The Augusta Ky. Herald is no more!

The editor in announcing the discontinuance of this paper, makes some humorous and ingenious remarks, after the style of the Declaration of Independence. The following is an extract from his valedictory, and may be taken as a fair sample of the whole article:

"We, therefore, the proprietor, publisher, printer, and editor of the Augusta Herald, in the editorial cabinet assembled, appealing to the public for the correctness of our course, do, in the name of our empty pockets, unpaid notes, and dunning creditors, publish and declare, that the Augusta Herald is, and of right ought to be,—DISCONTINUED: that it is absolved from all further obligations to its patrons, to furnish them the weekly "signs of the times;" and that, as a discontinued paper, the editor has a right to make out his bills, collect his arrearages, pay his debts, and perform such other acts of necessity, as publishers are sometimes compelled to resort to, to possess their just wages."

The Legislature of this state adjourned sine die, on the 24th ult. after a session of about 8 weeks; during this time 81 acts and 11 joint resolutions have undergone the inspection of the "people's servants" and been pronounced passable. How many of these will receive the approbation of the public, we are unable to say, as we have not had an opportunity of examining them. No provision has been made for an increase of Circuits or Courts. Suitors must be content with the present system yet another year, notwithstanding its insufficiency, in most cases, is very apparent, where the courts of the country are resorted to, to administer justice in any reasonable time. It can not be argued, as the courts are now fixed, that persons applying, for remedy for injuries, can have justice done 'without denial or delay,' as the constitution requires. From 12 to 18 months must elapse under the most speedy progress before any thing is accomplished.

By late papers we received the proceedings of both conventions held at Harrisburgh Pa. That in favor of the Administration, nominated Mr. Rush as a candidate for Vice President. The unpledged, or what was denominated the Democratic Republican Convention, nominated Andrew Jackson for President, and John C. Calhoun for Vice President. Both Conventions were numerous and respectfully attended. The electoral tickets formed, will be published.

We are authorized to announce Milton Stopp, of Jefferson county, as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, at the ensuing election.

Extract of a letter from the Hon. Oliver H. Smith to the editors, dated

WASHINGTON, 15th Jan. 1828, }
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. }

You will perceive that we are moving slowly. Indeed, we have been occupied with business of too little importance to the people, lately. We were occupied some days with Mr. Hamilton's Resolution relative to the painting of the battle of New Orleans, which was negative on the question of its passage. I voted against it; not but what I would as soon have a painting of that sort, or of that battle, as any other; but I am opposed to expending 8 or 10,000 dollars for any picture to hang up in the capitol, where no person except such as happen to be here could ever see it. The money belongs to the people, and when I expend it in such sums it must be for more substantial objects than pictures. A resolution, which has taken up considerable time, was introduced Mr. Slown of Ohio, calling upon the Secretary of War to furnish all the papers, orders, and records relative to the execution of the six militia men. This document will be out in a few days, when I will send you a copy. It will no doubt be read with some interest, as the different parties have differed so widely on the subject of the legality of the execution of those unfortunate men.

Party spirit is not so high here as I had expected; and it is but very seldom I hear a word said on the subject. For my own part, I have resolved not to meddle with it here—as I can do my constituents much more good by being friendly with all the members.

[From the Richmond Whig, Jan. 12.]

The convention moves on with uninterrupted harmony. Yesterday the Electoral Ticket was reported and unanimously adopted. It is such a one as has never been presented to Virginia before and we are bold to say, is the most powerful ever formed by any State of this Union. It must and will make a great impression on the people of Virginia and we firmly believe, that from this time forward, the cause of the Administration is destined to advance with rapid pace in Virginia. Let the thousands of enlightened men who are now committed to the cause exert themselves, and the bad effects of their former apathy will yet be repaired.

The following gentlemen have been placed on the Electoral Ticket by the Convention of friends of the Administration.

James Madison, Orange County, James Monroe, Loudoun, Stephen Wright, Norfolk, Benjamin Harrison, Charles City, Joseph Goodwyn, Dinwiddie, Richard Feild, Brunswick, Edward C. Carrington, Halifax, Benjamin Hatcher, Manchester, Samuel Branch, Buckingham, Fleming Sanders, Franklin, David S. Garland, Amherst, Chapman Johnson, Richmond, Francis T. Brooke, Spottsylvania, Charles Hill, King and Queen, Robert Lively, Elizabeth City, Hancock Eustice, Stafford, Wm. A. G. Dade, Prince William, Alfred H. Powell, Frederick, John Mansee, Rockingham, Archibald Stuart, Augusta, Ballard Smith, Greenbrier, Benjamin Estill, Washington, Lewis Summers, Kenawha, Alpheus B. Wilson, Monongalia, We understand that on Saturday the Convention nominated Mr. Rush as candidate for Vice President.

CASH, and a liberal price, will be given for a few bushels of good wood ASHES.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 25.

We are highly gratified at being enabled to state, that the damage done to the Miami Canal by the late fresh in the Great Miami, is much less than was reported. We are informed that two or three hundred dollars will repair all the injury done to lock No. 1, which was caused by water backing up the old mill race—a quarter from whence no danger was apprehended, and consequently no provision made to guard against it. It will now, however, be effectually secured.

Four boats loaded with produce, arrived at the Basin near this city, on Saturday last, having navigated the Canal the whole distance from Middletown. The breaches in the Canal had been temporarily repaired, to enable the boats to pass. On the 20th day of January, 1828, be it remembered that the Miami Canal was not, nor had not been, impeded by ice. We have not learnt that the recent freezing has been sufficient to close the Canal.
