

SLAYER TO SERVE LIFE

Indianapolis Negro Guilty of Second Degree Murder.

Special to The Times.
SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 1.—Upshaw
"Big Boy" Northington, Indianapolis Negro, will spend the rest of his days in prison for the murder of Sergt. Wade Hull of the Indianapolis police department.

He was found guilty of second degree murder by a Shelby county jury, which reported at 10:30 o'clock last night.
Sergt. Hull was fatally wounded when he led a raiding squad into a negro gambling den in Indianapolis last fall.

Judge Alonzo G. Blair said he would pronounce sentence today.
When the verdict was read Northington laughed heartily.

"So long Bill," he mused as he received the news of his fate.

In the closing arguments Cloris Adams, Marion county prosecutor, drew from counsel for Northington, when he made a word picture of the crime.

Adams compared the slaying of Hull to that of Sergt. Maurice Murphy.

OBITUARY

Funeral Services

Held for J. L. Carr

Rev. W. O. Fifer officiated at the funeral services this afternoon for James L. Carr, 81, pioneer citizen of Indianapolis, who died at his home, 1925 North New Jersey street, yesterday.
Mr. Carr came to Indianapolis from Pennsylvania in 1879 and had for years been a collector of antiques and an authority on early Indiana history, his father having been Col. John Carr, who built one of the first blockhouses and stockades in the Hoosier state for protection against marauding Indian tribes.

Mr. Carr retired a few years ago, after having been engaged in the drug business at Nineteenth and Alabama streets for twenty-seven years.

He is survived by the widow, one son, Arthur B. Carr, of Indianapolis, one brother, John S. Carr, and a sister, Mrs.
Anna Lewman, both of Memphis, Ind.

Tripp Burial to Be in North Vernon

Funeral services for Ernest H. Tripp, resident and general manager of the Tripp Warehouse Company, who died at his home, 543 West drive, Woodruff Place, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at North Vernon, Ind.

Mr. Tripp was born at North Vernon,
Ind., in 1853 and was the son of Col.
Hagerman Tripp, who commanded the sixth Indiana volunteers, the first reg-

Honesty Has Its Peculiar Reward

LONDON, April 1.—A nurse here bought a string of pearls for $250, and wearing them at a social function, learned from an expert who saw them that they were very valuable.
He offered her $50,000 cash. She refused and returned to the jeweler the next day.

The jeweler said he had sold them by mistake and that they were worth $100,000. He said thank you, and gave her an imitation string worth $25.

ment to be organized in the state during the Civil war.

He was active in business life here for years, having organized the Union Transfer and Storage Company, and his death was due to heart trouble caused by overwork.

The deceased is survived by the widow, Mrs. Anna E. Tripp, a daughter, Mrs.
Fred Verburg of North Vernon, and a brother, A. A. Tripp of North Vernon.

Mr. Tripp was a member of the Scottish Rite Masons, the Columbia club, the Indianapolis Gun club and the Rotary club.

Mrs. Nora Huston's Funeral Tomorrow

Mrs. Nora D. Huston, 64, 220 West North street, who died at the Methodist hospital Tuesday, will be buried in Oldenburg tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Huston was born in Cork, Ireland, and after coming to this country with her parents, took up the study of telegraphy at the age of 14 years, having followed this occupation in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, as well as in Kutztown, Ind., and Indianapolis, where she was employed at the time of her death.

The deceased is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Beattie Huston Benjamin, Miss Donovan D. Huston of Indianapolis and Miss Jennie C. Huston of Kutztown.

Double Service for Church Organist

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah K. Sigmon, 34, who died at her home, 3212 Kenwood avenue, Tuesday following a brief illness, will be held at Mt. Vernon following services at the Garden Baptist church at 9:30 tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Sigmon was an accomplished musician, having studied at the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music and at the Cincinnati Conservatory, following which she became organist at the Garden Baptist church, where she had been an ardent worker for several years.

She is survived by the husband, Earl Z. Sigmon, whom she married in 1900; her mother, Mrs. Matilda Black, and a brother, Charles N. Black, both of Mt.
Vernon, Ind.
