

3 CANDIDATES BACK TEACHERS' WAGE DEMANDS

Democratic Gubernatorial Aspirants See Injustice in Present Pay.

WRITE STATE OFFICIAL

Letters from three candidates for the democratic nomination for governor, declaring in favor of better salaries for teachers and a higher standard of teaching, have been received by the state department of public instruction, it was announced today.

The writers were John Isebnarger of North Manchester, Mason J. Niblack of Vincennes and James K. Risk of Lebanon.

NEGLECT OF TEACHER

"HARD TO BELIEVE"

"It is hard to believe that a commonwealth like the state of Indiana, who did her patriotic duty so wonderfully well during the great war, should be so near-sighted as to neglect the most resourceful means of reconstruction, namely, the retraining, re-educating and training of her teachers—the foster parents of our coming generation."

"We can not expect those who are in the profession to remain martyrs to the cause, any more than we can expect others to prepare for it, unless we make adequate preparation for their proper remuneration immediately."

"Moreover, I think our teachers, who now hold in the hollow of their hands our future America, should not have to face the humiliation of fighting their own battles in this campaign for a square deal on the salary question, but that the public should awake, think and work this educational problem out to a conclusion satisfactory to them."

SCHOOLS DRAGGING

AND FACE CRISIS.

"Our common schools, high schools and colleges, as well as parochial and denominational schools and colleges in Indiana, have been dragging of late and are well nigh facing a serious crisis," wrote Mr. Niblack. "Their great need is a larger supply of money with which to pay higher and more decent salaries to teachers, both men and women, in the city and rural schools, who have never received enough pay to compensate them for their just deserts. Teachers' salaries in Indiana should be made attractive enough to hold the very best among them."

Mr. Niblack also declared for better teacher training and improvement of the state's normal school facilities. The letter of Mr. Risk contained the following:

"I have said before that woman plays

Army Lieutenant Shorn of His Wives

CHICAGO, March 11.—With the aid of the courts, Lewis A. Devore, army aviator, is rapidly being freed of wives.

An annulment of her marriage to Devore had been entered today in favor of Mrs. Hazel Furness Devore, wife No. 2. At the same time her attorney asked a divorce for Mrs. Hazel Allen Devore, wife No. 1, and announced he had been advised of a third wife.

An important part in the nation's welfare. Ninety per cent of our teachers in the common schools and high schools are women. The educational development and preparation of the child is largely in the hands of women, until the child passes from high school to college, and this brings us to a very important question, viz: The consideration and remuneration that we are giving to our teachers.

"I believe the minimum and maximum wage for teachers should be greatly increased, and the requirements for service from the teachers should be increased. Morals and citizenship must be a part of our common school foundation. There must be aroused in the heart of every boy and girl a moral conscience."

Two Arrests Lead Back to Louisville

An investigation is being made today by Detectives Rugenstein and Hynes following the arrests of Marion Trexler, 23, 1023 Central avenue, charged with being a fugitive and with vagrancy and William Slack, 19, charged with vagrancy. Both men were arrested at 1023 Central avenue.

Trexler is said to be wanted in Louisville, Ky., it being alleged that charges are pending against him there for buying two tires from a negro who had stolen them and who has been sent to jail for the theft. Trexler, it is said, formerly operated a taxi line between Louisville and Camp Taylor.

Chicago's City Dads Attack Prohibition

CHICAGO, March 11.—A petition to the Illinois legislature to withdraw its approval of the federal prohibition amendment, so that the question may be submitted to the voters, was sent to the state capital today by the Chicago city council. The aldermen voted 51 to 10 to send the petition.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

THE CROSS OLD BOOK.

NEITHER the wise old Riddle Book nor silly old Funny Book in Once Upon Town knew a thing about the monkey when the twins asked them, and books pretending to be so wise 'n all, too!

So Nancy and Nick began to watch the pictures again that were hopping around and having a good time. Puss-in-Boots and Jack-the-Giant-Killer, Snow-White, the Fat-Man-of-Bombay—oh, just everybody was there!

