

LAWRENCEBURGH.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1827.

We are authorized to announce JOHN H. THOMPSON Esq. of Clark county, a candidate for Governor at the next August election.

To make room for Mr. Markley's address "to the public," and some other articles of a political nature, a number of items of news foreign and domestic has been crowded out; among the latter the confession of Hill, the Murderer of Morgan, which we promised in our last. The foreign news of the day is of little importance to the American reader and its place most generally can be more profitably occupied by that of domestic manufacture, tho' it should be politics. Now and then we have a little from the Greeks, but it is as exaggerated and uncertain in most instances, as a combination of circumstances can make it. Late accounts state that the Porte had rejected in the strongest terms all interferences of the Allied Powers for the pacification of the affairs of Greece, and that the ambassadors of the Allies had applied for passports to leave the Turkish Capital.

The annual elections in New York commenced on Monday the 5th inst. and ended on Wednesday following. In the city of New York the election of members to the Legislature was very warmly contested on the presidential question. The entire Jackson ticket is stated to have succeeded. The New York Enquirer says that upward of 20,000 votes were polled in the city. We have no accounts from any other part of the state.

The Geneva N. Y. Gazette says "the body found at Oak Orchard creek which resembled William Morgan so exactly as to produce the fullest conviction that it could be none other but his, turned out to be that of Timothy Monroe—was again disinterred, on Monday, and we understand after a thorough investigation it was given up to his friends to be taken to Canada."

The season for making contracts for the transportation of the Mail on a part of the vast line of the United States' Roads is over, and the competitors are dispersed to their respective homes. The Office Department have had an arduous time of it, but with very few exceptions, we believe, the parties are satisfied with the decision between them which have been made by the Postmaster General.

Some changes have effected in the mode and time of carrying the Mail, still adding to the present facilities of the Post Office Establishment. For instance, the mail, after the first of January next, will be conveyed from Washington and Baltimore to Cincinnati, in Ohio, in SIX DAYS, in stages seven trips weekly. It is now conveyed but six trips weekly, and require seven and a half days.

To Louisville, from the above places, the mail stage, after January, will run daily, taking eight days; the time now required being ten days.

From Louisville to Nashville, a mail stage will run six trips weekly.

On all the important mail routes, there has been great increase of expedition provided for, as well as additional accommodation on many of them, by an increase of the number of weekly trips.

A male stage will run weekly from Lexington, Ky. by Barboursville through Tennessee, and a part of North Carolina so as connect with a line of mail stage which run from Columbia, South Carolina.

These are a few of the improvements.

Nat. Intel.

From a detailed statement in the Nashville Republican, it appears that the Legislature of Tennessee consists of 61 members. 20 Senators, and 41 Representatives. Of whom there are 19 lawyers, 4 merchants, 1 mechanic, and thirty-six farmers. 27 are natives of Virginia, 14 of Tennessee, 12 of North Carolina, 4 of South Carolina, 2 of Pennsylvania, 2 of Kentucky, and 1 of Delaware. And among the whole are eight Bachelors, 4 in each branch.

Nat. Republican.

Elling.—It now appears that this individual is a rank impostor, and that his deposition, publicly made before the mayor of this city, is a vile fabrication from beginning to end. We are assured by a gentleman of the highest respectability, from that neighbourhood, that Elling went to Milford on the 29th of September, the day following the evening on which he disappeared from Mount Moris; that on the 27th he hired a man with a deerskin to take him to Easton; and on the 29th took the stage from Easton to Bristol, and was seen in the stage by an individual who knows him well, and who is certain that it was Elling whom he saw.

The only supposition that can be formed, in palliating Elling's conduct, is, that he is not in his right mind; of this, however, there is no testimony, and the almost inevitable conclusion is, that for the purpose of accomplishing some sinister design, he has practised a flagrant imposition upon the public, and committed an outrage upon law and propriety which ought not to pass unpunished.

TO THE EDITORS.

Messrs. Gregg & Culley.—Passing thro' one of the interior counties in your state, the following letter was put into my hands at one of the Inns on the road. To me it is a curiosity, and I should like to see it published; you are at liberty, however, to do with it as you think proper.

Collector's Notice.

HAVING been appointed Collector of Taxes for Dearborn county for the year 1827, and received the Duplicate, together with a precept commanding me to collect the same, I hereby give notice that I am prepared to receive the amount charged to each individual, as also arrears due me for former years I have been collector. No further indulgences need be expected by delinquents, as I am determined to collect as the law prescribes. I will pass through the county immediately for the purpose of collecting, at which time I hope to receive the little sums due, so as to save further trouble.

Those indebted to me for fees, notes, or accounts will do well to pay the same immediately, as I will place them in the hands of proper officers for collection. I also wish to close the business of the Indiana Spectator, and to receive the amount due me on subscriptions taken of the Palladium for settlement. Having heretofore so often requested payment by advertisement to little effect, I have concluded that it is unnecessary to warn any more—I must and will resort to the authority given me by law for the recovery of my debts.

Postponed Sale.

Notice is hereby given, that I will on the 1st Monday in January next, after disposing of the personal property of delinquents, as charged in the duplicate, (where the same does not satisfy the demand,) offer for sale all the Land whereon the taxes are not paid previous to that time, by their Number of Township, Range, Section, Quarter Section, or parts thereof—also all town lots, or fractions, charged as aforesaid, and continue said sale from day to day until all are offered for sale.
