

LAWRENCEBURGH.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 13, 1827.

It will be seen by an advertisement inserted to-day, that the partnership heretofore existing between J. SPENCER, D. V. CULLEY & Co. has been dissolved, and that the business of the office will hereafter be conducted by Gregg and Culley, the original proprietors of the Palladium. The causes which have made it necessary to adopt this course are simply the insufficiency of support to warrant a continuance of so many partners in the office. The establishment may repay the labors of two persons while it would not render to three that recompence which is so very necessary for the prosperity of any business. 'Keep your Shop,' says the sage Franklin, 'and it will keep you.' This has been our object and shall continue to be so as long as the present editors have any act deposited with the Secretary of control of the press; trusting to the public for State.

The Legislature of Kentucky has passed a law repealing the act creating the New Court of Appeals, reviving the former Court, and reinstating the old Judges. To this law the Governor refused his signature, it therefore, became necessary that it should be sanctioned by a constitutional majority of the Legislature. JAMES W. McCULLOUGH, Esq. of Baltimore county, and JOHN G. CHAPMAN, Esq. of Charles county were then put in nomination; and on counting the ballots, it appeared that Mr. McCULLOUGH had received 46 and Mr. CHAPMAN 29 votes. Upon taking the chair, Mr. McCULLOUGH delivered an eloquent address to the House.

The suggestions contained in the communication of "Sparta," published to-day, concerning a removal of the seat of justice of this county, are well worthy the consideration of every person concerned, and we hope they will not be neglected but weighed with due justice and impartiality.

From the proceedings published in to-day's paper, the reader will discover, that our Legislature is not idle, altho' it may be doing some things of very little importance to the state. This, however, cannot be well avoided so long as the Legislature shall deem it expedient to harken to the various complaints presented for their consideration. Some of which doubtless would be settled with less expense and more to the satisfaction of the parties before some other tribunal. For instance, the petitions of various individuals, praying to be divorced from unfaithful helpmates, or disorderly husbands. Such cases as these, it is our opinion, should be settled in the county where they arise, and not bro't before the Legislature, where the matter of difference can hardly be expected to be fully investigated. There is a number of similar cases which might be adduced, in which legislative interference is altogether unnecessary, if not attended with evil consequences.

The present Session of the Legislature will probably close about the 25th or 30th inst.

Newspapers. By late mail we have received the first and second numbers of two new weekly publications. The "Independent Press," published in Cincinnati, has taken its leave of time, and from its ashes another paper has sprung entitled the "SATURDAY EVENING CHRONICLE," by Mr. Samuel S. Brooks. This paper, it is understood, is composed of matter selected from the daily paper published by the same gentleman, which will enable the editor to present in the Chronicle the choicest and most interesting intelligence emanating from the American press. The numbers before us are such as to do honor to the praiseworthy exertions of Mr. Brooks, and entitle him to success. We would recommend to those who have encouraged the "Press" in this part of the country, to extend their patronage to the Chronicle. The other paper received, is issued from the office of the "Tocsin, deceased," Salem, Ia. entitled "the ANNOTATOR OF NEWS, POLITICS, AND LITERATURE," by Mr. Henry S. Handy. It is printed on a super royal sheet, neatly executed and well stored with interesting original and selected matter. We wish him encouragement, not only in names, but in that which will make him feel the bliss of the Printer's hour of peace.

Congress—Resolutions have been offered by Messrs. West and Jennings, to congress, on the subject of Public Lands, giving further relief to the purchasers who have failed to pay the full amount of purchase money, and the land reverted to the United States. There is little doubt but that there will be some law passed during the present session on that subject. Mr. Noble introduced a bill for the continuation of the Cumberland Road, which will probably receive the sanction of Congress.

The investigation invited by Mr. Galbraith, into his official conduct, while Secretary at war, engages considerable attention at Washington. He has refused to take his seat in the senate, until a full investigation is had into the charges bro't against him.

Speaking of it, the Nat. Intelligencer says:—

"We admire the proud spirit which prompted this appeal, and respect the courtesy which granted it. We have some doubt, however, whether the precedent be not a bad one, and may not hereafter put the House of Representatives to much trouble, by causing it to be vexed by inquisitions instituted upon vague or insufficient authority.

We trust however, that the inquiry, since it has been instituted will be promptly prosecuted, and speedily ended; not doubting that its office will hereafter be conducted by Gregg and Culley, the original proprietors of the Palladium. The causes which have made it necessary to adopt this course are simply the insufficiency of support to warrant a continuance of so many partners in the office. The establishment may repay the labors of two persons while it would not render to three that recompence which is so very necessary for the prosperity of any business. 'Keep your Shop,' says the sage Franklin, 'and it will keep you.' This has been our object and shall continue to be so as long as the present editors have any act deposited with the Secretary of control of the press; trusting to the public for State.

New Orleans Dec 9.—As was anticipated,

CINCINNATI, JAN. 6.

