

PALLADIUM.

Saturday Morning, Oct. 18.

The anniversary of the battle of the Thames was celebrated in handsome style at Indianapolis on the 4th. The Democrat gives a report of the proceedings, which will be found reprinted on our first page. Gen. Harrison, one of the most prominent actors in the scenes of the day commemorated, though invited, was not present on the occasion; but we learn forward a letter or communication to the committee of arrangements, assigning his reasons for his absence. This letter has not yet made its appearance, though properly it should have accompanied the proceedings when published.

Maryland. We have some returns of the late election in this State, which look vastly as though it has gone against the administration and for the bank. She has not, in this particular, however, disappointed expectation. She was against us before, and still sustains that position.

We are pleased to learn that Gen. W. H. Harrison, has been appointed clerk of the several courts of Hamilton county, which has for some time past, been held temporarily by Mr. Gano. The office is one of the best in the country.

Ohio Election. We have been informed by a gentleman (passenger in the stage of yesterday) from Cincinnati, that Mr. Storer, (opposition,) is elected to congress in the Hamilton co. district, by a majority of 105 over Mr. Lytle, (administration,) the present member. The representation in the legislature is said to be divided, two and two. Bond and Anderson, ad. Hotchkiss and ——— opp. Henry Morse, opp. Senator, and Samuel Fostick, sheriff.

We learn from the same source that T. Webster, ad. is re-elected to congress in the Butler county district over Mr. M'Nutt, opp. We have no certain information from any other district, or with reference to the governor's election. We incline to the opinion, from what we have heard, that Lucas is re-elected, but would not be surprised to find, that even with regard to him, we had reckoned without numbers.

The River. We have little new to remark this week in reference to the river. Since our last notice it has risen about 6 inches, and is now thought to be on the swell. The papers of recent date from the upper part of Ohio, speak of heavy rains in that quarter; which if general, will most likely cause a rise in a short time. We fear, however, that we shall be disappointed in this much wished for result, at present, and even for some weeks to come; as the weather now bears a settled and dry appearance, like Indian summer.

The shipments this week, have, for the reasons above stated, (low water,) been limited. One flat-boat only, laden at this place, has departed since Saturday. A shipment of 2000 canvassed hams, (put up by Tousey and Dunn,) was made during the week, on a flat-boat from Cincinnati; and another lay to here a day or two, with a cargo of 130 head hogs; 7 head cattle, and 50 bbls. whiskey; laden at the North Bend, from the White Water country. Mr. Hudson, owner.

River list. No 20. Amos Beeson, owner: departed 16th Oct. Cargo—1000 bbls flour; 1000 bushels corn in sacks; 200 do. oats, in sacks; 23 bbls pork; whiskey, &c. &c.

The Cincinnati Republican notices the death of Thomas S. Grimke, Esq. of Charleston, S. C. on Saturday last, of Cholera. The place of his death is not stated, but it may be supposed to have taken place at Cincinnati, whither the deceased had been, delivering discourses with reference to education. Mr. G. was advantageously known to the public as a speaker, and as a gentleman of high literary attainments.

Steam boat disaster. The steam boat Banner burst her boiler a short time since on the Mississippi, doing great damage to the boat and passengers. By the accident 5 persons were killed and 13 wounded. A detailed account of the calamity is given in another column.

Will the editors of the Palladium be kind enough to give us some information respecting the non-appearance of the Whig? Many inquiries have been made of us respecting it, none of which we are able to answer.

Rising Sun Times. Called upon in this public way, about a public concern, we do not feel ourselves at liberty to refuse to answer the inquiry of our neighbors of the Times, so far as we are able. "The non-appearance of the Whig," in the first instance, we believe, was owing to the lack of paper and workmen; and these probably to another indispensable to keep the press in motion. But latterly, we understand, some difficulty has arisen, in reference to the ownership of the concern. The occupancy is yet, we believe, in the late publisher, but the right of possession, has, by an operation of law, passed into the hands of Maj. J. P. Dunn; who, we learn, as soon as he comes to his interest, intends putting the machine in operation. What title or politics the new paper may assume, we are not prepared to say; further than we opinion that it will lean to the strong side, if any such can, with certainty, be discovered, in these dubious, serpentine times; otherwise it will assume a fence position, until the sign comes right. At present the office is shut up.

We have thus given, briefly, what we know and have heard, in reference to the non-appearance of the Whig; in doing which, we are actuated by no ill feeling nor disposition to trumpet the misfortunes of our neighbors; but merely, on request, state the facts as they are notorious to our citizens generally.

