

WHITE WOULD BOOST MINERS' WAGE 35 PCT.?

Minority Report of Coal Commission Submitted to President Wilson.

ASKS FOR SHORTER DAY

WASHINGTON, March 13.—John P. White's minority report on the award of President Wilson's coal commission was submitted to the president today.

The report, it is understood, recommends an increase of approximately 35 per cent to the miners and for a reduced working day.

White represented labor on the commission and his report is in protest against the wage increase of 25 per cent recommended by Commissioners Robinson and Peale.

White's strongest recommendations are for reduced working hours, and on this issue strong pressure will be brought to bear on the president.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, consulted with White in reviewing the report.

The full reports of the coal commission will not be made public until the president has had an opportunity to study them at length. It was announced at the Whitehouse. Publication is not expected before Tuesday.

CONDUCTOR CUT BY PASSENGER

Negro Accused of Using Knife in Quarrel Over Fare.

During an argument over a fare early today Floyd Seals, 31, conductor on a Columbia avenue street car, was stabbed. He is in a serious condition at the City hospital.

Rollie Coleman, negro, 2038 Columbia avenue, is charged with the stabbing. The wound is on the left side of Seals' abdomen.

Seals has been a conductor on the East Tenth street, Brightwood and Columbia avenue lines. He was instructing Clarence Donahue, 1013 North Olney street, a substitute conductor, today.

Seals pointed to Coleman and told Donahue that he had not collected his fare. Donahue asked Coleman for the fare.

An argument followed and witnesses declare that Coleman called Seals a vile name. The conductor pulled the bell rope at Martindale avenue and North street, and told Coleman that he would have to get off of the car. Coleman said he had paid his fare and that he would not get off of the car. Seals, it is said, started to put the negro off when he drew open knife and plunged it into the conductor's side.

Coleman attempted to escape but Seals held to his coat, the police were informed. Two colored men who witnessed the stabbing caught hold of Coleman and put him in the vestibule of the street car, detaining him until Patrolman Mosby reached the car.

NEW ORGAN WILL PEAL IN THANKS

First Church Evangelical Has Elaborate Program.

A service of thanksgiving and the dedication of an organ installed in honor of members of the First Church Evangelical association, New York and East streets, of which Rev. C. P. Mans is pastor, will be held tomorrow with an elaborate program.

The organ was designed and planned by Hope Leroy, Baltimore, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burglar 'Frosted' in Dr. Winter's House

When Dr. Carl G. Winter, 3769 Central avenue, returned home at 1:30 this morning he found a burglar had "fingerprinted" his front door. Every room in the house was ransacked, but Dr. Winter told the police nothing had been stolen as far as he knew.

Charles Joseph, 1824 Columbia avenue, told the police a robber had broken a side window of his home and $200 and two watches had been stolen.

C. A. Johnson, 528 Central court, south, reported his home had been ransacked and that jewelry worth $100 and quilts, bath rugs and sheets worth $60 were missing.

Dr. Thomas Beasley, 4459 College avenue, reported the theft from his automobile of an instrument case valued, with contents, at $125.

Gas Company Routed by Friday, Feb. 13

Authority to discontinue artificial gas service in Connersville March 31, was granted the Hydro-Electric Light and Heat Company of Connersville by the state public service commission today.

The company encountered a series of misfortune, beginning Friday, Feb. 13, which forced its plant out of operation. It attempted to discontinue gas service, but on complaints by citizens was ordered by the public service commission to resume the service.

A tractor was employed to furnish power. Cost of operation under that system was complained of by the company as prohibitory.

Consumers Back Up Power Rate Boost

Four consumers of power in Crawfordsville joined with the management of the municipally owned light and power plant of that city in requesting that rates be raised in a petition filed with the state public service commission yesterday.

The power patrons who joined the city in the petition were the Crawfordsville Wite and Nail Company, the Crawfordsville Shale Brick Company, the Standard Shale Brick Company and the Boston Paying Brick Company.

Under the present rate the factories get power as cheaply as $1.35 per kilowatt hour. The commission is asked to fix the minimum rate at $1.65 per kilowatt hour net.

