Nov. 7, 1829. 44

By the President of the United States.

IN pursuance of law, I, ANDREW JACKSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known, that a public sale will be held at the Land Office at Jeffersonville & Vincennes, in the state of INDIANA, at the periods hereinafter designated, for the disposal of all the lands which have been relinquished to the United States prior to the fourth of July, 1829, under the provisions of the several acts of Congress for the relief of the purchasers of public lands, and for the extinguishment of the debt due to the United States, by the purchasers of public lands prior to the first day of July, 1820, which have not heretofore been exposed to public sale under the provisions of the act of Congress, passed on the 24th day of April, 1820, entitled 'An act making further provision for the sale of the public lands.'

Also, at the same times and places, there will be exposed to public sale, all lands further credited in the second and third classes, under the provisions of the act of Congress, passed on the second day of March, 1821, entitled 'An act for the relief of the purchasers of public lands prior to the first day of July, 1820;' and the acts supplementary thereto, passed on the 20th day of April, 1822, and 3d day of March, 1823, which have reverted to the United States, agreeably to the terms of such further credit, in consequence of non-payment within the legal period.

Also, at the same times and places, there will be exposed to sale, all lands which have reverted, or which, prior to the day of such sale, may revert to the United States, under the provisions of the sixth condition of the fifth section of the act of Congress, passed on the 10th day of May, 1800, entitled 'An act to amend the act, entitled an act providing for the sale of the lands of the United States, in the territory northwest of the Ohio, and above the mouth of the Kentucky river,' and which have not heretofore been exposed to public sale, agreeably to the provisions of the act of the 24th day of April, 1820, above quoted, to wit:

At the Land Office at Jeffersonville, on the second Monday in December next.

At the Land Office at Vincennes, on the third Monday in December next.

Each sale to be kept open for six days.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this thirtieth day of September, A. D. 1829.

ANDREW JACKSON.

By the President: GEORGE GRAHAM, Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of sundry executions to me directed from the Clerk's office of the Dearborn circuit and supreme courts, I will expose to public sale at the Court House door, as the law directs, on the 21st day of November next, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock, on said day, 640 Acres of land, being section 35, town 7, range 2 west, as the property of Wm. C. Vanhook, at the suits of Arthur Martin, for the use of Alfred Nye and James Hays.

JOHN SPENCER, S. D. C.
