

PALLADIUM.

Saturday Morning, Oct. 3.

The Kentucky North Bend Agricultural Society holds its third Annual Fair at Burlington on the 7th and 8th days of October next.

We publish to-day an advertisement giving notice that a petition will be presented to the next Legislature, praying the incorporation of a company for constructing a turnpike road from this place to Harrison. A good road between these points is much wanted, and we feel persuaded, that, should this effort fail, the people will not long endure the miseries of travelling a bad road whenever their business calls them to the Ohio river. We like the spirit manifested by our Harrison friends on this subject—they appear in earnest—as though they were resolved to do something to the purpose—and we can assure them, that a reciprocal feeling will be shown by the people of this place, in the furtherance of the object they have in view.

A marriage was recently solemnized in Marion county, Mississippi, the parties to which were one hundred and four years of age. We think the Mississippians must be hard run for good materials when such as the above are brought into use. It must be a very dry business, make the best of it.

The Circuit Court commenced its session in this place on Monday last, and bids fair at this time to be a lengthy as well as a business session. Several State cases have been disposed of, among the most important of which, is the case of Alfred Hamilton on a charge of assault and battery. He was found guilty, and sentenced to 75 days imprisonment and $50 fine. James McCharles was indicted for horse stealing, and sentenced to seven years imprisonment in the penitentiary and fined $100. He was remanded to jail where he will await until conducted by the proper officer to Jeffersonville. The Court will not, probably, adjourn before the last of next week.

We have heretofore neglected to notice, as we purposed doing, the shipments of produce made from this place. We have collected the following from the books of the Lawrenceburgh Insurance Office, though it does not include all the boats which have been laden at our wharf, several having departed without insurance or were insured at other offices. The cargoes of such boats would not, of course, be registered on the books of the Office here—and a complete list up to this time, cannot, consequently, be made:

No. 1. John Fryer owner—shipped Aug. 22. Cargo—51 tons hay; value $566 50.
No. 2. Vance Weaver owner—shipped 27 Aug. Cargo—hay; quantity not known.
No. 3. C. R. West & Co. owners—shipped 30 Aug. Cargo—hay; quantity not known.
No. 4. Vance Weaver owner—shipped 7 Sept. Cargo—hay; quantity not known.
No. 5. C. R. West & Co. owners—shipped 17 Sept. Cargo—hay; quantity not known.
No. 6. Grew and Hill owners—shipped 24 Sept. Cargo—assorted, $2,500.
No. 7. Scoggin and Reed owners—shipped 1 Oct. Cargo—assorted, $1,050.
No. 8 & 9. J. P. Dunn & Co. owners—shipped 30 Sept. Cargo—assorted, $5,900.
No. 10 & 11. A man from N. O. owner—shipped in Sept. Cargo—hay; quantity not known.
No. 12. W. Kincaid owner—shipped 28 Sept. Cargo—assorted, $1,500.
No. 13. C. R. West & Co. owners—shipped 25 Sept. Cargo—hay; quantity not known.
No. 14 & 15. C. R. West & Co. owners—shipped 2 inst. Cargo—hay, oats, onions, &c. Value not known.
On Thursday last Mr. Lewis Dunn shipped from this place on board the steam boat Samson, for New Orleans, a number of head of cattle, sheep, horses, 350 kegs of lard, &c. &c.—the number and value not known.

