CHURCH PLANS SCHOOL ANNEX

Central Christian Congregation Wants $100,000 Fund.

Plans for a campaign for funds amounting to more than $100,000, for erecting an educational building in connection with the Central Christian church at Delaware and Walnut streets, are being prepared, according to an announcement by Rev. Allan P. Philpott, pastor, today.

The proposed extension was thoroughly discussed by the congregation at a meeting last night, and on motion of Rev. Philpott it was recommended to the board of directors that an educational building be constructed on a lot just north of the church for the purpose of carrying on Sunday school and other church work.

TO BE INCLUDED.

The building as planned will also include a gymnasium and other recreational features. It is included in what is known as the first unit in a building program of the church. The second unit will include the erection of a new church near the present site and it is planned to use the educational building for church purposes when the second unit is consummated.

MATERIAL PRICES TO CUT FURTHER.

It is planned to carry out the building program step by step and it probably will be some time before the work of building the new church is started. The ever changing market of building materials is expected to have a decided effect on the building plans.

There has been a crying need for the educational building for some time, according to Rev. Philpott. Especially is this true as regards the Sunday school classes which are now crowded to capacity. Yesterday there was a total attendance of 325 in the Sunday school classes.

SAYS MILLIONS PUT ON WOOD

New York World Gives Names and Figures in Article.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The New York World today publishes a long article claiming that the presidential boom of Gen. Leonard Wood is "underwritten" by a number of millionaire republicans. Here are some of the World's statements:

"Dan Hanna of Cleveland was initial promoter of the Wood boom and undertook to raise a $1,000,000 fund. John T. King raised and disbursed $101,000. The fund was to have been $1,000,000 made up of contributions of ten men of $100,000 each."

The World claims to have possession of information showing that the following men "participated in the underwriting of the syndicate."

Edward L. Doherty, president of the Mexican Petroleum Company, and officer and director in other oil companies, railroads and banks.

A. S. Sprague, head of the largest wholesale grocery house in Chicago, and director in many corporations.

Labor Party Sets Convention July 4

WASHINGTON, March 22.—"The labor party will hold a national convention in Chicago July 4 to declare its independence of the old parties, and the automatic clique that runs the A. F. of L." William Kohr, a member of the executive committee and head of the New York City branch of the party, announced here today.

Candidates for president and vice president will be nominated.

GERARD DEPLORES DEFEAT OF TREATY

Says It Means Renewal of 'Old Game of Conquest.'

NEW YORK, March 22.—James W. Gerard, former American ambassador to Germany, believes that defeat of the league of nations covenant by the United States senate will result in renewal of the "old game of conquest, war and revolution."

Gerard was asked by the United Press to comment on the effect in Europe of the defeat of the covenant and peace treaty.

In a telegram from Palm Beach, Fla., he said:

"When President Wilson went to France there was a gleam of hope for the poor, the humble people of the world—those who were the cannon fodder and the victims of the war. Now that, through the jealousy of his enemies the league has failed—the league that was to bring peace and realization of the dreams of the ages—despair will settle on the peoples of Europe, particularly the old central empire, and with the failure of America to help the world to a new diplomacy, the old game of conquest, war and revolution will begin once more and both militarists and bolsheviks will live their heads."

A comparison of our prices with the downtown stores will convince you that buying here means a genuine saving.

Aged Couple Killed in Anderson Fire

Special to The Times. ANDERSON, Ind., March 22.—William Swanson, 78, and his wife, Clara, 70, are dead today from suffocation.

The aged couple was trapped in an upstairs room at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hanger when fire broke out early Sunday morning.

Efforts to rescue them failed until the fire department arrived. A pulmotor and lungmotor was used on both.

The fire broke out near the roof, supposedly from sparks. Indications were that the aged people had been aroused and tried to dress before leaving the room. The house was partially destroyed.

Final Big Meeting Largely Attended

The year's program of the Y. M. C. A. men's big meetings closed yesterday when more than 1,000 attended the sixteenth session at the English opera house, where they were entertained by Tom Skeyhill, Australian soldier.

Twenty-three thousand people attended the various men's big meetings during the winter.

The boys' big meeting at the Y. M. C. A. was addressed Sunday by A. E. Rasmussen, who spent seven years in missionary work in India.