The editor of the Wabash Courier, advantageously known to our citizens as a gentleman of abilities and experienced practical printer, appends the following remarks to an article which lately appeared in the Palladium, in reference to the discontinuance of sundry newspapers in this State. They seem to fit so clearly at the common disease—the "consumption" of the press—that we transfer it to our columns, with as much care as an infallible prescription for the cholera:

"There is much truth in the above, from the pen of our friend Culley, at Lawrenceburg. From an experience of five years in publishing a newspaper in this State, we are prepared to add our testimony to the remarks of the Palladium—that the discontinuance of the papers alluded to is to be mainly attributed to a 'want of means in the community to sustain so many newspaper establishments.' The penchant for sitting up newspapers, regardless of the means of supporting them, is becoming a crying evil, which, we apprehend, the sad experience of those connected with them will ultimately correct. A Court-house, two or three hundred inhabitants, and a half-dozen County politicians, constitute, in the opinion of some, sufficient material to ensure the establishment and support of a newspaper. They invite a printer on—he arrives with his press and types—he commences operations, and gets along on paper very swimmingly for awhile. He makes some sacrifices to please his friends—he acts on the square with every one—but, like all clever fellows, he unintentionally offends some body. Squire A. becomes miffed—Mr. B. gets insulted, for what nobody knows—and candidate C. thinks the Editor should defend him from the assaults of his enemies, whether he thinks his conduct will admit of defence or not! Next comes a correspondent, Mr. D. with a vile paper, abusing his neighbors—calling them swindlers, rogues, and liars—the Editor doubts—he refuses to print it—D. gets in a passion—swears the Editor is a man of no independence—withdraws his subscription—gets his particular friends to do the same, and not unfrequently abuses the unfortunate individual who happens not to think as he does. If a few such men have influence sufficient to carry their point, they cry down the press, and it may be, the Printer, like Enneas of old, has to take a load on his back, and seek another Troy! Continually laboring for the public, no class of men are worse paid, and none more unjustly treated by those for whose interests they toil. To make the Press independent, the people, and not politicians, should sustain and cherish it. This is the true panacea for all its disorders."

MARRIED.—On the 16th inst. by D. Weaver, Esq. Mr. GEORGE HARWOOD to Miss MARY HUBBARD, daughter of Mr. Solomon Hubbard, all of this county.

On the same day by Rev. Wm. G. Monroe, Mr. STEPHEN STEWART to Miss ELIZABETH ANN SCOTT, both of this county.

A CARD.
The subscriber presents his unfeigned and grateful thanks to the heretofore qualified electors and citizens of Dearborn county, for the honor and respect they have conferred on him, and has to repeat the same for the honor and respect they have conferred on his late son, HIRSH WILEY, Esq. dec'd; and has to state that the memory of them are retained with the most lively emotions of his heart. May Almighty God bless you with a due portion of his divine promises, and that you may prove to the present and future age that you are a virtuous people.

MOSES WILEY.

Valuable Tavern Stand TO RENT.

THE valuable and well known Tavern Stand, in New Lawrenceburg, Ind., is now offered for Rent. The buildings are brick, in good repair, and spacious. In the main House there are 14 rooms, neatly finished and painted. A large and convenient Kitchen is attached, with other out building—a good Cistern—a well of excellent water close to the premises. The garden and grounds adjoining, belonging to the property, include about 2 acres, with a good Stable and Shed, and all under good fence. The situation of this property, as a stand for a tavern, is not excelled by any in the country. The main leading roads from Cincinnati to Indianapolis, Madison, Vevay &c. &c. pass immediately by it, and are much travelled. Should further improvements be considered necessary, the same will be made, and the expenses deducted from the rent. To a gentleman of enterprise and industry, the situation presents superior inducements and advantages, and will be let on the most reasonable terms for one or more years. Possession given immediately. For terms enquire of the undersigned at Lawrenceburg.

WALTER ARMSTRONG.
Oct. 16, 1834. 40-6w.
The publishers of the Cincinnati Republican, and Homespere, Columbus, Ohio, are each requested to insert the above 6 weeks, and forward their accounts to this office for payment.

TO PRINTERS.

E. WHITE & W. HAGAR, respectfully inform the Printers of the United States, to whom they have long been individually known as established Letter Founders, that they have now formed a co-partnership in said business, and hope from their united skill and extensive experience, to be able to give satisfaction to all who may favor them with orders. The introduction of machinery in place of the unhealthy process of casting type by hand—a desideratum by the European and American Founders, was, by American ingenuity, and a heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of our senior partner, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of machine cast letter, has fully tested and established its superiority in every particular, over that cast by the old process. The Letter Foundry business will hereafter be carried on by the parties above named, under the firm of White, Hagar, & Co. The specimen exhibits a complete series from diamond to 64 lines pica. The book and news type being in the most modern light and shade.

White, Hagar, & Co., are agents for the sale of the Smith and Rust Printing Presses, which they furnish to their customers at manufacturer's prices. Chases, cases, composing sticks, ink, and every article used in the printing business, kept for sale, and furnished on short notice. Old type taken in exchange for new at 9 cents per pound.

Newspaper Proprietors, who will give the above advertisement three insertions, will be entitled to Five Dollars in such articles as they may select from our specimen.

E. WHITE, W. HAGAR.
New York, 1834. 40-3w
