

ROSS RED LINE PUNCTURED BY LETTISH ARMY

Bolshevik Retirement Along Entire Front Forecast by Riga Legation.

SOVIETS WIN IN SOUTH

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Lettish forces which started a powerful advance against the Bolsheviks forces along their northern sector Friday have broken the Bolshevik line in the region of Piatlouna, a dispatch from Riga, today quoted the Lettish legation as announcing there.

The Lettish success will compel retirement of the red armies along the whole front, the legation claimed, adding that capture of Regiza, capital of the province of Letgallen, was imminent. DENIKIN AGAIN DEFEATED, CLAIM.

The Bolsheviks, however, claimed continued success in their campaign against Gen. Denikin in South Russia. A Moscow wireless communiqué reported the reds had captured Nakhitchevan, an important town eighteen miles southwest of Tiflis.

A Heinzler's dispatch asserted it had been reported reliably there that Marshal Foch would be offered command of all anti-Bolshevik forces provided the French government would agree to send a division to the aid of the conservative Russian factions.

Dispatches from Siberia indicated continued success for the Soviet armies in that region.

KOLCHAK WHIPPED, JAPANESE REPORTS

Admiral Kolchak, Irkutin, Manchuria, to the Daily Mail, quoted the Japanese Intelligence Bureau there as announcing that Irkutsk had been wholly occupied by the reds. Admiral Kolchak's forces have been completely dispersed, according to these advices.

It was reliably reported, the advices said, that Czechoslovak and Japanese forces had reached the Amur, advancing toward the Soviets and will not interfere with one another.

Japanese civilians have evacuated Irkutsk. Other foreign civilians were put on a special train to Chita.

American troops, the advices said it had been announced officially, have been ordered to evacuate Siberia by March 1.

ASK HIBERNIANS TO MEET HERE

Local Members of Order Adopt Plea for Convention.

Indianapolis will make an effort to secure the annual convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians as the result of action taken by the Marion county board of the order, composing ten divisions of that order in this city.

A national board meeting opens in Buffalo, N. Y., on Jan. 16, and as James E. Deery of Indianapolis, national president of the order, the resolution of the Marion board has been presented to him for the consideration of the national body. Indianapolis entertained a national convention of the order in 1908.

COUNTY BOARD TAKES ACTION.

At a meeting of the county board held yesterday, a resolution was adopted inviting the next national convention to Indianapolis and support was pledged. Peter J. Golden of New York, who is a special representative of the American commission on Irish independence, addressed the county board yesterday.

Following his address, a resolution was passed to resolution pledging support to the Irish Republic bond certificate drive, and called upon all members of the order to give support. The Protestant friends of Ireland will hold a public meeting Tuesday night at the Odd Fellows, at which several addresses of importance will be made.

COMMAND SUPPRESSION OF ANARCHY IN U. S.

The resolution, in part, is as follows: "We command the action of the United States government in its endeavor to stamp out organized effort to undermine our republican institutions, which are good citizens of this country, which are dear. We hold that the red flag of anarchy should never be tolerated in this country—which stands for republics everywhere—and which has always and ever will be the haven and hope of the oppressed who struggle for freedom from autocratic monarchs."

We can assure many of the Irish race, who has not already done so, to take the necessary steps at once to become a fully naturalized American citizen. We call attention to the action of the national convention of our order at San Francisco on this subject, recommending the appointment of a committee on the subject, and to the steps to be taken to assist Irish immigrants in becoming fully naturalized, and we hereby direct the county president to appoint such a committee for Marion county."

State Chamber Lists Many Big Speakers

Many speakers of prominence will be heard at the annual meeting of the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce to be held in Indianapolis, Jan. 20 and 21. John C. Snyder, of Crawfordsville, president, today announced that the program will include the following speakers: E. T. Meredith, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction; John G. Brown, president of the Indiana Federation of Farm Bureaus; Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company; Edward Haynes, Kokomo; Charles Fox, president of the Indiana Federation of Labor, and E. J. Lewis, chairman of the public service commission.

Every commercial organization in the state affiliated with the state chamber is entitled to three delegates.

35 Detroit Reds Off to Await Soviet Ark

DETROIT, Jan. 12.—Thirty-five Reds taken in November raids on Union of Russia workers' nests in Detroit left here late yesterday on a special car of the Wolverine special.

They comprised the first lot of Detroit revolutionaries awaiting deportation. They were bound for Ellis Island, where they will be detained pending departure of the second "Soviet Ark."

