NOBLE R. PEARCY

Judge Noble R. Pearcy, Republican candidate for prosecutor, this week told The Recorder that one of his chief concerns and motives for seeking the office of prosecutor is to curb the increase in the crime rate in the county.

Judge Pearcy, who has served on the bench of Municipal Court 6 for the past four years, said that statistics show that cities of com-

"I dreamed of weekends in the country replacing weekends of housework. I even dared dream that summer would bring an end to the situation that haunts my husband night and day: that of being a college-educated Negro working on a job requiring little or no education and, worse yet, using only about one-third of his earning power. Then came 'The Day That Made The Difference!'"

April Redbook Magazine presents Carolyn Nimmons' own story, "The Day That Made The Difference!"—a warm and inspiring story of a Negro mother who wanted more for her family than what she had been taught to expect... how she found new happiness and hope in the wonders of God that were around her all the time. "The Day That Made The Difference!" to Carolyn Nimmons can make a big difference in the lives of all of us. Now you can read her story in the new April Redbook now on sale at all newsstands.

parable size have a substantially lower crime rate than Indianapolis, especially in the commission of violent street crimes such as muggings, assaults and batteries, and robberies.

Pearcy contended that these crimes are being committed by habitual criminals.

"The records submitted to this court," Pearcy said, "bear me out in this belief. I see the same faces time after time."

If elected, Pearcy said he would make greater use of the habitual criminal statutes and seek maximum penalties for multiple offenders.

"Removing this small group of undesirables from society in this way will substantially cut down the crime rate and make our streets safer," he said.

Pearcy concluded by saying he was keenly aware that the office of Prosecutor carried with it the responsibilities of not only prosecuting persons accused of crime within this county, but also of protecting the fundamental constitutional rights of all citizens.

Hunter Seeks Reelection In Lake

GARY—State Rep. James S. Hunter, East Chicago, is seeking renomination for his 12th consecutive term in the Indiana General Assembly on the Democratic ticket.

A state representative since 1941, Hunter has devoted much of his time to many community activities, including the Lake County Welfare Board, Anselm Forum, the NAACP and the former mental hygiene board.

Hunter has been responsible for numerous laws to improve health and welfare services in Indiana. Engaged in the real estate and insurance business in East Chicago, he has played top roles at sessions of the House of Representatives over the past two decades.

The veteran legislator is considered a liberal in political circles and supported health and welfare legislation regardless of party lines.

HEATING STOVE EXPLODES; BOY, 14, INJURED

As a result of gasoline exploding in a heating stove Sunday, Richard Johnson, 14, of 2846 McPherson, is in fair condition at Marion County General Hospital suffering third degree burns.

Mrs. Tommie Mae Taylor of 2833 McPherson, where the boy was found, said he was severely burned on his hands and legs when an unidentified man poured gasoline into the stove in a garage near 27th and Carrollton.

COFFINS FOUND IN GARAGE MYSTERY TO NORTHSIDE MAN

Police were called Sunday after Lamar Boozeman, 30, of 962 W. 28th, discovered two coffins which did not belong to him in his garage.

Upon investigating officers found tags in the coffins from the Atlanta Metallic Casket Company, 225 E. Ohio. William E. Thompson, 3312 Kessler Boulevard, North Drive, company manager, theorized that the coffins must have been taken from a storage room although he did not know how because there was no sign of a break-in.

AT MAMMOTH BANQUET: A banquet at the Fall Creek YMCA last week welcomed Jay T. Smith (third from left) as the newly appointed district manager of the Mammoth Life and Accident Insurance Company's Indianapolis office. along with an expense paid trip by TWA to the "President's Ball" March 16 in Detroit. He is qualified to become a member of the President's Century Club.

Others receiving similar awards and lapel pins were Messrs. Ramon Singley, district manager; James T. Patton and William Harris, who are qualified for membership in the Secretary's Half-Century Club.

Mr. Singley was master-of-ceremonies at the banquet. Among those appearing on the program were Reggie T. Avington, district manager of Supreme Life Insurance Company and Artie Jenkins, district manager and secretary of the Gibraltar Life Insurance Company. Following the banquet guests were entertained at the home of Edsel Thurston, staff manager.

tered and said: "This is a holdup." McCURTY got up to grapple with him and was shot in the chest. After the bullet hit him, he grabbed a chair and slammed it over the bandit's head, chasing him from the store.

Police found a .25 caliber shell casing on the floor. Shortly afterwards a .22 caliber single-action pistol was found on the floor.

Police said the gunman had a helper who did not enter the store during the holdup.

Detectives said the .22 caliber pistol, left behind when the two men fled was the key to nabbing the suspects.

A check of gun thefts reported to the Marion County sheriff showed the .22 caliber weapon had been listed as stolen from a Johnson County farmer March 3. The detectives questioned the farmer, and learned the pistol was taken from the man's truck, evidently by a hitchhiker he had given a ride March 3.

The farmer directed Detectives Morrison and Sowers to a Greenwood service station owner who he said might identify the hitch-hiker.

He identified the rider as Ronald Taylor and recalled that Tuesday night he had seen Taylor and his brother in Parrish's car, similar to the one seen pulling away from the liquor store after the shooting.

The detectives, aided by a Greenwood police sergeant, apprehended Parrish at about 1:30 p.m., shortly after the suspect had left a Madison Avenue pool hall.

PARRISH SAID Ronald Taylor entered the liquor store with him, leaving the 16-year-old and Hawk outside in the car.

In the confusion that followed in the liquor store, Taylor had dropped the .22 Galber pistol.

described as being about 25 to 30 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, dark ruddy complexion, and wearing a black jacket and gray flannel pants, then told her to go into the restroom where she stayed five minutes and then called police.

A truck driver for the Muesing Oil Co. told police he was robbed of $75 by two men late last Thursday night.

Fred L. Young, 31, 3671 Rockville Rd., said he was delivering oil to 1109 N. Edgemont when the two men, one carrying a gun, approached him while his back was turned and announced a stickup.

The Imperial Oil Station at 3950 Southeastern was the scene of an attempted holdup early Friday morning.

The attendant, John Farley, 121 N. Arsenal, told police two men walked into the store at 5:30 a.m., and one man pulled a .32 caliber automatic and said, "This is a stickup."

The bandits ordered Farley into a back room where the safe was located, and ordered the attendant to open the safe. Farley told the men he didn't have the key to the safe, and the men, wearing gloves, began to beat him.

After beating Farley, the thieves left the station and then probably fled in a truck. The attendant said he heard a truck speeding down the street after the men had gone.

School 41, located on the city's northside, was the scene of two separate burglaries last week. In the first three teenagers were apprehended, and in the second a 19-year-old youth was caught.

The first burglary was investigated at about 4:30 p.m. Saturday. Police arrived on the scene and upon checking the area noticed a glass pane on the southside of the old building broken out.

Inside they found three boys, men's statement in detail Grant County Prosecutor Robert Foust did say that the attractive high school junior was "level-headed and mature" about her parents' death and Niccum.

Miss Harris returned here Saturday in the company of a great-aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Cunningham, who flew to Nevada from her California home to be with her bereaved niece.

According to Foust Miss Harris returned home from school March 15 and was confronted by Niccum, who blindfolded, gagged and handcuffed her.

The girl told questioners her father arrived from his Veterans Hospital job a short time later and was shot after a short conversation with the accused, apparently as her mother and aunt already lay dead in a bedroom. The girl said she did not see her father killed but heard what she thought to be shots.

Nicum, the prosecutor quoted the girl as saying, then led her to the family's Chevrolet sedan, parked outside and began the four-day "terror-filled" trip.

When Niccum and Miss Harris neared the Nevada town where they were taken into custody, the car ran out of gas. Niccum by time had run out of money and, while holding Karen under threat of death, sought employment in Winnemucca.

It was during the walk back to the stalled car that Karen's "nightmare" ended when the deputy, alerted by an "all-points" bulletin issued by Riggs, halted Niccum.

WHEN TAKEN into custody the suspect was unarmed but a ninemillimeter automatic, believed to have been used to slay the Harris and Mrs. Robinson was found in a suitcase in the car.

On Monday Recorder reporters were refused an interview with Karen by family members who said, "She has suffered a terrible shock and we're trying to protect her as much as possible."

"She has yet to break down and we think it will be best for her if we can keep her mind occupied with other things."

Although only tentative, The Recorder learned current plans are for the girl to return to California with Mrs. Cunningham.

At the Grand Jury hearing members heard testimony from Foust's secretary, Mrs. Gretchen Schultz, who transcribed the girl's statement; members of the family, who found the bodies, the Grant County coroner, state police detectives and the school bus driver.

Hoosier Part in Emancipation Centennial Advanced at Meet

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

The Indiana phase of a once-in-a-century project began taking shape Saturday at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA, as more than 30 persons attended a state board meeting of the American Negro Emancipation Centennial Authority.

National and state officers outlined plans for the mammoth commemoration, which will mark the 100th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation.

INCORPORATED IN ALL 50 states, the movement will have its climax in a national exposition with the theme "A Century of Negro Progress." The giant exposition will be held at the Lake Front Exposition Center in Chicago, in August 1963.

"When we know our history as American Negroes, we have ample reason to be proud of our achievements," said David L. Ross of Chicago, national administrative coordinator of the Authority.

"The purpose of this great project is to bring a new sense of race pride and dignity to our people, and especially to our youth, on this historic anniversary."

Other national officers, addressing the luncheon meeting were Mrs. Frances Matlock and Mrs. Christine Redmond, also both of Chicago. They stressed the contributions being made to the project by the young adult section of workers, called the "Anecans."

SOME IDEA OF the broad scope and many activities of the movement was given by Atty. Willard B. Ransom, who is state chairman. The job is threefold, Mr. Ransom said. First there will be research, to develop the history of the Negro in Indiana, especially during the past 100 years. Scholars will seek out unknown accomplishments of Negroes which have been "buried" by the daily press and history texts.

Next will come presentation of the material to the public through printed matter, TV and other media.

Finally will be the preparation of exhibits for the national exposition.

D. W. D. Hector, executive director of the Indiana Division, presented the volunteer staff which is headed locally by Miss Anna P. Stout.

HARLAND RANDOLPH ably led the group through a questionnaire designed to aid in planning activities.

Rev. Bernard L. Strange of St. Rita's Roman Catholic Church gave the benediction.

aid in raising the educational status of those with low educational levels. "We must raise the general level of education," Hatcher continued. "He further said: 'The job of creating equal opportunities is the joint responsibility of the Negro and white communities.'"

William Sylvester White of Chicago, director of the department of registration and education in the state of Illinois, said: "We are going to swim in the main stream of American life and cannot escape the present by talking about the past. Prince Hall, the founder of this great fraternity, was a man of bravery and would have faced present day enemies in the same courageous manner."

Presiding at the banquet was Judge Mercer Maice, 32nd-degree mason, who was local chairman. Others appearing on the program were the color guard, ROCT Unit of Crispus Attucks High School under the direction of Sgt. Thomas Johnson and Miss Alma Dallas, Miss Grace Goodman.

Atty. R. T. Bosler, editor of The Criterion, gave the invocation and Atty. Patrick Chavis, 32nd-degree Mason, introduced the toastmaster, Mr. Walker, 32nd-degree Mason of East Chicago.

Musical selections were sung by the Attucks Girls' Ensemble under the direction of Norman Merrifield. Also appearing were Dr. Charles Rochelle, 32-degree Mason; J. Hugh Funk, vice-president of the Indiana National Bank of Indianapolis; Eugene Barnett, 32nd-degree Mason of Ft. Wayne and Rev. W. H. Weaver, 32nd-degree Mason, who gave the benediction. Dinner music was provided by Miss Ruth Dixon.

New York Director To Address Group At Sunday Meeting

Miss Mary Venable of New York, director of children's work for the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, U.S.A., will appear here Sunday from 2:30 p.m. till 4:30 p.m. at North Methodist Church, 38th and Meridian.

