fighting bitterly against depriving him of citizenship and condemning him to pay the costs of the trial.

Rescinds Vote and Office Rights.

One feature of the penalty which will be inflicted on Caillaux will be loss of his right to vote and eligibility to hold public office. This was decided by the senate yesterday.

"They feared to make me the most popular corpse in France," said M. Caillaux to Maitre Moutet, of his counsel, when the attorney informed him last night of the verdict of the high court.

"Do you think for a moment I have entertained the slightest illusion?" M. Caillaux asked his counsel when the latter condoled with him over the fear that the sentence would be one of banishment.

The Caillaux case has attracted wide attention because of the prominence of the principal figure and the circumstances under which he was accused.

Evidence of Prosecution.

The prosecution brought forth evidence to show that M. Caillaux, during the war had been in touch with individuals, such as the executed Bolo Pasha, who were known to be German agents or persons who had dealings with the Germans. Stress was laid on trips to South America and Italy in which it was alleged he had consorted with persons whose affiliations were inimical to allied success in the war.

Premier Clemenceau had Caillaux arrested January 14, 1918, and he had thus been imprisoned, or under detention as a patient in a hospital for more than two years, when he was brought to trial before the senate sitting as a high court, February 17.

Caillaux's political career began in 1899 when he became minister of finance in the Waldeck-Rousseau cabinet. He served until 1902.

Later Chosen by Clemenceau.

Later he was appointed to the same post by Premier Clemenceau, who was his chief accuser in the case just ended. Caillaux held this office until June, 1911, when he became premier. He resigned in January 1912, owing to dissensions in the cabinet over Franco-German negotiations respecting Morocco.

In 1913, M. Caillaux became minister of finance in the Doumergue cabinet, but the following year his wife, Madame Caillaux, shot and killed Gaston Calmette, editor of Figaro, actuated by the editor's bitter criticisms of her husband. Her trial resulted in acquittal, but M. Caillaux withdrew from the post of finance minister.

In the trial of the ex-premier the defense declared that Caillaux had never been the champion of closer relations with Germany but instead had championed the policy of European conciliation. While he might have been guilty of imprudence and impulsiveness, M. Caillaux himself declared he was never guilty of giving information to the enemy and that he desired only the well being of France.

SENIORITY QUESTION OVERSHADOWS WAGES

to have it recognized as their labor organization.

Notices of Discharge.

Today was payday for the yard employes on several of the Indianapolis railroad lines and several hundred striking yard switchmen drew certificates of discharge with their pay envelopes.

About 200 yardmen of the Pennsylvania railroad received notices of discharge with their pay and as they appeared at the offices they were told to turn in their equipment. The Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western, the Big Four and the Indianapolis Union Railroad Company (belt line) also paid off their employes. The men discharged are those who failed to report for work in compliance with ultimatums issued by the various lines.

Increase in Freight.

Freight movements on all lines continue to increase, and all the companies continue to employ new men to fill the places of the switchmen on "vacation."

Railroad officials say that the men realize the strike is lost. Many of their old employes, they say, have come to them and said they are eager to return to work and will do so as soon as the word is received from strike headquarters in Chicago.

VOTE TO RETURN TO WORK.

Pennsylvania and C. & E. I. Strikers Act at Terre Haute.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad switchmen, who have been on strike, held a meeting at the Pythian Temple last night and voted to return to work in a body, the officials of the road having agreed that if the men would return in a body they would be permitted to retain their seniority rights. The Pennsylvania men also voted to return to work, and many of the third shift men returned to duty at 11 o'clock last night. The day shifts of both roads went to work today.

The notice of the company posted Wednesday required the men to report to work at their regular hours on Thursday, but the decision to return to work was reached too late to permit the second and third shift men to return. It is understood that those who failed to report at the regular hours will be required to make new applications for work, the same as new employes.

The committee from the Big Four strikers called on the general yardmaster of the road, but he refused to discuss the matter with them, it is said. The chairman of the general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen of the St. Louis division of the Big Four system is expected here to confer with the strikers in an effort to bring about a settlement whereby the strikers would retain their rights of seniority if they return to work in a body.

INDIANA POLITICAL NOTES

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Prominent Republicans here are arranging a big reception for Leonard Wood when he comes here Monday night to open his speaking campaign in the state. J. S. Hopkins, Republican county chairman, has asked all Republicans to join in paying honors to all the Republican presidential candidates when they come here. Senator Harding and Governor Lowden will speak here next week. General Wood will arrive in Evansville about 6 o'clock Monday night and will speak at the Soldiers and Sailors' coliseum at 8 o'clock.

Miles Furnas, state senator from Randolph county, was in Evansville yesterday in company with Fred Woodfill, one of the managers for Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio and candidate for the Republican nomination for President, to open Harding headquarters for the First district. The headquarters are situated in the Hotel McCurdy and Mr. Furnas will remain here in charge.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Terre Haute is to have a feast of presidential oratory next week, when four candidates for the presidency speak here. Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, will speak at Knights of Columbus hall Tuesday night and Frank O. Louden, of Illinois, will speak at the same place on Wednesday night. Friday night Leonard Wood will speak at the Grand opera house and Saturday afternoon Hiram W. Johnson, of California, will speak there. William E. Borah, United States senator from Idaho, will speak in behalf of the Johnson candidacy at the theater Thursday night.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 23.—The Clark county board of election commissioners have decided to place on the Republican ballots at the primary the names of the thirteen candidates for delegates backed by Newton H. Myers, county chairman, and also the names of J. R. Lancaster and Charles F. Pangburn, Leonard Wood supporters. Mr. Lancaster is county chairman for General Wood. Myers sprung technical objections, but it was found his own petitions were at least equally faulty and he backed down. The ballots are now in the hands of the printer.

Confesses Attack, Police Say.

John Garvin, colored, 1112 Myron street, who was arrested early Thursday on a charge of burglary by Lieut. Woollen and Sergeant Marren, confessed to Detectives Reynolds and O'Donnell later in the day, the detectives said, that it was he who attacked Irene DeMoss, age seventeen, on October 9, 1919, as she lay asleep at her home, 618 East Pratt street. The DeMoss girl was struck on the head with a half brick by some one who had climbed to the roof of a porch adjoining her bedroom window. The detectives say that Garvin told them that he intended to enter the room, but became frightened after striking the girl and fled.

Road Bond Issue Authorized.

The state board of tax commissioners today authorized the issuance of $27,948.52 of bonds for the financing of the Moffett road improvement, Whitewater township, Franklin county. Last August the board declined to approve the issue and held it off until it came within another taxing season.

Falls and Breaks Hip at Age of 98.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

GREENFIELD, Ind., April 23.—Mrs. Sarah Bruner, age ninety-eight, the oldest person in Hancock county, fell to the floor yesterday as she left her chair to walk across a room, and her hip was broken. She makes her home with Harry Bruner, her son.

SAYS COAL SUPPLY DOES NOT JUSTIFY MORE GAS

FORREST DENIES REQUEST OF BOARD OF WORKS.

PAVING CONTRACT IS LET

The Citizens Gas Company does not have enough coal in stock or in prospect to increase the gas pressure between meal times, J. Dorsey Forrest, general manager, told the board of works today. The board requested him, if it were possible, to raise the pressure at least one pound between meals. Mr. Forrest said the company will do this as soon as possible.

George Lemaux, chairman of the board, told Mr. Forrest of many complaints received by the board. In many instances housewives have lighted gas burners and gone to another part of the house. When they returned a few minutes later they found the gas out and the room full of gas.

Remonstrance of No Avail.

The board declared of no avail a remonstrance by William E. English against the resurfacing of Market street from Monument circle to Capitol avenue. The board granted a petition for the vacation of New Jersey street from Fall Creek parkway to Twenty-eighth street.

The contract for the paving of Bradbury street from Garfield drive to Shelby street with bituminous concrete was awarded to the Marion Construction Company at $23,019.19, or $8.92 a lineal foot.

Bids On Sidewalks.

The board received bids for cement sidewalks in Illinois street from Maryland street to Georgia street, and from Georgia street to Jackson Place. The bids were for $13.64 and $24.38 a square yard, respectively, and were submitted by the J. W. & W. C. Martin Company. The South Illinois Street Merchants' Association petitioned for these sidewalks some time ago, but the work was held up because bids were not received.

POLICE JURY DISAGREES.

Unable to Reach Verdict in Trial of Porter in New York.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The jury in the court of general sessions which heard the case of Augustus Drum Porter, former third deputy police commissioner, indicted in New York's vice war on a charge of neglect of duty, reported at 12:06 o'clock today that it had been unable to reach a verdict. It was discharged immediately by Judge Malone.

The jury was out nearly twenty-one hours. It was reported that members stood nine to three for acquittal from the taking of the first ballot until they reported to the court.

Judge Malone later sent for Assistant District Attorney Smith and directed him to place Porter on trial again next week. Contradicting defense counsel, Mr. Smith declared that instead of standing nine to three for acquittal, the jury voted eleven to one for conviction on fourteen of fifteen ballots cast.

CYNICISM OF JOHNSON IS UNSEEMLY, HE SAYS

ROOSEVELT'S RAIMENT DISCUSSED BY AN ADMIRER.

REGARD FOR LEONARD WOOD

To the Editor of The News:

Sir—I see in the newspapers that Senator Johnson in his Columbia Club speech tried to make it out that Leonard Wood is something of a pretender as a good friend of former President Theodore Roosevelt. The aim of the California candidate who knifed Hughes in 1916 while boosting his own candidacy for senator is to make it appear that he is the only genuine, blown-in-the-bottle Roosevelt ian. Senator Johnson brought up the matter in a sarcastic way by remarking that the campaign this year was a "campaign in memoriam," and he said "every candidate was wrapping himself more or less in the raiment of the man who has passed. Today this man has more posthumous friends than any man that ever died."

"We of the West."

And then the senator went out to talk about how what he called "some of the people of the west" look at it. His speech was pretty full of what "we of the west" think and have done, the "we" evidently meaning what "I," the senator from California, think and have done.

To quote from the account of his speech: "Some of the people of the west look with a little bit of cynicism on some gentlemen traveling about in the raiment of Roosevelt." Indeed, there was a lot of cynicism in what the senator had to say. I suppose he was striking at Leonard Wood, who, the American people know, was a close friend of Theodore Roosevelt. Then, of course, the modest and self-effacing Californian tried to show that he was the one who had a right to the raiment of Colonel Roosevelt.

Roosevelt's Raiment Elsewhere.

Now, it happens that some facts have come to the public attention in this campaign showing very plainly the regard in which Theodore Roosevelt held Leonard Wood. The former President's son, bearing the full name of his father, has come out in a complete indorsement of the candidacy of Leonard Wood. When Leonard Wood was in Indianapolis to speak at the Columbia Club, the former President's nephew was here with Wood. I have also noticed that the former President's sister made speeches for Wood in the Illinois primary campaign.

What is the natural inference? Will anybody believe that the attitude of the sons and the sister of the former President does not bespeak the friendship and admiration of Theodore Roosevelt for Leonard Wood? Besides, Theodore Roosevelt during his life expressed himself on Leonard Wood so often that there can be no question of what he thought.

Cynical Talk Unseemly.

So it does not seem to me that it comes with good grace from the California senator, who is getting his main support from elements that would hardly be encouraged by Roosevelt, to talk cynically about Wood traveling about in the raiment of Roosevelt, while the senator at the same time would lay claim to the exclusive right to the raiment. Roosevelt's greatness can not be monopolized by any man, and especially by a man of the self-effacing nature of the senator from the Pacific coast, who in the same speech so modestly tried to make it out that "our philosophy of government" (the senator's philosophy, of course) is what the country should and will adopt.

D. A. R. PILGRIMAGE TO MT. VERNON SCHEDULED

MRS. G. M. MINOR ELECTED PRESIDENT-GENERAL.

ROUTINE BUSINESS ENDED

WASHINGTON, April 23.—A pilgrimage to Mt. Vernon for the purpose of placing wreaths on the tombs of George and Martha Washington was the chief event on the program for today's session of the continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. A report of the resolutions committee and other routine business occupied the time of the delegates in the forenoon.

The election of Mrs. George Maynard Minor as president-general and the other national officers was announced late last night. Their installation will take place tomorrow.

Mrs. Minor, of Waterford, Conn., was unanimously elected president-general, to succeed Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, of Kansas. All the candidates for executive officers on Mrs. Minor's ticket were elected without opposition, the only contest being for vice-presidents-general. Twelve candidates were nominated for seven posts.

Vice - presidents - general elected were: Mrs. Cassius C. Cottle, Los Angeles; Mrs. Edward L. Harris, Cleveland; Mrs. James T. Morris, Minneapolis; Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, New York city; Mrs. Henry McCleary, McCleary, Wash.; Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cooke, Pittsburg, and Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen, Council Bluffs, Ia.

JEWISH FEDERATION WORK

Reports Made at Annual Meeting and Governors Elected.

At the annual meeting of the Jewish Federation Thursday evening in the Communal building, members of the board of governors were elected as follows: Nathan Berkowitz, L. J. Borinstein, Jonas Joseph, Rabbi S. Levin, J. L. Mueller, Henry Rauh and Mrs. Wolf Sussman.

Reports were made by G. A. Efroymson, president; Esther Efroymson, acting superintendent in the absence of S. B. Kaufman, who is in Poland in relief work for the joint distribution committee, and J. L. Mueller, director of educational and recreational activities.

They brought out that during the last year the federation has handled all relief cases which were the result of illness and nonemployment; has cooperated with other agencies in adjusting domestic relations; has assisted the juvenile court and provided probation officers when called on. It has held classes in citizenship and naturalization, gymnasium and athletics, has supported three boy and girl Scout troops, a Y. M. H. A., a Y. W. H. A. and a branch of the public library.

SIX MEN TO BE RETIRED.

Names Go on Pennsylvania Railroad Honor Pension Roll.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 23.—Six veteran employes of the Logansport division shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will retire from the service of the company May 1, and will be placed on the honor pension roll of the road. The men are John J. Sheerin, foreman of the Logansport division paint shop, who has served fifty-three years with the company; Henry Warnke, shop laborer, who has forty-seven years of service; William Veale, lampman at the shops, who has served thirty-eight years; Frank Kline, laborer, who has served thirty-eight years; Marcus W. To Make Claim on Federal Neglect.

CHICAGO, April 23.—The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company is to make a claim against the government for "a large sum" to cover alleged neglect of maintenance of the road and its equipment during government operation, according to an announcement made in the company's annual report for 1919. The Rock Island is the first railroad to prepare an itemized statement showing the reduced scale of expenditures for upkeep during federal control. The report shows, for instance, that the government used an average of 1,612,098 crossties against a yearly average of 2,412,761 under private control.

