

LAWRENCEBURGH.

SATURDAY, DEC. 12, 1829.

Notice. The 5th volume or year of the Palladium ending on the 2d of January next, it is deemed proper to notify and request all subscribers who may wish to discontinue at that time, to signify the same to the editor, at or previous to the end of the year.—Those who do not, will be entered on the subscription book for 1830, and considered subscribers for that year.

The legislature of this state commenced its session on Monday last. We have not however been able to learn who were elected offices on organization. By next Sunday's mail we shall have the proceedings for this week.

Since our notification of the unfortunate issue of Sam Patch's leap of 125 feet over the Genesee falls, we see it stated that he is not only alive, but hale and hearty—having reached the water uninjured, and swam ashore. We are, however, still disposed to believe the most probable report of the case, and set Sam down as really dead. Should any one feel disposed to question our conclusion, let him try a jump of half the distance, to satisfy himself of its probable correctness.

P. S. Since writing the above we have seen a letter from under Sam's own hand, stating that the report of his death is a hoax; and that the Sam represented as having been killed, was nothing but a man of straw. "There is no mistake in the real Sam Patch."

The Ohio river is still in fine stage for navigation, though not quite so high as it was during the past week. Steam boats pass and re-pass over the falls, and ascend as far as Wheeling and Pittsburgh. Within a few days several rafts of pine lumber passed this place, for the lower market; from which we conclude that the waters at the head streams have been high, particularly in the Allegheny.

The conductors of the State Gazette, acting up to their promise of moderation, have let us off on very easy terms, in their paper of the 26th ult. Only one small paragraph is inserted for our benefit; and that an extract from the Salem "Annotator" of June last. The sum total of this extract is, that Mr. Culley, the junior editor of the Indiana Palladium, is a candidate to represent Dearborn county in the legislature, and that he (Mr. Allen, the editor of the Annotator) is unable to tell, from the Palladium, to which party he (Mr. C.) belongs.

What the conductors of the Gazette wish to prove, or disprove by inserting this remark of Mr. Allen, perhaps a subsequent paper may develop; at present we can only consider it, as heretofore, as an idle production of a mind, which tho' it could not say ill of us, was disposed to keep as close to the border as possible. On several occasions Mr. Allen has thought proper to notice this paper in a manner not justified on liberal grounds, or by his own course. We have passed those attacks by, however, as not meriting reply; and should still do so, were it not that our silence might embolden others to take similar liberties.

Riot. A most dreadful combat took place on Tuesday last week, among the canal men at the Great Dam, in Swatara township, Lebanon county, Pennsylvania. One of them had a ball shot through his hat, and a number more are said to have been severely wounded by the shillelas. Peace was at last restored. [The laborers on our canals and roads, chiefly raw foreigners, are hard to convince that they live under a government of laws.]

Snow.—In Watertown, Jefferson county, New York (about the 16th inst.) snow had fallen to the depth of 18 inches, so as to produce tolerable good sleighing, which, says the Register of the village, appears to be pretty thoroughly used.

A Russian's prayers are generally very short, and consists frequently only of the two words "Gospodi Pomolui." (Lord have mercy upon us!) which are sung with beautiful effect in most of their chapels.

Niles.

DIED—At Cincinnati on the 9th inst. Mrs. MARIA, consort of Mr. WILLIAM BROWN, aged 20 years. Her remains were brought to this place on Thursday, and on the day following interred in the New town burying ground.

this he has had sufficient proof in frequent appointments tendered him by public meetings, and in being designated a member of the Jackson Central Committee, by the convention which met at the seat of government; the same convention which Mr. Kinnard, though present and invited, did not attend, for certain reasons best known to himself. Mr. Allen was a member of this convention, and of course gave his sanction to its proceedings. Where were then his doubts as to which party Mr. Culley belonged? If he really entertained such, he was ashamed to make them known, because the only proof he could have advanced in their support, could have implicated himself.—For be it remembered, that at or about the time Mr. Allen was attending the convention, he was associated with an antipode in politics, and conducting the Switzerland Guest; a paper as much distinguished for its "milk and water course," or want of political character, as ever was the Palladium. On the point of neutrality, consistency, or integrity, the editor is willing that public opinion shall weigh him in opposition to Mr. Allen; and to show that in a test of this kind, he wishes no advantage, he would agree to leave character out of view, and to the credit of Mr. Allen, throw in Mr. Kinnard for good weight.

