

PALLADIUM.

Saturday Morning, Sept. 6.

The Brookville Indiana American, of the 29th ultimo, announces George H. Dunn, Esq., of this place, as a candidate to represent this district in the 24th congress. The present member, Mr. Lane, we are advised will be a candidate for reelection. We have heard no others spoken of with any certainty, and therefore presume that Messrs. Lane and Dunn will have the task to themselves, at the ensuing congressional election in this district.

We learn from the Louisville Advertiser, that the President of the United States, would leave the Hermitage between the 1st and 10th instant, on his return to Washington. His health had much improved.

The Kentucky Register, we observe, makes a little mistake, in giving the result of the late election in this State. No opposition nor administration candidate for congress was chosen at the late election—because none was voted for. The congressional elections will be held in Indiana in August next. At present the delegation stands 6 administration—1 anti.

With this paper we close the publication of the laws, resolutions, &c. passed and ratified during the late session of congress.

Sickness. Seven hundred and ninety-eight persons are officially reported to have died of cholera in Montreal, Canada, in five weeks, ending the 16th ult.; some papers put the number as high as 1182. The mortality was the greatest about the first of August, since which it has gradually decreased.

One hundred and fifteen died of the same disease in the city of New York, in seven days, ending on the 22d ult. The city papers inclined to the opinion that the pestilence had then reached the height of its malignancy.

The board of health of Quebec, report 826 deaths by cholera from the 7th July to the 14th August. At that time it had in some degree abated, but still was carrying off its victims at the rate of from 60 to 70 per week.

Courts. The next term of the circuit court, for this county, will commence at this place on Monday the 22d inst.

The next term of the Probate court will commence here on the 2d Monday in November.

Ohio Election. The annual election takes place in this State on the 2d Tuesday in October next. Governor and members of Congress are to be chosen this year, and consequently some degree of warmth and interest are exhibited on the occasion. The present incumbent, Gov. Lucas, is a candidate for re-election, and opposed by Gen. Findlay—both friends of the administration. The latter, however, is designated by the wigs, as the anti-Van Buren, office holders candidate, and consequently may receive the vote of the opposition. The candidates for congress are classed under the old political cognomen of administration and anti-administration, or what is modestly called tory and whig, and are likely to be sustained mainly with reference to their political predilections. The wigs, we discover, notwithstanding the noise made, studiously avoid placing the elections on the ground of Bank or Anti-Bank; no doubt believing that it would not do to risk that question in Ohio. Even in the Cincinnati district, where one of the branches is located, the wig candidate for congress has deemed it proper to say he is not favorable to a recharter of the present United States Bank.

A list of the candidates for congress, in the several districts, is inserted in another column.

State Bank. It will be seen by an advertisement, published to-day, that the directors of the Mother Bank have notified the stockholders, that the first instalment on their stock will be required to be paid over, at each branch, on the 10th November next; and that an election for directors will be held on the day following. From this it may be fairly calculated that the bank will commence operations at latest by the 15th of the same month. The State's share of the capital, we understand, will be in readiness at convenient points, about the 1st November.

The parties in the next legislature of Kentucky, will stand, 95 Clay, 42 Jackson. In the two houses thus: Senate, 21 Clay, 16 Jackson; house of representatives, 74 Clay, 26 Jackson.

Distress Symptoms. We learn from the Cincinnati Republican, that the capital stock of the Ohio Life Insurance and Trust Company, amounting to 2,000,000 of dollars, was taken up on the 27th ult. in that city in less than two hours after it was offered to the public.

Col. Webb, of the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer, applies the epithet tory to the Jackson party, with seemingly as little remorse of conscience, as if he were a saintly politician. Such language comes with an ill grace from one who is not only entitled to the appellation of tory in every sense of the term, but has proved himself a traitor to the doctrines he first espoused and to his benefactors. He owes his political salvation, as it were, to the Jackson party, and its confidence and support in the hour of trial, this modern Judas would reciprocate by endeavoring to fasten upon it the infamous name of tory. Webb and Duff Green were once the zealous supporters of the measures of the present administration, but having been made acquainted with Bidle's "Golden Image," they forthwith withdrew from the true faith, and sold themselves as his henchmen to perform the work which no others would do; hence this tissue of slang and abuse of the friends of the administration. The day of retribution is near at hand, when these devoted henchmen will receive their due reward. Their course is too reckless—they are too regardless of truth and common decency to be profitable servants or for many of their assertions to gain credence among, even, the honest of their own employers. Such men have their price to become the pliant tools of any party.