SUICIDE MYSTERY SOLVED.

Finger Prints Lead to Identification of Body Found Near Wanatah.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LAPORTE, Ind., April 23.—Finger prints led to the identification today of the man who committed suicide in a field near Wanatah, and whose body was discovered Wednesday, with a revolver beside it.

Sheriff Mathias, of Toledo, his deputy, Leo Noonan, and railroad detectives from Tiffin, said that the man was Albert Loach, of Tiffin, who recently was in custody for a $35,000 silk robbery in Toledo. Loach shot the Toledo sheriff and escaped.

TO DEPORT VON KAPP.

Sweden, However, Will Not Return Him to Germany.

STOCKHOLM, April 23.—The government has ordered deportation of Dr. Von Kapp, leader of the German insurrection, on the ground he entered Sweden under a forged passport. He will not be extradited to Germany, it was understood.

BOAZ DEMAREE IS FOUND GUILTY IN ROBBERY CASE

SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR TWO TO FOURTEEN YEARS.

FIVE ARE YET TO BE TRIED

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

RUSHVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Boaz Demaree, of Greensburg, was found guilty by a jury in circuit court here yesterday evening on a charge of conspiracy to commit burglaries. He will be taken to Michigan City next Monday to begin serving a sentence in the State Prison of two to fourteen years, which was imposed on him by Judge Fremont Miller, of Franklin, special judge in the case. Demaree also was fined $25.

Trial of five other alleged conspirators, who are accused in a joint affidavit of planning wholesale robberies in this region, will be begun with Gregg Allyea, of Greensburg, whose hearing is set for Wednesday, May 5. Allyea's name figured in the evidence of the case just closed.

Jesse Demaree, of Greensburg, will be taken to prison with his brother. He confessed his part in the robberies about a month ago and was sentenced to a term of two to fourteen years in the state prison for conspiracy, but was held in jail here to be used as a witness by the state. His testimony was of no value, because he took the blame for all of the robberies of which the Demarees were accused.

Besides Boaz and Jesse Demaree, the five other defendants named in the joint affidavit are Ed Demaree, a brother of Boaz and Jesse, who is serving a term in the State Prison for manslaughter; Frank Demaree, another brother, who has never been found; Clara Demaree, wife of Boaz Demaree; Mose Lowe, and Allyea.

ROAD CONGRESS FAVORS FOUR-MILL HIGHWAY TAX

RESOLUTION TO BE PRESENTED TO THE LEGISLATURE.

BROUGH AND TAGGART SPEAK

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Before adjournment of a meeting of the Interstate Good Roads Congress and Dixie Bee Line Association here Thursday, a resolution was offered by Dr. J. R. Mitchell, of this city, calling on the next session of the Indiana legislature to levy a road tax of four mills on each $100. If the legislature meets in special session this year, the resolution will be presented at that time and if not, it will be presented at the regular session in January.

It also was suggested at the meeting that the interest on the $9,000,000 allied loan be set aside for the construction and maintenance of highways in the United States.

Advocates Gasoline Tax.

Charles H. Brough, governor of Arkansas and president of the National Good Roads Association, said in an address to the Congress, that at the next session of the Arkansas legislature he will recommend that a tax of 2½ cents a gallon be placed on gasoline. He added that if the railroad strike called a few days ago had been successful, the transportation system of the country would have been tied up completely, and that to prevent such a disaster, all states should have hard-surfaced roads and more motor trucks should be brought into action.

The Governor also said that while Indiana has twelve times the taxables of the state of Arkansas, his state is building more improved roads than Indiana.

Taggart Favors Bridges.

Thomas Taggart followed Governor Brough with a short talk. He said the people of Indiana are becoming awakened to the importance of good roads, and that some of the money the Federal government spends on rivers, many of which go dry in summer, should be spent on the improvement of the roads of the country. He pointed out to Evansville and southern Indiana the need of a bridge across the Ohio River here, and also suggested the building of a bridge across the Wabash river a few miles west of Evansville.

Mr. Taggart said that the people of the state should see to it that at its next session the state legislature appropriates enough money to carry on the good roads program.

YEATS ON THE THEATER.

Irish Poet and Playwright to Lecture at the Murat Sunday.

Sunday afternoon, at the Murat theater, at 3 o'clock, a lecture will be given by William Butler Yeats, the Irish poet and playwright, after a four years' absence from this country. Mr. Feats brings to his discussion of the theater a virile enthusiasm, a right-minded attitude toward tradition and a human understanding of audiences.

Mr. Yeats' subject, "A Theater of the People," is the fruit of his experiences with J. M. Synge, who was inspired by Mr. Yeats to turn from his atelier in Paris, and who rose to be a genius and a leader in the new type of drama that Mr. Yeats has undertaken. With the able assistance of Lady Gregory, who is well known in this country through the Irish Players, who came here a few seasons ago, they formed the Irish National Theater Society, and opened the Abbey theater in Dublin. Here they produced plays that yielded nothing to convention, and, while portraying true Irish life and ideals, gave a new interpretation to staging, acting and plot. The theater was first misunderstood, and was the cause of riots, but its value today is acknowledged without reserve.

Mr. Yeats also will give readings from his own works. Seats for the lecture are now selling at the Ona B. Talbot office in the Hume-Mansur building.

PITCHFORK HANDLE BREAKS, RESULTING IN MAN'S DEATH

Homer Hale Loses Balance and Falls Nine Feet From Hay Mow—Wife and Daughter Find the Body.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

MARION, Ind., April 23.—Homer Hale, a Grant county farmer, was killed yesterday when the breaking of a pitch fork handle caused him to lose his balance and fall nine feet from the hay mow to the barn floor. His body was not found until 3 o'clock in the afternoon when his wife and daughter, becoming alarmed when he did not appear for dinner, searched the barn and found the body in a pool of blood. A fracture of the skull is said to have been the direct cause of the death.

COURT DECIDES FARMER MUST PAY WAR PLEDGE

COLLECTION OF OTHER NOTES HINGED ON RULING.

CASE TRIED AT WARSAW

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WARSAW, Ind., April 23.—Francis E. Bowser, judge in the Kosciusko circuit court, ruled here Thursday afternoon that notes given for subscriptions to a war chest fund, or for the support of any other war activity, are valid and must be paid.

The ruling was in the action of the Huntington county war chest against James W. Trigg, a wealthy farmer who lives near Huntington. Trigg was ordered to pay $200, the amount which remains unpaid on his subscription. He contested the power of the war chest to force payment on the ground that he was induced to subscribe by threats of having his boy placed in the trenches. He also asserted that the Huntington county war chest was not a properly organized association and therefore could not enter into binding contracts.

The case was brought here from Huntington county on a change of venue and was tried several weeks ago, but the ruling was not made until Thursday. Collection of many other subscriptions in Huntington county hinged on the court's ruling.

RETURN OF SOLDIER DEAD.

French Chamber May Investigate Conditions at Brest.

PARIS, April 23.—Objections of the people of Brest to the exhumation or return to the United States of the bodies of American seamen and marines who died there during the war has led members of the chamber of deputies to make investigations as to the conditions under which the work is being done. Paul Simon, a member of the chamber for Brest, said yesterday that he might interpellate the government on the subject of hygienic conditions at Brest that were dangerous but laid emphasis on the fact that such action would not imply any criticism of the United States.

Working parties at Brest have been halted several times by cablegrams from the American war department, stating that relatives of dead seamen had changed their minds and now preferred that the bodies should remain in France, it is learned from American sources here.

GRAND JURY TAKES UP RAY'S CASE SATURDAY

PROMPT INDICTMENT OF MURDERER EXPECTED.

POLICE DISPERSE CROWDS

The Marion county grand jury will be convened Saturday to investigate the case of William Ray, colored, confessed murderer of Martha Huff, age fourteen. Judge James A. Collins in criminal court, on the motion of Claris Adams, prosecuting attorney, directed the county jury commissioners today to draw a member for the grand jury to take the place of S. B. McHaffey, who resigned from the jury Thursday because of illness. The name of Charles A. Dold, a paperhanger, was drawn from the jury box. Claude Worley, special investigator for the criminal court, was sent to subpena Dold to report for grand jury service Saturday.

An indictment charging Ray with murder in the first degree, will be returned by the grand jury some time Saturday, it is expected. If the indictment is returned the negro will be arraigned in criminal court next week and his case will be set for trial for the following week.

Arrests Made.

One man is under arrest charged with shooting with intent to kill and a woman and sixteen other men are held on various charges, including drunkenness, disorderely conduct, congregating and inciting riot, as a result of the activities of police and detectives in breaking up several crowds that gathered last night near the County Jail, where Ray was confined.

The man charged with shooting with intent to kill gave his name as John J. Gray, and his address as Louisville, Ky. He was arrested in South Meridian street, between Maryland and Georgia streets, by Traffic Policeman Cummins after it is alleged, he had shot Lester Harris, colored, 644 Eddy street, who was running from a crowd of men at that point.

Harris, who was wounded in the left leg, was taken to the City Hospital in the police emergency machine. Physicians said his condition is not serious.

Admits Shooting.

Gray admitted to the detectives that he fired two shots at the colored man. He said he saw a crowd of men chasing the negro south in Meridian street toward the elevated railroad tracks and, believing the negro was about to get away, drew his revolver and fired at his legs. Gray has been rooming at 227 North Davidson street.

Starting in small groups in the evening, large crowds of persons, the majority of them curiosity seekers, gathered in East Washington street, between Alabama and Delaware streets, but were soon dispersed by police squads under the personal direction of Jerry E. Kinney, chief of police, and several of the ranking officers.

Those Arrested.

Those arrested in the breaking up of the crowds gave their names as Arthur Adams, 2017 West Michigan street; Albert Brahaum, 3103 Jackson street; John Gibson, 839 East Market street; Sam Charley, 206½ North Meridian street; Herbert Whitaker, 708 North Lynn street; Warren Bruce, 309 West Market street; Bart Cahill, 910 Michael street; Frank Bobson, 1542 South Alabama street; William Lesiure, 1822 Thalman avenue; George Delk, 116 North Senate avenue; Harry Young, 2325 North Adams street; Thomas Alverson, 1626 North New Jersey street; Clark Hart, 537 North Lynn street; Ennis Wayne, Detroit, Mich.; Thomas Lambert, 925 Holmes avenue; Harry E. Griffith, "city," and Elizabeth Wasson, Edinburg, Ind.

Several other persons were taken to detective headquarters and questioned by Chauncey Manning, supervisor of detectives, regarding their part in the activities. They were released later on their promise to return to their homes.

Although the crowds at no time appeared menacing, police and detectives were well organized and equipped to prevent any outbreaks that might have taken place. Those taken into custody, the police said, were, in the main, persons who persisted in trying to start trouble.

Officials Present.

Mayor Charles W. Jewett, Claris Adams, prosecuting attorney; Felix M. McWhirter, member of the board of safety, and a number of other city and county officials went to police headquarters after hearing that crowds had gathered in the vicinity of the jail, and remained there until after the groups were dispersed.

Hundreds of persons from all parts of the city attended the Huff girl's funeral Thursday afternoon. The services were conducted at the home, 420 Bank avenue, by the Rev. James Jackson, a Pentecost evangelist, and burial was in the Salem church cemetery in West Indianapolis. Six of the little girl's playmates were the pallbearers.

Owing to lack of room only relatives and immediate friends of the family were permitted to hear the services inside the house. Several hundred others, with bared heads, stood on the outside while the services were in progress. A police detail, consisting of Sergeant Voldersauer, Detectives Giles and Coleman and Patrolmen Harris and Wilkerson, was assigned to the house to handle the crowds.

In a second signed statement made to Detectives Dugan and Simon Thursday afternoon, Ray revised some of the statements made in the signed confession following his arrest Wednesday night. He admitted, the detectives say, that he criminally attacked the Huff girl and that his first statement, that he stabbed the girl in a dispute about the return of a $2 bill he had given her, was false. Ray's wife was questioned by detectives today. She is held on a charge of vagrancy.

Governor in Touch.

Governor Goodrich, who is in Chicago, has kept in touch with the trouble here and directed Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, to co-operate to the utmost with city officials in putting down any disorder that might arise.

Although Indianapolis companies of the state militia have been mustered out of service, a great number of the former militiamen called the general last night and volunteered to serve in a company to be raised if necessary.

In event of any serious proportions of trouble, militia companies from nearby towns could be summoned and brought here in accordance with a prearranged schedule.

MEASURE TO INCREASE CITY EMPLOYES' WAGES

PRESENTED TO PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL BY LEMAUX.

WALKOUT LEADS TO ACTION

An ordinance increasing the wages of employés of the departments of the board of public works was today presented to Gus Schmidt, president of the common council, to take before the council for consideration, by George Lemaux, chairman of the board of works. The virtual walkout of the seventy-five employes of the asphalt department because of dissatisfaction with their wages of from 40 to 50 cents an hour, and the spread of this dissatisfaction to other departments under the board of works, led to the action.

Mr. Schmidt did not divulge the amount of increases proposed in the draft of the ordinance presented by the board of works. He said, however, that the council would consider every angle of the wage situation, with a view to making a new schedule fair to every employe. This will require some time, he said, and he said he had no intention of calling a special session of the council to take up the ordinance.

SAYS WAR ON "SUB" DID NOT SHORTEN WORLD CONFLICT

Captain, Pratt Declares America's Greatest Contribution Was in Getting Troops Across.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—American participation in the anti-submarine campaign did not shorten the war a single day, Captain W. V. Pratt said today before the senate naval investigating subcommittee. The greatest contribution the navy made to winning the war was in getting troops abroad, he added.

Captain Pratt who was under cross examination said the only answer he could make to Rear-Admiral Sims' declaration that the department had failed to send enough anti-submarine vessels abroad immediately at the outbreak of war was that the navy did not have more craft of this type and they were not available until the commandeering act was passed in June. There were fifty-one destroyers that could have been sent abroad as soon as war was declared, Captain Pratt testified, adding that he would have sent all of them abroad at once. Chairman Hale had previously developed that this number of United States destroyers was sent in the war zone until March, 1918.

Admiral Sims never sent a "clean cut" plan, he added, which necessitated many requests for legislation.

"If the sub situation was serious as it was pointed out why didn't the British admiralty send some or all of the 11 battleships they had with the grand fleet out to fight the U-boats?" asked Captain Pratt. "They were pretty wise old birds. They knew what the conditions were. Our officers always thought they should have used some of those 111 destroyers.

