

NIBLACK PRIMARY BALLOT SUIT UP

Court Hears Arguments on
First and Second Choice.

Judge Louis Ewbank of the circuit court this morning heard arguments on the petition of Mason J. Niblack, a democratic candidate for the nomination for governor, for the granting of a mandamus order compelling the state election commissioners to give the voters ballots registering first and second choice for governor at the primaries May 4.

Counsel for Niblack filed an additional paragraph of complaint, alleging that the act is unconstitutional because it attempts to revise the law of 1915 without setting out the law in full, as is required by the constitution of Indiana.

Gov. James P. Goodrich, William H. Thompson and William Spencer, as election commissioners; James Fessler, Warren T. McCray, Edward C. Toner, John Sabarger, Carleton B. McCulloch and Mrs. Kirby Risk, all candidates for governor, are defendants to the suit brought by Niblack.

TO KEEP AWAY TEETH Stains and Tartar

Why is it so many persons, no matter how regularly they use the toothbrush, have unsightly stains and tartar on their teeth? The stains are discolored films which the usual dentifrices are powerless to remove with any amount of rubbing and scrubbing. And so often, these films, besides being so offensive to the eye, are a source of real danger. Beneath them germs find a fruitful breeding place—germs which are the principal cause of tooth decay, soreness and softening of the gums, besides producing digestive and intestinal disturbances.

Those who realize the seriousness of this condition will be glad to know they can easily remove every stain or discoloration and prevent the formation of more films (or "plaques," as dentists call them), as well as tartar, by using a wonderful new product, "Once-A-Week Tooth Polish." Nothing else will so thoroughly clean the teeth, banish every ugly stain and give that sparkling pearly whiteness so much admired. Once-A-Week Tooth Polish, which any druggist can supply, is perfectly harmless to the teeth. It is invaluable in the care of children's teeth.—Advertisement.

SOPRANO SHOWS PLEASING VOICE

By GRACE HUTCHINGS.
The Athenaeum male chorus gave its second concert of the season last night, presenting as soloist Mrs. Sophie Illing-Schmidt, soprano.

Mrs. Schmidt is a new resident of Indianapolis and this was her first professional appearance since coming here.

Mr. Schmidt, who is director of the Circle theater orchestra, played the accompaniment.

Mrs. Schmidt sang a program made up entirely of modern songs and displayed a voice of much richness and warmth of tone.

Also her interpretative ability was admirable. Her voice is best in its middle register and in dramatic songs.

The song "Stars Oracle," a composition of Mr. Schmidt, was interesting and well received.

The chorus sang with beautifully blended tone and dynamic effects.

Their singing of Burleigh's "Mother O' Mine" as an encore was their greatest achievement of the evening.

Alexander Ernestoff directed the chorus and Mrs. Frank Eidenbarter was the accompanist.