There has been but very little change in the articles of provision since our last. Flour has advanced and is now worth $5 25. Oats are in good demand and would bring a fair price. Almost every article of marketing, such as beef, potatoes, chickens, butter, flour, &c. could find at this time a ready sale at higher prices—high enough, we should suppose, to make it something of an object for those who have them to spare, to attend our market regularly.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION. We have inadvertently omitted to notice the contemplated State Convention recently proposed to be held on the 8th January ensuing at Indianapolis, by the Ja. Democrat, to form a Democratic Electoral ticket for this State in the approaching presidential canvass. The proposition made by the Democrat has our hearty co-operation, and we believe the members generally of the great democratic family in this section of the State admit of the propriety of adopting measures to organize its members into a complete understanding with each other so that the opposition may not make inroads upon their credulity by assumed names and false pretences. The great measures and principles of the Republican party are too well understood and appreciated by the intelligent yeomanry—"the bone and sinew of the country,"—to be guided astray by the buzzing of seeming aspirants. Their motto is "principles not men," and whomsoever they choose to concentrate these principles upon will prove as irresistible as the flooded torrent. Any measure proposed for the continuance and perpetuation of the principles of the Old Republican Party which had their origin under the banner of Thomas Jefferson and which have been so gloriously sustained by the present administration, meets with our warmest approbation, and we are ready to second our political friends in whatever plans they may think judicious and proper to make in their furtherance by the contemplated State Convention. The efforts making, in different parts of the Union, to defeat the candidates of the Republican party are unceasing, and duty as well as necessity should demand of their friends a strict look-out ahead to keep clear of breakers.

We would suggest, with the concurrence of several members of the Democratic Party from different parts of this county, that a meeting be held at Wilmington on Saturday the 31st instant for the purpose of appointing Delegates to attend the State Convention at Indianapolis on the 8th of January next, to form an Electoral Ticket.

The friends of General William H. Harrison, it will be perceived on reference to another column, intend holding a meeting for a similar object, on the 15th instant.

Dr. Bird's new novel, the "The Hawks of Hawk Hollow," is highly spoken of in the National Gazette. It is not through the press yet.

The weather for some days has been excessively cool for September; a great quantity of rain has fallen since last Friday morning—and this morning we have a fine frost. The wash tubs and other vessels about the house were closed over with ice near one fourth of an inch thick. We fear a great majority of the corn crops is, or will be, seriously affected by the severity of the weather.

Plough Boy.

A GOOD ANECDOTE. As a young man who had just been elected a member of the Legislature, was passing a neighbor on the first day of the session, the neighbor inquired where he was going? "Going to the House to be qualified," said he. "You had better have been qualified before you was chosen," retorted the interrogator.

FOREIGN ITEMS.—Young Ladies Beware. The Chester Chronicle gives a curious account of an attack upon a lady by a donkey, in the streets of that city, on Tuesday night, in which it is stated that the animal, after pursuing her some distance, succeeded in obtaining the object of his pursuit,—the contents of her "bustle," stuffed with grain.

Chantry's beautiful monument of Mrs. Jordan (the deceased actress), sculptured expressly for the King—is represented with an infant (the present earl of Munster) in her arms, surrounded by a group of her other children. The monument is to be placed in Westminster Abbey.

It is said of Lord Brougham, that when at College, such was his ardor in the study of the most difficult sciences, that he has been known not to change his clothes for sixteen days and nights.

A CONTRAST.—An old farmer, in a communication in the London Morning Chronicle, alludes to the talk about distress and compares the conduct of the agriculturalists in his early days with the gentleman farmers of the present day. He says:

In 1772 it was
The husband to the plough,
The wife to the cow;
The daughter to the sow;
The son to the mow;
And your rents will be netted.
But in 1835 it is
The husband rallyho;
The daughter piano;
The wife silk and satin;
The boy Greek and Latin;
And you will be gazzeted.

The Rev. Francis L. Hawks, Rector of St. Thomas Church, New York, has been elected by the general convention of the Episcopal Church, at Philadelphia, Bishop of Louisiana, Florida, and Arkansas, and has accepted the office. The Rev. Dr. Kemper, of Connecticut, formerly of Philadelphia, is also elected missionary bishop of Mississippi.

IRON ORE. The Pittsburg Whig of the 29th ult. states, that within a few days previous, a rich and extensive bed of iron ore had been discovered in the town of Sarance. The owners of the land intend to open and work the mineral, and are confident of an abundant supply.

