

PALLADIUM.

Saturday Morning, July 4.

We are requested to say that, owing to the early hour appointed for the ceremonies of the day, Mr. Lane will not be able to address his fellow citizens of this place, to-day, (as published last week) but will embrace some early opportunity, when it will not conflict with other arrangements, of making his views known to the people of this vicinity on subjects connected with the office to which he aspires.

Rail Road Celebration. We are requested to say that a public meeting will be held at Mr. Cable's Hotel, on Monday evening next, at candlelighting, to make arrangements for celebrating, in an appropriate manner, the commencement of the work upon the rail road at this place. The friends of the improvement, who can conveniently, are requested to attend at the time named.

We are requested to insert the name of Samuel H. Douden, Esq. in our list of candidates for associate judge. We are also requested to say that Dr. John S. Percival is a candidate for re-election as coroner. We are authorized to say that Davis Weaver, Esq. would serve as county commissioner, if chosen at the ensuing election. We are requested to say that Joseph Woods, Esq. will stand a poll for the same office.

The Rising Sun Times announces James Poteril, Esq. as a candidate for associate Judge at the ensuing election. The same paper announces David Kerr as a candidate for Recorder. Dr. Tanner has withdrawn his name from the list of candidates for that office.

We learn from the Paoli Patriot, that John Pitcher, Esq. has declined standing a poll for congress in the 1st district. The contest lies between Col. Boon and Gen. Clendenin. The Patriot hopes the people will give them a "fair shake."

The city of Louisville, as ascertained by an enumeration lately taken, contains 18,966 inhabitants. In 1810, the population was 4,012--1830, 10,336--increase in 5 years 8,630.

The information published, on the authority of the Globe, that Mr. Livingston had arrived at New York from France, it seems was not correct. The New York papers make no mention of his arrival at that city.

The Lafayette Mercury says that place and vicinity were visited by a severe frost on Saturday and Sunday nights, (20th and 21st ult.) sufficient to color the leaves of vegetation, but not enough to injure the crops. The weather in these parts has been somewhat coolish during the last week, but we have had no frost to speak of.

Rail Road. We understand that the grading of the first section of the Lawrenceburgh and Indianapolis Rail Road, one mile, commencing in this place, was let to Messrs. W. H. & J. S. Campbell, of Shelbyville, Indiana, on Saturday last. The terms upon which it was taken, are said to be highly advantageous to the company; while, from the known business habits--the perseverance of the contractors, there is little room to doubt that they will make something handsome by the job. The contractors are now busily engaged preparing for a commencement of the work; which it is supposed will take place about the 15th inst. They purpose laying a track of rails and convey the earth for the embankment upon it. Six or seven cars are about to be purchased for that purpose. The contract for the stone-work, embracing the culvert at the Pond, has been taken by Mr. Peter Miller, of Cincinnati; on terms more favorable than were offered by other bidders.

New York Mirror. The pleasure we always feel in perusing this paper, as it reaches our desk each week, amid our budget of exchanges, induces us to depart so far from our general rule as to give place to the Editors' prospectus for a new volume, to commence this day. The general circulation of the Mirror, and its well deserved fame as a work of the highest order of merit, both as to matter and execution, render it superfluous for us to attempt to "spray" it into notice. The reading public, as well as our patrons, have had too many opportunities to participate in the pleasures of its well stored columns, to need any laudatory remarks from us.

The "Patriot" prates largely about the mammoth bill, rail road, and what are to bring ruin upon the country; if the Lawrenceburghers ever get a friend again in the Legislature. Will the editor have the goodness to tell how, wherein, and to what extent the people of this town favored the mammoth bill, or how much it appropriated to the White Water canal, or rail road to this place? We apprehend there will be hard questions to answer direct; but hard as they are, they should be met. When an editor takes upon himself the province to instruct the people, he should understand his duty, and not through ignorance, or what is still worse, bad motives misrepresent facts.