She will meet with children workers, directors, ministers of Christian education and others interested. The highly trained and experienced woman will discuss "The Churches' Mission to Children in the 1960s."

Mrs. Venable's appearance is sponsored by the Children's Workers Division of the Church Federation under the direction of Karl Gillmeister, chairman.

The Indianapolis Recorder, Mar. 31, 1962-3

Army Officer, Retired, Joins Musical Firm

CHARLES W. JACKSON

Capt. Chas. W. Jackson, U.S. Army Retired, 724 Blake, Apt. 128, has joined recently the sales staff of the Pearson Music Co., 130 N. Penn. St. The Pearson company, one of the oldest in its line of business in the city or central Indiana, carries a full line of name-brand and nationally advertised musical instruments or merchandise.

The company's line includes the most famous names in pianos, organs, hand instruments, radios, TV's and other musical paraphernalia. Capt. Jackson will serve as a district sales representative specializing in the sale of pianos and organs. His services will be available to prospective clients seeking anything in the line of musical goods.

With a service record of more than 20 years Capt. Jackson was mustered out at Picatinny Arsenal, New Jersey, from the Quartermaster Corps. During World War II he served in India and Burma. He served more than 11 yrs. overseas including two tours of Korea, one of Germany and one of France. His daughter, Charlene, age 14, was born in Germany. His son, Donald L. Jackson, age 30, a resident of Chicago, is also a retired Army man.

Capt. Jackson and his wife, the former Lucille Taylor, on account of his Army career, observe that they have lived somewhat fascinating and adventurous lives on three continents. Both were born in Kentucky and reared on the Eastside of this city from mere infants. The proud parents of a son and daughter, they have been married 31 years, and grew up as childhood sweethearts.

Miss Betty Jo Radcliffe Feted At Party By Aunts

Miss Betty Jo Radcliffe whose betrothal to Charles Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Smith, 3932 Cornelius, was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Radcliffe, 109 Berkeley Road, was guest of honor recently at a beautiful announcement party given by her two aunts, Mrs. Vivian Terry Moore and Mrs. Louise Terry Batties.

Forty guests including a few friends among Miss Radcliffe's colleagues, a few friends among her professional associates and a few friends of the family were entertained in the East-West rooms of the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel at a lovely and festive Saturday afternoon luncheon party.

The table was artistically decorated with baskets of cut flowers in pink and lavender to carry out the "bride-to-be" color motif. The extensive banquet table was furnished with silver candelabra holding long pink tapers and hearts and flowers tied with ribbons and love knots.

The 40 guests were served, seated by the romantic pink place cards flaunting tiny pink and lavender ribbons tied in the center to the place card with a love knot and carrying the names "Betty Jo" and "Charles" at each end.

Music for the luncheon was featured by Harry Campbell at the piano and Perry White, vocalist.

Miss Radcliffe, who is an art teacher in the Indianapolis public schools, is a recent graduate of Indiana University. She is the daughter of the late Mrs. William Mae Terry Radcliffe who was also an art teacher.

Wedding plans are scheduled for a date in June at Second Christian Church where the Radcliffe family are members.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM ALFRED LATHAM

100 Witness Lovely Wedding Ceremony At Bride's Home

A lovely home ceremony witnessed by 100 guests united Miss Leatrice Porter, daughter of Mrs. Marie N. Brown of 619 E. 31st and Jack Porter of Oakland, Calif., with William Alfred Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Latham, 908 Roache.

The couple repeated vows Friday, March 31, before Rev. L. Arthur Johnson, pastor of Friendship Baptist Church, in an atmosphere enhanced by two large palms joined by a large white satin bow with streamers which hung to the floor on either side of the altar, white mums, babies-breath and gladiolus—all arranged with elegance by Mrs. Ethel LaShea and the Regal Flower Shop.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Willie E. Neal of Oxford, Ohio, Miss Porter wore a ballerina-length princess line silhouette fashion of lace, accented with seed pearl and iridescent sequins. The molded bodice graduated into fingertip sleeves and the back was fashioned with butterfly styling of lace and nylon tulle. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white tea roses and babies-breath. Her only jewelry were cultured pearl earrings.

Mrs. Bobbie Harvison was matron-of-honor and Miss Anora Harris, sister of the bride and Miss Shelia Latham, sister of the groom,

Vivid Decorations Highlight Rites Of Young Eastside Couple At St. John

A large bouquet of spring flowers in silver, and candelabra adorned with large white bows added to the beauty of a wedding which a young Eastside couple united Saturday, March 17, at 5:30 p.m. Entering on her father's arm, Miss Linda Joyce Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Brown of 3266 N. Arsenal, walked on a long white aisle runner to the altar of St. John Missionary Baptist Church where she was wedded in double-ring rites to Ronald Alexander Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Boyd Sr. of 1345 Cornell, by Rev. Andrew J. Brown, pastor. White bows and greenery decorated the pews.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD ALEXANDER BOYD

Carrying a white Boule sparked with a white orchid, snapdragons, stephanotis and satin streamers, Miss Brown was attired in a floor-length gown which featured a Chantilly lace bodice and Chantilly lace and tulle ruffled back. Her sweetheart neckline and short sleeves were trimmed in seed pearls and her elbow-length veil was attached to a seed pearl and sequined half-hat. Complementing her fashion were short white gloves and matching pearl necklace and earrings.

Organist for the wedding was Mrs. Betty Bivens whose fashion was brightened by a large white orchid corsage made by Mrs. Lucille Thurston Davis of "Flowers and Gifts By Lucille" who also made other floral decorations. "Because" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Richard Highbaugh.

Wearing a mint green sheath featuring an overskirt, sweetheart neckline and short sleeves, Miss Kathleen Brown of Ball State Teachers College served as her sister's maid-of-honor. She carried a bouquet of yellow pompons and iris. Complementing her attire was a veil caught by a half-hat of petals and pearls set off by matching pearl earrings and necklace and gloves.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Amy Gaines and Mrs. Effie Batts, wore yellow dresses and half-hats of the same fashion as the maid-of-honor and carried turquoise pompon bouquets.

Little Miss Lisa Kirk, flower girl, wore a ruffled silk embroidered dress featuring a yellow sash and white beaded shoes. From her white basket filled with tur-

COLONIAL IS STILL REAL BREAD!

1. BECAUSE COLONIAL BREAD IS NOT "WHIPPED," "WHIRLED," OR "TWIRLED."

It is made from real, old-fashion bread dough.

2. BECAUSE COLONIAL BREAD IS NOT MADE BY SHORT-CUT "BREW" OR "CAKE-BATTER" METHODS.

While we use the most modern equipment and technical know-how, we still bake Colonial Bread by the time-tested, old-fashion process which produces Colonial's delicious oven-fresh flavor.

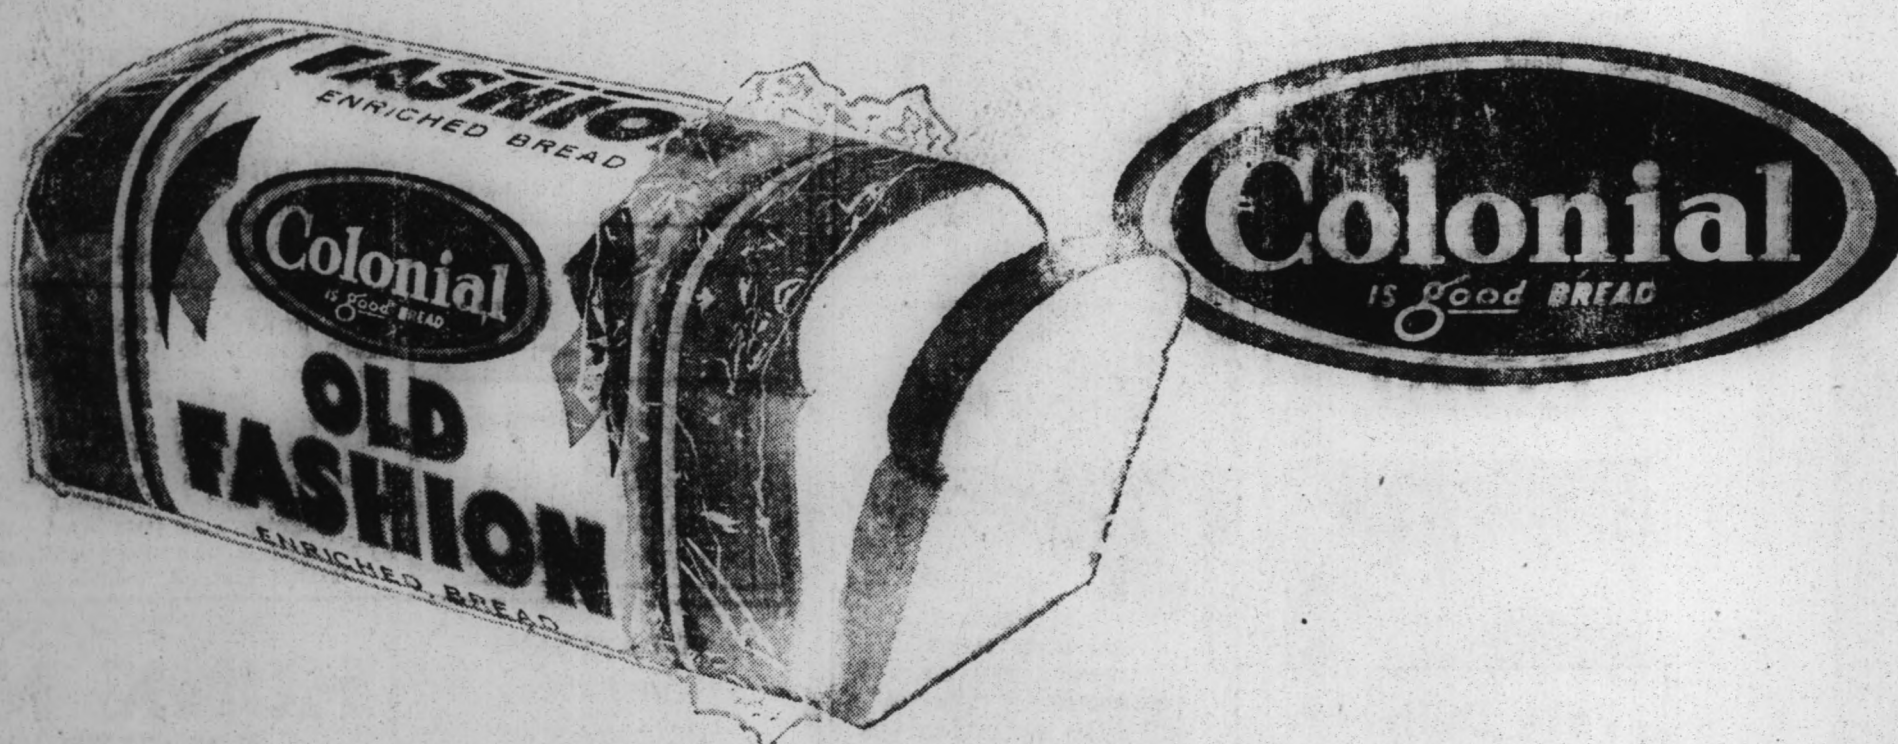

3. BECAUSE COLONIAL BREAD IS STILL MADE WITH A FULL MEASURE OF CHOICE, NUTRITIOUS INGREDIENTS.

Flour, milk, sugar, yeast and salt are all there in the proper proportion for full flavor and full nutrition.

4. BECAUSE COLONIAL BREAD IS STILL MADE BY TAKING ALL THE TIME NECESSARY.

The development of Colonial Bread's soft, tender texture and old-fashion, fresh-baked flavor just can't be hurried. There is no short-cut to real bread quality, and no substitute for it either.

...So buy REAL bread- buy good old-fashion Colonial Bread today!

Colonial Bread In Favor With Homemakers

Housewives all over town are asking for Colonial Bread at their favorite grocery stores—and all because Colonial is still real bread! And why is Colonial real bread—because it is made from choice, superior quality, ingredients that give Colonial Bread its real BREAD flavor!

