

LAWRENCEBURGH.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 30, 1825.

Mr. MONFORT, of the Presbyterian denomination of Christians, will preach at Lawrenceburgh at 10 o'clock on Sunday the second day of October next.

As strange as it may seem, we have not yet received a return from all the counties, with regard to the election for governor; nor is it probable that we will, until the Legislature convenes. We shall then give a correct statement of the votes received by each of the candidates.

Commodore Stewart.—It appears that Commodore Stewart has been more fortunate than his friend and brother in arms, the gallant Porter, in the result of the investigation of his conduct, lately held at Washington. Although there were four charges preferred against him, under which there were forty specifications, he has been honorably acquitted, by the Court Martial, upon each and all of them.

Candidates for office.—On looking over a late Greensburgh Pa. paper, we observe 11 candidates announced; who, in a very polite manner, inform the electors of Westmoreland county, that they would, with pleasure, represent them in the next General Assembly, or elected—there's the difficulty. The number announced for the office of sheriff, in the same county, amounts to fifteen, perhaps more. Fine times, truly, for him that has a vote to dispose of—it's better than cash.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.

Delivery of the Presents for Bolivar.—Yesterday at three o'clock, Gen. Lafayette received Senor Villenilla, of the Colombian Legation, the gentleman whom we announced as having been sent to the metropolis by M. Salazar, the Minister of Colombia, for the special purpose of taking charge of the presents.

The General, holding in his hands the memorials of olden times, and of old, but never changing affection, perused, with deep and feeling interest the medal* and portrait,† commenting upon the recollections of the one, and the resemblance of the other, and then presented them to M. Villenilla, with a letter for the Liberator, addressing at the same time a few words of compliment to the Hero of the South.

Translation of a Letter written by General Lafayette, to the President Liberator Bolivar.

President Liberator—My religious and filial devotion to the memory of General Washington, could not be better appreciated in his family than by the honorable charge now bestowed on me. While I recognize the perfect likeness of the portrait, I am happy to think that among all existing characters, and all those recorded in history, General Bolivar is the one to whom my paternal friend would have preferred to offer it. What shall I say more to the great citizen whom South America has hailed by the name of Liberator, a name confirmed by both worlds, and who, possessing an influence equal to his disinterestedness, carries in his heart the love of Liberty, without any exception, and of the Republic without any alloy? However I feel authorized by the public and recent testimonies of your kindness and esteem, to present you with the personal congratulations of a veteran of our common cause, who, on the eve of his departure for another hemisphere, shall follow with his best wishes the glorious complement of your labours, and that solemn Congress at Panama, where will be consolidated and completed, all the principles and all the interests of American independence, freedom, and policy.

Accept, President Liberator, the homage of my deep and respectful attachment.

LAFAYETTE.

*The Medal, of pure gold, presented at the close of the Revolution, in commemoration of the virtues and services of the Paternal Chief, piously preserved in his family, till "another Washington has arisen, for the deliverance of his country, the Benefactor of mankind."

†The Portrait, a largest sized Miniature, executed by Field, in 1800, from an original painting by Stuart. This painting is a most beautiful specimen of the arts, and a faithful likeness. The Portrait is in the costume of the first President of the United States. The hair is of the time and character of that worn in the ring which was presented to Lafayette at the Tomb of Washington.—Nat. In.

Mr. Custis then delivered to Mr. Villenilla a letter, addressed to the Liberator, and begged leave to offer his best wishes for the health of that illustrious Chief, and his most hearty good wishes for the prosperity and happiness of South America.

ARLINGTON, 4th of July, 1825.

Near Washington City.

Liberator—An American, the adopted child of Mount Vernon, presents to you, by the honoured hands of the last of the Generals of the Army of North American Independence, the venerable the good Lafayette, a Medal, commemorative of the worth and fame of the most truly great and glorious of men, given by the ancient capital of his native State, and preserved in his family since the war of the Revolution. With the Medal, there is also presented to you a Portrait of the Father of his country, containing a lock of his hair.

Accept, Liberator, these offerings made to your virtues, and the illustrious services you have rendered to your country and the cause of mankind; and, when you shall have filled your honoured grave, treasured among the Archives of South American Liberty, they will descend to the generation of ages yet to come.

With the revered reliques of their paternal Chief, receive, Liberator, the homage of all the Americans, who, with pure and triumphant acclaim, hail you as Bolivar the Deliverer, the Washington of the South.

GEO. WASHINGTON P. CUSTIS.
His Ex'y the Liberator.

COMMUNICATED.

To the Editors of the Indiana Palladium.

It is a subject worthy of inquiry, whether we have, agreeable to the plain letter of the constitution, an Executive who has any shadow of authority to administer the government of this state? Was not the functions of governor exercised by James B. Ray, by virtue of his office as senator; and did not that time expire, for which he was elected, the first Monday of last August? If so, we are without an Executive until the sitting of the General Assembly.—And every act by a pretended governor, will be a subject of dispute for years to come. It would not be amiss to inquire of Mr. W. W. Wick, Secretary, if he would not have discharged his duty in calling together the Senate, instead of corresponding with each Senator and Prosecuting Attorney, to know their separate opinions. I should like to hear this subject discussed—it is one of importance.

OBITUARY.

"Insatiate Archer, could not once suffice?
"Thy shafts flew thrice—and thrice my peace was slain!
"And thrice, ere thrice yon moon had fill'd her horn."

DIED—On yesterday morning, on his way to Indianapolis, after a short but painful illness, LAZARUS NOBLE, Esq. Receiver of Public Moneys for the Land Office at that place.

DIED—At his residence in Brookville, on Tuesday, the 20th inst. after a lingering illness, Doct. ISAAC G. JOHN, aged about 24 years.—As a physician, but few have been attended with as much success; and as such, none more justly merited, and more liberally enjoyed the confidence of the people. His strict and unremitting attention to the sick and the afflicted, and his otherwise upright and moral deportment, gained him the sincere friendship and esteem of all his acquaintances. He was, alike, the companion of the thoughtful and the gay; and his death is equally lamented by the aged and the young. But why attempt to laud his virtues—they are indelibly engraven on the hearts of all who knew him, and speak an eulogy which language ne'er could utter; "Come then, expressive silence, speak his praise."

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.

DIED—On Wednesday evening, August 31st, after a few days sickness, Mr. JAMES KNIGHT, Printer, aged 24 years, of Brookville, Indiana.—It may be matter of consolation to Mr. K.'s distant relatives and friends to know, that, while in our employ, his upright conduct and unassuming manners gained him the esteem of a numerous acquaintance, whose unremitting attentions during his illness, and the decent respect with which they accompanied his remains to the grave, testified the sincerity of their attachment.