"I assume they were apprehensive of the German fleet coming out and wanted to be ready to meet it," said Chairman Hale.

"We came to believe they were a little too apprehensive," said the witness.

The hearing was adjourned until Monday when Captain Pratt will resume his testimony.

RETAIL DRUGGISTS WARNED

Use of Sugar Substitutes in Soda Sirups Is Urged by Wyckoff.

Retail druggists must become accustomed to the use of substitutes in making soda sirups, according to Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner for Indiana, who spoke at a meeting of the Druggists' Association at the Chamber of Commerce today.

Mr. Wyckoff said that the sugar shortage showed no signs of being relieved, and that an even greater scarcity was expected. At current prices, which probably will go higher, the use of sugar as in the past in preparing sirups can not easily be continued.

Difficulties experienced by ice cream manufacturers also were recounted by Mr. Wyckoff, who said that many probably would have to curtail their normal output because they were unable to get sufficient supplies.

BIG INFLUENZA DECREASE

March Deaths 951, Against 2,458 for February—Normal Is 450.

Deaths in Indiana in March from influenza and pneumonia dropped to 951 from the February total of 2,458, according to H. M. Wright, state board of health statistician.

The diseases took the heaviest toll of the winter season in February, when the figure was 1,478 higher than for the preceding month. The normal March influenza and pneumonia death total is about 450.

CONFERENCE RESUMED BY LEGION ADJUTANTS

BIRTHDAY PRESENT GIVEN TO MR. D'OLIER.

LUNCHEON FOR DELEGATES

State adjutants of the American Legion, in conference at the Hotel Washington, resumed today discussion of organization and administration matters, eligibility requirement and the Legion emblem. The delegates, as well as the Indiana state officers, were guests of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce at luncheon.

Franklin D'Olier, national commander, announced to the adjutants that he had to return to Philadelphia to be at home for his birthday Sunday, "in response to the command of my C. O." With this notice, the adjutants bought a combination umbrella and cane, which was presented to Mr. D'Olier by Hugh W. Robertson, of New York.

The discussion was under the direction of those in charge of the phases of the work at national headquarters, including the following: Organization, R. G. Creviston; administration, H. C. Frederichs; eligibility, Robert A. Adams; emblem, George H. Rennick.

The afternoon session was scheduled to cover the work of the national legislative committee, national convention program and the membership drive, as well as a discussion of the United States public health service, by William S. Terriberry, and the federal board of vocational education, by R. T. Fisher.

DISCUSSES POTATO PRICES

Tighe Says Retailers Should Not Charge Above 9 Cents.

Potatoes should sell at retail in Indianapolis for not more than 9 cents a pound in the opinion of Charles P. Tighe, agent in charge of the bureau of investigation. He also says the wholesale price should be not more than 7½ cents a pound. Investigation of potato prices by the federal bureau is being made in connection with investigations as to the prices of other necessities.

Market quotations for potatoes today showed a minimum retail price of 9 cents a pound and maximum wholesale quotations of 7 2-3 cents a pound.

Mr. Tighe says most of the potatoes in the hands of the jobbers of Indianapolis have been sold for $6 a hundred pounds, although some have ranged a little higher in price. He says the available supply of potatoes is sufficient to meet needs, but that some of the jobbers are holding out for a wholesale price of 8 cents, while reports are that producers are generally holding out for higher prices. He thinks the entire supply of potatoes now in the city should sell for not more than 9 cents a pound, even though some were bought at a wholesale price that might justify a higher retail price.

TERRE HAUTE PHONE RULING

Unified Service Ordered and New Rate Scale Established.

Unified telephone service at Terre Haute as soon as possible is ordered by the public service commission in a ruling issued today authorizing the Citizens' Independent Telephone Company of Terre Haute to buy the Central Union Telephone Company property there. Another order establishes new rates for the enlarged company.

The new single line business rate is $6 a month; two-party line, $5; single line residence, $2.75; two-party, $2.25; four party, $2; eight-party rural business, $3; residence, $2. The new rates are to yield a 7 per cent. return on a new aggregate valuation estimated tentatively at $1,800,000.

Commissioner F. B. Johnson dissented from one part of the order, although concurring in the principal part and favoring the consolidation. He asserted that the order permits the refunding at 6 per cent. of $602,400 of refunding and extension bonds now outstanding at 5 per cent. and not due until 1936, and asserts that this will result in patrons of the company paying $6,200 a year more interest for sixteen years.

OHLER AS REPRESENTATIVE

Named by Farmers to Look After Shipments at Stockyards.

P. C. Ohler, of Indianapolis, has been chosen as representative of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations to look after interests of shipments following the proposal made to the Indianapolis stockyards, according to a letter sent by the federation to the Indianapolis Live Stock Exchange.

The communication followed a conference Thursday of John G. Brown with the exchange, at which the federation's plan for having a representative in the yards was explained. Mr. Brown was requested to present the proposal in writing so the exchange could take action.

FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER

George Schwander Indicted By Madison County Grand Jury.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ANDERSON, Ind., April 23.—An indictment, charging murder in the first degree, was returned by the Madison county grand jury today against George Schwander, age twenty, who has confessed he shot and killed Joseph Kendall, on the night of March 30 at Elwood, and that his motive was robbery. Arthur Yeley, a young man of Elwood, who had been held as a witness for the grand jury, was released following the grand jury's report, the jury finding that Yeley had nothing to do with the tragedy. Schwander is held in the Madison county jail without bond.

INDIANAPOLIS AND VICINITY

Brief Notes of the Day.

The choir chapter of the church of the Advent gave a card party at the Woman's Department Club this afternoon for the benefit of the choir fund.

The Mar-Se-Lay Club will meet Monday night with Gordon Shaw. The new officers are Henry Stiles, President; Fred Oakes, vice-president; Leroy Ward, secretary; Arthur McCammon, treasurer.

Armenian Dance Pantomime.

An Armenian dance pantomime to be staged by the pupils of Miss Marie Climer's School of Dramatic Dancing, will be given for the benefit of Armenian orphan aid and will have the co-operation of the near east relief committee. The entertainment will be given in Hollenbeck hall at the Y. W. C. A., a tentative date of May 4, having been selected. Miss Mary Cavin, who has recently returned from New York, will have a prominent part in the production, which is to be staged with much detail. The Little Theater Society will provide the lighting effects and Mrs. Helen Bailey and Miss Louise Douglas will execute the scenic background.

Police Say Car Was Stolen.

Lonnie Lemar, age twenty-two, 217 North Richland street, was arrested Thursday night on a charge of vagrancy when he was found by Detectives Rugenstein and Hynes, driving the chassis of a Ford machine, which the detectives allege he had stolen. The engine numbers on the machine had been removed with a chisel. The detectives described the chassis as being a 1917 model. The front fenders were bent. A switch was attached at the side of the coil box and an oil can was found in the pan next to the carburetor. It was equipped with two red Samuel Cupple tires, one Long-Wear tire and one Indiana Rubber and Insulated tire.

Automotive Demonstrations.

Demonstrations of the efficiency of fuels and gasoline substitutes in operating a gasoline engine will be made next Friday evening before the Indfana section of the Society of Automotive Engineers at the Claypool hotel by C. F. Kettering, president of the Dayton Engineering Laboratories Company. The demonstrations will be aided by an optical indicator invented by Thomas Midgley, Jr., which shows in magnified form what occurs inside the cylinders of the engine while it is in operation. Members of the society from Detroit, Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities are expected to attend.

Guests of Eli Lilly & Co.

A party of 100 students from the Louisville School of Pharmacy, headed by Prof. Robert Curry, dean of the school, arrived in Indianapolis today to be the week-end guests of Eli Lilly & Co. The entertainment of the visitors will include a banquet at the Hotel Severin tonight with a theater party at Keith's. This afternoon the pharmacists inspected the laboratories at the Lilly plant. Saturday morning the guests will take interurban cars for the biological farms of the Lilly company, nineteen miles east of the city on the National road.

Street Car Conductor Fined.

Fred Bruning, 2041 North Illinois street, a street car conductor, formerly assistant postmaster at Seymour, Ind., was found guilty of embezzlement by Judge Walter Pritchard, in city court, today, and fined $1 and costs and sentenced to serve five days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended. Bruning was arrested by Detectives Duncan and Simons and was charged with embezzling fares on a North Illinois street car.

Woman Injured in Fall.

Mrs. Barbara Hartenstein, a widow, 724 Prospect street, was injured about the hips Thursday night when she stumbled and fell as she was trying to get out of the way of the police emergency machine, which was responding to a call at Meridian and Maryland streets. Mrs. Hartenstein fell in the path of the machine, but Harry McGlenn, driver, stopped the car in time to avoid striking her.

Large Attendance Assured.

More than 1,000 tickets have been sold for the concert by the music department of Shortridge High School tonight in Caleb Mills hall for the benefit of the French war orphans and the Junior Red Cross. Edward Nell, Jr., who will sing two groups of songs on the program, has been studying voice recently with David Bispham and has not been heard in Indianapolis for some time.

Succeeds C. R. Throckmorton.

T. Carpenter has been appointed assistant traveling agent of the Louisville & Nashville railroad with headquarters in Indianapolis, to succeed C. R. Throckmorton, who has been transferred to St. Louis as assistant city passenger agent. Mr. Carpenter is a ticket clerk at the Union Station. The appointments are effective May 1.

Drunk, Threw Dishes, Alleged.

Eugene L. Coridan, giving his address as 2855 North Illinois street, was arrested early today on charges of drunkenness and malicious destruction of property, after, it is alleged, he had started to wreck the interior of Blacker's chili parlor, 46 West Ohio street. When Motor Policemen Finney and Lansing arrived at the place, Coridan, it is said, had driven the waiters into the rear room and was preparing to break up the dishes. He told the police some one in the place struck him on the head with a blackjack.

Committee on Tax Revision.

A committee on the revision of federal taxes was appointed Thursday at the regular Thursday luncheon of the Indianapolis Association of Credit Men, at the Claypool hotel. Members of the committee are: A. P. Stevenson, chairman; H. F. Pavey, vice-chairman; J. G. Martin, Joseph A. Kebler and J. M. Casweli.

Bond Men to Meet.

The Indianapolis Bond Men's Club will hold its weekly meeting Saturday at 12:30 o'clock at the Columbia Club. The entertainment committee announces some special features on the program.

Transportation Club Dinner.

E. I. Lewis, chairman of the public service commission, will speak before the Transportation Club at a dinner for members and guests at the Hotel Severin Thursday, April 29, at 7 p. m.

SPREADING OVER LOW LAND

White River Rising an Inch an Hour in Daviess County.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

WASHINGTON, Ind., April 23.—White river is spreading over miles of river bottom land in Daviess county, particularly at the confluence of the east and west forks in the southern part of the county. Both forks are rising an inch an hour. The west fork rose eleven inches during the night.

The river is higher than it has been at any time this year. Wheat in the bottom lands is endangered and oats and corn planting probably will be delayed.

Wabash River Falling.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 23.—Danger from floods in the Wabash river was reported passed in this region today, the river having fallen a foot since yesterday. The highest stage reached by the river was twenty-one and one-half feet.

OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

E. A. Kahn Retained at Head of Merchants' Association.

Directors of the Merchants' Association in their annual meeting today at the association headquarters in The News building, re-elected officers as follows: E. A. Kahn, People's Outfitting Company, president; W. B. Wheelock, L. S. Ayres & Co., vice-president; E. G. Hereth, Baldwin Piano Company, secretary; F. D. Stalnaker, Indiana National Bank and Lilly Hardware Company, treasurer, and W. E. Balch, manager.

Election of directors at a meeting Thursday night of the Association at the Indianapolis Club resulted as follows: Mr. Wheelock, Mr. Kahn, James W. Lilly, of the Lilly Hardware Company, and Paul H. Krauss, of the Paul H. Krauss Company. Other members of the board whose terms do not expire until next year are George A. Gay, Pettis Dry Goods Company; A. L. Block, L. Strauss & Co.; Mr. Hereth; E. J. Gausepohl, E. J. Gausepohl & Co., and Robert Lieber, H. Lieber Company. Many men who attended the organization meeting of the association in 1898 were present. In addition to election of directors the program included a dinner and bowling.

Boy Dies of Blood Poisoning.

Blood poisoning, said by physicians to have been caused by the pricking of a pimple with a sewing needle, caused the death last night at the Deaconess Hospital of Robert Oakerson, age thirteen, of Knightstown. The boy was admitted to the hospital a few days ago.

The members of the cast include Elizabeth Nunlist, leading lady; Laurence Neidlinger, leading man; Trent McMath, James Rudell, Clarence Gale, Edna Koss, Dorothy Wilson, Mary Lukens, Katherine Whallon, Ineva Reilly, Doris Reidy, Otto Mardt, Irma Fike, Dorothy Fellows, Thelma Morgan, Frank Trost, Mathew Farson, Frazier Potts, Howard Bates, Albert Zimmerman and Norman Thayer.

LEONARD WOOD LEADS LITERARY DIGEST POLL

TWO WEEKS' FIGURES FOR PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE.

EDWARDS FOR DEMOCRATS

The results of the nation-wide presidential preference poll being taken by the Literary Digest, with the first week's figures added to the second, show Leonard Wood in the lead for the Republican nomination this week as he was last week. Herbert Hoover stands second and Hiram Johnson third, close to Hoover.

On the Democratic side Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, stands first, William G. McAdoo second, and President Wilson third. However, the number of Democratic votes received by Hoover, 9,974, is greater than the total for Edwards, which is 7,568. Not counting the Democratic votes for Hoover, Johnson would stand next to Wood.

First and Second Choice.

The Digest poll shows 32,351 for Wood, and 22,609 for Johnson. It also shows Johnson received 5,584 Democratic votes and Wood 2,993. With the Democratic votes deducted in each case, the Wood lead over Johnson is 12,328.

Wood also received a greater second choice vote than any other candidate, Johnson standing next. The total of first and second choice for Wood is 51,804 and the total first and second for Johnson is 38,989, a majority for Wood of 12,813.

Summary of Poll.

The general summary of the Digest poll is as follows:

	First Choice.	Second Choice.	Democratic Voters.	Republican Voters.	Other Parties.

Johnson and Hoover.