They pried open the cross old book and let the twins out.

"Yes," whispered the magical mushroom, who was with the children. "It's the old book—it's blind and can't see, and thinks you are Jack and Jill. It shut up on you."

"No, sir!" spoke up Nick. "We didn't get the water, because you see we're not—"

But the book snapped him off. "Well—well, I've waited for that pail of water till I'm all dried up and my leaves are falling out, and here you two little rascals are out playing instead of attending my wants. I was sure when Fanny Brown lost me and I came here to The Land o' Lost Things that I'd be comfortable. You stay here until you promise."

"But we're not Jack and Jill, we're Nick and Nancy," insisted Nick. "You can't fool me, I know better!" said the old book.

Dear knows what would have happened, but the magical green shoes thought that was enough of an adventure for one day, so they pried open the cross old book and let the twins out.

Away they scampered, glad to be free.—Copyright, 1920, N. E. A.

WEST VIRGINIA 34TH TO RATIFY

Cross-Country Trip of Senator Wins for Suffragists.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 11.—West Virginia today stands as the thirty-fourth state to ratify the federal suffrage amendment. The state senate last night voted fifteen to fourteen for the amendment, ending a long and warmly contested fight. All previous votes resulted in a tie, fourteen to fourteen.

The house of delegates ratified the amendment a week ago, forty-seven to forty.

With West Virginia in the suffrage column, only two more states are needed to ratify the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the United States constitution.

Ratification in the senate was finally brought about by the unseating of Senator A. R. Montgomery of Boone county, on the ground that he is now a resident of Illinois, and the arrival of Senator Jesse A. Bloch of Wheeling, from Pasadena, Cal., after a flying trip across country.

Sensor Bloch at the windup of his cross-country trip was met by a small group of suffrage leaders and several newspaper men and escorted to a hotel. He completed his trip of 3,000 miles in record time. His special train from Chicago to Cincinnati is believed to have established a new world's record for passenger locomotives, making the distance of 290 miles in a fraction over five hours.

The final vote in the senate was taken at 6:15 o'clock after one of the most dramatic sessions ever witnessed in either house of the legislature.

For several hours suffrage leaders and their opponents fought in an effort to gain a definite advantage. Each step by either party was hotly contested—anti-suffrage forces determined to offset their opponents' victory in keeping the legislature in session and the suffragists confident of gaining a majority to ratify. Crowded galleries were kept in order with difficulty as each phase of the battle apparently swung in favor of one side or the other.

With only two more states needed to make the required thirty-six, attention was being directed to Delaware and Washington, where the state legislatures have been called for special session March 22.

Alexander, Va., Has 2,731 Population Gain

Jewelers Gotta Tell the Truth!

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 11.—"It is the law that the price and value of jewelry can't be misrepresented," says Prosecutor H. N. Mitchell. Mitchell is about to crusade against gem merchants who say they "are diamonds when they ain't."

ASKS U. S. FREE STORED FOODS

Chicago District Attorney Says Warehouses Are Jammed.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Hoarding of food supplies upon a vast scale, as the greatest menace to the American food table, was brought to Attorney General Palmer's attention today by District Attorney Clynne of Chicago.

"Warehouses are jammed with table necessities and renewed pressure may be exerted by the government to turn loose these surplus stocks," District Attorney Clynne reported.

The department of justice, following Mr. Clynne's disclosure, will immediately begin an attack upon the hoarders in Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis and other middle western centers. In Chicago alone, Mr. Clynne asserted, butter and cheese stocks show a 300 per cent increase in amounts stored, as compared with previous years.

Woman Beats Thug Till He Begs for Mercy

CHICAGO, March 11.—Chicago thugs have learned that Kentucky women are dangerous persons to trifle with. One street brawler tried to hold up Mrs. Elizabeth Thrackmorton, a pretty young widow from that state, with the result that he was kicked, scratched, pummeled all about until he bawled for mercy and ran. He escaped the police, who ran to the scene.
