CHANCES FOR ADVANCEMENT

Recent Campaign Through Rich Northern Commonwealth Reveals Constructive Work of Its Colored Citizens—How Messrs. Vandervall and Burrell Organized the People.

By N. BARNETT DODSON.
New York.—The recent four days' tour of Dr. Booker T. Washington through New Jersey has been the means of calling public attention to many historical facts concerning the activities of the colored citizens of the state in the past and of showing what those of the present are doing. It has also centered attention on the great possibilities open to the race to become large landowners, thrifty farmers and leaders in education, business and civic movements.

The group of small but thrifty communities in the southwestern part of

W. P. BURRELL.

Essex county, known as the Oranges, has a population of 100,000, of whom 10,000 are colored. These communities are rich in their association of early colonial and antebellum history. The Negro was not an inactive or silent spectator during those stirring times.

He participated in every struggle and bravely bore his part in the long contest for liberty of the American colonist. The battles of Springfield and Orange mountain colony and other Revolutionary struggles have indelibly recorded his bravery and valor. During the civil war New Jersey sent more than a regiment of brave black boys and several battalions in the late Spanish-American war. These undeniable facts prove the loyalty, devotion and patriotism of the Negroes of New Jersey in every crisis concerning the safety of the American flag.

In the civic affairs of the state he has played well his part. Contesting against every unfair advantage and race proscription, he has maintained himself and gathered the small crumbs of opportunity together and still continues to rise and retain a place among the struggling and progressive masses. In the Oranges he has accumulated nearly $500,000 in real estate, none of which he inherited or received in bequest, but has acquired by sacrifice and labor. Negroes own many large and beautiful church buildings, an Old Folks' home and several fraternal and business buildings. In the charitable work they have contributed very largely in proportion to their means.

Shortly after the war an old colored woman gave her earnings of many years to the work of the temperance cause, and the imposing structure at Main and Commerce streets, Orange, valued at more than $50,000, stands on the site bought by the savings of this old pioneer woman, who bequeathed her estate for that work. There remains much yet to be done in this fair commonwealth that these people may have a fair chance in the battle of life. Those that have located in the agricultural districts have done well. Many own large, productive farms and each year, by their push and industry, add to their possessions.

The men who organized themselves into a state committee for the purpose of making the trip of Dr. Washington and his party a tremendous success were imbued with race pride. They were eager for their guests to see the achievements of the race in the state and for the people of the state to see and hear Dr. Washington, who was introduced at one of the meetings by a wealthy and influential white man as one of the truly great men of America. The leading spirit in organizing the various cities and towns for the trio was W. P. Burrell, head of the social settlement work for colored children in East Orange.

Mr. Burrell was the executive secretary of the state committee, and upon him devolved the task of arranging for dates and places for all the meetings. In this he was ably assisted by Mr. James N. Vandervall, chairman of the tour committee, together with the local committees in the various towns. There was work enough to have kept several stenographers busy for many weeks, yet this progressive man of great energy and mental strength did practically the whole job. In speaking of how the state organization was perfected Mr. Burrell very wittily says: "There was a convention held, and only two persons were present. I made Mr. Vandervall chairman, and Mr. Vandervall nominated me for secretary, and the meeting adjourned." Mr. Burrell is a born organizer and knows how to handle large crowds. He was the soul of wit throughout the tour and made a good impression upon everybody.

He is doing a splendid work in East Orange in the conduct of the social settlement work. He has had many years' experience in handling the records of large business and fraternal concerns and is thoroughly competent as an investigator of conditions among our people in the work to which he and Mrs. Burrell are giving their best energy, brain and skill. Mr. Burrell by a master hand linked the eleven cities and towns visited by Dr. Washington and his party into a chain of perfect correspondence, so that the schedule from the start was kept in the minutest detail.

The local committee in each town was on hand to receive the visitors, entertain them and then deliver them to their associates in the next place to be visited. In many instances the conveyances used were owned by the members of the committee representing the colored people, and, on the other hand, the white people furnished their autos and other rigs for the use of Dr. Washington and his guests. Credit is due every man who co-operated in the work, but everybody agrees that the lion's share belongs to Messrs. Vandervall and Burrell, chairman and secretary respectively.

CAPABLE YOUNG MUSICIAN.

Miss Georgiana H. Sherman Makes Good on Concert Tour West.

Philadelphia, Pa.—There are many young women in this city who are making good and at the same time inspiring others to go forward along all lines of useful endeavor and in this way are helping to work out some of the many hard problems which confront our people. In this number is to be found Miss Georgiana H. Sherman, who is considered a musical wonder.

Miss Sherman, though young in years, has had quite a wide experience. By her ability and singleness of purpose she has advanced to the front. She was born in Williamsport, Pa., and received her early training in the public schools of her native town. After finishing the common school course she attended the Dickinson seminary, where she took a thorough course in music.

In 1909 her parents moved to this city, and Miss Sherman entered the Royal Conservatory of Music, where she took a course in artistic piano playing. She made good use of her time while studying music, being one of the collectors for the National Benefit association of Washington. As in music, she was a success as a collector.

Miss Sherman has accompanied some of the leading singers in this section of the country. In the fall of 1913 she accepted a position with the Southland sextet, America's premier jubilee company. With this company she toured Michigan, Indiana and Ohio, making great hits for herself and company.

While on the tour Miss Sherman received many press comments, as well as popular applause. She is a lover of sacred music, in which she specializes. She possesses a rich mezzo soprano voice and aspires to become an oratorio singer. She is a member of the Union Baptist church here.

Since her return from the west she has been active in church work. She is the director of the choir of the Zion Baptist church, Ardmore, Pa., which is one of the leading musical organizations of a religious character in the state.

RECORD OF OCCUPATIONS.

Statistics Showing How Afro-Americans
Are Employed North and South.

The latest statistics showing the percentage of colored persons engaged in professional work in the south and north indicate growth. In the south 2.5 per cent are engaged in the professions, such as physicians, lawyers, dentists, schoolteachers and the like. In the various trades, 6.5 per cent; in manufacturing and mechanical work, 7 per cent; domestic service, 30 per cent, and in agricultural pursuits, 53 per cent.

Members of the race in the north who are similarly engaged show the following percentage: In the professions, 3 per cent; in agriculture, 5 per cent; in the trades, 14 per cent; business and transportation, 17 per cent, and in domestic service, 60 per cent, against 30 per cent of those engaged in the same occupation in the southern states.

NOT AFRAID OF HARD WORK

Interesting Account of the Early Struggles and Subsequent Rise of Zealous Young Baptist Leader Who Is Winning His Laurels at First Church in Clifton Forge, Va.

Clifton Forge, Va.—Virginia is giving to the race and country a number of able young men who are making good and who are contributing much to the uplift of the race along all lines. These men are coming fresh from the schools and colleges of the state, well trained and prepared to take hold of any line of business, trade or profession. Among the active men today is to be found the Rev. Thomas H. White, B. D., corresponding secretary of the Baptist state convention and pastor of the Baptist church in Clifton Forge.

He was born in King and Queen county, Va., in October, 1860, and was reared in Richmond, where he spent his boyhood days. His church membership dates back to 1887, when he was received into the First Baptist church, Richmond, Va., by baptism. He became a trained Sunday school teacher, graduating under Professor J. Hugo Johnston and the late Dr. D. Webster Davis. His Sunday school class graduated in 1888 and was declared by Dr. Griffith of the American Baptist Publication society to be the first class to graduate from a regular Sunday school course in Richmond. He believed in the young men going to the front; hence he was one of the founders of the Y. M. C. A. in Richmond, Va.

He was determined to get an education and declared that the world should know that he was in it, and to that end he worked zealously as a student. He served as assistant pastor to the late Rev. James H. Holmes at the First Baptist church in Richmond. It was while serving in this position that he entered the Virginia Theological seminary and college at Lynchburg, Va., which was then known as the Virginia seminary. He made good as a student, finished his course, and after a short time his alma mater called him back to teach higher mathematics. While connected with the school he also taught church polity and pastored the Mount Carmel Baptist church.

While thus employed Dr. White took unto himself a bride, Miss Martha A. Harper of Richmond, and soon afterward accepted a call from the Baptist church in Harrisonburg, Va., where he remained a little over a year. His reputation as a preacher and pastor became widely known, and he resigned from the Harrisonburg church to accept the call of the First Baptist church at Clifton Forge in 1902, of which he has since been the pastor, rendering good service to his church, to his race and the community at large. In this church are to be found some of the wealthiest people of our race in the state. Rev. Dr. White is an able temperance lecturer.

Dr. White is a public spirited man as well as a recognized leader of his people. He has made a number of public addresses before large audiences and every time has won laurels for himself and his people. The Salem (Va.) Times in speaking of an address which he delivered in that town had the following to say:

"The orator of the day, Rev. Thomas H. White, is quite a young man, but the flow of eloquence, fine rhetoric and wonderful comparisons contained in his speech put him alongside of Langston, Douglass and Price. He gained the attention of his audience from the start, and for two hours, without manuscript, he held his hearers, while at times his words were cutting, but the end was consoling. This wonderful boy orator closed with 'My Country, 'Tis of Thee!'"

Dr. White is a busy preacher, and when he is not looking after his flock he is working in his garden. He supplies many of the stores with lettuce, potatoes and other vegetables. He is the finest lettuce grower around Clifton Forge. He has made lettuce growing a special study and supplies the community with products raised on his little garden farm.

DR. WALDRON'S PEACE TALK.

Washington Pastor Lauds President
Wilson's Proclamation in Sermon.

Washington.—The Rev. Dr. J. Milton Waldron in his "peace sermon" at Shiloh Baptist church in this city on Sunday, Oct. 4, in part said: "President Wilson is a good Bible student as well as a good politician. His proclamation calling upon the American nation to pray for the cessation of the European war proves that he has studied patiently and faithfully the holy Scriptures as well as the history of mankind or he would not have seen the necessity of coupling contrition and confession of sins by this nation with its petitions for mercy upon other nations. The president's call to prayer is not only a great state paper; it is a wonderful treatise on prayer and is worthy of a permanent place in the religious literature of the country."

