Mayor Welcomes Colored Orator

Roscoe Simmons, colored orator of Louisville, Ky., was welcomed by Mayor Charles W. Jewett when he appeared before the Crispus Attucks club, a colored organization, to deliver an address last night.

Mr. Simmons predicted a golden future for negroes.

"In spite of him, in spite of the blind and bitter agents of him, I stand with the American white man," he said.

"Today he can not see, but further on all things will be clearer to him," said Mr. Simmons.

Edward S. Gaillard, president of the club, presided.

Do You Watch Your Teeth?
We do not give the teeth credit for half the good they do, nor guess a fourth of the ills their neglect may cause. Recently a man's worst trouble was found to be due to toxins in the teeth.

It is certain if your teeth need attention your health is below normal. Just as sure as life depends upon food, just so sure health begins with the teeth. The X-Ray machine and moderate prices insure you a topnotch service here that will not fatten your purse.

The Rev. Roscoe Smith, 450 North State street, city, writes: "Com-mend me to the People's Dentists and their painless methods. After a painless visit I can do no more than help to free others of a needless dread by writing this."

Eddie Cantor signs exclusive Emerson contract!

The songs that Eddie Cantor sings go over with a smash—they fairly brim with zip and personality and dash. The two we list below are Eddie Cantor at his best; they're sung with all his sparkling spontaneity and zest.

Hear these Emerson song hits—sung by Eddie Cantor of the "Follies," on the Sonora. They will soon have the whole country by the ear. And while you're about it, hear the other Emerson numbers, too. You'll be glad you "listened in."
