

BLIND WOMAN GOOD PARTNER She and Father Conduct Pay- ing Grocery Here.

A woman can be a valuable business asset even though she is blind.

J. A. Dondana, grocer, 224 Koehne street, says so.

His daughter, Mrs. Dolly H. Roberts, 26, is in partnership with him.

She has been without eyesight since she was 2 weeks old, but that doesn't militate against her business ability in the least, her dad claims.

Dondana formerly conducted a grocery at West and Pearl streets.

When he opened his present place last year, he decided to sell his daughter a half interest in the business.

Mrs. Roberts earned her money singing.

"She's got more ability than most men with two good eyes," Dondana boasts.

"Business is a little slow now, but it's picking up."

SCHOOL WORK AT 'COST PLUS'

terms would be and I told him that. I could take the job on no other basis than on a basis of cost plus 20 per cent. He said that would be satisfactory.

NEW NOTHING ABOUT SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Mr. Cramer said he knew nothing of any provisions of the school board regarding the method of letting contracts and that he simply took the job as he would take a job from any other individual.

"Why did you divide your bill in two parts instead of presenting it all at one time?" he was asked.

"I did it because Mr. Rickes asked me to present it that way. I don't know what his purpose was. I turned over all of my bills for materials, labor and other expenses to Mr. Rickes and 20 per cent was added to the total. The bill might have been done 50 per cent cheaper, but good labor was hard to obtain and with poor labor the expenses naturally would have been higher."

"I understood Mr. Rickes asked me to do the work because he was unable to obtain men to do it under his direction."

Science Says Kiss at Night Is Safer

NEW YORK, March 25.—Kissing is insubstantially until sunshine and fresh air have sterilized the lips, Dr. Lawson Brown of Saranac Lake told the New York State Medical society yesterday to prove "it's a good thing for the human race that kissing is done at night and in the late afternoon."

"We selected a pretty young woman with a bad case of tuberculosis and had her kiss a sterile dish," the doctor said. "We found the morning kisses gave forth a few germs, but those in the afternoon and evening were a pretty healthy risk."

No one has offered any criticism of the work done by Mr. Cramer, and among these persons who have dealings with the school city since George C. Hill became its business expert, express no surprise at the "cost plus" method of payment.

CONTRACTORS SMILE AT METHOD EMPLOYED.

The legality of the method, the fact that the work was never authorized by the school board and the splitting up of the bills for payment appear to be the only peculiarities about the plastering on school No. 59, but a wide grin passes over the face of every contractor when he considers the possibilities in the methods approved by Mr. Hill.

Nothing has transpired yet in school circles to indicate that other jobs of repairs will not be conducted along the same lines as this job.

Material and supply men, however, are a little puzzled over the possibilities that some taxpayer might bring suit to recover from them the full amount of money paid them illegally from the treasury of the school city.

They are all loud in their declarations that the school city got value for every cent they received.

Among those who want it known that the school city did not get the "worst of it" in dealing with him is Paul R. Jordan of Paul R. Jordan & Co., whose ventilators were used on school No. 59. Mr. Jordan says:

"The Aeroplane Rotary Ventilator is Headaches From Slight Colds.

manufactured under patents held by Paul R. Jordan & Co. of Indianapolis, and is marketed solely by them and not by Frank R. Jordan, as stated."

OTHER FEATURES.

He does not explain how it happened that payment for ventilators used on school No. 59 was made to F. M. Bowers & Sons Company, nor would he answer a direct question as to whether these particular ventilators were specified for the school building. He is, however, quite certain that these ventilators have in the past, been specified by the school board architects and have been approved by many authorities.

Mr. Jordan expresses the opinion that a revelation of the fact that no specifications for these or any other ventilators have been made public by the school's business director is a reflection on his particular product and he hastens to remark "that Paul R. Jordan & Co. have a recognized standard selling price on the aeroplane rotary ventilator and that the amount of money paid by the Indianapolis school board for the three ventilators used on school No. 59 was substantially below the standard price for these ventilators, or for any standard ventilators of the rotary type."

Mr. Jordan, however, does not dispute the statement that his ventilators, as well as other materials, were purchased without advertising or competitive bidding as the law requires.

Hull Murder Case Up Again Monday

The second attempt of Prosecutor Charles Adams to convict Capt. Gabriele D'Annunzio and the Piume national assembly have decided to proclaim Fiume to be a republic, but probably will not take this action until after the meeting of the supreme allied council at San Remo, Italy, on April 21.

At the first trial several months ago the jury is said to have disagreed on the penalty, whether the electric chair or life imprisonment.

Sergt. Hull was fatally shot when leading a squad of police in a raid on a negro gambling house last fall.

FUME TO BE REPUBLIC.

ROME, Italy, March 25.—Capt. Gabriele D'Annunzio and the Piume national assembly have decided to proclaim Fiume to be a republic, but probably will not take this action until after the meeting of the supreme allied council at San Remo, Italy, on April 21.

STOCKING BANK ROBBER.

AKRON, O., March 25.—Mrs. Fanny Sheridan refused to give her money to highwaymen, who then knocked her down and took $60 from her stockings.

HAAG'S CUT-PRICE DRUGS

Another Big Cut in the Price of Drugs

For years the Haags were loyal to the people of Indianapolis and central Indiana. The crowds of satisfied customers that can be found at all times in all the seven Haag Drug Stores prove that the general public is loyal to the Haags. As a token of appreciation of this kindly feeling another big reduction has been made in drugs and other merchandise. These can be bought cheaper every day and evening, including Sundays, in all the Haag stores since the war tax went in force. Before the war tax, these stores sold the $1.25 Pinkham Vegetable Compound for 89c, they now sell it for 79c. The $1.10 S. S. S. Blood Purifier for 74c, now 67c. Other goods in proportion. No mail orders filled at these prices.