Dr. Waldron used as his text the following passages of Scripture: "Pray one for another" (James v. 16). "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you" (John xiv. 27). "Acquaint now thyself with God and be at peace, thereby good shall come to thee" (Job v. 16). He said: "This is the first time in the history of America and no doubt the first time in the history of the world that the head of a great nation has called upon that entire people to pray that war may cease among other and distant nations with whom it was not in conflict. Surely a new day and a new hope are dawning for our own country and the other nations of the earth. The doctrine of brotherhood of all men is beginning to assert itself, and nations as well as individuals are realizing that they are their brothers' keepers."

The speaker said: "The Kaiser has been urging the people to 'pray God to give victory to our side.' Abraham Lincoln during the civil war urged the people of his country to 'pray God that we may be sure to be on the right side.' This latter prayer is the one which we and the belligerent nations need to pray now, and it is the only petition which is sure of an answer. 'Calamities drive individuals and nations to the heart of God.' It is said that there are three times as many people attending church now as there were before the European war started. While the conflict across the waters is awful and must be deprecated by every one, yet it is not an unmixed evil. It is teaching men that only God can give an abiding peace."

"The terrible war raging in Europe is bringing to the minds of men, as nothing else can, the awful consequences of national sins. Each one of the European nations now at war has been guilty of great crimes against God and humanity, and they are atoning for these sins in the blood of the best of their sons. God makes the wrath of men to praise him and the remainder he restrains. We do well to pray for our brethren across the ocean, and as we pray let us confess our own sins and the sins of our nation and turn from them and make amends for the numberless crimes this country has committed upon the weak of our own land, or God will soon begin to make an inquisition for blood in this country."

EDITOR HARRISON'S PLUCK.

The National Negro Press association extends congratulations to J. Thomas Harrison, editor of the Cambridge (Mass.) Advocate, on his success in issuing the Advocate daily during the recent convention of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows held in Boston.

Mr. Harrison has long been considered one of our most progressive newspaper men of the younger set, and his recent venture confirms the high estimate of his ability to do things worth while.

The great number of delegates and visitors to the convention were greatly surprised when they found the news of the convention in the Advocate every day. They at once became interested in the man who had the courage to make such an undertaking, and many sought the office of the spirited little weekly which had the pluck to make its appearance every day. But this was in Cambridge, the historic New England college town, and the man behind the gun a persistent advocate of the possibilities and manhood rights of his race.

What Mr. Harrison has done along this line others may do when the occasion presents itself. One by one our business men are beginning to launch out further into the arena of constructive effort. They are learning that through difficulties is the way to success, and it is fitting that the race press should lead. The Advocate flies the national colors at its head and the name of the press association in a box at the head of its editorial page.

Smile Behind The Showers.

While drifting down life's tempest stream

If you would be happy and gay
Do not fret when it rains or snows.
No matter how hard the wind does blow

Keep the sunshine in your face
And smile behind the showers.
Do not weep and mourn when disappointed

And blessings do not come your way
Just patiently wait and labor
And hope for a brighter day.

It will not be long dark and gloomy
For there is ever sun behind the showers.

Sometimes it will be cloud and rain
Sometimes it will sleet and snow.
In some path we will find thorns instead of roses.

And life will ofttime seem as dreary
As an autumn rainy day
But in the midst of all these changes
Let us smile behind the showers.

State W. C. T. U. Convention.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union which met in Brazil last Friday until Tuesday, was attended by over 2,000 delegates and the interest and enthusiasm ran very high. This band of women is doing a noble work throughout Indiana. Eight colored delegates attended the meeting including Mrs. M. E. McCurdy of Richmond, state organizer, Mrs. Croker of Richmond, Mrs. M. E. Clark, county superintendent of Indianapolis, Mrs. Mary E. Thomas, Mrs. W. E. Henderson and Mrs. Bell of Indianapolis.

There are two unions in this city, the Frances Harper Union and the Thurmon Union. A Union meeting is planned for the first Friday night in November at the residence of Mrs. Sadie Hill in Martindale avenue to which all are invited.

Persistence Wins.

Persistence is characteristic of all men who have accomplished anything great. They may lack in some other particulars, may have many weaknesses and eccentricities, but the quality of persistence is never absent in a successful man. No matter what opposition he meets or what discouragements overtake him he is always persistent. It is not so brilliancy of intellect or fertility of resources, as persistence of efforts and constant purposes that gives success. Persistence always inspires confidence. Everybody believes in the man who persists.

Messrs Wm. Murphy and Chas. H. Brewer are at the head of the Negro Political League of Vincennes, Ind., and through the persistence of these two young men, the Negro voters of Vincennes played a very important part in the election in their home town last fall. Messrs Murphy and Brewer are young men and much credit can be given them for the clean way they conduct their league. They have the confidence not only of their members but the party with whom they are associated.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 14, 1914.

Editor of the Indianapolis Recorder—There appeared in your paper last week an article purporting to set forth the loyalty of certain colored men in this city to the Progressive party and urging the colored voters here to support its candidates in the coming election.

This article claimed to have been signed by the men whose names were attached.

I wish to declare to the public that the appearance of my name to the article in question is a forgery, simon pure in quality and in nerve. I never saw the article until I read it in the newspapers. I was at no time asked to sign such a resolution. I authorized no one to sign for me. So far as I am concerned the claim that I signed the article under discussion is an inexcusable falsehood.

Respectfully,
H. L. HEROD.

Receives High Office.

Capt. Robert Genus of Patriarche No. 23, Indianapolis was elected Deputy Grand Master of the Past Grand Master's Council, the highest branch of the Order of Odd Fellows at the recent B. M. C. held in Boston. This is a great honor to be conferred on Indiana and is a tribute to the work of Capt. Genus.

Little Brothers.

Little children, never give
Pain to things that feel and live.
Let the gentle robin come
For the crumbs you save at home.
As his food you throw along
He'll repay you with a song.
Never hurt the timid hare
Peeping from her green grass lair.
Let her come and sport and play
On your lawn at close of day.
The little lark goes soaring high
To the bright windows of the sky.
Singing as if 'twere always spring
And flying on an untired wing.
Oh, let him sing his happy song,
Nor do these little brothers wrong!

Colored Progressive Stands By Principles

R. L. Brokenburr is a colored man and a Progressive. He believes other colored men should be Progressives; he believes they should not be Republicans or Democrats. He gave reasons, and splendid reasons they were, too.

He dismissed the Democrats with a sentence.

"I don't see how any self-respecting colored man can vote the Democratic ticket, in view of the fact that the South dominates the party."

For the Republicans he had more to say, because the colored men had stood by that party until the Progressives came into the field.

"The Republican party isn't what it used to be. It freed the colored men, but it has urged that on us for fifty years as a reason why we should support it. And it has ceased to stand for anything toward us. When it has wanted our votes, and got them, and that was the end."

"Take the 'grandfather' clauses and other plans designed by the Southern Democrats to disfranchise the colored men—to steal his right to vote. Republican Supreme courts had opportunity to pass on these things, but they dismissed them on technical grounds without passing on the merits of the cases; seemingly, the Republicans took no stand on these attacks of the Democrats on the colored men, and received in exchange Democratic support for Republican measures."

This seems to be the real bi-partisan alliance; if colored men ever owed the Republicans anything, the debt was paid long ago. But they should remember that they were freed as a political measure; the Republican party did not intend to free them when it went to war.

"It seems to me that these plans of the Southern Democrats to rob the colored man of his vote make the real, important issue now," continued Mr. Brokenburr. "This is the biggest question my race is facing, and the Republican party that pretends to be our friend, did not settle it in the Supreme Court when it could. The Democrats went ahead trying to disfranchise us, and no hand was raised to stop them."

"And why do I look for more from the Progressives? Their great leader, Colonel Roosevelt, when President, did more than any one since Lincoln. I have not forgotten how he appointed Dr. Crump collector of the port at Charleston, S. C.; how he appointed Mrs. Cox postmistress at Indianapolis, Miss.; how he backed John R. Lynch for permanent chairman of the Republican national convention; how he had Booker T. Washington as his guest at the White House. And all these were colored people. When the people at Indianapolis tried to oust Mrs. Cox, President Roosevelt told them she would stay—if they wished, he would close the postoffice, but he would not discharge Mrs. Cox."

"When Mr. Taft became President, he stated in his inaugural address that he would appoint no colored man where there was opposition. What did this mean? It meant a blow to us in the North as well as in the South. Mr. Taft was leader of the Republican party then, the party that always pretended to be our friend. Compare this with Colonel Roosevelt's stand."

"Now, here's another thing: The Progressives this year nominated W. S. Henry for the Legislature, to give us a man to see that we got justice. The Republicans—and the Democrats—have no colored man on their whole tickets. If the Republicans wish to give us justice, why did they leave us out?"

"I was Progressive nominee for the Legislature in 1912. I was among the high men of the whole ticket. It showed the whole party supported me. It was a common saying with the Republicans that any colored man was bound to run 5,000 votes behind all the rest of the ticket; the Republicans would nominate him and then scratch him. The Progressives didn't do that. I repeat, I was among the highest men on the ticket."

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH TAKES STEPS IN RIGHT DIRECTION.

Members to Receive Benefits—Employment Bureau to Be Established.

Allen Chapel A. M. E. church, 1019 Broadway, is taking steps which will meet the long-felt need in the church life. For a long time the faithful church-going people have felt that there was something lacking in the administration of religious practice, something that Jesus meant and yet means to be practiced by his followers.