You praise me, and I'll laud you. The Wilmington meeting passed a compliment on the Times, and the Editor, as in gratitude bound, praises the meeting. The course of the Times (says the compliment) has been "patriotic" and "able." The Times, in its turn, says the meeting at Wilmington, was composed of "the old, the young, the intelligent and patriotic." Without considering it important or necessary to decide as to the correctness of the epithets last used, we would just make a passing remark on the enviable position to which the meeting has elevated the Editor of the Times. In times past we have often thought of the airy notions of certain political parties, when claiming to be the democracy, the real freedom of the country; or when we have never observed so utter a prostitution of terms, as in the case of the afore-said Editor. "Patriotic" just think of the proper signification of the word, and contrast his course with it. Patriotism, according to the old, approved version of the word, means devotion to one's country--a public benefactor--neither of which definitions reach the editor of the Times; unless, under the new dispensation, devotion to a few men, to their sordid, pecuniary interests, be devotion to country--or unless opposing every important public interest; striving to defeat the operations of an equitable law measure, whereby the poor man may be relieved from a burden that ought of right to be borne by the rich; slandering individuals, and dragging their private affairs before the world, be public beneficence. If, we repeat, patriotism means all this, then is the editor of the Times a real Simon Pure patriot of the first water, and a fit subject for compliment. "O tempora! O mores!"

We publish to-day the proceedings of the Wilmington meeting, and commend them to the attention of our readers, in this county; not doubting but that they will do justice to their merits, without any officious dictation from us. We were to follow the example of the "Patriot" of the Times, we would tell our readers all about the meeting, and in that way save them the trouble of reading, or even thinking for themselves. We have a better opinion of their intelligence than for a moment to believe such a course necessary or proper.

The remarks of the Times on the Manchester Convention, require some notice--but it's out of the question to delay the paper to-day (4th of July) to attend to him.

Cholera in Madison. The Banner of the 25th ult., issued on a half sheet, owing to sickness and lack of hands, gives the following statement of the progress of the Cholera in that place since the last published report. The disease, it will be seen, is rapidly abating in violence: We think the disease has been more violent and rapid in its progress at its late visitation, than it was in the fall of 1832. At that time there were 60 cases and 27 deaths reported to the Board of Health; at this time, the number of cases has not as yet been ascertained, but the deaths amount to 32. Twenty-one were announced in our last paper, and the name of one victim, (Mrs. Martin), who died before that paper was put to press, was omitted, making 22 up to that time. Since Thursday morning last up to 12 o'clock on yesterday, (Wednesday), the following persons are reported to us, as having died of the disease, viz:

June 19th, John Reiter, Dr. Zibo H. King, Wright, 20th, Even Prethorpe, a child of Mr. Reed's, David Miles, 21st, a child of Mr. Sammons, 22d, James H. Weatherford, 23d, Mrs. Miles, wife of David Miles, Buckles. Making 32 in all who have died within the corporation. We have heard of no new cases to-day, (Wednesday), but the humidity of the atmosphere, and the chilliness of the air, admonish us to be prudent, and to watch every symptom of the disease. The Cholera yields to medical skill, if promptly applied, but if the premonitory symptoms are neglected, it soon obtains the mastery.

The Journeymen Printers of Washington City are engaged in a rather disreputable quarrel about these days. The parties are the "Regulars," as they esteem themselves, and the "Rats," as they are stigmatized--in other words, those who will not and those who will work for Duff Green, who appears to be any thing but an amiable fellow in his business dealings. Rencontres are of frequent occurrence, and actions of assault and battery are quite fashionable in the Federal City.

Joseph Armstrong, jr. aged 17, was tried at Ithaca on the 5th inst. for the murder of his cousin Elizabeth Armstrong, a little girl of eight years, while picking berries a few weeks since, as already published. He was found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, and sentenced to fourteen years confinement in the State Prison. It appeared that he was of a very weak if not insane mind, so as to be incapable of realizing the enormity of the crime he committed.

MONTGOMERY, (Ala.) May 26.
Marriage Extraordinary. Married in this place, on Wednesday morning last, by Rev. Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Walter B. Wright, to Miss Pauline Snyder. The happy bride is the lady to whom dame Nature has so niggardly denied the common appendage of a pair of arms, and who has been exhibited in the United States as a curiosity, in consequence of that deformity. Madame Fortune, blind as she is said to be, has treated her more kindly, and bestowed a lover and husband to the armless lady, while many an ivory arm and lilly hand is extended in vain by others, whose youth and bloom the fickle goddess suffers to pine and fade away, in hated, withering celibacy.