RIVER LIST.

Flat boats departed since our last.

No. 22. Greene Sparks, owner. Cargo—151 bbls. pork, 12,000 lbs. of do.; 123 bbls. flour; 20 do. beef; 126 kegs lard; 3 tons hay, &c. &c.

No. 23. Edmund Peckover, owner. Cargo—20 tons hay; 30 bbls. oats; 15 do. green apples; 7 do. dried fruit; 3 do. onions; 10 do. cider; 4 do. brandy; 4 do. corn meal; 1 do. beans; 200 bushels corn, &c. &c.

No. 24. James W. Weaver, owner. Cargo—20 tons hay, &c. &c.

Arson. Brenton Bartlett has been convicted in Rhode Island, of setting fire to and destroying a cotton mill belonging to Messrs. Arnold & Farle, to gratify his private revenge against one of the proprietors. The penalty of the law is imprisonment, fine, crop, brand and pilory—over which the court has no discretion.

Webster's dictionary. The officers of the Yale college, who have examined this work, are said to have recommended it to the students as being superior to any dictionary of our language. It is now re-published in England.

New York. At one of the fires in this city, last week, three persons were burnt to death, and a fourth is missing, supposed to have shared the same horrid fate.

The U. S. ship Hornet has not been heard of since the 15th of Sept. Great fears are entertained for the safety of this vessel and her crew.

Buffalo suffered much by fire on the 14th inst. A large block of buildings were destroyed—14 of them were valuable. All the printing materials of the "Journal" were lost.

An actress of the Tremont theatre, Boston, is said to have received a legacy equal to 200,000 dollars, from an English relative. If so, she will make her exit, with a "benefit."

Mr. McLane, our minister at London, was presented to the king on the 12th ult. and delivered his credentials.

Law! It was recently decided at N. York that a dead turkey, is not a "turkey," in the meaning of the law—and so a person who stole one was acquitted.

Appalling scene!—The London Courier, in concluding a report of the trial and condemnation for an attempt to murder, says, the prisoners were led away in different directions, the men on one side and the women on the other. It was altogether a very appalling scene, to witness a whole family, consisting of the husband, wife, son, and daughter all condemned to die at once.

Riot. A most dreadful combat took place on Tuesday last week, among the canal men at the Great Dam, in Swatara township, Lebanon county, Pennsylvania. One of them had a ball shot through his hat, and a number more are said to have been severely wounded by the shillelas. Peace was at last restored. [The laborers on our canals and roads, chiefly raw foreigners, are hard to convince that they live under a government of laws.]

DIED—At Cincinnati on the 9th inst. Mrs. MARIA, consort of Mr. WILLIAM BROWN, aged 20 years. Her remains were brought to this place on Thursday, and on the day following interred in the New town burying ground.

Lancaster, (Pa.) November, 27. Mail robbers.—The Kimberton mail was stopped on the Lancaster turnpike yesterday morning, at half past 3 o'clock, near the one mile stone, by three white men armed with pistols. They tied the passengers (two in number, whom they robbed of about $50) and driver. They then took out the mail, cut it open and took off the contents. The driver and passengers were released about half past 4, by persons going to market. The empty mail bag was found on the middle of the turnpike road. [Two of the robbers have been taken.]—Jour.

Crimes. The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says, four persons, convicted of burglary, were sentenced on Saturday to the state prison during the term of their natural lives. One of them, a boy named Allen, stated in a letter which he addressed to the court, that he was only fourteen years old. He appears to be an instance of precocious and irreclaimable villainy. His father is in the state prison, his mother in the penitentiary, and his brother escaped being consigned to one or the other of these mansions, by turning state's evidence.

The Democratic Republican delegates of Allegheny county, met in Pittsburgh, on Saturday the 28th ult. and unanimously agreed to recommend JAMES S. STEVENSON, Esq. to the citizens of the 16th congressional district as the democratic republican candidate for Congress. [Mr. Baldwin has been withdrawn by his friends from the contest.]
