

SAYS LEAGUE EXPANDS MONROE DOCTRINE IDEA

F. D. ROOSEVELT MAKES THREE ADDRESSES AT TERRE HAUTE.

ASSAILS HARDING'S RECORD

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., October 14.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, made three addresses before large audiences in Terre Haute Wednesday evening. In his principal speech, at the Court-house, he said that James Monroe, father of the Monroe Doctrine, was in reality the author of the league of nations. He said the league plan is an expansion of the Monroe Doctrine.

"I wish to take you back ninety-nine years," said Mr. Roosevelt. "To the time when James Monroe gave to the world a new theory. To the south of us was a little nation independent only by the force of our arms. It looked to us for protection, and not in vain."

"If Monroe were alive today he would no more accept a substitute for the language guaranteeing those countries against aggression of stronger nations than at that time.

Right Against Right.

"Monroe's doctrine was founded on Christian morals—right against right. That's been the history of big nations. There are forty-one nations in the league of nations of possible forty-seven, and those forty-one are in it because they have not been telling lies and falsehoods about the League of Nations."

"There are some of you who are doubting Thomases. When Governor Cox and I were in Ohio we told the audience who had hearts but not minds in that covenant shall be superior to the rights of our government or our Constitution."

"One week ago Senator Harding said the league was a monumental fraud, and as the words were leaving his lips he was told that he was to be made to see that Sweden and Finland on the verge of war had decided to submit their difficulties to the court-

Compares Public Records.

Mr. Roosevelt contrasted the public records of the two presidential nominees.

"They're history," he said, "and you have a right to read history. That other gentleman from Ohio (referring to Senator Harding) was the right gentleman of the year, Mr. Lodge and Foraker, the latter affectionately known as Standard Oil Joe.

"Senator Harding once referred to me as a 'small time' man, and I replied Arnold. Some members of the Roosevelt family will not forget that in a hurry. He has always been a man of his word, and he has blocked the federal reserve bill, which took the country's finance out of the hands of Wall street. He opposed the coal miners' law, and the workmen's compensation act."

"Look at what Cox has done in Ohio along those very lines," said Mrs. Thomas Kemp, of the American War Mothers.

RECEIVES ENCOURAGEMENT.

F. D. Roosevelt Says Many Voters Are Turning to Democratic Party.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

GREENCASTLE, Ind., October 13.—

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, in an address here Wednesday afternoon said that in the last several days he has been told many things from different parts of the country to the effect that the voters are flocking to the Democratic party standard because of the party's advocacy of the League of Nations.

He urged support of Governor James M. Cox, the party's candidate for President, because Governor Cox had no definite foreign policy, while the Republicans offer nothing."

Many Women in Audience.

Does Poor Sleep Ruin Digestion?

MOST people do not grasp the significance of sleep. They do not realize that "getting a good night's rest" constitutes the very definite procedure of getting back strength, energy, tissue and cells which have been previously reduced to a state of exhaustion from daily effort of mind, body and nerves.

If your mattress develops those vague phases of discomfort so detrimental to the body's repair functions during sleep, the digestive processes will likewise become impaired. Poor sleep means lowered vitality; the digestive organs are therefore not sufficiently fortified to fully perform their functions.

The Sealy Sanitary Tuftless Mattress gives the body precisely what it must have to aid the vitality renewing functions of sleep—freedom from pressure, freedom from tension. It merits the consideration of every person desirous of maintaining a normal status of sleep, digestion and health.

Undulating Comfort a Requisite of Sleep

The pronounced undulating properties of the Sealy meet the imperative needs of the body in sleep.

Its flexible surface "gives" with such ease of resistance under the hips and shoulders where the body rests heaviest, as to remove that sense of undue pressure so often experienced with other mattresses.

Likewise it soothingly rises to "fill in" the arches of the back providing uniform support and thus removing a cause of physical tension.

A Single Cotton Batt Inseparably Interwoven

The Sealy Sanitary Tuftless Mattress consists of a single giant batt of long fibre cotton inseparably interwoven by the Exclusive Sealy Air-Weave Process.

This high, soft, fluffy batt stands five feet high when completed. It is then gently pressed down, inserted into the covering and released to the generous depth and softness of mattress. Neither time nor use can impair the soothing qualities of long fibre cotton thus woven.