Sufficient payments, having been made on the stock of the Northern Bank to comply with the requisitions of its charter, the Governor has issued a proclamation authorizing it to commence banking operations.

Newspaper Borrowers are a nuisance to newspaper takers, and robbers of newspaper printers. But it is of no use to talk upon the subject, for we believe with the Advertiser, a clever little paper printed at Bangor, that "a man so lost to decency as to be in the constant practice of borrowing newspapers in this country, when they may be bought so cheap, cannot be reformed by anything that can be said on the subject."

SIZEABLE PEARL. Not many years ago a gentleman lately from Scotland called on Mr. H. at his seat near Wilmington, Delaware, for whom he had some letters. While walking in his garden, abounding in excellent fruit, the latter observed that, show him what he would, his guest insisted he had seen much better in Scotland. Determined, however, to surprise him, he privately ordered his servant to tie some gourds on a pear tree, whilst they were at dinner. When the cloth was removed—"Now, sir," said Mr. H. "I think I can show you what you never saw in Scotland," and taking him to the tree, asked the astonished Scotchman what he thought of that. "In truth," say they are varra large pears indeed, but I think I have seen full as large in the Duke of Argyll's garden, though I must confess they had no quite sic lang necks."

FRUITS OF ABOLITIONISM. Among other deplorable consequences of the violent measures of the abolitionists, is the suspension of a great many schools at the south which had been established for the benefit of colored people. A correspondent incidentally mentions that three such schools (probably all that existed) have been suspended in Charleston since the emission of the abolition pamphlets. Jour. Com.

A duel was fought between two boys in South Carolina, on the 17th of July, in which one of the parties was killed at the first fire. The survivor, a clerk in an auction store, coolly returned to his duties when he had finished the business.

Greensburgh Patriot.

Sullivan, the Irish desperado, who was the ring leader of the rioters on the route of the Wabash and Erie canal, was tried in Logansport, at the last session of Cass county Circuit Court, for an assault and battery with intent to kill. He was found guilty by the jury and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in the state penitentiary. Upon his route to Jeffersonville, he escaped, by extracting one of the bolts with which the chains securing him were fastened. He was pursued, however, with industrious vigilance by the Sheriff of Cass County, who a few days since recaptured him, after Sullivan had fired a pistol which we are happy to learn took no effect. He is now safely lodged in the penitentiary.

Western Spy.

A TENDER HEARTED WIFE.—A "broken hearted woman," as she called herself—Mrs. Laura Hunt, of Broadalbin, Montgomery county, N. Y.—notifies the public thro' the Amsterdam Intelligencer, that her husband, Josiah Hunt, has left her bed and board, and strayed to parts unknown; and she forbids all girls, old maids, and widows, not to meddle with or marry him, under the penalty of the law. She also earnestly entreats all editors "through the world" to lay the foregoing information before their readers.—Mrs. Hunt will please to perceive, that we have complied with her request—[Courier & Enquirer.] And we too—[New York Transcript.] And we three—[Cincinnati Mirror.] And we four—[Standard.] And we five—[Western Methodist.] And we six—[Zion's Herald.] And we seven—[Maine Free Press.] And we eight—[Middle-town Free Press.] And we nine—[Woodstock Whig.] Leave her bed and board! the villain! and we ten—[National Eagle.] And strayed to parts unknown, the vagabond! and we eleven—[Albany Daily Advertiser.] And we make up the dozen—[N. York Com. Adv.] Leave such a loving wife! give the rascal another dozen—[Wheeling Gazette.] Desert his lawful wedded wife! give him Lynch's law, the nasty dirty varmint—[Cin. Repub.] Poor broken-hearted woman! tar and feather him too, the beastly skunk—[La Pal.]

"Many Clerks arrived here last fall, of whom hundreds had been obliged to return almost penniless and wholly disappointed. If they have no specific promise of a situation before they arrive, they can have but little prospect afterwards of obtaining any employment commensurate with their expectations; and when they find that their current expenses for living here cannot be less than about 40 dollars a month, they should pause before they are decoyed and disappointed.

