LOWDEN, WOOD FIGHTING TODAY FOR ILLINOIS

Written-in Votes Expected to Figure Largely in State's Primaries.

CHICAGO RACE BITTER

CHICAGO, April 13.—Illinois was to indicate her preference for the presidency today—the choice being between a favorite son and a military officer. Interest in the election was confined to the republican party with Gen. Leonard Wood and Gov. Frank O. Lowden the only regularly named candidates. In the democratic party there were no presidential candidates. Interest there was confined to the selection of ward and precinct committeemen to run the party in the next four years and the naming of fifty-eight delegates to the national convention. The polls opened at 6 a. m. They were to close at 5 p. m. Because of a three-cornered fight in Chicago for control of the republican county committee interest was keen and the possibility of a maximum vote of 300,000 was seen. Less bitter fights being waged in downstate communities, it was believed the vote outside Chicago would not be much over 300,000. The possibility of written-in votes existed in both parties.

"There's a Reason"

Invest in Food—don't just buy it.

You invest your money only after careful analysis of the interest return on your investment. If you bought your food on the same principles—you would usually obtain your money's worth.

Many people buy food on a hit or miss plan. If it tastes good—it's all right, irrespective of the price or the benefit obtained from it. Milk is the best interest bearing investment of all foods.

Every drop of Milk does its work. It helps make red blood, and renews worn-out tissue. Milk contains substances known as Vitamins, which are absolutely essential to the health and growth of both children and adults.

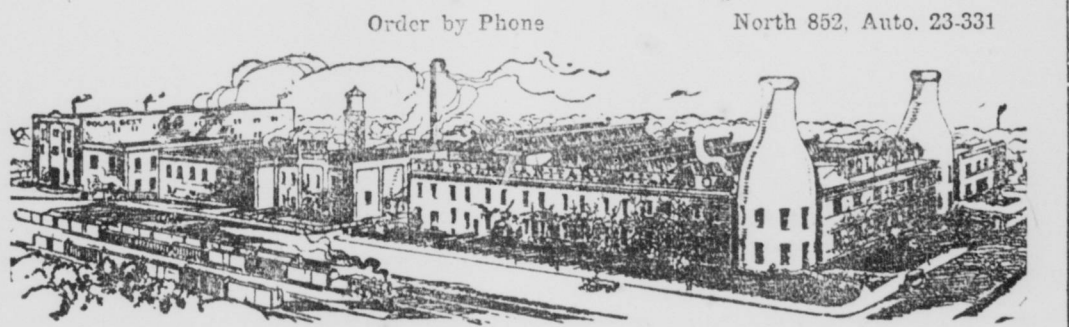

Milk is the perfectly balanced food containing all the essential food elements in their proper proportions.

"Every quart of Milk—contains the food value of eight Eggs; 76 lbs. of Fish; 75 lbs. of Sirloin Steak; 335 lbs. of Oysters; 6.65 lbs. of Asparagus; 6.55 lbs. of Tomatoes or 5.5 lbs. of Cabbage

Think it over—there is a great difference in cost between a quart of milk, and the price you pay for an equal food value from other products. Milk is the cheapest and best of all foods at the price you pay per quart in Indianapolis.

Order a quart a day for each of your children. When you invest in milk—you invest in good health.