And another point that should be of interest to housewives—is the fact that Colonial Bread takes more time and effort to bake. The Bakery could use a less expensive short-cut method, but they believe and have found out that there is no short-cut to baking real bread.

Colonial bakers use the more expensive, old-fashioned process, which gives Colonial Bread longer lasting freshness. Colonial Bread is made from real dough, not a batter—that's why Colonial is Real Bread, not a substitute, according to Colonial executives.

Colonial Bread Bakery wants you to know that they appreciate your patronage and urges you to ask for Colonial Bread—the REAL bread when shopping at your favorite neighborhood grocer.

The company employs 2 colored route men to service the many stores with which you deal throughout the city. These men are proud of their jobs and the fact that they are delivering Colonial—the Real Bread that is and should be number one on your shopping list.

Be sure and read their advertisement on this page and when you go shopping this weekend and every day of the week—be sure and ask for Colonial Bread by name.

Negro Candidates Enter Examinations For State Police

Twenty-eight Negroes will be among the 869 men taking a competitive examination Friday in an attempt to qualify for training in the Indiana State Police's training school.

Of the 869 men chosen to take the exams, which will be held in Bedford and Wabash as well as Indianapolis, 60 of them will advance to the eight-week training school, beginning June 25 in Bloomington.

If any of these Negroes qualify for training and accept the positions, it will mark the first time a Negro has served with the Indiana State Police. In 1960, Robert Ewing, a Negro from Richmond, Ind., was offered a trooper position after completing training. However, he had obtained another job.

Chicago Man To Address Dinner Of Butler-Tarkington

The 6th anniversary dinner of the Butler-Tarkington Neighborhood Association will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at the University Park Christian Church, 4550 N. Illinois.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Irving Horwitz, executive director of the Hyde Park-Kenwood Community Council in Chicago.

Horwitz' topic will be, "The Role of the Community Organization."

The main speaker heads an organization with a national reputation for its interracial work. The conference in Chicago is much larger than the Butler-Tarkington group, but the two have much in common.

Both strive to avoid panic selling and maintain real estate values. Both are dedicated to the principle of preserving a stable, interracial community based on mutual understanding and respect.

The Hyde Park-Kenwood group started in 1949 with 300 members. It now has 3,000.

Rev. John G. MacKinnon, president of the Association, will introduce the speaker. The invocation will be given by Rev. Lowell C. Bryant, of the University Park church, and the benediction by Rev. Phillip C. Lawson, Christ Methodist Church.

Music will be provided by Professor Alan Schirmer of Indiana Central College and Miss Delores Seath, pianist, Jordan College of Music.

DRAWING ITS NAME from Butler University on the northwest and Tarkington Park on the southeast, the integrated group includes 290 members living in the area bounded by 38th Street, Meridian Street, 54th Street and the Canal.

Retarded Child Insurance Plan Discussion Topic

Roy Voight of Prudential Insurance Company will address the Noble School pre-school group at its meeting Tuesday, April 3, at 8 p.m. in the school, 15 W. 43rd.

Mr. Voight will discuss recommended insurance programs and social security and the relationship between the two. He will speak specifically about insurance problems in relation to retarded children and their parents, including the problem of insuring retarded persons.

All persons interested in this subject are invited to attend, it was announced by Elinor H. Robinson, faculty representative.

Women's Day At Trinity Nets Fund $4,000

The annual Women's Day at Trinity CME Church March 25 netted over $4,000 for the church's Building Fund, it was reported this week.

Nine teams, composed of the women of the church, took part in the two-month drive. The team headed by Mrs. Willa Mae Moore, captain, and Mrs. Rosemary Quarles, co-captain, reported the largest amount of money turned in.

During the Women's Day services, Mrs. Helen Stewart, director of Christian Education, spoke on "Tears," Mrs. Maude M. Flack, principal of School 56, spoke on the subject, "Believing Women of the Bible," during the 11 a.m. service.

A panel discussion on "Finer Christian Womanhood" highlighted the afternoon service. Participants were Mesdames Norma J. Cummings of Trinity; Ethel Breeding, Trinity; Hanella Tandy, Martindale Avenue Church of Christ; Clema Rogers, Mt. Zion Baptist; and Miss Anna Stout, Bethel A.M.E. Mrs. Luella Edwards was the panel moderator, and Mrs. Naomi O'Neal gave the summary. Mrs. Charlotte Myers was general chairman and Mrs. Hattie Davis was co-chairman.

Those serving as captains were Mesdames Mattie Doss, Jeannie Chaney, Naomi O'Neal, Willa Mae Moore, Ethel Dunville, Christine McCarley, Thelma Osborne and Sallie Yates. Co-captains were Mesdames Blanche O'Neal, Julia Means, Margaret Russell, Rosemary Quarles, Lois Myers, Lovella Cummings and Margaret Goodrich.

Master Anthony Anderson carried a heart-shaped satin and lace pillow as ring bearer. Harold L. Boyd Jr. served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Messrs. Jesse Lynch, Leroy Miller, Hilton Hudson, groom's uncle and Airman Robert M. Brown, bride's brother.

Mrs. Brown selected for her daughter's wedding a beige and silk chiffon sheath with an emerald green hat, beige gloves and shoes and a green carnation corsage. Mrs. Boyd chose willow green embroidered silk organza, matching shoes and hat, white gloves and purse and a white carnation corsage with a yellow sash.

A pink and turquoise color scheme was carried out in reception decorations of lilies of the valley and bells. A turquoise satin and pink lace tablecloth was perfected by a three-tiered white wedding cake featuring bells and pink roses and topped by a typical bride and groom. Pink candles and floral arrangements adorned either end of the table.

Head hostess was Mrs. Helen Woolford. Others serving the brideal guests were the Misses Lois Blanton, Linda Boyd, groom's sister; Jean Coleman, Priscilla Brown, bride's cousin; Shirley Smith, LeAnn Durham and Mrs. Pauline Todd.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Anthony S. Bennett of Evansville and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Boyd are at home to friends at 2934 Indianapolis. The new Mrs. Boyd was graduated from Shortridge High School and attended Indiana Central College. She is a clerk at Flanner House Homes, Inc., and is a member of St. John Baptist.

Her husband, a senior at Indiana Central College, was graduated from Arsenal Technical High School and is a member of Trinity CME Church.

Shortridge Choir To Present 3rd Annual Classic

Negro Woman's Article Is In April 'Redbook'

MRS. CAROLYN NIMMONS

A Negro woman's submission to Redbook's "Young Mother's Story" series has resulted in a $500 award for her. Mrs. Carolyn Nimmons of Cumberland, Maryland, is author of the first-person article, "The Day That Made The Difference."

Her manuscript was chosen for publication from more than 30,000 stories submitted by Redbook readers. It appears in the April issue of Redbook magazine currently on newsstands under a picture of Mrs. Nimmons and her family.

She describes her dreams of having a neat, well-run home, two immaculate children and a typical morning in the Nimmons household that is familiar to every woman.

Mrs. Nimmons cites an incident occurring one day which made her realize she was fulfilling her purpose in life to her family. Read Mrs. Nimmons' heartwarming story. See ad on page 2.

46th Birthday Is Marked By Gaillard Post

Another milestone was marked by the Edward S. Gaillard Post 107 and its Auxiliary of the American Legion by celebrating its 46th birthday at the Post Home, 2040 N. Capitol.

Highlighting the celebrated and enjoyable event was a birthday dinner served to members and friends prepared by Nat Williams which included a birthday cake decorated with the Legion's insignia and a variety of foods.

The Auxiliary will have its next regular meeting Friday, April 6, it was announced by Mrs. Lula J. Hinton, publicity chairman.

Composed of veterans of both World Wars I and II, the Post is led by Garrett Gill, and the Auxiliary by Mrs. Cecil Crawford. Mrs. Crawford was chairman of the celebration assisted by Mrs. Mattie James, co-chairman. Mrs. Ann Kennerly had charge of games and Mrs. Pearl Williams presented a delightful program.

Cordie King Will Model In Show

An "Afternoon Of Fashions" will be presented Sunday, April 15, at 3:30 p.m. in the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA. It will feature Cordie King Stuart, internationally famous model.

Other models will be Miss Margaret Coleman, a graduate of the Crest Modeling School from which Mrs. Stuart was also graduated; handsome Porter Jones, who has won great acclaim for himself, and Sydney Smith, a superb producer and model of fashions.

The show is sponsored by St. John Baptist Church where Rev. Andrew J. Brown is pastor. Donations of two dollars will be used for the expansion of missions.

SCOUTS AT WORK: "Hoosier Hysteria," Indianapolis' basketball fever will be demonstrated in a project being perfected by the Girl Scouts above. Miss Loretta Orton (left) and Miss Estella Mills (standing), both senior scouts, will take the "swaps" with them to Button Bay, Vt., July 18-31 to be exchanged with girls from other sections of the U.S. and foreign countries. The idea is to feature some novelty that typifies the particular section of the country. A large number of basketballs and hats were necessary to make Miss Gwendolyn Dixon (second from left) and Miss Deborah Hearn, both intermediate Girl Scouts, illustrate the Scout law of being a "sister to every other Girl Scout."

When Gwendolyn and Deborah learn the trade they will teach other girl scouts how to make the "swaps" so everyone can have a part in helping Loretta and Estella complete their project. The senior scouts of Troop 435 sponsored by Mrs. Joseph Ramsey were among 32 girls selected from a field of over 150 applicants to represent the Hoosier Capital Girl Scout Council at the July meeting. Mrs. Marcellus White sponsors the other girls of Troop 249. All four will take part in the Acorn Neighborhood celebration of the Golden Anniversary of Girl Scouting at a program Sunday afternoon, April 8, at Holy Angels Catholic School. Sorors Set Roarin' 20s Party

Tau Gamma Delta Sorority's annual "Roaring Twenties Cabaret Party" plans to be bigger and better this year. It has been dated for Saturday, April 7, from 10 p.m. till 2 a.m. at the Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 653 N. West St.

Two fabulous shows featuring the "Gamma Charleston Queens" and a number of other specialty acts will thrill guests. Swinging music for the audience's dancing and listening pleasure will be played between shows. For a superb evening of entertainment make plans now to attend!

Puritan Baptist Church will sponsor a "Little Miss Muffet" skating party Thursday, April 5, at the Skatarena Roller Rink, 27th and Schofield, from 5 p.m. till 6:30 p.m.

Proceeds will be used to help send Campfire Girls to a resident camp this summer. Mrs. Robert Pope Jr. is in charge of the affair and sponsor of the group.

Bennett College Choir In Concert

The outstanding Bennett College Choir of Greensboro, N.C., will appear in concert here Saturday, April 7, at 8 p.m. in Simpson Methodist Church, 2960 N. Capitol.

Alpha Sigma Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority is sponsoring the choir's appearance with Mrs. Pauline Eans as general chairman and Miss Nellye Russell, basileus. A free will offering will be taken and the public is invited.

BARRINGTON MANOR: The Barrington Manor buildings are eight-family, two-story structures grouped around generous concrete parking areas. This is part of the Perkins Court section. Each unit here has two large bedrooms, a long "L"-shaped living room, dining area, built-in kitchen with garbage disposal, and tiled bath with tub. An upstairs apartment here rents for $72.50, while first-floor units are priced at $75. The bus shown here is one of 52 which come to Barrington each day.

BARRINGTON HEIGHTS: This beautifully-landscaped double is typical of the buildings in Barrington Heights. Each apartment here has two bedrooms, long living-room, bath, kitchen, and storage room. There is ample closet space, built-in cabinets in the kitchen with range and refrigerator furnished. One side of this double rents for $60 per month.

THE BARRINGTON STAFF: James C. Cummings, Jr., Barrington manager, is flanked by Mrs. Norma Young (left) and Mrs. Helen Robinson, office personnel, as they look over two of the many trophies earned by Barrington athletic teams. The Barrington softball team placed second in the city tournament last year, and the basketball team won its second consecutive league championship at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA last month. The housing development also sponsors two bowling teams in leagues at the Fun Bowl. Mrs. Audrey Moore, another member of the office staff, is not shown.