The plan which has been adopted by the church conference will put new life and blood in the religious vein of its membership. It will secure sympathetic giving and more regular attendance on religious worship. This plan includes a fund that will be provided for the benefit of its members so that if any member should meet with an accident or sickness they will receive a benefit paid weekly similar to the work being done by the lodges. The operation will go into effect the second Sunday in November and all the members of the church that give their support at the beginning to this method will become beneficiaries within three

"If I had no other reason, I would consider these as enough; but I have fifty reasons."

And here Mr. Brokenburr became very serious. His eyes lighted up and he spoke rapidly and incisively.

"The Progressive party considers the colored man as a citizen—nothing more, nothing less—it is enough. We don't want to be made an issue; we don't want planks put in platforms designed to catch our vote, and then to have the party forget all about us. The Republicans did it; the Progressives do not."

"I sometimes wonder," he continued, speaking slowly, "whether the colored man has found himself; whether he realizes that he is a citizen and not a political issue. He must find himself, and I believe the Progressives will help us."

"Certainly, we benefit by any legislation that benefits the great mass of the people, the workers, who need help. If I see where the Progressives intend to help the many, then I say that there the colored man will receive more help than the white. Why? Workmen's compensation, prevention of occupational diseases and industrial accidents, child labor legislation and women's minimum wage laws mean more to us, because more of our people would be affected by them."

"Take the women. Many of our race, in the large cities especially, are doing hard work, often poorly paid. There is a large per cent of them in such work that of white women. A minimum wage law means much to them. Free school books would help us more than the whites. We find it harder to keep our children in school, and if we get free books it would ease our load that much. We have more poorer people than you; that's the reason why the Progressive planks for the poor mean more to us."

"If we get civil service, for another example, it gives the colored man assurance that he has a chance; he has little now. He would know that if he were qualified for the place better than another, white or not, he would get it. Now he doesn't know. The direct primary gives him a chance to show his interest in government, and the general betterment of the whole country."

"And the Progressive party gives him a chance to show up the old lies of the Republicans. They always have said they had to buy the colored vote. It is not true," and here Mr. Brokenburr banged the desk with his fist. "The Progressives have not thrown large sums of money into our wards, to buy those who could be bought, for there are crooked colored men as well as white. It gives us the opportunity to show that the Republicans lied—that we are straight as a race and interested only in good government. The short ballot gives us the chance to vote for those who will give us justice, and I could go on and on with the Progressive planks, a protective tariff, for example, for which we stand. The Progressives want protection, but they want it taken out of politics, and so do we, for we colored people are the first to suffer when panics come as the result of Democratic and Republican tinkering with business."

Mr. Brokenburr is one of the best known colored attorneys in Indianapolis. He was born at Phoenix, Va., and worked his way through Hampton, from which he was graduated in 1906, and Howard University law school, from which he was graduated in 1909. That year he came to Indianapolis. He is a member of the colored Masons and Knights of Pythias; active in Y. M. C. A. work; one of the men connected with the Sisters of Charity; a trustee of Flanner Guild, the colored settlement house; secretary and in the legal aid department of the Good Citizens' League; on the legal committee of the Woman's Civic Club, the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people, and is prominent in the work of the Zion M. E. church. When Mr. Brokenburr speaks, he is in earnest. His stand for the Progressives meant much in 1912 and 1913. It will mean more this year.

months after the second Sunday in November. All members are urged to attend services both Sundays and Thursday evenings and hear a full explanation of the system and get a clear understanding of it before the first Sunday of its operation.

This move will make Allen Chapel the first church known to the writer that has adopted a system of giving a sick benefit without an extra assessment. Along with this system the church will establish an employment bureau, the purpose of which is to secure employment for its members to form an industrial union for the benefit of all concerned to improve the working ability of its membership by scientific literature and addresses along industrial lines. This move will bring the employer and employees closer together and be a protection to all. The Rev. J. R. Harvey, who is the pastor of the church, is putting forth every effort with his corps of officers and members to make his church a real benefit to its members.

Rev. Harvey will preach next Sunday morning on "The Pleasures of Spiritual Growth," and at night on "The Value of Services." The public is cordially invited to these services. Every member should put forth an earnest effort to be present that they may hear the system that will mean so much to every member explained.

WILLIAMS' WORLD FAMOUS COLORED SINGERS

FAVORITES OF TWO CONTINENTS

130 PERFORMANCES IN LONDON, ENG.

Witherspoon United Presbyterian church presents this company of artists to the people of Indianapolis at Bethel church, November 2. The annual concert of Witherspoon church was omitted last year for the reason that suitable talent could not be secured, so this year we are offering this unusual attraction. We are presenting a $1.00 entertainment for 50 cents.

What follows is the introduction of this company to the general public: The World Famous WILLIAMS' COLORED SINGERS. Everyone a Star.

In presenting this company to the public the management has made special effort to have a high moral as well as musical standard. Therefore, our members have been selected from the best Christian homes and have trained in some of America's best schools.

Rust University of Mississippi, Knoxville College and Fisk University of Tennessee, and Oberlin College of Ohio are represented in our company. The Quartet is a special feature and is always a favorite. The prima donna was trained by one of the best instructors of Chicago. She has a lyric voice possessing the flute quality, which is classed by the European masters as being the rarest and most beautiful. The colored race has produced few singers as great as she.

The Contralto has been a student at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music. She possesses a rich and charming voice of great depth and power, which has won her many admirers. The soprano is worthy of special mention. Her remarkable talent is quickly recognized and appreciated by music lovers everywhere.

The pianist is an experienced accompanist of great natural ability. She also has a rich mezzo-soprano voice. For several seasons we have made return dates, and every season our audiences are larger and the circle of our personal friends is wider. Another cause of our great popularity is the fact that we keep the same personnel. The entire company is composed of a double quartet; that is, a ladies' quartet and a male quartet, and our selection of songs varies from the opera to the negro boat and cabin songs.

To years of constant devotion to our life's work in the United States and Canada, we have added a year of travel and study in England, Scotland, Wales, Holland, Belgium, Germany and France. We were eighteen weeks in London, where we gave 130 performances, singing in many of its best known theatres, among which was the world famous Coliseum. While in London the entire company was under the instruction of one of the world's greatest vocal teachers, Miss Ira Aldridge, who is a scholar of the London Royal Conservatory of Music, and whose early teacher was the famous Jennie Lind. This experience added to natural talent and former years of faithful application enhances the ability of each individual singer and has produced in our case a remarkable musical combination. The company is now stronger than ever and we are glad to be again touring America—our native land.

THE GREATEST MUSICAL PHENOMENA.

A chorus of twenty voices in plantation melodies at Corinthian Baptist church Monday night, October 26th, under the auspices of the American Beauty Embroidery Club.

As to the manner of their singing, it must be heard before it can be realized. Like the Swedish melodies of Jenny Lind, it gives a new musical idea. It has been well remarked that in some respect it disarms criticism. Such singing can only be the result of the most careful training. Special numbers aside from the chorus will be rendered by Mrs. Alberta Grubbs and Russell Smith.

Mrs. Grubbs possesses a fine voice of splendid quality and great compass which she uses with marked skill and is especially adapted to music of dramatic character. Russell Smith, the sweet tenor, is also the possessor of a splendid voice and sings in admirable style, both in song and concerted music.

Mrs. Blanch Robinson, pianist. This gifted artist besides being an excellent accompanist is also a solo player of great promise. She has had the honor of playing before the most critical audience at the world's fair in Seattle, Wash., and it is predicted by our leading musicians she will rank with the first pianists of the day. Don't fail to hear these artists for the small fee of 10 cents.

Second Educational Meeting at Y. M. C. A.

The Woman's Council will hold their second educational meeting at the Y. M. C. A., Monday at 3:30. Theme for discussion is, "Suffrage." Miss Elizabeth Mays, who has taken an active part in promoting the suffrage movement among colored women and because of this thorough preparation will be ready to do much in that direction, will give a talk on "Preparation on the Part of Those Who are to Receive Suffrage." Miss Laura Donnan will talk on "Democracy in the Movement," and F. B. Ransom on "The New Constitution." Miss Carolyn Barnes will preside and a silver offering will be taken. Miss Della Wilson will have charge of the decorations.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Second Semi-Annual District meeting of the third district: Knights of Pythias will be held at Kokomo, Ind., Tuesday Oct. 20th. Sessions will be held in the morning and afternoon and an elaborate banquet will be held at night at Seaward's Hall.

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health.

Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regarding the effects of constipation, C. E. Ayers, 6 Sabiu St., Montpelier, Vt., says: "I was afflicted with constipation and biliousness for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

FOR SHERIFF

THEODORE PORTEUS FOR SHERIFF HAS MADE GOOD.

A Man Who Believes a Public Office a Public Trust Has Made a Model Sheriff.

At the coming election the people of Marion county will have an opportunity to cast their votes for the election of a man whom they think is the best fitted and qualified to manage and supervise the duties of the office of sheriff.

It is plainly seen that the sheriff's office has many duties and large responsibilities, and for this reason the taxpayers should see to it that this office is kept in the hands of an honest, trustworthy and efficient servant. If the people are not willing to nominate a man whom they have already found and know to be "tried and true to their interests," then they will be remiss in their duty to themselves.

Mr. Porteus is 54 years of age, and was born in Franklin county, Indiana, July 24, 1859. After leaving the farm he clerked in a hardware store for two years. After becoming a traveling salesman he moved to Indianapolis in 1885, where he has lived ever since. He is a member of the Indiana and Old Hickory Democratic Clubs, as well as a member of the F. and A. M., I. O. O. F., K. of P., Moose, Buffalo and other fraternal organizations.

He was elected to the city council from the ninth ward in November, 1905, notwithstanding the ward was strongly Republican, and served throughout the years of 1906 to 1909 with credit to himself and his party. When Mr. Porteus was candidate for sheriff two years ago the Indianapolis News said: "Theodore Porteus was a member of the city council until he became deputy sheriff and was one of the few members of the council against whom no charge was ever made of crookedness or questionable practices. He came through with a clean record."

