

Capt. J. Weir to Marry Girl From Yonkers

Miss Carin Hammarskold to Become Wife of Officer on Date to Be Set.

Rev. and Mrs. G. Hammarskold of Yonkers, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter Carin to Capt. John Weir, son of Judge and Mrs. D. E. Weir of Indianapolis. Since his return from service in France Capt. Weir has been stationed at Governor's Island, N. Y. The date of the wedding is not announced.

OTHER NEWS OF SOCIETY

Mrs. Hazel B. Hayes left today for a two months' stay in Arcadia and Rose-land, La. She will be the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cahow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb are leaving tonight for a visit in Cuba.

Miss Elizabeth Wangelin, who is attending Purdue university will come from Lafayette today to spend several days in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Charles Tiffany of New York, one of the leading workers in the New York suffrage campaign, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given by the B. M. W. alumnae here, March 18. The luncheon will be public and will be of interest to suffragists, for the fact that Indiana campaigns for funds for the Dr. Shaw memorial at Bryn Mawr will be stated.

Women of the Foreign Missionary society of Roberts Park M. E. church will hold their annual business offering meeting tomorrow at 2:30 in the church parlors. Dr. Rebecca Parrish of the Mary Johnston hospital in Manila, P. I., who is here on a furlough, will address the club on her hospital work in the Philippines. The Mary Johnston hospital is a memorial to commemorate the great work and life of Mary Johnston.

Mrs. C. M. Gibbs, 3322 North New Jersey street, will entertain the Independent Social club on Tuesday afternoon at her home.

The marriage of H. E. Hathaway and Mrs. Ella Heavin, both of Coatsville, Ind., took place at the home of W. A. Mundy, 3336 Kenwood avenue, last night.

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Kennedy and Clyde C. Schmidt of Martinsville was taken place today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kennedy, in Martinsville. The bride's gown was to be of dark blue tulle. Mrs. Shirley Ringer, mother of honor, and Miss Mildred Kennedy, maid of honor, wore bouffant frocks of blue tulle of similar design. The groom's brother, Wayne Schmidt, was best man.

Mrs. Franc Webber is to play the Mendelssohn wedding march and a number of bridal airs. The house was decorated with huge candelabras holding lighted tapers, bouquets of Killarney roses and smilax, the altar being banked with tall palms and lighted only by candlelight. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will go on a trip and will be at home in Martinsville on their return.

Matinee Musicals Hears Fine Program

Local musical artists skillfully presented an interesting program before the Matinee Musicals yesterday afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Everett Johnson, at Hollenbeck hall.

Miss Bertha Schellenschmidt gave a pleasing reading of "Avarice" (Review, sky), "Canzonetta" (Ambrosia) and "Berceuse," by her brother, Adolph Schellenschmidt. Handel's "Aldina" was sung with artistic understanding by Mrs. Mary Traub Euse.

The harp number, "Winter" (Thomas), played by Alberta McCain, was delightfully. A two-piano number by Mrs. Louise G. George and Miss Paul Kipp, "Variations on a Theme of Beethoven" (Saint Saens), produced splendid technique and comprehension.

Mrs. R. E. Kinnaird, accompanied by Charles Hansen, sang "Polka Wills" (Lorne), and "The Joy of Spring" (Woodman), repeating the Arne number as an encore. The clear, joyousness of her voice interpreted her selections perfectly.

Boosters for City in Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the Advertising club of Indianapolis and the Optimist club to promote interest in the campaign to "sell" Indianapolis to itself and the world, will be held tomorrow noon in the Riley room at the Clarendon hotel. The meeting is a third of a series of co-operative meetings between the Advertising club and other clubs of the city.

Paul Richer, director of promotion on the board in the advertising arrangement for the world's advertising convention to be held here June 6 to 10, and Fred Mills, executive secretary of the board, will be the principal speakers. They will speak on different phases of the work being done by the convention board to "make Indianapolis a better appreciated city."

G. D. Haskett, president of the Optimist club, will preside and J. Victor Richardson will sing a number of Irish songs.

DISCOVERED! Now We Know Why Men Like to Snooze—Used to Be 'Possums.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Not being as well informed as Dr. W. D. Matthews, curator of the American museum of natural history, is about the matter you have to take his word for it. "It" happens to be the "Teinodon" or "Terrible Tooth," a prehistoric animal that must have resembled a small prehistoric delirium tremens animal.