Barrington Offers Renters A 'Complete Community'

The modern family chooses its home carefully. The house must measure up to "ultra" standards. Comfort could not be enjoyed without the knowledge that a good school, adequate shopping, and a choice of churches were available to the family. Then, of course there is the question of the type of neighbors, public transportation, and recreation.

Ambitious moderns, the most discriminating house hunters of any age, give the "Go" sign to Barrington, the complete community just 10 minutes from downtown.

Nestled into 40 beautifully landscaped acres in the south-eastern section of the city, this 700-unit development offers the renter the maximum of his desires and demands at a price unequalled in any privately-owned housing in Indianapolis.

Built since 1950 and kept in like-new condition, these two-bedroom apartments offer a wide range of facilities and are priced within range of the most modest income.

Leo Lippman, operator of L & L Construction Company and Lippman Associates, built this development at a time when Negroes were hard put to find decent rental housing in Indianapolis. Because of superior service and good tenant relations, the company has been able to maintain a high rate of occupancy. Despite the rising costs of operations, rents at the projects are the same today as they were when the apartments were first opened.

Each of the apartments has two bedrooms, long living room, kitchen, and bath.

Barrington Heights, the first section of development, is a well-designed cluster of one-story doubles and four-family units which starts at the corner of Keystone avenue and Minnesota street. Renting for only $60.00 per month, the units are set in grassy courts and along paved, winding streets.

Barrington Manor, sections one and two, are two-story buildings erected around parking courts with considerable attention given to landscaping and grassy plots between the buildings. Apartments here are as modern as any in the city.

Featuring a long, "L"-shaped living room, with dining area, completely built-in kitchen with garbage disposal, tiled bath with shower and tub, and two over-size bedrooms, Manor apartments rent for only $72.50 and $75.00. This price is especially startling as all utilities, except lights, are furnished in these units.

Ranges and refrigerators are furnished in all Barrington apartments.

A family moving to Barrington doesn't need to take along its scrub brush and painting equipment. Every apartment is freshly decorated for each new tenant. The walls are painted in beautiful pastel colors.

are able to save more money and live better at Barrington than any place in the city.

Senior citizens find Barrington Heights particularly attractive. There are no steps to climb and the Barrington Maintenance crew is especially helpful. Without additional aid, many pensioners live here.

Of course there are an abundance of bachelors and "bachelor girls" living at Barrington, as furnished apartments here rent far cheaper, and the furniture is much nicer. Sid Woods, the WGEA disc jockey, leads this group.

If it's housing that an individual, or a family is looking for, Barrington boasts everything for everybody — superior facilities, superior services, superior neighbors, and superior price.

No area in the city is better equipped to serve the recreation needs of its residents than Barrington. Bethel Park, complete with wading pool and soft ball diamonds, is spread between Barrington Heights and Barrington Manor, with Bethel Community Center just off the Barrington grounds.

Golfers find 18-hole Sarah Shank a short walk up Keystone, while swimmers and tennis players can journey the brief distance to Garfield Park. Garfield is also ideal for family outings as permanent barbecue pits are available and the botanical gardens are outstanding.

A Baptist church, Catholic church, Methodist church, and Church of God are located in the immediate area.

The thrifty housewife will find a supermarket in the Barrington area and can take advantage of the convenience of the complete Twin-Aire Shopping Center, less than one mile away.

Boasting that Barrington is "closer to downtown than 34th Street," the management also contends that Barrington has better bus service than most other sections of the city. More than 50 buses run into Barrington each day, with stops on Washington street.

Since it first opened, Barrington has attracted a high standard of stable, aggressive tenants. It boasts a heavier concentration of professional people than any single section of our community. A long list of teachers, professional government employees, engineers, pharmacists, social workers, and secretaries give the development an almost academic air.

Striking agreement with the Barrington slogan, "You Couldn't Pick A Better Place To Start In Life," the majority of families here consider themselves "average, hard working people" looking for the best place to raise their families while they save for that home they've always wanted.

Barrington records reveal that 75 percent of the tenants who leave Barrington in good standing move into their own homes. This attests to the fact that ambitious families

Was

James Whitcomb Riley
a ghost writer for Edgar Allan Poe?

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY, BORN 1849, GREENFIELD, INDIANA

He became poet laureate of Indiana. He is one of the world's most famous literary figures. But, to his friends, James Whitcomb Riley was just "Jim" — a Hoosier who loved a good joke. But once his sense of humor got a little out of hand.

As a newspaperman in Anderson, Jim argued with friends that any sort of poem would be published and acclaimed if it were written by a well-known poet. To prove his point, he gave a poem he had just written . . . entitled "Leonaine" . . . to an editor friend in Kokomo who agreed to print it as "an hitherto unpublished poem of the lamented Edgar Allan Poe."

It became a sensation . . . discussed in papers in New York and other cities. But the hoax was finally exposed, and Jim's joke landed him in hot water. He proved his point, but he got fired for his efforts!

That was in 1877 when "Jim" was just starting on his career. And, that same year, another "career" was beginning . . . Indiana's first telephone was installed. The wires were only a few blocks long, one had to shout to be heard, but it worked!

From that one crude instrument, telephony in Indiana has grown to over one million Indiana Bell phones today . . . an indispensable communications network.

The 8,000 Indiana Bell employees, and the 21,000 Hoosiers who share in the ownership of the Bell System can be proud of their contribution to the world's finest, most advanced, communications services. And they will be prouder still of the remarkable developments that are coming soon to benefit all Americans.

The early phones were crude, temperamental, and hardly things of beauty! A far cry from the new Princess Phone now available from Indiana Bell. It's little, lovely, and it lights up! For your desk, chairside table or bedroom.

Human Dignity, Or Good Conduct

"... For dignity suppresses foes,
And stifles petty wrongs;
It plucks the thorn and gilds the rose,
And sings triumphant songs!"
—Delores Smith

According to the calendar spring is now with us, and over some areas of the land nature is beginning to adorn hill and dale with renewed arrays of verdure and flora. In a little while many glories of nature will be unfolding over any or all areas of the land.

Otherwise in greater or lesser urban areas, villages, towns and cities one will begin to encounter, if at a distance, people loafing or loitering in streets, on corners and around unsavory places of public activity. This applies particularly to the areas of the community inhabited predominantly by Negro people.

Such people, a myriad caravan, it appears, in their reflections of human dignity incite animosities rather than deflate or suppress antipathies. Again they vilify, or by their behaviour patterns detract from any manners of splendor exhibited by a rose or any triumphs realized in manifestations of the spirit of human dignity.

Eventually reflections of the spirit of human dignity will stay the tide of animosity where the like meets the like. Again this is an era in which the spirit of human dignity should be reflected more largely in the activity of people herein immediately concerned. But wherever three or more individuals congregate on a public scene one will encounter the foul-mouthed individual, loud or boisterous and uncouth to no end.

Human dignity, encompassing the spirit of good conduct may figure in the fixed habits or life of any individual without regard to origin or birth and habitude. The most humble individual, from the most humble surroundings is free to portray the same spirit of dignity as the individual born or reared in the atmosphere of a king or prince.

Fitting public behaviour, good conduct or good manners should not be obscured in reflections of ignorance or indifference to the feelings of other people encountered on any scenes. Loud vulgar language, boisterous actions or discourteous manners will not alleviate antipathies or stifle even petty wrongs. They will rather provoke a wide scale of misunderstandings.

Fitting public behaviour or good conduct may not compare with the splendor of a gilded rose, plucked of thorns but it will serve in sustaining or promoting goodwill of all people over our land. Finally the spirit of human dignity sustaining exemplary conduct should be contemplated as a cultivated device enabling all people or groups to live together with attitudes of respect one for the other across the entire community, any community or over our entire nation.

Good Eating, Or Frozen Meats?

The best fed people—per capita—over the entire world today live in North America in the general area north of the Gulf of Mexico to the Great Lakes. In keeping with their extensive facilities of production and for processing and transporting (domestic and foreign) food products the average householder enjoys a daily dietary variety unsurpassed or even equaled anywhere under the sun.

The people per capita over our land, or the average householder, is one of the world's largest consumers of meat. This householder in keeping with the most modern methods of merchandising food products (supermarkets, etc.) has only to select a package (meat, etc.) from several scores on display including anything that walks, runs, crawls, swims or flies. But the package idea of the last two decades (frozen meats, etc.) has resulted in a wide deviation from the demand of other days for fresh cut meats.

Contrarily, some very recent consumer reports indicate that housewives are pondering lately over the idea whether the dietary value, taste, etc. of the frozen product, particularly meats, is as good as the fresh product. One of the great food merchandising organizations of the land, and one of the oldest, has never ceased to stress the quality and taste of fresh cut meat products in comparison with the frozen products.

This organization in recent times has invited housewives to sample processed meats, freshly cut, and compare these with the frozen product for taste. The experience of the organization in this course of things has been such as indicated that many housewives leaned toward fresh cut meat products. On this basis it might be said that the butcher, meat-cutter, of other days cutting meat on the scene may be on the way back and not out.

Several trade periodicals in the food merchandising field note recently that there is an increasing demand for fresh cut meat. Again media exploiting the interests of the great meat packing organizations contend that there is no substitute for fresh cut meat.

No matter which way the trend moves, we most likely concur in the idea that the people per capita, or the average householder over our land is the best fed individual over the entire world. Whereas in regard to dietary value, taste or opinion it remains to be proved whether the fancy of the housewife for frozen meat will decline or mount—where she has "time for everything, but no time for anything."

Negro Press Creed the United States or America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonism when it accords every man, regardless of race, color or creed, his human and legal rights. Hating no man, fearing no man, the Negro Press strives to help every man in the firm belief that all are hurt so long as any one is held back.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Christ—Center Of Our Faith

REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(LARGER LESSON: I Timothy 1:6. LESSON PRINT: I Timothy 1:12-17. TIME: 65 A.D. PLACE: Written From Macedonia. MOTTO TEXT: I Timothy 2:5) Our lessons for April, May and June will have to do with "Letters of Faith, Counsel and Courage."

Beginning at I Timothy and continuing through the Revelations, they will comment on Paul's last years. Paul's harmony of the Old Testament, the Ritual and the Priesthood of Our Lord, the seasoned boldness of Peter and the Venerable preaching and service of John and Jude.

Two of these first lessons are Paul's final messages to his son in the gospel Timothy. The first one opens the theme of the quarter with "Christ, Center of Faith." Consider these approaches please:

I. The Essence of our Faith. I Timothy 1:12-17. II. The Center of our Faith. I Timothy 2:3-7. III. Faith in Holy Conflict, Heb. 12:1-3.

THE ESSENCE OF OUR FAITH. Our lesson opens by assuring us of the element of gratitude that opens with every believing heart. He assures them that he believes in Christ because He enabled him to believe. Phillips makes it much broader when he translates this twelfth verse as follows: "I am deeply grateful to Jesus Christ to whom I owe all that I have accomplished to appoint me as His minister."

"Have you built a great church? You owe it all to Him. Has your class grown immensely? Thank Him, He enabled you for you as Paul were a blasphemer of His name. You often persecuted and damaged His cause, all in unbelief. But in spite of us being Unbelievers, revilers and spoilers of His church, He poured out His love upon me and put me in His service."

Faith like this is one which originates in the enablement of God, flows through a repentant heart and is assured of the divine purpose to save the sinful who believe.

And let me assure you that this truth is a universal truth. It is true to the Negro. It is true to the white man. It is true to the poor. It is true to the ignorant and it is true to the learned. This is worthy of universal acceptance.

THE CENTER OF OUR FAITH. We come now to the cardinal kernels of our Christian faith. I mean were one to ask the average Protestant his creedal convictions he could say without wide variations, "This I believe." Which our scriptures here are surveyed these basic beliefs emerge.