Mr. Porteus, since his election, has been the real sheriff of Marion county. He is the first sheriff in the history of the county who has given his undivided attention to the management and supervision of the business of this office.

After the election of Mr. Porteus as sheriff the State Board of Accounts examined the books in the sheriff's office for the four years that he acted as chief deputy, and found that all the money collected by him had been properly accounted for and turned over to the county treasurer.

Business in the sheriff's office has been kept up to date, and everybody with business to transact has had prompt, careful and courteous attention.

Mr. Porteus has employed more deputies and has paid them larger salaries than any other sheriff in Marion county.

Mr. Porteus has employed a corps of deputies who have been trained to his own ideals of efficiency, exactness and conscientiousness in the performance of their duties.

The jail has been kept clean, sanitary and free from vermin. The clothing of the prisoners is disinfected in an apparatus installed by the sheriff.

Autumn Exposition Held in New York.

An autumn exposition, showing the progress of the colored people in Greater New York, was held at the Manhattan Casino in New York city from Sept. 28 to Oct. 3, inclusive. The exhibits were numerous and gave evidence of much skill and fine workmanship on the part of the exhibitors. The affair was promoted by Messrs. Alex Rogers, Fred R. Moore, Lester A. Walton, Romeo L. Dougherty, Jesse A. Shipp, Edward Warren and Leigh R. Whipper. After paying the expenses of the exposition the balance of the proceeds will be divided among charitable institutions conducted by our people in Greater New York and vicinity.

EQUAL RIGHTS LEAGUE.

Independent Political Organization Battles For Square Deal.

The Independent Equal Rights League of Colored Men is sending the following letter to candidates for congress in the various sections of the country:

At the seventh annual meeting of the National Independent Equal Rights league, held in New York recently, in the address to the country this paragraph and the questions below appeared:

"We advise colored voters to look into the record of every congressman up for re-election, to make an issue of the color segregation practiced by certain cabinet officers and encoached in bills already introduced into congress. Find out where each candidate stands on these anti-Negro bills and the anti-intermarriage bill and act accordingly."

In pursuance of the foregoing the league hereby publicly asks what the attitude of congressional candidates will be, if elected, on the matters above referred to.

Will you, if elected, seek to prevail upon the secretary of the treasury and the postmaster general to abolish such segregation of colored government employees as has been instituted under them as to rest room, eating, working and toilet facilities?

Will you use your influence, voice and vote against bills to segregate colored clerks and to establish jimcrow cars in the District of Columbia?

Will you use your influence, voice and vote against bills making it a crime for colored and noncolored persons to marry in the District of Columbia?

Will you favor the enforcement of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, now notoriously nullified in certain states?

An early answer will be appreciated. To each of these questions the league requests an answer.

New Court of Calanthe Organized. The most recent number of the female branch of the Knights of Pythias in Pittsburgh was organized the latter part of September by Mrs. Mattie V. Wilson and is known as Harmony Court of Calanthe, No. 354. The new court starts off with a membership of thirty and is officiated by some of Pittsburgh's most experienced secret society women.

Obituary

The funeral of Wm. A. Yeager age 35 years who died at his residence 914 Muskingum street after a four hours illness, was held Thursday from the family residence Rev. W. I. Rowan, officiating. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Belle Kennedy, sister, Miss Hester Yeager and nephew Ernest Poole. He was well known in the city having worked for years for C. M. C. Willis, undertaker. At the time of his death he was working at the Woolworth 5 and 10 Cent Store. The manager and employees sent beautiful floral designs.

Mrs. Elizabeth Starks, age 41 years, wife of Jesse Starks of 225 E Michigan street, died Thursday morning at the City Hospital. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Chapel of Flanner and Buchanan, and the remains were taken to Glasgow, Ky., for interment accompanied by her husband and brother.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the many kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the illness and death of our son and brother, Wm. A. Yeager, especially the manager and employees of the Woolworth 5 and 10 Cents, his many associates and friends for their beautiful floral offerings, also Rev. W. I. Rowan for consoling remarks and Undertaker C. M. C. Willis for efficient service.

Mrs. Belle Kennedy, Mother: Miss Hester Yeager, Sister; Ernest Poole, Nephew.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. May Noel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Enns of 1215 Mc Dougal street departed this life Thursday, Oct. 8th, 1914, leaving to mourn her loss husband, mother, father, sisters, brothers, aunts and uncles and a host of friends. She was a teacher in the South Calvary, sec., of the Sunday School Union and a strong worker for God. We thank the pastors and members of South Calvary and Olivet Baptist churches, Sisters of Charity No. 2, and the many friends for the kindness shown during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister. We also wish to thank the many friends for the beautiful floral offerings, and Abel Bros. and Harrison for their efficient service.

You are gone dear May
 But not forever
 For we shall meet you
 On yonder shore
 Husband, Mother, Sisters and Brothers.

CHVRCH NOTES.

A large audience is expected to hear Prof. J. G. McGavran of the College of Missions, Monday evening lecture on "India and Her Temples" at the Second Christian church, under the auspices of the Men's club of the church. Prof. McGavran spent twenty years as a missionary in India and is an authority on its life.

The installation service of Rev. J. S. Holder of Ebenezer church was of a high order and well attended last week.

Noted Singer And Musician Will Appear At Jones Tabernacle.

Madam Ada Van Spence Murphy the colorature Soprano of Bloomington, Ind., will appear in Recital in an All Star program at Jones Tabernacle Friday evening Nov. 6th.

Mme. Murphy is widely known in the West and North-east as a colorature soprano of rare ability, as well as an accomplished pianist. She has also proven herself a director of choruses, as was demonstrated at the M. E. District Conference held at Simpson Chapel, Indianapolis on August 19th when the Taylor Chapel Choir of Bloomington, Ind., made such an impression on its hearers. She is a thorough musician, highly cultured and shows marks of careful training.

Read what those who have heard her, say:

To Whom It May Concern: I hereby wish to say that Mme. Murphy is a singer of note having sang before thousands in this and other cities, and has given entire satisfaction and pleasure to her hearers. She is destined to become one of the great singers of the race.

Rev. Geo. R. Wade, pastor St. James A. M. E. church, Minneapolis, Minn.

The Daily Telephone, Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 9, 1914—Madam Murphy sang "Ecstasy" in such a manner as would have been a treat to Madison Square Garden or the Chicago, Iroquois. Of course she received prolonged encore.

The B. Y. P. U. of Second Baptist church extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend its meetings. The following program will be rendered Sunday at 6:30 p. m.: solo, Miss Hazel Gilmer; reading, Miss Senna Sherman; instrumental solo, Mr. Rheim; solo, Miss Ada Jordan. Subject to be discussed by the B. Y. P. U. is "How to make our Union."

Ruth Day will be observed Sunday at Jones Tabernacle. A program will be rendered. All members of the various Households of Ruth are requested to meet at the church Sunday at 1 p. m.

Thanks Friends For Kindness.

Thomas Johnson, 422 North Missouri street is improving from an attack of typhoid fever. He and his mother desire to thank the friends for the fruit and sisterly attention during his illness. Especially do we thank his teacher Mrs. Beulah Porter and schoolmates for the beautiful flowers.

Thomas Johnson and mother.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Dr. L. A. Lewis, a promising young physician of the city, opened the series of practical talks on last Tuesday evening to the Senior Gym class. The entire class were very enthusiastic in their praises to Dr. Lewis for his very timely advice in the discussion of "Sex Health." These lectures will continue each month until spring. From time to time more than a dozen authorities of the medical fraternity will discuss before this class the care and prevention of such diseases and ailments peculiar to physical happiness. Dr. W. E. Brown will make the second lecture of the series on Tuesday evening, October 27, discussing coughs, colds and catarrh.

The old adage that the "proof is in the eating" can well be linked with the success of the association's Bible classes.

Mr. R. L. Brokenburr as chairman, assisted by a large corps of interested leaders is meeting the demands of the community through the enrollment of a large number of men who have not been previously interested in Bible study work. The opening of the International Sunday school teachers' class on Thursday evening, is expected to result in a much needed reform in the adult leadership of children. This class is opened to both men and women, and will meet each Thursday evening under the able leadership of Rev. H. L. Herod, who desires that all interested parties enroll in the class. Mr. W. V. Casey, who has charge of the educational department, has a list of many new and interesting courses for men who are seeking industrial pursuits or academic studies in the night school courses. Mr. M. L. Stevenson has been secured as instructor in mathematics and common English branches, which is now open to both men and boys.

Messrs. Leroy Harper, James Willis and Fred Berry complete the staff of instructors in the automobile class. The members of this class will be especially benefited through the long and practical experiences of these men who will be constantly in attendance. There are many new features being planned in interest of the junior department. An organization has been formed among the mothers of the junior members, who will assist and promote in every way possible the general welfare of boys. The association endeavors to have at an early date a uniformed boy scout troop in point of efficiency and service unequalled in the middle West. A leader's corps of fourteen boys have been formed and will assist the secretary in every way possible in promoting the many phases of the work.

PAXTON HIBBEN.

TROUTBECK, AMENIA, NEW YORK
 My Dear Hibben: You do not know how difficult it is to refuse your generous invitation to speak for you in Indianapolis. Your answers to the set of questions sent out by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People are absolutely perfect, and I thank you for sending me the article in the Indianapolis Recorder, in which you state your attitude toward the Negro problem with such fairness and justice. Unless your opponents take a stand as radical and just as yours, every colored voter in your district should support you at the polls.