From Leary's N. O. Prices Current of September 5.

SUGAR.—Our quotations for all the qualities remain without alteration. There has been no operations of any magnitude; Grocers and speculators having secured all that was in the country; the transactions are now mostly confined to sales of a few hds. at a time, to the smaller dealers.

MOLASSES.—The quotations given are the retail prices; a few bbls. of indifferent Molasses are occasionally offering at 25 cents per gallon.

TOBACCO.—The remarks of last week will apply with equal justice to the present state of our market; but few sales have been made, and as far as we are able to judge, it has neither risen nor depreciated in value. We notice sales of 45 hds. repressed Tobacco at 54, 64 and 74 cents; 5 hds. Missouri at 84 and 9 cents.

FLOUR.—Our former quotation, $6 a $6 25 per bbl., is continued, and there is scarcely any business doing at that, indeed it is duller at this moment than at any period during the season.

PORK.—The prices quoted last week are still maintained, and in some instances as high as $18, has been paid for Mess. Prime, $15 per bbl. and the demand rather limited, the stock is small, but amply sufficient for the wants of the market.

BECON.—The market continues in a declining state, and sales are very limited; present quotations are for Hams 8 a 10, Middlings 7 a 8, Shoulders 6 cents per lb. Only the best quality of canvasses. Hams will bring our quotations, indeed sales can hardly be effected on any terms.

LARD.—Transactions in Lard are very moderate but our quotations remain without any alterations in price—$8 a 9 cents per lb. Arrived this week, 392 kegs.

WHISKEY.—We are compelled to repeat our former unfavorable remarks about Whiskey; is exceedingly dull, the most that can be obtained is 40 cents, and we have heard of sales as low as 374 cents per gallon.

COFFEE.—Quotations remain firm, but a very small inquiry is experienced. Havana Prime Green 124 a 144; do Middling 12 a 13; Rio 134; St. Domingo 114 a 124 cts. per lb. The demand is rather on the increase, but transactions have been very light.

GRAIN.—Corn has fluctuated in price considerably since our last notice. In the first of the week sales of shelled, in sacks, were at 64 a 70 cents per bushel, and even as low as 65; subsequently 75 cents has been given. Oats—The last sale of any quantity was at $1 10 per sack of two bushels. Beans continue to be a drag.

HAY.—Continues to be in fair demand; the last arrived brought $1 25 per 100 lbs.

MACKEREL.—Sales are very limited, and quotations stationary, as there is scarcely any inquiry experienced in the fish market. For No. 1, $5 a $5 50; No. 2, $7 a $7 50; No. 3, $3 a $3 50, per bbl. limited sales.—There are a good many Codfish in market, and they are dull at $1 25 a $1 50 per box; Herring, 80 a 874, dull; Salmon, per 1 gallon keg, 874, small sales.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. We published a few days since an estimate of the Journal of Commerce, giving the state of parties in the House at the approaching Congress. That print makes the majority already returned 32, without taking into calculation the elections to take place in Mississippi and Maryland, and the vacancies to be filled from Georgia and South Carolina. We give our own estimate. The first votes of the session will test the accuracy of our information:

On Tuesday and Wednesday nights last, we had heavy and severe frosts. It is feared that Corn, particularly the late corn, is much injured. The prospect for an abundant crop, in this region was very fine.

It appears from a tabular statement, going the rounds of the papers, compiled from public documents, that there are in North Carolina 58 white and 297 coloured persons of the age of 100 years and upwards.