Here are the basic truths of the Christian gospel:

One God, Man's Sin, One Mediator, The Man Christ Jesus, Ransom from Sin, and One Witness.

Suppose we take a little time to talk of these distinctive fundamentals.

First let us comment on the doctrine of the One God. The essence of the patriarchal and prophetic persuasion was that there is one only one God and Jehovah is His name. True, that often the Israelites wandered off at times but the core of the prophets' message was to denounce their backslidings and call them back to God.

Somewhat, also, the heart of our Christian message is to reveal sin as exceedingly sinful. David said in the fifty-first Psalm, "Against Thee and Thee only have I sinned." However, God has provided a mediator to make peace between God and man. That man and God are at variance with one another is quite apparent in that man is ever in conflict with God's holy word. So God sent His Son to be a mediator between God and man.

Now a mediator must hold sympathetic relationship with both parties at variance. Then he must justly move out all barriers of their peaceful fellowship for their future.

This Jesus did for us. He bore our sins in His own body on the Cross and paid for our sins and the sin of the whole human family. Now He lives to make intercessions for us at the throne of God's grace. By God sending His Son as mediator, and Him dying on the Cross, He paid all I owed God in my stead at the throne and is now pleading for mercy and enablement for me to overcome sin within me.

FAITH IN HOLY CONFLICT. Here He assures us that faith is not only a tool to enter the warfare, but a weapon of defense. In Eph. 6:16, He warns them to place faith as one of their first weapons of defense. And here in our text he says fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life.

We are to flee ungodly lusts and follow after righteousness, Godliness, faith, love and holiness, patience. We must be aware that we fight a defeated foe but that even still he is able to give us much trouble in a world like ours.

Wanted: White Christians

By Andrew W. Ramsey

One of the most repeated legends of Western civilization is that of Diogenes going about the streets of Athens in broad daylight with a lighted lantern looking for an honest man.

A modern Diogenes might engaged in a similar goose chase, going through the streets of Indianapolis looking for a white Christian. The implication of that statement is not that Negro Christians could be found in abundance or that Indianapolis rates low in church membership among whites.

It is the private observation of this writer backed up by the observations and studies of others more competent in the field that the so-called white Christian is the tragically self-deluded figure in modern society.

The late Richard Wright put it this way: "A deeply conscious victim of white racism could be strangely moved to compassion for that white man, who, having lost his mystic vision of a stern Father God, a dazzling Virgin and a dying Son Who promises to succeed him after death, settles upon racism. What a poor substitute."

The current practice of white church members of selling or abandoning their temples when the neighborhood starts to change its racial complexion, the fact that Sunday schools are everywhere more segregated than the public schools and the fact that more than ninety-nine percent of so-called and self-styled American Christians worship racially segregated congregations tend to substantiate the accusation that the American white man even while his church membership is growing refuses to accept Christianity.

THE BACKWASH of racism spread abroad into Asia and Africa by missionaries who were unaware of the fact that they were doing so has a lamed the leaders. Sent off to deal with the heathen before they had ever got to know well even one individual who was not white and holding on to the instruction on race which they had received at their mothers' knees they are not to be too harshly condemned if they went to Asia or to Africa to play white god to the simple-minded natives!

But this backwash has caused concern for many of the leaders and thinkers among the white church members. In conventions and assemblies they have passed pious resolutions condemning racial separatism in their denominations. But as the Italians say, there is a whole sea between saying and doing. Most of the church leaders and bleeding heart Christians who favor integration in general belong to churches which are segregated and which flee the proximity of Negroes or other non-whites. These leaders do practically nothing to stop this unChristian practice. Nor do they discourage the flight of congregations to the hilly-white havens of the suburbs nor insist that the congregations take along the religion of the Nazarene with them.

A few leaders, more troubled than the rest, have taken cautious steps to remedy the situation caused by the exodus from the inner city of white congregations faced with worshiping in a neighborhood which is racially mixed.

For instance, the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) whose international headquarters is located in Indianapolis has decided in its county, state and international governing assemblies to fill the breach left by the vacating churches by setting up interracial congregations in the abandoned houses of worship. But the leadership has counted without its membership. One of the two pilot projects planned for Indianapolis has run into deep difficulty and unless some white Christians are found soon the other can be counted a failure even before it starts.

THE FIRST project was to be with the abandoned worship house of the Hillside Christian Church, 1731 Ingram. The church union of Marion County and the State Association of Christian Churches purchased the building which is in a neighborhood which is fifty-two per cent white. From January to date, an attempt has been made to find a white minister willing to undertake the job of building a mixed congregation in the neighborhood and of getting the former members who live in the vicinity of the church to agree to take membership in a racially mixed congregation. To date, no members and no minister.

A Negro minister would be hired, but it is the feeling of the leadership that in that event certainly no whites would participate.

To this writer it seems strange that in a city where missionaries are trained and sent to minister to the needs of black folk in Africa, missionaries cannot be found to minister to the spiritual needs of Hoosier blacks and whites. It seems that of the 54 Christian churches in the country, many of whom send missionaries to Africa, Asia and South America, there should be enough members imbued with the missionary spirit to transfer their membership to a new congregation which is not steeped in the anti-Christian poison of racism.

Incidentally, a survey has indicated that many Negroes living in the area would welcome the opportunity to worship in a church which gave credence to the brotherhood or man, the core of the Christian doctrine.

THE TRAGEDY is not that if white Christians are not found, Hillside Christian Church will have to be abandoned. Rather it is that if church people, both Negro and white, continue to reject this brotherhood, the Christian church as an institution will vanish from the earth to be replaced by a faith which is in step with human nature and the findings of science.

In the meantime our Diogenes is still looking for white Christians!

The Nation's Embezzlement Business

By DEAN GORDON B. HANCOCK

Embezzlement in this nation of ours has become big business, according to Norman Jaspas, quoted recently in the Associated Press. Says Jaspas, "We are rapidly becoming a nation of embezzlers." Jaspas is president of a management engineering firm that has been in business for the past 38 years and ought to know whereof he speaks.

According to Jaspas, his firm alone turned up employee thefts totalling $60,000,000.00 and says he, "When our engineers made surveys of the systems where no suspicion of dishonesty existed, they discovered fraud in more than 50 per cent of the assignments."

He continued, "one of the most disturbing factors is the lack or absence of ethics in graduates of many of our outstanding schools of learning."

And it was pointed out that employees steal more than a billion dollars annually and that because of the stealing that is going on, more than 250 firms fail every year and the purchasing cost to the ultimate consumer is increased by 15 per cent.

IT IS GENERALLY conceded that ours is the most criminal nation of modern times and embezzlement is only one facet of our national weakness. With embezzlement becoming an art, there are indications that we are rotting at the core.

Just a few years ago the nation was stunned to find that cheating on examinations in our great universities and colleges was routine, and brow-raising at such revelations was not universal, showing that in many quarters cheating was taken as a matter of course.

For a long time stealing by Negroes has been frowned upon, but stealing by whites has been taken lightly and so the indulged whites are making a career of embezzlement. This writer remembers well the customs of the Old South where the Negro who stole a chicken was called a rogue, but the white man who stole and broke a bank was called an embezzler and his crime was made to look less criminal because it was committed by a white person.

This double treatment of crime by Negroes and whites may have some influence on the current dangerous situation. To clamp down on a Negro who steals some small article and smooth over whites who wreck banks with their embezzlements is to lay the foundation of future trouble. So long has the Old South sown to the winds by this dual treatment of dishonesty that the whirlwind is about to catch up with a nation that adopted its tactics.

As a rough, uncouth country youth entered college he was known as "Old Jim (Gillett)" but after four years in college he had the name "James Gillette" engraved on his diploma. The latter name was fancier for a college graduate. Then today we are in an era of changing the names of things. For instance, a liar was known of old as a liar. Today he is known as a "prevaricator." Old-fashioned noise was known as noise. Today it is known as "cacophony."

IN A FORMER generation our departed were known as dead, today they are "deceased." The old-time rogue was known by that name; today, he is an "embezzler" or a "kleptomaniac."

Sin of yesterday was known as sin, but today it is known as "social deviation" or "social pathology." "Delinquency" of which we hear so much today is nothing but old-fashioned devility.

Imprisonment is now known as "incarceration" and so on. But it is just as well for us to know that changing the names of things does not change the things themselves, and so as our white contemporaries take over large-scale stealing and call it embezzlement it does not change the horrible nature of the practice.

There are indications that unless this once great country of ours straightens up and does right, we are in for great tribulation and the time to censure Negroes for a given crime and gloss over the whites for committing the same crime, is not now.

Our backs are against the wall. Communism is knocking at the door. We need experts to help us solve our problems such as the embezzlement problem who can measure arms with the experts the Old South has sent to Congress to head off the Negro as he aspires to full citizenship. What does it profit the Old South and the nation to hold the Negro down and let Russia run away with the world? Our embezzlement business is big and ominous.

ADMONITION ON CHRISTIAN LIFE

To The Editor: How can we live a Christian life? We can live a Christian life if we seek ye first the Kingdom of God because straight is the gate and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life.

Therefore I say unto you: "Take no thought for your life. What ye shall eat, what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat and the body, than raiment?"

Take therefore no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. There is nothing in you, therefore, that ye can put on. Is not the life more than meat and the body, than raiment?"

Take therefore no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. There is nothing in you, therefore, that ye can put on. Is not the life more than meat and the body, than raiment?"

See Tie for 'Mr. Basketball' If Writers 'On Level'

Cincinnati's National Champions -- Better Believe It!

Ligon, Humes, Miles Should Get All Votes

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

"Mr. Basketball" will be announced Sunday, but this writer finds it hard to understand how he'll be selected.

According to a report last week, the player getting the most votes for the All-Star team will win the coveted title. No special space to vote for "Mr. Basketball" was provided on this year's ballot.

If this doesn't result in at least a three-way tie, somebody's playing dirty pool. Can you imagine any sports writer leaving East Chicago Washington's Bobby Miles, Kokomo's Jim Ligon or Madison's Larry Humes off his ballot for legitimate reasons?

Gary Grier, white sharpshooter from Evansville, Bosse's state champs, is another who should be a unanimous choice. And since each writer votes for 10 in no special order, we fail to see why these four players should not top the list with identical totals. If everybody plays it straight, that is.

be laid on adults (who can defend themselves).

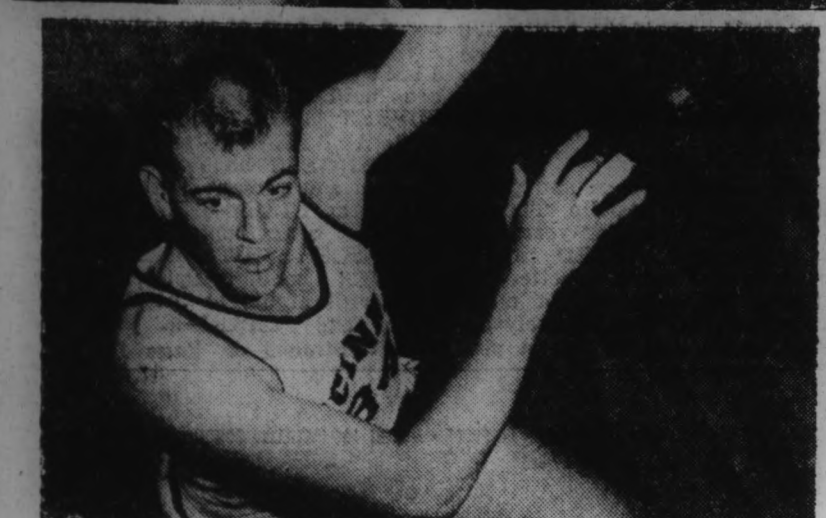

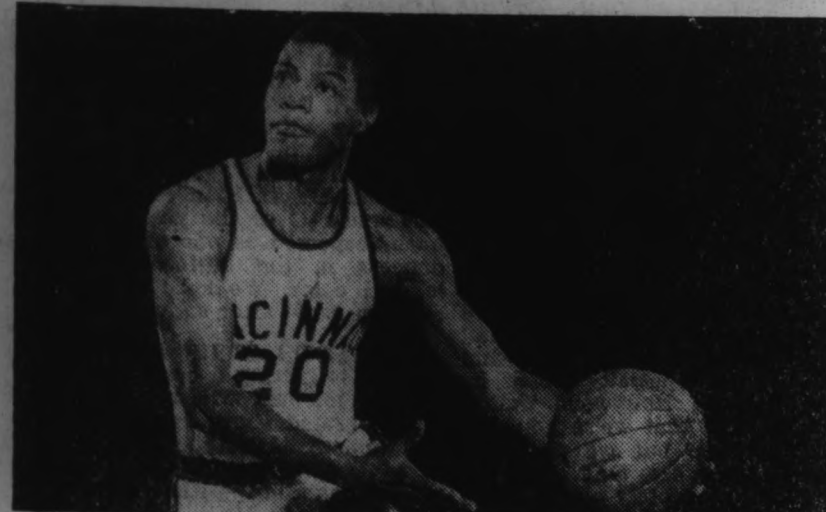

In these matters, sports columnists are rushing in where judges and professionally trained social workers fear to tread. And they're going off half-cocked on the basis of hearsay, without properly knowing what they're writing about. That's dangerously close to mob psychology.