But despite this fact, I fear that I can not go to Indianapolis to make a public appeal for your support. For years I have devoted myself to the cause of equal rights for the colored people of our country, and those who know me at all know that I have never used my interest in them, my acquaintance with their needs, or my influence with them for any partisan ends, even for so worthy a cause as the election of a political candidate like yourself, whom I feel they can implicitly trust. I have never appealed to a colored audience to support any one political party, and I can not begin now. I must keep myself free from all entangling alliances, so far as the cause of the colored race is concerned, in order to help that cause more impartially and more effectively. I am a Progressive myself, but I have never asked a single black man to vote for the Progressive party. I am sure you will understand my position and agree that it is right. I have no objection to your printing this letter if you think it will help your cause, but I know my colored friends in Indianapolis, even those who belong to my party, will agree with me that I ought not to stump your district for you or any one else.

Sincerely yours,
 J. E. SPINGARN.

Hon. Paxton Hibben, Indianapolis.

MY PLATFORM: The Office of County Treasurer has to do with the proper collection, safe guarding and disbursement of about—
 Five Millions of Dollars Annually of Funds of the Taxpayers

It should not be looked upon as a political office. Considerable sums of this trust may be diverted by technical means to ill-advantage of our citizens by a faithless or partisan-minded trustee. The tax payer is interested too in not being taken advantage of by lax methods of notices, and should receive wherever possible, more extended courtesies, such as ought to prevail toward those who pay their hard-earned money into the Treasury. The taxpayer for the most part, pays his lawful proportion willingly and he has the right to expect that the funds shall be scrupulously and honestly administered.

This I Pledge Myself to Do, if Elected.

I would appreciate your vote, and thank you also for any support given to me among your friends. Let me hear from YOU.

Because of the famine that is in the land, not for bread and water, but for hearing the word of God, it has been enjoined upon us by the Lord to hold continuous services from one end of the year to the other and this we are doing by the strength of Israel's God. The full gospel is preached in all of its primitive simplicity. The sick are being healed, devils cast out, sinners saved, prodigals are returning to the Lord and being baptized with the Holy Ghost and the poor are having the gospel preached unto them. Everybody welcome. Come and bring the sick and all who are in need of the Water of Life. No collections are taken. The entire work is supported by the freewill offering. No membership sought after nor attained. Services every night at 7:30 except Saturday. Bible Reading, Tuesday and Friday 2 p. m.; Sunday 5 and 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All are welcome.

HOLY PILGRIM MISSION.
806 LOCKE STREET.
Order of services, Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. These meetings are for the salvation of the lost. We are having hungry souls seeking to know the Word of God. Our mission is to help the poor in spirit, soul and body. We need volunteers. We are trying to make life worth living and to show that Jesus was a friend to humanity. All are welcome. Our work is supported by freewill offerings. Services conducted by Rev. Nellie G. Hale and Henrietta Polk.

Lesson III.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 18, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark xiv, 32-42.
Memory Verses, 34-36—Golden Text, Matt. xxvi, 41—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Wholly forgetful of Himself and His approaching sufferings, in a way that we cannot understand, He comforted that little band with the incomparable words of John xiv, xv, xvi and prayed the prayer of John xvii, such a prayer as was never prayed on earth before or since. Then they sang a hymn and went out into the mount of Olives (verse 26). He went forth over the brook Cedron, because His son Israel had turned against Him and would not have Him (Ex. iv, 22; Ps. lxxxi, 11). We cannot but think of His father David going forth over the same brook because his son rebelled against him (II Sam. xv, 23), but as truly as David returned and reigned when the rebellion was over, so shall the Son of David return and reign when Israel's rebellion is over.

Having entered a garden in Gethsemane (John xviii, 1), He said to His disciples, "Sit ye here while I shall pray," and, leaving eight of them. He took Peter and James and John and went a little farther and began to be sorrowful and very heavy (verse 33; Matt. xxvi, 37). Putting the three records together as well as we can, it seems to have been like this: He was withdrawn from the three favored disciples about a stone's cast, saying to them, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death. Tarry ye here and watch with me." Then He went forward a little and knelted down and fell on His face on the ground and prayed, saying, "O my Father, if it be possible let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not my will but Thine be done." And there appeared an angel unto Him from heaven, strengthening Him. And, being in an agony, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. (Matt. xxvi, 37-39; Mark xiv, 33-36; Luke xxii, 41-44.)

Then He came to the three and found them asleep and said unto Peter: "Simon, sleepest thou? Condest thou not watch with me one hour? Watch ye and pray lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." He went away the second time and prayed the same words, and returned and found them asleep again, and they did not know what to answer Him.

He went away and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then He came the third time to the three and said, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough, the hour is come: behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners." Then He returned to the eight and found them also sleeping for sorrow, and said: "Why sleep ye? Rise and pray lest ye enter into temptation." This attempt at a conservative story of that awful night in the garden may not be quite correct in every detail, but it is helpful even to try to do it. Do it for yourself, and you will be blessed in doing it.

It is clear that He prayed three times, that He found them three times sleeping, that He sweat, as it were, drops of blood, that an angel strengthened Him, that after His agony He was able to rise up and go to meet His enemies.

What shall we say of the favored three who were also with Him at the raising of the ruler's daughter and on the mount of transfiguration and two of them honored to bring to Him the ass' colt and to prepare the Passover? What about their sleeping at His transfiguration (Luke ix, 32), as well as in the garden, and the fact that neither glory nor suffering can keep such mortals as we are awake? What about the boasting of Peter and then his not being able to watch one hour? Oh, the loneliness of it all on His side! "No man knoweth the Son save the Father." How can He continue to love such as we are and ever hope to make anything out of us? May His patience with us make us more patient with each other.

As to His own experience in the garden we may be quite certain that He was not shrinking from death on the cross, nor was He asking to be delivered from that. We know that the devil tried to kill Him as a babe in Bethlehem and by His own townsmen at Nazareth and possibly in the storm on the lake, but he could not, for the time had not come. My own conviction concerning His agony and bloody sweat in Gethsemane is that it was another attempt of the devil to kill Him before the time and thus prevent His great sacrifice for sin on Calvary. The key to it is found in Heb. v, 7. "He offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto Him that was able to save Him from death and was heard." It is the record of His third weeping. He prayed to be saved from death, and He was heard and therefore saved from death, the death in the garden which seemed imminent. An angel came to Him and strengthened Him that He might go on to the cross and finish the great atonement for sin which He came to make. Yet He was willing to leave His work unfinished and die in the garden if His Father should so will it.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS.

BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

THE MIRAGE OF LIFE.

Text, "What is your life? It is even a vapor."—Jas. iv, 14.

"Poor fool!" A toy balloon was sailing near the housetops. A grocer's boy with a basket of apples saw it from the sidewalk. He stopped open mouthed, staring eyed. It was descending. His basket dropped. Some one else overturned it. Its contents scattered. He darted into the street oblivious to trolleys, trucks, autos. It was nearer. It bobbed up and down in the fickle breeze. His hand almost touched it. It dropped again tantalizingly near—he almost had it—then up again a foot beyond his reach. Another whiff of air and it is down directly in front of him. He darts forward, claps his hands against its sides, and— it bursts! Vanishes into thin air, like a ghost at dawn. He stands for a moment looking at the thin rubber tissue in his hand, then flings it aside in disgust. He looks for his apples. They're gone. "Poor fool!" And yet thousands of others were darting from the same sidewalks into the courthouse, the banks, the shops, the stock market, the lurid "movies," dashing by in big red touring cars at the speed limit, pursuing something just beyond them. Have you seen folks when they have caught up? Have you noted the enjoyment seeker the moment after? There is no time when the balloon is farther away than when you have caught it.

The Mirage of Life.

After traveling for hours across a trackless waste of burning desert sand, tormented by thirst, the traveler discovers his supply of water has failed. The last muddy drops are drunk. His eyes, ears and mouth are gradually filling up with the fine alkali sand, until he feels a cupful of water would be worth its weight in gold. At this moment, when his mind and body are in such a state of torment, he sees to his delight in the distance a large lake, its banks covered with palms, its surface with little islands of refreshing green. Cheered by the sight he presses on, eager to quench his thirst. As he goes the lake recedes. At each advance it, too, moves, until at last, tortured by thirst, exhausted by fatigue, he sinks in despair. He has been chasing the mirage of the desert. The effects of mirage are extraordinary. It is the very phantasmagoria of nature; her wildest, most wayward and most fantastic sport. She creates the illusion of laughing waves, sparkling lakes, verdurous islands, feathery palms, blooming flowers, only to mock the traveler's ravished eyes. The desert mirage is only a type of life itself, luring man onward toward tomorrow.

The Illusion of Life.

Life is an illusion, not a delusion. To paint wood or stone so that it will be taken for stone or iron is a delusion. To paint a picture so that earth and sky are not mistaken for what they seem, but produce the emotion of earth and sky, this is illusion and is the painter's art. The law of illusion is written large in everyday life. Children live in the world of make believe, and grown folks hunger for it too. We live in a world where our senses trick us. Our earth seems larger than any star, the moon is small, sky is blue, clouds are fleecy, the sun revolves about the earth—at least so it seems. Life lures us on, dangles the prize before us, making sure to keep it just beyond our grasp, if not our touch. Youth has the freshness of morn to travel in, middle age blaze of high noon, old age evening shadows, twilight—and after that the dark. The prize lies at the end of the race, though Abraham never owned a foot of ground, and Moses never crossed the Jordan; he only saw the "sweet fields beyond the swelling flood," standing "dressed in living green." But they reached the great goal. So we fathers promise a bicycle for the boy, and a Phi Beta Kappa key dangles before the man, and both are lured through many a drab school day till the education is finished.

The Will o' the Wisp.