In California Johnson and Hoover are the contestants in the primary campaign. The Digest poll shows 2,679 for Johnson and 2,308 for Hoover. In the state of Washington, which has Senator Poindexter as a candidate for the Republican nomination, Hoover is first, Wood second and Johnson third. Poindexter's vote is not separately recorded in the Digest. It is to be borne in mind that of Hoover's total of 22,908, 9,974 are Democratic votes, and many are votes of other parties or independents. While the Digest poll does not show it in detail, it is probable that Wood's Republican vote in Washington exceeds Hoover's.

Wood's vote in Washington thus far is 1,447, Johnson's 980 and Hoover's 1,924.

States in Groups.

The Digest poll divides the states into groups—the New England, the middle Atlantic, the east north central, west north central, south Atlantic, east south central, west south central, mountain states and Pacific coast states.

It shows that Leonard Wood is at the top in every group except the south Atlantic, east south central and Pacific coast. The vote recorded for the southern states is light, and Hoover leads in those states, presumably with Democratic votes. Hoover also leads in the Pacific coast states.

Ohio Results.

The Ohio results show Harding not far in the lead of Wood. Harding's vote is 9,520 and Wood's 8,079. Ohio is Harding's home state and a primary election is to be held there next Tuesday.

In New Jersey Wood and Johnson are competing. The Digest poll shows 5,303 for Wood and 3,486 for Johnson. The Hoover vote in New Jersey is 3,328.

The figures given for Indiana are small still. They show Wood first, Johnson second and Hoover third.

In nearly all instances Lowden and Harding stand much below Wood and Johnson.

The New York totals give Wood 12,037; Johnson, 9,262; Hoover, 7,373; Lowden, 1,107, and Harding, 1,323.

AMENDMENT VALIDITY UP.

J. Frank Hanly One of Counsel in Ohio Case in Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Argument on the validity of the Ohio constitutional amendment providing for the submission of federal constitutional amendments to the voters of that state were heard today by the supreme court of the United States. The case is an appeal from state supreme court decrees sustaining the amendment. George S. Hawke, of Cincinnati, who started the proceedings, and J. Frank Hanly, former Governor of Indiana, argued that the amendment conflicted with Article 4 of the federal Constitution which provides that federal amendments shall be ratified by the legislatures and that a state may without authority to provide a different method of ratification.

Attorney-General Price, of Ohio, and Lawrence Maxwell, of Cincinnati, contended that the federal Constitution did not require a state to have any particular form of legislature and that the people of a commonwealth had the power to abolish their general assemblies and to take into their own hands all matters of legislation.

HEAR GOVERNOR COX.

Evansville Democrats Go On Special Traction Car to Henderson, Ky.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Special traction cars on the Evansville and Henderson Traction line left today for Henderson, Ky., having been chartered by the local Democrats, who went to Henderson to hear an address by James M. Cox, Governor of Ohio. George Reichman, Democratic county chairman of Vanderburg county, was in charge of the delegation. Gov. Cox, who has been making a tour of Kentucky in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President, spoke at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

STREET CAR COMPANY'S SUPPLY OF COAL IS LOW

OFFICIALS UNABLE TO OBTAIN USUAL TONNAGE.

KNIGHTSTOWN PLANT OUT

Indianapolis street railway officials are worrying about how they are going to obtain coal.

"We normally carry a forty to sixty days' supply of coal," said Dr. Henry Jameson, chairman of the company's board of directors, today, "and we have been struggling vainly ever since the first of the year to reach the smaller figure."

Robert I. Todd, president of the company, said that the greatest accumulation the company has had this year was about twenty days' supply.

"We are slipping back all the time, in spite of all we can do," he added. "Now we have scarcely more than ten days' supply on hand. First it was the coal strike, and now it is the switchmen's strike."

The company obtains most of its coal from the Terre Haute and Linton fields.

The Knightstown municipal water department has appealed to the public service commission to help it obtain coal. The supply ran out Thursday night. The commission conferred with railroad officials in an effort to get coal to the utility. Failure to obtain coal is laid to the switchmen's strike.

DIXIE BEE LINE BODY TO PUSH RIVER BRIDGE PLANS

Interstate Committee Will Work For the Building of Structures Over Ohio and White Rivers.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Following the meeting of the Interstate Good Roads Congress and the Dixie Bee Line Association yesterday, the Dixie Bee Line vice-presidents from the counties in Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee held a meeting last night, and decided that the Dixie Bee Line road will be built as originally designated, running from Danville, Ill., to Adams, Tenn., where it will connect with the Dixie highway.

Resolutions also were passed providing for the appointment of a committee of fourteen, representing Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, to urge the construction of a bridge across the Ohio river at Evansville and another across White river at Hazleton. This committee, backed by the association, will make an effort to bring the bridge plans before the various Governors, and will appeal personally to the legislatures of the three states and to the federal government. The two bridges are considered important links in the highway, and would afford uninterrupted traffic from Chicago to Nashville.

Benjamin Bosse, mayor of Evansville, and president of the Dixie Bee Line Association, said that Mayor Thompson, of Chicago, had assured him that he was in favor of the bridge project.

Mayor Bosse was unanimously re-elected president of the Dixie Bee Line Association. Other officers re-elected are as follows: Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes, vice-president; John C. Keller, of Evansville, secretary, and W. A. Koch, treasurer.

TO ADJUST EXPRESS CLAIMS

R. R. Inman to Represent Business Concerns of State.

B. R. Inman, manager of the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce, will leave Sunday morning for New York city for the purpose of adjusting claims a number of business concerns of the state have against the old Adams Express Company.

Mr. Inman said that if there are any other business concerns that have claims against the company to be adjusted and who desire him to try to settle the claims at this time he will do so. Mr. Inman will be in the offices of the State Chamber of Commerce, No. 816, Merchants Bank building, until 5 p. m., Saturday.

Theta Xi Founder's Day.

The Theta Xi fraternity, an engineering school Greek letter organization, will hold its annual Founder's day celebration at the Athenæum Saturday. Delegations from Lafayette, Terre Haute, Columbus, O., St. Louis and elsewhere are expected. Approximately 150 persons, including many prominent engineers, will attend.

Infringement Suit Filed.

An injunction and damages are asked in a suit for alleged infringement of trade-mark filed in the federal court by John W. Zimmerer, of Ft. Thomas, Ky., against Carl C. Beatty, of Ft. Wayne. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant has been making use of the trade-mark "Fire-Fly Strain," adopted by the plaintiff to designate chickens and eggs he sells.

CANDIDATES RACE TO COVER MORE TERRITORY

FESLER, M'CRAY AND TONER HOPPING OVER STATE.

DEMOCRATS NOT SO BUSY

A contest is on between the Republican candidates for the nomination for Governor to see which of the three can visit the most cities and towns in Indiana and to come into personal contact with the most people. The reverse is true among the four Democratic candidates, who are doing some visiting, but are spending most of the time at their homes. It is generally felt that there is not much use for the Democratic candidates to exert themselves unduly or to spend much money, as it seems likely that Dr. Carleton B. McCulloch, of Indianapolis, will be the nominee.

J. W. Fesler, of Indianapolis, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, spent the day in Shelby county, and has planned to attend a meeting of colored voters at the Bethel M. E. church tonight. He will go to Tipton Saturday and will make an address in Frankfort in the evening. Warren T. McCray, of Kentland, visited points in Lawrence county today and was to speak at Bedford this evening. Edward C. Toner, of Anderson, will speak tonight at Terre Ha .

Reports From the Field.

Reports still indicate that Mr. Fesler is making considerable gains. There are also indications that Mr. Toner is gaining some, principally from the McCray strength. The McCray workers are becoming more active than ever and express positive assurance that McCray will win the primaries. Reports from Lake county are to the effect that the Fesler sentiment has been growing in Lake county. Lawrence Lyons, manager of Mr. McCray's campaign, has gone to Lake county to take personal direction of the McCray interests there, it is said. Ralph B. Bradford, treasurer of Lake county, has notified Fesler headquarters that conditions in that county are looking good for Mr. Fesler.

According to word from the Fifth district, Parke county is safely for Mr. Fesler, and Fesler enthusiasts are predicting he will carry every county in the district with the exception of one, where they say he is making good progress. Homer D. Elliott, of Martinsville, says Mr. Fesler will carry the Second district. Mr. Fesler was born at Morgantown, near Martinsville. Lee Herr, of Tell City, says Mr. Fesler is making large gains in the Third district.

Moores on Anti-Lynching Bill.

While Merrill Moores, who is seeking renomination for congressman from the Seventh district, was speaking Thursday night to an audience of colored voters at the Bethel M. E. church on the anti-lynching bill pending before the congress, announcement was made that a crowd was collecting near the jail. Mr. Moores left the meeting and went to the jail where he offered his services to Sheriff Miller.

Luke W. Duffey, who is seeking the Republican nomination for congressman from this district, has announced a platform which includes the following: Better Americanism, a national budget system, reduction in war taxes by extending the paying period, extension of foreign and domestic commerce and the creation of a greater merchant marine, equal suffrage, just findings for labor grievances, voluntary military training, an optional soldiers' bonus and the pooling of the war risk insurance board, the health bureau and the vocational education department, government aid for housing problems by the enactment of a measure akin to the federal land bank bill to standardize the loan market on American homes, an anti-lynching law and other constructive measures.

William R. Higgins, of Indianapolis, has been chosen as manager for the campaign of Mr. Moores, and he will be at Mr. Moores's office in the People's Bank building.

Factory Meetings for Fesler.

Several noon meetings were held at factories today on behalf of Mr. Fesler. William McMaster spoke at the Keyless Lock Company plant. Judge James A. Collins will speak tonight for Mr. Fesler at Seventeenth street and Roosevelt avenue, Mr. McMaster will speak at 548 South West street, and Harry E. Yockey at Southeastern avenue and Trowbridge street. A reception to colored candidates will be given on the evening of April 29 at the Ebenezer Baptist church, California and North streets under the auspices of the young people's congress. Among the speakers will be the Rev. C. S. Williams, the Rev. Floyd Morris, Dr. James R. Norrell and Silas Pritchett.

CAR OF POTATOES FOUND.

Wyckoff Took Action to Seize and Sell the Shipment.

Following a message from Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner for Indiana, concerning a carload of potatoes, found by Big Four officials, and consigned by a Minneapolis firm to itself in this city, the company telegraphed that the potatoes were to be offered for sale at once in this city.

According to the information supplied Mr. Wyckoff the carload was consigned here apparently for the purpose of holding the consignment until prices were increased, and he notified the firm to telegraph him disposition of the consignment on penalty of having it seized and placed on the market at current prices.

F. R. Long Dies of Injuries.

Fred Robert Long, 1248 Ashland avenue, operator of a railroad turntable at the Big Four shops in Brightwood, died Thursday at the Deaconess Hospital as a result of a fracture of the skull. Dr Paul F. Robinson, coroner, who investigated the case, said Long was injured when he fell into the turntable pit.

PRAISES LIBERTY BOND TRADING IN SECURITIES

ASSISTANT SECRETARY LEFFINGWELL IS PLEASED.

EXPLAINS PRESENT PRICES

[By the United Press]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Liberty bonds gave a "wonderfully good account of themselves," Assistant Secretary Leffingwell, of the treasury department, said today, in discussing the recent period of great depreciation of miscellaneous securities. This period came to a climax Wednesday when the New York Stock Exchange suffered the most hectic day in months through a rush of selling orders which broke quotations of practically all securities.

"But I am told that a feature of Thursday's Liberty bond market," said Mr. Leffingwell, "was the unusually large buying of small lots by investors. Liberty bonds are standing on their own feet without artificial support."

The assistant secretary cited yesterday's market closing prices of Liberty bonds. Of the nine government issues of the great war period, seven showed increases as last night's closing over the closing prices of the previous day when all securities broke.

Mr. Leffingwell and other treasury officials agreed in the conclusion that Liberty bonds and Victory notes would reach par.

He gave the following explanation of why Liberty bonds and Victory notes are now below par:

"The Liberty bonds, like other bonds, are subject to market influences, including the law of supply and demand, and their market quotations have declined in consequence of the failure of the great investing public to save in proportion to the enormous expenditures of capital during and since the war."

A Desert of Few Oases.

[Birmingham Age-Herald]

"You speak of your country as a 'Sahara'," said the foreign visitor.

"It's bone dry," replied the American citizen.

"But aren't there oases here and there?"

"We have a few cellars here and there, but they are so strictly guarded they have baffled some of our most talented burglars."

SEES 50-CENT GASOLINE BEFORE SUMMER IS OVER

FORREST'S PREDICTION, SPEAKING TO GAS MEN.

GAS OIL SCARCITY CITED

The prediction that gasoline will be 50 cents a gallon before the summer is over was made incidentally by J. Dorsey Forrest, general manager of the Citizens Gas Company, of Indianapolis, at a conference twenty-five Hoosier gas manufacturers held with the public service commission Thursday afternoon.

"Unless gas oil is diverted from the pleasure car to the kitchen range there will be a very serious situation in Indiana soon," said S. E. Mulholland, of Ft. Wayne, vice-president of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric Light Company.

"It is not as much the problem of the gas companies as of the homes." Gas oil is used in enriching water gas. It formerly sold for 2 or 3 cents a gallon, but now is 11 and 12 cents. The scarcity of the article, as a consequence of its use in the production of high priced gasoline, is worrying the gas manufacturers more than the price, they said.

Mr. Mulholland proposed the reduction of the gas heating units to 500 or 530 B. T. U. to help improve the situation. The present standard is 600 B. T. U. Manufacturers thus could make their gas oil supply last twice as long as under present conditions, he said. It was asserted that unless some solution of the problem is found a grave situation will obtain in Indiana this fall, by which time the supply practically will be exhausted.

Mr. Forrest said that unless the gas companies can use less gas oil in producing gas, practically every gas company in the state will have to raise the price.

The conference agreed that the problem is one of national scope, and that little can be done in Indiana alone toward remedying the situation. They called on E. L. Lewis, chairman of the commission who is a member of the executive committee of the National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners, to lay the situation before that organization. He will do so soon.

COLONELS THROW HAT INTO BALL PARK RING

HENDRICKS FAILS TO HOOK PITCHER AT CHICAGO—TRIBE HITS TRAIL TUESDAY.

The Louisville Colonels, with blood in their eyes, arrived today for a series with the Indians. There also is some blood in the tribe's eyes just because the Colonels are here. It's always that way when these clubs meet. The Colonels have not been going well and while they are full of alibis at having won only one victory in five starts, they expect to take a fall out of the Indians in the present series and move up.

Manager McCarthy has a car load of pitchers, but so far they have shown little except prayers. However, he expects to weed out the bums and square away for a grand hop-off. The club has much the same lineup as last season. Games with the Indians are scheduled to include Monday, after which the Indians will leave for a month's trip around the entire circuit. Rain threatened today's game.

