Permit to Improve
Renck Road Denied

Trustees of Union township, White county, will not be permitted to improve the Renck road at a cost of $100,000 unless it is shown the improvement will be of benefit outside the town of Monticello, it was announced by the state tax board today. A petition for the improvement was denied yesterday.

The petition of the Allen county Victory hall board of managers for a bond issue of $950,000 to assist in the building

Strike Gas 6 Feet Down; It's Main

PITTSBURG, March 23.—Gas well drillers struck a flow of 2,000,000 feet after drilling only six feet at Swissvale. They were overjoyed until it was discovered a gas company main had been pierced.

Club Hancock thinks they ought to find some use for table markers and churchs during the week days.

DUEL CAUSED BY DANCE.

BENTON, Ill., March 23.—Everett Beyers was shot and killed by Roy Hudson, who was dancing at Royallton. Beyers is said to have started a disturbance with Hudson about Miss Marie McCollom, with whom both seemed infatuated.

Eddie Cantor in Emerson song hits
"tickles" H. R. H.

THE evening of November 20th was "Prince of Wales" night at the Ziegfeld Follies. Incidentally, it was "Emerson Records" night. For the exclusive Emerson Artist, Eddie Cantor, star of the Follies, made the Prince roar with his big song hits, "You Don't Need the Wine to Have a Wonderful Time" and "You're Be Surprised."

If the Prince's actions were a criterion, he needed no wine to have a wonderful time. Edward Albert's hearty endorsement of the exclusive Emerson star was no surprise to the thousands who have seen Eddie Cantor at the Follies and heard him on Emerson Records.

When he's not engaged in making "princes" laugh, Eddie Cantor is singing his sparkling hits exclusively for Emerson 10-inch Records—and putting into them the same dash and zip which won the royal heart at the Ziegfeld Follies.

Hear these exclusive Emerson-Eddie Cantor song hits played on the Sonora. They made such a hit with the Prince of Wales that after the show he asked Mr. Ziegfeld for the records.
