Wizard Products

Wizard Furniture and Floor Polish

This is made for the finest varnish finishes. Fine enough to use on the piano—cheap enough to use on floors.

Four-ounce size, 25¢ | One quart, $1.00
Twelve-ounce size, 50¢ | One-half gallon, $1.75

Wizard Liquid Wax

This is especially adapted for use on pianos, Victrolas, furniture, woodwork, automobiles, etc.

Eight-ounce size, 50¢. Sixteen-ounce size, 75¢. Thirty-two-ounce size, $1.40.

Wizard Wax (Paste Form)

Is especially adapted for polishing floors, linoleum, tile, etc. The only difference between Wizard wax paste and Wizard liquid wax is that one is liquid and the other is in solid form.

5½-ounce size, 35¢. One pint, 75¢. One quart, $1.00.

Special for Thursday

One Wizard triangle polish mop and one bottle of Wizard polish for $1.34. —Ayres—Basement.

Sanitas Luncheon Sets

Sanitas luncheon sets, rounds and squares, seem to be addicted to a changing of patterns and colorings with each shipment. The new spring designs are more delightful than ever, even to their variety of shapes.

For the breakfast, for the luncheon, for use on the brightly painted table, you will find no service of small expense so utterly artistic and practical.

Thirteen-piece sets, in blue and white, $1.59.

Five-piece sets, oval dollies and round centerpieces; black, green and coral decorations, $1.89.

Five-piece sets in green, orange and blue, $1.69.

Seven-piece sets, to serve six persons, consist of a six-sided centerpiece and six six-sided rectangular dollies; different colorings, $2.50.

Five-piece sets, in round and rectangular types; simple, colorful designs, $1.75.

Seven-piece oval-shaped sets, $2.50.

$1.50, $1.59, $1.69, $1.75, $1.89, $1.95, $2.25 and $2.50

Full Covers, Round and Square

Forty-eight-inch diameter rounds, prettily decorated, $3.25.

Fifty-four-inch rounds and squares, $2.95 and $3.39.

In Which a Pretty Hat Presents Itself at $5

It isn't milady of chic to wear an unbecoming hat on spring days of uncertain weather—mostly rain—any more than it is milady of care to risk her more costly bonnets. Women of both traits need do neither in view of the fact that pretty, trim, stylish hats may be bought for as little as $5.00.

Evidence is abundant in the Ayres Millinery section, where tricornes, rolled sailors, high-front effects and a variety of other types are represented in striking assortments.

Straw and fabric combinations are balanced by models of all straw; in colors of black, brown, navy blue and Copenhagen blue. These are hats of true chic.

Airy New CURTAINS

Will Refresh Your Home for Spring

And these, we are offering, are especially attractive in price. Of course, the curtains themselves, in their immaculate whiteness and creamy ecru, were tempting at regular prices.

Marquessette curtains in ecru tone, neatly hemstitched. Special, $2.50 the pair.

Plain flit lace curtains with lace edges. In white, special, $2.50 the pair.

Cable-net lace curtains, double strength, with lock stitch edges; very dainty patterns. White only. Special, $3.95 the pair.

A Ready-to-Wear Selling Event

Offering Values That Can Not Be Exaggerated

For these unquestionably stylish—variously stylish—well-made garments of fine quality fabrics, we, of course, paid a small price; and at that we were able to get them after exerting our buying power to its final strength.

But the price we are placing upon these splendid garments is really most extraordinary. Our margin of profit is negligible, very particularly on the coats and suits. Now, let your eyes drop to the price!

Nearly Two Hundred $35.00
Garments in All

COATS

Beautiful spring coats at $35.00! Is it not remarkable, unbelievable? But here they are—and the most closely-marked of all the garments.

Deep, soft, light weight fine Bolivia, full length, unusually smart styles, finely finished with embroidered arrowheads; lined throughout with soft printed satin.

Camelshair and polo cloth coats, long, three-quarter and sports lengths, in several chic modes, some belted. Also lined with pretty, durable silks and satins.

Colors are tans, green, brown and odd, attractive shades of blue.

Surely, if you have not a spring coat, you can not afford to miss this sale—but come early; a few more than fifty such coats won't last long.

SUITS

Tricotines and Poiret twills, the very best in point of style that a woman can wear this season, and a mighty good quality, too. And these at $35.00!

Navy blue and black, ripple-tail models, semi-fitted, straight-line effects, panel-back styles; these and others, trimmed with braid, tuckings, embroidered arrowheads, applied / self-folds, bone buttons. Also novelty checks, blue and black, blue and brown, taupe and brown, black and white. All suits are silk lined in fancy printings. Great bargains, indeed!

FROCKS

Silk and wool, which, to be exact, covers tricolette, kitten's ear satin, beaded Georgette, taffeta and tricotine in navy blue. Another $35.00 item that offers positive opportunity to Indianapolis women.

Their styles are so various that to list them would be going over an abridged dictionary of the whole spring offerings of frock styles. Hardly less.

The navy blue tricotines, besides being in straight line, simple effects are obtainable also in the youthful Eton modification.

The silk, printed and in navy or Pekin blue, taupe and black, are in bouffant and distended hips, fashionably draped effects, straight line with short skirts and short sleeves.