A Whig and Jackson editor in Kentucky, entertaining a difference of opinion on some subject, and neither being able to convince by argument, the former recommends to his friends in the vicinity of the latter, to "pull down his domicil and administer at least a hundred lashes," by way of opening his eyes to what he conceives to be the true state of the case. Mobocracy appears to be a distinguishing trait in the character of modern Whigism.

The Vincennes Sun, of the 23d instant, records the death of Mrs. Angeline Mallett, at the advanced age of 110 years. "It was her lot, (says the Sun,) to raise a family of 14 children to the age of women and men, and to live to bury them all—all of them having left behind them large families."

Our Town. Every one who takes an interest in the growth and prosperity of this place, must feel highly pleased to witness the bustle and hum of business that has for some weeks, and at present, enlivened our town. Wagon after wagon, laden with produce from the country back, is seen traversing our streets, loading and unloading at the warehouses, stores, and the river. Some contain wheat, others corn meal, bacon, flour, flaxseed, and not a ginning to open.

few hay, in bales. The former articles are generally disposed of to our merchants for cash, or in exchange for salt, coffee, sugar, &c., and the latter purchased by river traders and shipped for the southern market. A few days since we counted as high as 17 flat boats at the landing, fitting and loading for the lower country. Six or eight of these were hay boats, of the largest class, and when laden, will carry between fifty and sixty tons each. We have heard it computed that enough to load one of these boats was brought in a single day, last week.

In the way of improvements, the prospect is equally enlivening and cheering. Sundry large business houses are projecting, and others rapidly progressing to completion. A large number of bricks has already been made, and more are still wanting. Should the after part of the season prove favorable for building, it is believed the whole that may be made, will be required to meet the demand, even to a million or more. The branch bank will soon be in operation, and this too will give a spur to the already active spirit of improvements. The advantages resulting from such a state of things, are rapidly and widely extending themselves, in the increased demand for produce, labor, materials, and in the advance of prices. We think we may safely affirm that at no place of equal population in the west is common laborers or mechanics better paid, or the produce of the farmer in greater demand.

Few towns we venture to assert, can boast of a better assorted corps of mechanics. Cabinet makers, Chair do., Tinniers, Coopers, Tailors, Shoe and Boot makers, Saddlers, Blacksmiths, Brick and Stone Masons, Carpenters, Bakers, Hatters, et cetera are to be found here; besides a goodly portion of professional men, and some, we believe, who do not profess anything. But less some may charge us with puffing, we will close this article, without having told one half we might in truth say of our town, its business, or advantages.

A New York city editor tells his readers that Col. Zebulon Pike, father of Maj. Gen. Pike, killed during the late war, recently died at Zebulon, Ohio, at a very advanced age. Now if it be of any importance to have the truth about the matter, it should be understood that Col. Pike died, in Indiana, on his farm in this vicinity, and not at Zebulon, if there be any such place.

Several articles, in preparation for this paper, are left over for the want of room. A biographical sketch of the late Capt. Piatt, and an article from the Rising Sun Times, addressed to Mr. Armstrong, are among the number.

Counterfeits on the Bank of Louisville.—We have received from this Bank, for inspection, one of the Counterfeit Five Dollar Notes, on that Institution, a large number of which have recently been put in circulation in the Western Country. They are very badly executed, and can readily be detected by any person who has ever seen a Bank Note, engraved by Draper, Underwood, Bald & Spencer. The t's in the word directors, is not crossed, and neither of the t's in the word Louisville, or that in the word promise, are dotted. Bicknell's Counterfeit Detector.

OCTOBER ELECTION—OHIO.

The following gentlemen are candidates for Congress in Ohio, in their respective districts:—

1st. District.—Robert T. Lytle, Bellamy Storer. 2d.—Taylor Webster, John M. U. McNutt. 3d.—Jos. H. Crane, W. L. Helfenstein. 4th.—Thomas Corwin, Josiah Morris, Samuel H. Hale. 5th.—Thomas L. Hamer. 6th.—Samuel F. Vinton, Calvary Morris, Thos. M. Driske. 7th.—Wm. Allen, Wm. K. Bond. 8th.—Jeremiah McLean, Joseph Olds, Orris Parish. 9th.—W. W. Irvin, John Chancy. 10th.—Samson Mason. 11th.—James M. Bell, Wm. Kennon. 12th.—Robert Mitchell, John Hamm, Elias Howell. 13th.—Charles Colerick. 14th.—James Patterson, Wm. H. Hunter. 15th.—Jonathan Sloane. 17th.—J. Thompson, W. Blackburn, G. McCook, J. G. Willard. 18th.—Benjamin Jones, Samuel Quinby. 19th.—Samuel Stoekey, Daniel Kilgore.