Is the rainbow necessary as the rain? Are clouds only God's sprinkling pots, or are they the canvas of the sky? Are apple blossoms only to produce apples, or are they for bees and lovers' eyes? Should one have vegetable garden and no flowers? Is truth merely to be weighed and measured, or is it to be dreamed, felt and imagined? The greatest truths of life are only apprehended through illusions. Knowledge is a passing from one illusion to another. Astrology leads to astronomy, alchemy to chemistry, savagery to civilization. The thousands dying on European battlefields, filled with patriotism—illusion? Possibly, but on the way to a higher patriotism. The heathen in his blindness is on his way to the cross of Calvary. Illusion is the law of growth. Who can define the miracle of birth and the mystery of death? Who knows what is health, when the weakling lives through years and the athlete dies in a few sick days? Who can define wealth save as accumulation of things? Love is an illusion. Many a June bride has most cried her eyes out before September. But when the honeymoon went down it brought the steady, certain light of a new day. The lover and lass are now father and mother. The man has his dream of success and the woman of love. Neither ever has it quite fulfilled. Illusion is God's way of getting things done.

VINCENNES, IND.

Mr. Editor of the Indianapolis Recorder—In my opinion the success of any race or nation depends greatly upon its unity, for no nation or race can hope to win a victory divided. It took the white man of this country several hundred years to find this out, but at last they have gotten together and there is nothing on earth can separate them. But it seems to me that the Negro race will not unite upon anything. They are divided upon everything that makes for the betterment of the race, socially, politically and spiritually. We have among us a class of would-be leaders, stationed here and there in life, who are depending upon the white man for his bread and butter, who stand ready at any time to sell the race out for a dollar. In my judgment I think the best thing for the thinking Negroes to do is to call a convention of the best thinkers of the race and see if we cannot suggest some way out of our present conditions. The Negro ministers in our pulpits are the only leaders the race has to look to today, and they are divided over numbers and denominationalisms so that they have not the time to study out the best interest of the race. L. W. Ratliffe, writer. Mrs. Mary Dickerson, who is holding the principality of our public schools, is succeeding nicely. The mite missionary society of Bethel will render the following program Sunday, October 18th, in the afternoon at 3 o'clock: Anthem; by choir; selection; by the society; devotional services; by Mrs. Kitty Mallory; paper, "What Has Charity Done for the Nation," by Mrs. Effie Cook; address by Mrs. W. F. Farrell; solo by Miss Freda Rawls; address, Mrs. W. S. Biddle, president of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church; special selection by Mrs. Dora Brewer; remarks by the president, Mrs. G. A. Ratliffe. Stewardess board No. 2 of Bethel church gave an entertainment in the church parlors Thursday night, October 15th. The following persons called at the A. M. E. parsonage Friday night, October 9th, to express the love and appreciation they had for Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Ratliffe, and they left their tables loaded down with the good things of life, and each returned to their homes carrying with them the good wishes of Rev. and Mrs. Ratliffe. The party was led by Mrs. Kitty Mallory and Mrs. Elvira Carter. Persons present: Mrs. Leona H. Embry, Miss Freda Rawls, Mrs. Rhoda Lee, Israel Brown, Miss Susie Hinkle, Mrs. Maggie Wilson, Mrs. Ellen Conaway, Mrs. Bell Gordon, Mrs. Mattie Gordon, E. Monroe, Mrs. Sadie Monroe, Albert Smith, Prof. Dickerson and wife, Mrs. Silences, Mrs. Laura Glines, Mrs. Frances Anderson, Miss Minnie Eastwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Calvert, Rev. J. R. Avert, pastor Second Baptist church, Mr. William Thomas and wife, Mrs. Laws, of the Second Baptist church, T. L. Chapman and wife, Mr. G. W. Brewer and wife, Chas. Crutchfield and wife, Mr. John W. Clinton and wife and Lord Brewer. Hon. Guly Brewer, en route from Evansville to his home in Indianapolis, stopped over between trains and called at the A. M. E. parsonage and upon a number of his old Vincennes friends. He left for his home at 5:10 p. m.

COLUMBUS, IND.

Miss Addie Thomas, of Bloomington, came Sunday for an indefinite stay. Miss Hattie Stewart and Miss Jenkins, of Capital City, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart. Mrs. George Goins and daughter, Grace, have returned home after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends at Niles, Benton Harbor, St. Joe, Mich., and Chicago, Ill. The Greensburg District Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Convention will convene at the Second Baptist church, Rushville, November 6th. Each church is asked to be represented. Miss Birdie King is visiting in Seymour. Miss Icy Bell Owens, Franklin, was the guest of friends Sunday. Misses Gale Smith and Eva Bolden, North Vernon, and Mr. Emmet Downing, Seymour, spent Sunday with Mrs. Gladys Stewart. The following B. Y. P. U. officers were installed at the Ethel Hornet: W. E. Stewart, president; Carrie Miller, vice-president; G. C. Smith, secretary; Lella Warfield, assistant secretary; and Johnson, treasurer; B. T. Johnson, organist; Rev. J. Rivers, chairman of program committee. An excellent program was rendered Thursday night at the Second Baptist church by the Franklin chorus. Miss Marie Bolden and Clarice Pettiford, Seymour, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harper. Miss Maude Hodie has returned home after an extended visit at Indianapolis, Terre Haute and Kokomo. The A. M. E. Sunday school is progressing nically with Edward Troutman as superintendent.

TERRE HAUTE, IND.

Miss Florence Hastings, of Indianapolis, has been visiting in our city for a week, guest of Miss Louvenia Russell. She returned home Wednesday morning. The services at the Free Will Baptist church last Sunday were excellent all day. The pastor, Rev. McIntosh, preached two instructive sermons during the day. The Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society are both doing good work. The collection from all sources during the day was over $20. The services at the Spruce Street church last Sunday were very good and well attended. Miss Cassie Jackson, an evangelist of the A. M. E. Church, preached in the morning to an appreciative audience. Her sermon was highly spiritual throughout. Anyone needing her help in his revival services would do very well to get her. At the present time she is making her home at Isom Waugh's, of Lost Creek settlement, Vigo county, Ind. The Sabbath school at the Spruce Street A. M. E. church on last Sunday was largely attended, 121 persons being present. Dr. D. A. Bothe has moved into his new office, 1311 Washburn avenue. He is in a brand new building just finished. The doctor is all smiles now and seems to be very proud of his office. Give him a call. Macks Wheeler, 37 years old, died at his home Sunday and was buried from the Second Missionary Baptist church on last Tuesday afternoon. He had been sick about two months prior to his death. He was married to Miss Laura Lewis, daughter of John Lewis, of our city, over two years ago. He leaves a wife, one daughter, mother, father and many friends to mourn his demise. Rev. C. M. C. Hammond, preached the sermon. There will be a musical and concert given at Saulters Chapel Wednesday evening, October 21st. Some of the best talent of the city will take part in this entertainment. The pastor and members of Saulters Chapel are looking forward to the time when special meetings will begin—November 3rd. The pastors and public are invited to join in and help make this effort a success. The Colored Ministerial Union met at Saulters Chapel Monday afternoon, October 5th. Every one present pronounced it a helpful gathering. The Union meets every first and third Monday of each month. Next meeting at the Second Baptist church, October 19th. All church lovers are welcome. Direct all communications for the Colored Ministerial Union of Terre Haute to W. H. H. Renfro, 1351 Franklin avenue, Terre Haute, Ind. On next Sunday night, October 18, 1914, the meeting will be thrown open to the congregation. The subject will be, "What I Should Do to Make the Revival Effort a Success," lead by Rev. J. B. Russell. The choir will render special music of old and familiar songs. Rev. M. W. Sparks delivered an address of interest to the colored voters of Vigo county at the Vigo County Republican Club, Sixth and Ohio streets, on last Monday night. Ernest Tidginton delivered an address last Thursday evening. The first lecture of the City Teachers' Lecture Course was given at the First Methodist church, corner of Seventh and Poplar streets, on Thursday evening by Dr. Toyokichi Iyenaga. We would be pleased if all the ministers of the churches of our city would send in their news every week for publication. Do you really expect the agent to take his valuable moments and money to run about the city to get your items, when it is your duty and privilege to send them? Send them by Tuesday of each week.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 6, 1914. We, the members of the Colored Ministerial Union of Terre Haute, note with much regret that the Rev. J. L. Craven has been taken from us as a co-worker in the ministry of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ by his appointment to the Indiana District of the Indiana Conference of the A. M. E. Church as its presiding elder. He was ever congenial in spirit and brotherly in conduct and affectionate in devotion to all who chanced to know him.

We realize, also, the worth of his stay with us as a citizen as well as pastor of Allen Chapel, during which stay he has impressed us with the nobility of his character and personality. He has left in Terre Haute by his untiring efforts and great sacrifice, one of the most beautiful and substantial church edifices in this city, for which we should be thankful. We are glad to note, however, that Rev. Craven has been elevated to the high position of presiding elder, which his work here has shown him so well fitted to fill.

We wish also to thank Mrs. Craven, the beloved wife of Rev. Craven, for her sympathy and loyalty to her husband in his work, without which his success would have fallen far short of what it is. She has nobly borne the burden incident to the life of those whose lot it is to live in the parsonage.

May God give them abundant success in their new field of labor, is our earnest prayer.

Yours,

COLORED MINISTERIAL UNION OF
TERRE HAUTE,
C. M. C. HAMMOND, Pres.
W. H. H. RENFRO, Secy.
It is almost safe to say that as many as 200 teachers of the city schools of Terre Haute will attend the State Teachers' Association held last of this month, which meets in Indianapolis. We think the teachers should attend in a body and receive some of the inspiration that may be given at such meetings as these. "An old axe needs grinding sometimes."

PLAINFIELD, IND.

(By Agnes Miller)

Misses Ivalu Bryant and Ivah Bailey spent Saturday night and Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bryant, of Camby. Mrs. Kathleen House, of Michigan, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Cynthia Bryant. Jefferson Kellar, who has been here for a few weeks, returned to his home Saturday evening. Miss Mary Kirk, of West Newton, spent Monday evening with Miss Emma Bryant. Mrs. Cynthia Bryant has returned from a pleasant visit in Fort Wayne, guests of Mrs. Bettie McCulley. Roy Costen and sister, of Indianapolis, were guests of Miss Anna Cullins Sunday. Mrs. Otis Cullins was in the city Saturday on business.

