Changes in Y.W.C.A.
Departments Made;
New Secretary Here

Several changes in the division of the work in the departments of the local Young Women's Christian association have recently been made. The departments affected are the industrial, girls' work, educational, publicity and general office. Miss Hazel Sutton has come to the association as assistant educational secretary, Miss Ruth McEachern, who came to this position last fall, has been made senior girls' work secretary, succeeding Miss Catherine Bailey. Miss Sutton performed valuable service for one year and a half during the war under the war work council of the Y. W. C. A. at Gulfport, where a navy training center is located, and in Little Rock, Ark., at Camp Pike.

The publicity and educational departments, which have been under one secretary, Miss Alice Newman, have been separated. Miss Newman will continue in the educational work only, with Miss Ruth McEachern as publicity secretary. For the last year Miss Sargent has been in charge of the general office of the association. She will be succeeded by Miss Louis Wilke.

An industrial course is to be given under the auspices of the industrial department the second week in February, was outlined at a recent meeting. The course will include discussions of present day industrial problems, an industrial survey of the city, and methods of work in the industrial department. Those present were Rev. C. C. Smith, Mrs. Edward Harman, Mrs. M. B. Day, Mrs. L. D. Carter, Mrs. E. F. White, Mrs. Wilmer Christian, Mrs. H. D. Ernsting, Mrs. Frank Brown, Miss Alma Sieker, Miss Katharine Stukey, Miss Pearl Kiefer, Miss Lucy Wilhelm and Miss Amelia Sanderson.

The educational committee will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Prof. Lindley Talks on Coming Centennial

The training class and staff members of the Indiana public library listened to a talk on "Indianapolis and the Coming Centennial" given by Prof. Parlowe Lindley, professor of history at Earlham college and the head of the archives department of the state of Indiana Friday morning.

"It is simply a pageant or a parade of floats," he said. "It is an educational campaign. The business of the library in this centennial of Indianapolis is to awaken interest in the history of the city and in the collecting of material out of which history will be written for future generations. Much should be done by teachers in the schools."

At the bi-monthly staff meeting of the staff of the Indianapolis public library Monday morning, Feb. 2, at 8:30, Miss Eleanor Foster, head of the book department of Ayres book store, will talk on Ayres' book store, will talk on "Books."

Shriners Plan
Gay Evening

The Shriners will have a merry time at the Murat theater Monday night, when the biggest Shrine theater party of the season will be given at the opening of the engagement of "Monte Cristo, Jr."

The entire theater has been taken over by the Shriners for Monday night and admission is limited to Shriners and their parties.

The committee in charge stated today that there are a number of seats left although they are being reserved very rapidly.

The entertainment committee has arranged some "stunts" which will be staged between the acts. Following the performance of "Monte Cristo, Jr." the Shriners will give a dance.

The committee plans to make this Shrine party the biggest and gayest of the season.

Minister to Address Council of Women

The regular monthly meeting of the Local Council of Women will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Propylaeum, when the Rev. L. A. Harriman of the Second Presbyterian church will talk on "New Responsibilities and New Duties" and Walter J. McDaniel, secretary, will discuss "The Play-ground From An Americanization View-point." The music for the afternoon will be in charge of the Harmony club. Mrs. Harry Fulton Talr will give a group of American songs.

District Beautifying Will Be Discussed

Methods of beautifying that portion of the city lying north of Fall creek will be discussed by James H. Lowry, city park superintendent, at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, School No. 38 at the school building, Capitol avenue and Forty-eighth streets, next Wednesday night. Property owners, especially, are asked to attend the meeting, which will be called to order at 7:45 p.m.

Equity Association Charges Terms Not Lived Up To.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Another actors' strike may be called on Monday, it was announced here today by J. Marcus Keyes, who is here as a representative of the Actors Equity association and who is reported to be making strike plans.

"The strike, if it is called, will be declared against the Shuberts," Keyes declared.

Keyes charges the Shuberts with failing to observe the terms of settlement of the first strike affecting the issuance of equity contracts. He declared that actors refusing to agree to Shubert terms are being forced to quit.
