

LAST NIGHT'S DREAMS —WHAT THEY MEAN—

Did you dream of milk?
To do so, say the mystics, is a general omen that a birth is soon to take place in your family.
To a young, unmarried man it means the love of a woman.
If a woman advanced in years has this dream it is a sign that she will come into the possession of much money.
As a rule, any dream in which milk appears is an omen of peace and prosperity and pleasant travels.
To dream of spilling milk is a sign that there is too much bickering in your family, for which you yourself are at least partly to blame.
To dream that you are milking a cow and the milk does not flow freely is a sign that something which is rightfully yours—money or property, probably—is being unjustly withheld, but that you will obtain it by holding to your purpose and refusing all offers of compromise.
If the milk flows freely from the cow's udders without any great effort on your part, it is an omen that good fortune awaits you.
To dream of drinking milk means success and also that you will make a long journey soon.
A dream of milk is especially favorable to a young married woman.
A dream of sour milk is an admonition to you to try to cultivate a more agreeable disposition.—Copyright, 1920.

Clown Suits Lead at Masked Parties Here

Indianapolis persons are going in stronger for fancy costumes.
There's no concrete explanation for the increased demand for "clown" party dresses, but more people are renting them than usual this spring.
Howard Anderson of the Indianapolis Regalia Company says business has never been better.
He claims one reason for the increased demand is school plays.
"There seem to be more shows and parties than ever in which fancy costumes are being used," he says.
Then, too, the Shrine party is coming soon and lots of them want something nifty.

Cash Co-Operative Store Cost Saver

"People are learning that it is cheaper to pay cash for things they buy," said E. C. Hunt, manager of the Nordyke & Marmion employee co-operative store, today.
The co-operative store opened Oct. 8. Since then it has been necessary to obtain larger quarters and the number of customers has risen to about 1,200 a day.
"It is a big success," added Mr. Hunt. The store sells only for cash.

The Brass Bed Opportunity of a Lifetime

We can not remember ever having seen brass beds offered at savings proportionate to these. The facts are just this—over a year ago we ordered a large number of fine brass beds. They have just come in—after many months of waiting. And we are now offering them on the exact basis of the prices at which we purchased them—last year's much lower prices. You would have to pay a greatly advanced price for the same beds, purchased at this year's figure.

$15.75 Other Beds in the Lot at Similarly Low Prices $39.75

Though the sale covers a wide range of prices, you can get an idea of the tremendous economies you can effect by purchasing a brass bed in this sale, when we tell you that the prices on these beds start as low as $15.75.

Of the beds illustrated here, Numbers 1, 2, 3 and 4—extra massive, with the heavy caps illustrated in each case, and coming in the rich dull finish with bright satin bands and heavy ornamental husks, are priced at the unexampled figure of $39.75.

The Daylight Corner

Says—

"This is certainly a great town for a laboring man. Considering population, more laborers own their homes than in any other city. Labor receives fair treatment. Let's start the propaganda, 'That Indianapolis is the real home of labor.'"
