Executives Attend Funeral of Secretary of State—Governor Mourns Loss.

TO BE BURIED IN DELPHI

Business at the statehouse was suspended today during the funeral of William A. Roach, Indiana state senator, who died late Saturday afternoon. Funeral services, attended by many state officials, were held at the home, 629 East Thirty-second street, at 10 o'clock this morning. This was to be followed by services at Delphi, Ind., Mr. Roach's former home, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The services at the home were conducted by Rev. M. L. Haynes, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The funeral party left Indianapolis at 12 o'clock. The pallbearers are Frank P. Litschert, secretary to Governor Goodrich; Bell Morris, chairman of the Fourteenth district republican committee; Will H. Adams, reporter of the Indiana supreme court; Dredelle Chaney, clerk of the state board of public printing; Pliny H. Wolford, deputy secretary of state, and Thomas D. Barr, a state bank examiner.

GOODRICH NAMES COMMITTEE TO ATTEND.

The following committee was appointed by Gov. Goodrich to represent the state government at the services: Judge David J. Myers, chief justice of the supreme court; Judge A. L. Nichols, chief justice of the appellate court; Otto L. Klausen, state auditor; Uz. McMurrin, state treasurer; Will H. Adams, reporter of the supreme court; P. J. Lynch, clerk of the supreme court; W. H. Hayes, state superintendent of public instruction, and Eli Schumacher, attorney general.

L. W. Henley, former secretary of the republican state committee, attended the services as a representative of Will H. Hays, republican national chairman. Representing the state committee, or both, Mr. Roach was a member were Ben M. Morgan, fourth district chairman; Charles E. Butler, Ninth district chairman; Charles O. Roemer, Seventh district chairman, and E. M. Wasmuth, chairman of the committee.

Representing the Columbia club were Arthur E. Bradshaw, Mayor Charles W. Jewett, Ralph A. Lemcke, Charles W. Miller and Joseph C. Keeling. The committee representing the Marion club was composed of Ed. H. Schmidt, Judge James A. Collins, Irving W. Lemaux and John W. Castor.

WAS ILL

Mr. Roach died after an illness of about a week. He had been in poor health for some time, but his condition was considerably better until recently. He was fifty-five years old. Mr. Roach was appointed secretary of state by Gov. Goodrich Dec. 21, 1917, and was elected to the office in 1918. His term would have expired in January, 1921. Immediately on his death Gov. Goodrich appointed Pliny H. Wolford acting secretary.

In commenting on Mr. Roach's death Gov. Goodrich said: "I can not express the measure of grief at the death of William A. Roach. 'Deacon,' as we called him, was a man of sterling integrity and one of the most efficient officers who ever served the

STUDIED LAW IN ILLINOIS.

Mr. Roach was born in Delphi Sept. 24, 1874. He was graduated from the Delphi High school and studied law in the office of Michael Ryan when Mr. Ryan was practicing in Delphi. In 1896 Mr. Roach was graduated from the Indiana Law school. He was city attorney of Delphi and practiced law there until his appointment as state senator. In 1910 he was elected republican chairman of Carroll county and became Ninth district chairman in 1914. He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Delphi and of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Indianapolis. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias and a member of the Methodist church at Delphi.

He is survived by his widow, Georgia Newell Roach; his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. William Roach; a sister, Mrs. Edgar Cox; a half-brother, Harry Roach, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Walter Dobbins and Mrs. Luther Granham of Delphi, and step-sister, Mrs. Verne Brook of Houston, Tex.

Lowden to Stump Northwest States

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Gov. Frank O. Lowden will leave Chicago tonight on a shooting tour through the northwest. His first stop will be at Minneapolis. He will confer with Nebraska republicans at Omaha on Wednesday and spend Thursday in Denver.

She who coddles herself all day in an overheated house and finds her skin flushed and flabby as a consequence, can put back fresh skin for her face by just bathing her face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered salsolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This lotion, when applied to the skin, smooths out the wrinkles and draws in the saggy tissue almost immediately, and the face appears considerably rejuvenated.

The ingredients, of course, are perfectly harmless and no trace of the treatment remains on the skin. Be sure to ask the druggist for the powdered salsolite.

SAYS MISSOURI LIKES LOWDEN

Former Congressman Declares He's the State's Type.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Missouri will practically all its thirty-six votes for Frank O. Lowden at the republican national convention next summer, according to Polite Elvins, former congressman from the Thirteenth Missouri district, who visited Lowden headquarters here today.

"Missouri republicans are conservative and Lowden is the type of man who strongly appeals to them," Mr. Elvins said. "We have watched him closely and believe that he has done for Illinois by consolidating numerous state business and congressional units in compact enough departments with a budget system to control the expenditure of public funds. We feel he can give us some kind of economical and efficient administration if he is sent to Washington."

Chairman Emmerson of the Lowden campaign committee announced that the Lowden-for-President Commercial Traders' club now has a membership of 10,000.