TO BRICK MAKERS AND BUILDERS.
THE great demand for Sawyer's Patent Brick Machines, has induced the proprietor for the West, to make arrangements [in addition to his own facilities] with Mr. S. S. Dickinson, manufacturer of the celebrated Franklin Printing Press, to devote a part of his brick machines, without, however, interfering with his plans for furnishing, as usual, his variety of printing materials. This method of making Brick has been practically proved to be the best yet known, either as regards economy and expedition in manufacturing, or quality of the article when made. Competitively, the test of all such matters, is cordially and respectfully invited.
The Patent Right is considered well secured, even beyond the possibility of infringement; some of the ablest Counsel in the Union having been employed in preparing the specifications of the same.
The subscriber will sell and give clear titles for Rights to use the Machine in any Western Town or County not yet sold. He will also furnish Castings, with the wrought Iron, separately or together, or contract for building Machines in the West on favorable terms.

Carey's Library OF CHOICE LITERATURE.

TO say that this is a reading age, implies a desire for instruction, and the means to gratify that desire, on the first point, all are agreed; on the second, there is diversity both of opinion and of practice. We have newspapers, magazines, reviews, in fine, pamphlets of all sizes, on nearly all subjects, which have several classes of readers and supporters. And yet copious as are these means of intellectual supply, more are still needed. In addition to the reviews of the day, and passing book notices, people in large numbers, in all parts of our great republic, crave the possession of the books themselves and details, beyond mere passing allusion, of the progress of discovery in art and science. But though it be easy to gratify them. Expense, distance from the Emporium of Literature, engrossing occupations, which prevent personal application for even managers to libraries, and even book-sellers, are so many causes to keep people away from the feast of reason and the enjoyment of the coveted literary aliment. It is the aim of the publishers of the Library to obviate these difficulties, and to enable every individual, at a small cost and without any personal effort, to obtain for his own use and that of his favored friends or family, valuable works, complete, on all the branches of useful and popular literature, and that in a form well adapted to the comfort of the reader.

The charm of variety, as far it is compatible with morality and good taste, will be held constantly in view in conducting the Library; to fill the pages of which the current literature of Great Britain, in all its various departments of Biography, History, Travels, Novels, and Poetry, shall be freely put under contribution. With, perchance occasional exceptions, it is intended to give encased the whole which shall be selected for publication. When circumstances authorize the measure, recourse will be had to the literary stores of Continental Europe, and translations made from French, Italian, or German, as the case may be.

Whilst the body of the work will by a reprint or at times a translation of entire volumes, the cover will exhibit the miscellaneous character of a Magazine, and consist of sketches of men and things, and notices of novelties in literature and the arts throughout the civilized world. A full and regular supply of the Library, monthly, and hebdomadal journals of Great Britain and Ireland, in addition to home periodicals of a similar character, cannot fail to provide ample materials for this part of our work.

The resources and extensive correspondence of the publishers, are the best guaranty for the continuance of the enterprise in which they are now about to embark, as well as for the abundance of the materials to give it value in the eyes of the public. As far as judicious selection and arrangements are concerned, readers will, it is hoped, have reason to be fully satisfied, as the Editor of the Library is not a stranger to them, but has more than once obtained their favorable suffrages for his past literary efforts.

TERMS.

The work will be published in weekly number, in stitched covers, each number containing twenty imperio octavo pages, with double columns, making twelve volumes annually, of more than 520 octavo pages each volume; and at the expiration of every six months, subscribers will be furnished with a handsome title-page and table of contents. The whole amount of matter furnished in a single year, will be equal to more than forty volumes of the common sized English duodecimo books. The paper upon which the Library will be printed, will be of the finest quality used for book-work, and of a size admirably adapted for binding. As the type will be entirely new, and of a neat appearance, each volume, when bound, will furnish a handsome as well as valuable, and not cumbersome, addition to the libraries of those who patronize the work.

The price of the Library will be Five Dollars per annum, payable in advance. A commission of 20 per cent. will be allowed to agents; and any agent or postmaster furnishing five subscribers, and remitting the amount of subscription, shall be entitled to the commission of 20 per cent., or a copy of the work for one year.

A specimen of the work, or any information respecting it, may be obtained by addressing the publishers, post paid, to E. L. CAREY & A. J. HART, Philadelphia.

July 21. *Subscriptions received at this office. Oct. 3.