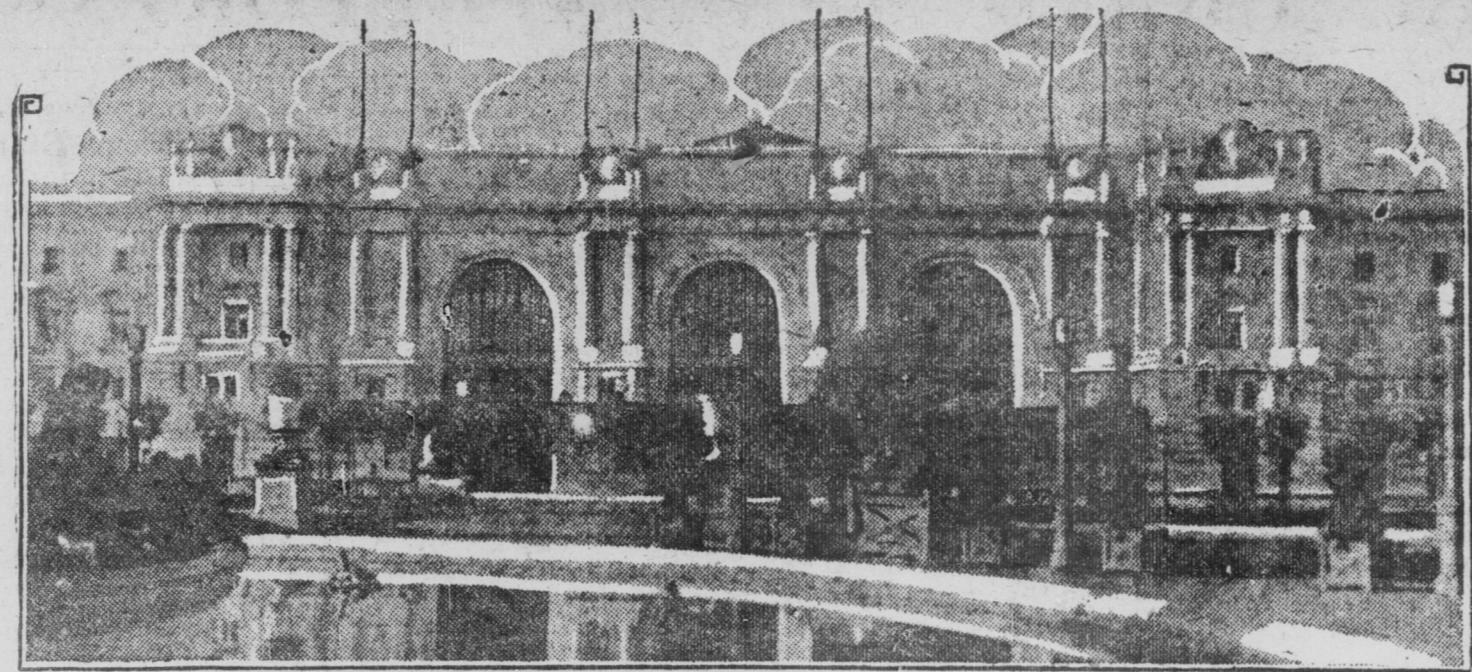

German Paper Says Arms Are Hidden

BERLIN, Jan. 12—Commenting on the statistics of German military strength published by the British press, the Freheit says:

"What would the entente say if it got a glimpse of the way in which stocks of arms and ammunition in excess of the permitted limit are being concealed everywhere, particularly by the citizen guards?"

HEAD
ACHES
FLU
WOMEN'S ACHES
AK
NEU-
RAL-GIA
WOMEN'S ACHES
ASK FOR AK TABLETS

WHERE DEMOCRATS WILL MEET JUNE 28

The Exposition Auditorium of San Francisco, where the democratic national convention will be held beginning June 28, is grouped, with the City hall and Public library, around a plaza, forming the civic center. The building was erected at a cost of $2,000,000 and has a seating capacity of 12,000. There are also numerous halls which can be opened into larger rooms to accommodate conventions of any size.

FLATS ROBBED 3 TIMES IN MONTH

Cash and Liberty Bonds Taken —Series of Petty Thefts.

Three times within the last month burglars have visited apartments in the Miller flats, 149 West Twentieth street, and today detectives doubled their efforts to arrest the thieves. The climax of the series of robberies was committed Saturday night when that of Charles Welsch, flat 101, was robbed of $300 in cash and two Liberty bonds, one for $100 and one for $50. Bicycle Officers Chittwood and Golmire investigated. The thief used a key to open a rear porch door, and had crawled through an ice box built with door opening on a rear sash. The apartment had been ransacked.

The American commander will allow no visitors near the vessel. Latest advices in Berlin said the destination of the ship was uncertain, but that she might land at some port near Revel, putting the radicals aboard a special train for Russia.

Soldier Aid Work to Be Reviewed

Reports of the work being done in finding employment for returned soldiers and in giving government aid to disabled soldiers will be made at a meeting of the Hamilton chapter of the Sons of the Legion Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the public library. Mrs. Linton A. Cox is president of the chapter and announces that Miss Laura Donnan will give an address upon the constitution of this country.

75-Year-Old Man Dies Under Traction Car

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street, taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Gas Fumes Fatal to Goshen Druggist

Detectives are investigating several other holdups. Linton A. Cox, 2314 Union street, was shot in the head Sunday morning at 7:30 A.M. when he was run down by a man who had been driving a car which had been driven into the rear of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the man covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told him he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,

taken from him by three holdup men at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The three men got into Hall's "livery" at McCarty and Meridian streets. When they reached Meridian street and the Belt railroad bridge, they paid Hall extra to drive them to Troy avenue. At that point they asked to be driven west and when they reached the end of Ed. McComb's, 200 West Troy avenue, the men covered Hall with a revolver. When Hall told them he had no money he was hit over the head with a revolver and dragged from the auto. The trio continued west on Troy avenue, where the man covered Hall at a local packing plant.

Detectives today said they had not been able to determine the identity of the man from Edward Hall, 2314 Union street,