FOWLER ITEMS.

Mrs. James Wilson entertained at dinner last Tuesday. Mrs. Liscomb dinner last Tuesday. Mrs. Lipscomb George Woodard is visiting relatives in Indianapolis. Mesdames Lewis Edwards and George Jeffries were Lafayette shoppers last Thursday. Dr. T. H. Carlyle, of Chicago, visited home folks Sunday. Henry Biggs, of Bass, Ind., is a Fowler visitor. Mrs. Amantus Board, of Indianapolis, is a visitor here. The families of John Jeffries, Clarence Wilson and Hiram Peterson spent the week end at the Peterson home. There are four teen members of the families and a jolly time was enjoyed. Mrs. Clarence Townsend, of Lafayette, is in the city this week. The school children are enjoying a week's vacation during institute. Mr. Penick has lost three horses in three weeks. Mrs. Pearl Chavis, of Logansport, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Penick.

RUSHVILLE, IND.

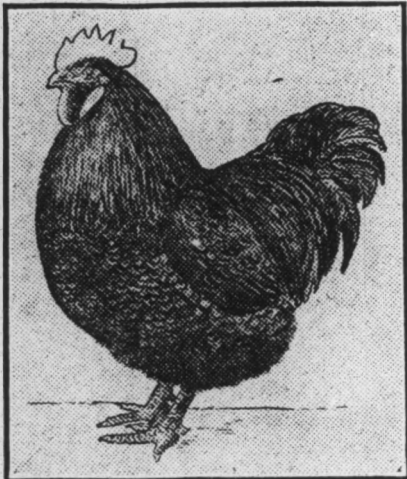

A delightful pitch-in supper was given at the home of Mrs. Joe Tracy Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Dr. Ramey, of Kokomo, and Mr. and Mrs. Prof. Bean, of this city. About twenty guests were present. Games of different sorts were played. Those present from out of town were, Mrs. Newby, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Brooks, of Hagerstown, Md.; and Mrs. Dr. Ramey, of Kokomo. Mr. and Mrs. Wills entertained a number of friends at their country home Sunday. Little Pauline Mabre is quite ill at her home on East Eighth street. Miss Lena Heathcock and Mr. Prior, of Carthage, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Bundrant Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Prof. Bean entertained Rev. Bryant, of Indianapolis, and Rev. Rollins at dinner Sunday evening. Rev. Bryant preached an excellent sermon at the M. E. church Sunday night. A large crowd was in attendance. He also held quarterly conference Monday night. Mrs. Mary Ewing, of Indianapolis, spent Sunday here, the guest of Mrs. Summerville, on East Eighth street. Mr. and Mrs. John Summerville, of Anderson, were the guests of Mr. Summerville's mother at dinner Sunday evening. The W. H. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. W. Bradley on Maple street Wednesday night. A number of friends visited the Washington school Monday afternoon and were greatly pleased with the work which is under the leadership of Prof. Bean.

POULTRY and EGGS

EARLY LAYING PULLETS.

Unwise Policy to Force Chickens to Premature Maturity.

There is a vast difference in the time in which pullets of the different breeds and different strains of the same breed will commence to lay, being anywhere from four to nine months of age, writes the editor of the Western Poultry Journal. I have known Leghorn pullets to lay when they were 100 days old, but never knew one that commenced under 135 days to make more than an ordinarily prolific hen. It is no trick to make pullets of almost any breed lay at four months if this object is kept in view from the time the chicks are hatched, but these forced pullets are made prematurely ripe and decline rapidly into senile old age without ever becoming good layers. Steady growth and full development of every part and function of the body are what we should strive for more than early maturity. It is as bad to allow the pullets to develop too slowly as it is to force them to early maturity. In all things there is a happy medium, and in the case of egg production it means the maximum result.

The Black Orpington breed of fowls is of English origin and was first introduced in 1886. The breed is believed to be a mixture of Minorca, Langshan and Plymouth Rock blood. The fowls soon became popular, and new varieties were turned out. The typical Orpington, whatever the variety, is a large, stately fowl with rather short legs. The breast is full and round, the back broad and the body deep. As a table bird it is excellent, and the hens are good layers.

The dry mash or ground grains for maturing pullets should not be too rich or stimulating, as it will force them along too rapidly. Such mashes can be given when the pullets are of full size and ready to lay, or if they do not lay when the proper time arrives ground grains and meat, rich in protein, are resorted to, and the pullets readily respond to this feed. In raising pullets we should take into consideration the specific purpose for which they are designed. If we want them for eggs only and do not care to keep them longer than the first laying year it will not be necessary to bestow as much care on the feed as if we designed to use them for breeders or retain them a second season for egg production. An early hatched pullet which commences to lay in the summer or fall and is forced to rapid maturity will produce her greatest number of eggs in the ten months following the dropping of the first egg. If she is allowed to live she will produce one-half to two-thirds as many more in the next twelve months. Carefully grown her period of usefulness may be extended, and while there is a great difference in hens, they will average to lay from 75 to 80 per cent of their first year's production the second laying season—that is, those which have been carefully reared will.

HOUSES FOR POULTRY.

Suggestions as to Location and Construction of Henhouses.

In order to get plenty of sunlight, choose a southern or southeastern exposure. If possible make use of natural shelter against cold winds. Select the southern side of a hill, an orchard or buildings.

The house must be dry. A site that provides natural drainage is desirable. Locate the house in as convenient a place as possible.

Fresh air houses should always be used. Cold air, if dry and without drafts, is conducive to hen health.

Floors may be earthen, board or cement. Earthen floors may be damp and are hard to clean. Board floors are best for permanent houses and may easily be kept sanitary.

Walls should be cheap and durable, providing warmth. They should be about five feet high in the rear and from six feet to eight feet high at the front.

The best types of roofs are the A roof, shed, or gable roof. Prepared roofing material is better than shingles or tar paper.

All fixtures should be portable to permit of easy cleaning.

Keep Pure Bred Hens.

There is no dependence on common mongrel hens for egg production. At times individual hens will be found that do good laying, but as a class there is too much of a haphazard mixture to realize any good results. Get a laying strain of some pure breed.

HAUGHVILLE.

A telegram was received by J. H. Pettiford last Tuesday morning telling of the death of his mother at 6:15. He and wife went immediately to Carthage. The funeral was held Thursday at 3 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. Philander Weaver. Mrs. Pettiford was sick many months, but was ready when the final summons came. Wm. V. Casey, secretary of the educational department of the Y. M. C. A., will address Caldwell chapel Sunday morning at 9:30, without fail. Sunday school board held its weekly meeting Tuesday with Mrs. Mary Walker. Dr. J. Wood preached Sunday at 10 o'clock at Caldwell chapel. Sunday was communion day at St. Paul's church. Mr. and Mrs. C. Cuff arrived home Tuesday from Bowling Green, where they had gone on a visit. Mrs. Susie Porter, of Chicago, was a Sunday guest of D. L. White and wife. Miss Sarah Smith was ill last week. Herman Roper continues sick at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Roper. Mrs. McNary is home after quite an extended visit with her daughter in Michigan, also at Windsor, Canada. The Woman's Club was entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. Nellie Pettiford. Mrs. Olivia Mitchell, who has been quite sick, is able to be out. The Buds of Promise continue to meet Wednesday afternoons at the church. Mrs. Susan Harding, the superintendent, is desirous of having a full attendance each week. Mr. Cabell and family spent the day Sunday in the country.

ANDERSON, IND.

Rev. and Mrs. B. A. Smith, Mrs. Rose Blakemore, Rev. B. A. Scruggs, P. J. Blakemore and Marcus Blakemore attended the district convention in Muncie this week. Communion at Allen chapel last Sunday was well attended, it being the first of this year with the pastor and members only. There was a complete success both financially and spiritually. There were 51 communicants and a collection of $32.65 taken, on which fact Dr. Shaffer highly commented. The revival will be held the last of November with Miss Mary G. Evans, the great evangelist, who needs no introduction to Indiana. Mrs. Wm. Webb is visiting in Ohio and Richmond. Mrs. Della Parker is here for an indefinite stay. Ben Carter and family have removed from Ironside to a home newly purchased on Madison avenue. Dr. White is contemplating a branch office in this city, having met with success here on his recent trips. He will, for the present, meet his patrons at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webster in Sherman street. Postman Wm. Montgomery is on his annual vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Graham, of Logansport, and Mrs. Webster in Sherman street. Postman Wm. Montgomery is on his annual vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Graham, of Logansport, and Mrs. Webster in Sherman street. Postman Wm. Montgomery is on his annual vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Graham, of Logansport, and Mrs. Webster in Sherman street.