STATE BANK LOAN.—The public will discover by the letter to the Editors from Mr. McCarty, one of the Bank Fund Commissioners, that the first loan required by the Bank charter, viz: $500,000, has been obtained at a reasonably fair premium upon the stock. This stock is redeemable after twenty and within thirty years, at the pleasure of the state; and the amount of premium, 5,250 dollars will probably pay the expenses on the part of the state, of the engraving and printing the notes, the per diem and expense of the commissioners and the cost of transmission of the funds to the state. The principal and interest are payable in New York. We consider the loan an advantageous one, showing the good credit of our state, and the efficiency and ability of our Commissioners. It is the opinion here that the Bank will be able to commence business as early as the 15th November next. Those who have subscribed for stock will probably have to untie their purses in about sixty days. The charter authorises the remaining bonus to be sold, so as to be available in two annual instalments hereafter, on which there is little doubt that an equally good or better premium may be obtained, after the money market shall again become settled. The full amount authorised to be loaned, by the state, is one million three hundred thousand, or so much as may be required for the branches that go into operation. Ind. Democrat.

Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, at Madison, Indiana.—The charter of this Bank expires on Saturday, the 6th of September. Having been chartered under the Territorial Government, its charter could not be extended under the State constitution. It was chartered Sept. 6th, 1814, for twenty years.

Health of Detroit. A "Detroit Free Press, extra," dated 11th August, states that from the first to the 11th inclusive, there had been fifty-two deaths by cholera in that city.

Health of Toronto, U. C. The Courier of the 12th August, published at Toronto, speaking of the cholera, says, "this terrible disease has been raging with great virulence in this city for some days past. There were near 30 burials at the different places of interment on Sunday, and yesterday and to-day the cases have been numerous. During the last three days the atmosphere has been dense, humid and sultry, and eminently calculated therefore to foster the fatal pestilence."

The crops in the Attakapas, and sugar cane in particular, are said to look exceedingly well, and are expected to be better and much larger this year than last. In East Feliciana, it is apprehended by the planters that the raii which had fallen there almost daily, will prove of serious injury to the crops of cotton, which are at present quite flattered and being ginned to open.

Montreal. Interments from cholera—August 16th, 19; 17th, 10.

The following table from the Montreal Advertiser of the 18th, while it exhibits a melancholy picture of the mortality in that city for the preceding few weeks, shows a sensible diminution of the prevailing disease in the last week.

NEW YORK MARKETS—August 23.

Flour. Early in the week sales of Western were made in small parcels at $5.75, but at the close, owing to increased receipts, prices declined fully 12¢ cents, and sales were with difficulty effected at the decline. There has been more enquiry for Southern for the West Indies, and several parcels of Baltimore Howard street were sold at $5.50 cash. Alexandria mountain at $5.12 to $5.25. New Howard street has been sold at $5.75—new Georgetown at $6, in small parcels. All the Richmond county, old, has been sold at $5 for such as was sound.

Grain. No Western or Northern Wheat has been sold worthy of notice. A small parcel from Virginia is unsold. There has been a small supply of Rye—last sales 67 cts. Oats have advanced—sales of Northern 40 a 41 cents; Southern 35 to 37 cents. Owing to the small supply of Corn there has been a trifling improvement in Southern—last sales 68 cts. No change in Northern.

N. Y. Enquirer.

Salem. Our town, hereafter, will need no aid in the puffing line from Newspapers; because it is in operation at present, no less than five Steam-pull-pipes. There are two Merchant Mills for the manufacture of super fine flour: the Company's Mill running 4 pair of French Burs: and the other, owned by our enterprising fellow-citizen, John McManan, Esq., who by the bye deals out among the farmers a great many dollars for wheat at fifty-four cents per bushel, running two pair of French Burs. Who would refuse to say steam-ahead!!!

Annotator.