Committee Members Hold Out for Bonus

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Prospects for the passage of a bond issue to meet the cost of granting service men a bonus are held to be more than a possibility by members of the house ways and means committee having soldiers' aid legislation in charge.

Some members of the committee say they must "be shown" that the country would be thrown into a panic or disaster by the issuance of bonds before they give up the idea.

Fact—the Wabash river's going up, too.

No booze, no arrests; no arrests, dusty courtroom. The city court of Wabash hasn't been used in six months.

Gail Hawkins completed a sixty-five-day stay in jail at Richmond yesterday morning. Last night he wanted to get out of town. He was caught after he had backed a police car out of the garage at headquarters. Gail has returned to his cell.

John Woods, Shelby county farmer, paid $130 in Mayor's court and has a thirty-day sentence hanging over his head as a result of a horse raid at his farm. Prohibition agents say they found five gallons of "moonshine."

Jerry Moore, Jr., of South Bend mistook another man's automobile for his own. He is charged with unlawful possession.

Isaac E. Doolittle of South Bend says his wife has joined a certain religious sect and since has refused to live with him. He wants a divorce.

Edna Ralston Crawford carried the weapon with which she killed herself in Muncie a week ago for the purpose of shooting Edward Roles, her sweetheart, the police say.

The administrator of the estate of Jacob Gassette of Noblesville, killed in a wreck on the Union traction line last June, settled with the company for $6,000. Cassette was one of three killed and twenty-three hurt. Since her husband's death a son has been born to Mrs. Cassette.

Raymond S. Eastburn, living east of Lafayette was instantly killed when the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a west bound Wabash passenger train. The accident happened at the Main street crossing in Buck Creek.

Oil Stove Demonstration at Hoosier Outfitting Co.

Mrs. Marie Brooks, a domestic service expert will demonstrate today and all next week the famous Red Star Detroit Vapor Oil Stove at the Hoosier Outfitting Company, 443-445 East Washington street.

Mrs. Brooks will show how easily women can use ordinary recipes with the same results as any gas range, and will bake everything that a gas range will bake.

According to Harry Lindstedt of the Hoosier Outfitting Company this stove is unique in that it is the only absolutely wickless stove on the market. Operates like gas stove, making its own gas from gasoline or coal oil and more economical and cheaper than gas; one and-half to two gallons of oil per week doing all the necessary work for the average family. The burners are made of annealed iron and guaranteed for five years, but will last from fifteen to twenty years without impairing the worth.

A stove nine years old will be shown during this demonstration that is as perfect as the day it left the factory.

Hoosier Outfitting Company are Marion county distributors.

TELLS AMERICA TO SHUN RUSSIA

Army Officer Points to Peril of Bolshevik Rule.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Civilization will crack and all the American soldier fought for will be sold "for thirty pieces of silver" if any compromise be made with the present government of Russia, Maj. Stanley Washburn of Minneapolis told members of the National Press club tonight. Maj. Washburn, who saw the Russian revolution, said the soviet government strikes a vital blow at "government by consent of the governed," the sacredness of marriage vows, right to own property and the teachings of religion.

"Any compromise with the present Russian government now for trade reasons which we hear so much about," Maj. Washburn asserted, "means that all that the civilized world fought for will be sold for 'thirty pieces of silver.' We will indeed arrive at the point where we have neither victory nor peace."

"The Russian industrial system has been destroyed. There now exists no form of income other than that paid by the state for prohibitive service to the state. Therefore, there will be no rent, no profits, no interest on capital and no wages in the sense of wages paid by one private individual to another. This has resulted in industrial slavery among the workers."

SEVERAL KILLED IN MEXICAN RIOT

Troops Charge Mob Attempting Jail Delivery.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 13.—Several workers were killed when a mob attempting to liberate three labor agitators from the state penitentiary at Pecos, Mexico, was charged by Caranista troops, it was learned from an official source here this afternoon.

The attack on the penitentiary followed a meeting at the Hidalgo theater, attended by several hundred clothing workers, which broke into cries of acclaim for "Free Russia" and the Bolshevik. Cries of "Down with the Mexican government" were also heard.

