

PASSPORTS GO FAST IN TEXAS

Matamoros, Mex., Oasis for Law-Routed Thirsty.

MATAMOROS, Mexico, March 12.—Matamoros has become the mecca of thirsty Texans.

For tourists and natives are crossing the Rio Grande from Brownsville to distinguish their sun-dried thirst. American bartenders and bills of fare make it easy for the visitors.

"Klondike" and "blackjack" games are running. Dice rattle. Two roulette wheels spin constantly. The tables totter beneath coin left by travelers who "knew how to beat the game."

It's a great life. Knights of the grip slip from the water wagon. Then they toddle out to be flattered to the United States. Many a telegram is sent from Brownsville for money.

Brownsville persons, envious of the "trade" going to Mexico, have made attempts, under cover, to "compete." Several such enterprises have been stopped. And the consulates are still kept busy passing out passports at $2.50 per.

Senator's Son-in-Law Held After Shooting

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., March 12.—Gustaf Nelson, son-in-law of United States Senator Knute Nelson, is in jail here pending an inquest to fix responsibility for the death of Joseph Middleton, a farmer who was shot yesterday during a quarrel with Nelson. The latter said that the shooting was an accident.

Promises to Beat His Better Half

SPOKANE, March 12.—"If she tries to get drunk again before 4 o'clock this afternoon, I'll beat her, Judge, I will," said John Timothy, Indian. "In that case," replied his honor, "I'll let Mary go." Timothy took Mary, his wife, home. Lemon extract brought her to the bar of justice.

Credit Men to Honor National President

Curtis R. Burnett, president of the National Association of Credit Men, will be given a royal welcome by Indianapolis business men when he comes Tuesday. He is scheduled to reach here in the afternoon and will immediately be taken on a tour of the city. At 6:30 a monster dinner will be given in his honor at the Hotel Severin.

E. G. Holmes, president of the local credit body, has announced the following reception committee: C. P. Lesh, Walter C. Marmon, L. C. Huesman, Henry Ebel, A. M. Glossbrenner, E. W. Springer, Fred Hoke, H. U. Brown, A. B. Baxter, W. D. Oakes, J. K. Lilly, Merle Sidener, A. B. Caldwell, A. Kelfer Mayer, Franklin Vonnegut, James W. Lilly, V. C. Kendall, Fred C. Gardner, Oliver Endley, S. B. Sutphin, E. W. Steinhart, F. F. Chandler, A. P. Stephenson, R. P. Oblinger, A. D. Johnson, Riley Adams, J. A. Thompson, Frank C. Hall, William J. Griffin, William Kothe, J. C. Perry, Bernard O'Connor, H. E. Heine, William J. Mooney, C. E. Sullivan, Elmer W. Stout, Dick Miller, E. J. Carter, C. N. Angst, E. E. Stafford, Harry B. Wilson, Robert McGill and Frank S. Fishback.

Jenkins Would Give Up U. S. for Mexico

MEXICO CITY, March 12.—William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, who was arrested on a charge of conspiring with rebels for his own abduction, has sent a communication to the department of agriculture, offering to renounce his American citizenship and become a resident of Mexico, in return for

This Lil' Jonah Came to Grief

LONDON, March 12.—Miss Mary Watson told the hospital physicians she swallowed a mouse. "It ran along the pillow and into my mouth," said she. "I always sleep with my mouth open." She lives. The mouse doesn't.

Man on Wire Tells Wilson 'Ring Off'

WASHINGTON, March 12.—President Wilson, solicitor for the health of Col. C. S. Ridley, superintendent of public buildings and grounds, called Walter Reed hospital, where Col. Ridley is ill, on the telephone. "I would like to inquire about the condition of Col. Ridley," said the president to an orderly who answered the telephone. "Who is inquiring?" asked the orderly. "Mr. Wilson," was the response. "What Mr. Wilson?" asked the orderly. "The president," was the reply. "Ring off and quit kiddin' me; I'm busy," snapped the orderly, slamming down the receiver. What happened to the orderly is shadowed in mystery.

a water right concession on the Tequisqui river in the state of Tlaxcala, it was announced today.

