

ROB UNCLE SAM OF INCOME TAX

Seattle Collector's Office
Raided, $2,000 Stolen.

SEATTLE, March 16.—Two unmasked men held up R. E. Stafford, cashier in the federal revenue collector's office, in the federal building today, robbed the strong box of $2,000 in currency and escaped.

The money represented nearly all the cash returns from yesterday's and last night's final income tax collections for the Seattle district.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

Arrangements have been completed for the visit of Senator Warren G. Harding, candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency, to Indianapolis Thursday. Senator Harding will arrive at 11:15 o'clock Thursday morning and will go directly to the soldiers' and sailors' monument in response to an invitation of Col. Gran J. Perry, superintendent of the monument. Senator Harding will then go to the Columbia club, where he will speak following a luncheon in his honor. He will be introduced by Arthur R. Robinson. The following special reception committee has been appointed to greet Senator Harding: Judge A. R. Anderson, Frank D. Steinaker, Henry C. Atkins, Martin M. Jugg, Addison Miller, John B. Cockrum, Judge David A. Myers, A. M. Glosbrenner, George V. Coffin, Ward H. Watson, Hifton U. Brown, Mayor Charles W. Fetter, Ernest Brass, Michael J. Jefferson, Frank M. Smith and Vernon W. Van Fleet, state campaign manager for the senator.

Henry Roberts of Greenfield, formerly progressive chairman of the Sixth district, has been named assistant manager of the campaign of Hiram Johnson in Indiana. He will assist Zell C. Swain of Middleton, the state manager.

The following straw vote was taken in the dining room of the Board of Trade building:

Republican Presidential—Wood, 60; Lowden, 38; Johnson, 5; Harding, 3, and Hoover, 1. Democratic—Marshall, 6; McClellan, 6, and Edwards, 6.

Republican Governorship—McCrag, 67; Fetter, 32, and Toner, 1. Democratic—McCulloch, 12, and Risk, 1.

BEG PARDON

Sort of an Apology to Long-Haired Men.

NEW YORK, March 16.—We've always thought the long-haired ginks, musicians, poets, missing links, were balmy in the head. We always grinned at frowny heads as they appear on having heads that we have sometimes seen.

But since we lamped a piece of news—it makes us sad, gives us the blues—we've changed our mind about 'em. Those long-haired men were right all right and must have used some good foresight. We never again will frown 'em. For just today to our surprise the following lines came to our eyes. "Hair cuts will cost a dollar." We'll grow long hair, just like a bear; no longer will we holler.

Brother, on Way to Funeral, Killed

BOONE, Ia., March 16.—Peter Peterson of Gracetrider was struck and killed by a train while going to a florist's to buy flowers for the funeral of his brother, A. G. Peterson, who died at his home in Boone.

High Elks Coming to Help Celebrate

FRED C. ROBINSON.

Indianapolis Elks are preparing for one of the most noteworthy gatherings of high officers of the national order of Elks in history here for next Sunday night.

The occasion will be the celebration of the thirty-ninth anniversary of local Lodge 13. A monster banquet, at which at least six hundred are expected, will open the festivities.

Among the notable guests will be Frank L. Rain of Nebraska, grand exalted ruler of the national organization. He will be asked to make an address.

JOHN K. TENNER, COMING, TOO.

Other guests will be John K. Tenner, national chairman, now president of the National Baseball league, and former governor of Pennsylvania; Joseph T. Fanning of New York, formerly of Indianapolis; James R. Nicholson of Massachusetts; Edward Righter of Louisiana; Fred Harper of Virginia, and Bruce Campbell of Illinois, all past grand exalted rulers, who form the Elks' War Relief commission; Mayor John Galvin of Cincinnati; John P. Sullivan of New Orleans; Lloyd R. Maxwell of Chicago, and Fred C. Robinson of Dubuque, Ia., national secretary.

The banquet and meeting will be held in the Riley room of the Claypool hotel. Mayor Charles W. Fetter will make the welcome address. Reservations are being rapidly made.

LOCAL LODGE ONE OF LEADERS.

With a membership of 3,200 the local lodge is recognized as one of the largest in the country for a city the size of Indianapolis. The members point with pride at the many charitable and civic endeavors carried out by the lodge, and look for even greater things in the coming year.

Plans are under way for the erecting of a fine new clubhouse, bids for which will be closed in a few days. The building will face University park from Vermont street.

Postpone Mustard Murder Trial 10 Days

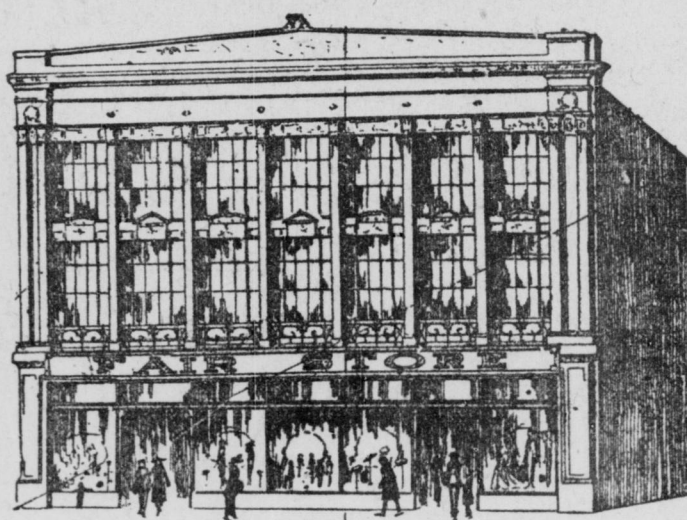

MARKESAN, Wis., March 16.—The preliminary hearing of Dr. John A. Freudenberger, charged with the murder Nov. 1 last, of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Duffies, by injecting a solution of liquid mustard, has been postponed to March 25 to enable more time for the experts to report on analysis of the stomach of Alfred Duffies, the woman's husband, who died suddenly three years ago.
