ALL-CITY FIVE PLACES THREE TECHITE STARS

Shortridge and Manual Each Awarded Berth on Annual Mythical Quint.

HOW PLAYERS STACK UP

All-City Selections

—MANUAL, TECH, SHORTIDGE—
FIRST TEAM. SECOND TEAM.
Slaughter (T.) F. Caldwell (S.)
Stevens (S.) F. Michener (S.)
Griggs (T.) C. Drayer (T.)
E. Harneson (M.) G. Wertz (M.)
Black (T.) G. Hawkins (T.)

The job of figuring out income tax is a slight matter in comparison to the task of selecting an all-city high school basketball team. This mythical five is picked at the close of the season each year despite the dangers and risks undergone in doing it and is supposed to contain the five best players in the high school ranks of the city. Although any selection is bound to have a lot of criticism from students of the rival schools, a team's record for the season can not be used as a basis for selecting the men for the all-city. For instance, a team might be a consistent loser and yet contain one or two men who surpassed any others in the city, while on the other hand, a quieter team with the best record and one made up of five men of equal ability might find it hard to land many of them on the mythical aggregation.

LACK OF FORWARD TALENT.

In looking over the athletes this year who have been cutting big circles in the local basketball race the first thing that strikes the eye is the woeful scarcity of good centers and guards in contrast to the excellent supply of high-class forwards. Among the men playing the forward positions this year are such stars as Slaughter, Stevens, Harneson, Caldwell and Griggs. Although Griggs has been playing center in his recent games, he has been used at forward most of the time.

These men are known all over this section and have a state-wide reputation as point-getters. Of the three centers in the city, Buschell of Manual, Drayer of Tech and Africa of Shortridge, there is little that can be said for any of them. Drayer, because of his accuracy on under the basket shots, is probably the best of the three, but in a fast game he must give way to Griggs. The guard jobs, although much better taken care of than the center positions, are not held down by any Don Whites or Millers. Hawkins of Tech is without doubt the best back guard, while the floor guard selection seems to be a tossup between Black, Wertz, Harneson and Ego.

In choosing the forwards for the make-believe team Hank Stevens of Shortridge and El Slaughter of Tech have been selected. These men have been the individual stars on their respective teams all season, and are two of the classic goal-getters in the state. They would make a wonderful combination. Slaughter is probably the best all-around man of the two on floor work and passing, while Stevens is probably the most consistent point-getter. Both men are "death" on the basket at long range and their shots from the center of the key cause opposing rosters to lose weight and finger-nails. This selection should be practically undisputed, as the ability of these men is known to rank with the best in Indiana.

GRIGGS POSSESSES ALL-AROUND TALENT.

For the center job Hal Griggs of Tech has been named. Griggs, although he started basketball last year as a forward, has been used at center in most of his games this year. Elliott has been playing ball on the coast this winter and reported in excellent shape.

Wabash Five Tosses the Big Hook Into Rivals From DePauw

Scarlet Springs Season's Prize Upset by Beating Tigers, 36 to 26.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 3.—The Wabash basketball team came through with the biggest surprise of state basketball this season by putting the rollers under DePauw's "Speed Five" here last night, 36 to 26. The contest proved a whizz-bang affair and the Tigers demonstrated their speed, all right, but the Scarlet guards put the big check on the visitors while the Wabash basket shooters contributed their share by outshooting the Tiger offensive men. The victory gave the Scarlet rosters an opportunity to participate in a wild time, and they certainly handed it out in large bunches.

The locals played a careful, steady game and had the range "right" with their long shots. Adam got six field goals and Kashner, five, and the latter also hooked eight in from the foul line. The advance guard was positively against the Scarlet, but the local athletes soon changed the situation when they got on their feet. Despite the continued speed shown by DePauw, Grater, Wabash back guard, put up a whole of smothering the Tiger offensive time after time. The first half ended 20 to 19, in Wabash's favor.

DePauw never gave up at any stage and picked up speed after Carlisle entered the fray, but it was simply a case of too much Wabash and few Scarlet rosters had any fears after the opening period. Cannon played his usual strong game for the Tigers and Carlisle also starred. It was Wabash's night, that's all, and although the outcome was a keen disappointment to DePauwites there was no lack of Tiger fight and the Green castle players gave the best they had against their old rivals. In a previous game DePauw was the victor. Lineup and summary:

DePauw (26): Forward Hunt
Cannon Forward Kashner
Miller Center Adam
Mendenhall Guard Burns
Gibson Guard Grater
Field goals—Adam 6, Kashner 5, Hunt 2, Grater 1, Cannon 4, Carlisle 2, Miller 1. Free throws—Kashner, 8 of 10; Gibson, 2 of 3. Substitutes—Carlisle for Curtis, Ketter for Gibson, Gibson for Cannon. Referee—Craige, Umpire—Evans.

Pocket Billiardists Follow Hoppe With Exhibitions in City

Greenleaf and Keogh at Cooler's Today and Thursday—Champion Finishes Fast.

Consistency continues to feature the playing of Willie Hoppe, the world's greatest billiardist. During his two days of playing at Harry Cooler's parlors in this city the champion made his 1,000 points in twenty-one innings for an average of a fraction less than forty-five an inning.

