

CHURCH PLANS TO CELEBRATE DEBT FREEDOM

North Park Congregation Will Burn Mortgage at Special Services.

PULPITS TO BE BUSY

A special service in celebration of the final payment of a mortgage on the North Park Christian church, Twenty-ninth and Kenwood streets, will be held tomorrow evening when the mortgage will be burned in public.

The program will include talks by R. A. Sommer, pastor of the First Baptist of the Congregation; Dr. B. H. Sellers on the "Ups and Downs of the Building Committee," and T. G. Lamb on the subject, "Cost and Present Value."

Rev. J. D. Garrison will give an outline of the status of the church and its activities. Rev. E. L. Day of Marion, Ind., pastor from 1910 to 1917, will speak on "My Story" at the North Park.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF DEDICATION

Sunday marks the tenth anniversary of the dedication of the church. The match will be applied to the mortgage by W. C. Garten, treasurer. Miss Ruth Sterling will offer two solos, and the North Park school will furnish music. Mr. Garrison will speak on "Creative Power of the Word of God at the morning services.

Homecoming day will be observed at the Christian Men Builders' club of the Central Christian church, Seventeenth street and Broadway, March 28. The new rooms of the club on the third floor of the community house will be opened on that date. Dedication exercises will be held beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

A mass meeting of all Christian Sunday schools in the city will be held Monday evening in the Central Christian church, Delaware and E. Wayne avenue, at 7:45 o'clock. An attendance of over 2,000 is expected at the meeting. Robert M. Hopkins of Cincinnati, general Bible school secretary of the American Christian Missions society, will address the meeting on "The Outlook in Religious Education." Mr. Hopkins recently returned from a tour of the Holy Land.

PLAN TO REMOVE CENTRAL CHURCH

Plans for remodeling the Central Christian church will be discussed at a meeting Sunday night, March 21. It was decided at a recent meeting of the official church board to place the matter before the congregation for an expression of opinion.

There will be a meeting of county campaign directors and directors of delegations taking part in the financial drive for the Interchurch World Movement next Friday at the Y. W. C. A. building, according to an announcement made by Frank J. Ressler, united financial campaign director of Indiana. The campaign, called on to raise funds for the movement will be held during the last week of April.