DURING THE STATE Finals we conversed with one daily scribe who was highly critical of "Goose" Ligon's alleged misconduct off the basketball floor. "We ought to make a stand by leaving him off the All-Star team," he grumbled.

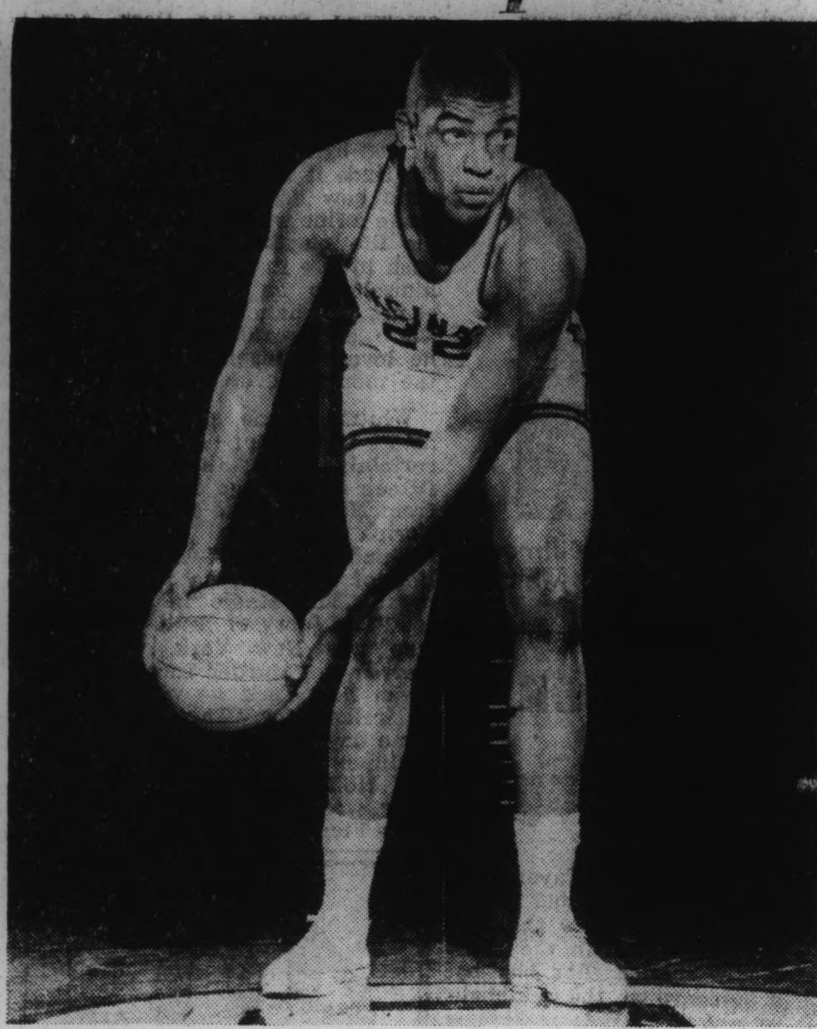

We hope no Hoosier sports writer would seriously go that far. We, for one, think this business of trial by newspaper of our juvenile athletes is getting out of hand. These young boys—who after all are products of our entire Hoosier Hysteria system—are getting raps in the prints that wouldn't

THE RECORDER LIMITS itself to voting for the 10 best players in Indiana, regardless of race, creed, color, location or size of school, or what somebody's Aunt Lucy may have said about the athletes' private lives. We are further limited by the fact that in order to vote intelligently for a player, we must have seen him in action or at least followed his career over a long enough period of time to have reasonable confidence in what

GADDIE ROLLS 628 AT STURM ALLEYS

Alvin Gaddie, 2947 Indianapolis Ave., went into orbit last week at the Sturm Recreation Bowling Co. alleys, 1442 N. Illinois, as he rolled a 628.

Gaddie's game scores were 149-265-214.

Other high totals were Lavelle Walker, 616, and Joe Johnson, 609. Fred McClaren, 536 Drake, continued his fast pace with a 168-266-169 for a total of 603.

IN THE LADIES' ranks, Ruth Holman bowled 539 and Barbara Parrish 500.

The Board of Regents in March, 1959, at Madison, Wis., barred the University of Wisconsin athletic teams from playing in localities where members might be subject to discrimination. (ANP)

Bruton Blasts Jimcrow Still Dogging Players

NEW YORK — Fifteen years after a Negro first played in a major-league baseball game, vestiges of the color barrier still remain along the circuits traveled by ball players.

One of the stars, Detroit Tigers' center fielder Bill Bruton, speaks out in an article "A Negro Ballplayer's Life Today" in the May issue of Sport magazine, published Thursday, March 29.

When Bruton was traded to Detroit last year, some 712 fans—including the governor of Wisconsin and Milwaukee's business and community leaders—paid $5 apiece to attend a dinner where he was described as a "Doctor of Science of Humanitarianism." The Wisconsin state legislature passed a resolution urging him to keep his home there.

But as he drove about last winter making speeches to high school groups, he still met rebuffs, the magazine reports. "They still don't think we're human," he says. "They don't want to rent motel rooms... Then if they recognize me as a ballplayer, they'll let me have it."

"But I walk out. I don't want it if they're offering it only to a ballplayer."

The Alabama native adds: "I was a Negro long before I was a ballplayer. And I expect to go on being one long afterward."

BRUTON'S FAMILY DOESN'T accompany him to Florida for spring training. When they did do so five years ago, his wife could sit only in the bleachers at exhibition games, while the wives of white players sat in the box seats.

Even today Negro players traveling in chartered buses with their teams cannot enter a restaurant and eat with their teammates in the south. "We'd have to eat in the kitchen," Bruton says. "And

Lincoln Students Resist Prexy On 'Bowl-In' Drive

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (ANP) — Dr. Earl E. Dawson, president of Lincoln University, was hanged in effigy, the school cafeteria boycotted and nine students suspended as a student campaign to desegregate city bowling alleys took a weird turn.

The campaign against the alleys' jimcrow policy had been going on for several weeks under the leadership of the campus chapter of the NAACP. Both Negro and white students had been supporting the drive.

Leaders of the campaign, however, turned their fire on the school administration after Dr. Dawson—charging that the students had created the impression the campaign was sponsored by the university—"took over control" of the fight.

The President forbade students from talking with the press and from taking any further action against the bowling alleys "without the knowledge and written approval of the dean of students."

THE STUDENT LEADERS then promoted a series of demonstrations that resulted in the suspension of five boys and four girls.

The suspended students refused to leave their dormitories unless university officials or state police physically carried them out. A large group of the student body supported them, and said it would employ passive resistance if officials tried to take the nine students out by force.

Many students went to class wearing black in protest against what they regarded as a "gag" rule.

FOUNDED IN 1886 as an all-Negro institution, Lincoln now has a daytime enrollment about one-third white. The summer and night school classes are estimated as about even in racial proportions.

Dodgers Continue Efforts To Ignore Jackie's Feats

By L. I. "BROCK" BROCKENBURY

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — Few people are aware of the subtle attempts made by the Los Angeles Dodgers (formerly the Brooklyn Dodgers) to ignore the great record established by the man who was unquestionably the brightest star in their history—Jackie Robinson... When Jackie was honored by the NAACP here, the Dodgers offered some lame excuses why they could not be represented... It is no secret that there's no love lost between Robinson and the Dodgers' president, Walter O'Malley, but it is not generally known that there is not even a picture to be had of Jackie if one calls the Dodger office for one.

How can the organization forget that it was Jackie Robinson, who out of the 10 years he was with them, put them in the World Series 6 times? If you disagree on the grounds that one man does not make a team, I will have to hedge a little, but I defy you to explain why else it is that B.R. (Before Robinson) the Dodgers won the pennant only once in 26 years; and A.J. (After Jackie) they have won it only once... ignore Jackie was contained in a release last week which, praising Willie Davis as a comer, slighted Robinson with the statement that Davis "might very well inaugurate a dynasty of dominance such as the Dodgers enjoyed in the days of Roy Campanella, Don Newcomb, Pee Wee Reese, Gil Hodges, Duke Snider at the peaks of their careers."

Slaughter was described by Stanford's coach as the "best one-goal center in the game," because he seldom scored but was a terrific rebounder and feeder...

What is the Negro ballplayer's life today?

Is the major league's racial barrier broken? Just how far has the Negro ballplayer come today? What are the major obstacles he still faces? In a frank, hard-hitting article in the current SPORT magazine, now on sale, Detroit centerfielder Bill Bruton swings away at the indignities the Negro ballplayers still suffer. He reveals the vast improvements that have been made, and those that could still be made. Read this first-hand account of "A Negro Ballplayer's Life Today."

PEOPLE (SOME) ARE FUN- and Hawkins Janitor Supply; NY . . . Can you remember hearing any of these fighters for integration asking Negroes to PATRONIZE Negro business and especially Negro newspapers—where they come continually with their BEEFS? The POOR struggling Negro newspaper is expected to carry the "TOUCH" in these crusades against the people who contribute MOST to their upkeep . . . and in spite of the fact so many of these fighters for integration don't even read Negro newspapers.

LAST WEEK was Negro Newspaper Week—celebrating 135 years of fighting for FREEDOM here in America. But in order to achieve this goal—they need the cooperation of every red-blooded Negro—either as reader or advertiser. Before spending your MONEY consult the columns of your newspaper for the ADVERTISERS who welcome your trade and appreciate it day in and day out. And, remember, when you buy a Negro newspaper you help maintain and create JOBS for yourself and kin.

SALUTING the Negro Press in special advertisements run in this newspaper were: Atty. Rufus Kuykendall, Republican candidate for Judge, Superior Court 2; Judge Mercer M. Mance of Superior Court 2; Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Co.; Walker Beauty Salon and Mme. C. J. Walker College of Beauty Culture; Atty. L. Aldridge Lewis Jr.; Atty. Clarence Bolden and Robert Mann; Dr. A. D. Pinkney; Dentists Robert T. Murrell; Cardinal M. Casey; Dr. and Mrs. Lehman D. Adams Jr.; Hazel H. Jr.; Fall Creek Parkway YMCA; Dr. B. A. Osborne; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Womack, Sr. and Mrs. Bertha Womack; Grady B. Hinkle Realty Co.; Hawkins Hardware and Hawkins Janitor Supply; Atty. Wilbur H. Grant, Republican candidate for Judge of Superior Court 2; Dr. Russell A. Lane; Atty. Everett I. Hall; State Senator Robert Lee Brockenburr; Dr. Cleo Blackburn, supt. Flanner House; James C. Cummings, manager of Barrington; Atty. Patrick E. Chavis; Federation of Associated Clubs; Stuart's Moving and Storage, Inc.; The NAACP, Indianapolis Branch; Foster Hotels; Dr. and Mrs. John C. Brown; Dr. and Mrs. Melvin S. Baird, Jr.; Dr. J. Leon Simms; George T. P. Coursey; Dr. Ralph E. Hanley; Dr. Arthur Howell; Supreme Life Ins. Co. (Reecie T. Avington, mgr.); Dr. Frank E. Chowning; Dr. James W. Anderson; Atty. Charles Q. Mattocks; Alfred Henry, real estate broker; and Atty. Thomas M. Crowds. Also, two doctors who preferred not to use their names.