What really interests us is the following statement from Dr. Matthews: "At that time, our ancestors were little opossum-like furry creatures, living in trees and quite too small and inconspicuous to be troubled by the huge reptiles who in those days held the earth in fee." The opossum, like a lot of men, is fond of snoozing.

ZUKOR SAYS 16,000,000 PEOPLE SEE MOVIES DAILY

Elsie Ferguson at Alhambra—Comedy at Isis—Merry Farce at Murat

Sixteen million people see the movies in this country every day. That is the opinion of Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, of the number of daily patrons of the 15,500 moving picture theaters in the United States.

He figures that the theaters have a total seating capacity of 8,000,000 seats, with at least two daily performances.

Mr. Zukor is now on his way to England on the Imperator and before sailing made an important announcement of his purchases of the movie rights of many stage successes.

Included in the list is Booth Tarkington's "The Conquest of Canaan." Mr. Zukor announced that he has secured the rights to Barrie's "Peter Pan," the "Little Minister" and "What Every Woman Knows." Other well known plays and books which are to be filmed include "What Happened to Jones," by George Broadhurst; "The Witching Hour," by Augustus Thomas; "The Shulamite," by Edward Knoblauch; "The Conquest of Canaan," by Booth Tarkington; "A Celebrated Case," "Aphrodite," Victor Hugo's "Tellers of the Sea," Du Maurier's "Peter Ibbetson," David Belasco's "The Heart of Maryland," George Broadhurst's "The Crimson Alibi," Thompson Buchanan's "Civilian Clothes," "The Great Day," "The Prince Chap," Barrie's "Half an Hour," "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," "The Roundup," "The Fighting Chance," William Gillette's "Held by the Enemy," and "Young America."

The English will be dark until Monday night, when the annual visit of Ziegfeld to take place in the city. There is every indication that the year's edition will do bigger business than ever in the history of its trips to the city. It is expected to bring many out-of-town people to the city.

Confessions of a Bride WHAT IF DADDY REALLY IS BLIND?

"Blind!" I whispered hoarsely. Once more I saw the pitiful figure of my dream, our dear daddy, holding out his hand to me as if he wanted me to guide his steps! Did Chrys's outburst prove my dream true? It seemed to me that it did. For a moment it convinced me that I had never heard of the unseen world. "Our daddy—blind!" I repeated.

"Maybe this doesn't refer to daddy," said Chrys. "Maybe it means that the 'Folies' will open a week's engagement. There is every indication that the year's edition will do bigger business than ever in the history of its trips to the city. It is expected to bring many out-of-town people to the city."

"But the pointer was obstinate. It pointed to a time, then slipped down to the word 'goodbye' at the foot of the board, and stuck there. 'Establish contact!' I exclaimed. 'Jiggle the receivers, Chrys! Don't let your control hang up that way!'

"He's gone—at least for today. Spirits are awfully sensitive. You never can tell what may upset the delicate connection between their world and this."

"I call it a dreadful trick!" I exclaimed crossly. "It leaves us in such a horrible worry about daddy. If he is blind, it is our duty to go in search of him. If he has lost his sight I must be his eyes. And we ought to have him where his money can surround him with the last degree of luxury."

"Let me experiment with the outboard, please."

"My experiment was most confusing. Usually the control refused to budge when I touched it. This signified that the spirits realized that I was an unbeliever, Chrys explained. Then I tried to imitate Chrys, as a test. I'm a pretty good speller myself and my fingers are nimble and my wits fairly quick, but it was quite impossible for me to make up a sentence and spell it out on the board with any degree of rapidity, whereas, under Chrys's slender fingers, the pointer was accustomed to race from letter to letter, so fast that I could hardly follow it.

Naturally, the event didn't clear up my confusion about spiritualism. Not all of Jordan Spence's explanations and denials had satisfied me. I continued to be haunted by the same question which troubled hundreds of honest, thoughtful persons. Was I to believe, or not to believe, in the strange modern manifestations of the occult?

"What if Daddy Lorimer actually is blind—and needing us?" I whispered as Chrys returned her precious outboard to its box.

The suggestion would make me suffer indefinitely, unless I made a determined effort to throw it off. It is silly to be harassed by the unprovable.

WITCHHAZEL AND CAMPHOR RELIEVE EYE STRAIN

Common witchhazel, camphor, hydnastis, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash, produce quick results when used for eye strain. One customer was greatly astonished at the restful feeling produced by a single application. A young man reports that both he and his mother were greatly helped by Lavoptik. We guarantee a small bottle to be ANY CASE weak, strained or inflamed eyes. Henry J. Huder, Druggist.—Advertisement.

