

LAWRENCEBURGH.
SATURDAY, JANUARY 27, 1827.

A special meeting of the Board of Justices, forming a court to transact county business, will be held in this place on the first Monday in February next.

It appears from an Ohio paper, that the senate of that state have, on comparing the returns, discovered that W. B. BEBE is elected to the 11th district to the 20th Congress, vice J. C. WRIGHT. This result seems to have been bro't about by a failure in making a return for the county of Holmes, where Mr. Wright received a considerable majority.

From the proceedings published to-day, it will be discovered that legislative operations do not go on so smoothly as usual at the seat of government. The several resolutions concerning the officers of state, can hardly be viewed as indicative of that confidence in their integrity, which should be entertained by the representatives of the people. This being the case we are glad that steps have been taken to ascertain whether there is any ground for suspicion. It has been to us a matter somewhat strange that such an inquiry should be delayed so long as it has, knowing, as we do, that there has frequently been but one officer at the seat of government to transact the business of four distinct offices. And it is a fact, known to many, that the Treasurer of State has, at different periods, been, in reality, the Secretary and Auditor of State, and some times Governor.

A man so useful, and who can act, and does act, in so many capacities, surely could attend to two offices at all times, which would be a considerable saving annually to the state. It may be objected, that the Treasurer would not be a proper person to adjust and audit accounts where his pecuniary interests might have an undue weight. This we would be willing to admit; but if he has any concern with them out of his own office, he might as well have the honor and responsibility attached to the various stations he may occupy—at least for the time being. It is not our wish to impeach the integrity of the present treasurer of state, or other officer of state, but merely to hint at what may lead to bad consequences, if permitted to pass unobserved by the legislature.

COMMUNICATED.

Messrs. Gregg & Cutt—The plan of your correspondent signed "Sparta," I think worthy of the attention of the citizens of D'Arborn; its object appears to be to draw the attention of the people to two prominent points—so far I agree with Sparta. But I think to take the ratio of 50 polls to a representative would leave less of a fraction unrepresented than 100, and the representatives when met, would be more likely to possess and better represent the voice and wishes of the people; the apportionment would then stand thus, if the number of polls has been fairly represented by your correspondent:

| Township | Polls. | Representatives |
|--------------|--------|-----------------|
| Logan | 198 | 4 excess 2 |
| K.-Iso. | 95 | 2 excess 5 |
| Manchester | 325 | 6 under 23 |
| Lawrenceburg | 557 | 1 under 7 |
| Lugher | 363 | 7 under 13 |
| Randolph | 894 | 8 excess 6 |
| Sparta | 121 | 2 under 21 |
| Cesar Creek | 112 | 2 under 12 |

This amendment, besides the advantage of the old adage "that safety lies in the multitude of council," would afford a greater certainty for all parts of the county to be represented in the meeting; accident might prevent one from attending, and thus the plan might be frustrated; whereas two being appointed, the chance of disappointment would be lessened. The cheapness of the measure appears to recommend the experiment; perhaps it might quiet the minds of our citizens, and I cannot perceive wherein any part of the county would be placed in a worse situation than it is at present.

KENTUCKY. The Legislature of this state recently passed a bill, repealing what was called the re-organizing act. The Governor returned the bill, with his objections, it was however passed by the constitutional majority, and became a law. In the midst of the triumph of the majority, it being the Governor's privilege to nominate a Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, they were astonished by the nomination of GEORGE M. BIBB, Esq. a man of acknowledged legal attainments and fitness for the station, but not at all to their liking, he belonging to the New Court or Governor's party. Great exertions were made to induce the Senate to reject this nomination; but notwithstanding the Legislature repealed the re-organizing act in despite of Gov. Desha's objections, he out-generaled them in filling the office of Chief Justice, and the nomination of Mr. BIBB was confirmed by the Senate, at nine o'clock on the night of the 4th inst. by a vote of 21 to 17.

On the 4th inst. a vote was taken in the Kentucky House of Representatives, on the propriety of removing the seat of government from Frankfort. The vote was 57 in favor of removing, and 37 against it. Question lost, two thirds being required.

A bill passed the House, on the 11th inst. appropriating twenty thousand dollars for the rebuilding of the capitol at Frankfort.—National Republican.

AFRIGAN COLONIZATION. From the proceedings had, it appears probable that the legislature of Maryland will appropriate $1,000 a year to aid in the transportation of free persons of color to Africa, under the direction of the colonization society. We earnestly wish that this appropriation may be. Let us keep the door open for the egress of this class, who seriously interfere with the pursuits of a more desirable population, without advancing their own prosperity among us.—Niles.

Thomas Hyatt not appearing, a bench warrant was issued against him and the recognizance of his two securities, $2,000 each, declared to be forfeited.

In the case Barker, Vermilyea, Davis, and Spencer a coroner from the Supreme Court was served. The court in consequence ordered that their bonds be increased to 20,000 each.

The editor of the Republican, printed at Winchester in Virginia, stated that he issued the late message of the President in an extra 5 hours after it was communicated to Congress; and the editor of the Virginian printed in the same town, that he had served his town subscribers with the message in an extra 18 hours after it was read in Congress.—It turns out, that the Republican received a copy of the message 20 hours before it was read in Congress—and the Virginian had his extra papers printed in Washington City!—probably too, "twenty hours before the message was read in Congress." These facts, which are gleaned from the Winchester papers themselves, shew that the confidence of the President has been abused, and an improper partiality practised, by some of our brethren of the type of Washington.