WE ARE grateful for this wonderful cooperation and wish that all our readers would use their services whenever possible . . . And all the other ADVERTISERS in this newspaper. And don't forget to tell them that you saw their names in YOUR Recorder. It would be a good deal—what a yabber!

PEOPLE—Some of them talk too much . . . They never hear the other side . . . Watch the fellow who is a good listener . . . He can't end up dumb . . . If he keeps listening he's bound to know something!

MILES DAVIS, the temperamental jazz trumpeter from the Big Apple, failed to show with his sextet at a jazz concert in Bloomington under the sponsorship of the NAACP (Bloomington chapter) last Saturday nite. More than 800 jazz buffs were on hand for the music that failed to materialize. (Continued on Page 13)

The big twist contest and dance with $75.00 in cash prizes will be dangling before the eyes of local twisters at the Southside Armory Friday nite when Specialty Record artist Lloyd Price and his 15-piece band hit the podium with the strains of "Lawdy Miss Clawdy" and many other popular numbers made famous by the nationally-known blues shouter.

The twist contest and the lure of the $75.00 in cash loot should attract a large number of dance lovers who have gone all out for the dance craze originated by Hank Ballard and made famous by Chubby Checker plus the Peppermint Lounge in New York City.

Coupled with this outstanding feature of the dance will be the chirping of Lloyd Price of such songs as "Mailman Blues," "Hot Everywhere," "Stagger Lee," "I Wish Your Picture Was You," etc.

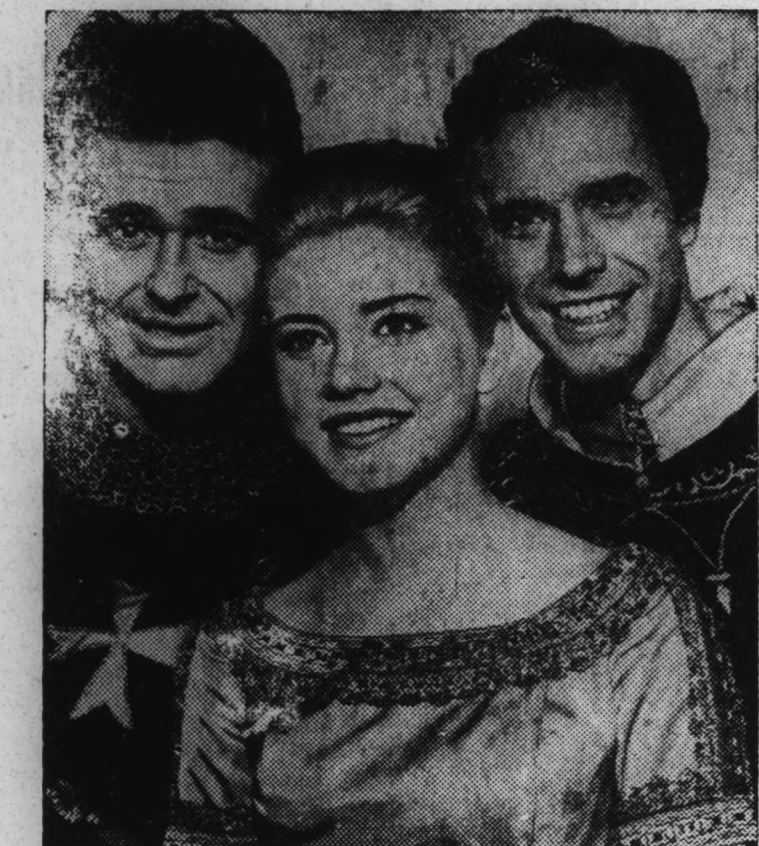

Advance tickets to the dance are now on sale in your neighborhood.

JOHNNY MATHIS TO SING ON 'OSCAR' SHOW

Johnny Mathis has been named to sing one of the five nominated songs on the 34th Annual "Oscar" Show of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, Arthur Freed, producer of the program, announced last week.

Named earlier to sing on the Awards presentation were Gogi Grant and Andy Williams. Freed said the assignment of songs which each vocalist will sing will be made at a later date.

The Awards Presentation Show will be carried by the combined radio and television networks of the American Broadcasting Company and the Canadian Broadcasting Company starting at 10:30 p.m. (EST) Monday, April 9.

STUART WHITMAN, Dolores Hart and Bradford Dillman are shown in a scene from "Francis of Assisi," which starts Sunday at the Walker theater.

Haughville Tavern is Open After Extensive Remodeling

The Haughville Tavern at 968 N. Traub (at 10th St.) is now open after extensive remodeling and is sporting new decorations, new restrooms and new lighting fixtures . . . and the new atmosphere is bringing in new customers from all around the town.

Laumont Richardson, the well-known proprietor, has gone to tremendous expense in order to make the drinkery one of the most pleasant places to enjoy a refreshing drink of popular beers, whiskies and wines.

Yes, the Haughville Tavern has had a "Face Lifting" and wants the whole town to know that it's the same old spot with the same old friendly service that has become a standard at the establishment where old friends meet new ones every day of the week.

Laumont invites you and your friends to drop in this weekend and see what a difference a little "Face Lifting" makes. You'll like it!

Red Keg Tavern Jumpin' Fri., Sat. With Rudy's Music

Rudy and his House Rockers, the boys who play that satisfying music with a feeling, continue to pack 'em in every Friday and Saturday at the Red Keg Tavern on Indiana at Senate Ave., rated as one of the quietest and most pleasant taverns in town.

The boys are really giving the patrons what they like and keep the house rockin' on weekends with their own swingy style of music, which has made the combo one of the most talked of musical aggregations in town.

The Red Keg offers along with the mellow music of Rudy and his House Rockers the choicest liquors and all popular brands of beers and wine plus the best in food prepared by a well-known chef.

Don't miss these boys and their terrific wailing this Friday and Saturday at the popular Avenueo play spot.

The People I Meet

By BARON HARRIS

HOLLYWOOD — The days have passed quickly and this is definitely the last column we'll be writing from our vantage point here in the west. Our next copy will be written from thirty one thousand feet in the air as we wing our way to New York, the greatest city in the world. We open at the Apollo Theatre on March 30th in a jazz show headlined by New York's popular SYMPHONY SID, a deejay from way back. We have well prepared ourselves with brand new material, some original and some written especially for us by an outstanding Hollywood writer.

We don't feel that we're going to miss this time but we shall see what we shall see. One thing for sure is we'll certainly not be doing anyone else's material and that, within itself, is half the battle. We were supposed to open on April 6th but our date was advanced by the theatre management in order to get us in a better position audiencewise.

HONI COLES, singer and polite manager of the Apollo Theatre, whom we've known for years, replaced LEONARD REED in the position and is doing a better job plus having the respect of many more artists than Reed merely because COLES prefers to not play favorites but to accept talent as he sees it. COLES is a former member of the COTTON CLUB DANCING BOYS and before entering the theatre management branch of the business was one half of the dance team of COLES & ATKINS, precision dancers par excellence. Over the years he has been respected as one of the best dancers in the business regardless of color. We'll be happy to see him again after so long a time.

FABULOUS STRIP CITY here in L.A. is getting a complete renovation job and will reopen with an integrated show, as usual, and will import its strippers from the east. ALAND DIXON will be in the managerial position and will host the nitery. He will be remembered as a part of the dance team ANISE & ALAND Blues shouter JIMMY WITHERSPOON has been held over at the HIDEAWAY SUPPER CLUB on West Adams while ART BLAKEY and his JAZZ MESSENGERS have completed a terrific engagement out on THE STRIP at CLUB RENAISSANCE and has been replaced by folk singer JOSH WHITE. IKE & TINA TURNER have completed three wonderful nights at the 5-4 Ballroom and CHARLES BROWN

Masco Young's They're Talking About

HAMMOND ORGANIST BILL DOGGETT got the choice job of supplying the music for Tulsa, Oklahoma's biggest social event, the Annual Debutante Cotillion on April 6.

CLARA WARD'S PERSONAL MANAGER for her excursion through the nation's top night clubs is Monte Kay, white husband of singer Diannah Carroll.

BARBARA GEORGE, who first clicked with "I Know," has come up with a strong follow-up tune in "Whip O' Will."

NEW YORK agents are waving contracts at the parents of nine-year-old Eddie Anderson, the boy-wonder of the drums in Philly who plays like a Gene Krupa. DIANHANN CARROLL plays the part of a high-fashion model who gets mixed up in an interracial love affair with actor Richard Killey in the new Broadway musical "No Strings."

CARMENCITA REMORE, the Chicago dance school operator and show producer who once danced with Katherine Dunham, had to cancel $5,000 in engagements when her husband, Carlos Hylton, was hospitalized for brain surgery.

ROCK AND ROLL SINGER James Brown hired two full-time housekeepers and a landscape man to keep his new 15-room home in St. Albans, Long Island tidy while he's on the road.

CHUBBY CHECKER will get $17,500 for one week's work when he sings his twist 'n' rock tunes at the Sands in Las Vegas.

BLUES SINGER Ida Cox, 68, who ranked with greats like Bessie Smith in the 20's and 30's, has been rescued from near-obscure in Knoxville, Tenn. and brought to New York for a recording session by Riverside Records.

FASHION MODEL Hal De Windt, who's busy trying to establish himself as an actor when not posing for magazine and newspaper ads, has been added to the cast of "Entertain A Ghost," which opens at the Actors Playhouse on April 9.

The People I Meet

continues to draw 'em in at the Club Intime where JOHNNY LEE (Calhoun, the lawyer of the Amos 'n' Andy series) is also appearing; so is JOHNNY MOORE'S THREE BLAZERS.

EARL BOSTIC'S FLYING FOX, a cocktail lounge and restaurant of the first calibre, is a must on anyone's round of pleasure spots. The cuisine is excellent, the decor most appealing and the location is the last word. The bandleader's wife acts in a hostess capacity and assures everyone a pleasant visit.

MR. B'S SUPPER CLUB, located in THE CARVER HOUSE over LAS VEGAS way is open and being managed by the bandleader, EAGLE EYE SHIELDS. The casino is not open and Shields told us by way of long-distance, that the room is just breaking even. We have been successful in putting him in contact with THE MAGNIFICENT GUETIN who, we understand, will get an early opening date there. His is a terrific act and he deserves a break. Nap-towners will remember him as the petite "fire dancer" who appeared at the Flamingo and the old PINK POODLE. The FOUR SOUNDS would do well to send a resume and lobbies to SHIELDS. Carver House is located at the corner of Jackson and "H" streets.

Since JACQUE DURHAM is completing the enlargement of his MISSILE ROOM in the EBONY CLUB it proves that he's progressive and isn't hated by everyone as a lot of folks would have you think. I say more power to him regardless of anyone's personal feelings. His is a good location that any day would grab if he could.

The movie titled "TWENTY THOUSAND STEPS TO NOWHERE" in which we play the part of JEDOD, a French-speaking Algerian thief, has been completed and will be released through the I.F.D. Independent Film Distributors sometime in May. The story is about the Algerian-French seven year war and was filmed partly in the Nevada desert and partly in Algeria. The part came our way from a screen test given us by REPUBLIC PICTURES when we flew out here to record our first album in 1960. We have the last laugh on R.B. who has always criticized and laughed at our efforts. Ha! Ha! Ha! The film is a KESSLER production.

