

EDS COUNTY
HIGHWAY WORKContractors Called Up by Board Members.

The county commissioners today personally served notice upon the firms holding contracts for the improving of county roads, that they will be expected to proceed with the work as soon as possible and live up to the provisions of the contracts.

More than seventeen contractors were called before the commissioners to state how able they were to carry out promptly the improving of the roads.

Several of the contractors declared work had been delayed both by the shortage of labor as well as the inability to get cars for shipment of materials.

Most of the contractors assured the board they were ready to start road work within the next two weeks.

The commissioners announced that work has been contracted on the following roads: The Allen, Becker, Bosson, Caldwell, Christian, Deford, Eshoff, Fanver, Flaherty, Harting, Howard, Heine, Lee, McAlpin, March, Starkey, Spann and the Wachteter road.

Commissioner Carlin Shank told the contractors the board meant "try to speed up the work."

"We are going to do it," said Commissioner Joseph Hayes.

Department Club
Honors Mrs. Perkins

MRS. SAMUEL E. PERKINS.
The Woman's Department club of Indianapolis, one of the largest organizations of women in the city, has honored Mrs. Samuel E. Perkins by re-electing her president.

Mrs. Perkins is one of the founders of the Department club, which was organized in 1912. It is composed of members of various women's clubs of the city, and is subdivided into different sections, each section having a separate line of endeavor. The club aims to promote interest among women in music, art, home economics, philosophy, psychology, drama, literature and civic affairs.

Mrs. Perkins at all times has been unwavering in her loyalty and interest in the Department club. She is affiliated with various organizations of the city, one of her most original clubs being the Study club, which she organized twenty-one years ago, personally conducting it at her own home each Tuesday morning. It was the only woman's organization allowed to do so, and only six organizations of any kind were allowed to do work there. The council did not do any work during the war.

The officers for the coming season of the club are Mrs. Perkins, president; Mrs. J. F. Barnhill, second vice-president; Mrs. E. F. Fisher, recording secretary; Mrs. Josephine Bradley Smith, membership secretary; Mrs. Edward Ferger, treasurer; Mrs. H. B. Burnett, Mrs. R. A. Foster and Mrs. F. W. Crist, directors. Terms of the other officers have not expired.

INTRODUCES VATICAN BILL.

PARIS, March 12.—Deputy Reibel, in the name of the government, has introduced a bill in the chamber of deputies providing for re-establishment of relations between France and the Vatican.

JEWISH COUNCIL TO LAUNCH DRIVE

"Americanization" is the slogan of the Council of Jewish Women in their drive for funds.

During the war this organization gave invaluable service on Ellis Island for immigrants who could not come into the United States nor return to their homes. It was the only woman's organization allowed to do so, and only six organizations of any kind were allowed to do work there. The council did not do any work during the war.

The council met this morning and developed the plans for the drive. Mrs. Louis Wolfe is president of the Indianapolis chapter and Mrs. Hahn is vice-president.

Women will also be sent broadcast to promote relief work. This requires money. So great a drive is on among the Jewish people of the country. The national minimum quota is $100,000 and the local quota is $10,000.

The Indianapolis chapter of the Jewish council met this morning and developed the plans for the drive. Mrs. Louis Wolfe is president of the Indianapolis chapter and Mrs. Hahn is vice-president.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, 433 Kaukauna place. His mother died before he was 2 years old, and at that time it was thought he would be a mute. When his mother became ill, one desire was to live long enough to hear Jimmy speak. This hope was granted for shortly before death called him. Jimmy was able to say "Dad."

He became the constant companion of his father. They were never separated, except when his father was at work. In the evenings before Jimmy's bedtime his father would sit for hours entertaining him with a guitar or phonograph. Jimmy misses this now and often says, "Dad, daddy was here to play music to me."

Jimmy's father had one desire—to educate him. He lived to see Jimmy start to school. He often declared the boy would get a better education than he had obtained, and this will be realized when preparations are now under way to make a cleanup in Indiana.

Those arrested probably will be turned over to military officials for trial, as the penalty for evading conscription under the federal statutes limits imprisonment to a year and a day, whereas the military court-martials can fix a much heavier penalty.

FUND FOR LITTLE
JIMMY NOW $1,800

The fund for Jimmy Sullivan, frail, brown-eyed boy, not yet 7, who's father lost his life while trying to rescue two colored boys from drowning, has reached more than $1,800, it was reported today.

Jimmy lives with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, 433 Kaukauna place. His mother died before he was 2 years old, and at that time it was thought he would be a mute. When his mother became ill, one desire was to live long enough to hear Jimmy speak. This hope was granted for shortly before death called him. Jimmy was able to say "Dad."

Tells How You May Also Have OneMISS DOROTHY DALTON.
New York: When Miss Dorothy Dalton, the beautiful stage star, who was selected for the leading role in that mammoth New York production, "Aphrodite," was questioned as to the secret of her phenomenal success, she unhesitatingly said, "A complexion." When asked for further details, she explained: "Every one of my friends always raved about the texture and coloring of my skin. I have no doubt but that the first engagement I ever made possible through the reputation I had acquired for a beautiful complexion. Managers are like other men, they like a woman with a beautiful skin as much as any one, and in selecting their casts they naturally prefer those whose complexions are attractive. I think the best asset my girl or woman has is a perfect skin and complexion. It is easy to have this if one will spend only a little time in taking care of the skin. A girl may have the most beautiful complexion, but if she is not using the right cream, she will not have a beautiful complexion.
