

RAIL CHANGES FEW IN INDIANA

Reorganization Nearly Ended
After Return to Owners.

Reorganization of most of the railroads operating in Indiana has been perfected since the return of the roads to private ownership.

The stockholders of the Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville railroad have elected their old directors. They are: E. Anderson, New York; Guy Cary, New York; Warren Delano, New York; Fairfax Harrison, Washington, D. C.; E. J. Iselin, New York; H. R. Kurrle, Chicago, president; R. H. McCormick, Chicago; Samuel T. Murdock, Indianapolis; Henry Walters, New York; John I. Waterbury, New York, and F. S. Wynn, New York, secretary.

Reorganization of the operating department of the road probably will be effected in the near future, according to F. E. Humston, general passenger and freight agent.

FEW CHANGES
C. I. & W.
Few changes have been made in the department heads of the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western railroad, according to B. A. Worthington, president of the road. The following appointments have been made:

Heard About This? Reds Take Alaska!

PARIS, March 19.—The Temps today quotes a Russian bolshevik radio dispatch, issued since the Berlin coup, as saying in connection with propaganda of the bolsheviks in Alaska: "It is announced that the population of Alaska is seeking to separate from the United States and organize a soviet government."

eral passenger agent for the Big Four railroad in Indianapolis. His appointment dates from March 15.

R. E. Norris was named assistant general freight agent of the Lake Erie & Western railroad in Indianapolis. He succeeds L. E. Oliphant, who has become a member of the auxiliary working committee of the Central Freight association.

TO BE SOLD AT RECEIVER'S SALE.

The Evansville & Indianapolis railroad has not passed into the control of the Big Four railroad, according to W. F. Kappes, receiver for the road. He said it would continue operation under his direction until sold at a receiver's sale.

The Southern Railway Company has opened passenger and freight offices at 207 Merchants Bank building. J. W. Flannery is local commercial agent; W. H. Saunders is freight traffic representative, E. E. DeBurger is chief clerk, and C. F. Bigelow is district passenger agent.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barton

THE HONEY BEAR.

THE NEXT THING the twins saw in Topsy-Turvy Land was a bear. "Woof, woof!" he growled when he saw the children. "Do come and help me fill my little tin bucket. I'm nearly starved to death!" "Starved!" exclaimed Nick. "Why we just saw one of your dinners a minute ago, a sly old weasel chasing chickens."

"I don't care a spenny-bit for weasels," said the bear crossly, "nor for anything but honey. I'm hunting honey, I am, and it's mighty hard to get."

"I don't believe there are any bees in Topsy-Turvy Land," said Nancy. "At least we haven't seen any, but perhaps the Magical Mushroom can

"No, no!" he screamed. "If there's anything that can make a bear's life miserable, it's bees." But before she could ask the Mushroom, the bear dropped his bucket and held up his hands—paws, I mean—in horror. "No, no, no!"

DOUBTS HIS CAR HIT OTHER AUTO

Woman Seriously Hurt When Machine Turns Turtle.

"I don't think I hit them." Such was Crawford Penney's explanation to Mounted Patrolman George Strickler after an accident on the Pendleton pike, northeast of the city, late yesterday.

Mrs. Ernest Newhouse, who was riding to Indianapolis with her husband in a small automobile, was seriously hurt. They claim Penney's test car sideswiped their machine and it turned over three times.

Penney is under arrest, charged with assault and battery and violating the speed law.

Penney's machine also turned over. The machines were both headed for the city. Penney, it is claimed, was about to pass the Newhouse car.

Penney lives at 444 North Rural street. He has driven a test car for many years, and is employed by the Premier. Newhouse is an insurance man.

he screamed. "Don't mention bees! If there's anything that can make a bear's life miserable, it's bees. I just came to this place to be rid of them."

"Excuse me!" said Nancy. "I thought you wanted honey."

"Honey! I do want honey, but I don't want bees. Can't you see the difference? I'm trying to get the honey out of the flowers myself, but my tongue won't reach. What are those things on your feet?"

The twins looked down proudly at their Green Shoes. "Oh, those are the magical shoes the Fairy Queen sent us, so we can hunt our monkey that ran away," they explained. "They are taking us on adventures. We can get big or little, and go anywhere we like."

"Anywhere you like!" Suddenly the bear had an idea. "I wonder," said the old fellow. "If your little Green Shoes would fit me." And he sat down on a big stone and stuck out his foot.

Whether they did or not you shall hear tomorrow.—Copyright, 1920, N. E. A.

TURKS RISING AGAINST ALLIES

Opposition Spreads Throughout Asia Minor.

LONDON, March 19.—Turkish nationalist opposition to the allies is spreading throughout Asia Minor, according to reports from Constantinople today. Bands of Turkish nationalist troops have cut telegraph wires leading from Constantinople.

The war office announces the British and other allied troops now occupying Constantinople have arrested thirty Turkish military and political leaders. Among the prisoners are Esad Pasha, one of the main chiefs of the nationalist (anti-allied) party, and Mohammed Pasha, former Turkish war minister.