The Comet Postponed. So, after all, the great comet is not to appear. Nobody knows better than Herschel--better than Dean Swift did when he put off the eclipse.

The comet. A letter from Vienna announces that M. Lettow, Director of the Observatory in that city, has received from the celebrated English astronomer, Herschel, now residing at the Cape of Good Hope, the remarkable intelligence that Halley's Comet, of which so much has been said, and which is positively expected in August this year, will not be visible, because it has long since changed the direction of its course, and now revolves in a different orbit. A report by the German astronomers on this important subject is expected very shortly, and will be published.

"Black List." We perceive that several of our exchange papers are publishing, under this imposing caption, a catalogue of their runaway patrons. It is the only way to reach the rascals and put community on their guard against them. We have a number of names on our book, that may soon be displayed in capitals, if the needful is not forth coming.

DIED. At the residence of his son in Union township, on the 7th April last, Mr. BENJAMIN JENKINS, in the 80th year of his age. The deceased was a native of Chester County Pennsylvania, where, in the early part of the revolutionary war, he was engaged in manufacturing cannon balls. He migrated to this state in 1816, and settled in Union township, Dearborn County, where he resided to the time of his death, highly esteemed by all who knew him.

At Fort-Wayne, Ind. on the 23d ult. of consumption, JULIA ANN, daughter of ROBERT & HANNAH BRACKENRIDGE, aged 7 years.

NOTICE
To Builders, Masons, Carpenters, and all others.
PUBLIC notice is hereby given, that the undersigned will meet at the court house in Lawrenceburgh, at 12 o'clock M., on the third day of July next, for the purpose of selling out, or contracting for the erection of an Asylum for the poor of Dearborn county; that a plat or plan of said building can be seen at the Clerk's office in Lawrenceburgh. The person or persons undertaking to erect said building must find and furnish all materials, with the exception of bricks; the building to have a stone foundation; walls of brick. Any person wishing to view the contemplated site of said building, will please call on Daniel Roberts, Manchester township, who will show the same. Sealed proposals will be received at the clerk's office, in Lawrenceburgh, until the 3d day of July next, at 9 o'clock, for the erection of said building; at which place, any required information will be given relative to the same. CHARLES DASHIELL, Two of the GEORGE ARNOLD, Com. D. C. June 17, 1835. 23-3w

WOOL CARDING.
THE undersigned would inform the public that he has his WOOL CARDING WORKS, (on the road leading from Hartford to Rising Sun,) in complete operation, propelled by horse power; and is now ready to receive wool, and make the same in rolls with all required despatch. The machines are attended by an experienced workman, who will not doubt be able to render general satisfaction to all who may favor the establishment with their custom. The wool should be well cleansed and picked before sending it to the carders. The prices for carding will be the same as charged at other works in the neighborhood. JOHN BARRICKLOW, Sr. June 26th, 1835. 24-6

Short Street Wharf.
AGREEABLY to an order of the Select Council of the town of Lawrenceburgh, made on the 9th inst., the undersigned will offer on the premises at public outcry, to the lowest bidder, on Wednesday the 1st day of July next, at 10 o'clock A. M. the contract for finishing the Short Street Wharf in said town, according to the plan or contract originally entered into with Col. J. Spencer. The plan may be seen at the office of the undersigned. Bond and good security will be required of the contractor. DAVID V. CULLEY, Pres't Corp. Lawrenceburgh. June 13, 1835. 24-2t

Prospectus of a New Volume.

The first number of which will be issued July 4th.

The New York Mirror,

A popular weekly Journal, devoted to Literature and the Fine Arts, embellished with splendid and costly Engravings on steel, copper and wood, and rare, beautiful and popular music, arranged for the piano forte, harp, guitar, &c. George P. Morris, Theodore S. Fay and Nathaniel P. Willis, Editors.
This work is devoted to articles from the pens of well-known and distinguished writers, upon every subject that can prove interesting to the general reader, including Original Poetry--Tales and Essays, humorous and satirical. Critical notices--Early and choice selections from the best new publications, both American and English--Scientific and Literary Intelligence--Copious notices of Foreign Countries, by Correspondents engaged expressly and exclusively for this Journal--Sketches upon the various productions in the Fine Arts that are presented for the notice and approbation of the public--Elaborate and beautiful specimens of Art, Engravings, Music, &c.--Notices of the latest Drama and other amusements--Translations from the best new works in other languages, French, German, Italian, Spanish, &c.--and an infinite variety of miscellaneous reading relating to passing events, remarkable individuals, discoveries and improvements in Science, Art, Mechanics, &c. &c.