The time has come to call it quits and get this copy in the mail. Next week we'll be writing at random as we jet eastward and for a while we'll be telling you about "the people we meet" in the east but whenever we return west Sunset Boulevard will be our beat in Hollywood, the city of make believe.

Show With Female Impersonators at Pink Poodle is Packin' 'Em In Nitely

The world's most unusual show—the Jewel Box Revue, with 25 men and one gal—is actually wowing patrons nitely at the ritzy Pink Poodle. Naptown's top entertainment spot.

The unusual show, styled A-mERICA's foremost presentation of femme impersonators, is really the that is not only because it's something different—but because it's good.

If you enjoy a rollickin' good performance with all the trimmings plus good looks and body appeal, don't fail to catch the Jewel Box Revue this weekend and the big Saturday matinee from 4 till 7. It's real gone—believe me when I tell you! Call ME. 2-0087 for reservations Today!

Paul Renfro and Trio From Cafe Society at George's Bar

Paul Renfro and his celebrated trio, king of rock and roll, jazz and blues, is appearing nitely at George's Bar and Orchid Room for a limited engagement.

The Renfro aggregation comes to George's direct from the fabulous Cafe Society in Columbus, Ohio, where they have been playing to capacity crowds. Music is from 9 till 2 a.m. nitely with a big matinee and jam session every Saturday from 4 till 7. Also a celebrity and Talent Nite every Wednesday.

Your congenial manager and host at this beautiful bistro is the well-known Richard Dudley, who invites you and your friends to come out every nitely during the week and enjoy the fine music of Paul Renfro and his celebrated combo.

ize... Members of the sextet include our own J. J. (trombonist) Johnson, Hank Mobley on tenor sax; Wynnton Kelly on piano, Albert Heath on bass and Jimmy Cobb on drums. Count Fisher and his combo are waiting at the Carousel on N. Meridian with Grandy on piano... Well-dressed and debonair Jimmy Collins is playin' a lot of piano at one of the top ofay clubs as usual... Sid Valentine and crew are jumpin' 3 nites a wk. down South-Indiana-way... Their drummer-man Johnny Harris left last wk. for Kentucky and his blue grass farm... Bandleader Rupert Harris stopped by last week from Springfield, Ill., enroute to Marion to attend the funeral of his brother... Baron Harris opens at the Apollo in New York on March 30.

HOSPITALIZED... Atty Edward N. Suber is confined in Methodist Hospital on E. 7th in critical condition... Dupree (Sporty) Dancy underwent surgery in Methodist Hospital Tuesday.

THE WRITER has been constantly eatin' up his chops for more education for our youngsters—especially on the technical side... Because we know there are oodles of jobs available—for only those who are qualified... (sad to relate) very few of our young are prepared. Now comes an editorial in Monday's Times captioned "To Be Ready For Opportunity"... "For a long time many Negroes and other minority group members saw little sense in education or job skill training. They weren't going to get good jobs no matter how able they were."

"This pattern is breaking... They need talent where they can get it and they are willing to reward it." "This is especially true in public agencies, government contract work and the armed forces. "Along with this, many unskilled jobs are disappearing. The untrained uneducated worker is the one at the end of the unemployment line."

"The chance has left many Negroes behind." (Note: This is exactly what we have been saying for years.) Just to look at the many grown-up men and women who can hardly read their names is enough to make you want to cry. These people are hopeless... unless they return to night school and learn some kind of trade or take advantage of the Government's Job Opportunity program. This thing is more serious than you think!

THE TIME has come when Negroes MUST stop this nonsensical mouthing... and get down to bizness... Simply putting our MONEY where our MOUTH is—and Pardon, this is no joke! Mrs. Mary Crowder celebrated her 72nd birthday on March 27. She's the lovely mother of our composer George White and the delovely Ermadell Civils. Friends of Alice May Parker want her to hurry up and get well. The young lady was recently released from General Hospital.

IN THE MAIL BAG—Dear Mr. Gibson: "I've been wondering how long it would take some people to reach the business-investment stage. "For instance, last spring I drove all over town seeking a plant nursery run by a Negro, before purchasing the border seedlings and ground ivy for spring planting that annually represents about $2.00 per householder out in the suburbs! "Since I'm paralyzed, I cannot do this for myself... and even housewives could start the seedlings in window boxes as I used to do, pooling their stock in small pots for the pre-Easter sale somewhere north by renting a corner and setting up a shaded stand for the Sunday drivers, etc. "I'll need $5.00 worth of pink dwarf phlox."

"Best wishes, "Maria Burkett." A wonderful business idea for somebody, don'tcha-think?

A-In Memoriam

MRS. HELEN LYONS JACKSON
JACKSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, MRS. HELEN LYONS JACKSON, who passed away April 2, 1965. Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break but all in vain; To have, to love, and then to part Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years may wipe out many things, But this they wipe out never—The memory of those happy days When we were all together.

Church Events . . . of the City

By WILLA THOMAS

The Christian Family Life Committee of the Church Federation will present another session of "Preparation for Christian Marriage" from 3 p.m. till 5:30 p.m. Sunday, April 8, at the Interchurch Center, 1622 N. Meridian.
Reservations should be sent to the Church Federation.

Congratulations to Rev. Otis Nance and members of King Solomon Baptist Church who recently moved to their new Southside location.
Likewise to the Mt. Olive Baptist Harmonette Ensemble which celebrated its 22nd anniversary Sunday afternoon with Rev. William Robinson, pastor of Eastern Star Baptist Church, speaking.

Mrs. Josephine Burns, head nurse at First Baptist Church, is ill in her home and cannot have visitors or phone calls. Cards may be sent to her at 753 W. 25th.

The Indianapolis PTA Council will conduct a one-day workshop on "Workshop and Character Education" Wednesday, April 4, from 9 a.m. till 2:30 p.m. at the Roberts Schools, 1401 E. 10th.
A film, "One God: The Ways We Worship Him," will be shown. A panel on the beliefs of religion, Judaism, Catholicism and Protestantism will include Rabbi Maurice Davis, Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation; Rev. Raymond Bosler, editor of The Criterion and Dr. James Armstrong Sr., minister at Broadway Methodist Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Shama Rassman, missionaries of India, left New York last week for home.

The Indianapolis Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church has approved the organization of a new church to serve the Lawrence and Millersville area. It will be the Bethany United Presbyterian Church.

Clergymen desiring social security credit for their earnings must file a Warner Certificate with the Internal Revenue Service before April 16. Russel D. Bechtel manager of the Indianapolis social security office, said a report issued early last year showed that time 70 per cent of the eligible, full-time ministers had elected to obtain social security coverage.
He pointed out that ministers letting the April 16 deadline pass without filing will not have another chance to participate in the program.

Children workers, pastors and leaders are asked to attend North Methodist Church Sunday from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. to hear Miss Mary Venable, director of children's work for the National Council of Churches.

Out of The Woods

By RON WOODS

GREAT STARS: Olivia McGee and Ina James.

The first and only Negro girl to apply as an entrant in this year's all-white 500 Festival Queen contest was lovely and talented Olivia McGee, a 20-year-old Indiana University Extension student. She entered her application five days before the contest closed. She passed all the qualifications except one. She wasn't white.

"Still the idea of an all-Negro float is not good," Olivia says. "More of our girls should enter the festival parade on an equal basis."

Olivia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin McGee, 2840 N. Capitol. She is a junior elementary education major and a member of the young adult usher board of Bethel AME Church.

A 1959 graduate of Shortridge High School, Olivia is a member of the popular Intercollegiate Club of Indianapolis, a group of outstanding college students headed by club president Ronald Cushmanberry.

Olivia has been interested in a career in teaching retarded children. She is scheduled to model April 29 in a fashion show at the Walker Casino, it was learned.

The shapely lass, who works as a secretary at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA, is 5 ft. 5 in. tall and weighs 130 pounds. By way of the tape measure she tallies 32-24-38. She digs skating, sewing and ping pong as hobbies.

INA JAMES, the lovely daughter of YMCA Executive Secretary John J. James, this week was named as one of five girls to represent the Scrollers Club in the annual Kappa-Omega Queen Contest and Kabaret Dance to be held March 31 at Masonic Temple, 653 N. West.

The contest will follow an 8:30 p.m. basketball game between the Kappas and Omegas in the Attucks High School gymnasium. The dance, sponsored by the two rival fraternities, will be held from 12 to 4 a.m.

The Scrollers Club is a pledge group of the Kappa fraternity. Miss James, a 21-year-old former Indiana University Extension student, is being co-sponsored in the contest by the Intercollegiate Club of Indianapolis, of which she is a member and chairman of its Board of Membership.

One of Ina's favorite hobbies is dress making and she will wear one of the dresses she designed and made at the dance, it was reported. She also likes to swim.

A member of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Ina is presently employed as an office secretary at the Christian Theological Seminary.

It was not learned immediately who the other four Kappa choices are, but it's a fact that Miss Ann Miles, the 1961 queen, will be on hand to crown the winner of this year's competition.

A good bet.

LETTER FROM A Reader: "I want you to know how much I enjoy reading your column but why don't you write more about serious things and not so much about these sordid stories about people's mixed-up lives?"

"You have a wonderful talent but I'm afraid you're not taking full advantage of it."

"I do like you, though."

READER: I'd like to write about "serious things" every day. Unfortunately, there is so much I've yet to learn about newspaper writing in general. Writing about people's mix-up lives has always been a major part of the newspaper's make-up, and can give the young reporter a much broader outlook concerning matters both serious and non-serious.

Robert Smith

Funeral services for Robert Smith, 41, a coremaker at the American Foundry Co., were held March 28 in Scott Methodist Church, with burial in Crown Hill Cemetery. He died March 21 in Methodist Hospital.

A native of Danville, Ill., Mr. Smith, 255 W. 44th, had lived in Indianapolis 26 years, and was a member of Twenty-fifth Street Baptist Church. He was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Helen Smith; two sons, Robert L. Smith, with the Army in Germany, and Kenneth G. Smith, aboard the destroyer U.S.S. Cascade; his mother, Mrs. Almet Smith; three sisters, Miss Edith Smith of Salisbury, Md., Mrs. Maxine and Mrs. Thelma Roach, Indianapolis; and two brothers, Leslie Smith, Indianapolis, and Milton Smith of Philadelphia, Pa.

Church, as evangelist.

A hobo trip was sponsored recently by the Sunshine Band of New Hope Baptist Church. The leaders, Mrs. Lillian Newell and Mrs. Loraine Hathaway, gave the children the thrill of their lives touring places of interest of the city on a chartered bus. They were served a tasty luncheon at the church.

Mrs. Laura Dorsey is still confined at Welborn Memorial Hospital in room 402. She is a member of McFarland Baptist Church and owner-manager of Dorsey Nursing Home for the Aged.

The Evansville-Henderson Association of College Women presented a youth appreciation tea at the Stewart Service Center, 656 S. Governor, Sunday afternoon.

Musical contributions were made by guest soloists including Miss Marian Brown, talented daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. R. Brown of Henderson and Miss Donna Stevenson, daughter of Mrs. Stevenson and student at Lincoln High School. Miss Stevenson is a member of the marching and concert band at Lincoln.

Mistress-of-ceremonies was Mrs. Solomon Stevenson, Lincoln school counselor. Chairman of the tea was Mrs. Robert Perkins, club president. Co-chairman was Mrs. Charles E. Rochelle.

Others among the 100 nominated by the scribes included Mike Williams of Shortridge (truthfully and regretfully, we hadn't realized "Crumb" is a senior); Jim Rhodes, Washington; Gary Tofil, Cathedral; Lonnie Walker, Shelbyville; John Blanchard and Ed Perez, East Chicago; Washington; Carl Brown, Muncie Central; Rod Haywood, Fort Wayne Central; Sam Williams, South Bend Adams, and Cal Edwards, South Bend Central.

Granted there's room for difference of opinion about some of these choices. But if any of our "top four" isn't named on ALL the ballots, it won't be basketball.