Hendricks Returns.

Manager Jack Hendricks returned from Chicago today and he was a much disappointed baseball boss. He took advantage of an off day and visited Fred Mitchell, manager of the Cubs and tried to talk Mitchell out of a pitcher. The Cubs have been going poorly and Mitchell refused to part with any of his surplus stock. Hendricks also saw Pat Moran, of the Reds and Pat had nothing for sale. That's the condition nearly everywhere. The big leaguers refuse to part company even with their rookies.

No word has been received from President Smith, who is in the east scouting for pitchers. He is expected to return here Saturday or Sunday. In the meantime the Smith bank roll is being held up in a tantalizing manner before the big league bosses and a plum or two may fall to the tribe at any time.

Not so Badly Off.

The Indians are not so badly off as some of the other A. A. clubs. They have Cavet, Crum and Rogge as good a trio as can be found on any single club and besides there are Murray and Adams. Hendricks is confident that Murray will round out into a winning pitcher with more experience and Adams is working overtime to get into his old condition lost by long service in the war.

And there is another pitcher not to be overlooked without a trial and he wants it. He is no other than Rob Russell who has won a regular berth in the tribe outfield. The former famous star believes he can come back as a pitcher and he has asked to take a whirl in the box. The fans would like to see him in there and if he fails to shine again he can trot right back into the outfield.

BASEBALL SIDELIGHTS

Today is ladies' day at Washington park.

Carrying out the idea of southern hospitality the Colonels held the Reds over in Louisville an extra day and handed them a ball game. Ten bases on balls were dished up by three Louisville hurlers.

Mike Kelly walked three times, was hit once and doubled once in six trips to the plate.

Joe McCarthy and his athletes spent a restless night after the Hen defeat but were on hand to tackle the Indians today.

Babe Ruth swung at three fast ones so hard he strained his back and had to leave the game. The Yanks pounded three Athletic pitchers and won.

Kid Gleason stepped into first place and the Tigers sank deeper in the hole when the White Sox won 6 to 2. Chicago hasn't lost a game and Detroit hasn't won one.

Cvrolesikie threw a dammer on the Brown's opening party in St. Louis. Speaker's artillery mauled four pitchers.

Alexander finally won a game with the help of Turner Barber, who tripled in the eleventh inning with Herzog on base, putting over a run that beat the Reds.

With lots of the notables in the stands Washington came back to life and gave the Red Sox their first defeat, 6 to 5.

Challengers Get Busy.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Six of the members of the crew that will sail on the Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV in the America cup races this summer were working on the yacht here today. They arrived yesterday from Southampton.

EVEN WORK IN 'EM.

There is an overalls club out at Butler College, which is not confined to parading up and down the campus in spotless denim. Members of this Butler overalls club don't even have to have the overalls. The important requisite is the will to work.

Whenever a member of the overalls club has no class he saunters to Irwin field, picks up one of the garden tools and begins working.

Members of the overalls club already have re-made the straightaway on the Butler cinder track.

SKATING EVENTS OPEN BIG OLYMPIC CONTESTS

U. S. ATHLETES READY TO TEST STRENGTH WITH OTHER NATIONS AT ANTWERP.

ANTWERP, April 23.—The United States hockey team will play Switzerland in the opening round of the Olympic games hockey tournament here Saturday afternoon, according to the draw made for the seven contesting nations last night. Six teams were paired in the opening round, with France drawing a bye. The final game for the championship and first place will be played at the ice palace here Monday night. Unless there is an unexpected upset it is the consensus of opinion among hockey experts that the United States seven will face the Canadian Falcons, of Winnipeg, in the championship match.

Informal ceremonies only are to mark the opening of the games. The Belgian Olympic committee, the officials of the city of Antwerp and a representative of King Albert will extend a welcome to the visiting skaters and the new palace will be dedicated officially and turned over to Cornelius Fellowes, president of the International Skating Union and manager of the American team.

After the hockey and figure skating contests, yachting comes next on the program for July 7 to 10. Polo follows from July 15 to August 2; rifle and pistol shooting July 24-31, and cycling August 9-12.

The real ceremonies are to come on August 14, when the track and field games are to start, following the opening of the stadium. The king and queen are to be present with their court attendants and prominent officials of the nation. A parade of the nations is to be one of the features.

The track and field games run from August 14 to 23; tennis, August 15-23; boxing, August 15-26; fencing, August 15-28; Greco-Roman wrestling, August 15-26; swimming, August 22-29; archery, August 22-29; gymnastics, August 22-29; weight lifting, August 23-28; modern pentathlon, August 24-27; rowing, August 27-29; catch-as-catch-can wrestling, August 27-31; football, August 25 to September 5; hockey (grass) September 1-5; equestrian games, September 6-12.

SCRAP NEWS and GOSSIP

FRENZIED FINANCE.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 23.—Billy Gibson, manager of Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard, announced today that Dave Driscoll, fight promoter of Jersey City, had offered Leonard $100,000 for three eight-round no decision bouts. This is said to be a record for the lightweight division.

Dempsey's Case May 30.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The case against Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, accused by the government of evading the selective draft act, and his manager, Jack Kearns, charged with aiding Dempsey, will probably not come to trial for some time, Federal Judge Frank S. Dietrich continued the cases, at the instance of attorneys for the accused men, until May 30.

Mystery About Pugilist.

PARIS, April 23.—Blink McCloskey, an American pugilist who for the last nine or ten years has been prominent in fistic circles of Europe, has been missing since March 8, and friends fear he may have been the victim of foul play. The torso of a man found in the Seine just outside of Paris recently has been viewed by men well acquainted with McCloskey, and they have expressed the opinion the body may be that of the missing pugilist.

McCloskey left his hotel on March 8, having $200 on his person, which he told Johnny Coulon and Bis Mackay, also American fighters, he intended to convert into francs.

Bouts at South Bend.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—Teddy Murphy, of Chicago, fought Bill Henry, Great Lakes featherweight champion, to a draw in a fast ten-round bout here last night. Murphy's clever ability to block Henry's rushes and his continual use of the left jab evened up the navy boy's powerful attack with the left hook, which he mastered throughout the bout. A semi-windup of eight rounds furnished the real excitement of the evening. Jimmy Kelly, of Milwaukee, outpointing Johnny Hagen, of Chicago, in a fierce scrap. Kelly's speed and ever boring aggressiveness compelled Hagen to give all the way.

Victory for Jeff Smith.

LONDON, April 23.—Jeff Smith, the Bayonne (N. J.) middleweight, last night knocked out Bandaman Rice in the second round of what was to have been a twenty-round bout. The men met in the Holborne stadium.

Dalton After Lightweights.

Jerry Dalton, Indianapolis boxer, who has many victories to his credit as a featherweight, is now after the best boys in the lightweight division. He is out to meet all comers, ranging in weight from 130 to 133 pounds. Dalton is under the management of Nate Farb.

Match for Kilbane.

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Cal Delaney, Cleveland, and Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York lightweight, will meet here in a ten-round bout next Thursday, it was announced today.

Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, announced he would meet Frankie Fleming in a ten-round bout at Toledo on May 3.

STATE BOWLING RESULTS.

FT. WAYNE, Ind., April 23.—Three teams in the five-man event last night got into the select ten-team division.

The Berry Buffets, of Ft. Wayne, rolled 2,783, putting them in third place; the Pastime five, of Ft. Wayne, with 2,777 took fourth position, and the City Hall five, of Ft. Wayne, with 2,691, crowded into eighth place.

In the singles L. Hartman, of Huntington, got a tie for tenth place with 601.

Top Row—Birchau, Shirley, Campbell, Corbin, Sauer, Jones, McCaw, Pursell, Hills, Pierce and Habbe. Middle Row—Leonard, Swain, Kelso, Phillips, Lindsey, Bohn, Lynas, Johnson, Lohrei, Loomis and Clymer. Bottom Row—Konrad, Gillespie, Hauss, Powell, Corbin, Ferguson, Captain Williams, Coach Rathbun, Merrill, Warner, Keeling, Bullock.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 23.—This is the great track squad from which Coach Guy L. Rathbun will choose his performers in the Indiana-Franklin dual meet to be held at Franklin Saturday. It is by all odds the most formidable track and field squad Indiana has ever turned out.

Six "I" men are included in the group—Captain Williams, who is entered in the high jump and low and high hurdle events; Purcell, high and broad jumper; Phillips, who throws the javelin, puts the shot, hurls the discus and takes time out to broad jump; Lindsey, a veteran hurdler, and Bullock, a midget pole vaulter. Others who give promise of winning their events are: Konrad and Johnson, sprints and hurdles; McCaw, distance runs; Pierce, weights, and Habbe, half-mile.

CHINK PUG COMING.

NEW YORK, April 23.—George Lee, a Chinese boxer, who has made a big hit out on the far coast, is coming east for bouts. The Celestial glove swinger is extremely clever and he packs a wallop. He is managed by Ancil Hoffman, a Sacramento sporting man, who thinks so well of his chances that he decided to take the long trip in search of bigger purses than they put up in California. The Oriental scrapper is a bantam and can make the class limit without any trouble. He wants to meet the best of the midgets.

MANUAL RUNNERS DASH AWAY WITH TRACK MEET

The Manual Training High School track team ran away from Brownsburg and Shortridge in the triangular track meet at Willard park Thursday afternoon, gaining more points than both of its opponents together. The score stood Manual, 51; Brownsburg, 32, and Shortridge, 16. Webb, of Brownsburg, was the high point getter, making 12 points with one first and two seconds. The Manual relay team easily won the mile relay, the last Red and White runner sprinting in on the home stretch a full fifty yards ahead of his nearest opponent. The winners of each event follow:

100-Yard Dash—Whitney, Manual. Time, 10 4-5 seconds.
220-Yard Dash—Webb, Brownsburg. Time, 24 2-5 seconds.
120-Yard Hurdles—Fulton, Shortridge. Time, 18 4-5 seconds.
Shotput—Caldwell, Shortridge. Distance, 37 feet 7 inches.
220-Yard Low Hurdles—Summers, Manual. Time, 29 2-5 seconds.
440-Yard Dash — Whiteside, Manual. Time, 59 1-5 seconds.
880-Yard Dash—Gardner, Manual. Time, 2 minutes 14 seconds.
Mile Run—Ayers, Brownsburg. Time, 5 minutes 11 seconds.
High Jump—DeMotte, Manual. Hight, 5 feet 4 inches.
Running Broad Jump—Summers, Manual. Distance, 19 feet 3 inches.
Pole Vault—E. Harmeson, Manual. Hight, 9 feet 7 inches.

Butler Downs Technical.

Butler won its second straight with Technical high on the Irwin field diamond Thursday afternoon, 8 to 1. The college outfit displayed the best form it has yet shown. Staton puzzled the Tech batsmen, while Butler was able to register heavy hitting. Butler had no regular game scheduled for today. The Bell Telephone club will be played Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A. B. C.'s Win at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 23.—The A. B. C.'s, of Indianapolis, won yesterday from the Morehouse University club, 19 to 3. Home runs were hit by Charleston, Shively, Taylor and Rile. The score:

										R.	H.	E.
A. B. C.'s	2	0	4	0	4	1	7	0	1—19	18	0
Morehouse	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	1	0—3	7	5

Batteries—Rile and Powell; Bowen, Smith and Kelley.

Butler Tennis Men Caper; Other Courts Are Flooded

While members of the regular city courts will not be able to get on their courts before the last of the month, Butler College players are enjoying the top of the spring on Butler-Audubon courts, at South Audubon Circle, in Irvington. The Blue and White team has been on its own courts for the last ten days, and despite the heavy rains of last week-end, the courts are again in good condition.

Because of the condition of the courts at the Indianapolis Tennis Association, the Butler-I. T. A. meet has been put off until in May. An intermural round robin will be begun the last week in this month.

KIDDIES FLOCK FORTH FOR 1920 TRACK MEET

YOUNG AMERICANS SWEEP DOWN ON IRVINGTON, FATHERED BY H. O. PAGE.

Half Way Standing

At the end of the morning's event the standing was as follows:

Center township, 19½ points.
Perry township, 18 points.
Washington township, 17½ points.
Franklin township, 5 points.
Beech Grove township, 2 points.
Wayne township, 1 point.

Young America swept down on Irvington early this morning for the annual Marion county grade and grammar school field day. The youngsters made an all-day affair of it; they brought their lunches, their teachers, and, in many cases, their families. The meet, which was held on Irwin field, chased all Butler College athletes back to their books, for it was the kiddies' day and they made the most of it.

There were events of every kind for everybody, devised to satiate young America's super pep. Hoosier athletic stars in the embryo, Hoosier athletic stars in the bud, and some of 'em almost in bloom, were discovered during the day.

The schools came with all the hopes and support that are to be expected. Some of the "veterans" of other meets even had devised yells for the occasion. A picnic it was, and home-packed picnic lunches made the Butler collegians hungry long before luncheon period. The meet was conducted under the direction of Coach H. O. Page, of Butler.

The events were as follows:

Standing broad jump, running broad jump, standing high jump, running high jump, standing hop, step and jump, shot put, 100-yard dash, forty-yard dash, fifty-yard dash, forty-yard relay, girls' 880-yard relay, boys' stilt race, 100 feet, twelve-inch stilts, open; tug o' war, box kite contest, open; pushmobile race, 440 yards; folk dance, and patriotic drill.

COLLEGE BASEBALL.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 23.—The University of Kentucky Wildcats easily downed DePauw University here yesterday afternoon, 4 to 2. Tom Grubbs, Wildcat pitcher, fanned thirteen. A hit batsman, a walk and a single in the first inning gave the visitors their two runs. The score:

TIGERS LACK PITCHING; GIANTS UNABLE TO HIT

EARLY SEASON RESULTS GIVE INTERESTING FACTS ON REQUIREMENTS FOR WINNER.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Wise heads of baseball differ on the respective value of batting and pitching.

Pat Moran, one of the smartest men in baseball, prefers a big stable of pitchers. John McGraw rates the pitching staff at close to 75 per cent. of the club's strength. Kid Gleason leans a little bit to hitting as the most valuable asset.

Other managers differ. Results so far this season give some interesting evidence.

Take the Detroit Tigers, one of the heaviest hitting teams in the American League, a club with the greatest slugging outfield in baseball, with the champion of the league, and a quintet of regular every-day .300 swatters.

Murderers' Row.