Black Lingerie Is With Us FILMY STUFF WITH GOLD AND SILVER TRIM

CHICAGO, March 13.—Black lingerie made its appearance along Chicago's fashion row today. A window display of the latest mode in women's "undies" proved a magnet to the window shoppers. Men elbowed women to get a "look." Here's what greeted their eyes: A black chemise, consisting of accordion pleated Georgette with a silver band top; a camisole, made of the finest black gauze with gold stars embroidered on it, and black bloomers—knee length pantaloons—and ankle length bloomers. "They are for travel and to wear under dark evening gowns," said Miss Florence Fowler, in charge of the display.

DELAY ARRESTS IN COAL PROBE

Capiases Will Take Several Days to Prepare.

No arrests will be made this week of the 125 operators and miners indicted by the federal grand jury Thursday. Capiases for the arrest of fifty-two Indiana men, said to have been included among those indicted, probably will be completed by Tuesday, when they will be turned over to Mark Storen, United States marshal, for service.

Indicted men living in Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania will be arrested by federal officials in their respective states. Copies of the indictment are being prepared to send to the district attorneys of these states and it will be several days before any arrests can be made outside of Indiana.

According to government officials, the trial of those indicted will not be held before next November, although they will be arraigned May 4, at which time Judge Anderson is expected to set the trial date. It is understood the bonds for operators will be set at $10,000 and for miners, $5,000.

Midnight Sons Get Into Society Column

CHATTANOOGA, March 13.—The "Midnight Sons" put their respective feet in it. The sons have been suspected of having a little moonshine on occasions. They held a blowout and their names were in the society columns of a newspaper here. "He, he," crows Attorney General G. W. Charles, now, "I wanted that list a long time. I wanna tell the grand jury about the 17' ole high lifters."

BOY NOT TO GET FIELD MILLIONS

Ruling Against Mother, Former London Chorus Girl.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Henry Anthony Marsh, the young son of the late Henry Field and Peggy Marsh, former London chorus girl, is not entitled to a share in the Marshall Field millions, according to a ruling handed down today by Superior Court Judge Sullivan.

Judge Sullivan denied a petition filed in behalf of the boy by his mother, asking that he be permitted to share in the millions left by the late Marshall Field to his grandsons and their children. The case largely centered around the court's interpretation of the phrase "lawful issue" contained in the Marshall Field will. In reaching his decision Judge Sullivan set forth:

"Henry Anthony Marsh is not in the class of persons who were contemplated by the testator (Marshall Field) as being one of the heirs to the estate, and is not such an issue of the grandson, Henry Field, as will be permitted to share in any part of the share of Henry Field under the terms of the will."

The $100,000 contract between Henry Field and Miss Marsh still exists, however, so that the boy and his mother will be provided for. The decision of Judge Sullivan thus leaves Capt. Marshall Field III and Gwendolyn Field sole heirs to the Field millions.

You Get What You Give

WHEN a business fails the financial statement reflects the conditions at that time, but the real reason for failure is seldom shown. In many cases the true reason is that the business performed no service which was necessary or useful to society generally.

Every individual must give a useful service if he is to prosper, for society will refuse to maintain him if he fails to be useful to society.

When we find a business which has been notably prosperous over a long period of years, we may be sure that it has won its position by performing a service useful and necessary.

That, in a word, explains the continued, ever-increasing success of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

This Company is included in the list of big business because the ideals of service which it holds and maintains are big.

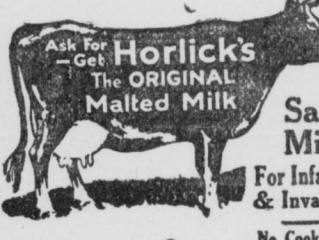

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is big because it recognizes the necessity of developing its sphere of usefulness to the highest degree and of maintaining this high standard in spite of every obstacle.

The success of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) proves that it is performing a useful service and that every link in its chain of achievements is delivering an added benefit to civilization and to you.

Service is the first consideration of this organization, for it knows that by increasing its service to the public its earnings will automatically grow, and all will profit by its activities.
