

TALK BUSINESS
OF DRY GOODSIndiana Dealers Open Spring Session Tonight.Dry goods men of Indiana will discuss every phase of their business in the annual spring meeting, which opens tonight at the Claypool hotel and continues all day tomorrow.More than 150 members of the Indiana Retail Dry Goods association are expected to be present.Tonight a smoker will be held in the palm room of the Claypool and a motion picture will be shown, depicting the manner in which checks and drafts are forged.Tomorrow morning Stanley Wyckoff, federal fair price commissioner for Indiana, will talk to members, and G. A.
Efraymson of H. P. Wasson & Co., and V. C. Kendall of L. S. Ayres & Co., will speak. A discussion on the subject of arbitrary increases in prices of goods by manufacturers and jobbers after orders have been placed will be led by W. W.
Hammond, of the firm of Jones, Hammond & Jones.Luncheon will be served in the Florentine room and business discussions will be resumed tomorrow afternoon. F. A.
Turner of Crawfordsville is president and Lee B. Nusbaum of Richmond is secretary-treasurer of the association.Norwegians May Sell Us U. S. Goods

CHRISTIANIA, March 23.—American representatives are trying to purchase dry goods and wearing apparel brought from the United States from importers there for re-export to the United States, as the prices here are 50 per cent lower than now prevailing in America.

The suggested dollar haircut also suggests shorter haircuts and longer intervals.Where Is Gertrude and Also Anna Lee?

The police were asked today to search for Gertrude Sommers, 17, of 1130 West Thirteenth street. William Sommers, her father, told the police she disappeared yesterday, and that her suitcase filled with new clothing was found on the rear porch of his home.

Burrell Wright, an attorney, 1514 Merchants' Bank building, requested the police to find Anna Lee Arnott, who recently came to Indianapolis from Champaign, Ill. He said he wished to find the young woman so that he could complete the settlement of her father's estate.

"SYRUP OF FIGS"
CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from stomach, liver and bowels.

The ice on the lake
And the empty branches shake
In a landscape that is desolate and drear.
But despite the chill carelessness
Of the breeze as he undresses.
His ambition makes our hero persevere.
Jimmy Jones, he never falters Never for a moment alters His resolve to be the first to swim this year.

The Prince of Wales has started on a trip to Australia. It is a wager that he'll have no better time than he did in America.

The 15-year-old grandson of a New York millionaire, the boy's mother says, needs $7,500 annually for his support.
That is a poor crutch for a lad of his age.

Puglist Jess Willard has been secured to referee some Kansas boxing exhibitions. "The third man in the ring" will be comparatively safe.

It is to be hoped that when the former crown prince completed his boxing course, which he is taking in Holland, he will be matched with J. Dempsey.

The department of justice has fixed upon this week as a "Cheaper Meat Week." It sounds good and will be good if supported by fact.

The class in arithmetic will please pay attention: If an American dollar is worth but 47 cents, what is the purchasing power of a dollar?

Accept "the original" Syrup of Figs only —look for the name California on the label, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."—
