Orbison Says Sales of Booze Vanishing

The illicit sale of liquor in the central prohibition district is rapidly disappearing, according to Charles J. Orbison, prohibition director for Indiana, who has returned from a joint meeting of dry agents in Chicago.

Judge Orbison stated that reports to the effect that Maj. A. V. Dalrymple, supervising agent, was required to be accompanied by United States marshals on all raids was denied and orders to that effect had never been received by the major.

Program on Loyalty, State Legion's Topic

Consideration of the proposed national Americanization program of the American Legion will be considered Tuesday, April 6, by the Indiana state committee, at a meeting to be held in the Chamber of Commerce building.

Founding of American liberty courses in public schools, discussion by churches, clubs and societies and public lectures on Americanism are among the methods of campaign proposed.

Robert L. Moorhead of Indianapolis is chairman of the Indiana committee.

Deliciously Different

Think of the best home-made beans you ever tasted—luscious and flavor-full.

You can get beans of that kind simply by saying "PHOENIX" to your grocer.

Put them on your table once, and your family will DEMAND them, often.

Think, too, of the labor saved—for PHOENIX BEANS can be prepared almost "in the twinkling of an eye."

And they are economical—one of the few body-building, appetite-satisfying foods that have not advanced materially in price.

Make PHOENIX BEANS a member of your pantry-shelf family.

Furthermore, Phoenix Beans will serve to introduce you to the rest of the Phoenix line—Phoenix Coffee, Phoenix Peanut Butter, Phoenix Ketchup, Phoenix Red Kidney Beans, Phoenix Chili Sauce, Phoenix Canned Vegetables, Phoenix Canned Fruits.