The offer is based upon Article 27 of the Mexican constitution. Jenkins is said to plan to use the water power for a hydro-electric plant to operate his cotton mill near Puebla.

Calls Taxi; Finds It's Bandit's Car

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—T. D. Bakewell, prominent member of the Bohemian club, is out $100 as the result of hailing what he thought was a passing taxicab, but which later proved to be the automobile of two holdup men. Bakewell, according to his report to the police, left the club late at night and walked to Bush and Taylor streets. He saw an automobile approaching and thought it was a taxi. He called to the driver, who stopped. Bakewell told the chauffeur to take him to a certain address and the driver replied, "Hop in." Bakewell followed instructions and after riding a block or two another man on the front seat drew a revolver and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Electric Rail Body Elects Todd Head

Robert I. Todd, president of the Indianapolis Street Railway company and the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Electric Railway company, today holds additional honors in recognition of his services in electric railway management. At Louisville yesterday he was elected president of the Central Electric association at the organization's annual convention. The association includes representatives from all electric lines in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky and Michigan.

Mr. Todd has been identified with the Indianapolis street car system since 1906. When he came here that year he was made vice president and general manager of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company. He succeeded to the presidency of the company in 1911, when Hugh J. McGowan died.

REBELLION IN STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" at once ends Indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapiesin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs so little at drug stores.—Advertisement.

The Delayed Shipment of MARCH VICTOR RECORDS Has Just Arrived and Is NOW ON SALE

Behind Your Silken Veil

THERE is jazz and jubilation of a new order in this Victor Dance Record hit for March. Every one who hears it is stricken suddenly with a new and mysterious malady called "syncopated feet"—each attack lasting as long as the record is played. The Yerkes Jazzarimba Orchestra is responsible for it—they drive your feet wild with jazz from the marimba, mixing in a few "indigo" chords from the saxophone and the fiddle and the bells and some secret devices all their own.

Ask to hear this record over the phone. Ask soon. A good thing does not long remain.

18636 Behind Your Silken Veil... Medley Fox Trot
85c Yerkes Jazzarimba Orchestra

18645 Was There Ever a Pal Like You
85c Henry Burr
You're a Million Miles From Nowhere. Charles Harrison

Two beautiful ballads, both written in a slow, reflective, waltz time. In the first Henry Burr brings out, in his clear, fine voice, just what every fellow knows—that his mother is his best, best pal. Charles Harrison is helped by a violin interlude to interpret the sorrow of a homeless wanderer. These are good songs, both artistically presented.

18644 You Know What I Mean
85c Al. Bernard
Bell Hop Blues Al. Bernard

Al. Bernard is the "Boy from Dixie" one of the finest blackface comedians of the day. These are his first recordings for Victor and he certainly puts them over. Show goes will remember "Bell Hop Blues" as sung by the McCarthy twins at the Murat last week.

18647 Mystery—Medley Fox Trot
85c Oh!—Medley Fox Trot
Paul Biese and His Novelty Orchestra

This "Mystery" is well named. It is a most surprising combination of everything musical—and the result is a novelty jazz dance number calculated to make you wonder how it is done and why you can not keep your feet planted in one spot. The saxophone is ghostly, the trombone is creepy, the tom-tom is scary. You are all at sea—but you can't help dancing just the same.

Sophie Braslau, Contralto

64845 My Jesus As Thou Wilt
$1 10-inch. Borthwick-Weber
Sophie Braslau, Contralto

This is one of the most beautiful hymns; nearly every one is familiar with the melody. The arrangement for the solo contralto voice brings out the full depth of tone beauty and feeling in Braslau's lower and middle registers. It is sung with a sureness and certainty and a sympathy withal that is the essence of the singer's art.

John McCormack, Tenor

64837 That Tumble-Down Shack In
$1 Athlone. Pascoe-Carlo-Sanders
John McCormack, Tenor

A timely and appropriate melody for the greatest of all the singers of Irish songs. It happens that Athlone is the birthplace of McCormack. The song has a pleasant, flowing melody ending with one of the McCormack tones—a beautiful, high, clear note sung mezzo voce. It is a real contribution to the singer's fame as the greatest ballad interpreter of modern times.