HOW TO ACQUIRE HAIR BEAUTY

You can enjoy a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist's a package of canthrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to the hair instead of the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and hair until both are entirely covered by the dainty perfumed preparation that thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing the hair dries quickly with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster, and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.—Advertisement.

'WIT WINS'

Florence Billings, star of "Wit Wins," at the Ohio all week, has been in the movies for the last six years, having made her appearance with Vitagraph. She has played leads opposite Harry Morey and Earle Williams, and with the Alice Joyce company.

Billings appeared as the star in more than a dozen independent productions last year.

"Up in Mabel's Room," at the Murat all this week. "Dare Devil Jack," and a six-act vaudeville bill makes up the current offering at the Broadway.

The Rialto is presenting Madeline Travers in "The Hell Ship" and Peggy Hyland in "Black Shadows," both movies. Included also are seven acts of vaudeville.

The headliner at the Lyric is the Cabaret de Luxe, in which a jazz band creates the melody. Other acts on the bill.

Max Field continues to make 'em laugh in "Sweet Sweetie Girls" at the Park this week. The costumes are good.

SACRIFICE HIS CURLS. Would you cut off your curls to play in the movies?

That is the question Lawrence Johnson, 4½ years old, had to solve when he was offered the role of Derek Johnson in "His House in Order," but was informed by the director that Derek did not wear curls and that curls could not be allowed in the movie.

The next day the youngster returned to the studio with his hair neatly bobbed. Lawrence is one of the actors who aids Miss Elsie Ferguson in "His House in Order." It is by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero.

TODAY'S MOVIES

ALHAMBRA—Elsie Ferguson in "His House in Order."
ISIS—Bryant Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars."

COLONIAL—Mary Miles Minter in "Judy of Rogue's Harbor."
REGENCY—Harry Carey in "The Rider of the Law."
OHIO—Florence Billings in "Wit Wins."

Holmes E. Herbert and Vernon Steel are also in the cast. To be seen at the Alhambra today and for the rest of the week.

THE ISIS. Bryant Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars" opened a three-day engagement at the Isis today.

This is a comedy built around a set of society people who make a pretentious effort to keep their cellars full of that stuff prohibited by law. One's society position in this movie is measured by the number of bottles in a man's cellar.

This picture has been reviewed in this space before and was recommended as good comedy.

MR. SMITH'S. The life of a chorus girl is not a life of lobster feeds, big motors and fine clothes.

The real side of many a show girl is shown by Constance Talmadge in "Two Weeks."

Constance Talmadge and her two chums are of the chorus and half the time out of work. Unconventional, but too strict to overstep the boundaries, they are invited to few dinners, and do their own cooking in a tiny flat which they also keep in order themselves. It is a dull old drab existence, the three often counting the change to find if they

THE CIRCLE. How good is your memory? Can you recollect when our mothers used to grind the morning's coffee in the old wooden mill on the kitchen table?

Director Wallace Worsley had to find such a coffee grinder for the mountain home in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," now at the Circle.

After several heated arguments Director Worsley drove away early one afternoon, returning the next morning with an antiquated coffee mill of the vintage of 1800, which he found in a hermit's cabin in the hills near Los Angeles. Part of the Wooden case had rotted away, but the drop shop soon made it as good as new, and it now forms an important piece of atmosphere in the picture.

COLONIAL. Mary Miles Minter remains at the Colonial in "Judy of Rogue's Harbor."

Grace Miller White is also in the Minter cast. Included in the bill is a Staub Pollard comedy, "Fresh Paint," and a Prisma subject, "Big Guns of the Navy." Also special music.

REGENCY. Harry Carey continues at the Regent in "The Rider of the Law." It is a story of the west. Gloria Hope plays opposite Carey. A comedy is also on the bill.

Taffeta Frocks Typify Spring

In Newness of Style and Youthfulness of Line

They're Lovely

Spring isn't spring in one's consciousness if one hasn't a taffeta or silk frock of some kind in which to bud about.

And these new frocks are so typical of spring that one fairly catches fragrance from the dainty little blossoms that adorn certain of the models, or absorbs the buoyancy that other chic styles have to impart.

Navy blue, tan, brown, taupe, gray and black are the color tones one has to choose from.