The Tigers are in last place. They haven't won a game this season. Cobb, Flagstaff, Veach, Heilman and Bush can knock the cover off the ball, to no avail. Detroit isn't getting the pitching, and while those sluggers are pounding out hits by flocks, the weaker hitting opposition is having a similar carnival off poor pitching or walking around by the gift of wild hurlers.

Miserable pitching is keeping Jennings in the cellar. He hasn't had a top-notch staff for years. Detroit annually has been picked as a runner-up when the dopesters ran over the "murderers' row" in the lineup, but the Tigers have consistently fallen a victim to the pitching malady.

John McGraw has one of the best pitching staffs in baseball, yet the Giants are in the last hole. The team isn't hitting. It's in a batting slump and some good pitching has been wasted.

Toney and Benton have pitched two games that would have turned in a victory with minor league support at the bat, but the New Yorkers couldn't deliver and the Giants have only one victory to their credit.

Sherlock Holmes, the great detective, stooped down and lifted a smart, light gray felt hat from the motley assortment piled up in the political ring.
"Gentlemen," he said, "the wearer of this hat is the man you want. He has judgment, thrift, a sound sense of values and is already a successful man in his community—a man you will be proud to have represent you."
The crowd gasped in amazement. "How can you tell all that, just from his hat?"
"Simple, gentlemen, extremely simple," the great detective said. "He wears a LEVINSON HAT!"

In the Midst of the World's Highest Clothing Prices

Few tailors nowadays are advertising their prices and the average layman is accordingly in the dark on this subject. Kahn prices are not prohibitive and are quoted in every announcement we make. Aside from that of quality they are the strongest argument we have to offer. Don't compare them with what you have been paying in the past (you must pay more now unless you are willing to forego quality) but with the prices of good clothes now in effect elsewhere.
We Will Make You a Splendid Suit to Measure as Low as $50 and Up
(Ready-for-Service Prices Are $35, $40, $50, $55 and Up)
You should know beyond a doubt that the money you spend for clothes these days is bringing you a full return. It is possible now to buy poor clothes or good clothes, as it always has been. You had best be assured that you are not investing in the former—you can not use too much care in spending your clothes money appropriation nowadays.

LOCAL NAGS GROOMED FOR BIG TROT HANDICAP AT READVILLE

Announcement of a trotting handicap to be raced at Readville, Mass., in August, with a purse of $10,000, starts gossip anent possible nominations from this city. McGregor the Great, 2:03¼, the 1919 star of the Cox stable, is considered pretty certain to be named, inasmuch as the great stallion is somewhat confined for engagements, being ineligible to anything lower than a 2:04 class. The handicaps let in all horses irrespective of records, for the management aims, as in previous races of this nature, to equalize chances by imposing a space handicap on the faster horses. Those horses eligible to 2:15 and slower events will go one mile, exactly, starting from the wire, while those with faster records will start at such a distance back of the wire as expert handicappers believe would bring down their chance for monopolization of the money to an even money basis. Early Dreams, 2:03¼, that trotting hero of the McDonald stable, which caused a big uproar in the ranks of the stake candidates three years ago, and showed last year that he could come back, may also be named for the big event which will be the leading feature of the Grand circuit at Boston's suburban track.

Greatest of All Coups.

It is of interest in this connection that twelve years ago over the same track a handicap with conditions quite similar, but worth $50,000, was won by Allen Winter, 2:06¼, owned by M. H. Reardon, of this city, and driven by Lon McDonald. Allen Winter had no racing experience but had been carefully schooled for the big event—so carefully, in fact, that in spite of the strict attention of the handicappers his real form was not disclosed until race day. The winning stands as one of the greatest coups of American harness racing. The distance in that event was one and a quarter miles, and the son of Ed Winter negotiated the route in 2:46.

The system then installed for giving every possible attention to providing a fair start was exceedingly elaborate. Two preliminaries were raced, to weed out the topheavy field, and thirteen horses came out for the final test. Electric buttons at each station where horses were waiting for the signal to start, were connected with a master button which controlled a large gong, so that it was necessary for the attendants at each position to signal their readiness before the start was made.

DE PAUW OUTLINES PLANS FOR NEW ATHLETIC FIELD

GREENCASTLE, Ind., April 23.—Authoritative announcement was made here today by E. C. Buss, athletic director of DePauw, of plans perfected by the athletic board of the university calling for a new athletic field here, the cost of which will total more than $50,000. The new field will replace McKeen field.

Coach Buss said that an option had been obtained on a seven-acre lot adjacent to the present ball park and that the athletic board of which Guernsey Van Riper, of Indianapolis, is chairman, is only waiting on complete surveys and estimates before buying the property. The ground is known as the Cook property.

The board in session in Indianapolis Wednesday went over preliminary plans and surveys. The plans call for two baseball diamonds, a quarter mile track with a 220-yard straightaway, a gridiron and a number of tennis courts. Concrete bleachers are called for in the plans submitted to the board. The field will cover a plot of ground 740 feet in length and 570 feet in width.

Coach Buss says that every effort will be made if the board accepts the plans and buys the field, to get the gridiron in condition for the opening of the 1920 football season.

Notre Dame at Drake.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—Notre Dame wil be represented at the Drake relays Saturday by a one, and two-mile team. Captain Eddie Meehan will run anchor for both teams.

TERRE HAUTE GETS MEET.

The 1920 track and field meet of the Indiana Collegiate Athletic League will be held at Terre Haute, May 22, according to Prof. E. N. Johnson, a member of the Butler athletic committee. The meet was awarded to Butler, but was transferred to Terre Haute as a more suitable place for this year's event. Butler will enter a team. The track meet loss will not disturb the league tennis championships, which will be played on the Butler-Audubon courts in Irvington May 22, three days after the Indiana intercollegiate tourney, also to be played here under Butler auspices.

South African Tennisers

NEW YORK, April 23.—Plans for the restoration of international tennis are not confined to the United States, according to a letter from South Africa, received today. The South African Davis cup team will reach Europe in time to play in the hard court championship tournament at Paris, May 22, and will later play at Wimbledon, England, and in the Olympic games, in addition to their Davis cup preliminary matches. The African team will not reach Europe in time for the hard court tournament, but will play in the English championship.

Race for Old-Timers

BALTIMORE, Md., April 23.—Jockeys of a decade ago will furnish entertainment in an oldtimers' race that is being arranged for the coming meet at Pimlico. So many veterans of the saddle are entering that it may be necessary to run the race in sections.

New Olympic Golf Dates.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Notification of a change in the dates of the Olympic games golf tournament made at the request of the American Olympic committee was received at the headquarters of that body today. The tournament will be held during the last week of June or the first week of July. It was originally planned to hold the matches in August or September.

Noblesville Is First.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., April 23.—At the track and field meet held by the high schools of Noblesville, Sheridan and Westfield here Thursday afternoon Noblesville finished with Noblesville, 50 1-2 points. Westfield made 35 2-3 and Sheridan 22. Smith of Noblesville, and Northam, of Sheridan, were the stars of the meet, each scoring thirteen points for his team.

Notre Dame Beats Wabash.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Wabash College opened the season at Ingalls field yesterday, losing to Notre Dame in a six-inning swatfest, 18 to 2. Notre Dame's sluggers pounded the offerings of the three Wabash hurlers to all corners of the lot.

Heald started to pitch for the Scarlet, and was relieved by Harding. Martin substituted for Harding in the sixth inning. Notre Dame scored in every one of the innings, getting five runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings, and its other tally came in lined out a home run with the bases full. Wabash scored in the first inning, and their other tally came in the sixth, on a home run by Schoenlaud. Russie, an Indianapolis man, caught for Wabash and put up a scrappy game.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kind help and sympathy shown us during the late sickness and death of our beloved brother, John Murray. We also wish to thank the American Red Cross, Dr. O. J. Allrich and J. C. Wilson, the undertaker, for their kind services. Our thanks are also extended to our many friends for the beautiful floral offerings. THE BROTHERS AND SISTERS.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness shown during the illness and death of our dearly beloved baby. MR. AND MRS. WALTER WACHSTETTER.

In Loving Remembrance

of our dear father, James Armitage, who departed this life April 23, 1915. Sad was the hour and fatal the day when they took our dear father away. We saw him suffer and heard him sigh with aching hearts and weeping eyes. We saw him sinking hour by hour, yet could not stay death's awful horror. Now he calmly sleeps at last. All pain, all aches, all suffering past. God called him home. It was His will. Oh, could those days return, how happy we would be. 'Tis sweet to be remembered and a pleasant thing we find, that though he may be absent, he is still kept in our minds. SADLY MISSED BY WIFE AND SONS, WILLIAM AND JAMES ARMITAGE.

In Loving Remembrance

of our dear mother, Anna Biederkleid, who died 7 years ago today, April 23. What is home without a mother; all the things the world may send for when we lost our mother, we lost our dearest friend; you wore the crown of patience, the years you struggled on and those hands that rest forever, were the hands that made our loving home. SAMMIE AND HARRY.

In Loving Remembrance

of our dear daughter and sister, Essie Reid Mann, who passed away one year ago today, April 23, 1919. She always had a cheerful word, her smiles we see them yet; her tender love for every one we never shall forget. She is not gone—she's just away upon that golden shore, where the lights that shone so bright while here, shall shine for ever more. PARENTS, BROTHERS, SISTER.

In Loving Remembrance

of our dear son and brother, Roy Reineberg, who died April 23, 1918. Two sad years have passed since we saw dear Roy last. God called him home; it was His will. Oh could those days return how happy we would be. 'Tis sweet to be remembered and a pleasant thing we find, that though he may be absent, he is still kept in our mind. MOTHER, BROTHER, SISTER.

In Loving Remembrance

of our beloved wife, daughter and sister, Essie M. Mann, who departed this life 1 year ago today, April 23, 1919. The gates of heaven were open, a gentle voice said come, and with farewell unspoken, she softly entered home. Sadly missed by HUSBAND, PARENTS, BROTHERS AND SISTERS.

In Loving Remembrance

of my twin brother, Arthur F. Camden, who passed away 12 years ago today, April 23, 1908. Long years may dry the bitter tears and calm and sooth the pain, but love will keep your memory green until we meet again. BROTHER.

HAVE

you learned a "trade" that enables you to get a fat envelope every Saturday? Or do you just work around from one "job" to another?

Knowing a good "trade" is like having money in the bank. You always have capital on which to rely. If you contemplate learning a trade why not choose because it is one that is solely for women; is the lightest of the needle trades, has no dull season, is neither noisy nor greasy, has no disagreeable odors, pays high rates and is located out of the factory district in plenty of sunshine and fresh air.

Glove Making,

WANTED—To help you raise all the chicks you hatch. Raise them the PAN-A-CE-A way. Start them right and make them grow right along without any backset by feeding DR. HESS POULTRY PAN-A-CE-A. It prevents and cures gapes, leg weakness. It regulates the bowels. Diarrhœa is unknown where PAN-A-CE-A is fed. It produces appetite and good digestion, which is so essential during the rapid growth of feathers. A PAN-A-CE-A chick will outfeather a non-PAN-A-CE-A chick every time. Keep the little chicks—all your poultry—free from lice with DR. HESS INSTANT LOUSE KILLER. Good for lice on cucumber, squash and melon vines. Guaranteed. Sold by all dealers in poultry supplies.

CHATTEL LOANS.

You can BORROW MONEY so cheap and on such easy terms of repayment from the Fidelity Loan Company, a licensed and bonded firm, for use in paying overdue bills or to buy the things you need for cash at bargain prices that every one should take advantage of our service. Loans on furniture, $20 to $300, at legal rates, on short notice and without publicity. We give you all the time you want to repay a loan and only charge for the actual time you have the money. Fair, isn't it? You can afford to borrow. On $40 pay $2 a month and interest; on $60 pay $3 a month and interest; on $100 pay $5 a month and interest. Pay more any time and reduce the cost. In your behalf we are on the job eight hours a day, and through personal contact and personal service, plus a deep personal interest, we can serve you and your friends as we wish to be served. In these unusual times, business friendships, close relations, mutual understandings and co-operation are real assets to all of us. We are ready to go three-fourths of the way. Now it is up to you.
FIDELITY LOAN CO.,

QUICK LOANS
$100—$200—$300 or Less on Furniture, Pianos, Live Stock, Etc.
We are under supervision of the state of Indiana. We will loan you any amount up to $300 under the legal rate and give you all the time you need to repay the loan. You pay only for the time you have the money. You have the option of paying the entire loan at any time, and interest will only be charged for the actual number of days you have the money. No worthy person refused.
We do not notify your employer, neither do we make inquiries of your relatives or friends. Our rates are low—our plan is best.
If you owe another loan company come to us and we will pay them off and advance you more money to pay up all your small bills, then you will only have one payment to make each month. It will cost you nothing to call and have us explain our plan, rates, etc., and a very small amount if you borrow.

INTIMATIONS OF DISTURBANCES IN MEXICO.

SHORTS RENEW PRESSURE

Average Stock Prices

The average price of twenty industrial stocks Thursday was 97.15, up 1.22 per cent. The average price of twenty active rails was 72.39, up .75 per cent.

Further liquidation of long accounts and renewed pressure from shorts caused extreme reactions of 2 to 10 points in speculative stocks Friday. Sales approximated 1,250,000 shares.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Selected issues, notably independent steels, made substantial additions to yesterday's rally at the opening of today's stock market. Replogle was the chief feature, 6,000 shares changing hands at 81 to 83, an extreme overnight advance of 7 points.

Shippings, oil, motors and sugars reflected further covering of short contracts and rails gave promise of greater activity at moderate gains. Part of the advance was canceled within the first half hour, when U. S. Steel and Baldwin Locomotive became reactionary.

The market became dull when prices developed an irregular trend. Announcement that the Philadelphia federal reserve bank had advanced its discount rate on treasury certificates probably contributed to the curtailment of business. Further scattered selling representing belated liquidation from interior points was reported by commission houses. U. S. Steel eased almost 2 points, Crucible Steel 4½, General Motors 5, and several of the equipments and shippings 1 to 3½ points. Much of this loss was recovered and a number of actual gains were made by specialties when call loans opened at 7 per cent. All Liberty bonds were better, the first 4¼s gaining 1 per cent.

The noon rally carried low priced steels, motors, equipments, leathers and allied specialties considerably over morning quotations, gains ranging from 2 to 10 points. This was largely forfeited, however, when United States Steel and oils, especially the Mexican group, became heavy.

Oils continued to react in the last hour, fresh selling of those issues extending to the general list on intimations of disturbances in Mexico. The closing was weak.