Miss Nellie Wright is still seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Sommerville visited his mother in Rushville last week. Mrs. R. Sommerville has been ill for a number of weeks. James G. Brock, Chas. Turner, Wm. Montgomery and Wm. Baggby will attend the district K. of P. convention in Kokomo Tuesday. Ernest Moore, of Marion, was here last Sunday. Matthew Smith, of Marion, visited friends here Saturday. The Dramatic Club of King's Daughters will have a Dunbar concert at Allen's chapel on next Thursday evening, October 22. The principal idea of this entertainment is to acquaint those who do not already know and refreshen the minds of those who do know, with the story of the lives of the leading and foremost Negroes of the race, alternated by selections of Paul Laurence Dunbar's best readings and interspersed with glees and choruses. Following is the Dunbar program, which has been prepared with the greatest care: Song, chorus; invocation, Rev. J. M. Nichols; song, chorus; "Deacon Jones' Grievance," (Dunbar), Mrs. Webster; "Paul Laurence Dunbar" (story), Rachael Nichols; "When Malindy Sings" (Dunbar), Geraldine Kelly; "Booker T. Taliaferro Washington" (story), May Saunders; "A Conquette Conquered" (Dunbar), Lydia Nichols; "A Overture" (Dunbar), Hillard Saunders; "Frederick Douglas" (story), Iola Davis; "The Party (Dunbar), Hortense Kelly; "Samuel Coleridge" (story), Lucy Saunders; "Alexander Pushkin and Eda Kelly" (story), "Alexander Dumas" (story), Ada Miller; "How Lucky Backslid" (Dunbar), Greek Kelly; "Antonio Macco" (story), Vera Kennedy; song, chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Massy have bought an interest in the Autaw restaurant. Republican meetings are in progress. E. G. Tidginton speaks Friday night at headquarters for the interest of the race. Dr. Payne, of Whitley, and Rev. F. P. Baker speak Thursday night at Wm. Lacy's fish market for the interest of the Republican party. Mrs. Farris and Mrs. Effie Williams, have left for St. Louis. While in the city they were guests of Mrs. Alice Hammond. A great many out-of-town delegates are attending the B. Y. P. U. Sunday School Convention. Muncie Grizzley foot ball team will play Anderson colored boys Sunday at East Side Ball Park. Misses Louise and Gertrude and James Spalding are the guests of their father. Mrs. Curnell entertained at an afternoon tea Tuesday afternoon. Those present were: Miss Oeta Cotman, Miss Ora Day, Mrs. Lacy, Mr. George Calamease and Mrs. Cora Gunnell. Mrs. Ida Neal is ill at her home. J. B. Morgan is improving after an illness of typhoid fever. Rev. L. R. Mitchell attended the Delaware County School Convention, which was held at Yorktown.

MARION, IND.

Mrs. Blanch Akers left Saturday for Dayton to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winslow and family. A telegram was received by J. H. Pettiford last Tuesday morning telling of the death of his mother at 6:15. He and wife went immediately to Carthage. The funeral was held Thursday at 3 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. Philander Weaver. Mrs. Pettiford was sick many months, but was ready when the final summons came. Wm. V. Casey, secretary of the educational department of the Y. M. C. POPULAR CANDIDATE

JOB FREEMAN.

Job Freeman, of Terre Haute, Republican nominee for Treasurer of State, is one of the best known coal operators in Indiana. His treatment of his employes has always been so fair that the miners of Indiana are now enthusiastically supporting his candidacy. A few years ago Mr. Freeman gave a handsome new residence in the city of Linton to the miners for a hospital. The need for such an institution had long been felt, as the nearest modernly equipped hospital to this mining field was at Terre Haute, and the time necessary to carry a wounded miner to that city often cost a life. Mr. Freeman is one of the most popular men ever presented by a party for a State office. His business experience and success make him an ideal candidate for this highly important office.

REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT--WHICH? MINOR PARTIES HAVE NO CHANCE

Either the Republican party or the Democratic party will win at the polls in Indiana next month.

THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO QUESTION ABOUT THIS. Either Hugh Miller, Republican, or Ben Shively, Democrat, will be elected United States senator.

THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO QUESTION ABOUT THIS. Minor parties are in the field with tickets, but there is absolutely no chance for the election of any of them.

Are you going to throw your vote away on one of these minor parties? Are you going to be an "air heater"?

Between now and election efforts galore will be made to becloud the issue. Designing politicians will try to pull the wool over the eyes of enough voters to allow the ticket chosen and backed by the Crawford Fairbanks-Tom Taggart brewery organization to slip in. Emissaries of this gang of political highbinders will go up and down the state during the present month, telling how strong some of the minor parties are; they will profess with a long face that they regret that there is a chance that some one of the minor parties may be successful; in fact, they will do everything in their power by misrepresentation and falsification to get you not to vote the Republican ticket.

When you hear this kind of talk, give the one who is playing the "chin music" the "merry ha ha" and tell him that you know that either the Republican or Democratic party will win in November and that you are with the Republican party.

REMEMBER—Either the Republican party or the Democratic party—either Hugh Miller or Ben Shively—will win in Indiana on November 3 next.

If you are tired of Democratic mismanagement of state affairs and are disgusted with the demoralized commercial conditions due to a Democratic tariff law, vote the straight ticket of the Republican party—

"THE PARTY OF PROSPERITY."

JUDGE QUINCY A. MYERS

Quincy Alden Myers was born near Logansport, Cass county, September 1, 1853. His paternal grandfather was a pioneer farmer, and his own father a farmer, stockman and lumberman. Judge Myers' mother was the daughter of James Justice, also a pioneer farmer of Cass county. Judge Myers attended the country schools and worked on the farm in the summer, until at the age of fourteen he entered the Presbyterian Academy at Logansport to prepare for college.

He graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., with the class address to the president in June, 1875, with the degree of A. B.

He at once began the study of law in the office of the late Dubitt C. Justice, of Logansport, who in 1876 formed a partnership with Hon. M. Winfield, and young Myers went into that office.

QUINCY A. MYERS

His industry and capacity for work were the subject of comment by all who knew him, and his proficiency such that, in the autumn of 1875, he was made Deputy City Attorney of Logansport, at a time when the office was important.

He graduated from Albany Law School, Albany, N. Y., in June, 1877, as valedictorian of his class, with the degree of LL. B. He received the degree of Master of Arts from Dartmouth College in June, 1878.

By the time of his graduation from the law school Mr. Winfield and Mr.

Justice had dissolved their relation, and young Myers had arranged to go to the University of Leipzig, Germany, to complete his German education, and take a course in the civil law of the continent, when he received a telegram from Mr. Winfield, inviting him to a partnership in a lucrative business. This partnership continued until June, 1882, when Mr. Myers formed a partnership with Hon. John C. Nelson, retiring judge of the Cass Superior Court, with whom he continued in business until his election to the supreme bench of the State, in the election of 1908, the firm in the meantime having in 1903 taken in Mr. Chas. E. Yarlott. Judge Myers' position on the supreme bench has been one of marked credit to himself, and of distinction in the profession. He is characterized by a geniality and a good nature, and disposition to go out of his way to help others, which, coupled with his ability and high character, have commended him to the profession and the people of the State to an unusual degree.

He is one of the most industrious and diligent of men, careful, deliberative, firm and self-poised, and of the most unswerving integrity.

His career on the supreme bench has been especially marked by his opinions on questions of public importance, such as transportation, safety appliance, employers' liability, factory and mining laws. He has been city attorney, county attorney and for thirteen years was a member of the school board of Logansport, during which time many fine buildings were erected in that city, to the erection of which, it is said, he gave his personal supervision. He was Republican presidential elector in the Eleventh Congressional District in 1900, and is president of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, having in its active membership many of the leading professional men of the nation.

Judge Myers is a Republican, but it is said of him that while active in local politics, he never offended any man of opposite politics by word or act, and while firm in his own views, has always been courteous to and respectful of the opinions of others.

He is a candidate for re-election, and deserves the support of the profession and the people of this State, without regard to politics.

In his position he has known no politics, and if a non-partisan judiciary is desired in this State, as we believe it is, Judge Myers is to be commended, and should be elected on that ground, coupled with his eminent fitness and his character.

CANDIDATE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

JUDGE ED JACKSON

While the public record of Homer L. Cook, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State by grace of the Fairbanks-Taggart political cabal, is under consideration it might be well to learn something of Judge Ed Jackson, of Newcastle, the Republican nominee for this position. Cook was speaker of the last House of the Indiana General Assembly and during his incumbency of that office laws were written into the statute books of Indiana that were never passed by the Legislature. In addition, it has been discovered that the permanent record of the proceedings of the House which were compiled under Cook's supervision contain a number of "mistakes."

Judge Jackson is forty years of age; was born in Howard county, near Kokomo, and has lived in several counties in eastern Indiana. His advantages and opportunities were very meager and he was able to go to school but a short time in his boyhood and was compelled to study hard and diligently at home in order to get an education to fit himself and equip himself for the study of law, which he did in the office of the late Judge Nash of Tipton. During the time he was studying law with Judge Nash he sold papers on the streets of Tipton to pay his expenses in order that he might be able to take the time from his work in the factory to read law.

He worked by day's work in order to make a living during all his young manhood, until he was twenty-two or twenty-three years of age, having worked in the various factories of Tipton and other places where he lived, until he worked himself into the practice of the law, which he did by opening an office in the small town of Kennard, Henry county, and later removed to New Castle, his present home, where he has been engaged in the practice of the law since coming here.

After removing to New Castle he was nominated and elected for two terms as Prosecuting Attorney of Henry county, after which he was appointed by Governor Hanly to fill out the unexpired term of his predecessor as Judge of the Henry Circuit Court, who died while holding the office, and he was afterwards nominated and elected for a full term as Judge of the Henry Circuit Court and is now serving in that capacity. His term will expire November 17th of this year.

He has always endeavored to conduct himself in such a way that those associated with him and coming in contact with him would not regret any confidence they may have placed in him. He has endeavored to conduct himself in his official capacity in a way that would be a credit to himself and his constituency and has always been willing and glad to assume his full share of the responsibilities arising in the community in which he lived and using his talents and means to help those needing his help and using his money for charitable and benevolent purposes, having used a great deal of the money coming to him in that way.

Judge Jackson has long been prominent in the civic affairs of New Castle and Henry county. He is a past president of the Lincoln League of Indiana. He is a member of the Christian church.

OUR
RELIABLE!

A good many folks think drugs are drugs. They're mistaken. There is a vast difference in the grade of many drugs. Some are adulterated. Only a chemist can tell it. You are therefore at the mercy of the druggist, whose trade is more or less of a mystery anyway to most people. Don't you think, all things being equal, that it would be wiser for you to buy your drugs from a pharmacist you can rely upon? We are reliable.