Dreadful Fire.—The fine new Paper Mill of Mr. Graham, was this morning burnt down. Luckily, the day was calm, and there being no adjoining buildings, the destructive agent was confined to the Mill. The accident occurred from an attempt made by Mr. Graham himself, to thaw a cistern, by burning a quantity of shavings in it, on the ice. The blaze and flame produced was unexpectedly great, and communicated instantaneously, to the combustible materials in the vicinity, and in a few minutes the whole establishment was in flames. It burnt down in less than an hour. The Mill was just finished, and would have gone into operation in two or three days—a quantity of stock was consumed.

We have not heard the loss of this enterprising individual, but it must be great. A fine new Engine was in the Mill.

Chronicle.

The ice in the Ohio, we are informed, is about eight inches in thickness. Horses have crossed on the ice, and loads of wood have been brought across and sold at a good profit. About half a cord of wood is placed on a sled, and pulled and pushed over by four men. A table with cakes, apples and spirits, and a negro to play the fiddle, has been placed on this ice, and attracts much custom. The grocery keeper has no corporation license to pay for.

We understand by a gentleman from Portsmouth, that on Christmas day the steamboat ELIZA on her passage from that place to Pittsburgh, ran upon a snag six miles from the former place, and sunk in few minutes. Her loading was principally lead and shot. No lives were lost, but some, in consequence of the misfortune, endeavoring to reach the shore, had to take a cold bath. West Union Reg.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—A meeting of the Members of both branches of the Legislature of South Carolina was held on the 19th inst. when Jacob B. FO, President of the Senate was called to the Chair, and Robert Anderson, Clerk of the H. R. representatives, appointed Secretary. Henry Deas, addressed the meeting, and submitted a preamble, and the subjunctive resolution, which were adopted by a vote of 135 to 2. Of those present, 29 were members of the Senate, and 108 of the House of Representatives. There were 26 Members absent, of whom it is said, many are known to be friendly to the election of Gen. Jackson.

Resolved, That the State of South Carolina will support GEN. ANDREW JACKSON, as the next President of the United States.

Resolutions have been adopted by the Legislature of South Carolina, by an almost unanimous vote in both Houses, appropriating the sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS of six per cent. stock, redeemable in the year 1850, to the legal representatives of the late Thomas Jefferson, for the benefit of his heirs.

GEORGIA.—The resolution, recommending GEN. ANDREW JACKSON to the people of the United States, as a candidate for the Presidency, has passed both branches of the Legislature of GEORGIA—the Senate unanimously, and the House of Representatives, by a vote of 110 to 9.

PIRACY. The American brig Susan was lately boarded near the island of Andros, by a large body of Greek pirates, who conducted themselves in the most barbarous manner possible (except that they did not commit murder,) and carried off whatsoever they pleased. If the war between the Turks and Greeks shall continue, piracy will increase to an alarming extent. Two of the vessels are now in the Archipelago, to convoy and protect our merchantmen.

The Legislature of MARYLAND assembled at Annapolis, on Tuesday; and, what may be considered extraordinary, every member of the House of Representatives was present. After the quod sicut of the members the House proceeded to business by adopting a resolution to elect a Speaker to preside over its deliberations. JAMES W. McCULLOUGH, Esq. of Baltimore county, and JOHN G. CHAPMAN, Esq. of Charles county were then put in nomination; and on counting the ballots, it appeared that Mr. McCULLOUGH had received 46 and Mr. CHAPMAN 29 votes. Upon taking the chair, Mr. McCULLOUGH delivered an eloquent address to the House.

Yesterday, it is supposed, from previous general belief that EDWARD L. LEWIS (late Senator of the United States) was chosen, by an unanimous vote, to be President of the Senate that Mr. McCULLOUGH had received 46 and Mr. CHAPMAN 29 votes. Upon taking the chair, Mr. McCULLOUGH delivered an eloquent address to the House.

Indianapolis, Jan. 2.—Flour is now selling at $5.50 per barrel, and not of such a quality either as would pass for superfine under the examination of an inspector—There is very little, if any, in the market—Journal.

Indianapolis, Jan. 2.—On Saturday last, in pursuance of a law passed this session, both Houses proceeded by joint ballot to choose district prosecutors, for the five judicial circuits. In the 1st, 4th and 5th, Messrs. Law, Battell and Whitcomb were elected without serious opposition. In the 2d Mr. Kingury was elected by a majority of 4 votes over Gen. Stapp. In the 3d Mr. Finch received 56 votes, Mr. Lane 13, Mr. Morris 5, and Mr. Dunn 3.—Journal.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 14th inst. asserts that Mr. Randolph will be re-elected to the Senate of the United States, without opposition adding—

"This is not a time for Virginia to sacrifice John Randolph at the shrine of an administration which she dislikes. She is not wont to make such propitiatory oblations to politicians who have so little claim upon her confidence and attachment.