RYAN PLANS LEGAL DRIVE TO DEFEAT STUTZ SHORTS

Settlement Price Offered to Committee of Shorts Withdrawn—Will Buy Stock.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The settlement price offered to the protective committee, organized to safeguard the interests of the shorts in Stutz Motor Company shares, has been withdrawn, Allan A. Ryan, chairman of the board and owner of the controlling interest, announces in a statement.

"There seems to be a desire on the part of those whose contracts I hold to repudiate them," Mr. Ryan says. "They seem determined to put themselves in the class of gamblers, who, having lost their money, wish to invoke the law that does not recognize gambling obligations.

"But I deny that my obligations are gambling obligations, whatever they may have intended their to be. I believe that a stock exchange contract is still good, and I am ready to spend my money in order to prove it so. I believe that these gentlemen, who would have been delighted to take the profit if the stock had gone down, will be obliged to pay the loss now that the stock has gone up."

Attorneys for Allan A. Ryan & Co. had notified counsel for the shorts' protective committee that inasmuch as the mediation proceedings have failed, their clients would proceed "to buy in for account of those firms represented by you on the New York curb, Saturday, April 24, at 10 o'clock a. m., or as soon thereafter as the same can be bought."

Counsel for the committee replied that "as to the buying in, we do not recognize that your clients have any rights to buy in, nor that any such act of buying in will have any legal force or effect whatever."

—April 23—

Good hogs averaging 200 pounds are worth $4.00 a head less than they were three days ago and assuming that all the hogs here Friday were qualified to sell at the top price and that they averaged 200 pounds there was a loss of $32,000 in the sales compared with Tuesday. The price of throwouts has declined correspondingly and the general market now is $2.00 a hundred pounds lower than in the early part of this week. Prices are now the lowest they have been since February 27, when the heaviest hogs sold down to $14.50 and the best light at $15.50.

Late trains on Thursday increased the receipts to 11,500 hogs and with the Wednesday layover there were 15,500 on sale. It was necessary to carry over 6,000 from Thursday and there were 7,000 fresh receipts on Friday. This, alone, favored the buying side, but they were strengthened further by the greatly augmented supplies in all the distributing centers and this curtailed the outside demand for hogs in this market. General sales were 50c lower than on Thursday. Good hogs weighing up to 225 pounds sold largely at $15.50 and there were more of that sort than any other.

Some good heavy hogs sold at $14.60; about the same kind, but a little heavier than that, sold at $17.50 on the high market last Monday. There were also scattering sales between $14.60 and $15.50 for hogs averaging more than 225 pounds, and one lot of 40 hogs, averaging 416 pounds, sold at $14.00, the lowest price. The predominating price for good sows was $12.00, and that was practically the top price. There were odd sales of strong weight pigs at $15.00, but good light pigs and feeders sold from $14.50 down. A year ago the best heavy hogs sold at $21.00, the best light at $20.85 and the best pigs at $20.00.

It was estimated that 8,000 hogs were sold at the new low level. The Chicago Live Stock Exchange is asking that the marketing of stock be curtailed until the shipping facilities are normal and Indianapolis dealers say this may be good advice for shippers to this market. One buyer with an order for 1,000 hogs was forced out of the Friday market because of the inadequate shipping facilities and many hogs were left unsold.

Calves Down 50c to $1.00.

Receipts of cattle dropped to 900, but the supply was apparently large enough to meet all requirements and there was some adverse change in prices. Practically all the recent unusual advance has now been surrendered especially for good steers and heavy heifers. They are 50c to $1.00 lower than a few days ago and $1.50 or more lower than the high spot last week. There has not been as much loss on ordinary light killing steers nor light heifers and cow stuff, but they did not show as much advance as other cattle did last week. Bulls are higher than they have been and some of the local killers say the high cost has forced them out of the market.

The top price on Friday was $11.25, paid for a 2,240-pound Shorthorn bull that made the owner $252. There were 1,473 calves received Thursday, the largest run since the record was made in October, 1913. There were 300 more calves than cattle, which is unusual. Fresh receipts of 900 calves on Friday again gave buyers the advantage and there was a further decline of 50 cents to $1.00 in prices with the general sales of good veals from $16.00 down. Feeding cattle were nominally steady.

This day a year ago steers weighing 1,160 pounds sold at $18.50, heifers at $15.50, cows at $13.25 and feeders at $13.35.

CORN PRICES AFFECTED BY STOCKS AND COTTON

CLOSE NERVOUSLY LOWER AFTER EARLY STRENGTH.

LACK OF OATS OFFERINGS

CHICAGO, April 23.—Urgent European demand for breadstuffs attracted considerable notice today as a bullish factor in the corn market. Besides, cold, wet weather tended further to strengthen prices. Finnacial conditions received much less attention than has been the rule of late. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1c decline to ⅝c advance, with May $1.66@1.67 and July $1.58⅛@1.59⅛, were followed by a decided general upturn and then something of a reaction.

Later, the weakness of stocks and cotton had an evident bearish effect on corn. Prices closed nervous, ⅛c to 1⅝c net lower, with May $1.65½ to $1.66, and July $1.57⅛ to $1.57⅝.

Oats ascended with greater swiftness than corn owing more to lack of offerings than to any great buying. After opening ⅝c to 2¼c up, including July at 85c to 86⅝c, the market climbed a little further before any setback began.

Provisions reflected the advance of grain. Most of the trading was in lard.

COTTON TREND LOWER.

Bearish Cables and Selling by Wall Street—Labor Troubles Abroad.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The cotton market showed continued nervousness during today's early trading. First weather reports indicating rains at some points east of the Mississippi and continued dry weather in the southwest led to some trade and southern buying, but the cables were lower than due and there was renewed selling for Wall street account. The opening was steady at a decline of 5 to 27 points and prices rallied several points right after the opening with July selling at 38.75c and October, 35.40c. The improvement was not sustained with prices soon selling off 25 to 30 points, or about 20 to 35 points net lower. Private cables reported a small but comparatively steady market at Liverpool with business in Manchester held in check by the uncertainty of the labor outlook.

July sold off to 38.20c and October to 34.85c before the end of the morning or about 50 to 65 points net lower on the active positions. Demand improved below the 35c level for October contracts and there were rallies of 15 to 20 points from the lowest, but the undertone was nervous and traders seemed to be more impressed by the talk of unsettled outside conditions than by bullish crop or spot advices. The New Orleans market was relatively heavy and houses with New Orleans connections were credited with selling here on the rallies. The market weakened again during the middle of the afternoon owing to declines in New Orleans, with a renewal of local and Wall street selling and the bearish view of general financial conditions. Some months made new lows for the movement with July selling off to 38.20c and October to 34.69c or 65 to 75 points net lower.

Futures closed steady: May, 40.65c; July, 38.25c; October, 34.85c; December, 33.83c; January, 33.25c. Spot, quiet; middling, 41.65c.

U. S. Loses Five Million Dollars on Rock Island

CHICAGO, April, 23.—It cost the United States more than $5,000,000 to operate the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway last year, according to the annual report of the line.

The government guaranteed a return of $15,800,254.57, based on earnings prior to federal control, but earned a profit of only $10,789,357.86, the balance being made up by the treasury.

Revenue in 1919 was the greatest in the history of the company, with an increase of 49.54 per cent. over the average for the test period, but expenses increased 80.57 per cent.

The report of the directors charges that the government failed to spend as much on upkeep of the road as the private management had done in the past.

MEYER-KISER CORPORATION
Indianapolis, Ind.

For the first time in its twenty-five years of successful business, an opportunity is offered the investing public to participate in the profits of the Meyer-Kiser organization.

Meyer-Kiser Corporation has been organized with a capitalization of $1,000,000 preferred stock and $500,000 common stock to take over certain profitable departments of the Meyer-Kiser Bank.

Earnings of one department alone for the past year show the preferred stock dividend earned over four time, or a balance, after preferred stock dividends, equal to about 45% on the common stock.

Stringent sinking fund provisions safeguard the preferred stock.

No promotion or underwriting expense is to be charged the Meyer-Kiser Corporation by Meyer-Kiser Bank.

The stock is exempt from all taxes in Indiana and the Normal Federal Income tax.

PRICE: One share of preferred stock (par value $100) and one share of common stock (par value $10) can be purchased for $100 plus accrued interest on the preferred stock.

WHEAT CROP OUTLOOK.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

CHICAGO, April 23.—The Modern Miller crop outlook bulletin says: Winter wheat has made progress in southwest, and stooling improvement is generally noted. Sufficient moisture for time being. Increasing appreciation over Hessian fly infestation throughout soft winter territory. Winter killing also heavy in important districts. Cold, wet weather delaying seeding of spring wheat in northwest and with labor shortage, prospect is for 10 to 15 per cent. decrease in acreage. Considerable seeding has been done in Nebraska and Iowa.

Boston Brokers Assign.

BOSTON, April 23.—The brokerage firm of J. D. Crowley & Co., members of the Boston and Detroit Stock Exchanges, assigned for the benefit of creditors today and was suspended by the local exchange. The house was a small one organized recently by Crowley, who was a floor boy on the Boston exchange until a few years ago. Counsel for the firm estimates its liabilities at $500,000 and assets between $275,000 and $300,000. Failure of customers to meet obligations was said to be responsible for the firm's embarrassment.

Later in the day a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed in the federal court by three creditors against "James D. Crowely, doing business as J. D. Crowley & Co." The petitioners represent small claims.

BOSTON WOOL TRADE DULL

BOSTON, April 23.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: With the exception of the few houses which have had fine wools to offer, business has been very dull this week. There has been a little more buying in the west at firm prices for early shorn fine wools. The textile labor situation is rather uncertain at the moment. The market for goods is hardly changed, forward business being somewhat erratic, although the mills have orders ahead at the present writing for a number of months.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Charles B. Segar was elected president and Samuel P. Colt, chairman, of the United States Rubber Company, at the annual meeting of the board of directors.

AMUNDSEN REACHES ANADIR

South Pole Discoverer Arrives at Siberian Village in Ship.

NOME, Alaska, April 23 (by the Associated Press).—Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the south pole, has arrived at Anadir, a trading post on the Behring sea, eastern Siberia, according to a wireless message from Anadir received here last night. The dispatch gave no details other than suggesting that the explorer had reached the village in a ship.

Last August Amundsen was reported to be drifting in his ice-locked schooner Maud, somewhere north of western Siberia. Nothing has been heard from him directly after September 1, 1918, when the schooner was reported to be taking oil for her motors at Dixsob island, a White sea point. From the White sea Amundsen expected to drift east with the ice to the New Siberian islands which lie off Siberia. At the islands it was believed the drift would carry him toward, if not across the north pole. The explorer is reported to have carried two airplanes as part of his equipment. He expected to use these if he found the drift would not carry him across the "top of the earth."

May Have Reached Pole by Air.

NEW YORK, April 23.—It is possible that Captain Roald Amundsen, whose arrival has been reported at Anadir, eastern Siberia, may have attained the north pole in airplanes he took with him on his exploring expedition, according to Dr. Edmund O. Hovey, of the American Museum of Natural History.

Potato Prices Lower

Potato prices are slightly lower. The old crop sells at $11.50 a bag of 150 pounds, a decrease of 50c, and new potatoes are down about 4¼c a pound, at $8.50 a bag of 54 pounds, or 15¾c a pound.

Home-grown outdoor rhubarb is much in evidence in Commission row at 30c a dozen bunches.

Supplies are at the lowest point in many months fruit and vegetable dealers say. The only receipts are a few scattering express shipments. Stocks are rapidly becoming depleted. Oranges are disappearing. A dealer said that no oranges had been shipped out of California since April 7. Grapefruit is scarce and the price continues to advance.

A shipment of Texas kale sells at $3.00 a bushel, a decline of 50c.

Home-grown onions, a recent arrival, are on the market at 25c a dozen.

Farmers to Fight Hessian Fly.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

PRINCETON, Ind., April 23.—Farmers of Gibson county are considering a plan to fight the Hessian fly which infested several parts of the county last fall. They will live through a cycle of three years and fly lives through a cycle of three years and does not migrate far. It would be possible for farmers, in agreement, so to retake advantage of the fact that the fly starved out.

HINTS TO SATURDAY MARKETERS

ACCIDENT CLAIMS SETTLED

Woman and Daughter Hurt in Mishap Near Shelbyville.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Claims of Mrs. William McDonald and her daughter, Gladys, against the R. W. Furnas Ice Cream Company, of Indianapolis, have been settled. It is understood that Mrs. McDonald received $2,000 in a settlement outside of court. Her daughter obtained judgment for $75, the amount sought, a few minutes after her suit was filed in the Shelby circuit court yesterday.

Mrs. McDonald and her daughter were injured March 25 when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Furnas Company truck, driven by Clifford Talbert. The accident happened near here. It was alleged that Talbert was driving rapidly on the wrong side of the road.

Talbert was placed on trial in a local justice of the peace court yesterday on a charge of assault and battery, growing out of the accident and paid a fine and costs of $42.25.

CHICAGO LABOR WAR DEATH

Head of Teamsters' Council Killed and Arrest Is Predicted.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Maclay Hoyne, state's attorney, announced today he had gained information which would result in the arrest of the man who yesterday shot and killed Edward Coleman, head of the Chicago teamsters' district council, in a new outbreak of Chicago's labor warfare.

A number of union leaders were questioned by the state's attorney and two members of the teamsters' council, Mickey Norris and John Haley, named by Coleman as enemies before he died were being held. Coleman was unable to identify his assailant, however.

Police attributed the shooting to a factional fight among leaders of the teamsters' organization. Coleman was said to have attempted to oust Norris and Haley from the union.

PROPOSE ELIMINATION OF MIDDLEMAN TRADE

CEREAL GROWERS AT KANSAS CITY PLAN DOUBLE BENEFIT.

ADOPT CO-OPERATIVE IDEA

KANSAS CITY, April 23.—Elimination of the middleman in the grain trade "in order to increase the producer's emolument to a fair profit and at the same time reduce the cost of living" is the object of a plan for a huge combine of cereal growers being worked out by the National Growers' Association in convention here. Representatives of virtually every wheat raising community in the United States attending the convention voted last night to form the combine and a committee of seven was appointed to outline the organization.

The plan was included in the report of a committee on the marketing of cereal products. The resolution accompanying it, reducing the report to action, was adopted unanimously.

Co-operation Made Basis.

The tentative plan provides for local co-operative organizations of cereal growers, centering in co-operative marketing associations with headquarters in the market centers.

Stock in the terminal marketing associations will be limited to the farmers in the local co-operative associations.

District or terminal marketing organization, in turn, will be merged into a national marketing association. The district and national organizations are intended as the channels through which all products of America's farms will reach the ultimate consumer.