On Monday Hoppe accounted for his 200 points in ten innings and yesterday he took twelve innings to win the two 250-point games. In winning over Charles C. Peterson yesterday afternoon, Hoppe was forced to play seven innings before he negotiated the necessary total. In the evening, however, he was in form, going out in five with an unfinished eighty-eight. It is this same brand of billiards that has marked the work of the champion on the American tour. He seldom fails to insert some kind of a

Debonairs Going After Honors in Indoor Track and Field Meet March 17

The Debonairs have thrown their hat into the track ring. At a recent meeting of the organization, George Starbuck, former star athlete at Shortridge High school, was appointed to round up a team to compete for honors in the Junior indoor I. A. A. T. track and field championships at the state fair ground coliseum March 17. Starbuck had four years of track experience in high school and during that time was rated among the best mile runners and 440-yard dash men in the state ranks. He will compete in these events for the Debonair club in the big meet.

While the "Debs" coach has several former high school boys to use on his team, he also has a bunch of youngsters who have nothing but the talent and the idea that they want to be tracksters. Some of them have never participated in open competition, but their eagerness to be drilled hard between now and the time of the championships and should make a classy appearance and fight hard for positions.

Coch Ray Boush is spending loads of time with his Indianapolis Athletics and Cane club athletes and he has all the confidence in the world of taking "top honors" in the indoor meet. They will be in good condition for the Irish day battles and the athletes scheduled to compete here from Wabash, Purdue, DePauw, Franklin, Butler, Notre Dame and Indiana will have to perform in real class to take place.

Clubs, colleges and individuals desiring information on the event, which is open to every amateur in the state, should communicate with Lee Emmelman, 12 South Capitol avenue.

Appleby of New York Tuesday in the national amateur 182 bulk-one mile championship tournament, made his tourney record four wins without defeat. The score was 300 to 211. Averages and high runs of both players were low. Collins, with high runs of 42, 33 and 32, averaged 713-41 for the forty-one innings of play. Appleby's average was 56-41 and his high runs were 28, 21 and 19. David McAndrews of Chicago continued his winning streak in last night's match, defeating Robert M. Lord of Chicago, 200 to 276, in thirty-three innings. His average was 91-11 and his high runs were 79, 39 and 35. Lord made an average of 812-33 and had high runs of 49, 46 and 23.

Dentals Give Rose Battle, but Fall in Last College Game

Heavy Engineers Forced to Step Out in Order to Beat Locals.

Rose Poly 26, Indiana Dentals 18, was the final score of the last college basketball game scheduled to be played in Indianapolis this year. The game was staged at the Y. M. C. A. gym last night. The giant Engineers, taller and heavier than the Tooth Pullers, were doped as easy winners, but they met a surprise, for the Dentals gave them a real battle. Reinking started the scoring for Rose with a foul goal; McPherson tied the score with a free throw and then gave the Dentals a lead on a field goal, scored close under the basket.

DENTALS MISS EARLY SHOTS.

Clever passing, in which Witter's play featured, kept the Terre Haute athletes guessing. The Dentals, however, could not find the baskets after good team play gave them close-up shots and at least five easy shots were missed in the first half. With the timer's watch showing one minute to play in the first half, the Dentals held a slight lead. Then Krausbeck, back guard, gave Rose Poly its lead ten seconds before the half ended when he shot a field goal from three-fourths the length of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium floor. The half ended with the score Rose Poly 14, Dentals 10.

At the start of the second half Reeve tied the score with a foul goal. The Dentals had outplayed the Engineers in the passing game as long as McCarthy was in the lineup. However, McCarthy went out of the game on four personal fouls in the first half. Again in the second half ten minutes before the final gun the Dentals were weakened by

Slow, but Sure

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—The indictments against Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, and his manager, Jack Kearns, in connection with alleged selective draft evasion by Dempsey, "have taken the usual course, and removal proceedings are progressing against the men in Los Angeles," Mrs. Annette A. Adams, assistant United States district attorney, announced here Tuesday. The indictments were returned late Friday. The men have not yet been arrested, according to advices from Los Angeles.

Reeve being barred on four personal fouls.

McVAUGH MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE. The loss of Reeve hurt the Dentals' scoring. For the speedy forward had been teaming well with Witter and McPherson. At that point McVaugh, captain of the Dental team, was sent into the game. It was the first time that McVaugh has been in a suit this season, he having been out of the game because of an operation. He went in at center and Havens was shifted to forward. The score was 18 to 15 in favor of Rose when Reeve left the game.

Standan found the basket for three field goals and Ellis made one ringer, giving Rose Poly its commanding lead in the last five minutes of play. In the last half the Dentals could not connect with the basket. McVaugh scoring the only field goal made by the Tooth Pullers in that period. McPherson and Witter were easily the stars for the Dentals, both playing a wonderful passing game. Standan and Reinking played the best game for Rose Poly.

Merriam will coach the men and requests all swimmers who desire a try-out to have a hand for the preliminary practice. The Canoe club is planning to have a crack team in the field.

COMMITTEE MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT.

The teams that intend to enter the association had better get a move on, because a lot of business was transacted last night, and it is planned to have the rules and by-laws and schedules adopted some time this month, so that play can open the first Saturday and Sunday in April. The officers of the various leagues will be elected at that time.

AMATEUR BALL TOSSERS HOLD FIRST CONFAB

Successful Season Assured by Record Crowd at Early Meeting—Jarvis Presides.

PLAN TWO LEGION LOOPS

The amateur ball tossers of the city have put over their first big victory. The opening 1920 season meeting of the Indianapolis Amateur Baseball association was held in the council chamber of the city hall last night and the enthusiastic amateur bosses broke the "first meeting" attendance record the first step out of the box. Forty teams were represented by their managers, and R. Walter Jarvis, director of city recreation, announced that several other youngsters had informed him that they could not attend the meeting but he could count on them to have fighting combinations in the field. Therefore indications are the association is already assured of a membership of fifty teams. The next meeting will be held at the city hall March 16, and it is believed that the number will be doubled by that time.