In announcing the appearance of the thirteenth volume of the New York Mirror, almost the only duty which devolves upon its editor, is to tender their most cordial acknowledgments to their old friends for the continuance of their support, and to profess to the numerous subscribers, whose names have been added to their list during the past year, their thanks of this mark of their confidence and approbation. To the former they can only return the assurance so often conveyed, that as the Mirror has succeeded in preserving their good will through the arduous period of its infancy and its youth, so in maturity it will endeavor still to deserve the applause which its earlier efforts received. To the latter they would observe, that no expense shall be spared, and no exertions relaxed to render it at least as attractive and popular as any of its contemporaries. The experience of past years will give confidence to those who have watched our career; while the value that will soon close will be an earnest of that which is to come, to our more recent friends, so that the reputation already secured to our publication may be maintained and enhanced.

To both we beg leave to declare, that in the Ornamental Embellishments of the Mirror, the best native talent has been engaged; that many painters have received commissions from us for the execution of subjects of national history and national scenery; and that engravers of the first merit have been secured to render these works fitting illustrations of our numbers. However beautiful may have been the preceding works of art which have ornamented our pages, and however loud and frequent has been the applause which has greeted their publication, we have no slight satisfaction in being enabled to state that these in preparation surpasses any thing of the kind ever known in the United States. No literary periodical published in this country has ever attained such an extended circulation as the Mirror; which is of course the best proof of its congeniality to the national taste, and an unequivocal approval of its system, and the principle of its management.

In the course of the volume Four Splendid Quarto Steel Embellishments, designed, painted and engraved by the best and most eminent artists in the country, will be published, together with a numerous Wood Engravings, illustrative of curious and interesting scenes, incidents and antiquities, with about Fifty pieces of French, German, Italian, and British Music, arranged for the Piano-forte, Harp, Guitar, &c.

The same taste which has presided over our Musical selections, will superintend those hereafter to appear, and the principles which guide us in this department will be, as they have hitherto been, novelty and excellence, the beauty of the poetry and the melody of the accompaniment.

The character of our Foreign Correspondence is too well known to be described upon here; it is sufficient to state, that the choicest writers have promised their co-operation in the home department; and that notwithstanding the enormous expense we have incurred, we shall continue to appropriate all available talent, and if possible increase the claims of the Mirror to public support.

CONDITIONS.

The Mirror is published every Saturday at the corner of Nassau and Ann-streets. It is elegantly printed in the best and most superior form, on fine paper, with brevity, union, and nonpartisan type. It is embellished, once every three months with a splendid super-royal quarto engraving, and every week with a popular piece of music, arranged for the piano-forte, harp, guitar, &c. For each volume a beautifully engraved vignette title page (printed by Weir and engraved by Durand), and a copious index, are furnished. The terms are four dollars per annum, payable in all cases in advance. It is forwarded by the earliest mails to subscribers residing out of the city of New York. Communications, post paid, must be addressed to the editors. No subscriptions received for a less period than one year.

A BARGAIN.

THE subscriber being desirous of quitting his business in consequence of ill health, offers to sell his
WAGON-MAKER'S SHOP,
with tools and stock on hand. He hazards nothing in saying that any person wishing to engage in the business of wagon, drays, plough, harrow making, &c. cannot find a better situation, if being the only shop in town, close adjoining a large smith's shop, and surrounded by as rich a country as can be found in the Ohio river. The shop is built on a lot with fifty seven feet fronting on one of the principal streets, which will make it valuable. Terms of payment can be made easy. A first rate journeyman could find immediate employment and good wages. JOHN WYMOND. Lawrenceburgh, June 17, 1835. 23-4w