The plans provide also for co-operative flour and cereal milling association.

Chairman of Engineers

CHARLES BROSSMAN.

Charles Brossman was elected chairman of the Indiana section, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, at a meeting Thursday night at the Claypool hotel, at which Harry A. Schwartz made the principal talk on "The Manufacture, Properties and Uses of Malleable Castings." Other officers chosen were C. E. Sargent, vice-chairman; Barclay Mering, treasurer; C. M. Bartlett and Professor F. C. Wagner, members of the executive committee. Professor Wagner is from Terre Haute and the other officers are Indianapolis men. Arrangements are being made for a large delegation from Indiana to attend a national meeting at St. Louis, May 24 to 27.

CRITICISES DIVORCE EVIL.

Francis Minor Moody Says 50 Per Cent. Are on "Trumped Up Charges."

WASHINGTON, April 23.—More than 50 per cent. of the divorces granted in this country are based on "trumped up charges" resulting from the fascination of the husband or wife for some one else. Francis Minor Moody, of Chicago, executive secretary of the international committee on marriage and divorce, declared today before the senate judiciary committee.

FIVE ON G. O. P. BALLOT IN MONTANA PRIMARY

CHIEF INTEREST CENTERS IN FIGHT WITHIN PARTY.

NO CONTEST OF DEMOCRATS

HELENA, Mont., April 23.—Montana Republicans voted today in a presidential preference primary, with the names of Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio; Herbert Hoover, Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California; Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, and Leonard Wood on the ballot. The Democrats had no presidential candidate, although Governor Sam V. Stewart, of Montana, was an unopposed candidate for preference for the vice-presidential nomination.

Preference Vote Binding.

Under the state law delegates to the national convention must abide by the presidential preference expressed by the voters.

Chief interest, according to Republican leaders, centered in the fight within the Republican party. There were twenty-eight candidates for delegates, of whom eight had been repudiated by the chairman and secretary of the state central committee. In published statements the eight were alleged to be candidates for the national party and to have been selected because their names began with letters near the top of the alphabet. Each of the eight, in filing for the nomination, promised to vote for Senator Johnson.

IOWA FOR LOWDEN.

Illinois Governor Expected to Get Solid G. O. P. Delegation.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 23.—Iowa's delegation, with twenty-six votes, will go to the Republican national convention in June, either instructed to vote for Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, for President, or with the indorsement of his candidacy from their respective districts. The state convention unanimously passed resolutions instructing the delegates-at-large, eight in number with one-half vote each, for Lowden. All congressional districts except the Fourth and Fifth, instructed for Lowden. These two indorsed him.

TO PUT MUSIC IN CAMPAIGN.

Republican National Committee Adopts New Pre-election Plan.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Minstrels who traveled in olden days singing the fame of things and people are to have their successors. Old-fashioned melodies, played on organs and pianos, with modern ditties telling of the accomplishments of the Republican party and what it promises to do, were planned here today by Republican national committee headquarters.

The plan, submitted by Mrs. Ann Faulkner Oberndorfer, community singing leader here, would be used to highten voters enthusiasm and develop interest in Republicanism.

The plan provides for the printing and distribution of several hundred thousand copies of song book programs at a cost of about 15 cents each.

FOR THEFT OF AUTO TIRES

Affidavits Filed Against Two Men, Held in Indianapolis Jail.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 23.—Affidavits charging Edward Stevens and Arthur Welling, who are held in the Marion County Jail at Indianapolis, on a charge of vagrancy, with burglary and grand larceny, were filed this afternoon in the Shelby circuit court by F. A. Moore, owner of an automobile supply store at Waldron, Shelby county.

Mr. Moore has identified Stevens as the man who came to his store about four weeks ago to buy automobile tires. Welling, he said, remained in the car on the outside. Mr. Moore went to Indianapolis this week and identified three tires on a machine said to belong to Stevens and Welling, as tires stolen from his store the night after the men made their appearance there.

It is said a suit in replevin will be filed in the Marion county court against Stevens and Welling to regain possession of the tires.

Cole Cars Reconstructed Right and Priced Right

The Cole car has a great reputation, earned through the enduring merit of the car.

When a used Cole is put back into the pink of condition, it is a far better car than most new cars at the same price. It will give more actual service and is probably better looking.

And we put them into sound, sweet running condition—any buyer of a Lathrop-McFarland reconstructed car will vouch for that.

The following Coles just reconstructed and refinished furnish further evidence of the truth that it pays to SEE US BEFORE BUYING.

MANUFACTURERS TAKE STAND FOR OPEN SHOP

RESOLUTIONS INDORSED AT STATE MEETING.

MUNCIE MAN IS PRESIDENT

Resolutions indorsing the open shop among manufacturing industries in Indiana, and recommending revision of the state tax law to "make the law equitable among all classes," were adopted at the sixth annual meeting of the Indiana Manufacturers' Association Thursday afternoon at the Claypool hotel. Officers were elected at a business meeting. J. L. Kimbrough, of Muncie, was elected president, succeeding Charles H. Barnaby, who has headed the association for the last year. William F. Taylor, of Indianapolis, was re-elected first vice-president; Linn Faulkconer, of Seymour, second vice-president; Fred C. Gardner, of Indianapolis, was re-elected treasurer, and S. L. Jones, of Anderson; F. M. Ruddell, of Kokomo; H. C. Stickel, of Terre Haute, and Oscar Soderquist, of East Chicago, were elected members of the board of directors. The meeting was attended by manufacturers from all parts of Indiana.

Plea For the Constitution.

A plea for a strict following of the fundamental principles laid down in the Constitution of the United States was made by Harry Atwood, of Chicago, author of "The New Republic," in an address at the annual dinner, Thursday evening.

A return to all the principles of the nation's Constitution is the solution of the chaotic conditions of today, Mr. Atwood said. He said politicians are depending too much on appeals to the mob element. Such proposals as the initiative, the referendum and the recall, which he said are in direct violation of the Constitution, are no less than treason, the speaker said.

Sees Rift in Clouds.

James A. Emory, of Washington, general counsel of the National Manufacturers' Association, speaking of the conditions of chaos in the country, said that, while dark clouds seem to be looming now, he could see daylight ahead, for, he said, he had an abiding faith in the American people. The great men of the earlier days of our government, now revered, were ridiculed and slandered while they were performing their work, he said.

TOURS SHELBY COUNTY.

J. W. Fesler Visits Four Cities—Night Meeting at Fairland.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 23.—J. W. Fesler, of Indianapolis, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, made a whirlwind campaign through Shelby county today. Notice that Mr. Fesler would be in Shelby county was not received until yesterday afternoon. Arrangements were immediately made for his meetings.

He opened his tour at Morristown; spoke here this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and later at Blueridge and Waldron, and will close his speechmaking at Fairland this evening.

Nonpartisan Talk at Muncie.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

MUNCIE, Ind., April 23.—J. W. Fesler, of Indianapolis, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, made a short nonpartisan talk to members of the Rotary Club here at the club's weekly luncheon yesterday. Mr. Fesler has no organization in this county, but has many friends here.

"I am highly pleased by the reports we have received from all parts of the state," said the candidate. "Whoever is nominated for the offices this is bound to be a great Republican year."

TAKEN TO LAFAYETTE.

George Doyle Accused of Robbing Passengers on Monon Train.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 23.—George Doyle, age twenty-one, of Montreal, Canada, who escaped from the police at Lebanon yesterday and was recaptured by a posse of citizens, was brought here yesterday afternoon and is held in the Tippecanoe county jail, charged with robbery.

Doyle and a companion, who escaped, are alleged to have robbed several passengers on Monon train No. 4, which runs from Louisville to Chicago. The men boarded the train at Louisville and got off here at 4 o'clock. When the train reached Rensselaer, fifty miles north of this city, the passengers learned they had been robbed. Charles Moore, conductor on the train telegraphed to the local police and word was sent to neighboring towns to be on the lookout for the men.

Doyle was arrested at Lebanon, as he was about to get on an interurban train for Indianapolis. The Lebanon authorities arrested him. Over to the local police, but refused to turn over more than $268, found in one of his shoes when he was arrested.

DEAL INVOLVES $550,000.

Maryland Corporation Takes Over Distillery at Terre Haute.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—The Commercial Solvents Corporation, of New York, has filed a deed transferring its holdings in this city to the Commercial Solvents Corporation, a Maryland organization, for $550,000. The deal was one of the largest real estate transactions ever recorded here.

The property transferred is the old Commercial distillery, which was used during the war by the United States and British governments jointly for the manufacture of acetone. The plant was closed down shortly after the armistice was signed, but recently was opened for the manufacture of acetone and denatured alcohol. The property is situated in South First street on the banks of the Wabash River.

TO CONSERVE RESOURCES.

Lake Manitou Cottagers Protective Association Is Organized.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ROCHESTER, Ind., April 23.—An association for the protection of the fish and natural resources in and about Lake Manitou was formed in this city last night with more than forty charter members. The association will be known as the Lake Manitou Cottagers Protective Association.

A. E. Bodine, of the state department of conservation, was present at the meeting and spoke on conservation of the natural resources of the state and nation. A large number of persons who live in Peru and own cottages at the lake were present. The following officers were elected: James R. Moore, of Rochester, president; Frank Carson, of Peru, vice-president; Earl Miller, of Rochester, secretary, and John D. Holman, of Rochester, treasurer.

RAILWAY OFFICIAL SLAIN.

St. Louis Man Said by Police to Have Been Shot by Wife.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Walter Kelly, age twenty-seven, city passenger agent for the Chicago & Alton railroad, was shot five times and killed near his office in the Boatmens Bank building here, yesterday afternoon, by his wife, Caroline, according to police reports.

Police said Mrs. Kelly admitted the shooting, saying it was over "another woman."

POLO COATS

Of quality and great charm come into a special sale at—

$19.75 and $29.75

These prices are so far below their actual value that we are prepared for the biggest "coat day" of the season.

Made of fine soft polo cloths in various shades of tan—leather belts, patch or straight pockets. Unlined or full lined with silk (this refers to $29.75 group.)

There is a coat in this assortment to please every maid or matron.

Preparations have been made for an immense selling. Extra salespeople will be in readiness. Make plans to attend this sale early. Sale price, $29.75 and $19.75

—Second Floor.

Sale of CAPES for women and misses

Sale price— $14.98 Of serge or tricotine

Sale price— $24.98

These prices are, in many cases, less than half of the original markings!

Some of them, even in the $14.98 group, are silk lined; some are braided, many possess tie-on belts and attractive collars. Sale prices, $24.98 and $14.98.

—Second Floor.

"Wilson Brothers" and "Arrow" Shirts for men

Sale price $2.29

In which the values are so evident that men are buying the shirts by sixes and twelves. Nothing further need be said about quality—men know Wilson Bros., and Arrow.

MEN'S SPRING SUITS

Special at— $49.50

Which (speaking for most of them) should bear $65 price tags. Our wholesale cost more than justifies such a marking.

It used to be that by careful watching of the markets we could obtain special lots of clothes at an underprice and sell them on the same basis—but this season the market is bare—so we're creating marvelous values out of our own stocks—we're taking suits whose cost to us merits a $65.00 tag—and we're pricing them at $49.50.

There are hundreds for choice.

From Hart Schaffner & Marx are cassimere suits.

—From other makers are worsteds—

Newest single and double breasteds—newest colors. Special at $49.50.

Gifts to the Best Man and Ushers

The prospective groom need not worry about what to give his best man and ushers.

We can aid you in solving this problem. Come in and see our scarf pins—just the kind real men want—set with garnets, amethyst, topaz and moonstone—the present most fashionable setting, much worn at afternoon weddings.

In addition we are showing collar pins, link buttons, dress sets, belt buckles, cigarette cases and a host of other real men's things.

BUTLER COEDS WILL DEBATE

MARY HANGER. HELEN McPHEETERS. MARGARET COOK. BESSIE MILLER.

Six Butler College coeds will participate tonight in the first intercollegiate debate in which women students of the college have ever taken part. They will meet coeds of Albion College, Albion, Mich., in a dual debate. The Butler negative team will debate at Albion, and the affirmative team will debate in the assembly hall at the college in Irvington.

The question to be debated is: "Resolved, That the coal mines should be owned and operated by the federal government." On the negative team are Miss Bessie Miller, of Shelbyville, captain; Miss Helen McPheeters and Miss Margaret Cook, of Indianapolis. The Butler affirmative team is composed of Miss Mary Hanger, Indianapolis, captain; Miss Martha Montgomery, New Albany, and Miss Eileen Harryman, Indianapolis.

The Butler teams will meet coeds of Rockford College, Rockford, Ill., in another dual debate May 8.

Little Stories of Daily Life

It Pays to Be Neat.

Somebody invented an old saw to the effect that "bad news travels fast." In the vicinity of the Weidely Motors Company's plant good news did the same thing.

One day a dirty-faced urchin of the neighborhood asked Billy Umphrey, of the Weidely company, for a penny.

"Wash your face and hands and I'll come through," Billy told the kid.

When Mr. Umphrey emerged from his office at noon the youngster was there, his face and hands glowing like a 100-candle power lamp. He got the penny.

An hour later, when Mr. Umphrey returned, there was a lineup as long as that for the "Follies." A regiment of clean hands was outstretched for coins of the realm. The generous Billy came through again.

He started something. Now the kids have begun work on George Weidely and Truman Rapp. The result is that Irish Hill youthful countenances and hands beam like a circus billboard.

A Willing Clerk.

He was strictly opposed to doctors and medicine, proclaiming the doctrine that fresh air, pure water and plenty of exercise could cure all ills, even to smallpox. He walked breezily into a downtown drug store and waved his hand at one of the shelves. "There," he said in a tone loud enough for all the real and prospective customers to hear him, "There is enough poison to kill all the people in Indianapolis."

The clerk who was nearest studied a minute. Then he said courteously, "Yes, and how would you prefer to have your share?"

Signs Women Voters' Enabling Act.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 23.—Governor Beeckman has signed the enabling act passed by the general assembly providing the machinery for participation of women in state elections as soon as the federal constitutional amendment is ratified by the necessary thirty-six states. Suffragists here say Rhode Island is the first state to enact such a measure.

Book Offered as Prize.

An illustrated copy of Stevenson's "Treasure Island" is the prize to be given to the boy or girl obtaining the largest number of new borrowers for the West Indianapolis branch library before Monday. The contest now has centered on the efforts of Margaret Black, a pupil of school No. 46, and Cecil Ludlow, a pupil of school No. 49.
